Rugby in England and Ireland is like baseball or football in America. Children start playing at 6 or 7. Most people in the United States start playing in college, so it s with pride that the Wanderers related their victories over the European teams.

Said Lyon, "In Castlebar, the A string won 19-0. In Hertford, England, we won 7-6. In Seapoint, outside Dublin, we won 18-13. We trained while we were over Lord Mountbatten, who was assassinated by the provisional IRA, was being commemorated with a funeral procession while the Wanderers were in England. Queen Elizabeth I participated, and while the rugby players could have seen her, they did not. Said Lyon, "Rugby is much more important than the Queen of England." Added Tony Foran, "Why would we go to see the queen? It was taking place at the time of a scheduled rugby practice." The team did take time out from their playing schedule to visit Lloyds of London. "This place is like Wall Street." said Foran, "Imagine a beehive or an anthill and

Team members saw the broker called Goldfiner, wh gained his name because he writes so many policies worth so many billions of dollars. Said Foran, "In that anthill of activity, you could see the line formed for Goldfinger sticking out most obviously."

Lloyds has a rugby team who played the social string of the Wanderers and beat them. The social string lost two of their games and tied one. Said Hansen, "We had just as good a time as the A String. They couldn't party too much. We had one big New Year's Eve." One exercise the Wanderers practiced on their tour was called "dead ants." Each day, one member was selected to be King Ant. He had the option of yelling 'Dead Ant" three times during the course of a day. When the players heard the words, they had to immediately fall on their back, kicking their arms and legs in the air. While the mayor of Castlebar, Ireland, was presenting the team with mementoes of the city, member Joe Quinn shouted the password and all 35 of the young, welldressed men dropped to the ground. "It would not be say the head dignitary was somewhat incredulous."

Team members did not always act like wild and crazy guys. Many members have an Irish heritage and visited their families. East Catholic High School graduate, class of '67, Joe Quinn went with his younger brother and sister, one of the only two women to accompany the men. "The most thrilling part of the trip for me was to be able to meet relatives I'd never known before, and to share this with my brother and sister." said Quinn, whose family are East Hartford natives. Five of the brothers in the East Hartford Foran clan participated in the trip. Said Tony Foran, building contractor, "I found the home field for the English national team most amazing. It was like our Baseball Hall of Fame. To Engineers and their spouses:

AN INVITATION to meet more than 50 of our Managers at Hamilton Standard's "Pro-to-Pro" Day.

We invite you and your spouse to an important 3-part program on Saturday, Oct. 6th in Windsor Locks. Connecticut.

Hamilton Standard develops and manufactures high technology products for aerospace, automotive and industrial markets. The key to our success is diversity and the people who make it happen. If you have an engineering degree and good qualifications in any of the areas listed below, our program will well reward a trip to our headquarters-even if you don't wish to make an immediate career move.

Running on a continuous basis

After being welcomed, you'll have an opportunity to see a slide presentation entitled "Standard of Excellence" that provides an overview of Hamilton

THE PROGRAM

Standard. This will be followed by video excerpts describing our specific operations. Phase #2.

Many of our products will be displayed. You'll have a chance to look them over, tour our various technical areas, ask questions, and get to know where we are and where we are headed.

More than 50 of our managers will be on hand for personal one-on-one briefings in the area that most interests you. This includes answering questions about specific programs, and reviewing your background in terms of immediate and future openings. In short, it will be an informal but highly informative lay-it-on-the-line session.

- Other Program highlights include:
- Picnic, refreshments and activities at our recreational facility.
- Plant Tours of our Windsor Locks
- Tours of residential areas. Connecticut Information Booths.

If you cannot attend "Pro-to-Pro" Day, please send your resume to Richard Fuller-Dept. 130, at the address shown below.

Principal Openings Hamilton Standard currently has openings at all levels for:

■ Experimental Engineers ■ Sales Engineers Analytical Engineers

■ Metallurgical Engineers ■ Design Engineers ■ Preliminary Design Engineers

Chemical Engineers ■ Reliability Engineers ■ Manufacturing Engineers ■ Design Project Engineers ■ Assistant Project Engineers

■ Software Engineers Marketing Engineers ■ Plant Mechanical Engineers Research & Development Engineers

ME/EE/ChE/Metallurgical Engineering, or other appropriate degree required. Please bring along your resume if you have one handy.

Travel Directions

Our headquarters in Windsor Locks is easily reached by any of several major highways. Please refer to the map for directions. Although all qualified professionals are invited to attend and are welcome without advance registration, to secure reimbursement for travel expenses, phone Richard Fuller, Supervisor, Professional Recruiting—Collect—at (203) 623-7032, 7:30 AM to 5:30 PM for advance approval. He will be happy to give further directions and answer questions. We look forward to meeting you (and your spouse) on Saturday, October 6th

October 3, 1979

Through chance and circumstances this coming year, situations could develop to enhance your financial base. They could come through channels that have not been open to you before.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Materially and financially your prospects are very encouraging today, but for some reason you may not believe this to be true. Self-defeating thoughts are your enemies. Find out more of what lies alread for your into war folenemies. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
Temptation to spend beyond your means may be strong in you today, so be on your guard. Consider logically what you are able to afford.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

to afford.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Today you will be more inspired to do for those you love, rather than for yourself. Heed these noble impulses. You'll make everyone happy in the process, including you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
Make it a point to be trank and open today in intimate conversations with friends. Your candor will encourage them to do likewise.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
Success will not elude you today if you carefully explore all of your alternatives. Your ingenuity will find openings should other avenues be blocked. ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your hunches could lead you astray today, but your resourcefulness won't. Use methods that you know from experience to have worked well in the past.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Agreements you make today will work to your advantage if you bargain from your strengths, instead of your weaknesses. Be positive, not recallive.
