Florida Executes Convict

RAIFORD, Fla. (UPI) — Convicted killer John Spenkelink was put to death today in Florida's electric chair, the first person to be executed in the United States since Gary Gilmore went before a firing squad in Utah in 1977. Spenkelink, who waged a 5 1/2year legal battle to escape the executioner, was strapped into the chair by his wrists, arms and legs shortly after 10 a.m. EDT. A black hood was dropped over Spenkelink's face and the first jolt hit him at 10:12 a.m. EDT, quickly followed by two more surges. The only indication he was being electrocuted came when he clenched his fist, which was resting on the arm

Restoring Electricity Difficult at Town Hall

MANCHESTER — With all the workers running around with hammers and other tools, a visitor might think the town tax assessor's office is being expanded.

But, the workers are town electricians and the electricians still were trying to solve the problem Thursday afternoon. Machines that run on electricity — such as the department's adding machines — have been looked into the air-conditioning

A capsule look at cinema

FILMETER is compiled by Dick Kleiner in Hollywood and the WINTER KILLS (R) — Jeff Bridges, John Huston, Anthony Perkins. Thriller. Based on the Richard Condon novel, this is an everlong and everblown story of a presidential assassination which is remarkably like the Kennedy assassination. It is also a story of a powerful family. Some effective and chilling sequences, but others most surrealistic and ludicrous. GRADE: C-plus. CHAMP, THE (PG) - Jon Voight, Faye Dunaway, Ricky Schroder, Drama, Director Franco Zeffirelli has dusted off the old classic about the ex-champ and his son and the rich lady who used to be the kid's mother. He pulls out all the stops — no sob is left unsobbed — and it's a treat for the love-to-cry set. But it is overlong and very over-sentimental. Young Ricky Schroder is the best child actor in years, however. GRADE: B.

DEER HUNTER (R) — Robert DeNiro, John Carale, John Savage, Meryl Streep, Christopher Walken. Drama. This is a powerful, memorable look at three Pennsylvania steel workers who go off to light in Vietnam, Director Michael Cimino bas created images you may never forget. It is too long and some of it is forced, but it remains a classic film. GRADE: A.

HANOVER STREET (PG) - Harrison Ford, Lesley-Anne Down, Christopher Plummer. Romance. This is for everybod who's been saying, "Why don't they make pictures like they use to"" Except for one brief nude scene, this could have been made in the '40s. It's World War II again, England, American aviators and English girls, honor and nobility, a little adventure, a lot of balderdash, GRADE: C.

LITTLE ROMANCE, A (PG) — Laurence Olivier, Arthur Hill, Saily Kellerman, Romantic comedy. This one will enchant you. A pair of teen-agers find each other, and find innocent romance, against a background of Paris and Venice. With lovely music and beautiful photography, this has fun, excitement and all those good things. GRADE: A.

LOVE AT FIRST BITE (PG) — George Hamilton, Susan Saint James, Arte Johnson. Comedy. You'll hate yourself in the morning, but you'll laugh while you're watching this spoof of the Deacula story. This time, Drack is back as a crack lover, in the present, and it's all done for fun. Enjoy. GRADE: B.

MANHATTAN (R) — Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, Michael Murphy, Marfel Hemingway, Romantic comedy. Allen is back in his personal groove — writing, directing, starring — and back in the area where he functions most wittly. That's the man-woman, husband-wife, boyfriend-girlfriend continuing war. This is done in black and white, and it's beautiful, funny and crisp. Only flaw: a little familiar, GRADE: B-plus. (Film grading: A — superb; B — good; C — average; D — poor; F — awful)

THANKS BLANCHARD & ROSSETTO

Each year we don our distinctive blue blazers and go forth into the neighborhoods of America. This year for two days, Saturday May 5th and Sunday May 6th, we walked the streets, we met the people. We didn't ask for listings, we asked for donations. You responded. And you responded generously. ERA' people collected more money than ever before, and at this year's telethon, we hope our donation will be over $1,000,000. All of it, every penny, goes to help lerry Lewis and his fight against muscular dystrophy. We did the walking. You made it worth the time and effort. For that we thank you sincerely. And so do Jerry's kids. ERA' REAL ESTATE

SAFE AND Memorial Day Weekend

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, 79. I live in the same apartment building with a very fine gentlemen. We've become very good friends. He is married but has a legal separation from his wife. She won't consent to a divorce unless he gives her a very large settlement, which he doesn't want to do as he figures he may outlive her. (She's 82 and he's 83.) I am not entirely at ease with this man since I am afraid his wife might sue me, and I have a pretty nice savings ac-count. She's very clever and I have heard that she still watches him like a hawk.

He takes me out to dinner, and I have him in for meals. We play a little cards, watch a little TV, and when it comes to romance, he is unbelievable! I think you get the picture, to romance, he is unbelievable. A just companionship but I'm not looking for trouble—just companionship.

BEA IN THE BRONX

DEAR BEA: Ask your lawyer how much "compa ship" the law allows a man in your neighbor's cir-cumstances. I think I get the picture, but if you aren't

DEAR ABBY: A reader in Tuscaloosa, Ala., asked about yawning, and you said, "It's usually an involuntary opening of the mouth when you wish others would shut theirs." On the contrary, Abby, yawning occurs when we are most nterested in what is being said. When we are tired and wish to stay awake, we yawn to get extra oxygen to keep us alert. Please abolish forever the false notion that yawning is rude. And from now on when a speaker sees someone in his audience yawning, he can be assured that his talk is worthwhile!

DEAR E.S.R.: Yawning in itself is not rude, it's leaving an open mouth uncovered that's rude. However, my widewake exports assure me that yawning is a sign of fatigue,

DEAR ABBY: I've been married less than a year and already realize it's not going to last. My problem is what to do with all the lovely wedding gifts. Our silver isn't even tarnished yet, but the cash has I feel guilty keeping the presents, knowing that this mar-riage was a mistake from the start. Now all we need is the courage to tell our family and friends.

Is it proper to return the gifts? How about the cash?

DEAR OVER: According to "The New Emily Post's Eti-quette" by Elizabeth Post (1975):
"Once the wedding has taken place, gifts are not return-ed, no matter how short the marriage. Strictly speaking, the presents belong to the wife, but the usual procedure is for the husband to keep those items that came from his own family and friends, and those particularly meaningful or useful to him, while his wife keeps the others."

CONFIDENTIAL TO "ANYONE FOR WHOM IT IS NOT YET TOO LATE:" The gestation period of a mother's advice is anywhere from one week to 50 years. Losing one's mother before having thanked her for the many precious things she taught you is one of life's greatest tragedies.

Vedding bells in your future? Whether your lifestyle is bridal gown or blue jeans, Abby lays it all out for you in her bookiet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents) self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Unfortunately for South, West was an alert and suspicious player. He had counted points and cards when he saw dummy. There were just 20 points for South and East. South needed 16 for his notrump. East could not have more than four. If he had four it would surely be an arc. If it were the acc of ♥ A K 4 ♦ Q 8 ♦ A Q J 5 Vulnerable: Both Dealer: South an ace. If it were the ace of clubs declarer was going to make a lot of tricks. If it West North East make a lot of tricks. If it were the ace of spades, declarer was going to be in for a shock.

West led a spade and wisely picked the only one that could lead to four spade tricks. He led the king. A second spade went to East's ace and the jack-nine took the next two. Pass 3 NT Pass
