Mammoth Catalog Out

By RUSS MacKENDRICK Hard on the heels of the new Red Book as reported here last week comes the 1980 edition of the mammoth "Standard Catalog of World Coins" by Chet Krause and Cliff Mishler. This is the sixth appearance of the so-called "phone book." It is fully as large as the Hartford directory or an old-time Sears Roebuck

The publication describes and prices 71,000 coins with illustrations of 35,000 of them in their actual sizes. Mintage statistics are given when available and the coins are pin-pointed by date, mint and variety. In general, each coin is listed in several year conditions with its present market value in dollars.

Do the same episodes of "Laverne & Shirley" that you watched last February rub you wrong when you see them for the third time after a long day at the

You are not alone. The rerun blues strike vacationers and stay-at-homes with equal intensity.

One cure is to get out your readers' guide and see what movies are playing. This week's films range from the 16th-Century costume drama "Anne of the Thousand Days" to the riveting chase film "French Con-nection II."

All three networks are running films on Sunday,

On ABC it's "War Games," starring Brian Keith, Tony Curtis and Suzanne Pleshette. The cold war between an Army Base and a neighboring town turns hot and hilarious when two soldiers borrow a tank and wage comic combat with the town's private army.

CBS is reeling the final chapter of "Moses the Lawgiver" this Sunday. The Israelites encounter the final obstacles separating them from their promised land, a resting place their leader Moses is not destined to enjoy with them. Anthony Quayle por-tryas Aaron, Ingrid Thulin plays Miriam, and Irene Papas plays Zipporah.

Moses, who has helped overcome all the barriers to his people's progress, is an aged and tired leader. The people are beginning to reject his authority and his strict enforcement of their laws. Unshaken in his eliets, Moses tries to save ation of Israelites is ready to enter their land. Moses leaves his people to climb Mt. Nebo, where, alone, the indomitable leader glimpses the reality of the future and sees that his task is over.

At NBC, "The Big Event" feature is "Plea-sure Cove," starring Tom Jones and Constance Forslund. Hoping for adventure and a new challenge, Kim Parker (Forslund) ingeniously talks herself into the job of assistant manager at Pleasure Cove, an island resort where everyone's dreams the body. are fulfilled. On Monday, the CBS doc-mentary "The Body umentary "The Body Human: The Vital Connection" will be rebroadcast. This Peabody Award-winning dramatic informational special explores the brain and nervous system through unique photographic techniques and focuses on the personal dramas of three real people faced by different breakdowns in this intricate interrelationship of the brain with the rest of Richard Burton and The historical drama focuses on an era in the tumultuous reign of England's King Henry VIII. The 1969 Universal Pictures release was nominated for 10 Academy Awards and won the Oscar for Best Costume Design. The film, which is based on Maxwell Anderson's Broadway play, follows King Henry's courtship of Anne, his divorce from his first wife, and his subsequent dismissal and execution of Anne.

On Tuesday, July 24, CBS is offering "The Hawaiians," a sequel to "Hawaii" which aired last week. The epic story of the mainland families who settled in Hawaii and made it an American Pacific outpost stars Charlton Heston and Geraldine Chaplin.

At NBC the Tuesday flick is "Billy: Portrait of a Street Kid." LeVar Burton portrays a ghetto youngster whose efforts to make a better life for himself through education are complicated when his girlfriend becomes pregnant. Tina Andrews play the girlfriend and Michael Constantine plays the veterinary for whom Billy works.

Perhaps one of the best shoot-em-up films, "French Connection II," airs on Wednesday, July 25. Gene Hackman stars as Popeye Doyle in this hardhitting sequel to "The French Connection." Alain Charnier (Fernando Rey) was never apprehended and has retreated to France to rebuild his narcotics empire. Obsessed with his capture, Popeye Doyle appears in Marseilles to finish the job of busting up Charnier's multimillion-dollar international heroin-smuggling
