

The Manchester Board of Realtors has won the December Beautification Award of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce. Allan Taylor, second from left, presented the award. Accepting it are Norman S.

Board of Realtors Gets Award for Beautification

MANCHESTER — The December 1979 Beautification Award was presented to the Manchester Board of Realtors for their building at 186 E. Center St. by the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce Environment and Beautification Committee. Early in November of 1977, certain members of the Manchester Board of Realtors inspected the property at 186 E. Center St. which had just been made available for sale. They became interested in the property and recommended that it be purchased by the board for its home. On November 17, 1977, at a full meeting of the voting members, it was voted to purchase the property, and a sales agreement was executed on Nov. 22. On April 7, 1978, the board was represented by then President Joseph A. Lombardo, Treasurer Norman S. Hohenhal and Attorney Richard C. Woodhouse, the sale was consummated. A new "186 Building Committee" was appointed comprised of Herman F. Frechette, Chairman, Robert F. Blanchard, Lawrence F. Fiano, Norman S. Hohenhal and Robert D. Murdock. Bids were solicited for the work to be done, with the result that the Norman S. Hohenhal Co. was awarded the contract. This was pleasing to the members because it was Norman Hohenhal who visualized how attractive the home could become, and it was he who had created the interest in purchasing the property being in a desirable location for the board's activities. Much time was then devoted to architectural drawings, engineering reports and acquiring various permits. Consequently, actual work did not begin until July 1978. An album of photographs as the work progressed is on file at the board office, which shows the extent to which the house was renovated, both interior and exterior and the gradual transformation into a home which has brought many compliments to the contractor and the others who had a part in the completion of the project. This undertaking was also in accordance with the policy of the National Association of Realtors' Make America Better Committee to rehabilitate rather than to build. The second floor is leased as an apartment. The first floor has a foyer separated from the main office, which has a fireplace, by colonial columns; the office of the executive secretary, the directors' conference room, a fully equipped kitchen, a well lighted storage room with countertops and cabinets. A new roof was part of the project, and the exterior finished with aluminum siding. A new additional driveway was constructed so that cars may enter at the right and circle around the house through the newly installed parking lot which can accommodate approximately sixteen cars. The landscaping was done by the Gioia Landscaping and Contracting Co. with flowering and other shrubs planted both in the front and at the rear of the property. During Private Property Week in April 1978, the board presented a plaque to the 186 Building Committee "in grateful appreciation for their combined talents and guidance in the creation of our beautification home at 186 East Center Street." In the early 1900s this was the home of Dr. George May and his family. The Chamber's EBC made special note of the extensive renovation work done to this building and the contributions the Manchester Board of Realtors have made to this area of Manchester as you approach the center of town. The presentation of this award is one means utilized by the Chamber's EBC to draw attention to business making positive contributions to the appearance and quality of life in Manchester. Citizens are invited to submit nominations for further consideration to the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce Environment and Beautification Committee, 257 E. Center St.

Burglary Report
VERNON — The Vernon Police Department investigated 10 burglaries reported during the week of Nov. 23-29. The breaks were into a business on Windsorville Road, private homes on Lake Street, Washington Street, Village Street, Talcottville Road, King Street, and into apartments on Route 30 and Vernon Avenue.

Garden Club
COVENTRY — Members and guests of Coventry Garden Club will meet at Caprilands Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. for a Christmas party luncheon. The club is sponsoring a door decorating contest for Coventry residents. For more information call Mrs. Cadoret, 228-3242.

Maccarone Cited By UNICO Group

MANCHESTER — Ralph Maccarone will receive the Manchester UNICO "Outstanding Citizenship Award," Dec. 22 at the annual UNICO Christmas party at Fiano's Restaurant, Bolton. Maccarone is a music teacher at Iling Junior High School. He is also choir director at St. James Church and music director for the Little Theatre of Manchester. Maccarone was chairman of the Sesquicentennial "Evening of the Performing Arts" at Manchester High School. He and his wife, Jane, and their four children, live at 32 Hawthorne St. Persons interested in tickets for the party should call one of the following: Michael Missari at 649-6300; Joseph Hachey, 646-4004; Barry Botticello, 643-1845; Lawrence Fiano, 646-0951; Dr. Richard Claps, 649-8979 and Leo Dana, 646-5075.

PZC Sets Meeting

HEBRON — The Planning and Zoning Commission will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Town Office Building. The commission will continue discussions on the complaint concerning the NoTok Scribner operations, accept preliminary plans for subdivisions, and hear the reports of the zoning agent, and liaisons from the Recreation, Conservation, and Economic Development committees and the Water Pollution Control Authority.

ACCIDENTS DISAPPEAR HERE

Whether you've had a major collision or a minor fender bender, leave everything—even your insurance company—to us. And our paint services start AS LOW AS $79.95.

MANCHESTER 291 Adams Street

(I-96 to Exit 93, 7/10 mile south of Calders) 647-9928
COLLISION SPECIALISTS
FREE ESTIMATES
MAACO AUTO PAINTING & BODYWORKS
HOURS:
MON. - FRI. 8 to 6
SAT. 9 AM - NOON
PARTICIPATING MAACO CENTERS ONLY

OPEN DAILY 9:30 TO 9:30 SUNDAY 11 TO 5
Kmart
THE SAVING PLACE
Sole Effective Mon., Dec. 10 thru Sat., Dec. 15th

Save...Save...Save...At Our Great Time Saving Sale!

Timekeeping Classics Unique WALL CLOCKS
featuring Precision
Quartz Movements
by Intercraft.
29.96
Tell time in style...with one of these unique cordless decorator wall clocks from Intercraft. Quartz movements, contemporary styling and design with sizes ranging from 9x11" up to 21x27" are just a few of the features in this exciting series. Three dimensional mirror-mat clocks reflecting off beautiful full color country scenes, landscapes, sunsets and seascapes, also add to the appeal of these handsome time pieces. Deep warm wood finished frames enhance the fine styling of this tastefully fashioned series.
Now specially priced from...

VERNON Hartford Tpke. MANCHESTER 239 Spencer St.,

Letters and Armbands

Teachers Plan Protest of Iran Situation

By LAUREN DAVIS SHEA
Herald Reporter
MANCHESTER — The Manchester Education Association is asking its 475 members to write letters to the Iranian mission at the United Nations protesting the holding of 50 American hostages in Iran. Association President Lee Hay said by the end of the week he expects to have distributed white armbands to all teachers.

Connecticut Education Association President Jane Glover said the armbands are being distributed by the state organization as "a graphic display of our support and commitment to the U.S. government." Hay said the association will mainly encourage teachers to write letters and wear the armbands but added, "I assume that as the students inquire about the armbands, there will be some carryover. I wouldn't discourage anyone from participating in the effort." The education association received support today for their effort from Assistant School Superintendent Wilson E. Deakin Jr. Deakin said, "I'm pleased they're concerned about our people abroad. I hope they involve me. I hope they give me an armband. I'll put it on as an example." Hay said he expected to distribute copies of the format of the letter and the armbands through the interschool mail Wednesday. He said by Thursday the material should be circulated, and by Friday teachers will be wearing the armbands. He added, "We are careful of not using the classroom as a podium for our point of view, regardless of the format." He said basically the letter format states, "We protest the action of the Iranian student militants and their de facto leader, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini. We reaffirm our support of the American system of life and demand the hostages released." Hay added, "This is just another opportunity for teachers of Connecticut to band together. We hope to set an example." The Manchester action is tied to the state education association request that Connecticut's 37,000 teachers participate in the initiative. Letters should be sent to the Iranian Mission at the United Nations, 622 Third Ave., 34th floor, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Top Choice
When two dogs share a one-room dog house in a muddy yard, the only dry place to go is the roof. With the mild temperature Monday, "Jake," on the roof doesn't seem to mind his spot while he watches over his mother, "Kimo," inside. The two German shepherds live in Chelmsford, Mass. (UPI photo)

Manchester Evening Herald

Buckley Enters Race

SHARON (UPI) — Former New York Sen. James Buckley officially entered Connecticut's U.S. Senate race today and quickly addressed what could be a liability criticism he's an across-the-border "carpetbagger." Buckley, who held the news conference at his Sharon estate on the New York line, said his allegiance to Connecticut was firm enough to back the Republican nomination for the seat being left by retiring Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn. "I will be asked, and ought to be asked, why I, a former senator from New York, should presume to ask the people of Connecticut to grant me the privilege of serving them," said Buckley, 68, who served one term in the U.S. Senate. "The fact is that until I was invited to run for the Senate from New York, I had spent the majority of my time, year in and year out, in Connecticut not just evenings and weekends and I have been a Connecticut voter for 25 out of the 35 years I have been privileged to vote." Some people, including the only other announced candidate for the Republican Senate nomination Sen. Senate Minority Leader Richard Borzuto, R-Waterbury, say Buckley's heart really lies in New York. Borzuto, anticipating the announcement, said Monday, "It is the Christmas season, and I guess you could go shopping for a Senate nomination as well as anything else. That's what James Buckley is doing." As soon as he'd countered the "carpetbagger" claim, Buckley took up the probable candidate on the Democratic side Rep. Christopher Dodd, D-Conn. He said Dodd was "locked into politics of the past." Dodd, he said, has consistently voted to expand the federal government and inflate the budget "except when it comes to defense, where he has voted to cut spending and kill such necessary weapons as the B1 bomber." Buckley, for 17 years an advisor on oil and gas explorations in the family-owned Catawba Corp., said more should be spent on defense because the country was headed "for the most dangerous decade in our history." The savage humiliation we have suffered in Iran tells us something of the collapse of American prestige around the globe. This may be just a taste of what is to come," he said. Should he win the nomination, Buckley would likely be a formidable opponent. Salisbury Republican Town Chairman John Harney began the "Draft Buckley" drive back in June. He said they would welcome a three-way contest with Borzuto and former Republican Rep. Robert Steele of Norwich. Harney said the three might force a primary and Buckley could use the exposure. "It's well known in every district with the exception of the 2nd District," said Harney. The 2nd District is Dodd's territory. But Steele said Monday he won't decide what to do until the end of January. He added that, "If I do become a candidate, I'm confident I would win the Republican nomination." Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club. He said he told Buckley after the speech: "Jimmy, you've got to do it and that's it." "We don't have a beacon anymore, and we certainly need it in these days," said Harney. Buckley gave it some thought, quietly changed his voter registration from New York City to Sharon in August, but said he didn't make a decision either way until November. He would be no newcomer to Senate campaigns. In 1968, Buckley collected a surprising 14 percent of the vote as a third party nominee in the U.S. Senate race in New York — not enough to win but more than double what any third party candidate ever gained in a New York election. He was elected U.S. Senator from New York in 1970, but lost the seat six years later to Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y. After raising unpopular doubts about federal aid to bail New York out of its financial problems, Harney said he began collecting commitments for Buckley after he heard him speak before a women's club

Update

First Interview

NEW YORK (UPI) - Cpl. William Gallegos, 20, of Pueblo, Colo., a U.S. Embassy guard being held hostage in Tehran, told NBC-TV Monday in the first interview by an American television network with one of the 50 hostages, the Iranian militants had charged him with being a CIA agent. He denied the charge. He said he was being held with 28 others in "little cubicles" where they could see each other, although they were not allowed to speak and were housed loosely with pieces of cloth. He said they are well treated, although they are never left alone and he did not know where the 30 others were being held.

In Washington, White House press secretary Jody Powell said the interview did not satisfy U.S. demands

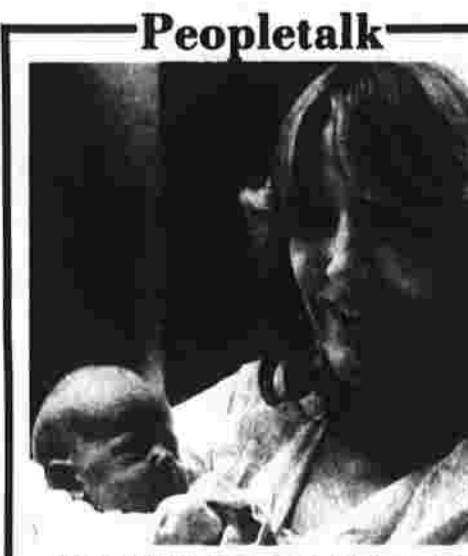

Lost in Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) - Systems for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said they believe Satcom III, owned by RCA American Communications, Inc., is the first satellite ever lost in space after a successful launch. The 1-ton satellite, designed for the sole use of the growing cable television industry,

Encouraging Sign

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Government economists said the November sales performance demonstrates continued strength in the economy

Peopletalk

Star Trek fan Mrs. Bonnie Young holds her newborn son, Colin Patrick, after leaving the movie for delivery. (UPI photo)

Her Spock Is a Mr.

There are "Star Trek" fans, and there are "Star Trek" fanatics. Mrs. Dennis Young is among the latter.

When "Star Trek: The Motion Picture" opened in Kansas City, Kan., she was right there at the box office despite the fact her labor pains were only two minutes apart. Half an hour before the end of the picture, she was taken over her protest to the hospital where she delivered a 7-pound-4-ounce boy.

Family Trekkers who went to the theater with her were incensed. They'd come prepared with sterilized sheets and rubber gloves to deliver the baby right in the theater. She even threatened to name her new son Gene Roddenberry after the creator of the space opera but finally settled for Colin Patrick.

En Garde!

President Carter and Teddy Kennedy met Sunday for the first time since tossing their hats into the presidential ring and they left no doubt the fight is on.

The arena was a $1,000-a-plate fundraiser in Washington to endow a political science chair at Boston College and the occasion was the 67th birthday of House Speaker Thomas "Tip" O'Neill.

Kennedy fired the first salvo. "Marshall said her son had worked very hard for three years and that he needed a little rest. I assured her I was in that complete agreement."

Carter fired right back, saying O'Neill told him the key to political success is "wait your turn."

Said Carter, "I've made the same point recently."

Round 2 coming up.

Another Chapter

Neil Simon's "Chapter Two" closed on Broadway, but Columbia Pictures picked it up without missing a beat.

The film version was screened Sunday to a celebrity audience, including Vice President Walter Mondale and daughter Eleanor, who worked on the movie as a summer publicity intern for Columbia.

Simon was there too, with wife Marsha Mason who stars in what amounts to a real life role - that of a woman convincing a widower, as she did Simon, that a second marriage can work after the death of a much-loved first wife.

The only hitch was a delay in limousine service. Because of the Mondale affair, the Secret Service had pre-empted all the parking spaces.

Quote of the Day

Bob Ferguson of Commack, N.Y., one of more than 150,000 commuters caught in the bond of New York's strikebound Long Island Rail Road and forced to find other means of getting to work in Manhattan: "It means fewer hours in bed with my wife. I hope she doesn't find a replacement."

Glimpses

Helen Hayes read from the Gospel of Luke and Carmel Quinn, Lanny Ross and Celeste Holm entertained Monday at New York's Waldorf-Astoria at Cardinal Terence Cooke's annual children's Christmas party fundraiser.

Burt Lancaster and Susan Sarandon have finished the Canadian segment of filming for John Guare's "Atlantic City, U.S.A." and have moved to the title city to finish the movie.

Christopher Plummer, Joanne Woodward and Sylvia Sydney are in rehearsal in California for Michael Cristofer's play "The Shadow Box," directed by Paul Newman, for ABC-TV.

Lottery Numbers

Winning daily lottery numbers drawn Monday in New England:

Connecticut: 214.

Massachusetts: 8645.

New Hampshire: 6990. The number drawn for Sunday was 0664.

Rhode Island: 1452.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Tuesday, Dec. 11, the 345th day of 1979 with 20 to follow.

The moon is in its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury.

The evening star is Venus.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Sagittarius.

The late New York Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia was born Dec. 11, 1882.

On this date in history:

In 1816, Indiana was admitted to the union as the 19th state.

In 1936, Britain's King Edward VIII abdicated the throne to marry American divorcee Wallis Warfield Simpson. His brother, the Duke of York, succeeded to the throne as King George VI.

In 1941, four days after Japan attacked Pearl Harbor, Germany and Italy declared war on the United States.

In 1972, Apollo 17 astronaut Gene Cernan and Harrison Schmitt landed on the moon for a three-day exploration.

A thought for the day: American author Walt Whitman said, "I shall use the words America and democracy as convertible terms."

that neutral observers meet with the hostages to see if they were being well treated. Gallegos' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gallegos, who viewed the tape in Denver, said he appeared to have lost about 20 pounds and sounded very nervous. However, his mother expressed pride in what he said. "He showed that he is an American."

was launched from Cape Canaveral Thursday night on a Delta rocket. After the launch, officials said the satellite had gone into its preliminary transfer orbit as planned. NASA officials then turned the satellite's future guidance over to American. Spokesman John Williamson late Monday reported RCA scientists had lost all track of Satcom III after they sent it a signal to fire an onboard rocket motor to guide it into its permanent, stationary orbit. Space tracking stations around the world are helping them search space for it.

and that consumers are continuing to spend money - an encouraging sign amid an impending recession may be mild. However, the Bureau of the Census reported the median sales price of a new home dropped in October in a decline equalling the steepest of this decade. Much of the housing slowdown can be attributed to the Federal Reserve Board's Oct. 6 action to tighten credit as a method of combating inflation. The price declines mirrored the overall sluggishness of the housing industry.

Court Backs Attorney In Nursing Home Probe

HARTFORD (UPI) - The Connecticut Supreme Court today upheld the right of the state attorney general to enforce subpoenas to investigate alleged irregularities in the nursing home industry.

The court ruled that a lower court erred when it refused to order the U.S. Army officer with 18 years of service to investigate the nursing home industry.

The decision climaxed a three-year battle by the state to force the association's top president, Harold J. Moffie, to testify about a letter he allegedly wrote urging association members to boycott state-funded Medicare patients.

The Superior Court had determined that Moffie, of New Britain, did not have to comply with the subpoena because the activities sought to be investigated were exempt from the state's Anti-Trust Act.

But the Supreme Court said it's not up to state courts to decide whether such activities come under the Anti-Trust Act.

"While courts which enforce subpoenas may inquire into most questions of legality," the court ruled, "they may not inquire into alleged irregularities in the coverage or even the probable coverage of the statute under which the attorney general is acting."

Attorney General Carl Ajello had served a subpoena on Moffie to appear at a Sept. 10, 1976, hearing before the Connecticut Attorney General's Commission on the nursing home industry.

The decision climaxed a three-year battle by the state to force the association's top president, Harold J. Moffie, to testify about a letter he allegedly wrote urging association members to boycott state-funded Medicare patients.

Vet Can Get Bonus

HARTFORD (UPI) - The Connecticut Supreme Court today ruled that a U.S. Army officer with 18 years of service is ineligible to receive the state's Vietnam veteran bonus.

The court said Robert L. Leech, an Indiana resident when he entered West Point in 1960, cannot apply for the state bonus because he did not reside in Connecticut for one year before he entered West Point.

The high court rejected claims by Leech that the one-year residency requirement violated both state and federal equal protection laws.

Family's Holiday Wish Is for Return of Son

COVENTRY - For at least one Coventry family, the beginning of the holiday season has not proven to be a happy affair.

William and Christa Wilkens have taken an ad in a local newspaper pleading with their 18-year-old son, Gunnar Hartner, "Please let us know in any way how you are."

Hartner has not returned to his stepfather's home in more than a month, when he left for school dressed in usual attire and leaving behind clothing, papers, and other personal possessions.

His stepfather, who is pastor of the Prince of Peace Lutheran church, claims Hartner left school early that day and has been seen at least once in the Village area since his November 6 departure.

Police Chief Robert Kjelquist has alerted his officers to be on the lookout for Hartner. Although the young man has committed no crime and is old enough to act without parental permission, a Kjelquist said that Hartner is found he will be urged to contact his family.

"I want to make it clear to anyone who is helping Hartner," the chief explained, "that he is not doing wrong in this. But I would appreciate such a person letting me know since Hartner is listed as a missing person."

Hartner is vice-president of the Senior Class at Coventry High School. He failed to show up at a yearbook staff meeting he had planned on the day he disappeared. He is considered a good student and has held a part-time job at a local supermarket. The youth is 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds, and has gray eyes and light brown curly hair.

At the time he left home, he was wearing dark green corduroy slacks and royal blue down vest with red front panels. He carried a gray jogging suit with black stripes, blue running shoes, and a yellow sweater. Wilkens said in his advertisement, "Know that you are welcome home." He requests that anyone with information call the police department at 742-7331.

His parents claim that Hartner had been more concerned than usual with world problems in recent months. They also cite the fact that his senior workload was extensive and that a cousin, also 18, died recently in an accident. What disturbs his family most at this point is their uncertainty about his safety.

Hartford Seeks OK To Reopen Coliseum

HARTFORD (UPI) City officials have applied for permission to open the unfinished Hartford Civic Center Coliseum on Jan. 17, one day short of the second anniversary of the roof collapse.

The request to open the coliseum on a partial basis with 2,000 seats is before the city Department of Licenses and Inspections and the state Fire Marshal's Office.

City Manager Donald Peach said Monday he expected the state to deliver its answer in a day or two.

The 8,000 seats are about half of the capacity of the new Hartford Civic Center which city officials want to begin collecting revenue.

Are Damages Tax Deductible?

ARE DAMAGES TAX DEDUCTIBLE?

As a homeowner, you may be surprised to learn that the improvements may affect your income taxes. For instance: damage to your house from, say, fire or windstorm may be partially deductible as a casualty loss. After subtracting insurance compensation, deduct 10% for each accident and the remainder can be claimed as a tax deduction.

Improvements, such as a porch, garage, finished basement, and so on cannot be deducted. However, they can be added to the cost of the home when figuring profit on the sale. So, keep good records of such expenses. Try to preserve cancelled checks and

Real Estate

By GERALD P. ROTHMAN, Realtor

As a homeowner, you may be surprised to learn that the improvements may affect your income taxes. For instance: damage to your house from, say, fire or windstorm may be partially deductible as a casualty loss. After subtracting insurance compensation, deduct 10% for each accident and the remainder can be claimed as a tax deduction.

Improvements, such as a porch, garage, finished basement, and so on cannot be deducted. However, they can be added to the cost of the home when figuring profit on the sale. So, keep good records of such expenses. Try to preserve cancelled checks and

Democrats To Meet

MANCHESTER - The Democratic Town Committee will meet Dec. 12 in the Town Hall hearing room to set a date for the January caucus.

At the January meeting 90 town committee members will be elected. Procedures for candidacy, from first filing to voting, will be explained next Wednesday.

Anyone interested in running for a town committee position in January is urged to attend.

To Report News

To report a news item or story idea:

Manchester: Alex Girelli, 643-2711

East Hartford: 643-2711

Glastonbury: Dave Lavallee, 643-2711

Andover: Donna Holland, 643-2711

Bolton: Donna Holland, 643-2711

Coweth: Claire Connelly, 743-6269

Hebron: Patricia Mullan, 228-0269

South Windsor: Judy Kimbel, 644-1264

Vernon: Barbara Richardson, 643-2711

To Report Special News

To report special news:

Business: Alex Girelli, 643-2711

Opinion: Frank Burkack, 643-2711

Chronicle: Betty Ryder, 643-2711

Sports: Earl Vost, 643-2711

Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Citizens Support Chadburn

MANCHESTER - The Citizens for Social Responsibility has announced support for the reappointment of Carl Chadburn.

Chadburn's appointment to the Human Relations Commission has been questioned by several board of directors members.

In a letter that was released Monday, co-chairman Betty Tonucci and Bob Faucher said "the attempts to deny Chadburn's reappointment and accusations that he has insulted the town, are grossly unfair not only to Chadburn, but also to all of us who find bigotry and racism in any form objectionable."

Chadburn's appointment was tabled at last week's Board of Directors meeting when the four Republicans abstained, and Democrat Director James McCavanagh was absent.

McCavanagh has said he opposed the reappointment because of Chadburn's statements supporting the federal Community Development program.

The letter noted Chadburn's remarks were not directed against the community, "but followed other remarks that were insulting."

"During the debate Chadburn and others chose to respond to such remarks. It was the correct thing for a decent man to do."

Chadburn's appointment to the commission and that of Wanda Frane and Frank Livingston will be considered by the board at tonight's meeting.

Chadburn was also endorsed by the Human Relations Commission in a Dec. 8 letter.

Holiday Peek

First Lady Rosalynn Carter, while giving the media a peek at this year's White House Christmas tree, said Monday Christmas activities at the White House "won't be as loud" as usual this year because of the Iranian crisis. (UPI photo)

Court Backs Project Halt

HARTFORD (UPI) - The U.S. Supreme Court has let stand a lower court decision halting an urban renewal project in Waterbury until the government complies with historic and environmental regulations.

The decision Monday cast in doubt the success of the $60 million downtown project that has already demolished 30 buildings.

A group known as Waterbury Action to Conserve Our Heritage Inc., WATCH, went to court to block the demolition of 21 historic buildings for the project.

The group had charged the city and federal government failed to consider the historic nature of the buildings before proposing to demolish them.

The court Monday upheld without comment an injunction against demolition issued in June by the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

James Hartley, counsel for the Waterbury Urban Renewal Agency, said the high court's action may mean the downtown project will never be completed as originally proposed.

William Howard, attorney for WATCH, said talks with the agency and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development may lead to a new design of the entire project to include preservation of old buildings.

If no settlement is reached, Howard said, the federal government will have no choice but to proceed with court-ordered studies into the historical character of the buildings and whether they are eligible for the National Register of Historic Places.

Chinese Auction Set

BOLTON - The Bolton High School Class of 1981 will sponsor a Chinese auction Wednesday from 3 to 9 p.m. in the library of Bolton Elementary School.

Those attending will buy an envelope or several envelopes of tickets that will be placed near the item they wish to win.

At 9 p.m. the winning names will be drawn. The winners need not be present to win.

The pen and ink drawing that will be displayed for the auction will change into a pen and ink drawing of the winner's house. It will be done by Ruth Lorenzen.

Some of the other prizes include a pine cone wreath, dinner for two, a hair cut, alphan, hairpin lace shawl, stuffed animals, plants, jewelry, needlepoint kits, ceramic angels, korsos lamps, a wine rack, pen and ink drawings, a slate trivet and creelwork picture.

There are 50 prizes in all.

Proceeds from the auction will benefit the classes senior year activities.

How to Beat the Killer Diseases?

WE BEAT THE "INFECTIOUS DISEASES" but now the degenerative diseases are killing us off like flies. And it isn't "Old Age" that is killing us off either, because there are societies where people live to be over 100 years old - and this is common. Why must we die at age 73? Do we predetermine this or are we merely destroying ourselves?

Just read these alarming statistics:

HALF OF ALL AMERICANS will die of HEART DISEASE.

1,100 A DAY will die of CANCER, (25% of us).

$140 BILLION a year is spent in the health-care industry, which is equal to the Pentagon Defense Budget!

In the New England Journal of Medicine, Dec. 6th issue, a 40 year study was conducted on select college people which shows that STRESS and bad MENTAL HEALTH are the leading causes of the Killer Diseases, even when many allowances have been made for "good genes", alcoholism, obesity and tobacco use.

Other authorities in the past have shown overwhelming evidence that STRESS is the underlying cause of Cancer, Heart Disease and Diabetes.

WHY STRESS? ... Stress can control the central nervous system that regulates the endocrine, ... immunologic, ... cardiovascular, ... and behavioral Brain Systems.

In other words ... HOW you handle stress actually determines how LONG you live and how WELL you live! A number of factors undermine our ability to cope with stress, and overburden our sensitive enzyme systems, which in turn control our central nervous system. These factors are the POLLUTION of our FOOD and ENVIRONMENT, ... EXCESS RADIATION, ... AND BAD NUTRITION. If our food supply is grossly deficient in essential trace minerals and nutrients how can we possibly have a balanced diet? In studies by the U.S.D.A. they have shown how artificial fertilizers are depleting our soils of essential nutrients and where over 150 areas of this country are growing deficient fruits and vegetables while the chemical pollutants in our foods and waters are destroying the protective enzymes in our bodies.

According to Dr. Harold W. Harper, M.D., "If we want to prevent these 'Killer Diseases', we must fortify our bodies with the proper Vitamins, Minerals along with WISE nutrition. We must have a complete overhaul of our food industry, curb junk food that subtly produces 'glucose metabolism dysfunction' and a major overhaul of our life style."

Remember ... the price we pay for ignoring and abusing our bodies is very high. After all ... everything we do affects everything else. THERE ARE NO FREE LUNCHES.

Stress, bad mental health, and bad nutrition all work together to lower our resistance against disease that are killing us off!

Bibliography/New England Journal of Medicine, Vol. 301, Dec. 6th, 1979 - How You Can Beat the Killer Diseases, Harold W. Harper, MD

NEW POINT ON NUTRITION

ON NUTRITION
BY MICHAEL DWORNIK, B.S., REG. PHARMACIST

MANISTEE® Hide-A-Ways

• 5 Styles to choose from
• Distinctive Gift Box
In Tan & Black Cherry
$13.

REGALL'S

"Where women look to a shop for men!"

MANCHESTER/VERNON

900 MAIN STREET TRI-CITY PLAZA
Mon-Wed 9:30-5:30 Thurs. 8:00-9:30-Sat. 10:00-5:00 Sun. 12-5

Printed in The Public Interest by:

Parkside-Health Nutrition Center Liggett-Parkade Pharmacy

Irish Backs Buckley Run

MANCHESTER - Republican State Committee member Wallace Irish announced his support for James Buckley today.

Irish is attending the news conference in Sharon, where Buckley is expected to enter the Republican race for the U.S. Senate.

"The Republicans need their strongest candidate to win in 1980," Irish said. "Buckley is an exceptionally fine man."

The only announced contender for the nomination is Senate Minority Leader Richard Bozutto, but another name mentioned is conservative, Buckley, against a liberal.

If Buckley were nominated he would offer the voters a direct comparison, Irish said. "A Democratic contender is Rep. Christopher Dodd."

The Christmas Rose

A Lovely Little Extra

At first blush this unusual pin appears to be a miniature rose in a tiny florist's box. A closer look reveals the red camellia petals, green leaves and gold-toned stems. It's a great surprise to accompany any gift.

$8.50 including gift card and poem by Virginia McElroy Anderson.

At first blush this unusual pin appears to be a miniature rose in a tiny florist's box. A closer look reveals the red camellia petals, green leaves and gold-toned stems. It's a great surprise to accompany any gift.

$8.50 including gift card and poem by Virginia McElroy Anderson.

Christmas slip-ins... SURE TO PLEASE HIM

MANISTEE® Hide-A-Ways

• 5 Styles to choose from
• Distinctive Gift Box
In Tan & Black Cherry
$13.

REGALL'S

"Where women look to a shop for men!"

MANCHESTER/VERNON

900 MAIN STREET TRI-CITY PLAZA
Mon-Wed 9:30-5:30 Thurs. 8:00-9:30-Sat. 10:00-5:00 Sun. 12-5

Printed in The Public Interest by:

Parkside-Health Nutrition Center Liggett-Parkade Pharmacy

Editorial

Bells Sound for Hostages

Church bells ring in Glastonbury every hour on the hour from a different church.

It is a moving sound and all who hear pause to remember the Americans held in the embassy in Iran.

The Glastonbury Clergy Association has set up the bell ringing along the lines of a national plan to help the American people in their desire to do something to support government efforts to free our people.

It may seem to be a small gesture to some, but it is a fitting way to show the solidarity of the American people.

Bells always have held a special significance in the United States.

A bell is one of America's strongest symbols of liberty and the determination of a nation to pursue a life free of oppression.

As a reminder to everyone that 50 Americans have been deprived their liberty and are being held by their oppressors without regard for the most basic human rights and the primary tenet of international law, the bells are a most dignified protest.

We would like to see other communities follow the plan and ring their bells in an effort to call attention to our concern for the lives and safety of our people caught up in an act of government-sanctioned terrorism in Iran.

In addition to the bells tolling individuals can bring the resolve of the American people directly to the Iranians by sending a Christmas greeting to the hostages.

Postage to Iran is 30 cents per half ounce.

Messages may be addressed to hostages, U.S. Embassy, 260 Takhte Jamshid Ave., P.O. Box 50, Tehran, Iran.

If thousands of cards arrive in Iran it will help tell Iranian authorities the people of the United States are behind the government's efforts to free our citizens held in an act of international crime, condemned by the civilized world.

As bells toll and greetings

Manchester Evening Herald
 Manchester — A City of Village Charm
 Founded Oct. 1, 1881

Published by the Manchester Publishing Co., Herald Square, Manchester, Conn. 06040, Telephone (203) 643-2711.

Member: Audit Bureau of Circulation

Customer Service — 647-6946
 Raymond F. Robinson, Editor-Publisher

Shawn Henry, Executive Editor
 Frank A. Barber, Managing Editor
 Harold E. Turkington, Editor Emeritus arrive in Tehran the international criminals holding our people should be reminded that those 50 citizens of the United States are but a small part of the whole.

The whole is a nation of individuals with great resolve to be patient and protect our citizens illegally held in Iran. Iran interprets that patience as weakness.

The mistake is that the citizens of the United States

O.D.I.D.

Thoughts

"Love Builds Up" 1 Cor. 8:1

Paul proposes this profound truth in a most off-hand way. He is discussing how Christians were playing the game of king of the mountain with one another. Some felt it was all right to eat food offered to idols while others felt superior to their brothers because they didn't. But Paul recognizes that their game is destructive of true Christian compassion and fellowship.

Paul asserts that where Love of God exists in human hearts it will build up the person and through that person will build up others around them.

Soren Kierkegaard wrote an essay about how Love builds up in a book titled "Works of Love." He makes the point that Love is not "mean" but rather "loving." Love is the other person's heart in the heart of another person or the lover presupposes that love is in the other person's heart. And in this builds up love in the other. Kierkegaard questions if any person can plant love in another person's heart. He concludes this is a more than human relationship, exclaiming "It is God, the creator, who must implant love in each person, he who himself is love." Without the love of God in our hearts we fall victim of the sins that have made marriage a destructive relationship rather than one that "builds up." So many tear down a partner, or children, or parents in our relationships today.

Once love is implanted by God we must go about presupposing love in the other person and thus letting Love build them up. Often we do the opposite, which is tearing down a person to scathing criticism. We really build up a person when we assume love is present even when the person seems misguided, deluded and lost.

Kierkegaard observed, "Remember that the prodigal son's father was not the prodigal son himself, but the father's love hoped all things." He treated the son as if he loved and thus build him up.

May our love build up one another in this Advent season that celebrates love come down.

Rev. James Meek, pastor,
 Community Baptist Church

Letters

Need for Education

To the editor,

After an absence of 30 years I recently returned to this "City of Village Charm" and am appalled at the attitude of our city fathers and of some of its more prominent citizens toward Frank Lupien because of some seemingly was an innocent remark.

I have had the pleasure in knowing Frank for more than 55 years. In fact knowing the Lupien family as neighbors when both our families were the only residents on the south side of Porter Street between the cemetery and Autumn Street.

In all these years the Lupien family was the least bigoted of any family I knew.

Having worked and retired from the great city of Portland, Oregon under our present director of transportation, Neal Goldschmidt, I am highly aware of bigoted citizen remarks.

Instead of trying to improve the teaching of the Holocaust we should be teaching our children the ways and means of electing better governmental officials.

Our President Roosevelt was as much at fault as was Adolph Hitler. If President Roosevelt had not rereached on his promise of aid, by supplying material only to England and France, those countries would have had the means to punish Hitler when he fled Germany Army occupied the Rhineland.

Hitler wrote in his book, "Mein Kampf," that if he occupied the Rhineland without opposition he

The Herald in Washington

Odyssey to Iran — Part 4

By LEE RODDERICK

TEHRAN — When the U.S. Embassy was overrun by young toughs on Nov. 4 dozens of Americans and personnel of other nationalities were taken hostage.

Three top-level officers were elsewhere, however — at the Foreign Ministry on "routine business." They included the chief of the U.S. mission, Bruce Laingen, political officer Victor Tomsseth and security officer Michael Howland.

The three were forcibly detained at the Foreign Ministry, which applied the euphemism "protective detention" to their captivity. When we met with them later, crusty Mike Howland said the label was "pure bull." We're prisoners just like those at the embassy."

Rep. George Hansen's main goal when he got to Iran was to visit the hostages and — if at all possible — to even take several home as a signal that Iran was ready to begin defusing the crisis.

During his second evening in Tehran, Hansen pressed that point as he met for an hour with Acting Foreign Minister Abol-Hasan Bani Sadr — a meeting also attended by interpreter Eric Rouleau, veteran correspondent for the French newspaper Le Monde, and this reporter.

The meeting gave the first sign since the crisis began over two weeks earlier that Bani Sadr was indeed ready to find a compromise.

Hansen first suggested that Congress likely would be willing to hold immediate hearings on the U.S. government's historic relationship with the deposed shah if it would help free the hostages. He proceeded to ask Bani Sadr for a response to that proposal and for permission to see the hostages.

Nonetheless, during our brief five-minute, they exhibited calm and determination. We sat on a couch and small cups of sweet Iranian tea were served. It was Thanksgiving Day — one we'd never forget.

Rev. James Meek, pastor,
 Community Baptist Church

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Few decisions of an American president have such lasting effect — for good or evil — as his Supreme Court choices. The influence of Richard Nixon's four court appointments, for example, will outlast his unique presidential disgrace for years or even decades.

Jimmy Carter hasn't had a chance to pick a member of the high court, and if he turns out to be a one-term president, he probably never will. But with five of the justice in their 70s, it's almost a sure bet that whoever wins join one white House only in the hope of being considered for a Supreme Court appointment.

Contenders for Supreme Court

*Shirley Hufstader, 54, new secretary of education. A respected Ninth Circuit court judge, she was reportedly assured that the Cabinet job wouldn't take her out of the running for the high court.

*Former Attorney General Griffin Bell, 61, able, affable Bell surprised even his critics during his tenure in Washington.

*Solicitor General Wade McKee, 59, well thought-of as a federal judge, he hasn't lived up to expectations in his new post.

*Leon Higginbotham, 51, rated as the finest black federal judge by legal scholars.

*Ruth Bader Ginsburg, 46, Columbia University law professor and leading advocate of the Equal Rights Amendment. She's regarded by some as too much of a single-issue candidate.

*Health Education and Welfare Secretary Patricia Harris, 55, a controversial figure who got mixed reviews.

Here are Teddy Kennedy's front-runners, sources close to the senator told our associate Gary Cox:

*Shirley Hufstader, again Kennedy aides say he would likely pick a woman, and like Carter, he's impressed with her record.

*Marvin Frankel, 59, former federal judge recently returned to private practice.

*Archibald Cox, 67, Harvard law professor and former Watergate development. He was an assistant attorney general and is now a partner in a Washington law firm.

*Gerald Gunther, 52, Stanford law professor. Though a registered Democrat, he favors judicial restraint and would be acceptable to moderate Republicans.

*Cornelia Kennedy, 56, a federal judge in Detroit recently promoted to the Sixth Circuit. Her conservative rulings on minority rights have drawn protests from civil rights advocates.

*Edward Levi, 68, former attorney general under Ford. A respected law professor at the University of Chicago, his age would count against him.

School Project Given Priority

SOUTH WINDSOR — The Town of South Windsor is among 31 towns put on the state Board of Education's priority list for school construction projects. If approved, by the General Assembly, the town could receive up to $18,261 for a high school swimming pool and $14,82 for renovations to the high school roof.

If all items are approved it could mean more than $53 million in state grant funding over the next 20 years.

The construction proposals are listed under three categories of educational need. First priority is given to projects needed to meet mandates for instructional programs; second for those necessary to meet school accreditation standards or to provide support services; and those in category three will expand, enhance or enrich existing school offerings. The South Windsor projects are in the latter group.

There were requests for 22 construction projects in 14 towns, including $12 million to fund six building projects in the Town of Wolcott.

The school construction priority list must now be approved by legislative committee before being presented to the full General Assembly and the governor.

Bogus Bird Bill
 William Mottram, San Francisco, zoo veterinarian, holds black-crowned night heron which was fitted with a new false bill after it was found in the zoo's aviary, hungry and in shock, with the bill snapped in two. A dentist anesthetized the heron, wired the broken beak in place, took an impression and made a mold from which he shaped the new bill in the same acrylic used in human dentures. (UPI photo)

State Grants OK For Renovations

SOUTH WINDSOR — Town officials have received state authorization to award the construction contract for the high school renovation project to Amulli and Sons of Manchester, according to School Superintendent Robert W. Goldman.

Goldman said the Public Building Commission has recommended that acting Town Manager Charles Enes sign the contract next week. Town Attorney John Woodcock III is reviewing the contract in preparation for signing. Goldman said.

Goldman said that it is his understanding that as soon as the contract is signed, a conference with Gregory Plunkett, principal of South Windsor High School will be held.

The project will improve the vocational arts facilities at the high school and turn part of the former Wapping Elementary School into a high school annex.

Under the plan, six classrooms at Wapping would house fine arts facilities that now occupy two rooms at the high school. Overcrowding in the home economics and industrial arts departments at the high school will be eliminated as a result of the construction project. The graphic arts, woodshop, metal shop and small engines shop will be moved to larger quarters. The project will also improve facilities for handicapped at both schools.

The Board of Education approved the renovation project by a 7-2 vote April 11, 1978, and voters give their nod of approval in referendum, November, 1979.

School officials had hoped that construction could have started last summer, and work completed by September, 1979. Bids for the project, however, came in far above the estimated amount.

Perjury Charges Due In Reilly Jury Case

LITCHFIELD (UPI) — Arrest warrants have been issued for two men on charges they lied before a grand jury that cleared Peter Reilly of the Sept. 28, 1973 death of his mother, Barbara Gibbons.

Named in warrants signed Monday by Litchfield Superior Court Judge Norris L. O'Neill were Timothy Parmelee, a former neighbor of Miss Gibbons in Falls Village, and Frederick Bonhotel, formerly of Sharon.

Litchfield County State's Attorney Dennis A. Santore said Monday that Parmelee and Bonhotel were each charged with perjury, but he refused to disclose the information supporting the perjury charges. Santore said Bonhotel was believed to be living in Holland Patent, N.Y., and he was uncertain whether the suspect would return to Connecticut voluntarily.

The whereabouts of Parmelee was unknown Monday night.

Parmelee had served a 90-day sentence in Litchfield Correctional Center for non-open every nite 'til except saturday (closed saturday)

gift boxes
 all sizes

FAIRWAY
 the miracle of man's feet downtown manchester

every little thing

Sewer Pact Delayed

MANCHESTER — The formal approval given to the sewer agreement by Manchester and the Eighth Utilities District has not yet reached the town of South Windsor.

Richard Reeves, South Windsor sewer committee member, expects the agreement will be approved at the December meeting. But South Windsor will wait for the formal notice from the others before acting.

Bolton High School Lists Honor Students

- Grade 11
 Linda Bushnell, Susanne Fenton, Lisa Fiano, Susan Gately, Penny Gilliam, Ellen Godeau, Christina Richardson, Seth Teller.
- Grade 10
 Kimberly Columbia, Dawn Cornelison, Patricia Franz, Julie Ann Garano, Lynn Halabardo, Scott Rich, Lori Ann Yercelli, Kirsten Wagner.
- Grade 9
 Theodore Brown, Robert Cusano, Jean Dresely, David Drummond, Leah Fiano, Mariene Fracker, Christopher Rich, Sara Waddell, David Warner, Linda Whitford.
- Grade 12
 David Cloutier, Robin Early, Martin Ferguson, Laurie Gagnon, Teresa Landry, Mariene Fracker, Christopher Rich, Sara Waddell, David Warner, Linda Whitford.

BAG A BARGAIN

If bargains are your bag, you'll love these rugged Grand Tour bags by Airway. Because they're free—or at bargain prices—when you save at Heritage. Just deposit the qualifying amount and make your choice from the chart below.

And while our bags take you traveling in style, we'll make your money go a long way too. Because we pay the highest savings interest you'll find anywhere.

So visit any Heritage office. Make your deposit in any savings account—including 6 month certificates. And bag yourself a bargain today.

14 beautiful bags to choose from. In bag prices as FREE with deposit $150	with deposit $100	with deposit $50	with no deposit at $50 or more

Unity Train Kit	FREE	FREE	FREE	$ 4.95
Roll Tote	FREE	FREE	FREE	$ 4.95
Carry All Tote	$ 3.00	FREE	FREE	$ 6.95
Club Bag	$ 3.00	FREE	FREE	$ 6.95
Beet Bag	$ 3.00	FREE	FREE	$ 6.95
App-A-Drawer Kit	$ 3.00	FREE	FREE	$ 13.95
Garment Carrier	$10.00	$ 7.00	FREE	$13.95
16 Tote	$10.00	$ 7.00	FREE	$13.95
Attaché Case	$10.00	$ 7.00	FREE	$13.95
Shoulder Tote	$18.00	$10.00	$ 5.00	$18.95
21 Carry On	$23.00	$15.00	$10.00	$26.95
24 Pullman	$23.00	$20.00	$15.00	$29.95
26 Wardrobe	$26.00	$23.00	$18.00	$39.95
29 Duoresis	$28.00	$25.00	$20.00	$39.95
Deluxe Attaché Case	$30.00	$27.00	$22.00	$39.95

the better way

Heritage Savings

& Loan Association Since 1891

Main Office: 1007 Main Street, Manchester 649-4586
 K-Mart Office: Spencer Street, Manchester 649-3007
 Coventry Office: Route 31, 742-7321
 Tolland Office: Route 195, 1/2 mile south of I-86 Exit 99, 872-7387
 Money Markets: Inside Crispino's, E. Middle Turnpike, Manchester, and Food Mart, W. Middle Turnpike in the Manchester Parkade

ESLIC

At all items subject to availability. Prices shown do not include sales tax. Funds must remain on deposit one year. Sorry, deposits to NOW checking accounts do not qualify.

Space limitations prohibit distribution of gifts at our Money Market offices inside Food Mart and Crispino's. Depositors at these offices will receive Gift Redemption Certificates valid at any of our other offices.

FARR'S
 2 MAIN ST.
 643-7111 or 646-3996
 OPEN DAILY 9-6 P.M.

YOU'LL FIND
 • BICYCLES •
 • TOBOGGANS •
 • SLEDS •
 • BUCK KNIVES •
 • HERMAN SURVIVORS • • PEDOMETERS •
 • BARBELL SETS • • EXERCISERS •
 • SNURFERS •
 • ROLLER SKATES •
 • SWISS ARMY KNIVES •
 • ADIDAS NIKE • • BARTBOARDS •
 • ELECTRIC SOCKS •

FREE LAYAWAY
 FREE ASSEMBLE ON BIKES
 SKATES SHARPENED WHILE YOU WAIT

REGISTER $500 DRAWING NOW!
 FREE STUFFED SANTA
 OPEN SUNDAYS 11-3 P.M.
 We're eager to serve you!

11 DEC 11

State Cuts Use of Gas

HARTFORD (UPI) - Connecticut state employees reduced their gasoline consumption in state vehicles by 278,217 gallons in July, August and September, Gov. Ella Grasso said Monday.

The governor had ordered Administrative Services Commissioner Elisha Freedman to institute a coupon system for gas beginning July 1, when motorists were still under odd-even gas rationing.

Mrs. Grasso said the savings averaged about 20 per cent each month when compared with July, August and September of 1978. She said the dollar savings was about $183,242, based on an average per gallon price of 66.34 cents.

The coupon system was instituted for all state workers except state troopers.

The reduction was based on gas pumped at state-run depots. Figures for all agencies are expected to be compiled in a six-month report.

Sewer Plans To Be Aired

COVENTRY - The Democratic Town Committee will hear town officials discuss a municipal sewer proposal at its regular meeting tonight at 8 at the Town Hall.

Town Engineer Donald Holmes and Lawrence Abbott will report on plans to locate a new 12-day facility property between the Town Hall and Orchard Acres off Route 31.

Democratic Chairwoman Ruth Benoit said, "This very important issue will be coming before the voters shortly and we, as a town committee, representative of the town's people, should be well informed and able to take a stand on the proposed building. We are all aware that a new garage is a dire need - one only has to tour the present ancient facilities to be aware."

Other agenda business includes filling a vacancy on the town committee resulting from the resignation of James Kelly. The group is planning to hold a caucus in January for the election of a new town committee. Endorsements for the caucus are expected to be made at the Democrat's regular meeting next month.

At its last meeting, Treasurer Jacob Wisnall reported that the group came out of the fall municipal elections with a surplus of almost $200. The Democrats lost heavily in that election, turning over their majorities on both the Town Council and the Board of Education to the Republicans. GOP leaders attributed their margin to a large turnout of registered Republicans and support from independents.

Book Discussion
MANCHESTER - The Great Books Discussion Group will meet Dec. 11 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Sleith, 32 Wyllys St. "Middlemarch" by George Eliot will be discussed. New members are welcome to attend.

Mechanical Politician
Fubar, a red-eyed, glass-headed, long-armed electronic assemblage who bills itself as "the ultimate political machine," having announced that it had entered the presidential campaign, makes an appearance in front of the White House. He even attracted the attention of this jogger. (UPI photo)

Vernon Schools Get Saving Suggestions

VERNON - The Vernon public schools have just completed the first half of a campaign to enlist suggestions from students, teachers, and all staff members as to possible ways to save the taxpayers' money.

Prizes were awarded to those who came up with the best suggestions and local merchants donated the prizes.

School officials said that more than 300 suggestions were received. The program had the theme, "The Money Monster" and professional staff and students in the art program created posters depicting the theme and all school principals were asked to emphasize the importance of the program.

As soon as the first phase of the program was completed the second phase was put into motion. The theme of this is "Defeat the Money Monster." It will end on Dec. 19. Residents of the town are also asked to offer suggestions by writing to Dr. Robert Lintone, assistant superintendent, School Administration Building, Park Street.

Vesper Service
MANCHESTER - Temple Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold its annual Vesper Service Wednesday at 8 p.m. A Christmas party and exchange of gifts will follow the meeting.

Jaycees Aid Foundation

COVENTRY - The Coventry Jaycees has presented a check for $2,850 to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. The check was presented by David Newton, Jaycee Walkathon chairman.

The check included all of the proceeds from the Sept. 30 Walkathon in which 86 participants walked the 10-mile route from Coventry Grammar School to Robertson Mark Norman of the Hartford Chapter of the foundation, said the money will be used to support research activities aimed at finding a cure for the complications of diabetes and for the disease itself.

Norman said that while insulin therapy is widely regarded as a cure for diabetes, it is merely a method of sustaining life and its use has been linked to the severe complications of the disease such as kidney failure, blindness, heart attack and stroke. He said diabetes remains the third leading cause of death by disease.

The Jaycees also presented awards to four walkathon participants. Joyce Carilli of South Street was awarded a $25 savings bond and a certificate of appreciation for collecting $275 in walkathon proceeds.

Also receiving savings bonds and a certificate was Brenda Sousa of Merrow Road who collected $150. Certificates of appreciation were presented to Paul Pierce and Roger West, both of Tolland, for their outstanding support over the two years project.

Letters of appreciation will also be going out to Highland Park Market, Coventry Civil Defense, and the North and South Coventry Fire Departments for their assistance in organizing and helping run the project.

DAR Plans Program Of Christmas Music
MANCHESTER - The Daughters of the American Revolution, Oxford Parish, will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Thomas Johnson Jr., 27 Hillcrest Road. The hostess chairman will be Miss Sally Robb.

A program of Christmas music will be presented by Mrs. Karen Erickson, soprano, and Ronald J. Erickson, tenor. The accompanist will be James W. McKay. Mrs. Erickson will sing, "The Home I Live In," "What Child Is This," "Greenleaves," and "God Doesn't Ask For a Mountain."

Erickson's selections will be from Handel's Messiah, "I Wonder As I Wonder," "Emmanuel," by Hosini, and "O Holy Night," by Adams.

The musical program will conclude with the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Erickson is the soprano soloist of the North United Methodist Church and Erickson is tenor soloist of the First St. Paul United Methodist Church of Hartford. He is also a member of many Masonic singing groups in the state.

McKay is director of music and organist at North United Methodist Church of Manchester and active in many other local groups.

Notice to Telephone Customers
We are planning changes that will increase some rates to six countries and introduce a lower international dial rate to ten countries.

The American Telephone & Telegraph Company (AT&T) has filed a new schedule of overseas rates with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) which accomplishes the introduction of international dialing to 10 additional countries. This brings the total of internationally dialable countries to 74. The scheduled changes include rate decreases for 10 countries and selective rate increases to 6 of those countries; for calls billed on the United States mainland to bring the overseas rate structure more closely into line with the domestic structure. In addition, it will now be possible to dial Arabia, which already has rates at the International Dial rate level. These changes are scheduled to become effective on February 17, 1980.

Increases in day and Sunday three-minute rates for five countries.
American Samoa and Bolivia The Sunday three-minute Operator Station and Person rates will be increased from $6.50 and $9.00 to $8.00 and $12.00.

Indonesia The Sunday Person rate will be eliminated and the day three-minute Person rate will be increased from $12.00 to $13.50.

Liberia The Sunday three-minute Operator Station rate will be increased from $6.75 to $9.00. The three-minute Person rate will be increased from $12.00 to $13.50 for the day rate period and from $9.00 to $13.50 for the Sunday rate period.

Paraguay The Sunday three-minute Person rate will be increased from $9.00 to $12.00.

Increases and decreases in the three-minute and additional minute rates to one country.
Panama The day three-minute Operator Station rates applicable to Rate Zones 1 and 2 will be decreased from $4.80 and $5.40 to $4.00 and $5.00. The day three-minute Operator Station rate for Rate Zone 3 remains unchanged. The rates for the evening rate period and the night, Saturday and Sunday rate periods will be increased as follows: for Rate Zone 1—from $3.60 and $2.70 to $4.00, for Rate Zone 2—from $4.05 and $3.00 to $5.00, and for Rate Zone 3—from $4.50 and $3.30 to $6.00. The additional minute rate for night, Saturday, and Sunday Operator Station calls for Rate Zone 2 will be increased from $.85 to $1.00 and from $.95 to $1.20 for Rate Zone 3.

Table with columns for Operator Station, Initial Period, Additional Minute, International Dial, and Rate. Rows include American Samoa, Bolivia, French Antilles, Guyana, Liberia, New Caledonia, Panama, Romania, Indonesia, and Paraguay.

Now Seiko makes thin quartz watches with a battery life of up to five years.

Here's famous Seiko styling that you can wear from tennis to the best of contemporary class. Thin Elegant. And richly designed. With an instant setting day/date English/Spanish calendar. Water resistant to 100 feet. They run up to 5 years on a single battery. All in addition to their superb Seiko Quartz accuracy. In yellow with a gilt dial. Or stainless steel with a blue dial. Seiko Quartz.

Use Your Visa or MasterCard
SHOOR Jewelers
Open Mon. thru Fri. 11-9 Sat. 11-5:30 until Christmas
917 MAIN STREET DOWNTOWN MANCHESTER

Notice to Telephone Customers
We are planning changes that will increase some rates to six countries and introduce a lower international dial rate to ten countries.

The American Telephone & Telegraph Company (AT&T) has filed a new schedule of overseas rates with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) which accomplishes the introduction of international dialing to 10 additional countries. This brings the total of internationally dialable countries to 74. The scheduled changes include rate decreases for 10 countries and selective rate increases to 6 of those countries; for calls billed on the United States mainland to bring the overseas rate structure more closely into line with the domestic structure. In addition, it will now be possible to dial Arabia, which already has rates at the International Dial rate level. These changes are scheduled to become effective on February 17, 1980.

Increases in day and Sunday three-minute rates for five countries.
American Samoa and Bolivia The Sunday three-minute Operator Station and Person rates will be increased from $6.50 and $9.00 to $8.00 and $12.00.

Indonesia The Sunday Person rate will be eliminated and the day three-minute Person rate will be increased from $12.00 to $13.50.

Liberia The Sunday three-minute Operator Station rate will be increased from $6.75 to $9.00. The three-minute Person rate will be increased from $12.00 to $13.50 for the day rate period and from $9.00 to $13.50 for the Sunday rate period.

Paraguay The Sunday three-minute Person rate will be increased from $9.00 to $12.00.

Increases and decreases in the three-minute and additional minute rates to one country.
Panama The day three-minute Operator Station rates applicable to Rate Zones 1 and 2 will be decreased from $4.80 and $5.40 to $4.00 and $5.00. The day three-minute Operator Station rate for Rate Zone 3 remains unchanged. The rates for the evening rate period and the night, Saturday and Sunday rate periods will be increased as follows: for Rate Zone 1—from $3.60 and $2.70 to $4.00, for Rate Zone 2—from $4.05 and $3.00 to $5.00, and for Rate Zone 3—from $4.50 and $3.30 to $6.00. The additional minute rate for night, Saturday, and Sunday Operator Station calls for Rate Zone 2 will be increased from $.85 to $1.00 and from $.95 to $1.20 for Rate Zone 3.

Table with columns for Operator Station, Initial Period, Additional Minute, International Dial, and Rate. Rows include American Samoa, Bolivia, French Antilles, Guyana, Liberia, New Caledonia, Panama, Romania, Indonesia, and Paraguay.

It is important to note that customers calling from areas not presently equipped for International Dial will benefit from the lower dial rates even though the call would have to be completed by the operator. However, if the customer requests special operator assistance or special billing, the Operator Station rate would apply.

College Notes
Richard J. Gobeille, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gobeille of Manchester, has been selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for 1979-80.

Gobeille is a senior at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. and has been named to the colleges' fall concert activities Honor List. He is a member of the Athletic Council and the American Council of Civil Engineers.

College Notes
Jose A. Gonzalez of Manchester participated in three presentations of the special Christmas program at Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gonzalez of Manchester. He is a senior at BUJ majoring in Bible.

College Notes
Laura Nadeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Nadeau of Manchester is one of 10 members of the William Smith Singers at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. This group performed at the colleges' fall concert activities "A Choral Collage." Miss Nadeau is a member of the college.

College Notes
Jose A. Gonzalez of Manchester participated in three presentations of the special Christmas program at Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gonzalez of Manchester. He is a senior at BUJ majoring in Bible.

Betty's Notebook

By BETTY RYDER

Rhea Talley Stewart of Boulder Road, Manchester, noted author and journalist, was honored Friday night at a cocktail party at the home of Mrs. Karen Kilbaff of Cliffside Drive, Manchester.

Mrs. Stewart recently returned home from a two-month visit of Afghanistan and Pakistan where she encountered some of the hostilities focused on Americans currently in the Middle East.

Among those on hand to welcome her and hear her account of her experiences were Charles and Pat Jacobson, Tom and Vivian Ferguson, Isabelle and Gerry Compasso, Pauline and Jack Livingston, Virginia Burke, Dr. Mauricio Zanelli, Cole Decker, David Cohen, Jerry Demsey, David and Rhoda Chase, John Norton, Arthur Stewart, Connie Costello and yours truly.

The vivacious Mrs. Stewart wearing a pale pink silk tunic and slacks embellished with silver beads and sequins which she had purchased in Pakistan, recalled the events of her trip including the burning of the American Embassy in Islamabad, Pakistan, and the rebel attacks in Afghanistan.

Mrs. Stewart, the author of "Fire in Afghanistan" which deals with the government and politics of that country, had hoped to update her book but the rapidly changing political regime made keeping events current out of the question.

A more detailed account of her visit appeared in Monday's Herald.

Christmas Plant
Poinsettias, those colorful plants symbolic of Christmas, are being used in business and homes as decorations for the holiday.

Native of Mexico, the poinsettias had religious significance among the ancient Indians. Later, Spanish missionaries found them to be colorful additions to their nativity pageant.

Joel Polmsett, the first American ambassador to Mexico, named the poinsettia. He sent the plants to his home in Charleston, S.C. for study and after much hybridizing, it has come to be the flowering symbol of Christmas in the United States.

Happy Anniversary
Had a great visit last week with some friends from Bermuda, Marjorie and Philip Grant who were visiting Marjorie's sister and brother-in-law, Tom and Gladys Stringfellow of Hilltown Road. The Grants are native Bermudians and among the most hospitable people I know.

During visits to that beautiful island, they have entertained us, royally, and it was a great pleasure to be able to celebrate their 29th anniversary with them at a dinner at the Ho-ke-lau in Rocky Hill.

The vivacious Mrs. Stewart wearing a pale pink silk tunic and slacks embellished with silver beads and sequins which she had purchased in Pakistan, recalled the events of her trip including the burning of the American Embassy in Islamabad, Pakistan, and the rebel attacks in Afghanistan.

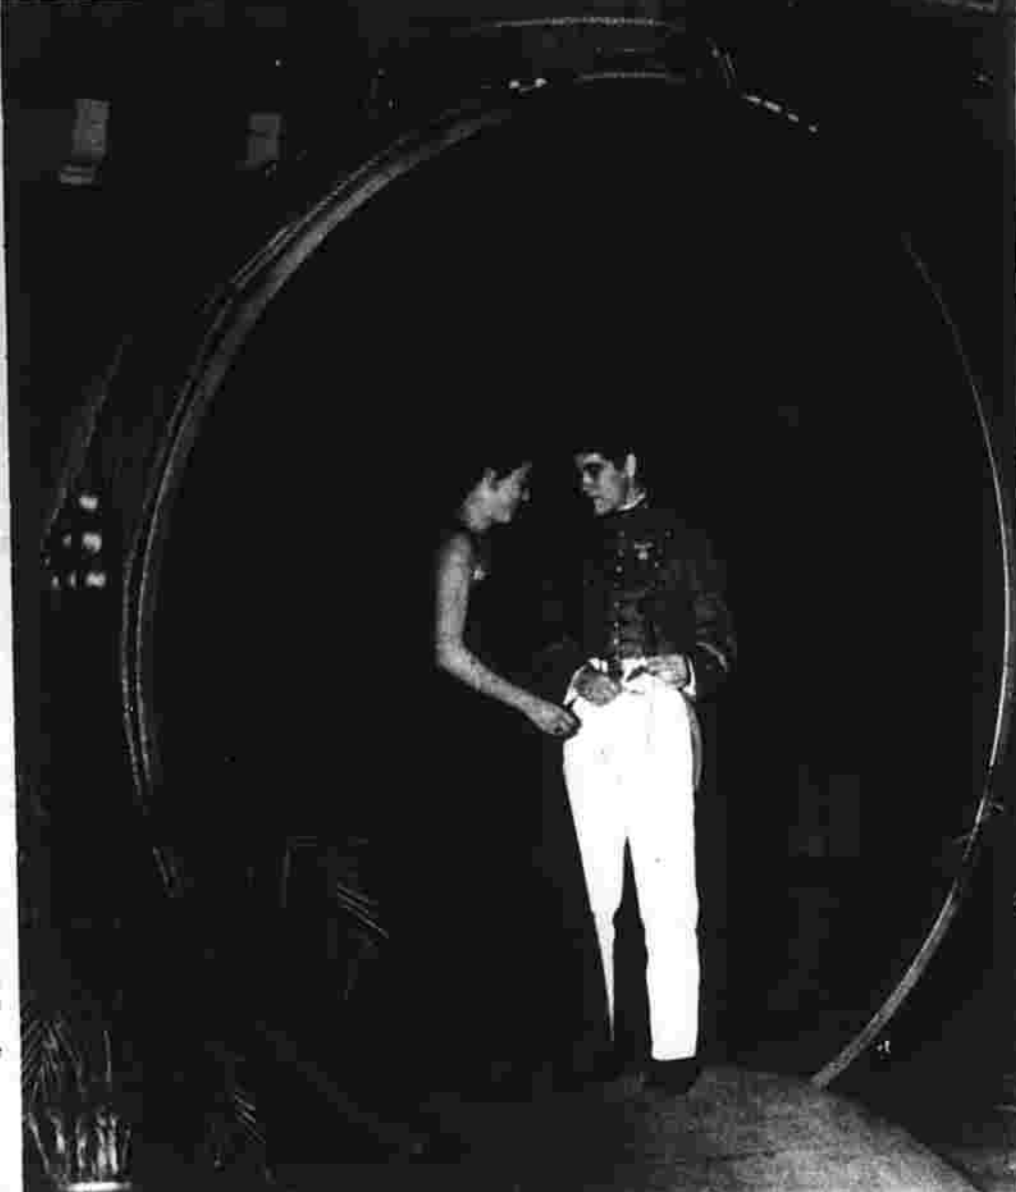

Mrs. Stewart, the author of "Fire in Afghanistan" which deals with the government and politics of that country, had hoped to update her book but the rapidly changing political regime made keeping events current out of the question.

A more detailed account of her visit appeared in Monday's Herald.

College Notes
Richard J. Gobeille, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gobeille of Manchester, has been selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for 1979-80.

Gobeille is a senior at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. and has been named to the colleges' fall concert activities Honor List. He is a member of the Athletic Council and the American Council of Civil Engineers.

College Notes
Laura Nadeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Nadeau of Manchester is one of 10 members of the William Smith Singers at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. This group performed at the colleges' fall concert activities "A Choral Collage." Miss Nadeau is a member of the college.

Cadet Participates in Annual Ring Hop
Cadet Matthew R. Leavitt of South Windsor escorts Miss Janet Jenkins of Isle of Palms, S.C., through the giant replica of The Citadel at the annual Ring Hop at The Citadel, the military college of South Carolina. More than 3,500 graduates, cadets, parents and guests attended. Cadet Leavitt is the son of Sgt. Maj. and Mrs. R. S. Leavitt of 170 Dart Hill Road, South Windsor.

Important Notice to Subscribers Enrolled in Blue Cross 65

The Social Security Administration has increased the Medicare Part A inpatient hospital deductible and coinsurance amounts effective January 1, 1980.

The State Insurance Division has approved our offering a new Blue Cross 65(180) program that pays the increased deductible and coinsurance amounts as described below beginning January 1, 1980.

Subscribers are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to upgrade their present BC65 coverage to the BC65(180) plan, instructions are being enclosed with the direct pay subscriber's next quarterly bill detailing how to convert to the new full coverage. Groups are being contacted relative to upgrading.

The benefits and rates in effect from January 1, 1980 through December 31, 1980 are as follows:

Table comparing Medicare programs: BC65 Pays, The New BC65(180) Will Pay, Medicare Program, BC65 Plan, and BC65(180) Plan. Includes details on hospital stays, deductibles, and coverage for services outside the United States.

Table showing Rates Effective January 1, 1980 for BC65 Plan and BC65(180) Plan, including Monthly and Quarterly rates for Subscribing Member and Spouse.

Connecticut residents eligible for Medicare not now enrolled in BC65 supplemental coverage should write to Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Connecticut, P.O. Box 504, North Haven, CT 06473, for information to become a subscriber.

Come to The Camera Shops for Bell & Howell Holiday Specials.

Advertisement for camera shops featuring products like Soundstar Super 8 Sound Movie Camera, RF60 Slide Cube Movie Projector, Mamiya NC 1000 35mm SLR Camera, and Soundstar Super 8 Movie Projector. Includes bullet points for features like low-light capability, zoom lenses, and automatic exposure control.

THE CAMERA SHOPS
NEWINGTON, NEW BRITAIN, SIMSBURY, CROMWELL, WETHERSFIELD, HOLYOKE, MANCHESTER, HARTFORD, FARMINGTON, BLOOMFIELD, SPRINGFIELD.

11 DECEMBER 11

Peraro Gives Up Hope On Bitter Olin Strike

HARTFORD (UPI) - State Labor Commissioner P. Joseph Peraro has given up hope for the time being of settling the bitter 21-week strike by 1,350 workers at the Olin Corp. Winchester Group plant.

Peraro said Monday that talks have fallen through, and he did not want to raise false hopes of any settlement by calling another session at the gun manufacturing plant.

"I intend to remain in touch with both parties as a means of keeping the lines of communication open but unless there are clear indications that positions have changed, the likelihood of further negotiating sessions at this time seem remote," said Peraro.

Peraro had called both sides to the bargaining table four straight days last week in the belief a settlement could be reached soon, but talks broke off Saturday.

Olin officials said there would be no bargaining sessions until Victory Lodge 609 of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers softened its opposition to a productivity clause which would set minimum standards for employees.

"The union is unwilling to change their position on Article 4 and has made it clear there is no room for further negotiations."

company spokesman Richard Cannon said. "As a result, we see no possibility of settling the strike."

Cannon denied published reports Olin would issue a back-to-work order under the threat of loss of seniority.

The workers, on strike since July 15, defied the company's first back-to-work order in October, leading Olin to hire replacement workers.

John Palmeri, president of Victory Lodge 609, has charged Olin officials had been telephoning union members offering them holiday pay if they returned to work before Christmas.

Headquarters Opened

HARTFORD (UPI) - The Kennedy for President Committee in Connecticut opens headquarters in Hartford Thursday with a short speech by Eunice Shriver, sister of Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass.

Mrs. Shriver will greet campaign supporters and elected officials. The headquarters opening will be her final stop on a campaign trip through the Hartford area.

The headquarters is at 609 Farmington Ave. The ceremony will be between 5-7 p.m.

Mayor of New Britain Freezes Job Changes

NEW BRITAIN (UPI) - Mayor William J. McNamara declared a freeze on all city job promotions and suspended job examinations until the state concludes its probe and prosecution in the municipal corruption scandal.

McNamara said he took the action because "it appears reasonably certain that job selling and test fixing for municipal employment and promotion has been widespread."

He said the "filling of a vacancy by promotional appointment may have the effect of rewarding and perpetrating past improprieties."

There have been 19 arrests stemming from the one-man grand jury probe into the alleged sale of city jobs and promotions in the central Connecticut community of 78,000.

Fifteen present or former city employees, including the police and fire chiefs, were arrested. Five people have pleaded guilty.

"There is a clear danger that further appointments may be based on prior illegal promotions which will result in chaos in the civil service system when the full facts are released," McNamara told a news conference.

Retired State Supreme Court Chief Justice Howard Alcorn conducted the one-man grand jury investigation.

The mayor said his executive order will continue "until the conclusion of judicial proceedings connected with the probe of municipal corruption."

City attorneys are investigating the possibility of bringing suit against the defendants who may have obtained their jobs through "collusion and fraud," the mayor said.

He said testimony in Hartford Superior Court has implicated other city employees who have not been arrested and there is "the potential for further irregularities."

McNamara said he had not discussed his action with union leaders or with Chief State's Attorney Austin McGuigan.

Under the mayor's executive order, no temporary or permanent appointments can be made without his approval and then only if the appointment is essential to prevent the interruption of necessary public business.

New Britain Mayor William McNamara Monday announced a freeze on all city job promotions and suspended job examinations until the state concludes its probe and prosecution in the municipal corruption scandal. (UPI photo)

Poet's Solitude Attributed to Fear of Blindness

HARTFORD (UPI) - An eye specialist believes poet Emily Dickinson became a recluse, devoting her life to reading and writing because she was terrified she would go blind from a painful eye disorder.

Dr. Martin Wand, a Hartford Hospital ophthalmologist, Monday said photographs of Miss Dickinson and her correspondence convinced him she had an extreme case of exotropia - the medical term for wall-eyed.

Miss Dickinson's eyes, were turned outward, instead of being aligned straight ahead, he said.

Wand and Richard B. Sewall, a professor emeritus at Yale University and author of a two-volume biography of Miss Dickinson, assembled medical and literary evidence for the diagnosis and published their findings in the scholarly literary journal, New England Quarterly.

"When we don't know something it's easy to say that a person's crazy," said Wand. "But with Emily were certainly have enough concrete evidence to suggest an organic basis for her behavior."

Scholars had thought that Miss Dickinson's reclusive behavior was caused by mental illness.

He said he had examined pictures of Miss Dickinson's sister and mother and both appear to have had the same disorder. Exotropia is an inherited disease which is twice as common in women as men, he said.

Wand said the disorder would explain much of Miss Dickinson's anti-social behavior from the 1800s until her death in 1862 and why in her later years she "secluded herself in a dark room."

From the time she was a young woman, Miss Dickinson was a recluse in her Amherst, Mass., home.

Miss Dickinson read and wrote furiously, but her handwriting became progressively larger and sprawling, Sewall said. Sometimes a line would go off the page, as if she were writing in the dark. She complained that the glare from sunlight on snow and even lights in her home hurt her eyes.

In 1862, she wrote of her "terror since September."

Three years later, she wrote to a friend that she had been beset by a "calamity ... a woe, the only that has ever made me tremble. It was the shutting out of all the dearest ones of time, the strongest friends of the soul - books."

Sewall said he believes the "calamity" was her growing terror that she would go blind.

"It has to be labeled a theory. Like

Friends Best Medicine for Holidays

NORWICH (UPI) - Understanding from a good friend can be the best medicine if you're depressed during the holidays but stay away from the booze, cautions the Mental Health Association of Connecticut.

Dr. Brian Heath, president of the MHAAC, said Monday the Christmas and New Year's holiday are a "peak period of depression."

It's a time when the people who are down and out need good friends, especially those who will encourage treatment, said Dr. Heath.

And although a large party may be full of happy people, it can be the "loneliest place in the world" for a depressed person and alcohol simply makes things worse," he said.

Dr. Heath said everyone gets depressed at times, but many people can't cope with the pressure of the holidays, the rounds of activities and times of reflection and self-evaluation. They feel "hopeless and helpless," he said.

Friends and family often recognize the problem but don't know how to help, he added.

"Often it is the concern of a good friend that starts a depressed person on the road to recovery. This is the kind of friendship that personifies the holiday spirit," said Dr. Heath, a psychologist at Norwich State Hospital.

"One of the best things you can do for a depressed person first is just to listen. The next thing is to respond with empathy and give them the feeling you understand," he said in an interview.

"The level of misery that leads to this depression is hard to understand for others who are caught in the holiday spirit," he said.

Dr. Heath also said a friend should not be afraid to recommend professional therapy if a person has been depressed for an extended amount of time and the gloominess is "unrelenting."

Depressed people need to become involved with others in pleasant activities which are not high pressure situations, he said, noting "distraction is a therapeutic technique."

The psychologist said large parties and family gatherings are often too much for a depressed person to handle, and force them to turn to the following liquor.

"People drink to cover up periods of loneliness and isolation and this makes it worse. Alcohol flows faster and in larger amounts around the holidays," Dr. Heath said.

scout registration

ANDOVER - There will be a registration for Boy Scouts Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Andover Elementary School. Boys from age 11 to 18 are eligible and must be accompanied by an adult.

Wand explained that the delicate operation involves cutting eye muscles and even today, surgeons err in about 10 percent of the cases and puncture the eyeball.

He said such a mistake leads to chronic pain and decreased vision.

Emily Dickinson wrote "Eyes be blind, heart be still."

EASTWEST IMPORTS
FOR YOUR CHRISTMAS LIST
SHOP WITH US FOR UNUSUAL GIFTS FROM AROUND THE WORLD AT MOST REASONABLE PRICES.

1111 MAIN ST. MANCHESTER, N.H.
HOURS: MON-SAT 10:00-5:00, SUN 12:00-5:00

K-C SKI PACKAGE
RAY'S
Downtown Manchester

CHRISTMAS WONDERLAND
OF GIFTS FOR DAD
TORO 20" SNOW THROWER
PRICES START AT $239.95
CAPTIVE EQUIPMENT
35 MAIN ST. MANCHESTER, NH 07800

GIVE HER A WHITE SEWING MACHINE
SHE'LL ALWAYS TREASURE!
STRETCH STITCH ZIG ZAG OPEN ARM

MANUF. LIST PRICE 299.95
NOW $139.95
ONLY AT MANCHESTER SEWING CENTER
240 BROAD ST. MANCHESTER 649-0545

SANTA SUGGESTS
EVEREADY "D" BATTERIES
99¢
PACKAGE OF 4
REG. $1.49

W. G. GLENNEY CO.
649-5253

GIFT SPECIAL
CHRISTMAS 79
RED CRYSTAL SNOWFLAKE BELL
$19.79

BRAYS JEWELRY STORE
737 MAIN STREET DOWNTOWN MANCHESTER
OPEN MONDAYS FOR YOUR XMAS SHOPPING
Established Jewelry Store FOR CHRISTMAS WE SUGGEST: COLORED PEARLS WATCHES CLOVES BRACELETS DIAMOND ENGAGEMENT RINGS and WEDDING BANDS EXCELLENT TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE FOR YOUR OLD WATCH NOW...

PARK A HONDA UNDER THE TREE.

THE HONDA Z50R

This little Honda mini-bike is ready to roll. With a tough 40 cc engine and a slick three-speed transmission. A perfect bike for your smallest rider.

MANCHESTER HONDA-KAWASAKI
30 ADAMS ST. MANCHESTER 646-2789

CHRISTMAS Gift Guide

WIN A $5 PRIZE EVERY DAY HERE! FIND YOUR NAME LISTED ON THESE PAGES

FIRST PERSON TO COME INTO THE HERALD AFTER 8:30 AM TOMORROW WINS THE PRIZE

DISCOVER Special Gifts For Special People At HARRISON'S STATIONERS

• CROSS PENS • CALCULATORS • GIGGOL ALBUMS • GAMES • PUZZLES • LAMPS • BOOK SETS

HARRISON'S STATIONERS
1111 MAIN ST. DOWNTOWN MANCHESTER

HOUSE OF FLOOR COVERING
36 PARK PLACE ROCKVILLE

WEEKLY SPECIAL
3 PIECE FIBERGLASS TUB WALLS
$350 INSTALLED

B.D. PEARL & SON
619 MAIN ST. MANCHESTER

MICROWAVE OVEN $299

THE MANCHESTER PARKADE

DIAMOND SHOWCASE
1/2 CARAT TOTAL WEIGHT
DIAMOND EARRINGS $199
MANCHESTER PARKADE • 648-0812

LEVI'S SHERPA JACKETS '24'
Size 8 to 20
Reg. $35 & $38
Corduroy or Denim.

MY STORE FOR LEVI'S

THE GLASS SET
Four 11 oz. old-fashioned glasses. Beautifully illustrating the slipper slip "Cathy Sack"

HARVEST HILL PACKAGE STORE

Happy Holiday
20% OFF ALL FAMOUS PIPES and LIGHTERS
Legal Sales in New LIGGETT PHARMACY

GADOURY'S BAKERY
For Fine Holiday "Pastries"
643-8088

PRAGUE SHOES
LARGEST NEW ENGLAND'S STING-BITE DEALER

BON APPETIT
RITE 83 ELLINGTON 875-1513
NOW TAKING RESERVATIONS FOR YULETIDE COCKTAIL PARTIES
Featuring A Punchbowl of Manhattan & Martini, A Hot & Cold Hors D'Oeuvres. Only $6.25 Per Person. Tax & Tip Inc. Up to $6. 5-7 PM or 8-10 PM

ENERGY SAVING HOLIDAY SPECIAL
$2.00 Off on the purchase of the Quartz Energy Saver Model 121 Portable with this ad.

ABC APPLIANCE REPAIR
42 Oak St. Manchester 649-8879

Westown Pharmacy
655 BRISTOL ST., MANCHESTER 646-1400

UNIQUE AND GREAT GIFT IDEAS FOR CHRISTMAS; OUR HANDCRAFTED DRIED ARRANGEMENTS OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

CHRISTMAS Gift Guide

GIFT CERTIFICATES NOW AVAILABLE FOR THAT SPECIAL PERSON ON YOUR LIST

OPTICAL Style Bar

• Contact Lenses • Fashion Spectacles • Hearing Aids • Sunglasses

At Eastern Conn.'s Leading Opticians
183 Main St. Manchester 646-1400 Eastford Mall Eastford, Conn.

ELECTRONIC GAMES BY ATAN
500 PIECES IT WAR & PIECES
7 S. MAIN ST. W. HARTFORD

Simmons SHOES

GIFTS FOR THE FAMILY
Anderson-Little
50 MORE FOR 50 LITTLE

RECORD BREAKERS Dan Fogelberg PHOENIX SALE $5.66
LIST $8.98

FLO'S CAKE
Baking Supplies
See Flo for those special holiday cakes...Candy too!

111 Main St. 7th Fl. N. H. 646-1400
Hours: 10:00-5:00

Christmas Joy

11 DECEMBER 11

Labor Agent Hears ROTC Pay Battle

MANCHESTER - The Manchester Education Association and the local Board of Education brought their battle over ROTC instructors' pay to the state labor relations board at a preliminary hearing last week.

Kathy Foley, field agent for the state labor board, met with representatives at a closed hearing. She must now decide whether to recommend a hearing before a full labor relations board.

Cop Injured In Accident

MANCHESTER - A Manchester police lieutenant was treated and released from Manchester Memorial Hospital this morning after a cruiser accident near the Shell Car Wash, 344 Broad St.

Police Report

Vernon - David R. Tomko, 30, of 100 Davis Ave., Rockville, was charged Saturday with third-degree larceny when a Vernon police officer, making a security check in a housing development, discovered him in the area.

School Concert

ANDOVER - The Andover Elementary School's annual Holiday Concert and Carol Sing will be Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

Neighbors To Oppose Plan for Warehouse

MANCHESTER - The Planning and Zoning Commission has been asked to approve a plan for a 150,000 square foot warehouse off Progress Drive in the Manchester Industrial Park and the proposal has already met with neighborhood opposition.

Grasso Renames Berte

MANCHESTER - Paul Berte, 57 Tuck Road, has been responsible to the Workmen's Compensation Commission for Gov. Ella Grasso.

Pinehurst Veribest Swedish Kory

If you want Kory this week... 1st grinding will be ready at noon Wed., Dec. 12th. Buy Kory all this week or place your holiday order for pick up from Dec. 17th to 24th.

Obituaries

Mary Heinz - ROCKVILLE - Funeral services were held today for Mary (Schumey) Heinz, 96, at the Ladd Funeral Home, 25 Elling Ave., Rockville.

Debra J. Hopkins - MANCHESTER - Mrs. Debra J. Hopkins, 84, of 225 Kennedy Road, widow of Patrick J. Hopkins, died Dec. 10 at Manchester Memorial Hospital.

Hatti S. Deplata - SEMINOLE, Fla. - Hattie (Sklita) Deplata, 74, died Dec. 9 at her home here.

Mary R. Chapman - AVON - Mary (Canning) Rousseau Chapman, 82, of 199 Esquire Drive, Manchester, died Dec. 9 at a local convalescent home.

Concetta Fracchia - GLASTONBURY - Concetta (Graco) Fracchia, 68, wife of Bruno Fracchia, 1043 Hilltown Road, Glastonbury, formerly of Manchester, died Monday at Manchester Memorial Hospital.

Memorials - Mrs. Susan F. Riley, with whom she made her home as a sister, Mrs. Josephine Vesco of Williamstown, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Funeral services will be Wednesday 9:30 a.m. from the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 West Center St., Manchester, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., at the Church of the Assumption.

Arbitration Panel Ready To Hear Teacher Issues

By LAUREN DAVIS SHEA Herald Reporter
MANCHESTER - A three-member binding arbitration panel will meet Saturday with representatives from the teachers union and the town Board of Education to hear 17 disputed issues.

The contract will be for an undetermined period. Manchester Education Association President Lee Hay said today it was not certain yet whether the pact would be for one or two years. The 12 or 48 month duration was the only option being negotiated, Hay said.

Manchester Police Report

MANCHESTER - Police reported the theft of an electronic amplifier and microphone with a total value of $175 from the North United Methodist Church, 300 Parker St.

Most Toys for Toddlers

MANCHESTER - Although a weekend toy collection brought several thousand toys to a drive sponsored through the Manchester Area Conference of Churches, the bulk of those received are appropriate for older children under six years old.

Christmas Trees

Connecticut Grown Freshly Cut
23 MAIN ST. MANCHESTER
The members of the Manchester Fire Department wish you a safe and happy holiday season...

Trust

For over one hundred years, generations have put their trust in Watkins. Norman M. Holmes and the Holmes Staff strive to continue that trust with warmth and sincerity to each family served.

WEDNESDAY SHOP PINEHURST

302 Main St. for KORV, Land of Lakes Butter 1.69 lb., Center Pork Chops 1.89 lb., The Veribest Potatoes 10 lbs. 89¢

PINEHURST GROCERY Inc.

302 MAIN ST. MANCHESTER
NORMAN M. HOLMES, Dir. FUNERAL HOME, 142 E. CENTER ST., MANCHESTER • TEL. 646-5310

Herald Angle

Earl Yost Sports Editor
The latest move to establish a Sports Hall of Fame in this one-time City of Village Churn was broached by Steve Cassano two weeks ago.

Time Marches On
How the times fly department: Bill Shaw, who teamed with Ray Zemanek in forming the "Touchdown Twins" with Manchester High's undefeated (he tied once) football team in 1943, is now in his 23rd year with the Connecticut State Police.

Public Hearing

SOUTH WINDSOR - The Planning and Zoning Commission will hold a Public Hearing Tuesday, at 8 p.m. to consider the application of Innes and Sons, Inc. for a zone change from GC to I on six acres of land located between the former Gastland, Innes, on the south side of Sullivan Avenue.

Short of Muscle

It was never more evident last Friday night in Springfield that the Hartford Whalers still are short on muscle. After the club jumped off to a 5-1 lead against the New York Rangers the harder-hitting National Hockey League's fought back and won the Whalers down to score six straight goals en route to a 7-4 decision.

Marine Corps Meeting

MANCHESTER - The Marine Corps League will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Marine Club, Parker Street.

Baby-Faced Klecko Did Job on Pats

NEW YORK (UPI) - A pair of No. 73's stared and shivered at each other across the line of scrimmage Sunday at frigid Shea Stadium. One is a perennial All-Pro - the other may be one very soon.

Hernandez, Baylor Named Top Players

ST. LOUIS (UPI) - The Sporting News has named Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals and Don Baylor of the California Angels the National and American League Players-of-the-Year.

St. Louis Next Stop For Vagabond Bonds

CLEVELAND (UPI) - With a bitter blast at Bobby Bonds' bid for a new contract, President George Paul has bid farewell to the short-lived Bonds' era in Cleveland.

Pride at Stake With Patriots

FOXBORO, Mass. (UPI) - The final game will be for pride, a victory ensuring a winning season and a defeat a higher draft choice. It was not supposed to be this way. The New England Patriots, a team many experts feel has as much talent as any in the National Football League, was to be getting ready for the playoffs.

Steve Grogan, the oft-maligned quarterback who enjoyed one of his best statistical seasons, discussed the need for a different mix of players.

Coaches Eye Columbia Job

BOSTON (UPI) - Another college football season has come and gone, with the big surprises being the undefeated season posted by Tufts in Division III, the sterling job turned in by Boston University and the near-perfect season at Yale.

Grid Surprises Tufts, B.U., Yale

Perhaps a tribute to two of those teams, Tufts and Boston University, is that their coaches are among the candidates for the vacancy at Columbia University.

Six-Point Play

Running back Rob Carpenter of Houston faces across the goal line and holds ball up after scoring fourth period touchdown last night (UPI Photo).

Upstart Houston Stuns Steelers

HOUSTON (UPI) - Houston's Monday night opponents are starting to believe the Houston Oilers duck into a phone booth and emerge flexing superhuman muscles before game time.

Hernandez, Baylor Named Top Players

ST. LOUIS (UPI) - The Sporting News has named Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals and Don Baylor of the California Angels the National and American League Players-of-the-Year.

St. Louis Next Stop For Vagabond Bonds

CLEVELAND (UPI) - With a bitter blast at Bobby Bonds' bid for a new contract, President George Paul has bid farewell to the short-lived Bonds' era in Cleveland.

Herald Angle

Earl Yost Sports Editor
The latest move to establish a Sports Hall of Fame in this one-time City of Village Churn was broached by Steve Cassano two weeks ago.

Time Marches On
How the times fly department: Bill Shaw, who teamed with Ray Zemanek in forming the "Touchdown Twins" with Manchester High's undefeated (he tied once) football team in 1943, is now in his 23rd year with the Connecticut State Police.

Public Hearing

SOUTH WINDSOR - The Planning and Zoning Commission will hold a Public Hearing Tuesday, at 8 p.m. to consider the application of Innes and Sons, Inc. for a zone change from GC to I on six acres of land located between the former Gastland, Innes, on the south side of Sullivan Avenue.

Short of Muscle

It was never more evident last Friday night in Springfield that the Hartford Whalers still are short on muscle. After the club jumped off to a 5-1 lead against the New York Rangers the harder-hitting National Hockey League's fought back and won the Whalers down to score six straight goals en route to a 7-4 decision.

Marine Corps Meeting

MANCHESTER - The Marine Corps League will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Marine Club, Parker Street.

Baby-Faced Klecko Did Job on Pats

NEW YORK (UPI) - A pair of No. 73's stared and shivered at each other across the line of scrimmage Sunday at frigid Shea Stadium. One is a perennial All-Pro - the other may be one very soon.

Hernandez, Baylor Named Top Players

ST. LOUIS (UPI) - The Sporting News has named Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals and Don Baylor of the California Angels the National and American League Players-of-the-Year.

St. Louis Next Stop For Vagabond Bonds

CLEVELAND (UPI) - With a bitter blast at Bobby Bonds' bid for a new contract, President George Paul has bid farewell to the short-lived Bonds' era in Cleveland.

Pride at Stake With Patriots

FOXBORO, Mass. (UPI) - The final game will be for pride, a victory ensuring a winning season and a defeat a higher draft choice. It was not supposed to be this way. The New England Patriots, a team many experts feel has as much talent as any in the National Football League, was to be getting ready for the playoffs.

Steve Grogan, the oft-maligned quarterback who enjoyed one of his best statistical seasons, discussed the need for a different mix of players.

Coaches Eye Columbia Job

BOSTON (UPI) - Another college football season has come and gone, with the big surprises being the undefeated season posted by Tufts in Division III, the sterling job turned in by Boston University and the near-perfect season at Yale.

Grid Surprises Tufts, B.U., Yale

Perhaps a tribute to two of those teams, Tufts and Boston University, is that their coaches are among the candidates for the vacancy at Columbia University.

Six-Point Play

Running back Rob Carpenter of Houston faces across the goal line and holds ball up after scoring fourth period touchdown last night (UPI Photo).

Upstart Houston Stuns Steelers

HOUSTON (UPI) - Houston's Monday night opponents are starting to believe the Houston Oilers duck into a phone booth and emerge flexing superhuman muscles before game time.

Hernandez, Baylor Named Top Players

ST. LOUIS (UPI) - The Sporting News has named Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals and Don Baylor of the California Angels the National and American League Players-of-the-Year.

St. Louis Next Stop For Vagabond Bonds

CLEVELAND (UPI) - With a bitter blast at Bobby Bonds' bid for a new contract, President George Paul has bid farewell to the short-lived Bonds' era in Cleveland.

Pride at Stake With Patriots

FOXBORO, Mass. (UPI) - The final game will be for pride, a victory ensuring a winning season and a defeat a higher draft choice. It was not supposed to be this way. The New England Patriots, a team many experts feel has as much talent as any in the National Football League, was to be getting ready for the playoffs.

Steve Grogan, the oft-maligned quarterback who enjoyed one of his best statistical seasons, discussed the need for a different mix of players.

Coaches Eye Columbia Job

BOSTON (UPI) - Another college football season has come and gone, with the big surprises being the undefeated season posted by Tufts in Division III, the sterling job turned in by Boston University and the near-perfect season at Yale.

Grid Surprises Tufts, B.U., Yale

Perhaps a tribute to two of those teams, Tufts and Boston University, is that their coaches are among the candidates for the vacancy at Columbia University.

Six-Point Play

Running back Rob Carpenter of Houston faces across the goal line and holds ball up after scoring fourth period touchdown last night (UPI Photo).

Upstart Houston Stuns Steelers

HOUSTON (UPI) - Houston's Monday night opponents are starting to believe the Houston Oilers duck into a phone booth and emerge flexing superhuman muscles before game time.

Hernandez, Baylor Named Top Players

ST. LOUIS (UPI) - The Sporting News has named Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals and Don Baylor of the California Angels the National and American League Players-of-the-Year.

St. Louis Next Stop For Vagabond Bonds

CLEVELAND (UPI) - With a bitter blast at Bobby Bonds' bid for a new contract, President George Paul has bid farewell to the short-lived Bonds' era in Cleveland.

Big East Exposure Assured in Package

By LEN AUSTER
Herald Sports Editor

Media attention is what everybody is after and so far the Big East Conference has done a good job of obtaining its share.

Acting commissioner Dave Gavitt announced Monday at a press gathering on the Storr campus the first-year basketball league has signed a multi-year radio and television contract with the William Tanner Co. of Memphis, Tenn.

"This contract, along with our previous commitment to the NBC-TV-EAC contract, gives our conference the finest overall radio and TV package in the East and one of the best in the country," stated Gavitt. U.S. Olympic coach and present athletic director at Providence College.

The contract calls for the televising of nine games the first year and a daily five-minute radio report beginning Monday, Jan. 7, that will run Monday through Friday and will be carried on over 40 stations. Locally, WVTB (Ch. 30) will carry the nine-game package.

"I can't have two games in the package, Jan. 5 vs. St. John's at 8 o'clock and Jan. 10 vs. Boston College, also at 8 o'clock. The Huskies are also on two regional TV's: NBC telecasts, Jan. 26 vs. Syracuse at 3:30 and Feb. 2 vs. Georgetown at 3:30.

"Overall, 22 of the 26 Connecticut 1979-80 games will be televised, revealed John T'Conn, director of athletics. "We're getting a lot of exposure this year," Toner noted. "Yes, because of the Big East we are getting more interest," he added.

"I can't pull in an excess of $100,000," Toner stated for the televising of its games. Additional revenue will be reaped from the Big East package, which is separate.

While the Big East has not played one game yet, UConn doesn't face its first conference foe (Seton Hall) until Dec. 22. "We had formal or informal inquiries from 12 other schools," Gavitt noted about possible expansion.

The former Friar coach reported the Big East the second year will be a double round robin with conference games to start the second week of January with games Wednesday and Saturday. However, a Monday night game of the week, to be telecast and broadcast, is in the planning. That schedule should be made by mid-summer, Gavitt stated.

"We feel we've put ourselves in good position as far as television," Gavitt stated.

The first Big East Playoff will be played at the Providence Civic Center Feb. 28-March 1. The regular season leader in the seven-team loop will draw a bye into Friday's (Feb. 29) semifinals. The schedule calls for a single afternoon game Feb. 28 and a doubleheader that evening. A semifinal doubleheader will be played Feb. 29 with the championship game Saturday afternoon, March 1. That game will be televised by TVS-NBC.

Husky Coach Don Ferris, who saw his charges take runner-up honors at the Utah Classic last weekend in Salt Lake City, stated, "They (Utah) knew about the Big East. When we told who it was in it, the reaction was unbelievable. That's the way it's been since day one."

"There's been tremendous enthusiasm towards what the Big East can be," Gavitt reflected. "What's encouraging to me is the commitment made by every school. We do not have an automatic qualifier," he added referring to the NCAA Tournament. "We have impressed on others we are the conference. People are talking like we're the Big Ten, Pac-10, ACC. That's something considering we have played a game yet."

Maybe not, but the Big East has drawn a lot of attention and it'll receive a lot more exposure before even this season is out.

Jingle Bells

Red Hadden, chairman of the Thanksgiving Day Manchester Toll Cedars Five Mile Road Race, wears a wreath of 1,250 one dollar bills representing money earned by 248 employees of United Technologies which pledged $1 a mile for every mile run by UTC people in this event benefiting muscular dystrophy research. Shown with Hadden is UTC Pratt & Whitney Group's Ray Stone, a Manchester resident, who was the first officially-entered employee to cross the finish line.

Names in the News

Bobby Schmutz

BOSTON (UPI) - Veteran right wing Bobby Schmutz, unhappy about being relegated to the fourth line, got his wish Monday when the Boston Bruins dealt him to the Edmonton Oilers for minorleague Dan Newman and future considerations. Boston General Manager Harry Sinden, who has traded with Schmutz, said the future considerations "will be in the manner of draft choices or equalization rights."

In an unrelated development, the Bruins said a report on the status of Don Marcotte, who has been undergoing tests on the knee he injured in Sunday night's game, will be made today. A Bruins spokesman said there is a strong chance the injury is serious, possibly ligament damage.

Rob Lytle

DEVYER (UPI) - Running back Rob Lytle of the Denver Broncos underwent surgery to repair ligament damage to his left knee Monday and will miss the team's final game of the season Monday against the San Diego Chargers.

Coach Red Miller said Lytle will be replaced by seven-year veteran Otis Armstrong. Lytle was injured during Denver's 28-23 loss to Seattle Saturday.

M.L. Carr

NEW YORK (UPI) - M.L. Carr of the Boston Celtics and the Detroit Pistons's Bob Lanier each have been fined $1,500 by NBA Commissioner Larry O'Brien for separate incidents in recent games.

O'Brien fined Carr for committing a flagrant foul when Carr deliberately elbowed Scott Wedman during a game on Dec. 2, knocking the Kings forward to the floor. Lanier was penalized for punching Boston's Cedric Maxwell in the Dec. 4 game at Detroit.

Otis Birdsong

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — Otis Birdsong scored 7 of his 16 points in the final minutes Monday night to spark the Kansas City Kings to a 106-98 exhibition victory over the Atlanta Hawks in the eighth annual NBA Hall of Fame game.

Birdsong, who ended with 16 points, was accompanied by teammate Phil Ford with 19 points. The Hawks were led by Eddy Johnson with 16 points.

Ron Zanussi

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (UPI) - Right winger Ron Zanussi Monday signed a multi-year National Hockey League contract with the Minnesota North Stars.

General Manager Lou Nanne did not reveal the length or terms of Zanussi's contract.

Abdul Jabbar

NEW YORK (UPI) - Kareem Abdul-Jabbar of the Los Angeles Lakers, who shot 712 from the field in four games, has been selected as the NBA's player of the week for the period ending Dec. 9.

For the week, the Lakers' center hit 52 of 73 shots from the field to take over the NBA lead in field goal percentage. He averaged 23.3 points and 10.7 rebounds with 26 assists and 16 blocked shots in Sunday's victory over Denver. Abdul-Jabbar was 15-for-18 from the field with nine rebounds, nine assists and six blocked shots.

Patti Lyons

HONOLULU (UPI) - Dean Mathews of Clemson, S.C., won the Honolulu Marathon Sunday with a record time of 2:16:12 over the 18-mile course.

Frank Shorter, a marathon gold medalist for the United States in the 1972 Olympics, finished second. His time was 2:17:50. Patti Lyons, 26, Boston, successfully defended her women's crown finishing in 2:40:04.

Arthur Ashe

NEW YORK (UPI) - Arthur Ashe, who last week was hospitalized for the second time in five months because of heart irregularities, will undergo heart surgery in the near future, the tennis star said Sunday.

Ashe said doctors will remove fat deposits blocking coronary arteries. The date of the operation was not disclosed. "I like the numbers; the prognosis is very good," he said, adding that doctors believe he will be able to begin playing again several months after the operation.

Rick Hodgson

HARTFORD (UPI) - The Hartford Whalers Monday called up defenseman Rick Hodgson from the Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League.

Hodgson will join the team before the Whalers game with the Vancouver Canucks Tuesday.

He will be available to play in the game if defenseman Alan Hansen, who suffered a pulled groin muscle Friday in a game against the New York Rangers, is sidelined.

Red Berenson

Red Berenson, who had been the assistant coach of the St. Louis Blues since 1978, was named to succeed Barclay Plager as head coach of the NHL team.

Berenson, 40, played for the Blues for eight years before he was named Plager's assistant.

Scoreboard

NFL American Conference

East	W	L	T	Pct.
Miami	10	5	0	.667
New England	8	7	0	.533
Buffalo	7	8	0	.467
NY Jets	7	8	0	.467
Baltimore	4	11	0	.267

NFL National Conference

West	W	L	T	Pct.
Pittsburgh	11	4	0	.733
Houston	11	4	0	.733
Cleveland	9	6	0	.600
Cincinnati	9	6	0	.600

NFL National Conference

East	W	L	T	Pct.
Dallas	10	5	0	.667
Philadelphia	10	5	0	.667
Washington	10	5	0	.667
NY Giants	8	7	0	.533
St. Louis	5	10	0	.333

NFL National Conference

West	W	L	T	Pct.
Tampa Bay	9	6	0	.600
Chicago	9	6	0	.600
Minnesota	7	8	0	.467
Green Bay	4	11	0	.267
Detroit	2	13	0	.133

NFL National Conference

West	W	L	T	Pct.
Los Angeles	9	6	0	.600
New Orleans	7	8	0	.467
Atlanta	5	10	0	.333
San Francisco	2	13	0	.133

NHL Patrick Division

W	L	T	Pts.
Philadelphia	18	1	43
NY Rangers	12	13	4
Atlanta	12	13	3
NY Islanders	9	12	3
Washington	5	19	5

NHL Smyth Division

W	L	T	Pts.
Vancouver	11	7	29
Chicago	9	10	26
St. Louis	9	14	22
Winnipeg	8	16	22
Colorado	8	15	23
Edmonton	7	14	19

NHL Norris Division

W	L	T	Pts.
Montreal	15	8	36
Los Angeles	12	11	29
Pittsburgh	11	8	28
Hartford	8	10	24
Detroit	9	11	23

NHL Adams Division

W	L	T	Pts.
Buffalo	19	6	41
Boston	16	7	36
Minnesota	12	6	31
Toronto	11	12	28
Quebec	10	14	24

NBA Eastern Conference

W	L	Pct.	GB
Philadelphia	21	7	.750	0
Boston	21	7	.750	0
New York	14	14	.500	7
Washington	11	15	.423	8
New Jersey	11	17	.393	10

NBA Western Conference

W	L	Pct.	GB
Atlanta	18	13	.583	0
San Antonio	15	16	.484	1 1/2
Houston	14	13	.519	2
Cleveland	14	17	.452	4
Detroit	13	16	.448	4
Indiana	8	20	.286	8 1/2

NBA Western Conference

W	L	Pct.	GB
Milwaukee	19	11	.633	0
Los Angeles	16	14	.533	0
Denver	10	20	.333	9
Chicago	9	20	.313	9 1/2
Utah	7	21	.250	11

NBA Western Conference

W	L	Pct.	GB
Seattle	19	9	.679	0
Los Angeles	20	10	.667	0
Phoenix	17	13	.567	4
San Diego	14	17	.452	6 1/2
Golden State	11	19	.363	9

Sunday's Results

Atlanta 122, New Jersey 85
Boston 113, Milwaukee 108
Los Angeles 131, Denver 118
San Diego 98, Portland 96
Chicago 121, Seattle 112

Northwest Girls Pin Loss on East

By LEN AUSTER
Herald Sports Editor

One comeback deserves another. Northwest Catholic held off East Catholic, 61-48, in HCC girls' basketball action last night at the Eagles' Nest.

The setback drops the Eagles to .62 overall, .61 in the conference, while Northwest remains unbeaten at 3-0, 1-0 in the HCC.

Northwest held a 41-29 advantage with 2:50 remaining in the third quarter. But the West Hartford-based Indians turned the ball over seven times before Northwest took it ripped off a dozen unanswered points to draw even.

A Mary Cobb bucket countered by a Sue Daley two-pointer for East with four minutes remaining, but that would be the Eagles' last score.

Over the final span they committed seven turnovers and missed six times. The lead exchanged hands four times before Northwest took it good at 47-46 on a Sheila Andrews hoop with 5:29 remaining. A Lisa Rogers bucket was countered by a Sue Daley two-pointer for East with four minutes remaining, but that would be the Eagles' last score.

Over the final span they committed seven turnovers and missed six times. The lead exchanged hands four times before Northwest took it good at 47-46 on a Sheila Andrews hoop with 5:29 remaining. A Lisa Rogers bucket was countered by a Sue Daley two-pointer for East with four minutes remaining, but that would be the Eagles' last score.

Basketball

Basketball

at the stretch run "but they were a heckuva lot better than what I saw here Friday," she quickly added, referring to East's opener (58-25 loss to West Windsor).

"We looked a little bit more controlled. Game experience is what we need to have," she said.

Northwest topped Northwest with 19 points by Brewer (15), Cobb (15) and Lisa Rogers (10). East's best scoring was by Paula Brown (10), who had a pair of three-pointers and a pair of free throws.

The lead exchanged hands four times before Northwest took it good at 47-46 on a Sheila Andrews hoop with 5:29 remaining. A Lisa Rogers bucket was countered by a Sue Daley two-pointer for East with four minutes remaining, but that would be the Eagles' last score.

PEE WEE

CBC bested Blue Moon, 16-12, and VFW topped Willis Garage, 20-13, last night at the P&G.

Tom Shields had a dozen points for CBC while Mike McDonald had 7 for Blue Moon. Scott Altru's 6 points (10) led Farr's while Scott Gentilcore had a game-high 7 for Willis.

Sports Slate

Tuesday

Manchester at Simsbury, 8
East Catholic at Springfield Commercial (Civic Center), 9
Ferris at Fenwick
Manchester at North Catholic
Rockville at Norwich Free Academy
Holton at Rock Hill
135-226-374 Karen Johnson
Convent at Bacon Academy
Simsbury at Manchester (girls), 8

Wednesday

Manchester at E.O. Smith (1 Conn.), 6
ICE HOCKEY
Manchester vs. Farmington at Hartford Arena, 4 p.m.

Friday

Manchester at East Catholic, 8
Hartford Academy at Cheney Tech, 8
Conard at Penning
East Hartford at Ferris
Glastonbury at Windsor Locks
Rockville at Norwich Free Academy
Holton at Bolton
Convent at Greenhill
Manchester at Fenwick (girls), 3:30

SWIMMING

Manchester at Wethersfield, 3:30

Sabres in Shutout

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) - Buffalo's defense was even tougher than usual but Monday night the Sabres added something else the killer instinct.

"We seemed to have a good feel for instinct and we got a good game from all 17 guys," Sabres' Coach Scott Bowman said Monday, after Richard Edwards scored his 16th and final goal of the season and Buffalo shut out the Detroit Red Wings, 4-0, to notch its eighth consecutive victory.

With their 11th triumph in the last 12 games, the Sabres moved five points ahead of the Boston Bruins in the Adams Division, and just two points behind the Philadelphia Flyers in the overall NHL standings. All three had their last game Monday night.

Sabre goalie Don Edwards stopped 14 shots to register his first shutout of the season and break the Red Wings' six-game winning streak.

"I think we played the best defensively that we have all year," said Edwards, who tallied his 11th victory in 15 games. "Everybody did a superb job. It was an ideal thing to watch from the goalkeepers' standpoint."

The Sabres have allowed just 68 goals in 28 games and the tandem of Edwards and Bob Saverie is leading contenders for the Vezina Trophy, awarded to the goaltender with the smallest goals against average.

"Bob and I talk about the Vezina quite a bit," Edwards said. "It's not just the goalkeepers, it's the whole team."

Schoolboys Launch Hoop Slate Tonight

While it's only the opener, Manchester High and Simsbury High, two top contenders, will clash in a key CCIL basketball clash tonight in Simsbury in the first full evening of scholastic roundball action.

It's the season-opener for both teams and East Hartford.

Also, 0-1 South Windsor visits 1-0 South Catholic in Hartford, 0-1 Rockville High is 1-0 at Bacon Academy. Bolton travels 0-1 Rocky Hill. 0-2 Rham visits 0-1 Hampton High and 1-0 Coventry High. 2-0 at Bacon Academy. 0-1 at Rockville High. 0-1 Manchester High visits 0-1 Fenwick High in CCIL encounters.

Jazz Win Third in Row

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) - The big gun has been sitting on the bench for seven games but the Utah Jazz still keep winning.

Since Coach Tom Nissalke decided to bench "Pistol Pete" Maravich, the Jazz has won five of seven games. The rest of the artillery unit is working together now.

"We're really playing as a team now," Nissalke said Monday night, after the Jazz, led by Adrian Dantley's 39 points, won their third game in a row, a 100-93 decision over

Today's Sport Parade

Milt Richman
UPI Sports Editor

TORONTO (UPI) - The trouble with the world, it has been said, is there are too many lawyers in it, but if nothing else, the Toronto baseball meetings proved there still aren't enough.

Because of that, an eight-player deal fell apart which would have sent Sparky Lyle, Johnny Grubbs, Adrian Devine and Dave Hajisch to the Phillies for the Rangers for Bake McBride, Larry Christenson, Tom McGraw and minor league shortstop Julio Franco. Both teams had agreed on the deal but couldn't work out all the legalistic and financial considerations. High contract before Friday's midnight deadline on inter-league trades. "It was just too big," said Phillies General Manager Paul Owens. "It would have taken a week to iron out the whole thing out."

Chuck Tanner revealed the full impact of being a winning World Series manager didn't really hit him until three weeks later. "That was the first time I actually realized how much of an honor it was to win a World Series," said the Pirates' manager. "I knew there had been 76 World Series played, but I wondered how many winning managers there had been. I still don't know." Tanner is 46.

Last one to bed every night at the meetings was Jack McKoen, the Padres' indefatigable assistant general manager. He stuck around the hotel lobby until 3 or 4 a.m. every day hoping to buttonhole someone who wanted to make a deal McKoen, who managed Denver last season, and Kansas City and Oakland before that. When he finally came to an executive, "I found out," he said, "it's a lot easier being on the field."

Tommy Lasorda still hasn't fully adjusted to the time differential after returning from Japan where he managed a team made up of National League All-Stars. "I got my time schedule so fouled up," he said, "that every time I went to bed I was hungry and every time I went to the table it was time to shave."

Outfielder Terry Puhl is the most dedicated, most coachable player he has ever been around, claims Houston Manager Bill Virdon. "I've never seen a ballplayer who cooperates more," says Virdon. "Another one of our outfielders, Jose Cruz, isn't too far behind him."

The Dodgers have 16 players with no-trade clauses in their contracts. The thing I can figure out about that is how come so many players insist on tying themselves up this way when they fought so hard for years to do away with the reserve clause and gain their freedom.

Largent Suffers Broken Wrist

SEATTLE (UPI) - Seahawk receiver Steve Largent suffered a broken wrist in his team's 28-23 victory over Denver and will miss Seattle's final game of the season.

Doctors said Largent broke the navicular bone of his right wrist in the second period of Saturday's game before he caught two touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:40 left.

"I hurt it on Denver's second period pass interception," Largent said. "I was clipped on the return, fell on my wrist. It hurt after that but I could play."

All-CCIL Fall Squads

By LEN AUSTER

All-CCIL selections for fall sports were announced and Manchester High, Penney High and East Hartford High based on their performances, as expected, had a plethora of picks.

Three Indians from the state Class LL championship squad made the All-CCIL first team in soccer. Senior striker Jeff Lombardo, who had 30 goals, senior fullback Ed Kennison and junior midfielder Alex Britnell were chosen in the voting conducted by the coaches.

Forward Dan Collins and fullback Rich Koepsel, both seniors, made the second team while Jim Giubochy, John Kelly and Tom O'Brien received honorable mention for Manchester.

Penney's Jeff DeAngelis was accorded second team distinction while teammates John Costello, Earl Browne, Dave Hayward and Joe Lombardo received honorable mention. East Hartford's John Beaulieu and Ken LaForge also received honorable mention in soccer.

Liz Neubelt was the lone Manchester selection on the all-CCIL girls' field hockey squad. Linda Carpenter received honorable mention. Neither Penney nor East Hartford fielded a field hockey team.

Rec Swimmers Post One-Sided Triumph

Saturday at Wethersfield, 8 and under girls - medley relay 100 L. Larkin (41:5), butlerfly 50 L. Jackson 40:1; Kevin Bacon (45:5), breast 50 L. Flavel (1:11); Rush, Gordon, Larkin, Yarmott (2:27).

Alex Britnell

Johnston were named all-league while on the distasteful side Green, Sue Donnelly, Lynne Wright and Karen Scott were the Indians tabbed. Andy Wickwire, Dave DeValve, Jeanine Marphy, Kim Scott and Bette Sheldon of Manchester were accorded honorable mention.

Penney's Mike Gatti was all-CCIL in East Hartford spiker Yvonne Juggins was all-CCIL while teammate Rene Chicoine and Penney's Laura Pomeroy received honorable mention.

Manchester boys' and girls' cross country squads each captured the CCLL crown and that was reflected in the voting as five and four respectively received all-league honors.

Tim DeValve, Doug Meek, Jim Grymowski, Joe Neubelt and Paul

honed at defensive back and second team note as a running back offensive.

Defensive end Mike Madden and back Mark Lewis were named to the second team on defense for the Knights while quarterback Dino Peruccio, running back Lewis, defensive end Eric Erickson and nose guard Gil Tougas received honorable mention.

East Hartford High placed five on the all-CCIL football first team. Cited were guard Ken Kasavage, placekicker Dan Pandiccia, defensive end Skip Seeley, linebacker John Barlie and defensive back Scott Chadwick. Three more tackle, Rich Coburn and defensive lineman Tom Tuller and Bill LeBlanc, made the second squad. Honorable mention went to offensive guard Tuller, running back Chadwick, running back Scott Flenke and defensive back Tyler Jones for East Hartford.

Penney's Jay DeAngelis made the all-CCIL first team on both platoons, as tackle offensively and as linebacker defensively. Black Knight Mark Anderson received first team and under girls - medley relay 100 L. Larkin (41:5), butlerfly 50 L. Jackson 40:1; Kevin Bacon (45:5), breast 50 L. Flavel (1:11); Rush, Gordon, Larkin, Yarmott (2:27).

11-12 girls - medley relay 200 L. Kris Noone, Erin Sherman, Jeanne Lemieux, Tina Listro (2:16); freestyle 50 L. Larkin (41:5), butlerfly 50 L. Jackson 40:1; Kevin Bacon (45:5), breast 50 L. Flavel (1:11); Rush, Gordon, Larkin, Yarmott (2:27).

11-12 boys - medley relay 200 L. Dave Budd, Mike Castellan, Steve Bylow, Dave Clough (2:12); freestyle 50 L. Budd (35:5), butlerfly 50 L. Clough (1:20); freestyle 100 L. Budd (1:11); 200 L. Castellan (1:19); 300 L. Clough (1:12); 400 L. Castellan (1:11); 500 L. Clough (1:11); 600 L. Clough (1:11); 800 L. Clough (1:11); 1000 L. Clough (1:11); 1200 L. Clough (1:11); 1500 L. Clough (1:11); 2000 L. Clough (1:11); 2500 L. Clough (1

Wednesday Night Darts Like Comic Strip Scene

By DAVE LAVALLEE Herald Reporter
GLASTONBURY — It was like a scene out of an Andy Capp strip. With bottles of beer strewn about the tables, more than 12 teams competing and each team decked out in its own personalized shirts, a night of dart competition was about to begin at the Triangle Cafe.

Every Wednesday night, teams that make up the Northern Connecticut Dart League travel throughout the region to compete against other squads at genuine home-and-away sites. Chickey Balesano, the captain of Peppino's Place, a bar located in Manchester, said his team is made up of fellow softball players.

Peppino's asked the members of our softball team to form a team. We have been playing since August," she said. There are eight players on the Peppino's squad, but only six can play at a time. There were 12 teams playing at the Triangle Cafe last Wednesday. The Glastonbury bar sponsors 12 of its own teams.

While members of each team chatted about the mechanics of the competition, other teams warmed up. Most teams huddled around one particular table where they sipped on their favorite drinks. The bar is not particularly well-lit, but the dart boards are all illuminated with spotlights.

The Triangle Cafe not only has boards in its main lounge area, but also has them set up in the basement of the building. Yes, there is a bar in the basement. All ages play. Men and women compete equally and most members really don't seem to care whether you are a guy or gal, as long as you can throw well. Ms. Balesano said there are 32 teams in the northern league. She said New Haven has about 20 teams. The teams play from October to April, one night a week. Dave Stiefel, of the Triangle Purple team, said the Triangle Cafe is the team's home base.

Manchester sponsors a team in the league. There are two Manchester sides for darts matches, the BAC and Peppino's. According to the players, a good dart set sells for about $10. Bob Letarte, of the Triangle Tan team said his team is sponsored by a package store in Rocky Hill. There are 13 players on his team, and he said the team will travel to about 10 different sites before the season ends. Dan Lewonczyk, of the Triangle Purple team, said competing in darts is a great way to meet people. "People come with their teams and we have a good time," he said. "We have a few beers, throw a few darts and just have a heckuva good time. Sometimes we hang around after the matches and have a few beers," one player said as he nursed a cold draft.

Dave Stiefel (left) and Dan Lewonczyk, of the Triangle Purple team, gear up for an upcoming match. The Triangle Cafe sponsors 12 teams. (Herald photo by Lavallee)

These players line up to take their warm-up shots before a match. Despite the relaxed atmosphere at the Triangle Cafe, all of the competitors take their game very seriously. (Herald photo by Lavallee)

This was the scene as teams from all over the region competed in darts at the Triangle Cafe. Teams relax and have a few drinks while competing. (Herald photo by Lavallee)

Winchell's Poetry Cited

MANCHESTER — Dr. Wallace Winchell, assistant professor of English at Manchester Community College, has received two national awards for his poetry during 1978. For two sonnets on the origin of the universe entitled "Deus Creator Omnium" and "Rhizome," Dr. Winchell received a 1978 Dellbrook Award from the Shenandoah Valley Academy of Arts and Letters at its 1978 meeting on the Dellbrook Campus of Shenandoah College in Virginia.

The World Order of Narrative Poets of Walnut Creek, Calif., presented its 1978 Ben Johnson Award to Dr. Winchell for his "On a Footsore Path," a ballad about the Mohegan-Pequot Indians. Now in his tenth year as full-time faculty member at Manchester Community College, Dr. Winchell serves as faculty advisor to the MCC Christian Fellowship as well as teaching English literature and English composition. He joined the college in 1966 as a part-time teacher, and has also taught effective speaking and philosophy.

Prior to beginning his career as a teacher, Dr. Winchell was a congregational minister, serving churches in New Jersey, Michigan and in Broad Brook, Conn. "I have always written," Winchell commented, "but it had only been during the past 15 years or so that I have submitted my work for publication. His work has been published frequently in both secular and church publications, and in 1966 he was elected to the Poetry Society of America, a national organization of professional writers. In addition to the two poetry awards, Dr. Winchell made a presentation entitled "Beauty and Mystery: Shelley the Spirit" at the Shelley Society of America at an October meeting of the organization in New York City.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Winchell lives at 26 Essex St., Manchester.

Dr. Wallace Winchell

Duplicate Bridge

Manchester Bridge Club
Nov. 26, Maple St. — North-South: Phyllis Pierson and Barbara Davis, first; Sandy Craft and Marge Prentiss, second; Ann McLaughlin and Flo Barre, third.

Manchester Bridge Club
Nov. 29, East Hartford — North-South: Phyllis Pierson and Barbara Davis, first; Flo Barre and Penny Weatherax, second; Sara Mendelsohn and Ellen Goldberg, third.

Pinocle Scores

Manchester
Top scorers in the Manchester Senior Citizens Pinocle Group game Nov. 29 at the Army and Navy Club are Fritz Wilkenson, 683, Hans Frederickson, 618, Glenn Gibble, 593, Heleva Gavello, 584, Cam Vendrillo, 581, Bob Hill, 578, Margaret Frederickson, 578, Grace Gibbs, 577, Janet Ghayson, 575, Dot Ferrell, 569, Edith O'Brien, 563, Ann Fisher, 563, Eleanor Moran, 554, Arline Paquin, 554, Mary Mackowski, 549, Kitty Byrnes, 549, Betty Turner, 548, Peg Vendrillo, 542, Cam Vendrillo, 540, Russell Hughes, 540.

Manchester Bridge Club
Nov. 29, East Hartford — North-South: Phyllis Pierson and Barbara Davis, first; Flo Barre and Penny Weatherax, second; Sara Mendelsohn and Ellen Goldberg, third.

Manchester Bridge Club
Nov. 29, East Hartford — North-South: Phyllis Pierson and Barbara Davis, first; Flo Barre and Penny Weatherax, second; Sara Mendelsohn and Ellen Goldberg, third.

Manchester Bridge Club
Nov. 29, East Hartford — North-South: Phyllis Pierson and Barbara Davis, first; Flo Barre and Penny Weatherax, second; Sara Mendelsohn and Ellen Goldberg, third.

Manchester Bridge Club
Nov. 29, East Hartford — North-South: Phyllis Pierson and Barbara Davis, first; Flo Barre and Penny Weatherax, second; Sara Mendelsohn and Ellen Goldberg, third.

T / Tonight

6:00 12-30 News
6:30 12-30 News
7:00 12-30 News
7:30 12-30 News
8:00 12-30 News
8:30 12-30 News
9:00 12-30 News
9:30 12-30 News
10:00 12-30 News
10:30 12-30 News
11:00 12-30 News
11:30 12-30 News
12:00 12-30 News
12:30 12-30 News
1:00 12-30 News
1:30 12-30 News
2:00 12-30 News
2:30 12-30 News
3:00 12-30 News
3:30 12-30 News
4:00 12-30 News
4:30 12-30 News
5:00 12-30 News
5:30 12-30 News
6:00 12-30 News

Business Eastern Tool Elects Officers and Directors

EAST HARTFORD — Eastern Tool Co. Inc., manufacturer of precision insert tool holders and carbide inserts, announces the appointment of officers and directors following settlement of the estate of the late Robert J. Hood, founder and former president.

Herald Appoints Two

MANCHESTER — The Evening Herald has appointed Christine Collet and Gerlinda Colletti as new sales managers for the newspaper.

Caldor Sales Set Record

NORWALK — Caldor Inc. has reported sales for the four weeks ended Nov. 24, increased 23.4 percent to a record $54.3 million from the previous year's $44.5 million.

Santa Pictures Making Money

ATLANTA (UPI) — The "real" Santa Claus has a soft lap and a warm bear hug for thousands of awestruck youngsters, even those whose pants are damp after standing for hours in a shopping center line.

New Vice President

EAST HARTFORD — Eugene J. Talia has been appointed vice president in charge of the Washington office of Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Group of United Technologies.

Actuary Panelist

EAST HARTFORD — Joseph R. Brzezinski of 63 Skyline Drive, was a panelist for an insurance industry discussion of agent compensation at the annual meeting of the Society of Actuaries held recently in Bal Harbour, Fla.

Industrics Reports Large Sales Increase

SOUTH WINDSOR — Industrics Inc., manufacturer of new and refurbished furnaces and ovens, reported sales of $5,844,311 for fiscal 1978, an increase of 45 percent over the 1978 figure of $4,026,097.

On Surgical Staff

MANCHESTER — Dr. Bruce M. Derriek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Derriek, 168 Shallowbrook Lane, has been appointed a staff surgeon at Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Bruce M. Derriek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Derriek, has been appointed a staff surgeon at Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia, Pa.

New Officers

New officers of the Eastern Connecticut Bicentennial Chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors, were installed at the Manchester Country Club. From left, Harriet Haffner, first vice president, state WCR; Arlene Feldstein, regional vice president, installing officer; Mrs. Evelyn Carlson, president; Mrs. Marilyn Bissell, vice president; Miss Sue Peck, treasurer and Mrs. Lorraine Boutin, corresponding secretary. (UPI photo)

Let Me Certify Your Home Energy Efficient

Peter Curtin, NU Energy Consultant, Hartford

Don't spend a cent on your kid this month.

At Friendly Family Restaurants, we've come up with a great deal that means you won't have to. One free Kid Stuff meal for kids under 12. Just order any two items from our dinners or platters section and choose one meal from our Kid Stuff section free. And they're great meals!

TELEPHONE 249-5711 (EXT. 589)
NATIONAL ENERGY WATCH NORTHEAST UTILITIES
NU

It Had Possibilities

The Peterman Realty and Building Company of Manchester saw more than a ramshackle old home when the firm viewed this 149-year-old building, located at 404 North Main St. (Herald photo by Robin Photos)

Restored Home First Under New Apartment Rules

MANCHESTER - A newly restored home at 404 North Main St. is significant first because it dates from 1830 or earlier and second because it is the first apartment property in town approved by a new zoning provision for smaller land parcels.

New Panel Minus Two

VERNON - The Public Works subcommittee, appointed by Mayor Marie Herbst, met Monday night, minus two of its three members. The two Republicans appointed refused to attend the meeting claiming the subcommittee isn't legal.

Power of the Pen

On letterheads they helped design, students at the Vernon Center Middle School are writing hundreds of letters to government officials offering suggestions and asking their help to alleviate problems for children starving in Cambodia. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Fire Committee Begins Work

By BARBARA RICHMOND
Herald Reporter
VERNON - The Fire study subcommittee met for the first time Monday night with all three members present. Mrs. Jane Lamb, the one Republican on the committee, said she had no problem making the decision to attend.

Voila! With financing from Heritage Savings and Loan Association, the Peterman Realty and Building Company recently completed renovating the old home to a seven unit apartment complex. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Students Band Together To Support Cambodians

By BARBARA RICHMOND
Herald Reporter
VERNON - For those skeptical persons who think young people nowadays don't have a concern for values, their skepticism should diminish after reading some of the letters of the Vernon Center Middle School have sent out making pleas for the children of Cambodia.

Students Band Together To Support Cambodians

By BARBARA RICHMOND
Herald Reporter
VERNON - For those skeptical persons who think young people nowadays don't have a concern for values, their skepticism should diminish after reading some of the letters of the Vernon Center Middle School have sent out making pleas for the children of Cambodia.

Students Band Together To Support Cambodians

By BARBARA RICHMOND
Herald Reporter
VERNON - For those skeptical persons who think young people nowadays don't have a concern for values, their skepticism should diminish after reading some of the letters of the Vernon Center Middle School have sent out making pleas for the children of Cambodia.

Check the STARS for a treasure chest of Gift Suggestions.

The Herald

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Mr. Livingston I Presume...

The Herald

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

PHONE 643-2711

INVITATION TO BID

Sealed bids will be received in the Office of the Director of General Services, 41 Center Street, Manchester, Connecticut, until December 19, 1979 at 11:00 a.m. for the following:

REGAL MUFFLER CENTER

369 MAIN ST. TEL: 643-2112

MANCHESTER CARRIER WANTED

Center Street 331 to 470
Roosevelt St.
Lincoln St.
Trumbull St.
Lilac St.

HERALD CARRIER NEEDED

IN DOWNEY DRIVE, FOUNTAIN VILLAGE AREA.
CALL 647-9946 or 647-9947

MANCHESTER CARRIER WANTED

Tolland St. 525-551
Hammer St.
William St.
Burnside St. 727-735
Graveland St.

APPLICATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR

INSPECTORS ★ STOCK CLERKS
Apply in person, 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Let the STARS guide you to the best Holiday buys.

HELP!

WE are presently accepting applications for the following part time morning, afternoon, and evening positions:

TYPIST

Experienced in newspaper ad composition. Knowledge of AKI Keyboards and Photon Typesetters helpful.

PLASTIC INSPECTOR

Opening for first shift QC person to take over a small inspection department in a busy growing, molding and mold making company.

REGAL MUFFLER CENTER

369 MAIN ST. TEL: 643-2112

MANCHESTER CARRIER WANTED

Center Street 331 to 470
Roosevelt St.
Lincoln St.
Trumbull St.
Lilac St.

HERALD CARRIER NEEDED

IN DOWNEY DRIVE, FOUNTAIN VILLAGE AREA.
CALL 647-9946 or 647-9947

MANCHESTER CARRIER WANTED

Tolland St. 525-551
Hammer St.
William St.
Burnside St. 727-735
Graveland St.

APPLICATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR

INSPECTORS ★ STOCK CLERKS
Apply in person, 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

CARRIER WANTED

IN HEBRON, WELLSWOOD RD. AREA
Call THE HERALD 647-9946 - 647-9947

CLASSIFIED ADS: the people helper

EVERY DAY AND IN MANY WAYS

Real Estate Wanted

BRITANNY SPANIEL, AKC. MAY BE BUY your home? Quick fair, all cash and no problem. Call Warren E. Howland, Realtors, 643-1106. Home Sweet Home - Complete health-guard facilities. Cats also. Linn Holiday Inn, 200 Sheldon Road, Manchester, 646-3971.

FREE COLLIE PUPS to country homes Call Bolton 646-1516, mornings 7:30 to 9 AM. G.E. RANGE DELUXE - Self cleaning oven, timer, clock, broiler, family room, 2 1/2 baths, 2 fireplaces, 2 car garage, much more. The Hayter Corp. 646-0131.

ALUMINUM Stars used as printing plates. 607 thick for 11. Phone 643-2111. Must be picked up before 11 a.m. ONLY. PEANUTS, top and dye set, electric welder, acetylene outfit, aluminum ladder, trailer, electric generator, electric lawn-mower. Evenings, 643-7060.

BLACK & WHITE PORTABLE TELEVISION. SET - $39. Call 646-7212 anytime. DELIVERING DARK LOAM - 3 yards, $40 plus tax. Also sand, gravel and stone. 643-904.

68 ADELAIDE ROAD - Highland Park. This exquisite 8 room Garrison Colonial is a real treasure in today's real estate market. Custom built by Master craftsmen with beautiful fireplaces, cabinets, and molding. Decorated throughout. 2 1/2 baths, lavatory, parlor, large dining room and 2 car attached garage, on a private 1.2 acre lot. $410,000. By owner. Call 646-7100.

GLASTONBURY, LEVEL TREED LOTS available for custom building your new home. In Hills area, located between 2 golf courses. Call Peterman, 646-1171, 646-8844.

1979 COUGAR XR-7, Impala Caprice or Bonneville and receive a check for $300. OFFER EXPIRES 12-31-79. 1979 CHEVROLET IMPALA Equipped 6495.00 Less Rebate 300.00 choose from 6195.00

AVIS Used Car Sales. here are some of the benefits we want to tell you about in used car sales. Some of the best prices around on fully-loaded late model cars. Only the pick of our rental fleet is offered for sale.

Frank & Ernest

I GOT HIM TO JOIN THE CHURCH AND BECAME A MONK - IT WAS A TWO-POINT CONVERSION.

BUSINESS & SERVICE DIRECTORY

Services Offered 31. C&M TREE SERVICE - Free estimates, discount senior citizens. 32. PAINTING - Interior and exterior, paperhanging, etc. 33. CARPETING - Installation, repair, etc.

ARE YOUR GUTTERS STOPPED UP? Call "Manchester Gutter" today. CARPENTRY & MASONRY - Additions and remodeling. 41. REAL ESTATE - Retail, storage and/or manufacturing space.

1974 VOLVO WAGON. Automatic transmission, power steering and brakes, air conditioned, roof rack. 643-8011 or 658-2291.

1974 VOLVO WAGON. Automatic transmission, power steering and brakes, air conditioned, roof rack. 643-8011 or 658-2291.

HALL FOR RENT. International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Hall, 379 Wetherell Street, Manchester. 646-4231.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR DOING: You make an excellent point. Your answer was better than mine. DEAR ABBY: Last Christmas Eve, during my busy preparations for 18 dinner guests I had also ordered my meal.

DEAR ABBY: My employer used to give Christmas bonuses to all employees, based on any profit. In the last couple of years, he eliminated the holiday bonuses in favor of a Christmas party.

DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite. UNAPPRECIATIVE IN OREGON. DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite.

DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite. UNAPPRECIATIVE IN OREGON. DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite.

DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite. UNAPPRECIATIVE IN OREGON. DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite.

DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite. UNAPPRECIATIVE IN OREGON. DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite.

DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite. UNAPPRECIATIVE IN OREGON. DEAR ABBY: I am the only one who feels such phone calls are impolite.

Peanuts - Charles M. Schulz

YOU WOULDN'T GIVE A D-MINUS TO SOMEBODY WITH A BOU IN HER HAIR, WOULD YOU, MAM?

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

DEAR ABBY: I've been reading your column for years, and around holiday time someone always asks, "Should we go to HIS mother's or to MY mother's for Christmas dinner?"

Answers to Previous Puzzles

Grid of numbers for crossword puzzle answers.

Grid of numbers for crossword puzzle answers.

Win at bridge

Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag. Finding best scoring slam. Note the bidding. South's four-club bid tells North that South has some slam interest.

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag. Today's North-South hands are taken from a 1967 Bridge World magazine bidding contest.

Heathcliff - George Gately. A SURE INDICATION OF AN APPROACHING STORM IS A FALLING BAROMETER.

Short Ribs - Frank Hill. THE OPINIONS EXPRESSED BY MY DUMMAY.

Bugs Bunny - Helmdahl & Stoffel. OH, BOY, DUCK SEASON OPENS TODAY.

My dad was in the Navy, but he's not so good on frozen water.

