the housing list. Town officials have charged the stipulations were imposed becuase the community withdrew from another HUD program, the Community Development Block Grant. Under the HUD ruling, several Manchester residents would be passed over, in favor of residents from "impacted areas," Hartford

The town had been considering a lawsuit to repeal the stipulations, but now has decided to lose the entire grant of 14, rather than give six certificates to non-residents.

"HUD had been pressuring us to decide what we were going to do," Dennis Phelan, housing director, said. "We agreed unanimously this morning to refuse the grants." Phelan noted a meeting had not been called, for expediancy in

Love, ABBY

DEAR ABBY: A recent column regarding the son who n invasion of his privacy, struck home with us. We have a similar situation in that our married son, who lives in nother city, doesn't want his mother to visit him for the same reason. would like to visit him and his wife. His response was out of this world! He told her in no uncertain terms that she could visit them only when it was convenient for him. The tone of his letter caused considerable anguish, and my wife was in ears for several days. My wife has written him several times, asking when it would be convenient for her to visit, but he keeps putting her off with one excuse after another. Surely in three years Our son has no use for me, so I stay out of his way, however, I feel very sorry for my wife.

CONCERNED IN CALIF.

DEAR CONCERNED: Encourage your wife to get som obvious rejection she is getting from her son. I suspect hat there is another side to this sad story. Getting married? Whether you want a formal church wedding or a simple do-your-own-thing ceremony, get Abby's new booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents) self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif.
