Suppose you're heading back home for refreshments on the patio or terrace. If you've made Creamy Peanut Butter Cheesecake in advance, all that's needed is to remove it from the refrigerator and decorate it with a garland of peanut butter flavored chips. These handy little chips, made from real roasted peanuts, add a healthy boost of nutrition to foods, and because they melt easily and mix well with other ingredients, they're also very convénient to use in this dessert.

If you're picnic-bound, take along Peanutty Oat Bars - a great traveler that's unbelievably easy to make. No mixing's required, for you just add the ingredients one by one to the baking pan. The delicious, chewy bars can be baked a day or more in advance, all ready to be tucked into a

What's the Fourth of July without ice cream? Unthinkable, that's what! Give all your ice cream fans, young and old, something really worth celebrating by making Cranberry Ripple Ice Cream (it's our native-to-America berry in a brand new guise). No ice cream freezer is needed for this delectable variation. All that's required is to layer the ice cream mixture with cranberry orange relish in a loaf pan, then "swirl" it with a knife before putting it into the freezer compartment of Hot weather and cool beverages go hand in hand. Old Glory Grapefruit Drink is a refreshing cooler combining the wonderful flavor of bottled grapefruit juice with thawed, frozen raspberries and a taste of honey. Whirl the mixture in a blender and serve at once, or pour it into a thermos and shake it up for picnickers later!

FESTIVE FOOD for the Fourth, easily made in advance, includes Cranberry Ripple Ice Cream, Creamy Peanut Butter Cheesecake, Pennutty Oat Bars and Old Glory Grapefruit Drink. They'll give you a good reason to celebrate!

1/3 cup butter or margarine I-1/4 cups chocolate wafer cookie crumbs (about

1/4 cup sugar I (8-ounce) package cream cheese, softened 2 tablespoons reconstituted lemon juice 2 cups (12-ounce package) peanut butter chips 1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk (NOT evaporated)

1 cup (1/2 pint) whipping cream, whipped

In small saucepan, melt butter; stir in crumbs and sugar. Press firmly on bottom of 9-inch springform pan or 13x9-inch baking dish. Chill while preparing filling. In large mixer bowl, beat cheese until fluffy, stir in reconstituted lemon juice. Set aside. Reserve 1/4 cup chips for garnish. In small saucepan, combine remain ing chips with sweetened condensed milk, cook, stirring, over low heat until chips melt. Stir peanut butter mixture into cheese mixture; mix well. Fold in whipped cream: turn into prepared pan. Chill 5 hours or until set. Remove side of springform pan to serve. Garnish with reserved peanut butter chips. Refrigerate leftovers. PEANUTTY OAT BARS (Makes 24 bars)

1/4 cup butter or margarine 1-1/2 cups quick-cooking oats I cup flaked coconut

1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk (NOT ecaporated) 2 cups (12-ounce package) peanut butter chips 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Preheat oven to 350° (325° for glass dish). In 13x9-inch baking pan, melt butter in oven. Sprinkle oats over butter, then cocomit. Pour sweetened condensed milk evenly over coconut. Top evenly with chips, then nuts, press down gently. Bake 25 to 30 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool thoroughly before cutting into bars. Store, loosely covered, at room temperature.

RIPPLE ICE CREAM

(Makes about 1-1/2 quarts) 1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk 1/4 cup chopped walnuts

2 tablespoons water 4 teaspoons vanilla extract I tablespoon grated orange rind 2 cups (Lpint) whipping cream, whipped I (14-ounce) jar cranberry orange relish

In large bowl, beat egg yolks: stir in a maining ingredients except whipping cream and relish 1') I in whipped cream. Spread 3 tablespoons relish on bottom of aluminum foil-lined 9x5inch loaf pan. Pour in one-third of ice cream mixture; spoon half of remaining relish on top. Repeat layering, ending with ice cream mixture. Swirl knife or spatula through ice cream te create marble effect. Cover, freeze 6 hours or until firm. Scoop ice cream from pan, or peel off foil and slice. Return leftovers to freezer. *Use only Grade A clean, uncracked eggs.

Site selection still hampered By DONNA HOLLAND Herald Correspondent

BOLTON- A verbal report on acquisition of a central site for various town facilities was given to the Board of Selectmen at its meeting Tuesday by Alyosius Ahearn, Ahearn, who along with other town officials and representatives of the Department of Environmental Protection, recently toured Freja Park and the land in back of Bolton High School, said the results of that tour

Ahearn said, "We're back to the old stand-by, the land in back of the schools on Notch Road. It's either that or we'll have to talk about purchasing a piece of property." The town is seeking land for a transfer station, bulky waste site, dog pound and town garage. Plans for a new firehouse, more recently called a public safety complex, to include state police and town garage facilities, have been discussed for years. In an attempt to find a solution to Bolton's trash disposal problem, the selectmen signed a letter of intent to join the Windham Regional Solid Waste Facility whereby trash would be trucked to a plant in Windham for conver sion to steam for use by a manufacturer. Plans for the new facility are underway and contract revisions for participating towns are being worked on.

Bolton will need a transfer station and initial plans Ahearn said, "Only about four of the 19 acres at the park could be used for a transfer station and it was doubtful the area could be used for a bulky waste site." Girl of His Dreams Gives Rude Awakening

By Abigaii van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Six months ago I married a beautiful woman. She had the kind of beauty that most men can only dream about. She was cuddly and loving before we were married and until about a month after; then Bobby, her 9year-old son, took over. She prepares only Bobby's favorite food (mainly hamburgers) and never asks me what I want. When I suggest something. I'm told, "We aren't used to eating that!" She speaks of her rights and Bobby's rights. Never mine.

She buys him any toy he wants. He already has more than 100 in cartons and tires of them quickly.

She allows Bobby to hold and touch her, but I am told it's not "proper" for a husband and wife to show physical affection in front of children. She's 43, I'm 46, but a 9-yearold rules our house. We have to watch his favorite TV shows. and when we eat out, we go where Bobby wants to go. Abby, I was willing to accept her son, he's part of her. But feel like an outsider looking in. Until he was 7, he slept with her. (He had no bed of his own) even allowed to correct him. If I try, she jumps all over me, I just pay their bills and get nothing out of our marriage.

OUTSIDER IN CHICAGO DEAR OUTSIDER: Tell your bride that you are dissatisfied with your marriage and will need her cooperation (and Bobby's) to improve it. Family counseling, involving all members of the family, will be required. If she refuses to cooperate, you can either dissolve the marriage or hang around while the lady "with the kind of beauty most men dream continues to use you.

What is your advice?

DEAR ABBY: About three weeks ago I met a real neat kid. We hit it off swell together. He asked me for my telephone number and \(\frac{1}{2}\) gave it to him.

The next day he called and we made a date for that Friday night. He never showed up and never called. Yesterday umped into him by accident, and he said he was sorry about what happened last Friday, but something u expected came up and he couldn't make it. He asked if he could see me that night and I said yes. Well, he didn't show up and didn't call. Next Saturday night my girlfriend is having a party, and she told me to bring my wn guy. Do you think I should give this kid anothe chance? I still like him. HOLES IN MY HEAD

DEAR HOLES: If you do, you should borrow the ocks in his head to fill up the holes in yours. DEAR ABBY: Would you care to speculate on why a man would lose three wedding rings in the first four years of his

DEAR WIFE: He either consciously or unconsciously doesn't want to a) be married, b) look married, c) feel married. Or a combination of all
