

Voter Registration Explained in Bolton

BOLTON - Anyone interested in voting in the presidential primary in March should make sure they are registered with the party in which they want to vote, said Ivi Cannon and Jean Gately, Democrat and Republican registrars of voters respectively.

Hebron PZC Mulls Plan of Subdivision

HEBRON - The Planning and Zoning Commission, at its meeting Tuesday, discussed a preliminary proposal for a subdivision of the Peter Rutko property at the corner of Grayville and Old Colchester roads.

The zoning regulations require that both percolation and deep pit tests be done between Feb. 1 and May. John Hibbard, commission chairman, said that he feels it would be necessary to work the property to see what the land is like before any suggestions could be made on the layout and development of the site.

Another proposed one-lot subdivision for Paul Leslie Coates on Blackman Road, was also brought before the commission Tuesday night and Richard Mihok requested a five-lot subdivision for the property of Wayne Miller on Main Street.

Mihok said that test pits and percolation tests were done last April on these lots. The plans call for one year with a driveway passing over the end of wetlands adjacent to the Dennis Shea property.

Both of these proposals are to be finalized by Mihok and brought before the commission at its Sept. 25 meeting at which time it is expected a date will be set for a public hearing.

The commission named Joseph Morocco of Hall Road as its representative on the Water Pollution Control Authority, which was established by a town meeting in July.

Aid Pledged To Storm Victims

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) - President Carter, awed at the destruction wrought by hurricane Frederic, said Friday the storm's blitz of the Gulf coast was a "catastrophe" and that property damage caused by Frederic might exceed the $1.5 billion devastation of Camille ten years ago.

"We're all in it together," the president said, pledging federal aid to the scores of communities and tens of thousands of people who lives the storm has touched since it crashed ashore Wednesday between Mobile and Pascagoula, Miss. with 130 mph winds and 15 foot storm tides.

Carter flew to Mobile Friday morning and then made a 2 1/2 hour helicopter tour of the ravaged coastline between Pascagoula and Pensacola, Fla., meeting with the governors of Florida, Alabama and Mississippi. He praised the mass evacuations that preceded Frederic, saying the precautions saved perhaps hundreds of lives.

"Thank the Lord, Jimmy, we were saved," one Mobile resident told the president on his arrival.

Carter's inspection route took him to the Ingalls shipyards at Pascagoula, over heavily damaged Dauphin Island, where the Alabama Gov. Fob James has a beach residence, and over the badly battered community of Gulf Shores, Ala.

At the huge Ingalls yards, where many of the Navy's ships are constructed, Ingalls President Leonard Erb told Carter there was not a complete roof left on a building in the entire yard.

Many of the areas the president flew over looked like ghost towns from the air, with neighborhoods deserted and huge parking lots at shopping malls standing empty.

"Our hearts go out to those who suffered so much in hurricane Frederic," the president said upon completion of his tour in Pascagoula.

"I have just come from Pascagoula where hundreds and hundreds of homes once were, there no homes at all. It is impossible to tell even where the building blocks were located."

The president pledged to the hurricane victims that "the country will not forget you," but, in an apparent plea for stricter building set-back lines along the water's edge, he added, "I hope we'll be looking forward to the future with caution and building upon our experiences."

The president said he had asked Congress for $500-million additional for flood damage, and said Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., had pledged to help speed legislation to passage.

Although the president said early damage estimates indicated Frederic might have been as destructive as Camille, the cost in terms of lives was much less.

Talmadge 'Denounced' By Ethics Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Senate Ethics Committee Friday "denounced" Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., for financial misconduct and said it will ask the Justice Department to consider criminal charges against him.

The action - harshest against a sitting senator in 12 years - was approved by a unanimous vote of the panel.

The panel said certain charges before the committee, if true, would be crimes, and that it will turn over its files to the Justice Department "for such action as the attorney general of the United States may feel to determine if violations of law have occurred."

Talmadge, who is up for re-election next year, said he was "pleased" the committee did not make a harsher recommendation and considered the decision a "personal victory."

Before voting on its final recommendations, the committee rejected on a 5-1 vote to propose by Sen. Harrison Schmitt, R-N.M., that Talmadge be censured - the strongest disciplinary action available short of expulsion from the Senate.

Schmitt said he will file his own report with the Senate explaining why he believes Talmadge should be censured. He said committee lawyers who prepared the case "did in my opinion establish clear and convincing evidence of knowledge on the part of Senator Talmadge and the action of his subordinates."

reprehensible and tends to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute and is hereby denounced.

The members of NRTA-AARP are very active. The conference held in Hartford was the fifth of six that are planned for this year. The next forum is to be in California. One woman at the conference told reporters the group travels once a month for nine months of the year.

Said Lawrence, "I worked in the insurance business for 40 years. When I retired, for the first few months I wasn't very active. Then I got involved in this organization. I'm sure my life is as active as any young persons."

Talks Stepped Up

DETROIT (UPI) - General Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers, facing a midnight strike deadline, made a last ditch effort to reach a contract settlement Friday in round-the-clock bargaining.

Accord Reached

WETHERSFIELD (UPI) - Company and union negotiators Friday reached a tentative settlement of a 21-week strike by 3,500 workers at Fair Bearing Co. plants in Newton and New Britain.

Big Implications Found in N-Mishap

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI) - Two psychiatrists said Friday in the first report on the impact of Three Mile Island on surrounding residents that the nuclear accident last March had major psychological and philosophical implications.

"It was unanticipated, it was unprecedented, it was non-discriminating and it was unmanageable," said Dr. Enos D. Martin of the Pennsylvania State University's College of Medicine.

"There were no boundaries to our fears. That contributed to the intense anxiety that perhaps everybody felt."

Martin and Dr. Joyce D. Kales, associate professor of psychiatry at the college located 10 miles from Three Mile Island, said that perhaps one of the greatest effects of the accident has had on people psychologically is a sense of a loss of invulnerability, a loss of a feeling of security and that all is well.

Your Neighbors' Views: Would you like to see Ted Kennedy run for president?

Ultran Quinn, Vernon - "I don't care. By the time things get going, I won't even be around. I am 70 years old."

Sanford Plepler, Manchester - "Absolutely. Carter is a disaster. Kennedy is what is needed to revitalize the party. Carter can't win."

John Halverson, Manchester - "Yes he should. He has better views than most of the candidates and he knows what he is doing."

Sandy Herlihy, Manchester - "I think he would be good. But I am afraid what might happen to him because of what happened to his brothers."

Carolyn Clark, Manchester - "No I don't like the idea. I think he is just resting on his name."

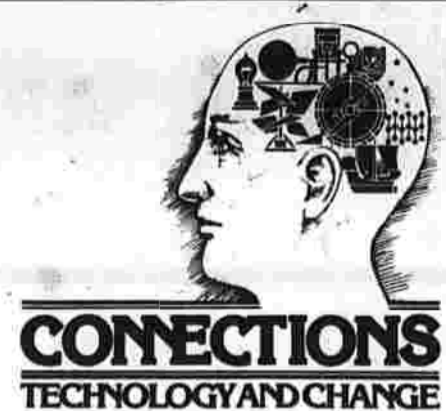

Lorraine Aceto, Manchester - "Yes, I think he should. All of the Kennedys have been primed for this."

The Silent Revolutions

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of 15 articles exploring "Connections: Technology and Change." This series was written for Courses by Newspaper, a program developed by University Extension, University of California, San Diego, and funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

CONNECTIONS TECHNOLOGY AND CHANGE

By PETER F. DRUCKER

Major technological developments - from television and computers to satellites and nuclear energy - are profoundly affecting the way we live. They are thereby causing concern about the social impact of technological change.

The First Civilization But perhaps the most important example of the connection between technology and social order is the first "civilization," that of the irrigation cities of antiquity - of Egypt along the Nile 5,000 or 6,000 years ago; of Mesopotamia about the same time; of the Indus Valley, 1,000 years or so later; and of Southern China, from which Chinese civilization arose 4,000 years ago.

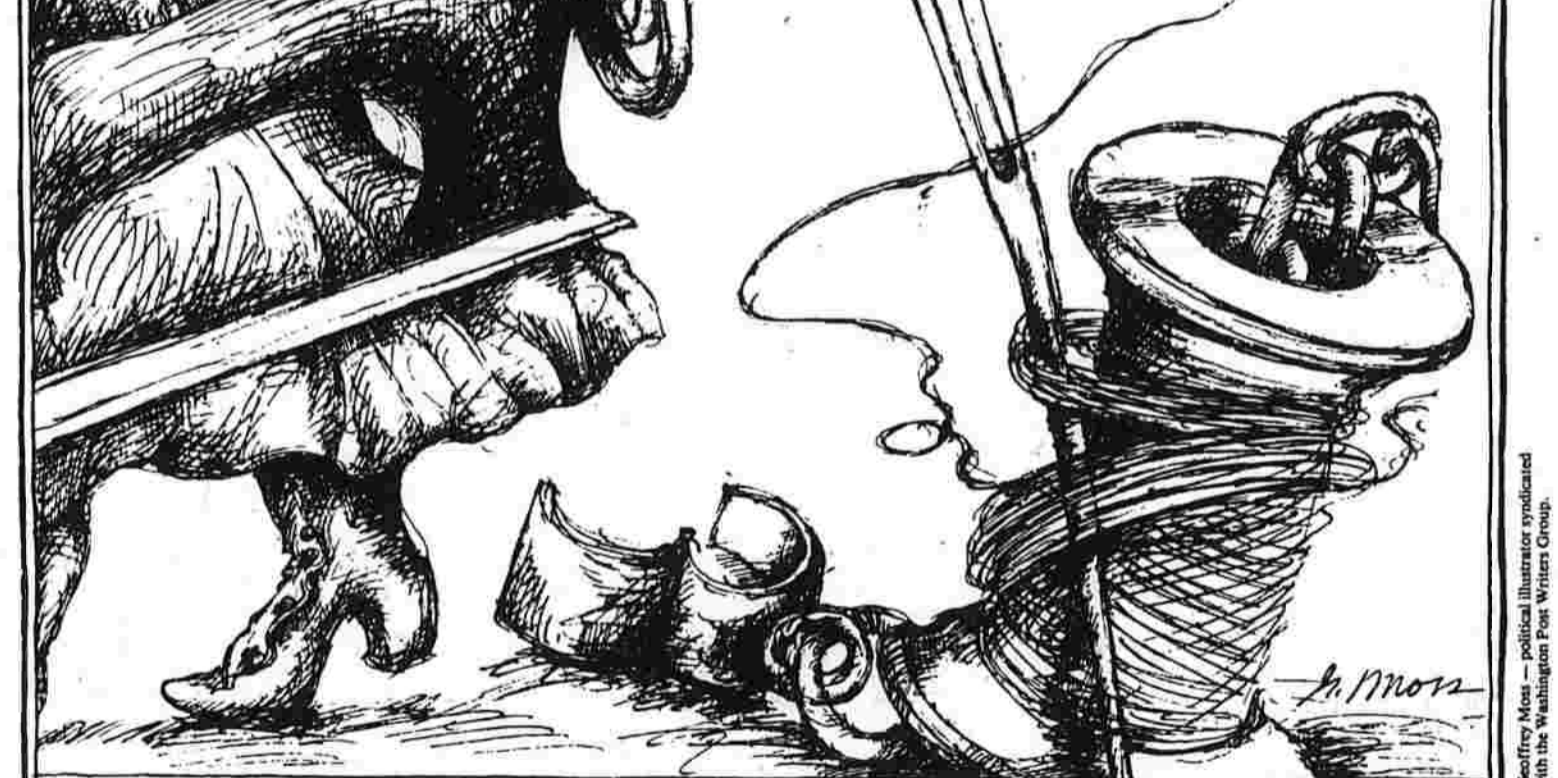

The Spinster

But the underlying cause of these tremendous social changes was a technological innovation in France - the spinning wheel. With it came the "spinster" - actually, anyone who spins, although we use the word today to denote an unmarried woman who is no longer young.

Above all, irrigation developed city and citizen. It developed a common deity, where there had been only tribal gods. And from this came the belief in a universal God of all mankind, and indeed the idea of "Mankind" itself.

The Second Women's Lib

The second "women's liberation," that of today, also has its roots in technological innovation - in the sewing machine, the typewriter, and the telephone. Before the sewing machine was invented, a little over 100 years ago, sewing was the hardest, most time-consuming job of the housewife.

About the Author

Peter F. Drucker has been Clarke Professor of Social Science and Management at Claremont Graduate School (California) since 1971. He previously taught in the Graduate Business School of New York University, where he still serves as Distinguished University Lecturer.

Technology and Society

These examples show, first, that technology is not something outside of society. It is society itself. But it does not "determine" society and culture. It must fit both to become effective technology.

Hebron Lists August Lists

HEBRON - The Hebron Volunteer Fire Department responded to 37 calls during the month of August. Of these calls, one was for a structure fire; 5 automatic alarms; 4 for stand-by at other departments; four for downed wires; six mutual aid calls; and one each for an electrical problem, a car fire, and a service call.

League Plans Annual Event

VERNON - The Vernon League of Women Voters will hold its annual membership luncheon Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the home of Anette Borenstein, 16 Gleestone Drive.

Board Meeting

HEBRON - The Executive Board of the Hebron Cooperative Nursery School, Inc. will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Phelps Hall. All members of the school are invited to attend the board meetings.

Child Meetings

ANDOVER - Child conferences for children from birth to age five from the towns of Hebron, Andover, and Columbia, are held the first Thursday of the month, from September to June, at the Andover Congregational Church, Route 6.

Questions

According to Drucker, the hardest, most time-consuming task for the housewife a little over 100 years ago was: (a) ironing (b) sewing (c) harvesting (d) soapmaking

News for Senior Citizens

By WALLY FORTIN Hi. Come Monday and we officially start our fall season. Here are some of the new programs. First of all, our meals will be served Monday, Wednesday and Thursday and Friday, times for this and all our programs will be found in the schedule at the end of the column.

On Tuesday morning, we have square dancing upstairs and oil painting downstairs. Happy Hal Petschke is back calling the squares while Kay Hendrickson is back with the oil painting and she mentions that there is room for beginners, however, they must come to the first two sessions because after that it will be too late.

On Thursday along with our sit-down meal at noon, we start our afternoon Fun Day and feature the always popular Sunshiners. Friday morning is ceramics class again.

Now there is a nominal charge for square dancing. The only charge for oil painting and crewel is for the supplies needed. And no charge for the exercise class.

O.K. now, back to Monday. In the afternoon we start with our popular exercise class for both men and women with our super good friend Cleo Livingstone in charge.

Wednesday morning is our crewel embroidery class with Rosemary Cornelius again instructing.

Crash Hurts Prisoner, Counselor

HARTFORD (UPI) - A paroled prisoner on his way to a job interview and his counselor were injured when a state car they were in and two trucks collided on Interstate 91 in Hartford.

Injured in the accident Friday were parole counselor Francis Liebel, 36, of the Springfield, Mass. area and inmate Kenneth Mackin, 28. They were treated at St. Francis Hospital for minor injuries and released.

Criminal Probe Ordered In Elvis Presley's Death

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) - Tennessee authorities Friday ordered a criminal investigation of Elvis Presley's personal physician amid reports the legendary entertainer died of a drug-induced death.

District Attorney Hugh Stanton said the investigation grew from a complaint from state health officials that Dr. George Nichopoulos may have illegally prescribed thousands of stimulants, depressants and painkillers for the late rock 'n' roll star.

Nichopoulos broke state law by issuing thousands of prescriptions to Presley and others. Police Director E. Winslow Chapman immediately placed the white-haired physician under 24-hour police protection because "he has had several serious threats."

Stanton said the investigation was prompted by a complaint from state health officials that Nichopoulos prescribed more than 5,000 stimulants, depressants and painkillers for Presley in the seven months preceding the star's death.

Nichopoulos faces a hearing before the State Board of Medical Examiners within the next six weeks to determine whether his medical license should be suspended or revoked for "indiscriminately" prescribing drugs for Presley and others.

Francisco's denial came after Stanton revealed he had launched an investigation to determine whether

Eight Persons Rescued As River Bridge Falls

HAVERHILL, N.H. (UPI) - Eight people were rescued as a historic covered bridge collapsed over the rain-swollen Connecticut River Friday night between Haverhill and Newbury, Vt., authorities said.

One unidentified woman was reported trapped underneath debris when the Bedell pedestrian bridge collapsed, said Civil Defense spokesman David Cass. The woman was eventually rescued after several minutes and taken to Cottage Hospital in Woodsville.

Severe weather warnings had been issued all day Friday by the National Weather Service for the Vermont-New Hampshire area, as the remains of hurricane Frederic battered New England.

Civil Defense officials said the heavy rains and high winds may have caused the bridge collapse, which occurred about 7 p.m. Officials said the river is quite wide at that point, at least several hundred feet.

Manchester Police Report

MANCHESTER - Jeffrey W. Peebles, 25, of Boston Turnpike, Bolton was charged Friday with fourth degree larceny in connection with failure to pay for a tankful of gasoline.

Police said a driver filled his tank with $18.90 in gas at a station at 404 Hartford Road about six weeks ago and told the attendant he would pay for it within a day or two. He never paid and police issued a warrant for Peebles' arrest. He was released on $100 non-surety bond and is scheduled for a court date Sept. 24 at Superior Court 12 in East Hartford.

Vincent R. Walford, 49, of 66 Edgewood St., Hartford was charged Friday with operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended.

Double Tax Taken, Teachers Shocked

EAST HARTFORD Public school teachers were shocked Friday when they opened their first paychecks of the school year and found their withholding taxes doubled the usual amount.

Leone Orders Curbs On Release of News

By CHRIS BLAKE Herald Reporter EAST HARTFORD - Acting School Superintendent Sam J. Leone has released a new administrative regulation directing all school administrative personnel to clear all requests for information from the media through the office of the superintendent.

Blackstone Will Name Corporation Counsel

By CHRIS BLAKE Herald Reporter EAST HARTFORD - Mayor Richard H. Blackstone said Friday he will appoint a new chief corporation counsel "within a week" to replace F. Timothy McNamara, who resigned this week after six years in the position.

Blackstone lost a Democratic primary Tuesday to Town Council Chairman George A. Dagon, who will now run against Republican mayoral candidate Philip G. Russell.

Blackstone said he has offered the position to an attorney, who he declined to name, and has not had a response.

He said he would leave the position of development director open because "it's not fair to anybody" to appoint one for two months.

He said he is making the proposal for two reasons. First, there are plenty of capable individuals on the Redevelopment Agency, he said.

Library Seeks Donations

GLASTONBURY - The directors of the East Glastonbury Public Library have sent out the annual public fund appeal letters, Publicity Director A. W. Hurford announced this week.

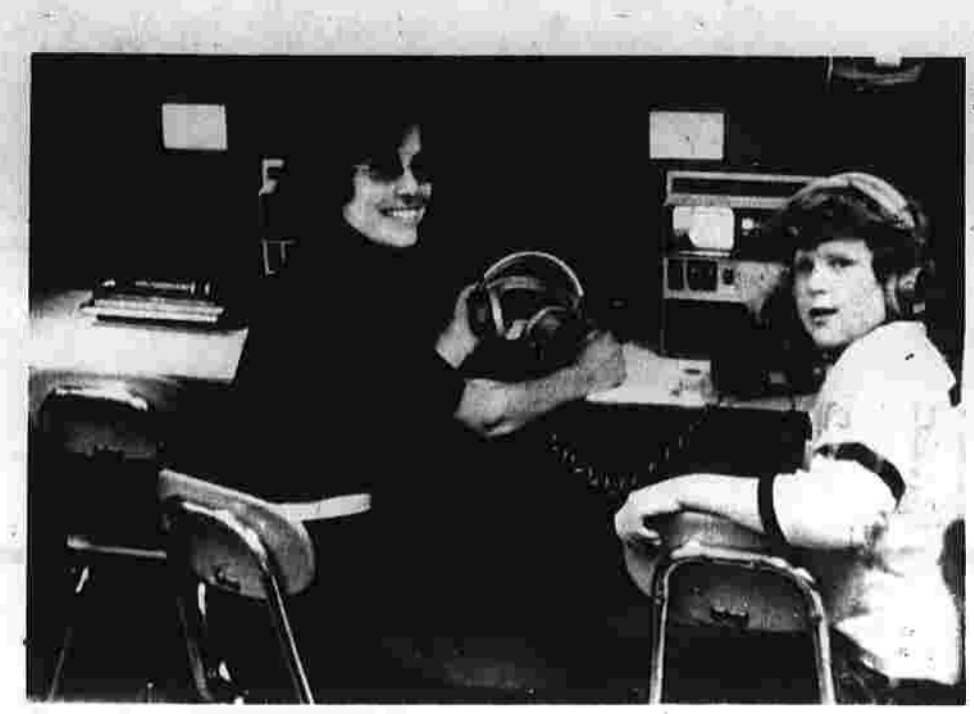

The library, despite being a public library has largely had to depend on voluntary fund drives for its existence. The library was established through voluntary efforts and is staffed by volunteers.

Soccer Begins Sunday

EAST HARTFORD - The Department of Parks and Recreation Soccer League will begin a full schedule of games on Sunday, Sept. 16.

Ten Tee-Wee teams, nine Junior teams and five Senior teams are practicing for their first game of the season. Teams in the Tee-Wee Division (3rd and 4th grades) will play on Sundays at 1 p.m. at Dwyer, Burnside, Gorman, Hockanum and Labor Fields.

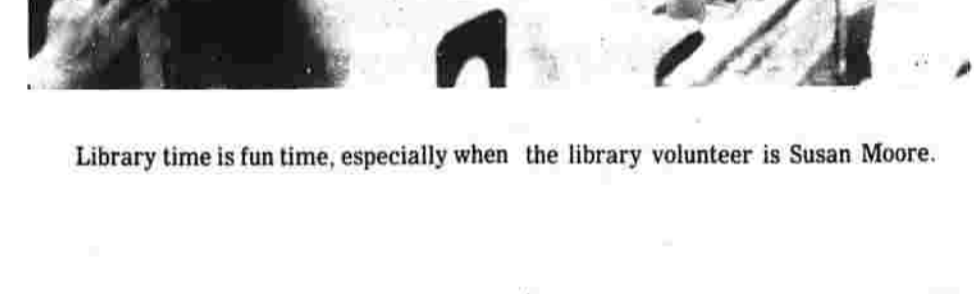

The Junior Division (5th and 6th grades) games are set for 2:30 p.m. at the same fields, excluding Labor Field. Boys and girls in the Senior Division (7th and 8th grades) will open their season on Sunday, Sept. 23 with games at 1 and 3 p.m. at Penny High School.

Pat Nelson, who does her volunteer work at Martin School, gets ready to put on a headset as her young pupil waits to begin the lesson.

Library time is fun time, especially when the library volunteer is Susan Moore.

J. Hugo Benson, a volunteer at young man in his adding. Benson Keeney Street School, assists a has been a volunteer for two years.

Volunteers Aid Teachers

By BETTY RYDER Lifestyle Editor Louise Bell, a resident of Manchester for only two-and-one-half years, helps out a first grade teacher at Nathan Hale School, each morning for an hour and a half.

Susan Moore, a nurse at Manchester Memorial Hospital, and mother of two school-age children, works in the library at Bentley School, a position she has held for several years.

Two mornings a week, J. Hugo Benson of Hackensack St., assists students in math and reading at Keeney Street School.

Aaron Horwitz, who was a senior at Manchester High School, gave up a number of free periods to take photos of volunteers at their jobs.

These are but a few of the many volunteers who serve in the Manchester Public Schools as tutors in math, reading and in a variety of other duties throughout the school system.

"I help students with reading, spelling, and math. Sometimes I run the ditto machine for the teacher, or correct papers. Actually, I do whatever is needed," Louise said.

She is retired, receives Social Security for a slight disability, which she says does not affect her work, and thoroughly enjoys her volunteer work.

She lived in California before moving to Connecticut, where she worked in the Travel Division of American Express.

"In California, there are many widows and other people who live alone, who have turned to volunteer work," she said.

Susan, a registered nurse who assists in her Lamaze Method of childbearing at Manchester Memorial Hospital, manages to find time from her busy schedule to do volunteer work in the library at Bentley School, where one of her two children is a student.

The other youngster attends Lilling Junior High School.

"I have been assisting in the school's library for several years and find it most rewarding," she said.

Hugo Benson, who worked in the Planning and Zoning Commission and several openings on the Economic Development Commission.

The town should utilize the talents of the extremely fine, talented people on the Redevelopment Agency," he said.

The agency sold its last piece of South Meadows redevelopment land this summer and has only "a few minor details" to take care of, he said.

It would "dovetail nicely" with the EDC, he said.

He said he is making the proposal for two reasons. First, there are plenty of capable individuals on the Redevelopment Agency, he said.

The basic goals of both groups - economic development - are similar, he said.

Board Plans Meetings

MANCHESTER - The Manchester Board of Education has announced 18 regularly scheduled meetings through the school year at various sites in town.

Most will be held at the 45 North School St. headquarters. Those dates are Oct. 9, Nov. 13, Dec. 17, Jan. 14, Feb. 11, March 10, April 14, May 12, June 9 and 23.

Sunday Classes Slated

VERNON - Sunday school classes will reopen this Sunday at Union Congregational Church. Those in nursery school through Grade 8 will meet at 9:45 a.m. in the church annex for a Rally Day. Grade 10 students will meet at 8:30 a.m. on the second floor of the annex.

Because a fire a few weeks ago extensively damaged the church, church services are being held in the Sykes School on Park Street at 10 a.m. If weather permits the Sunday School students will walk over to the school for a brief service before going back to attend classes.

Following the church service everyone will be invited back to the annex for a coffee hour to be hosted by the Christian Education Committee.

Until repairs are made to the church building, arrangements are being made to hold church activities in various places.

The senior choir rehearses Thursdays at 7:15 in the annex and the junior choir meets Wednesdays at 6:15 also in the annex.

Other meetings scheduled to be conducted in the annex include: Sept. 17 at 9:30 a.m., a workshop to make

Other sites and dates include Highland Park School, Sept. 24; Bowers School, Oct. 22; Regional Occupational Training Center, Nov. 26; Bentley School, Jan. 28; Martin School, Feb. 25; South School-Head Start, March 24; Bennet Junior High, April 28 and Manchester High School, May 27.

All meetings begin at 8 p.m.

Democratic Oktoberfest

VERNON - State Representative Chester Morgan and Oktoberfest-Councilman John Drost are co-chairmen of the Oktoberfest being planned to raise funds for the Democratic Town Committee to support the November election expenses.

Booster Night

VERNON - The Vernon Grange will sponsor Booster Night Sept. 21 at 8 p.m. in the Grange Hall, Route 30. Entertainment will be provided by the American Association of Retired Persons' Chorus and refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

Driving Rules Adopted

COVENTRY - The Board of Education has set a policy concerning students who drive to school and the parking of their cars.

The board said that driving to school is a privilege and a student may do so and park in the school parking areas upon approval by the principal and providing he or she meets at least one of three conditions.

The student must be participating in an extra-curricular activity and need transportation or be employed after school and need transportation to his or her place of employment; or if the student presents another legitimate reason to the school principal.

Students are expected to follow regulations covering school driving and parking as developed by the administration.

Abuse of the regulations could result in disciplinary actions as follows: For the first offense suspension of privileges for a period of 20 days and a two-day school suspension; second offense, suspension of the privilege for a period of 60 days and a two-day school suspension. Additional offenses may result in a permanent suspension of privileges.

WHAT'S NEWS

Nixon's Trip

HONG KONG (UPI) — Former President Richard Nixon left for his third visit to China today, winding up a weekend stay in Hong Kong with the prediction President Carter faces a close race for the Democratic nomination.

Nixon said in an interview Sunday he thought Carter "has some very serious problems. But, I think he is a fighter. I wouldn't sell him short."

The former president referred to President Truman's surprise victory in 1948, when Truman's popularity "had got a little low," much as Carter's rating has dropped in current polls.

He said the race for the Democratic ticket would be "a good fight" and noted "we will have to see if Senator (Edward) Kennedy (D-Mass.) wants to fight — or just talk." Kennedy has not declared his candidacy.

Nixon's boarded an express train at 2 p.m. (1 a.m. EDT) to Canton, the first stop on his third visit to China.

Drug Threat

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States faces a serious threat of white heroin smuggling from three Mideast-Central Asian countries — Iran, Pakistan and Afghanistan, the nation's chief drug enforcement officer warned.

Peter Bensinger, administrator of the Drug Enforcement Administration, called for diplomatic initiatives to persuade those three governments to wipe out opium fields. Eighty percent of the world's raw opium supplies are produced in Iran, Pakistan and Afghanistan.

He said the threat of heroin from the three Mideast-Asian countries has been rising at the same time Mexico's opium poppy eradication program has helped decrease smuggling of brown Mexican heroin into the United States from 6.5 tons in 1975 to 2.1 tons in 1978.

High Income

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Alaska has the highest per person income of any state in the nation, and Mississippi has the lowest, says a Commerce Department analysis. Estimates released by the Bureau of Economic Analysis show a narrowing of state-by-state differences in individual income in the 1970s.

But geographic differences remained in 1978. Most of the 20 states where per capita income equaled or exceeded the $7,836 national average were in the Northeast, the Great Lakes manufacturing belt and the Far West. Most of the 30 states where personal income fell below average were in the South, Southwest and the Plains regions.

Nurse Strike

CRANSTON, R.I. (UPI) — The acting president of the striking medical-complex nurses' union said today leaders are willing to go to jail in support of their stand. The state has asked a judge to impose jail terms and fines.

"The leaders are willing and will not escape the responsibility of having to go to jail on an issue that we feel and the state should feel is a crucial, crucial issue," said Janis Mcernan, acting head of the union.

Mrs. Mcernan said staffing levels at General Hospital and the Institute of Mental Health are still the crux of the dispute.

The union met informally with Romeo Calderone, state labor director, Sunday in the first contact between the state and the union since the walkout began Thursday.

Charlene Tilton

Role reversal

Charlene Tilton is best known as the sassy young Lucy Ewing on CBS's "Dallas." This week, viewers will see an altogether different side of Charlene when she stars in the ABC movie "Diary of a Teen-age Hitchhiker" on Friday, Sept. 22.

Charlene says the movie is about "a young, sweet, innocent girl who lives in a small beach community. She and her friends get in a little bit of trouble." Although she's careful not to give the plot away she does insist, "The subject matter is important for kids to see."

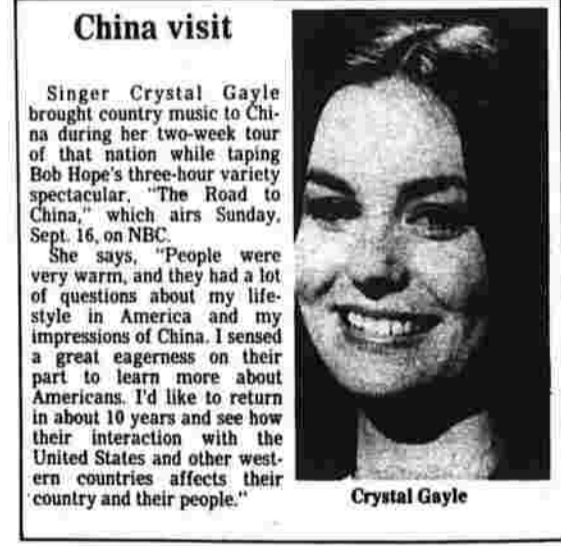

Monty Hall

New Beat

Monty Hall, popular game show host of "Let's Make a Deal" for 13 years, will present the updated "Beat the Clock." Premiering Monday, Sept. 17, it will feature three teams competing against each other, as well as against the clock, to win the prize money.

Each team consists of three generically-related members (for example: three airline flight attendants or three police officers); each team will compete for the entire week. Another new facet, "Record Breaking Stunt," will conclude each episode and grant the winning team additional money.

Crystal Gayle

China visit

Singer Crystal Gayle brought country music to China during her two-week tour of that nation while taping Bob Hope's three-hour variety spectacular, "The Road to China," which airs Sunday, Sept. 16, on NBC.

She says, "People were very warm, and they had a lot of questions about my lifestyle in America and my impressions of China. I sensed a great eagerness on their part to learn more about Americans. I'd like to return in about 10 years and see how their interaction with the United States and other western countries affects their country and their people."

TV DIALOGUE

RADIO NEWS -- I am a big fan of "WKRP in Cincinnati" and I have a question about one of the cast members. Did Gary Sandy ever play a psycho killer on "Starsky & Hutch"? -- Lilly Ann Teague, Lakeland, Fla.

You have a good memory for psycho killers it would seem. Sandy co-starred in an episode last season in which he attacked people with a baseball bat and stared at bare light bulbs. Fortunately, he's found less violent work these days.

ELATED OVER ELAM -- I'm just thrilled over Jack Elam being back on TV in a new series. I'm an old Elam fan from way back when, and I have a kind of way-back-when question. There was a western back in the early '60s, I don't even know how long it lasted, but Elam was a deputy and he dressed in black leather and was real cool. Can you help? -- Leon Hyde, Providence, R.I.

Yup. It was "The Dakotas," and it only lasted a half-season on ABC back in 1963. Elam played ex-gunfighter J.D. Smith who got to wear all that black and sneer a lot as I recall. Do you remember the youngest deputy? It was Chad Everett, who went on to wear hospital greens.

DAYS PAST -- I am interested in the show "Days of Heaven" as the director, Terence Malick, was given an award for this at the Cannes Film Festival. Could you please tell me when this movie will be shown in theaters. I've written before. -- Mrs. Harry Stirzaker, Port Alberni, B.C., Canada

I'm afraid you've already missed it, since it was shown in theaters this past winter, thus all the attention and the awards.

It's not true that dogs sweat through their tongues. They sweat through the pads of their feet.
