Recently, in showing a property, she met a widower her who lives just a few blocks from her. He's tall, goodooking, gray-haired and well-dressed. He lives alone in a big ouse and has several foreign cars. I've met him, and he's ealfy a great gby who looks and acts like he's not exactly

Well, this gentleman has been giving Mom a big rush and providing her with lots of fun and laughter. Recently he sent Mom a semi-serious invitation in the mail inviting her to "spend several naughty days with me at one of California's ost romantic spots - Carmel. I said, "Mom, get with it and go!"

fom said, "No way; it's just not my lifestyle." What do you say, Abby? TODAY'S DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Don't try to redesign Mom in your image. It's not easy for some people to "get with it" when they've gotten along nicely WITHOUT it for years. DEAR FRIEND: I've been a faithful reader for many years. The few times I disagreed with you, you subsequently printed a retraction or, at least, admitted the opposition had a good case. In this instance, I don't think you will, but I had

The istallation record is not on any company's book; I put it in myself. I would have the advantage of surprise and, though I can't consistently shoot out the "O" ring at 62, I could probably wear my Navy marksmanship medals to his funeral, incidentally saving the state a bundle, too. In the apartment house where you probably live, the ratio of curity people is about fifty to one. Out here in the jungle, the ratio is several thousand to one. -

Fortunately, your attitude was not so prevalent in 1945, or we might have had an Auschwitz or Buchenwald in Milwaukee or Louisville. As the late Joseph Goebbels said Alley Oop - Dave Graue o Heinrich Himmler, "Es gebt zu denken" ("It makes one think"). You give it some thought, too, sweetheart, and you just might change your mind. In any case, you've helped a lot of propie and I still love you, even though I'll bet you won't print this.
