President Carter's Middle East envoy Robert Strauss and Egyp-tian Prime Minister Mustafa Khalil reported a general accord today to "step up the tempo" of the negotiations with Israel on Palestinian autonomy.

Strauss, who returned to the Middle East Sunday for his second visit in less than a month, met for three hours in Cairo with Khalil, who leads the Egyptian side at the autonomy negotiations.

Strauss, who leaves Tuesday for Israel, said afterward: "I think we leave here with a general accord that will serve us well."

Teacher Hearing Delayed

HARTFORD (UPI) - A court hearing on whether striking Southington teachers should be jailed for their illegal walkout was postponed today while the two parties met in the state education commissioner's office.

A spokesman for the Southington School Board, attorney Lawrence Campane, said union and board negotiators were talking about protecting the striking teachers from retaliation and submitting the contract to binding arbitration.

A walkout by New Britain's 660member Federation of Teachers was averted by a matter of hours today when negotiators reached a tentative agreement at 4 a.m. A vote on whether to ratify the pact has been set for Wednesday.

Hartford Superior Court Judge John Daly indefinitely postponed a court hearing with the Southington teachers that had originally been scheduled for 10 a.m.

SEA President Donald Demers and four other union officials were served subpoenas Friday, telling them to go to court to explain their defiance of a Superior Court back-to-work order.

Negotiators for the 470-member Southington Education Association and the School Board were meeting in the office of Mark Shedd, commissioner of the state Department of Education.

Bargaining talks had broken down Sunday after 28-hours.

Shedd has urged both sides to continue talks throughout the strike. which is the first teachers' walkout in Southington's history The teachers refused to return to work

Campane, the lawyer for the School Board, said the teachers want wants a three-year agreement.

Southington shut down its two junior high schools and high school today because they couldn't find enough substitute teachers to staff the classrooms. Only three of 470 teachers have been working during the strike.

Bank Will Expand Parking

By CHARLIE MAYNARD Herald Reporter

MANCHESTER - Heritage Savings and Loan Association has signed an agreement to buy the halfacre parcel at the corner of Cottage and Oak streets for its own parking facility, President William Hale said this morning

Hale said he signed an agreement last Thursday to purchase the property for $35,000 and also put down a deposit. He said the spot is an attractive area and would provide excellent parking facilities for the financial institution's employees.

The decision adds a new wrinkle in an attempt by town officials to secure the property for downtown parking. Faith Healed Miss America

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Miss America, Cheryl Prewitt, claims she prayed at a faith-healing Bible meeting then watched her mutilated leg grow back to Miss Prewitt, who as Miss Mississippi was crowned Saturday night, made her tearful stroll down the runway of Convention Hall as Miss America 1980. It was after a car accident when she was 11 — which left one leg savagely crushed and two inches shorter than the other — that doctors said she would never walk again. Miss Prewitt said when she was 17, she prayed at a faith-healing Bible meeting in Jackson, Miss., and her shortened leg grow back to normal "in a matter of

"It was a miracle," said the 22-year-old blue-eyed, born-again Christian at a news conference Sunday, the day after she was crowned Miss America.

Miss Prewitt, who was reared in the small town of Ackerman, Miss., ("We just got the road paved.") has traveled extensively throughout the South as a gospel singer with her family.

She was the only contestant in Saturday's pageant to

"I want my world to change and to progress, and Mis-America will help that," she said. Discussing public affairs. Miss Prewitt said she had voted for President Carter, another born-again Christian, n the 1976 election. She said she does believe there is an "energy shortage" and urged her countrymen to "turndown the thermostat and switch out the lights when you leave your home." She also spoke about the recent Ku Klux Klan rallies around the country, saying a recent Klan march in Alabama, reversing the march by civil rights workers led by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., was the Klan's "They are marching down, not up," she said.

Energy Program Set for Vernon

VERNON - The elementary schools in Vernon have been accepted to participate in a program funded by the federal Department of Energy and implemented cooperation with St. Joseph College. The program designed to develop an energy education program. A team of three resource persons from each of 20 selected school systems in Connecticut will assess the energy education needs of their region and bring helpful information and materials to the attention of fellow teachers.

The energy resource team will have as representative from Vernon, Lynn Peterson, Northeast School; Mary Nicholas, Skinner Road School; and John Bellino, science supervisor for the school system. The team will participate in three initial conferences to be held at St. Joseph College this fall and in three additional conferences in the second semester, in February

Albert J. Kerkin Jr., assistant superintendent of schools, said the conferences will focus on an in-depth understanding of the nature and magnitude of the energy problems and possible solutions. He said they will also focus on materials which have been developed and their possibilities for incorporation into the curricula of

The teams will plan for two in-service workshops for fellow teachers in their respective school districts, one between mid-October and mid-December and the other between mid-March and mid-May. The college faculty will cooperate in the local workshops in whatever way the teams will find helpful, Kerkin said.

Educators To Hear Bus Route Appeals

MANCHESTER — At least nine appeals of school bus route changes will be reviewed by the Board of Education

when it meets tonight at 8. Since the board's Aug. 27 decision to revamp the bus routes, parents have submitted their appeals in writing to ask reconsideration. Most of the appeals concern bus stop consolidations for elementary students.

The board agreed to eliminate five routes because of energy conservation measures. It reaffirmed a "maximum walking distance" policy which had not been strictly enforced in previous years. Students walking to school are high schoolers who live within two miles or at least one and a half mile of school and elementary students who live within at least a mile of school.

Barbershop Singers To Open Fall Season

MANCHESTER - Manchester's barbershop harmony singers start the fall season tonight with an open house at the Manchester Recreation Center off Keeney Street. The evening will feature entertainment by the Silk City Chorus, a special appearance by a guest quartet, and light refreshments. The event is open to area men interested in singing four-part harmony. Wives and friends

The barbershoppers currently are preparting two local appearances — one Sept. 29 for the Manchester Historical Society and another Nov. 2 for the Bolton Scholarship

The group also is preparing to appear in Montreal Oct 28 at the barbershop harmony society's northeastern dis-trict chorus competition. In January the men will appear at Grossinger's Resort in New York in a special performance for the benefit of the Institute of Logopedics, research center for children with voice diseases. The chorus also has scheduled its annual parade of harmony at Manchester High School for Jan. 19, 1980. making your home truly energy efficient. As part of the National Energy Watch (N.E.W.), a broad energy conservation program, we have some simple suggestions that could help you save money... and sleep more soundly.

Keep your water heater warm and it will work better.

Just as you sleep warmer on chilly nights when you add an extra blanket, so will your hot water heater work more efficiently if you cover it with a blanket of insulation. While you're at it, blanket your pipes, too; and you'll have more Another way to reduce costs is to place your hot water heater in an area that is warm and as near as possible to the point where the water leaves the tap. The less pipe you have, the less heat you lose. Finally, if you lower the tank from 150° to 120°, you could save up to 9% on your water heating costs.

Controlled water heating...what is it?

Controlled water heating means that your water is heated during 'off peak' hours, 11pm-7am. So you have plenty of hot water, but pay considerably less for it. All you need is a special meter which Northeast Utilities will install free. Your only expense will be for electrical wiring. You can get a controlled water heater meter if you have an electric water heater with a tank capacity of 80 gallons or more.

Learn more about controlled water heating and other (N.E.W.) energy-saving tips by writing: Ralph Marrone, Northeast Utilities, P.O. Box 1953, Hartford, Connecticut 06144

At Northeast Utilities we've increased our efficiency and cut costs. Now we want to help you save more money... and sleep more soundly.

Services Wanted OVERNIGHT BABYSITTER By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to DESPERATE WIFE, who came home early and found her husband in bed with his best friend tanother malel, was not very well thought out. You "Bisexuality is a fact of life that can occur in any family. Give him up graciously, he has already consciously Abby, if he had been a wonderful husband for 18 years.

and a great father, as she stated, she should have been encouraged to try to save her marriage rather than demolis Granted she is in shock, and granted there has been deception on his part, but she isn't the only woman in the world who's married to a gay man. If she lives in a big city, there is a mental health clinic and a gay community service agency which can put her and her husband in touch with a support group for gay married men and their wives. Counselors will help them deal with the realities of their marriage and show them how to build a new relationship based on honest and open communication. Or they may cor clude that it's best to separate. But at least they should consider the alternatives instead of scrapping the marriage. I am sorry that you viewed the situation as hopeless. I

DEAR GAILY MARRIED: Although my answer was thought) very well thought out, a surprising number readers wrote to say that they are happily married bisexual mates, and my advice was way out in left fiel

DEAR ABBY: I'm sorry DESPERATE WIFE didn't ask ME for advice instead of you. I have been happily married to a bisexual man for 33 years and have no regrets. We raised four wonderful children who knew nothing of their father's proclivity until they were grown and able to understand it. None of them love him any less for it, and all are hetero-I knew my husband was gay when I married him but I never felt threatened by it. He was 38 and I was 34. We are both in the theater. I could bet my life he has never had an affair since our marriage.

If I had caught my husband in the arms of another man at any point in our marriage I would no more have considered cing him than I would had I caught him with a woman He's a fine, beautiful man who by nature is able to relate sexually to both sexes, which is not as rare as most people NAMELESS, PLEASE, IN N.Y.C.

DEAR ABBY: As a neuro-psychiatrist, I have had many married bisexual male patients. Most of them were vigorous, successful men in high-paying positions with intelligent, good-looking wives. In every case there also were healthy, well-adjusted children. There was a close rap-port between these patients and their families for years until circumstances forced the skeletons out of the closi In every case the wife preferred to continue in the marriage. Not one man I ever treated was willing to give up his homosexuality - but he didn't want to give up his wife either. Such individuals seek help only when they get arrested, lose a lover or are exposed for some reason. DESPERATE WIFE may have wanted only your confirmation of her wish to keep her husband; you let her down

DEAR PHYSICIAN: Possibly, But the fact that the hus band had an affair in his own home tells me that perhaps he WANTED to get caught and end the closet capers.
