No more than half a tank from where you are in the state you can locate a destination that fills the bill for a tot's outing.

Starting with Things That Go. consider the Valley Railroad in Essex, which offers a double-header - train Children, like the rest of us, love the sights and sounds of the steamtrain, the puffing and chugging, the billows of smoke, the bell and whistle, the monster engine out of

Complete with properly uniformed conductor calling station stops, the train clacks past farms, houses, open country, and in half an hour reaches the Deep River dock. There you jump off - watch that bottom step - and march up the gangplank onto the riverboat for a waterside view of the Connecticut River Valley, including Gillette Castle high on a hill in Hadlyme. The hour-long cruise ends back at Deep River where the train is waiting to return you to Station Stop Essex. You can get souveniers in the shop. and snacks for small appetites when you disembark. AIRPLANE (PG) — Robert Hayes, Julie Hagerty, (Comedy) Wacky low-budget spoof of airline disaster films. It's hit and often mins, but there's a fresh, unpretentious energy to it, and some of it is very funny. GENERAL RELEASE

Halloween night, 1965, and Fubby's Livive-in, home of the Hollywood Knights car club, is closing for good. In tribute, members set out to wreak as much havor on the community as they can. This, the umpteenth rip-off of "American Graffitti" and "Adminal House," is notable only for striking a new low in vulgarity. It is crude, tasteless and loud, which would be fine by us if it were funny. It's not. Caution: Extreme vulgarity. GRADE: F

BOUGH CUT (PG) - Burt Reynolds, Lesley-Anne Down, David Niv (Action comedy) Niven. a Southard Yard impector, tries to lure Reynolds, the world's greatest diamond thief, into a trap, using Miss Down as the bait. Very slick, very frothy caper outing patterned after the Cary Grant movies of the 1850s. Dialogue and plotting are mostly inane, but it has its moments as light diversion. GRADE: B-minus SHINING, THE (R) - Jack Nicholson, Shelley Davall, Scatt

BRUBAKER (R) — Robert Redford, Yaphet Retto, Jane Alexander.

" " " " (Prison drama) A downbest story of a prinon reformer who wants to improve conditions in a frightful prison camp, but must fight politicians. townspeople and even the prisoners themselves. All pretty grim — some of the prison scenes are very ugly — with few easy moments. Good intentions, but a film needs more. Grade: B SHIVING, THE (R) — Jack Nicholson, Shelley Devall, Scatmas Crothers, (Saupensey) The combination of Stephen King's great novel and Stanley Rubrick's direction was espected to produce a classic. Alas, it is lavish but basically routice tale of the nice family in the spooky old house where strange things happen. Kubrick took the punch out of Ring's bool and added nothing. "The Shining" barely even glows. GRADE: B

URBAN COWBOY (PG) — John Travolta, Debra Winger, Scatt Glenn (Dranu) Travolta's career gets new life with his role of a young Texan refinery worker who tries to live the cowboy myth by night. Keen details — newlyweds' trailer, gandy Western shirts, pickup trucks — evoke a genuine feel for the young blue-collar men and women whose lives revolve around Gilley's bar. Excellent supporting cast, especially Winger as the young bride. Great country-western soundtrack. GRADE: B-plus FAME (R) — (Comedy) Exuberant rock musical that follows a group of talented youngsters from their auditions to New York City's High School for the Performing Arts to their graduation four years later. A feast of onscreen talent—singing, discring, musicianship—that you can't belip employing. The character studies are less successful, particularly in the last half hour, but on balance this is well worth your time and money. Caution Strong language, adult situations, some nudity GRADE. Vernon will buy playground area

VERNON - The Town Council has authorized Mayor Marie Herbst to enter into an agreement to secure an appraisal for the Burke Road Playground property and to transfer money from the General Fund to pay for it. The Planning Commission has recommended that th town buy the site and the town already has received $25,-000 through the Community Development Block Grant program toward the purchase. The area consists of 3.2 acres of unimproved land but it has been used as a neighborhood playground area.

After the town has the appraisal done then a public hearing and town meeting will have to be held to ask aproyal for whatever additional money will be needed The town can't apply for the DEP grant until it knows pproximately what amount it will need

The Department of Environmental Protection has told the town that the initial appraisal may be done by anybody who knows real estate. However, before the grant is approved, a full appraisal based on the state's 49 point system must be completed by a state-approved ce

Officials question board's authority

VERNON - The question of how much authority the Permanent Municipal Building Committee has was raised recently by the mayor and the Town Council when talking about awarding contracts in connection with the building of the town's new firehouse.

Mayor Marie Herbst said she doesn't think the committee was given the authority to enter into contracts but Councilman Robert Hurd wondered if that authorization was given when the referendum to approve the funding was passed.

council has to authorize the bids but not the design Manchester architect Richard Lawrence, who designing the building, told Dotson that the bids for the well drilling were opened on July 1. This is a separate contract from the general construction of the fire station. A referendum in May approved an appropriation of $375,-000 for construction of the station, south of Interstate 86. It is expected the general construction bids will be opened on July 29 and the estimated time for start of the work is about the second week in August Lawrence said they anticipate a nine-month construction time so that an estimated date for completion would be in May, 1981. It is expected the council will make a decision at its July 21 meeting concerning the awarding of the construc-

Instructors sought

VERNON - With its summer programs well under way. The Indian Valley branch of the YMCA is seeking qualified instructors for its fall programs Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and have the ability to teach in a classroom situation. Each applicant should be able to provide his or her skill level through certification or previous teaching experience. The YMCA is looking for people in many different skill areas, however, special consideration will be given to persons with fitness background. The "Y" plans to expand its fitness programming throughout the seven-town area it serves, this fall.

Band shell fund $3,000 from goal

MANCHESTER - The Manchester Bicentennial Band Shell Corp. has announced that the initial response to the corporation's Phase 2 Capital Improvement Program has been very encouraging. Since receiving a $10,000 Challenge Grant from the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving in mid-May, the MBBC has received $1850 in matching funds from area businesses, bringing the corporation's capital account to over $7,000. That brings the corporation to within $3,000 c matching the grant. Donations have been made by CBT, Moriarty Brothers, Regal's Men's Shop, Dean Machine, Savings Bank of Manchester, William Sleith, J.D. Real Estate Associates,

The MBBC expects to put the project of building toilet facilities and a refreshment pavilion adjacent to the existing band shell out for bid by late summer and anticipates construction to be completed by spring 1981. Members of the MBBC will be mailing additional etters soon, soliciting the support of Hartford and welcome and may be made at any of the concerts or sent directly to: Ms. Dorothy Sonego, Savings Bank of Manchester, 923 Main Street, Manchester, CT 06040.

The Herald classified advertising 643-2718 NIGHTS 643-2711 DAYS NIGHT OR DAY:

DEAR ABBY: Now that Mother's Day and Father's Day are gone, and lots of June weddings have taken place, please say something about children who get married and never ask their parents to their apartment or home. Most parents would appreciate an invitation to visit their kids, and if the kids don't want to bother preparing dinner, they could take their parents out. It would mean so much more than flowers, cards or a fancy gift. Our son has been married for two and a half years, and we e never been asked to his place. I have hinted plenty. Is it QK to just drop in? BEWILDERED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If after "hinting plenty" for two and a half years, you haven't been invited, you can assume that there's still a "DO NOT DISTURB" sign hanging on their door. And I agree, most parents would consider an invitation the best gift their kids could give them.

DEAR ABBY. My husband never did any work around the house, primarily because he was never home. He was always involved in running his own place of business. Consequently, the painting (inside and out), window eashing, carpet cleaning, housekeeping, cooking, plus all the yard work and gardening, were done by me all our ried years. The children helped me when they could, but they have their own homes now, so I have to do everything

Now my husband wants me to start going to the office with him every day and be a steady office hand. As it is, I take care of all his bookkeeping and do the taxes. Abby, I'm 59 and would love to take it a little easier now, and just stay home and sew for the grandchildren. Don't you think I have earned a little rest.

DEAR PUSHING: Earned it? I'd say you require it! I'm exhausted from just reading your letter, lady.

for having a healthy, normal, full-term baby? Also, what are the risks involved with my own life? Some of my friends have told me that I'll have a heart attack and never make it through delivery. Others say that women over 35 should not risk having a baby because the lder the mother, the higher the risk for an abnormal child Please hurry your answer. I have only been to a clinic to onfirm my pregnancy, and if you think I should continu this pregnancy, I will go to my own physician. Thank you Simply knowing your age and weight is not enough. Don't listen to the tales of your friends. Instead go immediately to your own doctor. Fortunately, today the fetus is normal. Good luck and God bless.

what to say? Thank-you notes, sympathy letters, tions and how to write an interesting letter are included in Abby's booklet, "How To Write Letters for All Occasions." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents), self-addressed envelope to: Abby, Letter Booklet, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif.

PUSHING 60

DEAR ABBY: I am a 35-year-old married woman. I am 5 foot 5, weigh 240 — down from 294 — and after wanting a child for nine years, I find that I am two months pregnant. I am thrilled, but at the same time I have some fears because of my age and weight. I understand that you have access to the very best medical dvice, so would you please find out what my chances are

OVERAGE, OVERWEIGHT AND OVERJOYEI

DEAR OVER: No competent physician would venture an opinion without first examining you.

Do you hate to write letters because you don't know congratulations, how to decline and accept invita-weaknesses in two ways today: Hit him in his vulnerable spots or help him to overcome them. Choose the latter. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Being drawn into another person's costly problem may teach you a quick lesson today. You won't be cavely of course.
