Thus, it is no surprise that the bids, which were opened Friday, resulted in a variety of prices. The lowest possible price sub-mitted by the five firms is $91,028. The highest price is $207,000. Maurice Pass, director of general services, said. Davoren & Conneely Inc. of Hartford submitted the apparent low bid, ising a combination of the options listed in the bid package. But, the town still has to decide which method it wants to use for the storm drainage installation, Pass said.

The planned drainage improve ment includes a main that will run from the pond at Adelaide Road and Porter Street to the Oak Grove and Porter streets intersection. The nev line will hook into one previously in stalled along Oak Grove Street.

The town will have to provide a pump that will empty the pond when it reaches a high level. The pond has flooded in the past and caused problems in the Richard Road area The excess water from the pond will be pumped into the new line that runs to Oak Grove Street.

A more complex system originally had been planned to solve the problem, but funding for that was to have been provided with Community Development monies. Town residents voted April 17 to withdraw rom the Community Developmen

2. Publicize excessive price hikes in newspapers, on TV and radio, and in other local publications. Bring them to the attention of local and federal officials (Remember that President Carter's wage-and-price guidelines call for annual increases of only 7 percent.)

3. Develop and publicize "alternative shopping patterns" suggesting other stores and brands to fellow consumers. Organize co-ops, which already are sprouting successfully across the country. 4. Keep careful records of price increases and sent copies to presidential inflation fighter Alfred Kahn (c/o The White House, Washington, D.C. 20500) and, if you're so inclined, to COIN (Suite 413, 2000 P Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036).

Such actions address only one side of the inflation coin (no pun intended). The other - and I believe more important - side is political. If we don't want more of the same kind of inflation thunderbolts we're getting, simply must elect men and women at every level of governmen dedicated in action as well as rhetoric to reducing prices through cutting spending.

The Precision Haircut

If you hate the way your haircut disappears the day after, come to Command Performance where we specialize in the precision haircut.

Precision haircutting is our technique for cutting the hair in harmony with the way it grows. So, as it grows, it doesn't lose its shape. And because the hair is cut to fall naturally, you don't have to keep fussing with it. Usually a shake of the head does it The precision haircut with shampoo and blow dry costs just fourteen dollars for guys and gals We also offer permanent waves, coloring, frosting and conditioning. No appointment is needed, juscome in. And you'll see that precision is right for you.

INTRIGUING LOVE

Omar Sharif is a Russian spy who grows very attached to English official Julie Andrews in "The Tamarind Seed" – but is he after her love or her government secrets? The movie will have its television premiere on ABC, Sunday, July 8.

'Topper' 2

Kate Jackson and Andrew Stevens began production on location in Los Angeles this week on their 'Topper' movie, a contemporary retelling of the 1937 film classic, for airing on ABC. Their company, Cosmo Productions, is filming the movie.

They'll appear as Mar-ion and George Kerby, rich and happy sophisticates who are killed in a car accident and, at the pearly gates, discover they just haven't performed enough good deeds to get in. They return to earth as ghosts to improve their "good deed"
