

Seven years later,
no hope for Hoffa
...page 10

Pilot becomes a psychologist
...page 11

Democrat joke: Who looks silly?
...page 4

Partly sunny, warm and humid
— See page 2

Manchester Herald

Manchester, Conn.
Saturday, July 31, 1982
Single copy 25c

Corn on the job
Jack Yanner and Stacey Spears sort corn at Botticello Farms on Hillstown Road.

Bryan petitions ask to join 8th District

By Nancy Thompson
Herald Reporter

More than 20 percent of the necessary signatures have been collected on petitions to bring the Bryan Farms area into the Eighth Utilities District fire protection service, an organizer of the petition drive said Friday.

Peter Staye, of 139 Bryan Drive, said organizers began "hitting the streets and knocking on doors" with petitions about 10 days ago. He estimated they have between 20 and 25 percent of the approximately 110 signatures of neighborhood homeowners needed to bring the matter before the Eighth Utilities District's residents and Board of Directors.

Staye said nine people are involved in the petition drive — none of them officials of the Eighth Utilities District. He declined to reveal their names. The organizers are all residents of the Bryan Farms neighborhood, he said, calling the petition drive a "grassroots" effort.

Earlier this year, Staye's discussions with Bryan Farms' residents about a possible petition drive prompted bitter exchanges between town and district officials, with town officials claiming their district counterparts were behind the drive in an attempt to increase district tax revenues.

Staye said Friday that the petition drive began after the political battle of words in March.

"Shortly after the politicians got finished battling it out, a few people in the neighborhood got hold of me and said they were interested," Staye said. "We decided passing a petition is a good thing to do."

Staye said the desire of neighborhood residents to switch from town to district fire protection is fueled both by monetary concerns and by a perception that the neighborhood is "abused" by the town and isolated from services provided by the town fire department.

Taxes would be lower in the Eighth Utilities District than in the town, Staye said. In March, town officials said fire taxes are about seven mills in areas covered by the town fire department and about two mills in the areas covered by the Eighth District.

District officials have said the tax differential is due to the fact that the district department is staffed by volunteers while the town uses professional firefighters.

In addition, Staye cited concern that the first response to an alarm in the Bryan Farms area comes from the town's Buckland fire station, making the maximum possible response four firefighters and two fire trucks. Any additional aid has to come from the center of town, lengthening response time, Staye said.

Staye also noted that the 911 emergency number does not serve the Bryan Farms area.

Staye referred to a letter distributed last week in the neighborhood by town firefighters, describing the town fire department, its standard procedures and the services offered. The letter was an attempt to counteract the petition drive, Staye said.

The letter implies that paramedic service, which is scheduled to begin in 1983 under a program administered through the town fire department, will not be available if the neighborhood joins the Eighth District, Staye said.

Please turn to page 10

PLO pullout slated; Israel bombs; new truce set

By Vincent J. Schodolski
United Press International

A Lebanese negotiator announced an agreement "in principle" Friday for Palestinian guerrillas to leave Beirut within three weeks, but hours later Israeli planes and gunboats bombarded the city before yet another cease-fire took effect.

Just 3½ hours after the Israeli planes, gunboats and artillery began hammering the besieged and blockaded capital, a new truce—the eighth of the 55-day-old war in Lebanon—took effect and the guns fell silent.

The fighting, which coincided with reports of a possible breakthrough in negotiations to end the war, continued after dark. The night sky glowed bright orange with Israeli flares and exploding shells and rockets.

Before the cease-fire, rightwing Phalange radio said five Israeli shells hit the already badly damaged Soviet embassy in west Beirut, while Palestinian shells crashed into a television station in the Christian eastern sector.

The radio said Israeli bombers hit a unit of the Palestine Liberation Army near the "green line" dividing the city, killing 18 fighters.

Beirut radio said the bombers also struck an ammunition dump in Bourj Barajneh refugee camp, while gunners hit the Bab Edris area where Palestinians have stationed Grad rockets.

Earlier, Lebanese officials said Israeli jetfighters pounded the Sabra refugee camp and Palestine Liberation Organization offices in west Beirut.

Gunboats shelled the uptown Rouche residential district, bombed by planes for the first time earlier in the week in raids that killed 120 people. Israeli artillery also joined in.

The darkened city echoed with the sound of incoming and outgoing rounds as Palestinian gunners raced through the streets with their truck-mounted anti-aircraft and recoilless artillery guns.

"These barbaric and savage raids against the women and children—it is the American gift to Beirut," PLO chairman Yasser Arafat said.

There were no immediate casualty reports from the raids, which followed an Israeli warning that the latest two-day-old truce was on the verge of collapse because of Palestinian violations.

The military command in Tel Aviv said PLO gunners had shelled Israeli troops near Beirut Airport for the second straight day and warned that Israel would not observe "a unilateral cease-fire."

The new fighting immediately threw into doubt what appeared to be a painstakingly negotiated agreement for the evacuation of 6,000 PLO guerrillas from Beirut.

Former Lebanese Prime Minister Saeb Salam, the chief go-between for U.S. envoy Philip Habib and Arafat, announced the agreement shortly before the raids and said he thought details could be worked out in time for a PLO withdrawal within three weeks.

"An agreement in principle is already there and now it remains to work out the detail," Salam said.

In Israel, Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir said before leaving for the United States that Israel would have to receive word of the plan from Habib, not Lebanese negotiators.

"The government expects ambassador Habib to submit solid proposals very soon," he said, adding that "time is not unlimited."

But Prime Minister Menachem Begin abruptly postponed a scheduled visit to Zaire in what observers saw as a reaction to the reported agreement even though Begin's spokesman insisted it was not.

The six-point accord called for a phased PLO withdrawal from Beirut through Syrian lines in the eastern Bekaa Valley in return for an Israeli pullback from Beirut and the establishment of a multinational peacekeeping force. After that, the PLO guerrillas would be dispersed to Syria, Jordan, Iraq and Egypt.

The pact was worked out at an Arab League meeting in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, and first word of the agreement was announced there on Thursday.

Salam released further details, but a number of key points remained in dispute. Israel, for instance, so far has refused to end the siege of Beirut until the Palestinians leave.

However, the agreement was considered significant because it was the PLO's first public, written pledge to leave Beirut.

But Arafat, en route to a meeting with Salam, was bitter about the state of the negotiations and past week of Israeli air raids that occurred while Habib was touring the Middle East in search of countries to take in the Palestinians.

Asked if Habib, who returned from Israel Wednesday, had brought new proposals, Arafat said: "No, for me, no."

"What he has brought is hell in the 10 days of his absence to the civilian population of Lebanon," he said.

CIA refutes charges of Salvador meddling

WASHINGTON (UPI) — CIA Director William Casey said Friday the agency supplied invisible ink to mark the wrists of voters in El Salvador, but did not "meddle" in the March 28 elections.

In a letter to The New York Times, Casey refuted a charge by Robert White, former U.S. ambassador to El Salvador, that the CIA "bragged that the Central Intelligence Agency has meddled in the election."

White made the charge in an article that appeared Tuesday on the Times opinion page. A specialist in Latin American affairs, White resigned from the Foreign Service in 1981 after the Reagan administration recalled him from El Salvador.

Casey said White "placed a false interpretation on a piece in The Wall Street Journal of July 16 which reported me as saying, 'For instance, we helped in the El Salvador election. In Honduras, we put people through school and gave them instruments that can detect how much metal a truck is carrying. Some countries we help with photographic information or sensors, or training for anti-terrorist forces.'"

White quoted only the first sentence, "thus stripping the quotation of detail. This frees him to convert 'help in the election' to 'meddle in the election,'" Casey said.

The CIA chief said what the agency did was to give "assistance in meeting a genuine concern on the part of both the United States and the Salvadoran Governments that the election be held, and that people not be intimidated from voting."

"We provided the Salvadoran government with information and capabilities which helped it to reduce the supply of weapons from Cuba and Nicaragua and to break up guerrilla formations intended to destroy the election by creating disruptive violence on other communities throughout El Salvador," he said.

Economic indicators stall; new houses cost $88,100

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's leading economic indicators Friday showed a zero rate of change in June, and Commerce Secretary Malcolm Baldrige said that means initial economic recovery "is likely to be moderate."

The Commerce Department said its composite measurement of economic indicators was stationary in June after increases of 1.4 percent for April and 0.9 percent for May that followed an 11-month string of declines.

"The initial pace of the recovery seems likely to be moderate as suggested by recent behavior of the leading index," Baldrige said.

Baldrige, who had predicted that June figures would show clear evidence of an economic turnaround, did not abandon his forecast for better times but said they will come later. "I believe we will see clearer signs of economic recovery during the third quarter," he said.

In a separate report, the Commerce Department said new housing sales dropped 14 percent in June to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 343,000 units. The previous month showed a 17 percent increase.

The average price of a new house in June was a record $88,100 with a 9.1 month supply of houses on the market unsold, the department said.

The composite index of indicators, designed to forecast periods when the economy reaches a turning point, remained at 127.9 in June compared to a 1967 base of 100, the department said.

Three of the 10 available indicators gave evidence the economy was improving. They were the level of initial unemployment claims, the pace of deliveries and raw materials prices.

But six others reflected more deterioration in the

Sarah says leak is lie

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Maverick reporter Sarah McClendon, who drew both fury and support for publicly scolding President Reagan, Friday called "a damned lie" a story leaked later by the White House on a report about sex discrimination.

Mrs. McClendon, a feisty veteran willing to publicly chastise a president if she thinks he is not answering her question, also said she will file a Freedom of Information Act request to obtain the full report which prompted her question to Reagan Wednesday night.

In an interview on the CBS "Morning News" program, Mrs. McClendon was asked by Diane Sawyer about a CBS story the night before by Leslie Stahl. That report, said Ms. Sawyer, suggests "that there really isn't so much in it (the study)."

"I saw that leak and that's a damned lie," said Mrs. McClendon.

Mrs. McClendon, Washington correspondent for several newspapers, sharply questioned Reagan about the report at his news conference. She interrupted him when it appeared he was not responding to her question, and accused him of suppressing the report on federal laws that discriminate against women. The report was sent to the White House June 28.

Inside Today
20 pages, 2 sections

- Advice ..... 13
- Business ..... 20
- Churches ..... 14
- Classified ..... 18-19
- Comics ..... 8
- Entertainment ..... 7
- Lottery ..... 2
- Obituaries ..... 10
- Opinion ..... 4
- Sports ..... 15-17
- Television ..... 6-7
- Weather ..... 2

31 JUL 31

News Briefing

Treasurer reveals $40,316 overpaid

HARTFORD (UPI) — More than $40,000 was overpaid from a state fund used to pay benefits to workers with occupational injuries or diseases, state Treasurer Henry E. Parker disclosed Friday.

Parker said "human error" was the "chief cause" of the overpayments, which were made over seven months by the Economic and Special Funds Division in the Treasurer's Office.

Parker, who disclosed the error in a letter to Gov. William O'Neill dated Thursday, said he had asked state auditors to review the situation and the attorney general to take steps to collect the overpayments.

Parker said $40,316.72 extra was paid to 22 of the 292 people covered by the Second Injury and Compensation Assurance Fund.

The fund is made up of contributions from self-insured employers and insurers who provide workers' compensation or employers' liability and is used for employees with occupational injuries or diseases, Parker said.

A preliminary investigation showed, because of a "staff problem," 22 names were not removed from payroll lists after their benefits expired, he said. Parker said he learned about the mistake Wednesday.

He said he recognized the division had a 100 percent staff turnover in the past year and had been reorganized to implement recently enacted legislation dealing with unclaimed property.

Hospital settles on state budget

SOUTHINGTON (UPI) — A state-approved budget that will force Bradley Memorial Hospital to reduce its patient fees and make up its deficits was signed Friday by hospital officials.

The proposed three-year settlement, which hospital officials and the state tentatively accepted Wednesday, allows the hospital $7,000,000 for fiscal 1983, $9,400,000 for the current budget year and $10,270,000 for fiscal 1985, which begins Oct. 1.

The state Commission on Hospitals and Health Care scheduled a meeting Monday when it was expected to sign the agreement.

The hospital has been operating with an annual budget since October 1980 because administrators would not accept the state's attempt to cut budget requests.

As part of the settlement, the hospital is expected to reduce patient fees by a total of $50,000 in both the current budget year and in fiscal 1983, said Frederick Kuriger, the hospital's assistant director.

The agreement comes just two days after the hospital settled a 28-day walkout by 160 health care workers. The strike forced the hospital to close July 1 and it will be at least a week before the 85-bed facility is operating fully.

More injured in prison fights

FONTIAC, Ill. (UPI) — A guard and nine inmates were injured and an assistant warden suffered an apparent heart attack Friday in the 20th consecutive day of fighting at the Pontiac Correctional Center — site of a 1978 riot.

Corrections Director Michael P. Lane said the fight "involving less than 60 inmates" was apparently gang related. It broke out in the maximum security prison's West Cellblock at 1:12 p.m. and was quelled approximately five minutes later, he said.

Nic Howell, a spokesman for the department, said the guard and inmates suffered minor injuries and were treated at the prison, but Assistant Warden John Wright suffered an apparent heart attack. Howell said it had not been determined if Wright's heart attack was related to the disturbance.

Lane ordered the institution on full lockdown status until a thorough "shakedown" search for weapons was made, Howell said. He said a weapons search conducted prior to the latest disturbance turned up "a number of hand-made weapons."

Reagan offers to extend sales

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, acting to help hard-pressed American farmers at the risk of further alienating European allies, offered Friday to extend the U.S. grain sales agreement with the Soviet Union for one more year.

If the Kremlin agrees to extend the agreement expiring Sept. 30, the president said, the United States also is willing to talk about raising the maximum amount of grain the Soviets can buy under the contract.

But Reagan said America will not negotiate a new long-term pact "as long as a repression continues in Poland."

"We are not doing the Soviets any favors selling them grain," Treasury Secretary Donald Regan told reporters at a White House briefing. "They could get this grain elsewhere. The favor, if anything, is to our own farmers."

Many farmers were less than enthusiastic, however, saying they still want a long-term agreement with higher minimum purchases.

"Basically, we are glad that he extended it for another year, but disappointed he did not decide to renegotiate another long-term agreement with higher minimum purchases," Robert Deane, director of the National Farmers Union, said.

"We see virtually nothing in the announcement of benefit to the American farmer," said Bruce Hawley of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's largest and most influential farm organization.

Steelworkers nix pay, benefit cuts

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — United Steelworkers union local presidents Friday unanimously rejected a proposal by struggling U.S. steelmakers to reopen their contract, refusing to grant a reported $6 billion in concessions.

The USW said the industry late Thursday presented a package that included granting a $100 million pay raise that takes effect Sunday.

The steel industry said it was reviewing the union's rejection but had no immediate reaction.

The USW Basic Steel Industry Conference, the union's bargaining policy body comprised of 653 local presidents, agreed in a voice vote to make no changes in the union's three-year contract that runs through Aug. 1, 1983.

The 400 local presidents attending the closed-door session took less than an hour to review and then reject the proposal from the nation's eight major basic steelmakers, which bargain with the USW as a unit.

"We simply have failed," USW President Lloyd McBride said of union efforts to reach some accord with the "Big 8" steel firms, which asked the USW earlier this year for union help in trimming labor costs.

"I am disappointed we could not reach an agreement because I'm aware of the many problems that are there and that are mutual," he told a news conference.

Today in history

On July 31, 1981 negotiators agreed to end the major league baseball strike which began on June 12. Displaying a newspaper is baseball owners' bargaining agent Ray Grebey.

Two cosmonauts walk in space

MOSCOW (UPI) — Two Soviet cosmonauts went out for a walk in space Friday, floating outside their Soyuz 7 space station for more than 2 1/2 hours to make repairs and replace equipment, Tass said.

The 15-minute spacewalk was the longest in the history of the Soviet manned orbital program — though still much shorter than the record previously established in the U.S. Skylab program in 1973-74.

Cosmonauts Anatoly Berezovoi and Valentin Lebedev both donned semi-rigid protective spacesuits for the excursion outside the Soyuz cabin. Tass said they replaced worn-out equipment and retrieved micrometeorite counters and other experimental gear.

Lebedev did most of the "spacewalking" during the exercise, known as "extravehicular activity" or EVA in space parlance. Mission commander Berezovoi was stationed in the open manhole of the Soyuz craft while his flight engineer floated about performing his assigned tasks.

Friday was the 78th day in space for the Soviet fleet, which were sent aloft before last month's launch of a mixed crew of Russian and French cosmonauts.

Heavy rains hit Texas to Colorado

Thunderstorms dumped heavy rains from Texas to Colorado Friday, stranding campers in the Texas Panhandle and forcing an exodus to the high ground in Amarillo. The National Guard was summoned to help residents flee from rising waters.

Heavy rains flooded roads in northeast New Mexico. Threehundredths of an inch of rain fell at Eureka, Calif., which normally has no rain during mid-summer months. Friday's smattering was a July 30 record, breaking the old mark of 3-hundredths set back in 1916.

Nearly 4 1/2 inches of rain swamped much of the Texas Panhandle. Streets, businesses and houses were flooded in a mile-square section of southwest Amarillo near Lawrence Lake. About 200 campers were stranded in Palo Duro Canyon, but were said to be in no danger because campsites were up to 40 feet above the water.

Gov. Bill Clements declared parts of Amarillo a disaster area and sent National Guard troops to help evacuate flood victims. The same area was flooded by rains last September, forcing evacuations and street closings.

"But it's worse this time," said civil defense director Dan Goforth. "We have completed 62 evacuations at the Colonial Arms apartment house and more are coming."

More than 100 residents at the Olsen Manor nursing home, 22 of them on stretchers, also were evacuated. Police blocked off streets to restrict sightseers and potential looters.

Stoughton investigated allegations of bribery, kickbacks and bid-rigging within the transportation department.

No injuries or missing people were reported.

More arrests due in probe of DOT

HARTFORD (UPI) — More arrests will be made soon based on evidence gathered in an investigation of the state Department of Transportation, Chief State's Attorney Austin J. McGuigan said Friday.

McGuigan said arrests involving the DOT's concessions department will be made "in the near future," probably within a week. He said the arrests would involve "concessions employees and others."

The DOT's concessions department is responsible for commercial roadside services offered along state highways.

Former Transportation Commissioner Arthur H. Powers was arrested in connection with a one-man grand jury investigation April 16, charged with bribing, perjury, tampering with a witness, fabricating physical evidence and attempting to tamper with physical evidence.

Powers, a former Berlin mayor, was charged with lying before Superior Court Judge George Stoughton, who was named as grand juror last September by Gov. William O'Neill.

Powers was believed to be the highest-ranking state official charged with felonies allegedly committed while in office since the 1930s.

Stoughton investigated allegations of bribery, kickbacks and bid-rigging within the transportation department.

No injuries or missing people were reported.

Weather

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, acting to help hard-pressed American farmers at the risk of further alienating European allies, offered Friday to extend the U.S. grain sales agreement with the Soviet Union for one more year.

If the Kremlin agrees to extend the agreement expiring Sept. 30, the president said, the United States also is willing to talk about raising the maximum amount of grain the Soviets can buy under the contract.

But Reagan said America will not negotiate a new long-term pact "as long as a repression continues in Poland."

"We are not doing the Soviets any favors selling them grain," Treasury Secretary Donald Regan told reporters at a White House briefing. "They could get this grain elsewhere. The favor, if anything, is to our own farmers."

Many farmers were less than enthusiastic, however, saying they still want a long-term agreement with higher minimum purchases.

"Basically, we are glad that he extended it for another year, but disappointed he did not decide to renegotiate another long-term agreement with higher minimum purchases," Robert Deane, director of the National Farmers Union, said.

"We see virtually nothing in the announcement of benefit to the American farmer," said Bruce Hawley of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's largest and most influential farm organization.

Today's forecast

Saturday partly sunny, warm and humid with scattered showers. Highs 80 to 85. Winds shifting to southwest 10 to 15 mph. Saturday mostly clear, patches of fog developing. Muggy with lows 65 to 70. Light southwest winds. Sunday hazy sunshine. Chance of a few thunderstorms late in the day. Warm and humid with highs 85 to 90.

Extended outlook

Extended outlook for New England Monday through Wednesday. Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: Unsettled weather with a chance of showers. High temperatures in the 80s and low 90s, cooler along the southeast coast. Low temperatures in the 60s and low 70s.

Maine: Daily Highs in the 70s north with low 80s south. Overnight lows in the mid and upper 60s.

New Hampshire: Fair Monday. Chance of showers Tuesday and Wednesday. Daily highs in the 80s with overnight lows 55 to 60.

Vermont: Fair Monday. Highs 75 to 85. Chance of showers Tuesday and Wednesday. Warmer and thunderstorms Tuesday and Wednesday. Warmer and more humid. Highs in the 80s. Lows each day 55 to 65.

Frisco's mayor turns in handgun

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Mayor Dianne Feinstein, urging citizens to get rid of their guns, unloaded his personal .38-caliber pistol Friday and turned it over to Police Chief Cornelius Murphy in compliance with the city's new ban on handguns.

"You can get rid of your gun anyway you want. Give it to someone outside San Francisco, sell it outside the city, throw it in the bay," she said. "We just want fewer guns in our city."

Mayor Feinstein, who campaigned for the ban, which is already being challenged in the courts, said if the rest of the nation would follow San Francisco's lead, "the JFK's, the RFK's, the Martin Luther King's, the Harvey Milk's and the George Moscone's can stay alive."

The mayor, who was licensed to carry a concealed weapon, bought the gun in 1976 after a bombing attempt and gun attack on her home and shelved it when her predecessor George Moscone and superior Harvey Milk were shot to death in their City Hall offices in 1980.

National forecast

By United Press International

1st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
2nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
3rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
4th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
5th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
6th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
7th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
8th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
9th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
10th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
11th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
12th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
13th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
14th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
15th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
16th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
17th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
18th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
19th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
20th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
21st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
22nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
23rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
24th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
25th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
26th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
27th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
28th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
29th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
30th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
31st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
32nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
33rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
34th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
35th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
36th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
37th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
38th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
39th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
40th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
41st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
42nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
43rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
44th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
45th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
46th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
47th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
48th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
49th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
50th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74

Lottery

Winning numbers drawn Friday in New England:

New Hampshire daily:	7546
Rhode Island daily: 0251	"447" Jackpot: $7,000,000
Vermont daily: 004
Maine daily: 589

Almanac

Today is Saturday, July 31, the 212th day of 1982 with 153 to follow.

The moon is moving toward its full phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Leo.

American writer John Kent was born July 31, 1783.

On this date in history:

In 1792, Director David Rittenhouse laid the cornerstone in Philadelphia for the United States Mint, the first building of the federal government.

In 1927, Missouri Sen. Thomas Eagleton withdrew as Democratic vice-presidential nominee, six days after disclosing previous hospitalization and psychiatric treatment.

In 1974, John Ehrlichman was sentenced to 30 months in prison for his role in the break-in of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

In 1981, negotiators agreed to end the major league baseball strike which began on June 12.

Weather

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, acting to help hard-pressed American farmers at the risk of further alienating European allies, offered Friday to extend the U.S. grain sales agreement with the Soviet Union for one more year.

If the Kremlin agrees to extend the agreement expiring Sept. 30, the president said, the United States also is willing to talk about raising the maximum amount of grain the Soviets can buy under the contract.

But Reagan said America will not negotiate a new long-term pact "as long as a repression continues in Poland."

"We are not doing the Soviets any favors selling them grain," Treasury Secretary Donald Regan told reporters at a White House briefing. "They could get this grain elsewhere. The favor, if anything, is to our own farmers."

Many farmers were less than enthusiastic, however, saying they still want a long-term agreement with higher minimum purchases.

"Basically, we are glad that he extended it for another year, but disappointed he did not decide to renegotiate another long-term agreement with higher minimum purchases," Robert Deane, director of the National Farmers Union, said.

"We see virtually nothing in the announcement of benefit to the American farmer," said Bruce Hawley of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's largest and most influential farm organization.

Today's forecast

Saturday partly sunny, warm and humid with scattered showers. Highs 80 to 85. Winds shifting to southwest 10 to 15 mph. Saturday mostly clear, patches of fog developing. Muggy with lows 65 to 70. Light southwest winds. Sunday hazy sunshine. Chance of a few thunderstorms late in the day. Warm and humid with highs 85 to 90.

Extended outlook

Extended outlook for New England Monday through Wednesday. Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: Unsettled weather with a chance of showers. High temperatures in the 80s and low 90s, cooler along the southeast coast. Low temperatures in the 60s and low 70s.

Maine: Daily Highs in the 70s north with low 80s south. Overnight lows in the mid and upper 60s.

New Hampshire: Fair Monday. Chance of showers Tuesday and Wednesday. Daily highs in the 80s with overnight lows 55 to 60.

Vermont: Fair Monday. Highs 75 to 85. Chance of showers Tuesday and Wednesday. Warmer and thunderstorms Tuesday and Wednesday. Warmer and more humid. Highs in the 80s. Lows each day 55 to 65.

Frisco's mayor turns in handgun

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Mayor Dianne Feinstein, urging citizens to get rid of their guns, unloaded his personal .38-caliber pistol Friday and turned it over to Police Chief Cornelius Murphy in compliance with the city's new ban on handguns.

"You can get rid of your gun anyway you want. Give it to someone outside San Francisco, sell it outside the city, throw it in the bay," she said. "We just want fewer guns in our city."

Mayor Feinstein, who campaigned for the ban, which is already being challenged in the courts, said if the rest of the nation would follow San Francisco's lead, "the JFK's, the RFK's, the Martin Luther King's, the Harvey Milk's and the George Moscone's can stay alive."

The mayor, who was licensed to carry a concealed weapon, bought the gun in 1976 after a bombing attempt and gun attack on her home and shelved it when her predecessor George Moscone and superior Harvey Milk were shot to death in their City Hall offices in 1980.

National forecast

By United Press International

1st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
2nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
3rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
4th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
5th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
6th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
7th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
8th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
9th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
10th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
11th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
12th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
13th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
14th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
15th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
16th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
17th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
18th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
19th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
20th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
21st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
22nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
23rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
24th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
25th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
26th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
27th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
28th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
29th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
30th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
31st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
32nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
33rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
34th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
35th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
36th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
37th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
38th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
39th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
40th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
41st Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
42nd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
43rd Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
44th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
45th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
46th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
47th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
48th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
49th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74
50th Dist. N.Y.	74	74	74

Lottery

Winning numbers drawn Friday in New England:

New Hampshire daily:	7546
Rhode Island daily: 0251	"447" Jackpot: $7,000,000
Vermont daily: 004
Maine daily: 589

Almanac

Today is Saturday, July 31, the 212th day of 1982 with 153 to follow.

The moon is moving toward its full phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Leo.

American writer John Kent was born July 31, 1783.

On this date in history:

In 1792, Director David Rittenhouse laid the cornerstone in Philadelphia for the United States Mint, the first building of the federal government.

In 1927, Missouri Sen. Thomas Eagleton withdrew as Democratic vice-presidential nominee, six days after disclosing previous hospitalization and psychiatric treatment.

In 1974, John Ehrlichman was sentenced to 30 months in prison for his role in the break-in of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

In 1981, negotiators agreed to end the major league baseball strike which began on June 12.

Your neighbors' views: Should the Israelis have invaded Lebanon?

VI LASONDE, LINDA KITTLE, KENNETH BROWN, SHARON JOHNSON, MARY HALDEMAN, JUDY SAUCIER, DEBBIE SCHLICHTING, and RITA LASKI discuss the issue of Israeli invasion of Lebanon.

OPINION

Democrats' joke was on themselves

The Democrats showed the Republicans who's boss around here Monday at the Board of Directors meeting, when they sabotaged the GOP resolution opposing a state income tax.

The Democrats substituted their own resolution, a partisan, humorous version sharply critical of Republican legislators.

Manchester Spotlight

By Paul Hendrie - Herald Reporter

The message to the GOP was clear: if you want to play politics on this board, pass for a moment and remember who still holds the majority.

BUT YOU CAN'T help but feel the Democrats went a little too far. They were so determined to teach the Republicans a lesson that they demonstrated inconsistency and even a bit of hypocrisy.

The whole thing became one big joke. The irony was that the people who played the joke were the same people who piously spoke of defending the Board of Directors' dignity.

"I consider it the Republican resolution is an abuse of the board," said Mayor Stephen T. Penny, just before the Democratic amendment was offered. "I'm disappointed in the minority party."

Penny charged, probably quite correctly, that the Republican resolution was politically motivated. It's sole purpose was not to put Penny - a candidate for the state Senate - on the spot, that certainly had to be one of its goals.

But, while decrying the politicization of the board, the Democrats failed to rise above it. Their amended resolution, which praised Gov. Bill O'Neill and criticized Republican legislators Carl Zinsner, Biz Swenson and Walter Joyner, gave the Democrats a chance to vote against a state income tax without following the GOP's lead. It also gave them the chance to embarrass the Republicans.

NOW WHEN Penny campaigns, he can't be attacked for not opposing a state income tax. But he and his colleagues can be criticized for abandoning their principles.

Penny said his principles prevented him from voting for the nuclear freeze resolution, because he felt it was outside the Board of Directors' jurisdiction. Were the political points that may have been scored at the Republicans' expense more important than those principles?

Had Penny - or any other director, for that matter - abstained, some might have concluded he secretly supported a state income tax.

But if Penny really feels the board should stay out of state and national issues, he should defend that principle to the voters, not cave in to juvenile political games.

"THEY STARTED IT," the Democrats might say of the Republicans. That may well be true. But the Democrats did not need to play the games they played.

They hold a majority on the board and could have amended that resolution to say anything they wanted and to accomplish anything they wanted.

Everyone - except the Republicans - got a good laugh from the Democrats' maneuver. Really, though, who was served? And who can take the Board of Directors seriously as a dignified, responsible body after the fun and games?

Doesn't everybody on the board - except Dutch Fogarty, who remained consistent by abstaining - look terribly silly now?

The whole issue of the income tax resolution and the partisan debate surrounding it probably has been overblown. Although the income tax resolution will rank among the least important things the Board of Directors will do this year, ironically the Democrats have insured that it will rank among the best-remembered board actions.

Toad had.

Richard M. Diamond, Publisher
Dan Pitts, Editor
Alex Giarelli, City Editor

Jack Anderson
Washington Merry-Go-Round

The FBI probes a death

WASHINGTON - In his voluminous report clearing Labor Secretary Ray Donovan of mobster ties because of insufficient evidence, Special Prosecutor Leon Silverman briefly mentioned a former Teamsters Union official named Fred Furino.

The unfortunate Furino met a violent end, and his body was found in the trunk of his car on June 11. He had testified twice before the special prosecutor's grand jury.

What makes this passing incident from the gangster chronicles interesting is that Furino had flunked a lie-detector test in which he denied ever knowing Donovan.

If Furino had been an upright citizen, his possible acquaintance with Donovan would have been of no public concern. But he was a mob figure, which makes his false denial relevant to the Donovan investigation. For some reason, the special prosecutor did not pursue the Furino matter and turned it over, instead, to the FBI.

Furino's slaying has been designated by the FBI as a special investigation because, as a law enforcement source told my associate Tony Capaccio, "it could have larger ramifications and thus demands special attention."

THE G-MX has a fat file on Furino. In January 1981, informants told the FBI he was a "bagman" for the late Mafia mobster Salvatore Briguglio and had taken payoffs to ensure labor peace for Donovan's old firm, Schiavone Construction Co.

A 1980 internal FBI document, labeled "Provenzano Crime Group" after underworld figure Anthony "Tony Pro" Provenzano, makes clear that Furino had a longstanding relationship with Briguglio and other mafiosi. The document indicates that Furino was no mere bit player.

He was questioned in connection with the disappearance of former Teamsters President Jimmy Hoffa. The document lists him along with Provenzano, Briguglio and Ralph Picardo as part of a group "which has affected the trucking industry throughout the northeastern United States."

Picardo was the man who charged that mob payoffs were picked up from Donovan, Briguglio and other mafiosi. The FBI document lays out the chain of command: "Picardo served under the supervision of Fred Furino, who answered to Salvatore Briguglio."

The internal FBI report also details Furino's shakedown of the Canni Trucking Co. of Binghamton, N.Y., for Provenzano. Furino demanded $13,000 to assure labor peace - the money to be generated by inflated billings from a company Furino controlled.

SOME INVESTIGATORS suspect Furino's gangland-style execution may have been connected to a subpoena that was served upon John Joseph DiGiullo, a reported Mafia superior, the day before Furino disappeared.

DiGiullo was barely mentioned in the special prosecutor's report. But a 1979 Treasury Department report identifies him as "an extremely active member of the Genovese crime family in northern New Jersey." It states that "DiGiullo is a prime suspect in taking and/or issuing contracts in at least three homicides," and adds: "Of all the active members of the Genovese family, he is probably the only member who answers directly to Family boss in New York."

Why was Fred Furino murdered? Was the timing of his disappearance and the issuance of a subpoena to an alleged Mafia hit man just a coincidence? The special prosecutor evidently didn't believe it to be relevant to his mission. But the FBI is determined to find out.

Guest editorial

Democratic hogs really feeding

Editor's note: on Saturdays the Manchester Herald prints editorials from other New England newspapers. This is from the Berkshire Eagle of Pittsfield, Mass.

One measure of the sheer fickleness of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives is what it is doing - or, more precisely, not doing - about the $11 billion tax break for the oil industry that was slipped into the 1981 tax-cut package. If there was one aspect of that legislation that fit budget Director David Stockman's phrase, "the hogs were really feeding," that was it.

But the oil-industry bonanza escaped trimming at the hands of the Republican majority in the Senate Finance Committee, which otherwise did some useful pruning of tax giveaways and loopholes affecting Big Business. Now, it appears, the Democratic majority on the House Ways and Means Committee is equally reluctant to take back a favor the oil industry should never have received.

In fact, the word from Washington Friday was that the Democrats would probably come up with no bill of their own to match the Senate's $21 billion package of proposals for closing loopholes and tightening up compliance with the tax code.

There is a certain political logic to this: Democrats in the House don't want to be seen voting for tax-increasing measures this close to an election. Moreover, the shortfall in revenues that the Senate bill is designed to offset is basically a GOP problem, brought on by the party's uncritical adoption of the tax-cut snake-oil peddled by supply-side economists.

The disadvantage to this is that it leaves the Democrats with virtually no influence over a tax-package which, over the next three fiscal years, will raise an extra $99 billion for Uncle Sam.

The unspoken assumption among Democrats is that they will do well in the 1982 and 1984 elections simply by not being Republicans. Probably they are right. But at some point the public is also going to think twice before returning to power a party that cannot make up its mind over an $11 billion giveaway to the oil industry.

Remember when?

Weiss takes over

In 1964, General Manager Robert B. Weiss (center) takes over from his predecessor Richard Martin (right). Looking on is then-mayor Francis J. Mahoney.

Open forum / Readers' views

Send letters to: The Manchester Herald, Herald Square, Manchester, CT 06040

Angels

To the Editor:

I am a patient of the nurses of Community Health Care Services. I was very upset when I read in the paper on July 15 and 16 about how our nurses are being treated by the agencies.

These nurses are chosen because of their exceptional qualities, dedication, and professional treatment of us who are ill and our school children. They visit our schools, and long hours are put in to see that we who are disabled are nursed along so that we can remain at home. They shouldn't be paid such terrible, low wages.

I am not up to getting into the controversy over the union, but it seems that some way could be found to pay these angels of mercy a living wage. (Granted, we could never hope to pay them their true worth).

Please, you people who have children in school and the patients who are being treated at home by these wonderful nurses - let the agency know if you do or don't want these angels of mercy to be treated and paid fairly.

Yes, I would like to know how many more of you people would like to know how much of our money is being spent to fight the staff of the Community Health Care Services. I don't believe these are routine legal fees. How many feel as I do?

I have never gotten over losing my first nurse - it's like when we lost our son - like losing a part of the family, and all because she couldn't afford to stay here to work!

It's a big comfort to my family to know I am being cared for by such a dedicated, loving, caring, professional staff. Too often we lose them to better paying positions because of such poor pay.

Woodrow W. Wood
Lebanon

Over the past months, I had suspected that they had begun to outshine the Hartford City Council, but I was not certain.

However, the income tax resolution fiasco proves beyond all doubt that the Manchester directors have far outdistanced their Hartford counterparts in the practice of partisan politics and buffoonery.

Are we to take them seriously about anything?

James A. Glass
105 Scott Drive

Policy on letters

The Manchester Herald welcomes letters to the editor. Letters stand a better chance of being read if they are brief. The Herald asks that letters be typed, or at least neatly handwritten, and that they be double-spaced. The Herald reserves the right to edit letters in the interest of clarity, brevity and taste.

Buffoons

To the Editor:

Your issue of Tuesday, presents convincing evidence that the Manchester Board of Directors is to be congratulated.

Berry's World

"Now that we've discussed our selling the Sovi- at Union grain while denouncing non-agricultural trade, let's talk about US!"

GRAND RE-OPENING SALE

AT WEST HARTFORD AND MANCHESTER

We're bigger, brighter & more beautiful than ever, come and help us Celebrate

CALDOR

Assorted Plastic Tumblers 59¢
Chocoo 9, 10 or 14-oz. sizes. Ideal for parties or picnics.

STURDYWARE Double-Laminated 9" Plates 1.47
Sog, stain and cut-resistant for pleasant dining. Package of 50!

COLGATE Aerosol Shave Cream (11-oz.) 79¢
Sulfate beard for a smooth & easy shave time after time!

GENERAL ELECTRIC Soft White Bulbs 2.17
Assorted wattages. Reduces harsh glare & softens shadows.

RAY-O-VAC Heavy Duty AA, C, D or 9V Batteries
Example: C or D Type (2-Pk.)
Caldor Reg. Price ..... 1.29
Caldor Sale Price ..... 1.02
Mfr. Mail-In Rebate ..... 1.00*
YOUR FINAL COST ..... 2¢
Reg. prices may vary by store. Limit 4 per household.

ANACIN Tablets Pain Reliever (100's) 2.14
For fast relief! Keep a bottle at home, school or at the office.

CLAIROL (16-oz.) Condition II or Condition Shampoo 1.49
For healthy and beautiful hair!

SIMONIZ Car Care
Super Poly Car Wash Our Reg. 2.50 ..... 1.66
Chrome Cleaner Our Reg. 1.50 ..... 1.12
New Look Finish Restorer Our Reg. 4.50 ..... 3.22

SIMONIZ 1-Step Poly Sealant, Liquid or Paste
Caldor Reg. Price ..... 8.99
Caldor Sale Price ..... 6.65
Mfr. Mail-In Rebate ..... 2.00*
YOUR FINAL COST ..... 4.66

DURAND 'Super Noblesse' Glasses 6.76
For white, red or all-purpose wine. All are gift boxes.

Village Blacksmith 16" Hedge/Shrub Trimmer 28.76
2000 double edge cuts per minute! UL listed for safety. #33746

SHELL All Season 10W40 Motor Oil 92¢
Quality lubrication protects against engine wear. (Limit 12 qts. per customer)

Pentax 'MG' 35mm SLR with f/2 Lens $166
Aperture preferred auto-exposure system with LED guides plus magic-needle loading and more!
Dedicated Flash for MG #AF160, Reg. 29.94 ..... 24.76

Pentax Gadget Bag with Purchase of Pentax 'MG' Camera, Our Reg. 14.99 ..... $7

TIMEX Entire Stock Of Watches For Men & Women 11.86 to 42.66
Mfr. List 18.95 to 60.95
Choose from quartz analog, digital, automatic, electric & more in dozens of sporty styles with matching bracelets or coordinated straps.

SEIKO Entire Stock Of Watches For Men & Women $29 to $119
Reg. 49.97 to 199.75
Select from our collection of digital, analog and mechanical. With tailored or classic styling to compliment your every outfit.

SAVE $25!
14K Gold Fashion Jewelry A Great Special Collection 34.88
Here are a few examples:
•14K Italian Horn
•14K Hoop Earrings
•14K Braided Chain Bracelet
•14K Handmade Rope Bracelet

25% OFF! ALL LUGGAGE
•Samsonite •Universal Traveler •Sanson
•American Tourister and many more!
4.37 to 89.99
3-day memory, percent and square root. Carry case and batteries are included.

'Universal Rebound' Aerobic Jogger $53
Jog and exercise in the comfort, safety and privacy of your own home! Legs remove for easy, compact storage in closet, garage or basement.

Popular 12" Diagonal B&W TV
Ideal 2nd set for kitchen, den, workshop with molded-in carry handle, earphone jack. #SC1282 59.88
Our Reg. 79.97

8-Digit Credit Card Size Memory Calculator 7.99
3-day memory, percent and square root. Carry case and batteries are included.

Toddler's 2-Piece Knit Sleepers 4.66
For boys & girls. Pullover print top, elastic waist, solid bottoms. 100% poly. Sizes 1 to 4.

BLACK & DECKER 'Dustbuster' Cordless Vac 25.76
Complete with wall mount and recharger. Makes clean-up jobs easy. Great for home, car, boat or camper!

Popular Court Shoes and Joggers for Men, Women and Boys 12.76
Choose from several styles. Men's sizes 6 1/2 to 12. Women's sizes 5 to 10. Boys' sizes 2 1/2 to 6. Children's sizes 6 to 10 1/2, 11 to 2. Our Reg. 11.99 ..... 8.76

8-Digit Credit Card Size Memory Calculator 7.99

TOPS & WRANGLER CORDUROY JEANS

TOPS:
•Girls' Turtleneck Tops of Interlock. Sizes 7-14. Reg. 5.99 ..... 4.66
•Ladies' Tailored Shirts. Luxur trims. Sizes 32-38. Reg. 10.99 ..... 8.44
•Men's Plead Sportshirts. Poly-cotton. Sizes S-XL. Reg. 6.99 ..... 7.66
•Boys' Flannel Shirts. Nearest pleads. Sizes 8-18. Reg. 6.99 ..... 5.63

JEANS:
•Men's Poly/Cotton Styles. 6 colors. Reg. 17.99. (After rebate) 11.40
•Jrs. Poly/Cotton Styles. 5 colors. 5, 15, Reg. 21.99 (After rebate) 14.40
•Girls' Poly/Cotton Styles. 5 colors. 7-14. Reg. 14.99 (After rebate) 9.22
•Boys' Poly/Cotton Styles. 4 colors. Reg. 13.99. (After rebate) 8.40

SPALDING TopFlite Pro-Shop Golf Balls in the Big Bonus-Pack of 15 13.76
Low 8 packs per customer, please.

FANS AND AIR CONDITIONERS ARRIVING DAILY!

MANCHESTER
1145 Tolland Turnpike

VERNON
Tri-City Shopping Center

STORE HOURS: DAILY 10 AM to 9:30 PM • SATURDAY 9 AM to 9:30 PM • SUNDAY 11 AM to 5 PM • PRICES EFFECTIVE THRU WEDNESDAY

3
1
J
U
L
Y
3
1

Astro-graph

August 1, 1982
 There is a delicate possibility you'll improve or change your residence for the better in the year following your birthday. Happy times with relatives are also in the offing.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A family member may be surprised with a vexing problem which they have been unable to solve. You can show them the way to peace of mind through a solution. Predictions of what's in store for you for all four seasons following your birth date and where your luck and opportunities lie are in your Astro-Graph. Mail $1 for each to: Astro-Graph, Box 489, Ramo City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You may have to discuss a business matter with a business associate today if you keep it light and meet in a convivial surroundings, it can be resolved.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Though you'll be socially minded today, keep a weather eye peeled for one who may tempt you to talk to you about business. However your prospects and prospects attention.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You have the ability today to take situations of small promise and expand upon them. By the time you get done with them, they'll be grand and worthwhile.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't be deceived by outward appearances. Today, become something you become involved in may not look so nice at first, but it could contain some latent and pleasant surprises.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) To succeed today, submerge your interests to those of others. Your ladder to the top depends on elevating them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You're not a negative thinker today. It's just that you take yourself a bit too seriously. The moment you switch your attitude, the remedy will be both better and beneficial.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Lady Luck is pulling for you and good things could happen in other ways. Someone loud of you may pull some important strings for you.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't venture a serious promise today, especially those with persons who are as bright and sincere as yourself. Large rewards are possible.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) The opinions you voice today will be taken to heart. Others will see the wisdom and merit of your ideas. What you say will guide their thinking.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Someone who has harebrained ideas today may come to you today with something that could prove valuable. Listen carefully to the revelation.

Cancer (June 21-July 21) When dealing with youngsters today, avoid heavy-handed teaching methods. Try to show them the value of following the rules — and also make it fun.

Winnie Winkle — Henry Radtke and J.K.S.

Motley's Crew — Templeton & Forman

World's Greatest Superheroes

Levy's Law — James Schumeister

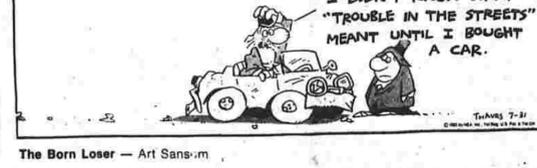

Crimestoppers Textbook

Alley Oop — Dave Grout

Frank and Ernest — Bob Thaves

The Born Loser — Art Sansam

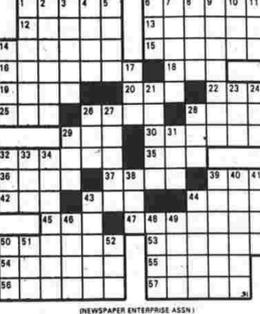

Winthrop — Dick Cavalli

Crossword

ACROSS
 1 Meats into law
 2 More wise
 3 Gasoline
 4 Robber
 5 Bring out
 6 Shows
 7 Window
 8 Part of corn
 9 At this place
 10 News
 11 Olympic board (abbr.)
 12 Vacation
 13 Yesterday (Pl.)
 14 Green Anne
 15 Entertainment
 16 Light inventor
 17 Small hole
 18 South (Pl.)
 19 Actor Parvati
 20 Repeating
 21 From memory
 22 Communicate (abbr.)
 23 Safety agency (abbr.)
 24 Busy insect
 25 17 Caviar

DOWN
 1 Acid as hurtful
 2 Character
 3 23 Gold (Sp)
 4 24 Meas
 5 Beach
 6 Flightless bird
 7 Arab country
 8 Island near Corsica
 9 10 Access
 11 11 Change color
 12 14 Safety agency (abbr.)
 13 21 Take away by force
 14 22 Gold (Sp)
 15 39 More entire
 16 41 One of a deck
 17 43 Cooked in oil
 18 44 Rapidity
 19 46 Six problem
 20 48 The one here
 21 50 Printer's
 22 51 Once around
 23 33 Over there
 24 34 Twist together

CELEBRITY CIPHER

CELEBRITY CIPHER
 Celebrity Cipher originates in crossword puzzles. Each letter in the cipher stands for another. Today's cipher is a square of 10 by 10 letters.

XASK QD FOJTSB PZZPIS OJP XAS
ZKXSW QDJ'X' — CIFDDSD D.
RWOJX

PREVIOUS SOLUTION: "Easy divorcee have just about put ringing out of business." — Red Skilton!

Kil 'n' Carlyle — Larry Wright

Bugs Bunny — Warner Bros.

Bridge

West chose to lead from his strong four-card spade sequence. South allowed West's jack of spades to win the first trick. He won the spade continuation with his king.

Now declarer led the queen of diamonds from his hand. If East wins his king, the hand becomes easy for South. Dummy's 10 of diamonds is an entry to the club suit. East did best by ducking both the queen of diamonds and the jack when declarer continued the suit. South then led his jack of clubs to dummy's king and East had to withhold the ace. When the 10 of diamonds was led from dummy, East and South both played low. Declarer now played a heart from the table and East again had to play low. South won the king in his hand, cashed the spade ace, the diamond ace and exited a club to East's ace. At the finish, East, reduced to the ace-10 of hearts and a small club, had to lead a heart and South scored the queen.

In all, South took two spades, two hearts, four diamonds and one club in his well-played game. East defended well and prevented South's double followed by his two-club ruff. But South countered all of his fine defense by expert play. — NEWSWEEK ENTERTAINMENT

Priscilla's Pop — Ed Sullivan

Our Boarding House — Carroll & McCormick

I AM MRS. WEBBLEPETER

BECAUSE IT COULD BE YOU

invites you to be a Guest at your own party!
 We carry a COMPLETE LINE of PARTY SUPPLIES and PAPER PRODUCTS...
 548-3322
 1400 N. MAIN ST. • MANCHESTER, CONN.

CUNIFFE AUTO BODY
 ROUTE 83 TALCOTTVILLE, CT.
24 HR. TOWING
643-0016
 *COMPLETE COLLISION REPAIR
 *FOREIGN AND AMERICAN CARS
 Since 1947
 Art Cuniffe, Prop.

LACONVERSE
Painting Professionals
 133 Brandy St., Bolton, CT.
646-3117
 WE SERVICE AND INSTALL INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL AIR CONDITIONING - REFRIGERATION HEATING AND SHEET METAL

New England Mechanical Services, Inc.
 166 TUNNEL RD.
 VERNON, CT. 06066
 871-1111

CLYDE & MICKY MILLER'S AUTO PAP PARTS
 "AUTO PARTS FOR LESS"
 8 TO 8 MON.-FRI.
 9 TO 5 SAT. & SUN.
 307 E. CENTER ST. (REAR) MANCHESTER
 BEHIND LENOX PHARMACY

CAP-N-CORK PACKAGE STORE
 485-488 No. Main St.
 Manchester, Conn.
 649-0591
 Remodeled & Enlarged To Better Serve You
LIQUOR - BEER - CORDIALS
 Large Selection of Imported & Domestic Wines
 10¢ CASH, DAILY LOTTERY TICKETS

MOHAWK INDUSTRIAL SUPPLY, INC.
 Suppliers of Safety Protection •FOOT WEATHER SUITS
 •BOULTS •HOSE
 •GLOVES •TARPS •RESPIRATORS
 5 Glen Rd. • Manchester • 643-5107

EVERYTHING IN GLASS
 "WE CAN'T HIDE BEHIND OUR PRODUCT"
J.A. WHITE GLASS CO.
 649-7322
 OVER 30 YEARS EXPERIENCE
 31 BISSELL ST. MANCHESTER
 *MIRRORS *SHOWER DOORS *STORE FRONTS
 *SAFETY GLASS *BATHTUB ENCLOSURES *ETC.

FAMOUS BRAND TELEVISION - APPLIANCES
 MANCHESTER
Turnpike
 HOME IMPROVEMENT
 648-3589
 Next to Stop & Shop

MERCURY TRAVEL AGENCY
 Phone 646-2756
 NO SERVICE CHARGE
 Reservations for • Hotels • Airlines • Steamships
 627 Main Street
 Manchester

SPECIALIZING IN SUPERIOR MUFFLERS
DON WILLIS GARAGE, INC.
 WHEEL ALIGNMENT • BRAKE SERVICE • WRECKER SERVICE
 GENERAL REPAIRING
 Propane Cylinders Filled
 Air Conditioning Service
 12 MAIN STREET
 MANCHESTER, CONN. 06040
 TELEPHONE 646-4631

Mercury Travel of Manchester, Inc.
 "Ready To Serve All Your Travel Needs"
 627 MAIN STREET, MANCHESTER
 Phone 646-2765

MANCHESTER HAS IT!

FEATURING THIS WEEK ...

PAP AUTO PARTS

VACATION SPECIALS at PAP Auto Parts

Is your car tired of driving on bumps and pot holes? It's time to "MOOG" On Down The Road With MOOG front and rear suspension parts. Your car will thank you for a new life. MOOG suspension parts are sold at PAP Auto Parts. We are also offering a Special on Monroe VIP lifetime guaranteed shock absorbers at only $19.95 a pair during our Vacation Special. To add a little frosting to the cake, we are throwing in a Pennzoil special of 5 quarts of motor oil and a Pennzoil Oil Filter for the low, low price of $8.00. That alone is a savings of $3.45 or 33% more than paying for the gas you will burn when you "MOOG" down the road to PAP with PAP—where autoparts are sold for less!
 (Specials Good from July 31st thru August 15th)

PAP AUTO PARTS 649-3528
 307 E. Center St. (rear - Behind Lenox Pharmacy)

Mercury Travel

Karen Donovan, Donna Goodwin, Tom Donovan
 This office is truly unique in that the service and expertise is afforded for nothing! No charge is made for information and assistance for or about air tickets, hotels, passports, etc., which cost exactly the same as those developed through the time, effort and hard work of the "do-it-yourselfer." Why not let us plan your late Winter Getaway? Your individual travel needs and particular preferences are evaluated and satisfied by an expert, bonded office staff that ask no more than a simple "thank you."

Mercury Travel of Manchester, Inc.
 "Ready To Serve All Your Travel Needs"
 627 MAIN STREET, MANCHESTER
 Phone 646-2765

GENERAL OIL
 AARON COOK
HEATING OIL QUALITY SERVICE
 CALL 568-3500

OPTICAL
 Style Bar
 763 MAIN ST.
 643-1191
 191 MAIN ST.
 MANCHESTER
 643-1800

ENERGY SAVING PRIME REPLACEMENT WINDOWS
AWNINGS & CANOPIES
YANKEE ALUMINUM SERVICES
 Glass & Screen Repairs
 Hardware & Accessories
 649-1106
 VINYL ALUMINUM SIDING
 705 Main St., Manchester, Ct.

HOUSE WASHING
 High Pressure Power Washing Of Vinyl, Aluminum And Wood Sided Homes.
MAK Painting
 643-2659

"Serving Manchester For Over 50 Years"
Pentland The Florist
 24 BIRCH ST.
 TEL. 643-8247
 643-4444
F.T.D. WORLD WIDE SERVICE

Flora's Cake Decorating Supplies Inc.
 SPECIAL ORDER CAKES
 (203) 646-0228
 191 CENTER ST. MANCHESTER, CONN.
 MON. - SAT. 10-5
 THURS. 10-9

MANCHESTER MEMORIAL CO.
 OVER 45 YEARS EXPERIENCE
 Opp. East Cemetery
 CALL 649-5807
QUALITY MEMORIALS
 HARRISON ST. MANCHESTER

643-2072
DECORATING DEN
 • DRAPERY • CARPET • WALLCOVERING
 The colorful store that comes to your door.
 *Custom drapery • roman shades • mini-blinds • bedspreads
 *vertical blinds • swags/corncups • shades
 *Linen • bedspreads • quilts • bed covers • bed skirts • bed runners
 *Curtain rods • valances • shades • shades
 *Appointments • days • evenings • weekends

J. B. ELECTRONICS
 STEREO • MUSIC AMPS • TV SALES AND SERVICE
 JACK BERTRAND 643-1262

OLCOTT PACKAGE STORE
 684 CENTER ST. MANCHESTER, CT.
 Fine Shopping Plaza
DISCOUNT LIQUOR STORE
 One of Manchester's Largest Selections Of Superior Liquors In Stock. Our Voluntary Service Yr Money, Back Or Specials Offer Change And Free Accepted
 *Cash • Check • Charge • Debit
 *Personal Checks Accepted
 *Personal Checks Accepted
 *Personal Checks Accepted

WINT-MAN PRINTING
 COMPLETE PRINTING & COPYING SERVICE
 LOW COST PRINTING
 WHILE YOU WAIT (PHOTO READY)
 BUREAU • LETTER • BIRTH • BIRTH
 *SEE US FOR ENGRAVED NAME PLATES
 *WITH OUR NEW 3-D BIRTH COPIES

OSTRINSKY, INC.
 731 PARKER ST. MANCHESTER
 643-5736
CALL US FIRST!
 50 FT. TRUCK SCALE
 LICENSED PUBLIC WEIGHTS
 DEALERS IN IRON, METALS, PAPERS

31 JUL 31

Weddings

Mrs. John J. Jacobson
Jacobson-Luckman

Nancy Michelle Luckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Luckman of 30 Warronoke Road, and John Joseph Jacobson, son of Mortimer Jacobson of Great Neck, N.Y. and Florence S. Jacobson of Bethesda, Md., were married July 27 at noon at Parkview Hilton Hotel in Hartford.

Cantor Arthur S. Koret of Emanuel Synagogue, West Hartford, conducted the service. The bride was given in marriage by her parents. Carol Luckman Armentano of West Hartford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Linda E. Johnson of Meadowbrook, Pa., was bridesmaid.

Paul S. Koffsky of Washington, D.C. was best man. Ushers were Bruce S. Luckman of Manchester, brother of the bride, and James A. Armentano of West Hartford.

Following the reception at Parkview Hilton, the couple left on a wedding trip to Boothbay Harbor, Maine. They are making their home in Simsbury.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bowdoin College, Georgetown University Law Center. He is an attorney with the firm of Reid and Riege.

The bride is a graduate of Boston University and Suffolk University Law School. She's an attorney and is employed as assistant clerk at Hartford Superior Court.

Mrs. Robert Davis
Davis-Morrison

Melissa Morrison of 146 Park St., daughter of Theresa Castagna of Newington and Charles Morrison of Rocky Hill, and Robert Davis of 146 Park St., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis of 273 Porter St., were married July 24 at South United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Shephard Johnson performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Cathy Sattkowski of Newington was maid of honor and Carol Leckner of Ellington was bridesmaid. Lauren Castagna of Newington, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

Raymond Bousprie of Manchester was best man and David Stiebitz of East Hartford was usher.

After a reception at Riverside Fore Restaurant, the couple left on a wedding trip to Vermont and New Hampshire. They will make their home in Manchester. The bride is a programmer for the State of Connecticut and the groom is employed at Hartford Roofing Co.

Cobb-Belluardo

Suzanna E. Belluardo and Lawrence E. Cobb Jr., both of Ashville, Ala., were married July 17 in Ashville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Belluardo of Manchester. The groom is the son of Joyce Cobb of Amiston, Ala., and Lawrence E. Cobb Sr. of Birmingham, Ala.

The bride attended Manchester High School and graduated from the Rhode Island School of Design. She is an artist and art teacher in the Birmingham school system.

The groom attended Jacksonville State University in Alabama and Emory University in Georgia. He is employed as a project engineer.

Mrs. Jonas R. Searle
Searle-Zimmerman

Jane R. Zimmerman of 141 Ferguson Road, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Zimmerman of Rockville, Md., and Jonas R. Searle of 141 Ferguson Road, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Searle of Durham, were married July 27 at Teferes Israel Synagogue, Bloomfield.

Rabbi Haskell Landenthal of Bloomfield and Rabbi Marshall Press of Rockville, performed the double ring ceremony. James Cantin of New York City was organist. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father.

Barbara Zimmerman of Schenectady, N.Y., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Deanna Searle of Livingston, N.J., niece of the groom, was flower girl.

Frederic Searle of Durham, twin brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Bernard Searle of Livingston, N.J., brother of the groom, and Ira Zimmerman of Silver Spring, Md., brother of the bride. Andrew Cooper of Old Westbury, N.Y., friend of the bride, was ring bearer.

After the reception at the synagogue, the couple left on a wedding trip to San Francisco and Carmel, Calif. They will make their home in Manchester.

The bride is a music teacher at the Vernon Center Middle School and the groom works for the Manchester Police Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Gworek
Gworek-Hill

Sarah Jane Hill and Paul V. Gworek, both of Manchester, were married June 1 at Wickham Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hill of East Haddam. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gworek of Manchester.

Justice of the Peace Wally Irish officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Cathy Sattkowski of Newington was maid of honor and Deborah Coleman of East Haddam, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Nicholas Caros of Newington, brother of the groom, was ring bearer.

After a reception at the Steak Out in Vernon, the couple left for a wedding trip to Jamaica. A family picnic took place on the Wickham Park. The couple will make their home in Manchester.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts and Castleton State College in Vermont. She is employed as a registered nurse in the emergency department of John Dempsey Hospital in Farmington.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Connecticut. He is employed as a crash-rescue firefighter at Bradley International Airport. He served as assistant fire chief and deputy fire marshal with the Manchester Fire Department, Eighth District.

MCC receives funds

For the second year in a row, Manchester Community College has been the recipient of the Paul L. Jones Fund, the award of which was increased from $10,000 to $15,000. It will be used for scholarships to students enrolled in the four allied health programs: medical laboratory technician, occupational therapy assistant, respiratory therapist, and surgical technology.

During the 1981-1982 year, 100 scholarships were awarded to students in the MCC Allied Health Program on the basis of academic excellence.

News for senior citizens

Response overwhelming to trips during summer

Editor's note: This column is prepared by the staff of the Manchester Senior Center. It appears in the Herald on Saturdays and Wednesdays.

By Jeanette Cave
Senior Center Director

This summer trips have been a large part of our agenda. The response has been overwhelming, and we do ask your cooperation when registering. Because of the response, priorities will go to those who have not had an opportunity to attend many trips.

It is important that when you travel on these trips that you have adequate identification with you. If you do not have one of our cards that includes your medical history, please stop by the office and pick one up. This information may prove vital in case of an emergency.

If the idea of low cost local trips interests you and you would like to see more of these in the fall, please let us know. Please be advised that the regular activities will continue while trips are being taken. Anyone needing a ride at this time, should call Pheme a Ride.

A new trip planned will include a boat ride to Greenport, Long Island on Aug. 20. The cost is $23 and the sign-up date is Aug. 11. This price does not include lunch. You may get further information at the office.

Please be advised that the center will be closed from Aug. 30 to Sept. 6 for cleanup.

Norman Lasher from the golf league invited the center to the Arizona Scramble on Aug. 4. Starting times will be available on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from Aug. 2 to Aug. 27. At all other times, you may bring your lunch and beverages will be available.

SCHEDULE FOR WEEK
Monday 7:30 a.m. golf league at Manchester Country Club. 9:30 a.m. registration for Harkness Memorial State Park. 10 a.m. chess and checkers. bingo, lunch. 12:30 p.m. pinocle. bus pickup at 8 a.m. return trips at 12:30 and 3 p.m.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with butter sauce, tossed salad, bread and meat, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargent, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chelmann, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

Advice

Husband needs to loosen up; wife is starved for affection

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for five months to a man I went with for only three months.

While dating, he said he didn't believe in premarital sex. I thought I was lucky to find a guy who didn't insist on sex before marriage. Now I know why! He doesn't like to kiss, touch, fondle, caress or express any kind of emotion during lovemaking.

At first I thought it was just shyness, so I tried being patient for the first month or so. It didn't work. I've been married before and I'm quite experienced, so I tried different approaches to warm him up. Still nothing. He doesn't care for any kissing or foreplay. He goes right into the main event, and it's all over as soon as he's satisfied. Not a thought about me. Meanwhile he insists that he really loves me.

I am so starved for some real affection I'm ready to grab the first guy I see. I ask him to kiss me and make me feel like a real woman. I've talked to my priest, and he told me to talk to my husband. I have, and he just says, "Sorry, I don't like to hug and kiss."

What now? I'm TOTALLY FRUSTRATED. DEAR FRUSTRATED: Face it, your husband is sexually immature, hung up and naive. That's forgivable, but his unwillingness to try to overcome it in order to please you shows a selfishness that could be fatal to your marriage.

Obviously a healthy sex life is important to you. If your husband really loves you, he will agree to get the kind of therapy he needs to make you happy. If he refuses, you will either have to settle for a hung-up husband, or hang up the marriage. DEAR ABBY: As with many of your correspondents, I am writing to you as a last resort. You see, my best friends tell me and my doctor confirms that I have developed agerogonism, and no one seems to care. My doctor advises that this condition is debilitating but does not expect it to be fatal. On the other hand, he says that there is no known cure but that it usually runs its course and goes away in 10 years' time.

With your extensive resources, can you find a healer anywhere who can cure this condition? And I

DEAR ABBY: I'm 60 years old. My doctor says my prostate is a bit enlarged. I don't have any pain, but I have trouble starting to urinate and I don't have any force. Some nights I get up once to go to the bathroom and my urine will stop completely, then after a few minutes it starts again. It stops, starts, stops several times and it seems I can't empty my bladder completely. What is causing the stop action? Would you say I'm ready for surgery?

My doctor doesn't make too much of my problem but I'm sure it will get worse. Are there any medicines to help me? I'm taking Donnatal Extentabs for an ulcer condition. Could this drug give me any of this hesitation?

DEAR READER: Yes, Donnatal Extentabs could contribute to your condition. They contain antispasmodics commonly used in treating stomach acidity. These are the group of medicines that have an atropine action and block the vagus nerve to your stomach. But they may also interfere with emptying the bladder. This is usually not a problem unless a person already has prostatic trouble, then they may even cause complete failure of the complex mechanism required for urination.

Talk to your doctor about this and switch to something else for your ulcer condition. It may help you postpone an operation for some time.

Your symptoms of starting and stopping and lack of force are all typical of an enlarged prostate. The problem is caused by the prostate squeezing down on the urethral tube that drains your bladder. Many men tolerate some eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

DEAR DR. BLAKER: I am a 69-year-old woman who often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped eating any vegetables that progressive and eventually

Technicality nixes offer for refund

By Martin Sloane

DEAR MARTIN: Although many stores now include a promise of a refund as part of their advertising, not every store gives the cash-refund tags that are required. Here is an example:

The Woolco store in Massachusetts has been indicating that Smucker's Jellies were on sale and that there was also a $1 refund offer. In this case, the refund form was not displayed but was given to me at the checkout counter when the merchandise was paid for.

The Smucker's Jelly was one of several items that I purchased and charged on my Visa card. The items were not listed separately on my cash receipt.

When I got home and read the form, I noticed that it asked for a register tape with the purchase price circled. Since I didn't have a tape, I sent in the required labels with a note explaining the situation.

A few weeks later I received my labels back with a rejection letter stating that a cash-register tape was needed. I discussed the matter with the people at Woolco, and they were kind enough to furnish me with the handwritten receipt stating the price I had paid for the three years of jelly.

Once again, I addressed an envelope to Smucker's and sent off my labels and a note explaining the situation. I waited and waited. After more than two months went by and still no response, you can be sure that my refrigerator held jams and jellies from Kraft and Cross & Blackwell, and not one jar of Smucker's.

Finally, I decided to write to the director of marketing of the Smucker Co. in Orrville, Ohio. I explained the situation and told this person that it was my feeling that the whole refund promotion was to build good will for the company's product. Failing to pay a promised refund on a technically after the buyer has purchased the product is certain to create ill will and defeat that objective.

Don't you agree? — Frederick A. Carmody, Sarasota, Fla.

DEAR FRED: — You are right. There are so many problems with cash-register tapes that manufacturers should reconsider their use as a proof of purchase.

In a case like yours in which a customer has gone to the trouble of explaining the absence of a register tape, it is not reasonable to expect a refund. I am sure that your customer relations have to be good.

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

DEAR MARTIN: I called this reader to find out whether his letter to Smucker's director of marketing ever produced a response. He told me that several weeks later he received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a note that said "Smucker's doesn't necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good."

Supermarket shopper

Tight security

Tight security surrounds the actual puzzles to be used in the National Jigsaw Puzzle Championships that will take place Aug. 21 and 22 in Athens, Ohio. Only a handful of people at the Hallmark Cards' Springfield jigsaw puzzle plant are permitted to see the custom-made die cuts. At the Lawrence, Ohio plant, guard Paul Caster makes certain no one gets more than a fleeting glimpse of the 500-piece puzzles en route to packaging.

Commissioner Paul Bonassingo, who supervises the municipally owned City Water, Light & Power Co., said Thursday faulty testing procedures by the utility led to the boiler order that was issued July 18.

The order was lifted Wednesday. Several grocery stores quickly sold out of bottled water after the order was imposed. Two soft-drink bottlers were forced to cut back production and restaurants had to sell canned soft drinks.

Bonassingo said between $8,000 and $10,000 was spent on chlorine and other chemicals to fight the non-existent bacteria.

ADISON, Wis. (UPI) — The candidate-less National Unity Campaign Party has been dropped from the ballot by the State Elections Board, adding a footnote to history.

The National Unity Campaign was an alternative third party that ran a Republican Congressman from Illinois named John B. Anderson as its presidential candidate in 1980.

His running mate was Patrick J. Lucey — Wisconsin's Democratic governor from 1971 to 1977.

Under state law it was a party entitled to its own ballot in primary elections and its own column on general election ballots. But no one filed for this year's state elections.

So, the elections board voted unanimously Wednesday to remove the party from the ballot.

One person's junk ... HUFFMAN, Texas (UPI) — A mother of three who found a $1,000 earring in a box of costume jewelry priced at 50 cents at a garage sale says she looks a lot closer now at junk.

"I sure don't like anything for granted any more," Peggy Ross said Thursday. "Everything gets a closer look."

Weddings

Mrs. John J. Jacobson

Jacobson-Luckman

Nancy Michelle Luckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Luckman of 30 Waramoke Road, and John Joseph Jacobson, son of Mortimer Jacobson of Great Neck, N.Y. and Florence S. Jacobson of Bethesda, Md., were married June 27 at noon at Parkview Hilton Hotel in Hartford.

Cantor Arthur S. Koret of Emanuel Synagogue, West Hartford, conducted the service. The bride was given in marriage by her parents, Carol Luckman Armentano of West Hartford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Linda E. Johnson of Meadowbrook, Pa., was bridesmaid.

Paul S. Kofsky of Washington, D.C. was best man. Ushers were Bruce S. Luckman of Manchester, brother of the bride, and James A. Armentano of West Hartford.

Following the reception at Parkview Hilton, the couple left on a wedding trip to Boothbay Harbor, Maine. They are making their home in Simsbury.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bowdoin College, Georgetown University Law Center. He is an attorney with the firm of Reid and Riege.

The bride is a graduate of Boston University and Suffolk University Law School. She is an attorney and is employed as assistant clerk at Hartford Superior Court.

Mrs. Robert Davis

Davis-Morrison

Melissa Morrison of 146 Park St., daughter of Theresa Castagna of Newington and Charles Morrison of Rocky Hill, and Robert Davis of 146 Park St., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis of 272 Porter St., were married July 24 at South United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Shephard Johnson performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Cathy Salkowski of Newington was maid of honor and Carol Leckner of Ellington was bridesmaid. Lauren Castagna of Newington, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

Raymond Beaupre of Manchester was best man and David Stiebitz of East Hartford was usher.

After a reception at Riverside Pore Restaurant, the couple left on a wedding trip to Vermont and New Hampshire. They will make their home in Manchester.

The bride is a programmer for the State of Connecticut and the groom is employed at Hartford Roofing Co.

Cobb-Belluardo

Suzanna E. Belluardo and Lawrence E. Cobb Jr., both of Ashville, Ala., were married July 17 in Ashville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Belluardo of Manchester. The groom is the son of Joyce Cobb of Anniston, Ala., and Lawrence E. Cobb Sr. of Birmingham, Ala.

The bride attended Manchester High School and graduated from the Rhode Island School of Design. She is an artist and art teacher in the Birmingham school system.

The groom attended Jacksonville State University in Alabama and Emory University in Georgia. He is employed as a project engineer.

Mrs. Jonas R. Searle

Searle-Zimmerman

Jane R. Zimmerman of 141 Ferguson Road, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Zimmerman of Rockville, Md., and Jonas R. Searle of 141 Ferguson Road, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Searle of Durham, were married June 27 at Tereser Israel Synagogue, Bloomfield.

Rabbi Hansell Lindenthal of Bloomfield and Rabbi Marshall Press of Rockville, performed the double ring ceremony. James Cantin of New York City was organist. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father.

Barbara Zimmerman of Schenectady, N.Y., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Deanna Searle of Livingston, N.J., niece of the groom, was flower girl.

Frederic Searle of Durham, twin brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Bernard Searle of Livingston, N.J., brother of the groom, and Ira Zimmerman of Silver Spring, Md., brother of the bride, Armand Cooper of Old Westbury, N.Y., friend of the bride, was ringbearer.

After the reception at the synagogue, the couple left on a wedding trip to San Francisco and Carmel, Calif. They will make their home in Manchester.

The bride is a graduate of Boston University and Suffolk University Law School. She is an attorney and is employed as assistant clerk at Hartford Superior Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Gworek

Gworek-Hill

Sarah Jane Hill and Paul V. Gworek, both of Manchester, were married June 1 at Wickham Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hill of East Haddam. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gworek of Manchester.

Justice of the Peace Wally Irish officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Deborah Coleman of East Haddam, sister of the bride. Best man was Nicholas Caros of Newington.

After a reception at the Steak Out in Vernon, the couple left for a wedding trip to Jamaica. A family picnic will be held on June 19 at Wickham Park. The couple will make their home in Manchester.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts and Castleton State College in Vermont. She is employed as a registered nurse in the emergency department of John Dempsey Hospital in Farmington.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Connecticut. He is employed as a crash-rescue firefighter at Bradley International Airport. He serves as assistant fire chief and deputy fire marshal with the Manchester Fire Department, Eighth District.

MCC receives funds

For the second year in a row, Manchester Community College has been the recipient of the Paul L. Jones Fund. The award, which was increased from $10,000 to $15,000, will be used for scholarships to students enrolled in the four allied health programs: medical laboratory technician, occupational therapy assistant, respiratory therapist, and surgical technology.

News for senior citizens

Response overwhelming to trips during summer

Editor's note: This column is prepared by the staff of the Manchester Senior Center. It appears in the Herald on Saturdays and Wednesdays.

By Jeanette Cave
Senior Center Director

This summer trips have been a large part of our agenda. The response has been overwhelming, and we do ask your cooperation when registering. Because of the response, priorities will go to those who have not had an opportunity to attend many trips.

It is important that when you travel on these trips that you have adequate identification with you. If you do not have one of our cards that includes your medical history, please stop by the office and pick one up. This information may prove vital in case of an emergency.

If the idea of low cost local trips interests you and you would like to see more of these in the fall, please let us know. Please be advised that regular activities will continue while trips are being taken. Anyone needing a ride at this time, should call Phone a Ride.

A new trip planned will include a boat ride to Greenport, Long Island on Aug. 30. The cost is $23 and the sign-up date is Aug. 11. This price does not include lunch. You may get further information at the office.

Please be advised that the center will be closed from Aug. 30 to Sept. 6 for cleanup.

Norman Lasher from the golf league notified the office that the Arizona Scramble on Aug. 4, starting times will be available on Monday, August 23.

The lunch program will operate on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from Aug. 2 to Aug. 27. At all other times, you may bring your lunch and beverages will be available.

SCHEDULE FOR WEEK
Monday, 7:30 a.m. golf league at Manchester Country Club, 9:30 a.m. registration for Harkness Memorial State Park, 10 a.m. chess and cards, 12:30 p.m. pinocle; lunch: 12:30 p.m. pinocle; bus pickup at 8 a.m. return trips at 12:30 and 3 p.m.

BRIDGE SCORES: Ann Fisher, 4,670; Irene Walsh, 4,280; Mabel Loomis, 3,840; Tom Regan, 3,650; Mary Chapman, 3,570; Marguerite Carlson, 3,250; Betty Grama, 3,190; Mary Sargeant, 2,720; Pinocle scores: Amelia Anastasia, 617; Al Chellman, 613; Kitty Byrnes, 606; Bob Hill, 602; Ruth Baker, 588; Nadine Malcolm, 585; Sam Schors, 584; Lillian Lewis, 576; Ada Rojas, 565.

MEAT FOR WEEK
Monday: Shells with meat sauce, tossed salad, bread and butter, mixed fruit, beverage.
Tuesday: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.
Wednesday: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

FRIDAY: soup, tuna salad on roll, pickles, potato chips, jello, beverage.

THURSDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

WEDNESDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

TUESDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

MONDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

SUNDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

SATURDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

FRIDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

THURSDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

WEDNESDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

TUESDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

MONDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

SUNDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

SATURDAY: hot dog on a roll, baked beans, macaroni salad, ice cream, beverage.

Advice

Husband needs to loosen up; wife is starved for affection

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for five months to a man I went with for only three months.

While dating, he said he didn't believe in premarital sex. I thought I was lucky to find a guy who didn't insist on sex before marriage. Now I know why! He doesn't like to kiss, touch, fondle, caress or express any kind of emotion during lovemaking.

At first I thought it was just shyness, so I tried being patient for the first month or so. It didn't work. I've been married before, and I'm quite experienced, so I tried different approaches to warm him up. Still nothing. He doesn't care for any kissing or foreplay. He goes right into the kind of therapy he needs to get to the point where he can have sex.

I am so starved for some real affection I'm ready to grab the first guy I see and ask him to kiss me and make me feel like a real woman.

I've talked to my priest, and he told me to talk to my husband. I have, and he just says, "Sorry, I don't like to hug and kiss."

TOTALLY FRUSTRATED
DEAR FRUSTRATED: Face it, your husband is sexually immature, hung up and naive. That's forgivable, but his unwillingness to try to overcome it in order to please you shows a selfishness that could be fatal to your marriage.

Obviously a healthy sex life is important to you. If your husband really loves you, he will agree to get the kind of therapy he needs to make you happy. If he refuses, you will either have to settle for a hung-up husband, or hang up the marriage.

DEAR ABBY: As with many of your correspondents, I am writing to you as a last resort. You see, my best friends tell me and my doctor confirms that I have developed sexagenarianism, and no one seems to care. My doctor advises that this condition is debilitating but does not expect it to be fatal. On the other hand, he says that there is no known cure but that it usually runs its course and goes away in 10 years' time.

With your extensive resources, can you find a healer anywhere who can cure this condition? And I hope this will be a cure.

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: Concerning your standard (but outdated) advice on tipping hairdressers and beauticians providing they do not own the shop:

It used to be customary not to tip the beautician, but times have changed. We owners have the same bills and pressures as our employees. We need the money to stay in business so that your employees can keep their jobs.

I hope this old-fashioned custom of not tipping the beautician and the owner is still in vogue.

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

Advice

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for five months to a man I went with for only three months.

While dating, he said he didn't believe in premarital sex. I thought I was lucky to find a guy who didn't insist on sex before marriage. Now I know why! He doesn't like to kiss, touch, fondle, caress or express any kind of emotion during lovemaking.

At first I thought it was just shyness, so I tried being patient for the first month or so. It didn't work. I've been married before, and I'm quite experienced, so I tried different approaches to warm him up. Still nothing. He doesn't care for any kissing or foreplay. He goes right into the kind of therapy he needs to get to the point where he can have sex.

I am so starved for some real affection I'm ready to grab the first guy I see and ask him to kiss me and make me feel like a real woman.

I've talked to my priest, and he told me to talk to my husband. I have, and he just says, "Sorry, I don't like to hug and kiss."

TOTALLY FRUSTRATED
DEAR FRUSTRATED: Face it, your husband is sexually immature, hung up and naive. That's forgivable, but his unwillingness to try to overcome it in order to please you shows a selfishness that could be fatal to your marriage.

Obviously a healthy sex life is important to you. If your husband really loves you, he will agree to get the kind of therapy he needs to make you happy. If he refuses, you will either have to settle for a hung-up husband, or hang up the marriage.

DEAR ABBY: As with many of your correspondents, I am writing to you as a last resort. You see, my best friends tell me and my doctor confirms that I have developed sexagenarianism, and no one seems to care. My doctor advises that this condition is debilitating but does not expect it to be fatal. On the other hand, he says that there is no known cure but that it usually runs its course and goes away in 10 years' time.

With your extensive resources, can you find a healer anywhere who can cure this condition? And I hope this will be a cure.

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: Concerning your standard (but outdated) advice on tipping hairdressers and beauticians providing they do not own the shop:

It used to be customary not to tip the beautician, but times have changed. We owners have the same bills and pressures as our employees. We need the money to stay in business so that your employees can keep their jobs.

I hope this old-fashioned custom of not tipping the beautician and the owner is still in vogue.

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

DEAR BEAUTICIAN: My advice has been, "Offer a tip." If it is refused because the operator owns the shop, rejoice — you're that much more ahead!

Supermarket shopper

Technicality nixes offer for refunder

response, you can be sure that my refrigerator held jams and jellies from Kraft and Cross & Blackwell — and not one jar of Smucker's.

Finally, I decided to write to the director of marketing of the Smucker Co. in Orrville, Ohio. I explained the situation and told this person that it was my feeling that the whole product is certain to create ill will and defeat that objective.

Don't you agree? — Frederick A. Carmody, Sarasota, Fla.

DEAR FRID: — You are right. There are so many problems with cash-register tapes that I don't want to consider their use as a proof of purchase.

In a case like yours in which a customer has gone to the trouble of explaining the absence of a register tape, this should be accepted in lieu of a receipt.

That's what I would call good customer relations. I called this reader to find out whether his letter stated that a cash-register tape was needed.

I discussed the matter with the people at Woolco, and they were kind enough to furnish me with a sample receipt stating that the price I had paid for the three jars of jelly.

Once again, I addressed an envelope to Smucker's and sent off my labels and, of course, the receipt. I received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a 20-cent Smucker's coupon — but no covering letter or other explanation.

It seems that having a receipt is not necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good.

DEAR FRID: — You are right. There are so many problems with cash-register tapes that I don't want to consider their use as a proof of purchase.

In a case like yours in which a customer has gone to the trouble of explaining the absence of a register tape, this should be accepted in lieu of a receipt.

That's what I would call good customer relations. I called this reader to find out whether his letter stated that a cash-register tape was needed.

I discussed the matter with the people at Woolco, and they were kind enough to furnish me with a sample receipt stating that the price I had paid for the three jars of jelly.

Once again, I addressed an envelope to Smucker's and sent off my labels and, of course, the receipt. I received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a 20-cent Smucker's coupon — but no covering letter or other explanation.

It seems that having a receipt is not necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good.

DEAR FRID: — You are right. There are so many problems with cash-register tapes that I don't want to consider their use as a proof of purchase.

In a case like yours in which a customer has gone to the trouble of explaining the absence of a register tape, this should be accepted in lieu of a receipt.

That's what I would call good customer relations. I called this reader to find out whether his letter stated that a cash-register tape was needed.

I discussed the matter with the people at Woolco, and they were kind enough to furnish me with a sample receipt stating that the price I had paid for the three jars of jelly.

Once again, I addressed an envelope to Smucker's and sent off my labels and, of course, the receipt. I received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a 20-cent Smucker's coupon — but no covering letter or other explanation.

It seems that having a receipt is not necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good.

DEAR FRID: — You are right. There are so many problems with cash-register tapes that I don't want to consider their use as a proof of purchase.

In a case like yours in which a customer has gone to the trouble of explaining the absence of a register tape, this should be accepted in lieu of a receipt.

That's what I would call good customer relations. I called this reader to find out whether his letter stated that a cash-register tape was needed.

I discussed the matter with the people at Woolco, and they were kind enough to furnish me with a sample receipt stating that the price I had paid for the three jars of jelly.

Once again, I addressed an envelope to Smucker's and sent off my labels and, of course, the receipt. I received an envelope containing a dollar bill and a 20-cent Smucker's coupon — but no covering letter or other explanation.

It seems that having a receipt is not necessarily mean that your customer relations have to be good.

DEAR FRID: — You are right. There are so many problems with cash-register tapes that I don't want to consider their use as a proof of purchase.

Prostrate is a bit enlarged; will medicine change help?

DEAR DR. LAMB: I'm 60 years old. My doctor says my prostate is a bit enlarged. I don't have any pain, but I have trouble starting to urinate and I don't have any force. Some nights I get up once to go to the bathroom and my urine will stop completely, then after a few minutes it starts again. It stops, starts, stops several times during the night. You could tell me if this is a problem or not. My doctor doesn't make me any medicines to help me. I'm taking Donnatal Extentabs for an ulcer condition. Could this drug give me any of this hesitation?

DEAR DR. LAMB: Yes, Donnatal Extentabs could contribute to your problem. They contain antispasmodics commonly used in treating stomach acidity. These are the medicines that have an atropine action and block the vagus nerve to your stomach. But they may also interfere with emptying the bladder. This is usually not a problem unless a person already has prostatic trouble, then they may even cause complete failure of the complex mechanism required for urination.

Talk to your doctor about this and switch to something else for your ulcer condition. It may help you postpone an operation for some time.

DEAR DR. LAMB: I am a 60-year-old woman and in good health. Ever so often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped taking aspirin because of progressive and eventually there is often required. There is no medicine now that will correct this enlargement. More information that may be helpful is an inflammation or prostatitis and that can be corrected that may relieve swelling and lead to an improvement.

And a doctor needs to know what the problem is before he can do the best job of treating it. Go see your doctor. Aspirin is often a good pain relieving medicine, regardless of the cause of the pain. Don't underestimate it.

DEAR DR. LAMB: I am a 60-year-old woman and in good health. Ever so often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped taking aspirin because of progressive and eventually there is often required. There is no medicine now that will correct this enlargement. More information that may be helpful is an inflammation or prostatitis and that can be corrected that may relieve swelling and lead to an improvement.

And a doctor needs to know what the problem is before he can do the best job of treating it. Go see your doctor. Aspirin is often a good pain relieving medicine, regardless of the cause of the pain. Don't underestimate it.

DEAR DR. LAMB: I am a 60-year-old woman and in good health. Ever so often I am awakened in the middle of the night with pain in my groin area. After taking several aspirin the pain goes away and I fall asleep. I stopped taking aspirin because of progressive and eventually there is often required. There is no medicine now that will correct this enlargement. More information that may be helpful is an inflammation or prostatitis and that can be corrected that may relieve swelling and lead to an improvement.

&lt;

MACC news

Thanks go to all Interfaith volunteers

Editor's note: This column is prepared by the staff of the Manchester Area Conference of Churches. It appears in the Manchester Herald on Saturdays.

It was another successful year for Interfaith Day Camp. This year almost 60 children were treated to two weeks of fun, food and friendship made possible by an enthusiastic staff...

Our food was plentiful and delicious. Each day the children and staff were treated to snacks and a full lunch. Eight churches - Concordia Lutheran Second Congregational, St. James Assumption, North Methodist, Center Congregational, Emmanuel Lutheran, and St. Bartholomew - were responsible for keeping our stomachs full.

Rabbi speaks out

Bias for life: Jewish view

Editor's note: Rabbi Siegel is a professor of theology at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

I represent a faith community which is the oldest in the western world, and from its very beginnings, was adamant and enthusiastically pre-life. It is a community upon which death has been imposed by enemies and persecutors in horrible and unprecedented ways.

The Zohar, the classic book of Jewish mysticism, praising the Israelites in Egypt for preserving their moral integrity, comments that one of the great attributes of the people of Israel at that time was that they did not, in spite of provocation, destroy fetuses which are, in the words of the Zohar, "the handwork of the Living God."

The abortion dilemma which faces us personally and communally is seen in Talmudic literature not as a question of pro-life or pro-choice, but as a dilemma in which there is a pursuer - a "rode" to use the Hebrew term - and the someone or something which is pursued.

There are occasions, fortunately rare, in which the fetus is a threat to the mother who is carrying it. In such a rare situation, the doctrine of self-defense can be invoked, and the fetus can be eliminated in defense of the victim of that aggression.

Otherwise, killing a fetus is forbidden by Jewish morality, law, faith and teaching. The Talmudic Genesis 9:6: "He who sheds the blood, Adam v'adam of a person or being within a being shall be punished." The Talmud interprets this to mean the fetus in the womb of its mother. The killing of the unborn is therefore a heinous crime.

Thus Jewish Law did not permit abortion except to save the life of the mother. Traditional Judaism takes the view that the fetus possesses a human dimension; it is a human life on the way.

Westward ho Ronald Shurkey, Steven Millard and Sokh Buth, three of a dozen young people from Trinity Covenant Church who left Tuesday on a mission trip to St. Louis, Mo., pack the church bus. The young people, accompanied by counselors, are leading a Bible school at the newly established Church of the Master Covenant. They will return to Manchester Aug. 9.

Calendar

Youth beach day slated

The following events are scheduled at Emanuel Lutheran Church for the coming week:

Sunday - 10:30 a.m., church council meeting; 10 a.m., Old Guard; 10 a.m., staff meeting; 10 a.m., Old Guard; 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., youth beach day.

Monday - 12 p.m., Bible study; sack lunch, 7 p.m.; Bible study, 7 p.m.; March Inc.

Tuesday - 10 a.m., prayer group; 11:15 a.m., care and visitation; 6 p.m., Scandia Lodge at Len and Hill Johnson.

Wednesday - Alcoholics Anonymous, Luther Hill, 60 Church St.

Church office hours will be 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. for the month of August.

South United's calendar

The following events are scheduled for South United Methodist Church for the coming week:

Sunday - 10 a.m., Holy Communion; 10:30 a.m., adult Bible class; 7:30 p.m., women's prayer and study group; 8:30 p.m., finance committee, church office.

Here's Concordia's week

The following events are scheduled at Concordia Lutheran Church for the coming week:

Sunday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

KofC convention set

The Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus, 137 million-member fraternal society for Catholics, has scheduled its centennial convention Tuesday through

Isabella Daughters

Yvonne Lemire, regent of St. Margaret's Circle 280, Daughters of Isabella, will be the Manchester delegate at the 88th anniversary convention of the International Daughters of Isabella scheduled this year for the first time in Hartford at the Civic Center, Aug. 8 through Aug. 13.

Opening mass will be celebrated at St. Joseph's Cathedral on Monday evening. Tuesday evening will feature the Parade of States with members from the United States and Canada marching in diverse formations representing their locales.

Church office

Monday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Church office

Tuesday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Wednesday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Thursday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Friday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Saturday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Sunday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Monday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Tuesday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Wednesday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Thursday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

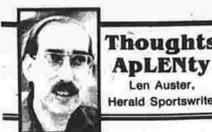

Friday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Saturday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Sunday - 10 a.m., administrative staff, pastor's study; 1:30 p.m., Golden Age group meets in church room; 7:30 p.m., social ministry committee.

Sports

Manchester done it all

Thoughts by Len Auster, Herald Sports Editor

With its win Thursday night over Enfield, Manchester Legion baseball team qualified for the three-team Zone Eight playoff. The format calls for the third place team, Manchester in this case, to visit the second place club, Windsor Locks, in a single elimination bout. That takes place Sunday afternoon at Southwest Park at 1:30.

The winner then advances to take on the regular season winner, East Hartford, in a best two-of-three series starting Tuesday and running on consecutive days thru Thursday, if necessary. The survivor gains the zone championship and the berth in the upcoming state tournament in Middletown at Palmer Field.

Manchester is one club that's done it all. Post 102 in 1979 trailed East Hartford in the regular season but took the playoffs. The following campaign it was turnaround fair play as Manchester was the regular season leader but saw the state tourney bid go to East Hartford, the playoff winner in two straight.

A year ago Windsor Locks took honors over the 21 year schedule but Manchester took an exciting bout from East Hartford and went on to Middletown by besting the Locksmen from the No. 2 slot.

Anything goes It just shows that anything can happen in a short series. A bounce of the ball an inch either way could send Windsor Locks or East Hartford - or Manchester - to Middletown. A betting man would put his money on favorite East Hartford. The Post 77 crew has the hitting and the best overall pitching in the zone. It would, in a way, be a shame if this crew doesn't represent Zone Eight in Middletown.

But East Hartford knows it has to go out on the field and prove in the post-season play it deserves the trip downstate.

Bits and pieces First-year East Hartford Legion Coach Mark McMahon has done an exceptional job. McMahon took over the helm without prior coaching experience but has shown he can do the job - and then some. His work should earn him a post somewhere...

Paul Peck's two-hit gem that clinched Manchester's berth in the Zone Eight playoffs required exactly 97 minutes to complete at MCC's Cougar Field. Who said baseball is long and boring. When Manchester and East Hartford met in Legion play recently, there was a combined total of seven East Catholic performers on the diamond. Tim Wisniewski, Brad Cabral and Bill Masse are the Eagles on the local Post 102 crew with Tom Furlong, Paul Roy, Jeff Riggs and Tim Kiro on the Post 77 contingent. And an eighth Eagle, Manchester's Mike Ryan, is on the injured list...

Nancy Pietro captured the Women's Club Championship at Manchester Country Club this past Thursday. She bested Helen Muttly in a 6 and 5 marathon. Muttly, who was the defending champion, required 72 strokes to finish. Pietro, who was the runner-up, required 71 strokes. Pietro's score was 147 for 18 holes. Muttly's score was 148 for 18 holes. Pietro's score was 147 for 18 holes. Muttly's score was 148 for 18 holes.

Statistics thru July 26 showed Moriarty Bros. Bill Chappuis as one of the top hitters in the Twilight League. He was seventh leading batter with a .415 average. led the circuit in homers with five. Led for the lead in doubles at six and had a fifth-best RBI total of 14. Dave Bidwell was among the leaders in walk-off hits with two. He was also among the top pitchers with a 2.00 ERA. He was also among the top pitchers with a 2.00 ERA.

Have a good weekend.

Sutton, Lietzke share lead

OKVILLE, Ont. (UPI) - Louisiana rookie Hal Sutton, a boss to the oil business but a loner to PGA, sank six birdies to record his second straight Sunday 68 Friday and share a 2-shot lead with Bruce Lietzke at the amateur Open Golf championship.

The only save putt was from about six or seven inches today. Sutton, 24, is not impressed with a rookie season that has included a win at the Tallahassee Open and a tie for third last week in Williamsburg, Va.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

Lietzke, a three-time winner with over 400,000 last year but no victories in 1982, tied Sutton with his fourth birdie of the day at the 17th hole then missed a three-foot putt for par at 18 to settle for his second 68 in as many days.

LaRusa job on the line

Legin makes impression

Providing some food for thought for the next battle, Manchester Legion baseball team left an impression with a 5-0 blanking of Windsor Locks in the Zone Eight regular season finale for both clubs last night at Southwest Park in Windsor Locks.

The engagement was a preview of the zone first round clash Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at Southwest Park when third place Manchester visits second place Locks.

Manchester finished 13-8 in zone play against 14-7 for Locks. The home side had taken the first two games of the series. The Post 102 crew was 3-2 and 3-0.

This goes to show we can beat them, noted Manchester Coach Steve Armstrong. "I showed me in several important categories we are better than they are."

Two Locks winners produced a Manchester run in the sixth with a double by Tim Wisniewski in the seventh completing the scoring.

We had good pitching once again and again very good defense, offered Armstrong. McKenna in rightfielder gunned down a runner in the third inning and Masse in the sixth made a stellar diving over the shoulder grab of a potential hit.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Blame on Dailey for Dons' demise

DENVER (UPI) - South Africa's Sally Little got off to a "scraggly" start, but settled down and finished at 3-under-par 69 Friday to take a three-stroke lead midway through the second round of a $200,000 LPGA tournament.

The tournament is known as the "Columbia Savings Classic." Little, the leading money winner on the 1982 tour with earnings of more than $100,000, was at 7-under-137 for the tournament which concludes Sunday.

Four golfers - second-year pro Lenore Muraoka, Shelley Hamlin, 1981 Rookie of the Year Patty Sheehan and 1980 Denver champion Beth Daniel - were at 4-under 140.

San Francisco (UPI) - One of the high school basketball stars recruited by the University of San Francisco says a grudge against the coach prompted former Dons star Quintin Dailey to make the state against the school by the NCAA.

The charges by Dailey, an All-America who last fall assumed a nursing student in a dormitory and turned pro before his senior year, led to Thursday's announcement by school president Father John LoSchavo that the program would be abolished for at least "a couple of years."

During a news conference, LoSchavo said the school's Board of Trustees voted for the move at a secret meeting Wednesday night. LoSchavo placed much of the blame for the program's jailing suspended on an alum, J. Luis Zabala, a wealthy businessman whose Salina, Calif., firm employed Dailey last summer, paying him $1,000 a month for which he never showed up.

"I always look at the leader board because I like to be aware of what's happening," she said. "But it's too early in the tournament to worry about the other players. If I can keep shooting in the 60s, I'll be very happy."

Sheehan, who started the day alone in second at 2-under 70, matched that score Friday and said she had "never been so disappointed with a 70 in my life."

"The greens are soft and nice to hit on," she said. "I hit the ball super. I hit 16 greens (in regulation), but didn't make a putt. The longest putt I made was six feet. Isn't that sick?"

But Sheehan, who admitted earlier she had been in "sort of a slump," said she had not lost confidence.

"I know sooner or later they will fall," she said.

Dailey was charged with the five felony counts for the assault. Last month he pleaded guilty to simple assault and was put on probation.

Dailey, according to Thomas, believed Barry failed him by allowing him to go with police and take a lie detector test before he had consulted with an attorney.

"I think that's the reason," Thomas said. "He has told teammates that he feels he wouldn't have believed Barry had been a grudge against Barry because of what Dailey felt was insufficient support during the investigation of the assault charges by the five felony counts for the assault."

Dailey was charged with the five felony counts for the assault. Last month he pleaded guilty to simple assault and was put on probation.

Dailey, according to Thomas, believed Barry failed him by allowing him to go with police and take a lie detector test before he had consulted with an attorney.

"I think that's the reason," Thomas said. "He has told teammates that he feels he wouldn't have believed Barry had been a grudge against Barry because of what Dailey felt was insufficient support during the investigation of the assault charges by the five felony counts for the assault."

Strike 'gut feeling'

U.S. swimmer takes synchronized lead

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador (UPI) - American Tracie Ruiz was the top qualifier Friday in the individual synchronized swimming competition of the World Swimming Championships that run through Aug. 7 in this scenic coastal city.

Ruiz took a 400-point lead over Kelly Kryczka of Canada after the routine and figure events.

The other six qualifiers in the event, in which only one participant per country is allowed, are Misako Motoyoshi of Japan, Carolyn Wilson of England, Marijke Engelen of Holland, Gudrun Heiansen of Switzerland and Murielle Hermine of France.

The eight finalists were to compete for the title late Friday.

The team water polo competition also began its preliminary rounds Friday. Spain trounced New Zealand 21-2 in the opening game and the United States followed with a 24-2 victory over Egypt.

Preliminaries in the women's springboard diving started Friday with finals scheduled to conclude Saturday.

The swimming competition is scheduled to begin its 6-day run Sunday with preliminaries and finals in the women's 100-meter breaststroke and men's 200-meter freestyle.

Three of the world's best swimmers will participate in their specialties. The world record holder in the women's 400-meter individual medley, Petra Schneider of East Germany, is the favorite in this event. But she should draw strong competition from Tracy Caulkins, the American champion. Caulkins won the event in 1978.

Americans Rowdy Gaines and Steve Lundquist also will defend in their specialties. Gaines, who holds the world record in the men's 200-meter freestyle, should be challenged by Michael Gross of West Germany and Jorg Wolthe of East Germany.

Lundquist, the world's best in the 100-meter breaststroke, should get tough competition from Peter Evans of Australia and Victor Davis of Canada.

The women's 100-meter freestyle should be a three-way race between Jill Sterkel of the U.S., Annemari Verstaepen of Holland and Irina Gerasimovna of Russia.

All but two of the 30 remaining veterans reported on time and it was obvious the strike issue hung over their heads. Offensive linebacker Mike Hawkins, a five-year veteran, was late reporting because of a plane delay, and a spokesman said they will not be fined.

Both veterans were made Friday the final reporting day for Patriot veterans to press camp

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

Manchester's Bill Masse (9) made it safely to second with first-inning steal in tilt Thursday against Enfield at Cougar Field. Local legion nine has Zone Eight playoff clash Sunday at Windsor Locks at Southwest Park at 1:30.

BUSINESS

Industry must aid day-care solution

ITEM: Intermedics Inc., a Texas medical technology firm with the largest industry day-care facility in the United States (292 children whose parents pay $15 a week), recorded a 23 percent decrease in employee turnover and 15,000 fewer work hours lost to absenteeism during the facility's first year of operation. "The center is more than paying for itself," notes a company official.

ITEM: Wang Laboratories, the world-processing leader in Lowell, Mass., reported a marked drop in employee turnover and "very positive effects" on employee morale after establishing its own day-care facility for 150 enrollees in a nearby elementary school.

ITEM: PCA International Inc., a North Carolina photo processing company with roughly 1,000 employees, states that its day-care center has substantially reduced costs relating to recruitment and turnover — a saving estimated at $50,000 a year.

Day-care centers to take care of the young children of workers is a concept whose time has come. It's here. It's now. A recent Harris Poll finds that corporate-sponsored day care as part of any employee benefits package will be one of the key labor-management issues of the 1980s.

Child-care advocates shrug off the view that industry-financed facilities are unnecessary, unworkable and utopian. Organized labor and leaders of the women's movement openly state they will be in the vanguard of this push.

IT'S SCARCELY a surprise considering the following facts:

- More than half (52.5 percent) of the adult female population now works outside the home and nearly 6 million of these women are mothers of preschool children.

- Within eight years — by 1990 — there will be 11 million more women in the work force, an estimated two out of three mothers will be employed; and 55 percent of them will have at least one child under 6.

- Meanwhile, the depressing fact is that existing private and publicly sponsored centers can accommodate only one out of every six of the preschoolers whose mothers now work, and most centers have long

Your Money's Worth
Sylvia Porter

waiting lists. An even more depressing fact is that a threatened 20 percent cutback in federally funded programs would reduce by more than 100,000 the number of children who can be cared for in these facilities.

• And the U.S. Labor Department itself believes that a minimum of 20,000 children under the age of 3 are now left alone for all or part of the day while parents work for pay. This does not include the vast number of so-called "latchkey" kids, school-age youngsters who are left unsupervised for at least part of the working day.

"Unless strong initiatives come from corporate leadership to help fill the gap," says Arnold Hiatt, head of the Stride Rite Corp., a leading manufacturer of children's footwear, "many of the working mothers who are also single parents will be forced out of the work force and back onto welfare" (precisely the opposite of what the Reagan administration's programs are trying to achieve).

HIATT'S COMPANY is a well-known corporate sponsor of work-site day-care facilities — pioneering in 1971 the concept by opening a day-care center that has become a prototype for similar facilities around the country. Located on the first floor of its Boston plant, the center includes a kitchen, office, laundry, gym, classrooms and outdoor playground for infants, toddlers and older children. Average cost to parents: $20 to $25 a week. A second center will be opened at its new Cambridge plant soon.

Congress is clearly urging employers to take action. In its massive, catchall 1981 tax act, there is a tax benefits package for firms sponsoring non-profit child care that is extraordinarily generous.

FOR INSTANCE, a company can claim a tax deduction for its total investment in day care if it is a formally written plan available to all employees on an unrestricted basis. Businesses can deduct from the gross taxable income all expenditures for employee child care whether building and maintaining an in-house facility, purchasing spaces in private centers (called vendor programs), or issuing vouchers (for money payments) to employee-parents who make their own arrangements.

And this is not all. The act makes any direct outlays or reimbursements tax-free and also provides parents with an additional tax credit — as much as $1,440, depending on income and number of children — for that portion of the overall day-care tax benefit bandwagon. Connecticut already has passed a law providing a state income tax credit equal to 25 percent of the cost of constructing, acquiring or expanding a child day-care facility, up to $10,000 annually. Similar legislation is pending in New York, Massachusetts, Maine and Kentucky.

Start-up costs for a facility are estimated between $70,000 and $150,000 — less if existing space can be used. BUT THE NUMBER of facilities grows more inadequate, not less — in the face of all these stimulants. An informed report is that 240 employers now underwrite some kind of child-care services, of which only about 50 firms offer on-site facilities. Among them, in addition to those companies mentioned above, Corning Glass Works, Connecticut General Life Insurance, Equitable Life Insurance, the Zale Corp., Hoffman-La Roche. A good omen: More than 220 medical centers across the land offer on-site facilities for children of staff members.

There are many options: Companies can pay established, privately owned centers to provide day care; they can join with other companies, a union or a small suburb in funding a center; they can work out a flexible "menu" of benefit trade-offs with employees to fit individual needs.

Whatever — corporate-sponsored day care is no longer the wave of the future. It is an urgent and essential need now that American employers must meet. And the tax benefits are designed to push them to move.

The Day-Care Dilemma: It Could Get Worse

More than half of the adult female population works outside the home.

By 1990, there will be 11 million more women in the work force; two out of three mothers will be employed; 55 percent of them will have at least one child under 6.

Existing private and publicly sponsored centers can accommodate only one out of every six preschoolers whose mothers now work, and a 20 percent cutback in federally funded programs is threatened.

The Labor Department estimates that at least 20,000 children under age 3 are left alone for all or part of the day.

(Sylvia Porter's Financial Almanac for 1983, a comprehensive desk calendar and consumer handbook, features Porter's best advice for saving money and organizing your budget. Includes budget worksheets. Send $8.95 plus $1 for postage and handling to Financial Almanac, in care of the Herald, 4400 Johnson Drive, Fairway, Kan. 66205. Make checks payable to Universal Press Syndicate.)

In Brief

Income up 50%

DANBURY — Grolier Inc., the educational publisher, announced today net income for the quarter ended June 30, 1982 increased 50 percent to $7,392,000 or 69 cents per share, compared to a restated $4,907,000 or 45 cents per share in 1981. Second quarter sales of $89,487,000 declined 4 percent from 1981 due to the effect of the translation of the Mexican peso at devalued rates and decline in direct marketing sales in the United States due to economic conditions, the company said.

Seminar slated

Dr. Byrl N. Boyce, SREA, CRE, will hold a seminar on "Adjusting For Financing Differences in Residential Properties", on Sept. 20, at Yale Motor Inn, Meriden, sponsored by the Society of Real Estate Appraisers, Connecticut Chapter.

Boyce is a professor at the University of Connecticut in the Real Estate Center. For registration and further information, contact Thomas H. Wells, SRPA, care of Derby Savings Bank, 1 Elizabeth St., Derby, Conn. 06411, telephone 736-9921.

Earnings down

Southern New England Telephone Co. has reported earnings per share of $1.42 for the second quarter of 1982, down from the $1.74 earned in the second quarter of 1981. For the 12-month period ended June 30, 1982, the company earned $7.05 per common share compared with $7.04 for the same period a year ago.

Alfred Van Sinderen, SNET chairman and chief executive officer, noted that the company has moved to halt this trend by filing on June 25 a request for higher intrastate rates with the Connecticut Department of Public Utility Control.

"The combined effects of inflation, faster depreciation of our equipment, and rising taxes continue to erode our financial results," Van Sinderen said. He also noted that interstate revenues were below expectations due to the weakness in the national economy. "To protect the interests of our share owners and maintain the quality of service we provide our customers, we must reprice our services in light of our increased expenses. Our current rates are based on 1979 costs. We have prepared a well-documented case, proposing an increase of 12 percent on total revenues, or an additional $127.9 million annually.

Investments

Investment prices courtesy of Advest Inc. are as of 3 p.m. Friday

	Price	Change
	Friday	this week
Advest Group Inc	11	dn 3/4
Alexander and Alexander	11 1/4	up 1/2
Acmat	6 1/2	dn 1/4
Aetna	33 1/2	dn 1
CBT Corp	22	dn 1/2
Colonial Bancorp	13 1/4	dn 3/4
First Bancorp	24	unch
First Hartford Bancorp	1/4	unch
Hartford National	20	dn 1/2
Hartford Steam Boiler	31 1/2	dn 1 1/2
Ingersoll Rand	38 1/2	dn 4 1/2
J.C. Penney	39 1/2	up 1/2
Lydall	8	dn 1/4
Sage Allen	7 1/2	unch
SNET	41 1/4	dn 1 1/4
Travelers	18 1/2	dn 2 1/2
United Tech	41 1/2	dn 1/2
First Ct. Bancorp	26 1/4	up 1/4
Gold N.Y.	342.90	dn 20.35
Finast Supermarkets	5 1/4	unch

Law protected Heublein, allowed Reynolds merger

HARTFORD (UPI) — The Connecticut Legislature unwittingly passed a bill recently which protected Heublein Inc. from a takeover bid and enabled its merger with the tobacco giant R.J. Reynolds, a state legislator said Friday.

Rep. Richard Tulisano, D-Rocky Hill, co-chairman of the Legislature's Judiciary Committee, said his committee was told by Heublein the proposal was needed to protect jobs — not to block a takeover attempt.

The law passed in June allows changes in the company's certificate of incorporation on a simple majority vote instead of the previously required two-thirds vote.

The Farmington-based Heublein was pursued by General Cinema Corp. of Newton, Mass.

General Cinema now owns at least 18 percent of the outstanding shares in Heublein, which is best known for Kentucky Fried Chicken and Smirnoff liquor.

Tulisano said he had reservations about the bill when it was proposed and talked it over with Heublein officials. He said they told him Heublein had to be more in control of its stock to protect Connecticut jobs.

"At no time was it disclosed to me that a friendly acquisition with anyone was forthcoming," he said. "And now, one month later, the law we passed has given one corporation and corporate insiders the advantage over another engaged in a legitimate business venture."

"It is unthinkable that state government was used to benefit one business interest over another," Tulisano said.

Under the agreement, Reynolds Industries Inc. Friday began buying 11-350,000 shares, or 52 percent, of Heublein's common stock at a price of $63 per share. In a separate agreement, Reynolds will acquire another four million shares of Heublein common stock, or approximately 18 percent of the shares presently outstanding, also at a cash price of $63 per share.

Pending federal approval, Reynolds expects to begin paying for Heublein shares, tendered in the offer, about Aug. 20.

R.J. Reynolds plans to create a new food division combining its Del Monte subsidiary with the food and beverage operations of Heublein.

Heublein headquarters will remain in Farmington.

UPI photo

Better, cheaper TV

The yoke of an improved color TV picture tube system developed by RCA is examined by engineering manager Al Morrell of the company's plant in Lancaster, Pa. RCA says the new system, planned for production in 1983, is designed to lower the overall manufacturing cost of a color TV set while improving its performance and reliability. In addition to the yoke, the new system includes an improved electron gun and a new glass funnel incorporated in the tube in the foreground.

Public Records

Warranty deeds

Alice Scott to James R. Adams and Marisa Adams, property at Virginia Road, $64,900.

Rocco A. Fiano to Frances J. Fiano Jr. and Donna J. Fabrizi, property at 178 Oak St., $40,000.

Esther H. Wooding to Gary R. Hugo and Linda J. Hugo, property at 12 Crestwood Drive, $70,000.

Quitclaim deeds

Bonnie J. Clapp to Peter Clapp, property at 17-19 Pearl St.

Graham W. MacDonald to Mark W. Trombley and Grace M. Trombley, property at 104-106 Florence St.

Mark W. Trombley and Grace M. Trombley to Graham W. MacDonald and Holly E. MacDonald, property at 104-106 Florence St.

Mary N. Gulish to Mary N. Gulish and Albert M. Gulish, property at 57 Columbus St.

Mary Beth Comp to David W. Comp, property on Hollister Street.

Stanley T. Sadlak to Marshall J. Levinson, Unit 123B Royal Arms Condos, Main Street, $25,000 (based on conveyance tax).

Beneficial Finance Co. against

Deborah S. Salerno, property at 89 Shallowbrook Lane, $185.04.

Building permits

To Sam Crispino to erect partitions in a supermarket for an electric game room, $500.

To David Remodeling for Gil Wright for siding and a porch at 66 Mather St., $9,000.

To William Olcavage for a fence at 107 North School St., $200.

To B.T. Peterman Sr. and Jr. to demolish a house and to build a two-family house at 18-20 Golway St., $53,000.

To Savoddeanus Inc. for an addition at 509 Center St., $3,000.

To Ron Cadell for Margaret McCoe for a deck at 130 Parker St., $1,700.

To Thomas R. Alexander for a family room at 44 Olcott Drive, $10,000.

To Jones Destruction Co. to demolish a boiler room at 945R Main St., $3,000.

To J. Edward Fisher for John E. and Anna L. Fisher for a deck at 19 Lakewood Circle, $600.

To Ralph Starkweather for a garage

Beneficial Finance Co. against

Deborah S. Salerno, property at 89 Shallowbrook Lane, $185.04.

Building permits

To Sam Crispino to erect partitions in a supermarket for an electric game room, $500.

To David Remodeling for Gil Wright for siding and a porch at 66 Mather St., $9,000.

To William Olcavage for a fence at 107 North School St., $200.

To B.T. Peterman Sr. and Jr. to demolish a house and to build a two-family house at 18-20 Golway St., $53,000.

To Savoddeanus Inc. for an addition at 509 Center St., $3,000.

To Ron Cadell for Margaret McCoe for a deck at 130 Parker St., $1,700.

To Thomas R. Alexander for a family room at 44 Olcott Drive, $10,000.

To Jones Destruction Co. to demolish a boiler room at 945R Main St., $3,000.

To J. Edward Fisher for John E. and Anna L. Fisher for a deck at 19 Lakewood Circle, $600.

To Ralph Starkweather for a garage

and extension of a bedroom at 30 Farmington St., $9,500.

To Quality Home Improvement to convert a garage to a family room at 45 Elsie Drive, $2,000.

To William J. Carter to demolish a porch at 391 Center St., $200.

To James Halloran for a fence at 110 Delmont St., $200.

To Raymond Ristau for a deck at 92 Bolton St., $1,500.

To Eddy Awning and Decorating Co. for Carter Chevrolet Co. Inc. for a tent at 1229 Main St., $600.

To Roger Plourdre for Second Congregational Church for alterations to a basement at 385 N. Main St., $8,000.

To Harry Goodwin for Shriver Fluid Power Inc. to renovate offices and add an entrance at 44 Stock Place, $41,000.

To March Inc. for a fence at 636 E. Middle Turnpike, $1,000.

To Robert R. Skienar for a fence at 81 Hamilton St., $1,000.

To Maria G. DeSantis for alterations to a dwelling at 70-72 Linden St., $3,000.

To Lofstrom Construction Inc. for Dewey-Richmond Association for renovations at 767 Main St., $175,000.