EB Draftsmen Picket; Gates Locked at Olin

By United Press International
Draftsmen walked picket lines under threat of court action at Electric Boat in Groton, Conn., today, while police sealed the Olin Corp. in New Haven to prevent possible violence as a company back-to-work order took effect.

The midnight deadline set by EB's 2,000-member Marine Draftsmen's Association passed without a settlement and the union set up picket lines at the General Dynamics division shipyard.

"We are far apart on a number of issues, but principally on money," said MDA President E. Roy Colville, who said new talks would "not be held for a while."

EB is Connecticut's second-largest employer though many of its workers come from nearby Rhode Island. The firm has told the union any strike would be illegal and it would go to court to seek damages because the union had not terminated its present contract.

In New Haven, last-ditch negotiations between the Olin Corp.'s Winchester Group and Victory Lodge

609 of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers broke down again early today.
Mayor Frank Logue ordered police to seal the company's entrance in the face of possible violence over the company's threat to hire permanent workers as replacements if the 1,300 striking workers did not return to work by today.

A spokesman for the mayor said his order was not intended to be an "anti-Olin, pro-union position," but was meant to prevent the "danger of violence on the picket lines." The plant was virtually shut down by the mayor's order.

The 1,350-member union walked off the job July 15. The talks hinge on a proposed productivity clause which the union says would discriminate against older employees but Olin says is needed if it is to stay in business.

A company spokesman said agreement had been reached on the wording of the productivity clause Sunday, but not on the letter of intent. He said the company made a new wage and fringe benefit proposal Sunday which was rejected by the union which then walked out of the talks.

Olin has said it will begin hiring replacement workers today if a new contract had not been agreed upon.

Meanwhile, state education officials and the union representing 900 teachers who work in 19 regional vocational technical schools prepared for talks to resume Tuesday.

Bill Archer, president of the State Vocational Federation of Teachers, said he was hopeful the resumed talks could result in a new contract. The American Federation of Teachers local has voted to authorize a strike.

The teachers rejected a tentative contract earlier this year, prompting the state to file an unfair labor practice complaint.

"We have not dealt in such a way," Archer said. "Rejection of a contract by the membership can hardly be termed an unfair labor practice."

SHANNON, Ireland (UPI) — Pope John Paul II ended his emotional pilgrimage to Ireland today and took his message of peace from the green shores of Ireland to the skyscraper cities of the United States.

The pope preached against abortion and divorce, chastised women who choose careers over motherhood and praised traditional moral values in his final homily in Ireland, before a congregation of 500,000 at Limerick.

"Your country seems in a sense to be living again the temptations of Christ," he told the Irish. "Now is the time of testing for Ireland. This generation is once more a generation of decision."

But his parting words to the Irish people at Shannon airport stressed his basic theme: "I came here to proclaim peace and love."

Long before the pope's special jet, St. Patrick, took off for the 6 1/2-hour flight to Boston, crowds were gathering to welcome the Roman Catholic leader, the second pope ever to visit the United States. The pope's mass on Boston Common late today may produce the largest gathering in New England's history.

As the jet traced its path over the Atlantic Ocean, officials in Boston reported heavy fog. Flights were still landing, but an alternate landing site, Hanscomb Air Force Base in Bedford, Mass., was available if necessary.

A majority of the people of Ireland came out to see the pope during his stops at Dublin, Drogheda, Galway, Knock and Limerick. Estimates of the crowds that gathered at the pontiff's 11 principal public appearances totaled 3,850,000 — more than the entire population, with many people attending several events.

The smallest crowd of the pope's 50-hour visit was at Shannon airport for the farewell ceremonies — a touching half-hour of tributes and thanks exchanged by the pope, his clerics and the Irish faithful.

Cardinal Tomas O'Fiaich, the primate of Ireland, spoke in English and Gaelic and offered his blessing to the pope in brogue-tinged Polish: "Niejch bedzie pochwalony Jezus Christus." The traditional Polish phrase, an expression of religious devotion, means, "Praise be the name of Jesus Christ."

"I thank all the people for the warm and loving reception," the pope said. "In the name of the Lord I exhort you to preserve the great treasure of your fidelity to Jesus Christ and to his church, Ireland: semper fidelis, always faithful. Ireland, always faithful."

He added in Gaelic, "Praise be God forever," as cheers and cries of affection spread over the airport runway.

The pope's shamrock green and white jumbo jet, the Aer Lingus flagship, took off for Boston at 1:48 p.m. (8:48 a.m. EDT).

The ending of the historic weekend — the first visit by a pope to Ireland — was gray rather than green.

Misty fog shrouded the pope's first stop of the day, a religious pep talk to clergy at St. Patrick's seminary in Maynooth, 20 miles west of Dublin, and umbrellas blossomed in the congregation during his mass at the racetrack in Limerick, 115 miles farther west. His military guard of honor was drawn up on a Shannon airport pavement puddled with rain.

The pope swooped down on the Limerick racetrack like Santa Claus in his bright-red helicopter, passing over an ocean of waving flags and handkerchiefs.

His homily to the enormous congregation was more serious than festive, however.

"Ireland must choose," John Paul said in a fervent sermon. "To all I say, 'Revere and protect your family and your family life... dear sons and daughters of Ireland, pray, pray not to be led into temptation.'"

John Paul lamented that "divorce... inevitably becomes easier and easier to obtain and it gradually comes to be accepted as a normal part of life. The very possibility of divorce in the sphere of civil law makes stable and permanent marriages more difficult for everyone."

He pleaded with Ireland to preserve "her traditional commitment to the sanctity and the indissolubility of the marriage bond."

"The pope was even more vehement about the 'abominable crime' of abortion.

"To attack unborn life at any moment from its conception is to undermine the whole moral order," he cried. "Marriage must include openness to the gift of children."

"May Ireland never weaken in her witness... to the dignity and sacredness of all human life, from conception until death."

He also urged Irish parents to foster the Irish tradition of guiding children to be "consecrated to God" as priests or nuns.

John Paul said he came to Ireland to follow in the footsteps of St. Patrick, who brought the Roman Catholic faith to the Emerald Isle 15 centuries ago, but the message he brought was for the whole world: men of violence must return to peace, "murder is murder no matter what the motive."

His message was somber but his reception was one of unrestrained joy, from the moment he knelt to kiss Irish soil as he stepped off his jet to his farewell wave at Shannon.

PCB Danger

ATLANTA (UPI) — Despite a nationwide ban on the manufacture and distribution of the suspected cancer-causing chemical PCB, federal health experts warn that at least 10 Western states may be massively exposed to PCB contamination.

The Atlanta-based national Center for Disease Control, which currently is studying data from two surveys to determine the level of human exposure to PCBs caused by a leak in an electric transformer in a Billings, Mont., meat-packing plant, made the announcement in its weekly morbidity report.

Citing the health dangers of the chemical, CDC officials noted a federal law in 1976 ordered the manufacture and distribution of the chemical to cease within 2 1/2 years and banned all non-enclosed use of PCBs.

A New Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Today it's Happy New Year to the government — and Happy Birthday to President Carter.

Here are some of the changes the 1980 fiscal year will bring: —The United States officially begins turning over the Panama Canal to Panama.

—All federal employees making less than $48,000 a year except blue-collar workers receive a 7 percent pay raise.

—But federal employees in Washington, except those working on capitol hill, must start paying for auto parking in federal lots.

—A new military recruitment plan calling for a goal of 173,000 servicemen and women takes effect.

—And President Carter is 55 today.

Trains' Fate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The fate of three long-distance passenger trains is in the hands of the courts today, but two others died on schedule as part of the first major cutback since Amtrak took over the trains in 1971.

Amtrak planned to ask a federal judge in Wichita, Kan., today to reconsider his order to keep the Lone Star, the Floridian and the North Coast Hiawatha rolling temporarily.

Five Amtrak routes were scheduled to end Sunday, but only two of them did. No attempt was made to save the Hilltopper, which operates between Boston and Catlettsburg, Ky.; and late Sunday Chief Justice Warren Burger overruled an appeals court and told Amtrak it could kill the National Limited between New York and Kansas City, Mo.

The National Limited pulled out of New York's Penn Station at 4:55 p.m. EDT Sunday with 75 passengers aboard for its final run.

Quits Race

MANCHESTER — Verna Hubbard, Republican member of the Board of Education for the past four years, is removing herself from the race this year, since her husband has been offered a job in the Boston area. The Republicans are nominating Pamela Edwards of 15 Horace St. to replace Hubbard on the ticket.

Elsie Swenson, vice-chairman of the Republican Town Committee said today, "Verna did a very nice job. We feel badly that she is leaving us but we have a new candidate whom we have had interest in before. Pamela Edwards has agreed to do it."

Swenson said Swenson had worked on the Walter Joyner election committee and she is also a member of the Republican Town Committee.

Swenson said there is no problem, but the situation has never come up before and she has to call the State Central Committee to find out the rules for handling a change in candidates.

People Who Cry Don't Catch Colds

Forget Vitamin C. If you want to avoid colds, cry. That's the word from a new study by Dr. Walter Stewart in the November issue of Forum magazine. He says he doesn't know why but, "It's been widely noticed that people who don't cry often catch a great many colds, but once they become able to weep, their susceptibility to colds disappears." Co-author Dr. Stephen E. Bloomfield blames the stress of holding back tears - says, "When you're under stress your body puts out steroids which affect your immune system and reduce your resistance to disease." All together now... "Hey, won't you play, another somebody done somebody wrong song..."

Cosby's Kids

Most of Bill Cosby's fans think these "Cosby Kids" - Fal Albert, Weir Harold and the rest - are based on real people. Not so, says Cosby, whose creations have been animated for CBS-TV's "The Fat Albert Halliwell Special" only he, his brother Russell and his mother are real. The rest are just snippets of people, pasted together by Cosby's fertile imagination. But the animation was a natural. Says he, "When you're a stand-up comedian... you're a talking cartoonist. You paint images in the audience's heads. Interpreting those diverse images into one standard concept is tricky."

The Kickoff

When officials stripped Debbie Shook of her Miss North Carolina title, the night before she was supposed to pass it along to a new beauty queen, she place-kicked her crown all the way across the stage. To mark the event, the Havelock, N.C., Jaycees will sponsor a "Miss North Carolina Crown-Kicking Pageant" Oct. 7. Jaycee Darryl Nixon says contestants will kick crowns while wearing swimsuits and evening gowns - that "accuracy and distance will count." Miss Shook was delirious for telling reporters she didn't receive all her prizes. Winners of the Jaycee kick-in will take home a worthless $5,000 check, a picture of a fur coat and a brochure for a Caribbean cruise.

Quote of the Day

Ex-Beatle George Harrison who backed the controversial Monty Python film "Life of Brian," in US magazine on church god charges it is blasphemous. "If a person's spiritual connection is strong enough, then he realizes you can't damage the Lord's reputation. These clerics are telling us to be cool, but all they're doing is raising hell."

Glimpses

Alan Alda and the rest of the cast of "MASH" called in sick last week, in support of television studio workers on strike in Hollywood... An injured foot look singer Kenny Rogers out of two scheduled concerts last week in Tucson and Phoenix, Ariz., but a spokesman says his other dates won't be affected... Leslie Uggars will be the headliner for the next two weeks at the Fairmont Hotel in Dallas... Candice Bergen is in Japan for a Minolta-sponsored photo exhibition... Dennis Weaver is costarring in Canada with Kurt Russell in an ABC-TV movie titled "Amber Waves."

GM Contract Approved; Talks Begin With Ford

DETROIT (UPI) - Members of the United Auto Workers union have decisively approved a new contract with the General Motors Corp., arming their leaders for negotiations with the Ford Motor Co. Talks with the nation's No. 2 automaker opened today. The UAW said Sunday the strike-free GM settlement was approved by a vote of 129,374 to 51,391. "Ratification was approved by a more than 2-to-1 margin of the workers who voted," UAW President Douglas Fraser said. Roughly half the 460,000 Gm workers represented by the UAW did not cast votes - but the situation did not dismay UAW officials. Union officials also said local contract agreements between plant-level union and company officials now have been reached in 76 of 151 UAW bargaining units at the No. 1 auto firm. Convicted by early returns late last week the contract was being ratified. UAW officials declared a midnight Thursday strike deadline at Ford. That gives UAW and Ford bargainers four full days to reach an agreement. The contract continues the non-traditional 3 percent pay hike for autoworkers, improves the cost-of-living formula and pension benefits. It provides 27 paid personal holidays over three years in addition to legal holidays and vacations and offers Gm blue-collar workers a pioneering stock ownership program. UAW and GM bargainers put finishing touches on the agreement late on Sept. 14, just hours before a strike deadline. It was the first time in 15 years the UAW reached tentative agreement with its target firm without a national strike.

Spending Top Issue: McCoy

VERNON - "In my opinion, the most important issue of the 1977 election, to most people, was our promise to regulate spending and to curb tax increases," Republican Mayor Frank McCoy told a gathering of party members at his home. McCoy, who is seeking a fifth term, said the Republicans have kept the 1977 campaign promises and urged party members to carry that message to the people during this year's campaign efforts. Warning his party's candidates that the Democrats would try to deride his tax cuts by saying that it was state and federal aid which made the tax reductions possible, McCoy said "the purpose of state and federal aid is to alleviate the property tax burden on local taxpayers which is going to revitalize downtown Rockville." The mayor added, "We have used a portion of that aid for needed programs and a portion for tax relief. The dollars all come from the same pocketbook." Referring to what he termed as "The previous Democrat administration's policy of keeping secret the names of homeowners in the (housing rehab) program, McCoy said, "rather than a situation where qualified property owners felt a stigma was attached to being associated with the program, people now take pride in being a part of a great enterprise to bring Rockville back to its former status." He told fellow Republicans, "We have a great deal to be proud of, let's not be afraid to remind the voters of our accomplishments." McCoy will have Councilman Marie Herbst running against him for the office of mayor on the Democratic ticket.

Action Sought on Energy

NEW HAVEN - The Municipal Energy Task Force of the Connecticut Conference of Municipalities has called for a special session of the Legislature to act on the crucial energy problems facing Connecticut towns and citizens. In a report adopted last week by the Executive Committee, the task force urged the legislature to convene this month to alleviate what it called "the home heating oil crisis." The task force said the first priority is assuring enough heating oil for the state residents. It said the problem starts as one of supply, not price. However, the report said, the problem becomes one of price as dealers and consumer face restrictive credit terms. It urged a single state agency be given the responsibility of administering the energy assistance program. "The most appropriate place for this top-management responsibility appears to be the Office of Policy and Administration," the report said. The task force considered conservation as the second highest priority for the winter. Although most of the significant conservation measures have been adopted by the towns, such as weatherization of buildings, it said there are other things to do. The state's role is to "adopt a strong policy of energy conservation, provide the funding to implement it, and begin immediate implementation."

School officials, some parents, and some members of the Board of Education have strongly objected to the installation of the road.

Canal Zone Now History

PANAMA CITY, Panama (UPI) — The Panama Canal Zone passed history today, becoming a part of Panama 76 years after Yankee imperialism and determination carved it out of the jungle.
Dabbing the tears from their eyes with handkerchiefs, many of the 12,000 "Zonians" in the American enclave watched the Stars and Stripes lowered over a way of life that ended officially 12:01 a.m.
Vice President Walter Mondale flew in Sunday aboard Air Force 2 to join a half-dozen Latin American heads of state for the ceremonies marking the end of an era.
Many Americans, fearing violence when an estimated 200,000 Panamanians march into the zone today to celebrate their takeover, packed their bags and left during the weekend.
A few such as Max, beefy American working for the Panama Canal Co., fondled the handle of his ax and promised to "crack some heads" and "defend the flag."
Slouched over the bar at the VFW Hall, Max obviously did not share Mondale's view the ceremonies hanging over the 161 square-mile zone marked a "landmark time and place."
"The Panama Canal becomes a young symbol of an ancient ideal — equality and respect between two sovereign and independent nations," Mondale said upon arrival Sunday.
"We will stand with you in partnership to operate the canal efficiently and fairly and to defend it against all threats for the benefit of world commerce."
Part of the change-over ceremonies took place Sunday, when the American flag was lowered from the towering flagpole in front of the Panama Canal Co. in the heart of the enclave that straddles the 51-mile-long canal carved out of Panama 76 years ago to connect the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans.
Some 5,000 Americans watched and wept as the American flag came down with the setting sun and Canal Zone Gov. Harold Parfitt told them: "The canal zone has no tomorrows, only yesterdays, but it leaves us with memories for a lifetime." Some were resigned but others were defiant, shouting "canal zone forever" as the Star Spangled Banner was played.
Some, like Max, got drunk.
By contrast, Panamanians outside the chain-link fence that once was a border and now is just a fence celebrated with firecrackers and dancing in the streets.
Groups of men wearing the traditional straw porkpie hats and women in colorfully embroidered skirts danced up and down the avenues, tying up traffic for blocks.

Police Access Road On Council's Agenda

The council will also be asked to provide for improvements at the intersection of Birch and Washington streets to allow construction of a new Company 2 fire station.
Discussion of surface water flooding on Gardner Road, requested by council member Lena Therault, is also on tonight's agenda along with discussion of protective alarm systems for the town-owned buildings, as requested by council members John Drost and Marie Herbst.
In another matter to do with the new police station, Mayor Frank McCoy will discuss a letter from the building committee relative to the status of funds which were embezzled on the project.

Buildings Set for Auction

COVENTRY — When the Town Council auctions off buildings in the town-owned Lakes Park on Oct. 20, it will include some 25 small out buildings and their contents.
The buildings will actually be auctioned off starting at 1 p.m. and auction of the contents of them will be at 10 a.m. at the former Salvation Army Camp site on the lake. The buildings were used as part of the camp and many were used as cottages.
Some of the contents will include tables of various sizes, chairs, bureaus, desks, beds, cots, benches, upright pianos, mirrors, a large assortment of pictures and many other items.
The buildings and contents may be inspected from 8 a.m. up until sale time.
The council has stipulated several terms for the auction. All sales will be final and all buildings and contents will be sold in an "as is" condition.
A deposit of 25 percent of the auction bid, on buildings, will be required on the day of the sale and the balance will be due within 48 hours and if not paid within that time the deposit will go to the Town of Coventry.
Any of the buildings bought must be removed within 30 days from the date of the auction or the purchase price will be forfeited. Any permits required for relocating the buildings will be the responsibility of the purchaser.
Purchasers will also be responsible for the removal of all parts of structures such as pipes, underpinnings, porches and each purchaser must sign a waiver releasing the town from any claims resulting from building removal. The town won't take any responsibility for accidents that might happen on park property on the day of the sale and successful bidders will be responsible for any unreasonable damage to the ground or other structures during the building removal process.
When removing the building proof of payment must be shown to the caretaker.

Center Church Celebrates 200th Anniversary

By NANCY CARR, Executive Director

Yesterday the congregation of Center Congregational Church celebrated their 200th anniversary as a religious community. Actually 200 years ago this community was Center Congregational Church or as it was then called - the Ecclesial Society of Oxford.

Although much has changed through these past two centuries (Oxford Village long ago was renamed Manchester), the men, women and children of Center Congregational continue to give lively and fruitful testimony to their faith.

Their church buildings still stand squarely in the center of town spreading wings between the Town Hall and Lincoln Center and facing Center Park.

This interest in and commitment to the welfare of the community has evidenced itself throughout their participation in the conference Center Church has, from its beginning, housed the MACC Emergency Pantry and, until this spring, gave space to Project Restore, a MACC program designed

Tampa Continues to Surprise

NEW YORK (UPI) — Five weeks into the NFL season, the fourth-year Tampa Bay Buccaneers stand tall as the league's only unbeaten team.

Three other clubs — Pittsburgh, Miami and Cleveland — entered Sunday's action with unblemished records, but all were beaten on the field.

"Of course it's very satisfying, especially after losing the lead and coming back to win," said Tampa Bay Coach John McVay after the Bucs' 17-13 triumph over the Chicago Bears. "We're ahead of our plan, but we still have a long way to go."

It's conceivable, with their defense, they could be 15-1, with their only loss coming to us later in the week," said Chicago's All-Pro running back Walter Payton, who was shut down on 46 yards in 15 carries.

Doug Williams threw an 8-yard scoring pass to Isaac Hagins with 4:07 remaining in the game to help the Bucs stay perfect. The winning score was set up by a fumble by the Bears on the kickoff following Vince Evans that had given Chicago a 13-10 lead, with 10:30 remaining.

"We wanted to squib kick it but as it turned out, they got good field position and were able to take it in," said Chicago Coach Neil Armstrong, whose team lost its third straight game after two opening victories.

The Steelers were beaten, 17-14, in Philadelphia, snapping the NFL champions' 12-game winning streak, and they have nobody to blame but themselves.

"I knew it would take an excellent effort on everyone's part," said Eagle's quarterback Ron Jaworski. "People think you can beat another team on character, dedication and great effort, but you can't beat the Steelers on just that. You need some ability and I think we showed that today."

Rookie kicker Tony Franklin snapped a 77-yard field goal with a 48-yard field goal in the third quarter and Wilbert Montgomery later plunged over from the 1-yard line to give the Eagles a 17-7 lead.

John Hankin's interception of a Terry Bradshaw pass set up Montgomery's touchdown. Early in the fourth quarter, Herman Edwards picked off another pass in the end zone after the Steelers had marched to the Philadelphia 14.

The Steelers then drove to the Philadelphia 2-yard line midway through the final period, but Franco Harris fumbled when hit by Frank McMaster and Ken Clarke recovered inside the 1.

The Steelers managed to pull within three points with 1:12 remaining on Bradshaw's 37-yard scoring toss to John Stallworth, but the ensuing onside kick was recovered by the Eagles, now 4-1.

Miami may ask for a transfer to another division just to get away from playing the New York Jets twice a season.

Miami was relegated to wild card status because of two losses to the Jets last season. And the Dolphins had cruised through their first four games this year without a loss, leading the league with only 45 points allowed.

But that was before their annual trip to the Dolphins' dungeon known as Shea Stadium.

Tommy Newton, a third-string talker, plunged for two second period touchdowns to lead the Jets to a 33-27 upset.

Newton scored twice on a 10-yard run to pull New York on a 1-7 deficit to a 20-10 lead. The Jets then sealed the game in the second half when Bobby Jackson returned an in-

"I'm dissatisfied with our team play," said Miami Coach Don Shula.

Their offense ran a ball-control game. We got what we deserved — the losing end of the score."

The previously unbeaten Browns also got the short end, a 31-10 drubbing by the Houston Oilers.

Chuck Muncie returned on three short runs and J.C. Wilson returned an intercepted pass 34 yards for a TD as the Oilers posted their most lopsided victory in two seasons.

The Browns were limited to Brian Sipe's 1-yard TD run and a 44-yard field goal by Don Cockroft.

"I don't want to be disrespectful," said Oilers' veteran middle guard Carley Culp. "But Greg Pruitt would not have been a factor because we played some good, old-fashioned football."

Fruitt, the Browns' breakout player, missed the game because of a sore right knee.

Elsewhere in the NFL, Washington beat Atlanta, 16-7. New Orleans stopped the New York Giants, 24-14. Minnesota beat Detroit, 13-10. Buffalo routed Baltimore, 31-13. Oakland routed Cincinnati, 38-13. Dallas routed Denver, 37-3. Kansas City up-

Nancy Lopez Kept Promise

DALLAS (UPI) — It was a promise Nancy Lopez knew she had to keep and in doing so, she walked away with $19,500.

The sizzling Lopez broke her own LPGA season earnings record with her eighth victory Sunday, shooting a final-round 2-under-par 70.

Her overall record in the tournament was a 14-under-par 274 total, which also equaled the best 72-hole score shot on the tour this year. The previous record was her own.

Her $19,500 check from the $150,000 event raised her year's earnings to $193,752, an all-time LPGA record for the official winnings. It was her eighth win in only 17 tournaments this year and she now has won 17 tournaments in a 27-month pro career.

Lopez said that at the 13th hole, a par-5, she promised herself she could birdie it. She kept her promise and

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Tony McEweny and Danny Gare each scored two goals to lift the Buffalo Sabres to a 4-2 NHL exhibition victory over the New York Islanders Sunday night.

McEweny continued a strong pre-season with his third and fourth goals. Mike Bossy scored twice for the Islanders.

Nelson Faltered On Final Holes

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Larry Nelson should be $100,000 richer today.

He isn't.

Instead, Lon Hinkle is 100 grand to the good.

While Nelson faltered away a three-tee shot on the final four holes, Hinkle played consistently good golf, sank one key putt near the end and won the $100,000 first prize Sunday at the $400,000 World Series of Golf.

Hinkle's 67-69-71-67-272 was just good enough to edge Nelson, Lee Trevino and Bill Rogers by one stroke.

"Unbelievable, absolutely unbelievable," said Hinkle. "I just kept plugging away."

"I thought," added the 30-year-old Dallas resident, "this was a little bit beyond what I was capable of doing at Firestone."

Hinkle's 272 was eight strokes below par at the rugged Firestone Country Club South course and 11 of the select field of the world's top 28 golfers in the tourney were able to break par.

Tom Watson and Hale Irwin tied for fifth with 274. Tom Kite was seventh with a 275. Howard Twitty was eighth with 276. Bob Gilder finished ninth at 278 and Andy Bean and Bruce Lietzke tied for 10th at 279.

As for Nelson, he collected $27,206 for sharing second place, but he should have had the $100,000 top prize all to himself.

Heading into the final four holes, he was breezing along with a three-tee lead. He lost a stroke when he bogeyed the 15th hole, but managed par on the 16th and needed only to hold par on the last two holes to win.

But the 17th hole changed everything. It made Nelson a loser, Hinkle a winner.

Umass, Yale and Brown Among Weekend Winners

BOSTON (UPI) — Harvard Coach Joe Restic had warned observers this year his offense was going to take time to get used to its new quarterback, Burke St. John.

And when St. John went down with a knee injury in the second quarter Saturday, the Crimson's chances to help in an undefeated weekend for New England's Ivy League teams went down with it.

Massachusetts, 21, capitalizing on the superb passing of Mike McEvilly, was the only Yankee conference school to beat its intrasite Ivy rival when they stopped Harvard 20-7.

Yale won its second, and UConn dropped its third, as the Elis posted a 34-7 victory. Brown, 1-1, rebounded from its loss to Yale and pounded winless Rhode Island 31-13. Dartmouth posted a 27-10 victory over Cornell. Princeton posted a 34-7 victory over Princeton.

UConn coach Kevin O'Connor, also making his first start of the year after a hand injury in scrimmages, tossed a pair of 8-yard touchdowns passes to Mark Farnham and Marty Moran led the Bruins' touchdown with TD runs of three and one yards.

UConn is now 4-0 for its worst start in more than a decade. The Rams could take advantage of just one of seven Brown families. They scored on a 15-yard TD pass to Dave Frazer and on a 1-yard end-around by receiver Bob Hodson.

Dartmouth Coach Joe Yukica didn't need messenger guards — he had messenger quarterbacks. Jeff Eagles.

System Rapped

MONTREAL (UPI) — Alan Jones' Canadian Grand Prix victory moves him into third position in the world Formula One championship, but his long Australian has little time for the official scoring system.

"It's stupid," said Jones, who won his fourth Grand Prix Sunday in a 70-yard punt return by Reggie Eccleston and an option pass for the Big Green.

"I interchanged the quarterbacks to help Jeff grow up and bring him in a little slower," said Yukica.

UConn Coach Bill Bowes noted, "We didn't play in the first half, but we're pretty big up front and the game taken as usual to last year's system."

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Roger Craig, who was fired Sunday as manager of the San Diego Padres, hasn't lost faith in himself.

"When you sign on to manage, you know they'll probably fire you eventually, but I thought after what I did last year they would give me another chance," said Craig, who was given his pink slip moments before his club took the field against the San Francisco Giants for its final game of the season.

Blue Jays Lose Game, Manager

NEW YORK (UPI) — Roy Hartfield's Toronto Blue Jays lost another game Sunday, their 108th of the season, and an hour after the game, Hartfield lost his job as manager of the three-year-old expansion club.

In the wake of the New York Yankees' win over Toronto, Pat Gillick, the vice president of Baseball Operations with the Jays, terminated the 50-year-old manager with thanks.

"Managing an expansion team is the roughest job in sports, and we thank Roy for what he did in getting us started. Some things didn't turn out as we expected. I think he was disappointed, but we have offered him a job in the organization. So far, he hasn't indicated if he will take it," said Gillick.

Hartfield managed Toronto for three seasons, ever since it came into being in 1977, and never achieved the 60-win plateau. His high mark was last year's 59 wins.

"I thank Toronto for giving me the chance to manage at the major-league level," said Hartfield. "I'll be alright wherever I am next year, whether it's San Diego, Hong Kong or Timbuktoo."

Candidates to replace Hartfield include Denis Menke, the manager of the Blue Jays farm team in the Florida Instructional League, Atlanta Braves' Manager Bobby Cox and Philadelphia Phillies' Coach Billy DeMayo.

Menke, a former shortstop with Houston, reportedly communicated well with the younger players in the Toronto system. There had been

The Pittsburgh Pirates, led by Willie Stargell and Bill Robinson, won their first national league east division title since 1975 — and their sixth of the decade — by beating the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, while their only rival, the Montreal Expos, lost to Steve Carlton and the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0.

Pittsburgh was M.C. in the first game of a best-of-five series for the NL pennant Tuesday night. The Pirates have lost to the Reds in three previous divisional playoffs.

Bell Looks Ahead to Next Season

NEW YORK (UPI) — Buddy Bell is already looking forward to next season.

"Obviously it was a very satisfactory season," Bell understated, after he became the first Texas Ranger to collect 200 hits.

"But I hope I can do better next year."

The American League West champion California Angels, led by home runs from Bobby Grich, Carney Lansford and Don Baylor, took the final game of the regular season for both clubs, 11-5. The Angels open the AL playoffs Wednesday in Baltimore.

Bell's hit was a double down the left-field line in the sixth inning of Chris Knapp, 5-5 and scored Earl Williams from first base.

When Bell pulled into second, he got a standing ovation from the 9,086 fans and was handed the ball.

The California victory broke a streak that started earlier by the Angels.

Blue Jays Lose Game, Manager

NEW YORK (UPI) — Roy Hartfield's Toronto Blue Jays lost another game Sunday, their 108th of the season, and an hour after the game, Hartfield lost his job as manager of the three-year-old expansion club.

In the wake of the New York Yankees' win over Toronto, Pat Gillick, the vice president of Baseball Operations with the Jays, terminated the 50-year-old manager with thanks.

"Managing an expansion team is the roughest job in sports, and we thank Roy for what he did in getting us started. Some things didn't turn out as we expected. I think he was disappointed, but we have offered him a job in the organization. So far, he hasn't indicated if he will take it," said Gillick.

Hartfield managed Toronto for three seasons, ever since it came into being in 1977, and never achieved the 60-win plateau. His high mark was last year's 59 wins.

"I thank Toronto for giving me the chance to manage at the major-league level," said Hartfield. "I'll be alright wherever I am next year, whether it's San Diego, Hong Kong or Timbuktoo."

Candidates to replace Hartfield include Denis Menke, the manager of the Blue Jays farm team in the Florida Instructional League, Atlanta Braves' Manager Bobby Cox and Philadelphia Phillies' Coach Billy DeMayo.

Menke, a former shortstop with Houston, reportedly communicated well with the younger players in the Toronto system. There had been

System Rapped

MONTREAL (UPI) — Alan Jones' Canadian Grand Prix victory moves him into third position in the world Formula One championship, but his long Australian has little time for the official scoring system.

"It's stupid," said Jones, who won his fourth Grand Prix Sunday in a 70-yard punt return by Reggie Eccleston and an option pass for the Big Green.

"I interchanged the quarterbacks to help Jeff grow up and bring him in a little slower," said Yukica.

UConn Coach Bill Bowes noted, "We didn't play in the first half, but we're pretty big up front and the game taken as usual to last year's system."

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Roger Craig, who was fired Sunday as manager of the San Diego Padres, hasn't lost faith in himself.

"When you sign on to manage, you know they'll probably fire you eventually, but I thought after what I did last year they would give me another chance," said Craig, who was given his pink slip moments before his club took the field against the San Francisco Giants for its final game of the season.

"I know I can manage in the majors," he said. "I thought I did as good a job as anyone in the league. I'll manage a pennant winner someday. I really believe that."

The Pittsburgh Pirates, led by Willie Stargell and Bill Robinson, won their first national league east division title since 1975 — and their sixth of the decade — by beating the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, while their only rival, the Montreal Expos, lost to Steve Carlton and the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0.

Pittsburgh was M.C. in the first game of a best-of-five series for the NL pennant Tuesday night. The Pirates have lost to the Reds in three previous divisional playoffs.

Dear Abby. By Abigail Van Buren. Bedside Manners. DEAR ABBY: The letter from the newlywed signed FRUSTRATED, who couldn't wait for her husband to be released from the hospital to have sex, reminded me of a similar incident...

DEAR ABBY: I was once in the same predicament as FRUSTRATED, who couldn't wait for her husband to be released from the hospital to have sex, reminded me of a similar incident...

DEAR ABBY: In my 16 years of private nursing, I cannot count the number of times I've been embarrassed when I've walked into private, semi-private and ward rooms to find people with the same views as FRUSTRATED.

DEAR ABBY: I need help in writing letters of sympathy, congratulations or thank-you letters, get Abby's booklet 'How to Write Letters for All Occasions'.
