By WALLY FORTIN

Hello there! Now that our hard working furnishing committee has completed a successful tag and bake sale. coming up with something like $2,026, you would think they deserve a rest. Not so. They are already starting to put together a Vegas night which will mean lots of fun for the participants and more of that much needed money for our furnishing equipment. We'll be telling you more about it in our next column, but we can say that our friends from the Army and Navy Club will sponsor the big gambling night with all the proceeds coming to us. As you read this column, the contractor for renovations will have completed his work, and the rest is up to us. There is still a lot of work to be done and once again we are calling out to you volunteers who would like to do a little painting, repair carpentry work and general cleaning, just drop on by the Green School on Monday morning around 9 a.m. Just because the contractor has completed his work doesn't mean that we will be moving in soon. In fact, unless we can come up with some large donations to help complete the job, we wan't get to moving until even later than September. We need monies for painting, refinishing the main floor, covering the dining room and carpet fo number of rooms.

So now, many of you members are asking the question Where are all those concerned citizens who have been quoted as telling them not to worry, the Senior Center will be finished? I'm not about to get in the middle of that question and leave it up to them to find out for

Meanwhile, we will keep working, doing as much as we can, however, we will be certainly be limited with only a few supplies left to work with.

Alright, let's get on with the action here at the center. We start with our Wednesday morning pinochle games. We had 40 players with the following winners: Sam Schor, 636; Paul Ottone, 612; Bob Hill, 588; John Phelps, 582; Ernestine Donnelly, 575; Grace Windsor, 573; Al Chellman, 571; Nadine Malcolm, 562; Bob Schubert, 561;

Floyd Post, 556. In the afternoon it was bridge games and the lucky prize winners are: Vivian Lesperance - 4.890, George Last - 4,720, Lantha Pikert - 3,920, Sara Wilson - 3,720 and Tom Regan - 3,420. Thursday rolled in and the two buses filled with seniors took off for a day to Gloucester-Rockport. Next trip will be the boat ride around New York City scheduled Tursday, July 17. Remember that our meals are back and will be for the next four weeks at least.

Here's the menu for the coming week Monday: corned beef hash with pineapple, peas, roll and butter, fruit, beverage Tuesday: Ham and cheese on rye, pickles and potato sticks, gingerbread, beverage sday: Closed. 4th of July. Thursday: Cold salad plate, roll and butter, pudding beverage. Friday: Grilled cheese sandwich, minestrone, Jell-O with fruit, beverage.

By the way, we are still looking for some help for our hard working bookkeeper, Pauline. Anyone who has had a little experience in bookkeeping, who would like to assist her with this very important work, just drop by our office and talk to Pauline about it.

Sick calls has Oscar Cappuccio in Manchester Memorial Hospital. Joe Grigolet is a patient at Mt. Sinai Hospital in Hartford. Card would be appreciated. Wednesday is the 4th of July and our center will be closed. We hope you all have a great day.

Schedule for the Week Monday: 8 a.m., senior golf league at the East Hartford Course. 10 a.m., kitchen social games. Noontime lunch served. 1 p.m., pinochle games. Bus pickup at 8:15 a.m., return trips at 12:30 and 3:30 p.m. Tuesday: Bus for shopping. Noontime lunch served. Return trip from shopping. Wednesday: Closed. 4th of July.

Thursday: Open shuffleboard games outdoors. Noontime lunch served. 1 p.m., Sing-along with Bernadette Noel. No bus today. Friday: 10 a.m., kitchen social games. Noontime lunch served, 1 p.m., setback games. Bus pickup at 12:30 p.m.

By Abigail Van Buren Ten Nays For

DEAR ABBY: After reading your Ten Commandments for Husbands and Wives, I decided to submit these Ten Commandments for Good Neighborliness: 1) Thou shalt love thy neighbor, but not his wife, nor shalt thou covet thy neighbor's house, or his car, or any other 2) Thou shalt keep thy dog, and thy stereo, and thy lawnmower quiet while thy neighbor sleepeth.

3) Thou shalt borrow from the neighbor rarely, and when thou doest, returneth undamaged and without delay that

4) Thou shalt not alloweth thy pets nor thy children to run amok, despoiling thy neighbor's lawn, flower beds and fence.
5) Thou shalt keepeth thy lawn green, thy fence painted and thy driveway uncluttered even as ye shall also keep thy vehicles in thy garage where they belong.

6) Thou shalt watcheth always for criminals and fires in thy neighborhood and guard thy neighbor's home and his Captain Easy - Crooks & Lawrence property even as thy own.

7) Thou shalt not useth thy home for any unsightly or ilegal activity.

81 Thou shalt always stand ready to help thy neighbor in his hour of true need, even as he does for thee. 9) Thou shalt not parketh thy camper, nor thy RV, nor thy van in the street where it blocketh thy neighbor's view and createth a safety bazard to all 0) Thou shalt not hold wild parties or orgies that lasteth until wee hours unless thou shalt inviteth thy neighbor, too.

ANONYMOUS IN OXNARD DEAR ABBY: I'll get right to the point. I am a very attractive 20-year-old girl and I've never had a boyfriend.
I've had many dates, but nothing has ever come of them because the guys always seem to want something in the end. My girlfriends tell me that if I were to give to a guy a few kisses it wouldn't hurt me, but I've tried that, and they are all over you in no time, and then you have a big fight on your

Also, why does a girl have to give a guy a REASON for refusing to go to bed with him? I am tired of trying to ex-plain that there is nothing wrong with me. (One guy offered that for a novel approach?) So how do I get a decent guy who just wants good company? I'm not about to give up what I'm saving for my wed ding night until I'm sure there's going to be a wedding . SAVING MYSELF IN S.C. DEAR SAVING: You can get a decent guy by being yourself. Don't lower your standards!

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 33-year-old woman who would have a very nice figure if I were filled out in the back. I am flat as a Someone said you once listed a place where a woman could The Flintstones - Hanns Barbera Productions get a mail-order fanny made of foam rubber padding that oked and felt like the real thing. Where is that place? FLAT IN HAGERSTOWN, MD.

DEAR FLAT: Write to Fredericks of Hollywood and ask for a catalogue. You'll be sitting pretty in no time.

Getting married? Whether you want a formal church wedding or a simple do-your-own-thing ceremony, get Abby's new booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents) self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Why The Precision Haircut Might Be Right For You.

If you hate the way your haircut disappears the day after, come to Command Performance where we specialize in the precision haircut.

Precision haircutting is our technique for cutting the hair in harmony with the way it grows. So, as it grows. It doesn't lose its shape. And because the hair is cut to fall naturally, you don't have to keep fussing with it. Usually a shake of the head does it.

The precision haircut with shampoo and blowdry costs just fourteen Jollars for guys and gals. We also offer permanent waves, coloring, frosting and conditioning. No appointment is needed, just come in. And you'll see that precision is right for you

STUNTED - I was watching "Sueprstunts II," and I was wondering where I could write to to find out nformation on what qualifications you need to become a stuntman. - Jim Gondek, Manitoba, Can-

Only recently, top stunt-man Hal Needham re-ported that an elite of 36 among Hollywood's 400 stuntmen and stuntwomen do 75 percent of all the stunt work in TV and movies. These 36 belong to Sunts Unlimited, which has taken on only two new members a year in the nine years of its existence. The monopoly, says Needham, is a field narrowed by expertise, not discrimination. Nevertheless, I think the figures speak for themselves. This is a very tough business, and there are no schools where you can learn to afely wreck cars, fall off building 1 arr. such. You're pretty m ch on your own in learning these skills, and then proving your good enough to play in the big leagues.

It's been great. I feel so lucky — especially doing what I love so much —

Mamma Ingrid did good

Ingrid Bergman's daughter, Isabella Rossellini, says she thinks people expect her to be maladjusted as a result of her parents' scandal-ridnance, marriage and divorce. In fact, she says in an interview in McCall's, "I think sometimes people are disappointed because I am happy. Mamma and Papa were divorced when I was five years old. I don't re-member the divorce. I remember only the dogs we had then, my games, my room, a doll that I liked. I remember no tragedy. Trag-edy belongs to adults." Isabella Rossellini's memory of her parents is of two hard-working careerists: "There they were, both matter-of-fact, kind people, extremely modest; they worked very hard."

And despite the rumormongering to the contrary, she asserts that her childhood was very secure. Her father's three wives "met one another frequently not as friends, exactly, but as preservers of the family's she can't seem to get any movie roles today. That's most unfortunate thing of all. Other actresses her age — she's 68 — work but she can't seem to find jobs here. She looks marvelous and is, as always, witty and wise and warm.

"I have seen Hollywood through many doors," says. "Each one opens on a different view. The first one I came through was the door for the young Irish girl. Then there was the door marked 'Star.' Then the one as Frank Sinatra's mother-inlaw (when Mia was Mrs. S.) and the one as Mia Farrow mother. And so many oth-

She works steadily - but on the stage. She just finished a much-praised "Pygmalion" here, and is moving on to Illinois for a brief engagement in "Morning's At Seven." She says she has been doing stage work pretty steadily now for the past 17 years. The last movie she made was "Never Too Late," in 1962.

"I just can't understand why I can't get any movie roles now," Miss O'Sullivan says. "Other ladies my age — Myrna Loy and Mildred Natwick work in films Natwick - work in films. I'm going to have a very serious talk with my agent about that. If he can't get me she says, somewhat sadly. She married director John Farrow and they had seven children — "but I lost one" - including Mia and Tisa, the two actresses in the brood.

"I realize," she says, "that because of the Tarzan films, I became part of the folklore of the world. Jane is as much a folklore character

Among other projects, Maureen O'Sullivan is currently writing her autobiography. She's taking it slowly. That's probably just as well - there is sure to be another door, and she should wait and see what's behind

Hugh Downs's $25 limerick

Isaac Asimov didn't know it at the time, but when he picked the best science-fic-tion limericks in an Omni magazine contest, Hugh Downs' ditty was among the favorites.

The prolific sci-fi author was asked by the magazine to help pick the winners from a semi-final list of 100 (4,000 were submitted), without names. By the time the weeding was over, Hugh Downs was among the 10

None of my family or friends can not think of the name of the program. Can you possible find out? -Mrs. H.E. Ingram, Fellows, Calif.

'Waterfront" first aired in 1954, which is a bit ago, but perhaps you caught it in syndication.

YES AND NO - Will you please tell me if the two young boys - Matthew Laborteaux and Patrick Laborteaux - that play on "Little House on the Prairie" are brothers? I love them both. - Ruth Reddith, Long Beach, Miss.

They are, and they aren't brothers, depending on how literal you want to be. Both were adopted as young children by the Laborteauxs, but were born to different biological

DOUBLE DUTY - I think I have an interesting question for you. I know a number of people have written to you about James Garner's old series "Nichols." But I have a more picky question about it. Did they kill Nichols off in the final episode? -Matt Lancaster, Tulsa,

Verrry interesting, but not so tough. "Nichols" was a favorite of mine. The way the producers had it figured, the show wasn't wowing them in the ratings because the main character, Nichols (James Garner), was a bit too cowardly and larcenous (it worked in "Maverick"). So they decided to bump him off in the last episode and replace him with his also played by Garner, but a more stern of jaw hero. The ploy didn't work, and neither Nichols made it into the fall of '72.

GUMSHOE - There was a TV show once, which I think only ran one year, about the detective Mike Shavne. Can you tell me who starred in it, and what year it was on? - Lou Frangello, Chandler, Ariz.

Richard Denning was the suave Miami-based private eye in the 1960 series. Helping him were Jerry Paris (now director of "Happy Days"), Patricia Donahue, Herbert Rudley and Gary Clarke. The and replace him with his technical director for the twin brother, Jim Nichols, show was Brett Halliday, who created the character in a series of mystery novels.

SHORT FOR WHAT? -What's Ricky Nelson's real name? I mean what's the Ricky short for? - D.D. Edwards, Salem, Mass.

How about Eric?
