Israeli couple returns for second look at States

By Barbara Richmond Herald Reporter Tami and Amir Wertheim, who came to America from Israel on the first Friendship Force flight in 1978, liked this country so much they're back to take another look The couple is staying with Michael and Jane Wlochowski of 94 Cambridge St., the same couple they stayed with in 1978. The Wlochowskis, meanwhile, visite the Wertheims in Israel in 1981.

The Israeli couple has seen more of this country than most people who have lived here all of their lives. They arrived here on April 11 and have visited California, Utah,

LAST WEEKEND they went to Niagara Falls with their host amily. They will leave Mancheswhere they plan to visit the space interest. From there they will go to New York City, where Mrs. Wertheim's brother lives. They will return to Israel on May 21. Mrs. Wertheim said this is their big trip. 'It's expensive to come here. We each had to pay $50 just to thing new that started on April 1,' Wertheim said. The couple lives in Rishon-Le-Zion. It's near Tel Aviv and has a population of about 100,000. "It's called a sleeping (bedroom) town to Tel Aviv," Mrs. Wertheim explained. Werthelm is a bus driver for the largest bus company in Israel. He's also a member of the bus corporation. Mrs. Wertheim is a netician. "I'm not concerned with telling how to put on makeup, I learned it, but I don't like it. I'm involved with the cleansing of the skin, giving facials and treatment of skin problems," she said.

THEY BOTH AGREED that everything in Israel is expensive. "We have many taxes. They're the highest in the world. Out of my taxes and most of it goes into If you think the Connecticut sales tax is high, listen to this - the sales

Glenn or Mondale? A waiting game

this state, like many others in the ranks, will be window shopping a while longer before lining up with a presidential candidate for 1984.

That goes for Governor Bill O'Neill, who seldom rushes into a decision on any subject: State Chairman Jim FitzGerald, and Senator Chris Dodd, who has a personal stake in the race because of his interest upward mobility some day.

They were non-committal or absent altogether last week when the two leading hopefuls, Walter Mondale and John Glenn, made separate stops in Hartford. All that the ranking three would say was that Mondale is probably ahead so

The House Democrats, liberals all, tend to lean toward Mondale, one of their soul brothers on that score. Still, there is no scurrying by Barbara Kennelly, Sam Gejdenson Bruce Morrison or Bill Ratchford to put on the bumper stickers just yet. Even so, Mondale brought a lot of liberals on the run when he hit town. Many of them, still in shock over Ted Kennedy's with-

A dinner from the corner deli

Need a tasty meal in a hurry?
Then head for your neighborhood deli. You'll be part of a time-honored tradition. They originated in Germany where the shops became known for their fine array of ready-to-eat foods and shopkeepers brought their special recipes to America and started the first delicatessens here, mostly in on rye, dill pickles and macaroni salad have been popular since in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago. In the mid 1970's deli departments started cropping p in supermarkets. Convenient deli counters mak ife easier for two-member households and the working wives and mothers. You can buy just the right portion at the deli counter - a single serving of alad and pastas or just a few slices of meat or cheese The next time you stop at the grocery to pick up something for dinner, head straight for the deli department. Start with a loaf of crusty bread, then hoose some cheese, ham, and turkey breast. Add a Don't forget a jar of spicy mustard, and maybe some pickles or olives for garnish. Then hurry home

Cooking at Bernier's is a family affair

Herald Reporter

Mary Bernier of 28 Ardmore Road cooks by a meal plan. She plans her meals for two weeks at a time and does her shopping ac-cordingly. Not only does her plan keep things organized, but it also saves a lot of money. Mrs. Bernier, a part time private duty nurse at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center in Hartford, used to cook without thinking about calories. She's one of the fortunate ones who can eat anything and not gain weight. Since the whole family isn't that lucky, however, she has learned to mend her ways. exception to the rule. She only makes it for birthday parties because, she admits, "It's loaded with calories." You just know it is because it tastes so good. Sometimes the Bernier kitchen gets a little crowded because the whole family likes to cook, including husband Peter, son Peter, 13, and daughter Jenny, 11.

Peter senior's specialty is hot sausage and cheese puffs which he makes for appetizers. A biscuit baking mix is used and the recipe makes 120 bite-size puffs. They can e frozen in plastic bags and reheated by placing them in single layers on cookie sheets and baking for 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

Mrs. Bernier's husband also likes to cook spaghetti sauce. The recipe came from an elderly Italian lady in Hartford who gave the recipe to Bernier's outdoors. He takes charge of the barbecuing in the nice weather and Jenny is the salad maker and vegetable cook. "They're all fairly creative," Mrs. Bernier said.

Mrs. Bernier's recipe for Pilgrim Bread is a mixture of several flours. "In other words, you empty out your cabinets - and it makes the best toast," she said. Although it's a yeast bread it doesn't take all Mrs. Bernier's recipes for savory oven pot roast and flounder in lemony dill sauce will make you want to go right out and shop for the ingredients. She said that any white fish, fresh or frozen, can be used instead of the flounder. Any of these recipes topped off by the delicious banana split cake will keep your family home

> Banana Split Cake 2 cups crushed vanilla wafers 6 tablespoons melted butter (or margarine)

2 eggs 1 stick butter (or margarine) 1 teaspoon vanilla 2 cups confectioner's sugar 5 or 6 ripe bananas 61/2 ounces crushed pineapp (drained) Cherries Combine the crumbs with melted butter and pat into bottom of 13 x 9-inch pan. Mix eggs and Young Peter is a Boy Scout so he has learned a lot about cooking butter and whip until fluffy and smooth. Spread mixture over wafers. Slice bananas and place in ture. Sprinkle pineapple over bananas. Spread whipped topping on top and garnish with chopped nuts and cherries. Refrigerate overnight.

Pilgrim Bread one-third cup packed brown sugar

1 tablespoon salt 2 cups boiling water 4 cup cooking oil 1/2 cup warm water (110 degrees)
1/4 cup whole wheat flour 1/2 cup rye flour 41/4 to 41/2 cups unbleached (white flour)

Thoroughly combine cornmeal. brown sugar, salt and stir gradually into boiling water. Stir in oil cool for 30 minutes. Soften yeast in the warm water; stir into cornmeal mixture. Add whole wheat and rye flours and mix well. Add enough white flour to make a moderately stiff dough. Knead until smooth and elastic, about 6 or 8 minutes. Shape into ball. Place in lightly greased bowl, turning once to grease surface. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled Punch dough down, divide in half and cover and let rest 10 minutes. Shape the dough into two loaves and place in two greased 9x5x3 loaf pans. Cover and let rise until almost double, about 30 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees about 45 minutes. Cover loosely with foil after 25 minutes if bread browns

3 tablespoons butter (or margarine) l tablespoon chopped fresh dill (or ¼ teaspoon dill weed) ¼ teaspoon tarragon

In 10-inch skillet, heat butter or margarine, dill weed, tarragon, Stir occasionally until hot. Cut flounder into serving pieces. Add flounder to butter mixture in skillet, cover and cook for 8 to 10

Toast greening of Spring with tantalizing mint julep

For me, the Kentucky Derby, the greening of the country and the establishment of spring on a solid footing always bring forth tantalizing images of a mint julep. My wonderful friend Mary Hamblet, whom I have known for The good news...

Manchester Honda now has a limited number of new Honda cars available for immediate delivery.

The bad news.

With the fantastic demand for Honda automobiles, they won't last long.

Honda's sporty features, dependable performance, fantastic gas mileage, and low, low prices have made them the most "in demand" car of the nineteen eighties, bar none! Manchester Honda has a selection of Honda Accord's & Civic's in stock and more on their way. Prices on new Honda Civics start as low as $5327 delivered. (Title and taxes extra, of course.) But we repeat, he who hesitates is lost, so drive ... take a cab ... walk ... or hitchhike to Manchester Honda. Then drive home in a new Honda
