

SCOREBOARD

Basketball

NBA standings		Eastern Conference		Western Conference
Team	W-L	Team	W-L	Team	W-L
Boston	14-3	Philadelphia	12-6	San Antonio	9-5
New York	12-5	New Jersey	12-6	Golden State	8-7
Washington	12-5	Washington	12-6	Portland	8-7
Denver	11-6	Chicago	11-6	Phoenix	7-11
Atlanta	11-6	Los Angeles	11-6	Utah	7-11
San Antonio	10-7	San Antonio	10-7	Los Angeles	7-11
Phoenix	10-7	Phoenix	10-7	San Antonio	7-11
Los Angeles	10-7	Los Angeles	10-7	Phoenix	7-11
San Antonio	10-7	San Antonio	10-7	Phoenix	7-11

Big East Conference		Midwest Division
Team	W-L	Team	W-L
Syracuse	14-3	San Antonio	9-5
Providence	12-5	Golden State	8-7
St. John's	12-5	Portland	8-7
Yale	12-5	Phoenix	7-11
Connecticut	12-5	Utah	7-11
Seton Hall	12-5	Los Angeles	7-11
Boston College	12-5	San Antonio	7-11

Friday's Results		Saturday's Games
Team	Score	Team	Score
North Carolina	79-70	UConn	64-64
UConn	64-64	UConn	64-64

Big East Results
Team	Score
North Carolina	79-70
UConn	64-64

NBA Results
Team	Score
Los Angeles	103-93
San Antonio	103-93

Sonic's 105, Heat 103
Team	Score
Sonic's	105-103
Heat	103-105

Lakers 83, Wolves 73
Team	Score
Lakers	83-73
Wolves	73-83

Pitt 105, Marshall 75
Team	Score
Pitt	105-75
Marshall	75-105

Rockets 116, Hornets 110
Team	Score
Rockets	116-110
Hornets	110-116

Kings 104, Bulls 86
Team	Score
Kings	104-86
Bulls	86-104

College hoop scores
Team	Score
UConn	64-64
UConn	64-64

Radio, TV
Time	Program
7:30 p.m.	Golf: Szalaz Champion-ESP
8 p.m.	Golf: Knapplai Seniors Classic, ESPN
7:30 p.m.	Whaters at Sabres, SportsChannel, WHAT
8 p.m.	Celtics at Mavericks, Channel 18, TNT, WDRC (3:30 AM)
8 p.m.	Skating: U.S. Men's Pro Tour (appet), ESPN
8:30 p.m.	Knicks at Bulls, WFAN (6:00 AM)
9 p.m.	Motorsports: NASCAR Winston Cup Awards Banquet, ESPN

Football

NFL standings

American Conference		National Conference
Team	W-L	Team	W-L
Buffalo	10-2	Chicago	7-5
Baltimore	9-3	Indianapolis	7-5
Pittsburgh	7-5	San Diego	7-5
New England	7-5	Denver	7-5

Hockey

NHL standings

Patrick Division		Norris Division
Team	W-L	Team	W-L
NY Rangers	17-10	Chicago	16-11
New Jersey	15-10	St. Louis	15-10
Philadelphia	15-10	Edmonton	15-10
Pittsburgh	14-12	Los Angeles	14-12

Baseball

Senior baseball standings

Team	W-L
San Francisco	43-9
Washington	42-10
Philadelphia	41-11
San Diego	41-11

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Baseball

Transactions

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

Manly

SATURDAY FEATURES INSIDE

- TV listings grids /Pages 12,13
- Social and Seniors news /Page 5
- Religion update /Page 6
- Children's games /Page 6
- Reader's forum /Page 4

Your Hometown Newspaper

Iraq deploys more troops

By ED BLANCHARD
The Associated Press

NICOSIA, Cyprus — Saddam Hussein has deployed some of the seven new army divisions he said he was forming to reinforce his troops in and near Kuwait. Arab sources said Friday.

Also Friday, Iraq's Defense Ministry ordered all reservist farmers to report to their military units starting Dec. 17, it said those who don't will be listed as deserters and risk execution.

The announcement on state radio came as U.S. military officials reported a steady buildup of Iraqi troops in occupied Kuwait.

The developments indicated Saddam has no plans to relinquish his 14.5 million troops in Kuwait, Iraq and Iraq's occupied Kuwait. The army has no plans to relinquish his 14.5 million troops in Kuwait, Iraq and Iraq's occupied Kuwait.

Center Springs bond OK'd

By RICK SANTOS
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — The State Bonding Commission on Thursday approved a $250,000 bond issue for the revitalization of Center Springs Pond.

The bond, which at one time was a popular spot for ice skating and fishing, currently is not used for such recreational activities because of the sediment in the pond. The intent of cleaning up the pond is to make those activities possible again.

The issue had been highly controversial with town Republicans denouncing the project as pork barrel politics, and a wasteful show of power by state Sen. Michael P. Morone, D-Glastonbury. The plan for revitalization by Meoli, whose district includes Manchester, was centered on the consideration of the bond proposal.

The bonds will provide a grant to the town through the state Department of Environmental Protection. The grant would be used to pay for a study to determine the best way to clean the pond, design work for the project, and the labor to clean the pond.

In general, the work will involve the removal of sediment from the pond, the disposal of the sediment, and the labor to clean the pond.

Trash pick-up changes opposed

By ALEX GIRELLI
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — Proposed changes in trash collection for apartments and condominiums may meet some opposition, according to a report by the town public works director. A public hearing on the changes will be held by the Board of Directors Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the hearing room of Lincoln Center.

Public Works Director Peter Louis has reported to the directors on comments made at a meeting town officials held Tuesday with apartment owners and condominium associations.

The changes that apartments and condominiums may meet some opposition, according to a report by the town public works director. A public hearing on the changes will be held by the Board of Directors Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the hearing room of Lincoln Center.

Overdue offenders get a break for a price: mittens

By BRIAN M. TROTTA
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — No more will you have to fear that the copy of Jackie Collins' "Holloway" will be in your hands. There is a new way to get your mittens. You can buy them for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price.

Grandparents go back to school—as teachers

By DIANNA M. TALBOT
Herald Features Editor

MANCHESTER — Local educators and parents who want more for their children at school are all supporting town resident Rose Jackson in her quest to create a Bow's School Grandparents Club, the first of its kind in the local school system.

The club will allow volunteers to help support school staff in positions, such as a library aide, reading, writing, storytelling, math and games. Or, they can help support school staff in positions, such as a library aide, reading, writing, storytelling, math and games.

Enola Gay log fails to sell

By DIANNA M. TALBOT
Herald Features Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — A log chronicling the B-29 mission that dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima did not sell at auction Friday after Christie's announced it could not guarantee it was the original record kept by the navigator.

Auctioneer Stephen Massey opened bidding at $40,000, saying the auction house did not doubt the authenticity of the log. "There may be an authentic document," Massey said after the sale.

Inside Today...

Bubble Gum	6
Classified	14-16
Comics	10
Lottery	2
People	2
Obituaries	2
Opinion	4
People	2
Religion	6
Sports	9-11, 14
Local	5
Television	12-13
Weather	2

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Manly

Your Hometown Newspaper

Iraq deploys more troops

By ED BLANCHARD
The Associated Press

NICOSIA, Cyprus — Saddam Hussein has deployed some of the seven new army divisions he said he was forming to reinforce his troops in and near Kuwait. Arab sources said Friday.

Also Friday, Iraq's Defense Ministry ordered all reservist farmers to report to their military units starting Dec. 17, it said those who don't will be listed as deserters and risk execution.

The announcement on state radio came as U.S. military officials reported a steady buildup of Iraqi troops in occupied Kuwait.

The developments indicated Saddam has no plans to relinquish his 14.5 million troops in Kuwait, Iraq and Iraq's occupied Kuwait. The army has no plans to relinquish his 14.5 million troops in Kuwait, Iraq and Iraq's occupied Kuwait.

Center Springs bond OK'd

By RICK SANTOS
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — The State Bonding Commission on Thursday approved a $250,000 bond issue for the revitalization of Center Springs Pond.

The bond, which at one time was a popular spot for ice skating and fishing, currently is not used for such recreational activities because of the sediment in the pond. The intent of cleaning up the pond is to make those activities possible again.

The issue had been highly controversial with town Republicans denouncing the project as pork barrel politics, and a wasteful show of power by state Sen. Michael P. Morone, D-Glastonbury. The plan for revitalization by Meoli, whose district includes Manchester, was centered on the consideration of the bond proposal.

The bonds will provide a grant to the town through the state Department of Environmental Protection. The grant would be used to pay for a study to determine the best way to clean the pond, design work for the project, and the labor to clean the pond.

In general, the work will involve the removal of sediment from the pond, the disposal of the sediment, and the labor to clean the pond.

Trash pick-up changes opposed

By ALEX GIRELLI
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — Proposed changes in trash collection for apartments and condominiums may meet some opposition, according to a report by the town public works director. A public hearing on the changes will be held by the Board of Directors Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the hearing room of Lincoln Center.

Public Works Director Peter Louis has reported to the directors on comments made at a meeting town officials held Tuesday with apartment owners and condominium associations.

The changes that apartments and condominiums may meet some opposition, according to a report by the town public works director. A public hearing on the changes will be held by the Board of Directors Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the hearing room of Lincoln Center.

Overdue offenders get a break for a price: mittens

By BRIAN M. TROTTA
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — No more will you have to fear that the copy of Jackie Collins' "Holloway" will be in your hands. There is a new way to get your mittens. You can buy them for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price.

Grandparents go back to school—as teachers

By DIANNA M. TALBOT
Herald Features Editor

MANCHESTER — Local educators and parents who want more for their children at school are all supporting town resident Rose Jackson in her quest to create a Bow's School Grandparents Club, the first of its kind in the local school system.

The club will allow volunteers to help support school staff in positions, such as a library aide, reading, writing, storytelling, math and games. Or, they can help support school staff in positions, such as a library aide, reading, writing, storytelling, math and games.

Enola Gay log fails to sell

By DIANNA M. TALBOT
Herald Features Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — A log chronicling the B-29 mission that dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima did not sell at auction Friday after Christie's announced it could not guarantee it was the original record kept by the navigator.

Auctioneer Stephen Massey opened bidding at $40,000, saying the auction house did not doubt the authenticity of the log. "There may be an authentic document," Massey said after the sale.

Inside Today...

Bubble Gum	6
Classified	14-16
Comics	10
Lottery	2
People	2
Obituaries	2
Opinion	4
People	2
Religion	6
Sports	9-11, 14
Local	5
Television	12-13
Weather	2

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

DETECTIVE

Your Hometown Newspaper

Iraq deploys more troops

By ED BLANCHARD
The Associated Press

NICOSIA, Cyprus — Saddam Hussein has deployed some of the seven new army divisions he said he was forming to reinforce his troops in and near Kuwait. Arab sources said Friday.

Also Friday, Iraq's Defense Ministry ordered all reservist farmers to report to their military units starting Dec. 17, it said those who don't will be listed as deserters and risk execution.

The announcement on state radio came as U.S. military officials reported a steady buildup of Iraqi troops in occupied Kuwait.

The developments indicated Saddam has no plans to relinquish his 14.5 million troops in Kuwait, Iraq and Iraq's occupied Kuwait. The army has no plans to relinquish his 14.5 million troops in Kuwait, Iraq and Iraq's occupied Kuwait.

Center Springs bond OK'd

By RICK SANTOS
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — The State Bonding Commission on Thursday approved a $250,000 bond issue for the revitalization of Center Springs Pond.

The bond, which at one time was a popular spot for ice skating and fishing, currently is not used for such recreational activities because of the sediment in the pond. The intent of cleaning up the pond is to make those activities possible again.

The issue had been highly controversial with town Republicans denouncing the project as pork barrel politics, and a wasteful show of power by state Sen. Michael P. Morone, D-Glastonbury. The plan for revitalization by Meoli, whose district includes Manchester, was centered on the consideration of the bond proposal.

The bonds will provide a grant to the town through the state Department of Environmental Protection. The grant would be used to pay for a study to determine the best way to clean the pond, design work for the project, and the labor to clean the pond.

In general, the work will involve the removal of sediment from the pond, the disposal of the sediment, and the labor to clean the pond.

Trash pick-up changes opposed

By ALEX GIRELLI
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — Proposed changes in trash collection for apartments and condominiums may meet some opposition, according to a report by the town public works director. A public hearing on the changes will be held by the Board of Directors Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the hearing room of Lincoln Center.

Public Works Director Peter Louis has reported to the directors on comments made at a meeting town officials held Tuesday with apartment owners and condominium associations.

The changes that apartments and condominiums may meet some opposition, according to a report by the town public works director. A public hearing on the changes will be held by the Board of Directors Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the hearing room of Lincoln Center.

Overdue offenders get a break for a price: mittens

By BRIAN M. TROTTA
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — No more will you have to fear that the copy of Jackie Collins' "Holloway" will be in your hands. There is a new way to get your mittens. You can buy them for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price. Mittens are being sold for a price.

Grandparents go back to school—as teachers

By DIANNA M. TALBOT
Herald Features Editor

MANCHESTER — Local educators and parents who want more for their children at school are all supporting town resident Rose Jackson in her quest to create a Bow's School Grandparents Club, the first of its kind in the local school system.

The club will allow volunteers to help support school staff in positions, such as a library aide, reading, writing, storytelling, math and games. Or, they can help support school staff in positions, such as a library aide, reading, writing, storytelling, math and games.

Enola Gay log fails to sell

By DIANNA M. TALBOT
Herald Features Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — A log chronicling the B-29 mission that dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima did not sell at auction Friday after Christie's announced it could not guarantee it was the original record kept by the navigator.

Auctioneer Stephen Massey opened bidding at $40,000, saying the auction house did not doubt the authenticity of the log. "There may be an authentic document," Massey said after the sale.

Inside Today...

Bubble Gum	6
Classified	14-16
Comics	10
Lottery	2
People	2
Obituaries	2
Opinion	4
People	2
Religion	6
Sports	9-11, 14
Local	5
Television	12-13
Weather	2

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

Family Fun — Bowes School Grandparents Club member William Simmons holds his granddaughter, Kate Simmons, 8, as he watches his grandson, Jeff Simmons, 11, type words into a school computer.

FOCUS

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

Mom's objection may ruin wedding

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to be married in the spring. I am 31 years old and my future husband is 30. We both have successful careers and are responsible adults. After much thought and discussion, we decided to live together after we became engaged.

The problem is my mother. She strongly disapproves of our living together for religious reasons. She has taken no interest in our wedding plans — in fact, she hardly speaks to us. She says she will attend our wedding, but I am worried that she may show her disapproval at our wedding. Abby, this should be a happy occasion, but I feel she is ruining it for us.

I respect her beliefs, but as an adult I'm quite capable of making my own decisions. I am fully aware that I am accountable for my actions. How can I make peace with my mother and still lead my own life?

DEAR BRIDE-TO-BE: I can relate to when your mother is coming from because she and I were brought up in the same school of morality. However, her obvious disapproval of our wedding plans, plus her "hardly speaking" to you and your fiancé, is her way of punishing you, which is childish and mean-spirited.

Have a private talk with her and let her know that you are aware of how she feels, but it would be so much more pleasant for all concerned if she could find it in her heart to be a little more tolerant and a little less condemning. Perhaps giving her the opportunity to talk to you and verbalize her anger and disapproval privately, she'll no longer feel the need to give you the cold, silent treatment in public.

DEAR ABBY: I'm another man who enjoys working in the kitchen with nothing on. I also do the back-yard gardening and watering in my birthday suit.

The hubby of "Bathed in Vaseline" is smart; he learned the freedom of not wearing clothes at 49. I'm 65, and my wife is thankful that supper is ready when she gets home from work.

DEAR NAKED: Suit (or unsuit) yourself. But if you fry bacon in the buff, be sure to wear an apron.

By popular request, Abby shares more of her favorite prize-winning, easy-to-prepare recipes. To order, send a long, business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: More Favorite Recipes by Dear Abby, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

RECORD

Honor Roll

The following is a list of Assumption School students who received "Honors" in the first trimester:

"A" Honors
Grade 6: Anita Pereira, Anne Salamon.
Grade 7: Stephen LaMontagne, Jennifer Toller.
"B" Honors
Grade 5: Ana Marie Arizabal, Allison Pangilinan.
Grade 6: Gregory Damato, Peter Grady.
Grade 7: Christopher Langelier, Melissa Nadeau, Michael Stenkowski.
Grade 8: Michael Hartnett, Timothy Owen.

Lottery

Here are Friday's lottery results from around New England:

Connecticut
Daily: 7-4-9. Play Four: 5-0-2-3. Lotto: 0-18-20-33-38-44.

Massachusetts
Daily: 6-6-5-3. Mass Millions: 2-14-23-29-37-43. Bonus Number: 24.

Northern New England
Pick Three: 2-9-4. Pick Four: 5-5-1-7. New Hampshire Lotto: 3-5-7-11-19-33. Vermont Lotto: 6-9-20-21-22-25.

Rhode Island
Daily: 7-4-5-1.

Weather

REGIONAL Weather
Saturday, Dec. 8

Absolutely clear; forecast for daytime conditions and high temperatures.

Weather summary for Friday, Dec. 7, 1990:
Temperature: high of 44 at 1:30 p.m., low of 30 at 5:30 a.m.
Precipitation: none.

PEOPLE

Lawyers in the murder case against Marlon Brando's son told a judge Friday that the prosecutors' star witness — the actor's daughter — was ruled mentally incompetent by a court in Tahiti.

Prosecutors pressed on with efforts to get her testimony.

Superior Court Judge Joel Rudolf tentatively ruled that he would issue an international document requesting French assistance in returning Cheyenne Brando to the United States to testify in her brother's trial. But Rudolf didn't make that ruling final and gave lawyers until Dec. 19 to file documents on the issue.

Christian Brando, 33, is charged with first-degree murder in the shooting of his sister's Tahitian lover, 26-year-old Dag Drollet, at Marlon Brando's mansion May 16.

Later in the day, Christian Brando's lawyer appeared in court without his client and said he was unaware the defendant had been ordered to appear for trial setting.

Superior Court Judge Robert Thomas, who was to preside at the murder trial, ordered Christian Brando to be in court Tuesday for the setting of a new trial date. He said he was tentatively planning to start the trial Jan. 14.

Outside court, defense lawyer Robert Shapiro reiterated that he is eager to settle the case without a trial, but indicated there has been no progress in that direction.

A rucker used by Barbara Bush fetched $60 at a charity auction. A chair once used by Madonna got $225. And an orange plastic stadium seat once thrown by Indiana University basketball coach Bob Knight sold for $150.

Thursday night's celebrity furniture auction raised $5,085 for the non-profit Greater Chicago Food Depository, which distributes 20 million pounds of food a year to 500 soup kitchens, pantries and shelters in northeast Illinois and northwest Indiana.

"I was amazed, I didn't think we'd do so well," said auctioneer Leslie Hindman, who held the event in a fifth-floor gallery of her downtown Antique Center. "You can never tell how it will go with a charity auction."

Actress Joan Collins says she wants people to see her play roles other than "the glamorous vixen type," so she's filming eight Noel Coward comedies for British television.

Collins is best known for playing the decidedly vixenish Alexis Carrington Colby on the TV series "Dynasty." She currently is starring in a London stage production of Coward's "Private Lives."

"I don't always want to be perceived as the glamorous vixen type," Collins said.

The television project, entitled "Tonight At 8:30," will begin airing in April on the British Broadcasting Corp., Collins told reporters Friday.

The new series will cast her in roles that range from a fading music hall star to an elegant femme fatale.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would the daily aspirin I take for arthritis cause my fingernails to become soft and break off?

DEAR READER: To my knowledge, brittle fingernails are not caused by aspirin. More likely, some external factor — such as prolonged hand exposure to moisture or cleaning agents — is the cause. See a dermatologist for advice and treatment. Because arthritis can be extremely painful, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3699. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would the daily aspirin I take for arthritis cause my fingernails to become soft and break off?

DEAR READER: To my knowledge, brittle fingernails are not caused by aspirin. More likely, some external factor — such as prolonged hand exposure to moisture or cleaning agents — is the cause. See a dermatologist for advice and treatment. Because arthritis can be extremely painful, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3699. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

Dr. Peter Gott, M.D.

Dr. Gott

Drugs, surgery help thrombosis

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would the daily aspirin I take for arthritis cause my fingernails to become soft and break off?

DEAR READER: To my knowledge, brittle fingernails are not caused by aspirin. More likely, some external factor — such as prolonged hand exposure to moisture or cleaning agents — is the cause. See a dermatologist for advice and treatment. Because arthritis can be extremely painful, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3699. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would the daily aspirin I take for arthritis cause my fingernails to become soft and break off?

DEAR READER: To my knowledge, brittle fingernails are not caused by aspirin. More likely, some external factor — such as prolonged hand exposure to moisture or cleaning agents — is the cause. See a dermatologist for advice and treatment. Because arthritis can be extremely painful, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3699. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

Drugs, surgery help thrombosis

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would the daily aspirin I take for arthritis cause my fingernails to become soft and break off?

DEAR READER: To my knowledge, brittle fingernails are not caused by aspirin. More likely, some external factor — such as prolonged hand exposure to moisture or cleaning agents — is the cause. See a dermatologist for advice and treatment. Because arthritis can be extremely painful, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3699. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

DEAR DR. GOTT: Would the daily aspirin I take for arthritis cause my fingernails to become soft and break off?

DEAR READER: To my knowledge, brittle fingernails are not caused by aspirin. More likely, some external factor — such as prolonged hand exposure to moisture or cleaning agents — is the cause. See a dermatologist for advice and treatment. Because arthritis can be extremely painful, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Managing Chronic Pain." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their names and addresses to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3699. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Can you enlighten me regarding deep venous thrombosis — the causes and possible prevention?

DEAR READER: Blood returns to the heart through a low-pressure system of veins, some of which are visible (superficial veins) and some of which are deep in the extremities and in the pelvis.

If blood flow in these veins slows appreciably, blood clots may form (thrombosis). Clots in the superficial veins are unusual and rarely cause harm: A vein may swell and become tender and hard, but no serious complication will ensue.

In contrast, thrombosis in a deep vein should not be ignored because pieces of that clot can break off and be carried in the bloodstream back to the heart and lungs where it can lead to tissue damage and, in some cases, death. Deep venous thrombosis is common in the legs, where it causes pain and swelling. The affliction is related to a host of factors, including varicose veins, pregnancy (because the enlarging uterus impedes venous blood flow), birth control pills, pelvic infection and prolonged immobility (which slows blood circulation). The diagnosis is confirmed by Doppler ultrasound, a test of the veins using electromagnetic waves.

Prevention involves leg elevation (to assist venous circulation), moderate exercise, avoidance of prolonged standing (and sitting with legs crossed), treatment of infection (if needed), elastic support hose (for varicose veins), alternate methods of birth control and rapid mobilization after surgery, to mention a few.

Treatment consists of anticoagulant drugs (such as Coumadin) and surgery (to remove dilated veins that repeatedly become thrombosed).

State approves $114M in bonds

By DENISE LAVOIE
The Associated Press

HARTFORD — The State Bond Commission Friday approved spending $114 million for capital projects dear to towns around the state, but not before an outgoing commission member criticized Gov. William A. O'Neill for squeezing in expensive projects before he leaves office.

State Sen. James Seamus R. Woodbury, called several of the projects "pure pork" that go to "favorite sons" in the General Assembly.

McLaughlin did not directly criticize O'Neill during the commission meeting, but said later O'Neill was shirking his responsibility by quietly approving the projects while the state is grappling with a projected $2.1 billion budget deficit.

The time has come when we've got to have some discipline coming from somewhere," McLaughlin said.

McLaughlin said he believed O'Neill was attempting to get money for a flood of local projects before he turns over state bonding control to Gov.-elect Lowell P. Weicker Jr. in January.

O'Neill said all of the projects had already been approved by both houses of the General Assembly and that any opposition should have been voiced during the legislative debate.

McLaughlin, however, said the large amount of bonding in the package has become a "rubber stamp," when it once functioned as place where "pork was eliminated."

"Frankly, the governor is passing the buck," McLaughlin said.

O'Neill called McLaughlin's claim unfounded, saying that much of the money will be spent on construction projects that will stimulate the economy.

"That's what a lot of those dollars spent today went out for, which means employment," O'Neill said.

McLaughlin targeted several projects, including $39 million for fire station improvements in West Haven, Enfield and Milford and police station improvements in New Haven; $2.8 million for repairs and renovations to Quigley Stadium and various other public works projects in West Haven, Hartford, and Manchester; and $1 million for recreational facilities in Ansonia.

Despite McLaughlin's objections, the commission approved all of the projects, with little discussion.

The General Assembly each year authorizes bonding, or borrowing, for millions of dollars worth of capital improvements projects. The 11-member commission allocates the money for release to municipalities, state agencies and non-profit groups.

O'Neill as governor and chairman of the commission, is the only member who can choose which projects among the hundreds that are eligible actually make the commission's agenda.

McLaughlin on Thursday said the large amount of bonding in the package was excessive.

HARTFORD — State Rep. Irving J. Stolberg said Friday he is not ruling out a potential overthrow of Democratic House Speaker Richard J. Balducci, but acknowledged that a plan to install a Republican in his place is a longshot.

Stolberg, a political firestorm earlier this week when it was revealed that he had talked to House Republicans about mustering support for a Republican speaker for the two-year legislative session that begins Jan. 9.

He said the discussion with House Minority Leader-elect Edward C. Krawiński, R-Bristol, focused on replacing Balducci with state Rep. Richard O. Belden, a Republican from Shelton.

Balducci also said installing a Republican in the powerful speaker's chair with a Democratic-controlled General Assembly "would be chaos" as lawmakers grapple with a projected state budget deficit of $2.1 billion.

Outgoing Democratic Gov. William A. O'Neill said such a power structure could create problems, particularly if the committee chairmanships were also changed by a Republican speaker.

Stolberg, who was dumped from the speaker's chair two years ago in a starting coup that gave Balducci the job, insisted at a morning news conference that he is no longer bitter and is not plotting revenge against Balducci.

"The fact is, that the Democratic caucus has endorsed Representative Balducci, and it would be very difficult for me, unless there were overriding public interests, to go against my own caucus," said Stolberg.

Stolberg said he does not believe such a plan today has the minimum of 15 Democratic votes needed to help the 61-member House Republican caucus elect Belden, and is not sure it's possible to muster such support before the next session convenes in January.

Balducci, earlier this week characterized the alleged overthrow plot as rumor, but said he was taking it seriously. Following Stolberg's news conference Friday, he said he plans to talk to leading House Democrats as well as Republicans about the potential coup.

"At this point, I don't think I have to lobby for votes, but I am not taking this lightly," Balducci said. "You never like to feel overconfident and I'm not overconfident, but I'd like to feel reasonably assured that that (overthrow) won't happen."

Balducci also said installing a Republican in the powerful speaker's chair with a Democratic-controlled General Assembly "would be chaos" as lawmakers grapple with a projected state budget deficit of $2.1 billion.

Outgoing Democratic Gov. William A. O'Neill said such a power structure could create problems, particularly if the committee chairmanships were also changed by a Republican speaker.

Stolberg seeks to oust Balducci

By DENISE LAVOIE
The Associated Press

HARTFORD — State Rep. Irving J. Stolberg said Friday he is not ruling out a potential overthrow of Democratic House Speaker Richard J. Balducci, but acknowledged that a plan to install a Republican in his place is a longshot.

Stolberg, a political firestorm earlier this week when it was revealed that he had talked to House Republicans about mustering support for a Republican speaker for the two-year legislative session that begins Jan. 9.

He said the discussion with House Minority Leader-elect Edward C. Krawiński, R-Bristol, focused on replacing Balducci with state Rep. Richard O. Belden, a Republican from Shelton.

Balducci also said installing a Republican in the powerful speaker's chair with a Democratic-controlled General Assembly "would be chaos" as lawmakers grapple with a projected state budget deficit of $2.1 billion.

Outgoing Democratic Gov. William A. O'Neill said such a power structure could create problems, particularly if the committee chairmanships were also changed by a Republican speaker.

Stolberg, who was dumped from the speaker's chair two years ago in a starting coup that gave Balducci the job, insisted at a morning news conference that he is no longer bitter and is not plotting revenge against Balducci.

"The fact is, that the Democratic caucus has endorsed Representative Balducci, and it would be very difficult for me, unless there were overriding public interests, to go against my own caucus," said Stolberg.

Stolberg said he does not believe such a plan today has the minimum of 15 Democratic votes needed to help the 61-member House Republican caucus elect Belden, and is not sure it's possible to muster such support before the next session convenes in January.

Balducci, earlier this week characterized the alleged overthrow plot as rumor, but said he was taking it seriously. Following Stolberg's news conference Friday, he said he plans to talk to leading House Democrats as well as Republicans about the potential coup.

"At this point, I don't think I have to lobby for votes, but I am not taking this lightly," Balducci said. "You never like to feel overconfident and I'm not overconfident, but I'd like to feel reasonably assured that that (overthrow) won't happen."

Balducci also said installing a Republican in the powerful speaker's chair with a Democratic-controlled General Assembly "would be chaos" as lawmakers grapple with a projected state budget deficit of $2.1 billion.

Outgoing Democratic Gov. William A. O'Neill said such a power structure could create problems, particularly if the committee chairmanships were also changed by a Republican speaker.

Stolberg, who was dumped from the speaker's chair two years ago in a starting coup that gave Balducci the job, insisted at a morning news conference that he is no longer bitter and is not plotting revenge against Balducci.

"The fact is, that the Democratic caucus has endorsed Representative Balducci, and it would be very difficult for me, unless there were overriding public interests, to go against my own caucus," said Stolberg.

Stolberg said he does not believe such a plan today has the minimum of 15 Democratic votes needed to help the 61-member House Republican caucus elect Belden, and is not sure it's possible to muster

OPINION

Waiting for the hostages

By BARRY SCHWEID
The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Given Saddam Hussein's record, the Bush administration is offering a subdued response to Baghdad's surprise announcement that all 900 Americans held in Iraq and Kuwait will be freed.

The hostages' release is one of the three principal U.S. demands made of the Iraqi president since his lightning takeover of Kuwait in August. President Bush and Secretary of State James A. Baker III still insist on fulfillment of the other two — a total withdrawal and restoration of the overthrown Kuwaiti government.

Freeing the hostages, including 88 held as human shields at strategic locations, could serve Saddam's purposes by contributing to the rising opposition among Congress and the public to a use of military force.

With the Iraqi leader capitulating to one demand, why not wait for the worldwide trade embargo and other economic sanctions to squeeze Saddam into giving up Kuwait?

But before that argument can get very far, the American hostages have to be freed. And they are not out yet.

The State Department, through broadcasts on the Voice of America, advised the Americans to remain where they were until arrangements are made for their rescue.

The Iraqi ambassador, Mohamed Sadiq Al-Mashat, said he expected the release within days.

In a televised interview today, he said Iraqi officials are arranging for flights and exit visas for the hostages. "We are speeding the process of their departure," Al-Mashat said on ABC-TV's "Good Morning America."

The envoy said Iraq was willing to release the hostages because "there is more hope for peace" and because of planned talks with U.S. officials. He said Iraq was expecting "absolutely nothing" in return.

An additional 2,250 U.S. citizens and foreign-born family members have been allowed to leave since the takeover of Kuwait, so it may simply be a matter of making arrangements over a few days before the 900 are liberated.

And yet, the hostages are an extremely valuable bargaining chip, especially those being used as human shields to deter U.S. attack.

Administration officials have denounced their detention — and the sporadic release of other Americans — as a cruel manipulation of people and their families.

Bush has said many times that in deciding whether to attack Iraq or take other actions to liberate Kuwait, he would not be held hostage to Saddam's hostage policy.

Even so, it would be difficult to imagine the president ordering an assault on an installation where Americans were held prisoner.

Throughout the five-month crisis U.S. hopes have been boosted and dashed by various statements from Iraq.

Early on, there were pledges to leave Kuwait if the United States promised not to attack, but Kuwait remains under Iraqi occupation.

U.S. diplomats eager to visit American hostages were told it was only a matter of making proper arrangements. But they applied and were denied access anyway.

"Mercenary" is a clichéd adjective commonly applied to Saddam. Another is "unpredictable."

He fought a bloody war with Iran for eight years and then suddenly relinquished all his territorial gains and agreed to a cease-fire.

Saddam appeared to be moderating his policies, including the Reagan and Bush administrations to be a little friendlier. And then, with dramatic suddenness, came the Aug. 2 blitzkrieg invasion of Kuwait.

Bush welcomed the announcement Thursday that the hostages would be released. But he said the United States must not let its war footing in the Persian Gulf slip. "We've got to continue to keep the pressure on," he said while traveling in South America.

Hopeful but cautious, Bush also cited the easing of Iraq's pressure on the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait and said "it seems to be a little movement here, a little movement there."

But the president and others in the administration are not chering yet.

Despite defeats, pols prosper

By BOB CONRAD

Two of the prominent casualties in the recent state election will have the last laugh when they collect their paychecks in the new year for jobs that came along after those losses — but that is only part of the story.

William Cibes, the New London Democratic legislator who wanted to be governor, will probably be making more than his boss, Gov. Lowell Weicker, when he reports as the state's new budget chief.

Robert Jaekle, the Stratford Republican and House minority leader who ran for lieutenant governor, will be making nearly twice what that job pays when he goes to work as U.S. attorney for Connecticut.

A salary for Cibes was set until he is closer to being confirmed as secretary of the Office of Policy and Management. It's unlikely, though, that he will start at the $90,000 which the outgoing secretary, Tony Milano of Bridgeport, receives. The guessing at this point pegs Cibes' pay in the $85,000 range. Not too shabby when you consider that the governor only makes $78,000.

If Jaekle had won the office he sought, lieutenant governor on a slate headed by GOP gubernatorial candidate John Rowland of Waterbury, Jaekle would have walked into the princely sum of $55,000 and been stuck with the hour-long each way commute from home in Stratford to the State Capitol year-round.

But Jaekle's White House appointment as U.S. attorney for this state is said to be a done deal, at an annual salary of $105,000. And he will be going to work in Bridgeport, right next to Stratford. He can do that on his bicycle.

Again, the fact that Cibes and Jaekle have landed on their feet after defeat at the polls (in Cibes' case, a party primary) and done so well in salary is only part of the story.

Both men have escaped the political Siberia that is often the fate of beaten candidates. They are not going to disappear. They are going into meaningful, challenging jobs that are benefiting their ability and style. Both are young enough, and you can believe it, that both will remain interested.

Jaekle is an attorney, but those of us who have known him at the State Capitol have always suspected that he'd rather stay involved in politics than practice law. His new job doesn't seem to head him in that direction, but he isn't exactly being "sentenced" to serve indefinitely as U.S. attorney either. Jaekle can easily scramble back to the partisan wars if the spirit moves him, or he may find what he wants in the judiciary.

A predecessor as House deputy minority leader and then U.S. attorney, former Westport legislator Alan Nevas, is now on the federal bench.

One of Cibes' liabilities when he sought the Democratic nomination for governor was that he had hardly any statewide name recognition. Another, of course, was his advocacy of an income tax. His new job as the governor's chief advisor on fiscal matters can make him or break him in both categories.

In my opinion, the strongest quality Cibes has going for him is his intellectual integrity. That will sustain him in a year when the fiscal nightmare which Connecticut faces would undo lesser men. Cibes is honest. He is bright. Whatever he says will be the product of reasoned thought processes. For this guy with a future, 1991 can be the opportunity he needs.

Most importantly for the public, whose interest should come before the personal agendas of political figures, the post-election developments involving Cibes and Jaekle mean that the state will have the continuing service of two exceptional guys instead of losing them to the accident of political misfortune. Just my opinion? Sure, but an educated one. The Plot was good company. Jaekle and Cibes were named the top two legislators by their colleagues this year in a Connecticut Magazine poll.

Saudis afraid of plot

By JACK ANDERSON
and DALE VAN ATTA

WASHINGTON — Is the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait the first step in a larger plot by Iraq, Yemen and Jordan to carve up Saudi Arabia and its oil among themselves? Saudi Arabian leaders firmly believe it's true, and that is the compelling reason behind their secret pressure on President Bush to get into a war soon and get it over quickly.

"The Plot," as the Saudis call it, is detailed in highly classified Central Intelligence Agency reports.

The Saudis believe the plan was for Iraq to take Kuwait and the northeastern oil fields of Saudi Arabia. Yemen would get a part of southern Saudi Arabia that the Yememites have long claimed as their rightful land. Jordan would regain the western Hijaz region including the holy cities of Mecca and Medina. That region was ruled by the ancestors of Jordan's King Hussein until the House of Saud booted them out.

The invaders would let the Saudis keep the middle region of the Arabian Peninsula where there is little oil or anything else of value.

Like all conspiracy theories, there are elements of truth to this one. Until U.S. forces moved in, Yemen was perfectly capable of taking a chunk out of Saudi Arabia. The Saudi army is slightly larger than Yemen's, but the Saudi troops are well equipped for their northern border with Iraq and Kuwait. Yemen, south of Saudi Arabia, could have expected a cakewalk if it invaded.

The Saudis have superior air force equipment to Yemen, but the CIA reports note that Iraq's Saddam Hussein sent a squadron of Iraqi MiG-13s to Yemen just before the invasion of Kuwait.

Since the invasion, Yemen and Jordan have leaned toward Saddam. Yemen abstained in U.N. Security Council resolutions condemning Iraq. Similar abstentions in Arab League meetings are interpreted by the Saudis not as neutrality, but as proof of "The Plot."

In mid-September, Saudi Arabia ordered Yemeni business owners in Saudi Arabia to find Saudi partners for their businesses, or leave the country. Since then, more than a million Yememites have sold their businesses and left Saudi Arabia.

The CIA reports say the Saudis believe that Yemen's reward for joining the Plot would have been the three southwestern provinces of Saudi Arabia that were part of Yemen until they were annexed by the Saudis in 1934.

One of those provinces, Najran, is rich in oil, which the impoverished Yemen desperately needs. The difference between the "haves" in Saudi Arabia and the "have nots" in Yemen is vast and has bred animosity between the two nations. The Saudi per capita income is more than 10 times that of Yemen. Saudi Arabia has a superior education system while as many as 90 percent of Yememites are reportedly illiterate.

Whether or not Yemen cut a deal to slice up Saudi Arabia is now moot with the presence of U.S. troops in the region. Now Yemen is asking the United Nations for $1.6 billion in compensation for abiding by the sanctions against its old friend Iraq. As long as Saudi Arabia believes the Plot was real, Yemen cannot count on the continued foreign aid it is getting from the Saudis.

The CIA does not know whether or not to believe "The Plot," but if President Bush gets desperate to rally support for a continued military presence in Saudi Arabia, stories of a larger conspiracy will come in handy.

It's not over yet.

Congressional Democratic leaders will try to force a new civil rights bill on President Bush next year. They have made a commitment to the Congressional Black Caucus. The Democrats are worried that unless Congress does something, the falling standard of living for minorities could rekindle class warfare.

Already polls show anger among blacks toward their government. One-fourth of the blacks in New York City believe the government promotes the sale of debilitating drugs among blacks. And one-third believe that the government singles out black officials for investigation as part of a deliberate campaign to discredit them.

SOCIAL

Anniversaries

Adams

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams of 15 S. Hawthorne St., observed their 50th wedding anniversary in November. They were married on Nov. 27 at St. Francis of Assisi Church in Braintree, Mass. They have been Connecticut residents for 50 years, 45 of them in Manchester.

He is retired from C. Fox & Co., a predecessor as House deputy minority leader and then U.S. attorney, former Westport legislator Alan Nevas, is now on the federal bench.

One of Cibes' liabilities when he sought the Democratic nomination for governor was that he had hardly any statewide name recognition. Another, of course, was his advocacy of an income tax. His new job as the governor's chief advisor on fiscal matters can make him or break him in both categories.

In my opinion, the strongest quality Cibes has going for him is his intellectual integrity. That will sustain him in a year when the fiscal nightmare which Connecticut faces would undo lesser men. Cibes is honest. He is bright. Whatever he says will be the product of reasoned thought processes. For this guy with a future, 1991 can be the opportunity he needs.

Most importantly for the public, whose interest should come before the personal agendas of political figures, the post-election developments involving Cibes and Jaekle mean that the state will have the continuing service of two exceptional guys instead of losing them to the accident of political misfortune. Just my opinion? Sure, but an educated one. The Plot was good company. Jaekle and Cibes were named the top two legislators by their colleagues this year in a Connecticut Magazine poll.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adams

Holly Adams of Ashford; Robert Adams of Ellington; and Kirk, Michelle and Tanner Raisor of LaCosta, Calif.

Peak

Patrick and Mary Peak of Manchester celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in November. About 100 friends and relatives honored them at a dinner and reception at The Colony Restaurant in Vernon.

The reception was hosted by their daughter, Julie Ann McAuley of Manchester, and their son and daughter-in-law, Jack and Susan Peak of Bolton.

They were joined by their grandson Brian McAuley and his wife Jill, their granddaughter Kelley McAuley and their grandsons Patrick and Matthew Peak.

They were married in Manchester on Oct. 2 by the Rev. William Dunn at St. James Church. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and was employed at Pratt & Whitney until his retirement in 1977. Mrs. Peak

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Peak

the former Mary Tierney, is a native of Manchester. She was employed in the office of Dr. Caldwell until her retirement in 1975. She is a member of the Ladies of St. James and both are communicants of St. James Church.

Suhr-Fortin

Robert and Marilyn Suhr of 512 W. Middle Turnpike, announce the engagement of their daughter Carol R. Suhr to Neil E. Fortin, son of Therese Fortin of South Windsor, and the late Wilfred Fortin.

The bride-elect is a 1981 graduate of Manchester High School and is currently attending Manchester Community College. She is employed by The Travelers Insurance Co., Hartford.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1983 graduate of South Windsor High School and a 1987 graduate of Samuel I. Ward College of Technology of the University of Hartford. He is employed by Otis Elevator of East Hartford.

Carol Suhr-Neil Fortin

A Sept. 7, 1991 wedding is planned at The Church of the Assumption.

Rataic-Huot

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Rataic Sr. of 18 Birch Mountain Road East, Bolton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Ellen Rataic, to Joseph Jean Huot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Huot of Plainville.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Syracuse University, Syracuse, N.Y. She is employed by ITT of Hartford.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Tuxis Community College, Farmington and is also employed by ITT.

An April 12, 1991 wedding is planned at St. Maurice Church, Bolton.

Janet Rataic-Joseph Huot

Weddings

Kneece-Castagna

Vicki Lynn Castagna, daughter of Pat and Carolyn Castagna of 54 Lamplighter Drive, and James Frank Kneece III, son of Susan Kneece of Danbury and J. Frank and Terry Kneece Jr. of Stamford, were married Sept. 8 at Center Congregational Church, Hartford.

The Rev. Newell H. Curtis Jr. officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Terri James, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Rebecca Castagna, Christine Olson, Paula Sendeck and Karen Sendeck.

Dean Edelman was best man. Ushers were Mark Kneece, Robert Castagna, Richard Kneece and Michael Castagna.

After a reception at Glastonbury Hills Country Club, the couple went on a wedding trip to Vermont. They are making their home in Bristol.

The bride is a graduate of Bentley College, Waltham, Mass., with a bachelor of science degree in management. She is employed by Bloomingdale's by Mail Ltd. as a training-performance management coordinator.

The bridegroom holds a bachelor of science degree in engineering from the University of Pennsylvania and a master of business administration degree in accounting from the University of Connecticut. He is employed by Price Waterhouse in Hartford, as a staff accountant.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kneece

Malone-Stauffer

LucAnn Stauffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Stauffer of Scotland, formerly of Manchester, and James B. Malone of Middletown, Mass., were married Sept. 15 at Asylum Hill Congregational Church, Hartford.

The Rev. Dr. James Kidd officiated. Sandra Stauffer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Nancy Beatty was bridesmaid.

Andrew Graham was best man. After reception at the Nathan Fuller Rod & Breakfast in Scotland, the home of Bruce and Georgia Stauffer, the couple went on a wedding trip to California. They are making their home in Cheverly, Md.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Manchester High School, a 1984 graduate of Georgetown University with a bachelor of science degree in foreign service; and a 1986 graduate of Columbia University with a master's degree in journalism. She is currently a producer in the Washington, D.C., bureau of Cable News Network.

The bridegroom is a 1973 graduate of Boston College with a bachelor's degree in speech communications and history. He is currently Congressional correspondent with the Voice of America. The couple met in Kenya where he was the East Africa bureau chief for VOA and she was a free-lance radio and TV journalist.

Mr. and Mrs. James Malone

Bush has 'macho psychosis'

By CHUCK STONE

A deep political, ideological, racial, religious and socioeconomic split is developing over the Persian Gulf — one so deep that it has caused me to change my mind about the wisdom of initiating force. And the U.N. Security Council resolution approving the use of force adds no additional moral weight, as far as I am concerned. We are being hustled pell-mell by a policy of Bush bonedeadness.

The voters can replace George Bush in two years. But they will not be able to replace the lives of young Americans needlessly sacrificed to satisfy one man's macho psychosis. Ronald Reagan's jingoistic intractability caused the loss of 241 U.S. Marines and sailors in Beirut; Bush's could carry a much higher price.

The 52 members of Congress (including one senator) who have filed a lawsuit to prevent the president from taking offensive action in the Persian Gulf without a congressional declaration of war are all Democrats.

But evidence continues to mount that this mere 10 percent of the House and Senate more faithfully reflects the will of a 55 percent majority of the American people, who are opposed to Bush's bonedeadness.

In addition, 11 law-school professors, including several distinguished conservatives, joined the congressional lawsuit as amici curiae.

Yet, amid the swelling chorus of opposition to Bush's unconstitutional attempt to wrest responsibility for war from Congress, two former chairmen of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and a former Secretary of Defense have added an impressive imprimatur.

The lawsuit may be rendered moot by a Bush-financed war. But in the meantime, Americans of all persuasions ought to start worrying about the irredeemable damage toward which this nation is inexorably moving.

Among the various races and religions, African-Americans are fast uniting in opposition to Bush's Persian Gulf belligerence. More than 20 percent of the Desert Shield troops are black. Nationally, they symbolize an unacceptable

U.S. POPULATION:

Manchester Herald

Founded Oct. 1, 1881 as a weekly. Daily publication since Oct. 1, 1914.

Executive Editor: Vincent Michael Vento
Creative Editor: Andrew C. Quinn

Berry's World

INTERACTIVE TV

Social announcements to be moved

Beginning next week, the social items — weddings, engagements and anniversaries — will be moved from the Saturday issues to the Tuesday issues. The announcements will appear on the Fashion page.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Thursdays with Linda only (23 years experience)

Perms	$20.00	no haircut
Perms	$26.00	with haircut
Haircuts	$6.00
Shampoo Sets	$7.00
Colors	$15.00

APPOINTMENTS ONLY!
643-1806

MATRIX
SEBASTIAN
Over 25 Years of Service
Miguel's
Styling Salon
NEXUS
IMAGE

6 Pearl Street - Manchester, CT 06040
643-1806

We Don't Mind Being Called On The Carpet!

A Steam Inc.
Carpet and upholstery Cleaning

A Steam Incorporated is a professional owner operated company certified by the International Institute of Carpet & Upholstery Cleaners. — We analyze your carpet and upholstery first in order to determine the safest & most effective method of cleaning —

3 STEP ROTARY STEAM EXTRACTION OR DRY CLEANING METHODS.

10% DISCOUNT
On cleaning if scheduled by 12/30/90. Present this ad to receive discount. Not valid in conjunction with other offers.

FULLY INSURED
IUC CERTIFIED.

© DUPONT MASTERSERIES © AND STAMMASTER © CARPET SPECIALISTS
FREE ANALYSIS AND ESTIMATE

CALL 657-8326 OR 1-800-762-3497

Having trouble reaching Senior Citizens

in your marketing area? Announce your senior citizen services in the Manchester Herald! An ad this size:

2x2

13 Weeks for $358.80
(Only $27.60 per week!!!)

For further information call the Manchester Herald at 643-2711
Ask for Tricia or Lesley

FILMED BY THE PROFESSIONALS AT
CREST INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES, CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

Wikings may be out of their element vs. Giants

The Minnesota Vikings may be out of their element when they try to extend their winning streak to six games against the New York Giants.

The Vikings (6-6) have not won any of their four games outdoors this season, and outside of MetLife Stadium they are 1-11 over the past two years.

On Sunday, it's the Vikings vs. Giants outdoors at Giants Stadium. Meanwhile, the Giants (11-2) are 6-0 at home, their only two defeats coming in their last two games — at Philadelphia and at San Francisco.

The Vikings, on the other hand, have rebounded from a 1-6 start and moved into a second-place tie with Green Bay in the NFC Central, and more importantly, into position for a wild-card playoff.

"Being 1-6 obviously was the low point of the season," Vikings coach Jerry Burns said.

"They took our Super Bowl ring," Cincinnati defensive lineman Tim Krueger said.

The 49ers also lost the Super Bowl last season and have the league's best record this season, putting them atop the AFC West.

The Bengals also are division leaders — in the AFC Central — but have been inconsistent.

Other Sunday games include San Francisco at Cincinnati, Chicago at Washington, Buffalo at Indianapolis, Denver at Kansas City, Seattle at Green Bay, Cleveland at Houston, New Orleans at the Los Angeles Rams, New England at Pittsburgh and Phoenix at Atlanta.

Sunday night, Philadelphia is at Miami, and Monday night, it's the Los Angeles Raiders at Detroit.

Dallas, the New York Jets, San Diego and Tampa Bay have the week off.

The Giants already have clinched a wild card playoff berth, and a victory over the Vikings or losses by Philadelphia and Washington would give them their second straight NFC East title.

"It's our last game against an NFC team and we need to get in the playoffs," Redskins quarterback Mark Rypien said.

The Lions' Barry Sanders, the defending NFC rushing champion, leads the league with 905 yards on 184 carries.

The Raiders have the league's best record on Monday Night Football — 28-6-1 — but all six losses and the one tie have been on the road.

Giants (11-2) at Dolphins (9-3): For the second straight week, the Dolphins ranked second in the league in defense, face a high-powered offense. Last Sunday, Washington riddled the vaunted Miami defense for a season-high 42-20 victory.

Steelers (11-1) at Packers (6-6): Green Bay hopes to have quarterback Don Majkowski back. The decision to return will be his.

Majkowski missed 2 1/2 games with a deep bruise of the rotator cuff of his throwing shoulder.

Browns (2-10) at Oilers (6-6): Cleveland has lost seven in a row, but is on pace to set a club record for losses in a season. In their last triumph over Indianapolis last Sunday.

Cardinals (4-8) at Falcons (3-9): Scott Campbell starts at quarterback for slumping Atlanta, in a place of Chris Miller, who suffered a fracture of his right hand.

The Packers' Brett Favre, following their game at Buffalo, will entertain Pittsburgh Penguins tonight at 7:35 (SportsChannel, WTIC).

UNCorn hoop at Maine Sunday BANGOR, Me. — The University of Connecticut men's basketball team will play the University of Maine Saturday afternoon at 7 p.m.

The 14th-ranked Huskies are coming off a 79-64 loss to No. 10 North Carolina Thursday night in the final of the Big East-AACC Challenge at the Dean Dome in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Dravecky may face amputation IRVINE, Calif. (AP) — Doctors may have to amputate former San Francisco Giants pitcher Dave Dravecky's left arm to prevent a second cancer tumor from spreading.

Dravecky recently underwent surgery three months earlier to remove a tumor from the same arm. He returned after breaking the weakened arm twice last year.

Dravecky said in an interview with the Los Angeles Times that the cancer returned last summer.

Providence, R.I. (AP) — A grand jury on Friday indicted William Eastley, who allegedly assaulted Phoenix receiver Fryar for carrying a pistol in Rhode Island without a permit.

The Providence County grand jury also declined to indict Eastley, who allegedly assaulted Phoenix receiver Fryar for carrying a pistol in Rhode Island without a permit.

Blazers upended again

BOLTON — For the second time in two nights, Bolton High had the lead at the half.

And for the second time, the Thursday night basketball game with East Granby coming from behind for a 33-29 decision Friday night in non-conference girls' basketball action.

It was the Crusaders' 1990-91 opener.

Bolton had a 17-16 halftime lead, only to lose the visitors take a 32-19 edge after three periods.

"I don't know what happened," Bolton coach Dave Leece said. "We got only one basket. And then in the fourth quarter we came out strong and held them to one point."

Dawn Bedard, her best member ever, had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

East Granby's Dawn Bedard, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Bolton. Danielle Cyrulo had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Blazers remain on right trail

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Portland improved its record to 17-1, matching the best-best start in NBA history, and stayed unbeaten on the road with a 127-105 victory over the Indiana Pacers Friday night.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

Whalers need to name a new captain

Francis has been that he's not outspoken. "It's more of a guy that leads by example," defenseman Randy Ladouceur said. "He works hard on the ice and he's a great guy. He's very good with the young players. Maybe they are looking for a more vocal guy. I don't know."

Ladouceur, who reached his Buffalo hotel room before Friday night's game against the team was going for the leadership and 1 Sabres, said he had no further comment on his decision.

"This is a team issue. I don't have anything else to say," he said.

Francis, 27, became the Whalers captain in February 1985, following the trade of Mark Johnson to St. Louis. Francis, in his 10th year as a Whaler, holds most of the team's career scoring records. He is playing out his option with the Whalers but continues to negotiate with the team.

Ladouceur has blamed a lack of leadership for the Whalers problems at home.

"The answer isn't standing here. It's in the dressing room," Ladouceur said after the Whalers 4-3 loss to Montreal in Hartford on Wednesday. "We've got to name a captain, but you need some type of direction here," he said.

Francis also has expressed disappointment.

"I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

"I'm not sure what you mean," Ladouceur said. "I've been here for six years, I've won the team repeatedly that changes would be made, but until now he has simply been shuffling fringe players between the Whalers and their AHL affiliate, the Springfield Indians."

Blazers remain on right trail

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Portland improved its record to 17-1, matching the best-best start in NBA history, and stayed unbeaten on the road with a 127-105 victory over the Indiana Pacers Friday night.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

The Trail Blazers, who led by as many as 26 points in the fourth period, extended a two-point edge to 36-20 with a 16-2 run in the first period. Williams scored 7 points and Duckworth, who finished with 15 points, had 5 during the spurt.

SCOREBOARD

Hockey

NHL standings table showing Eastern Conference and Western Conference rankings.

Campbell Conference table showing various teams and their records.

Blues 6, Red Wings 3 table with game details.

NBA results table showing various games and scores.

Blazers 127, Pacers 105 table with game details.

Blazers 127, Pacers 105 table with game details.

TONIGHT Where's my TV show?

By SCOTT WILLIAMS
The Associated Press

From: Mikey
To: Moe

Re: Midweek.
Sit down. Are you sitting down? Sit down. I'm so excited. Why I have an idea just a concept for the midweek replacement. More I have finished the treatment for THE concept for TV in the '90s. I'm talking about a series with more than just that "Twin Peaks-Rescue 911-thirty something" feel. This is actually ABOUT something.

I'm sending over the treatment and pilot episode for "Where's My Harry" because I know I'll get it for free (parson the pun, as you'll see from the script). It's the hour-long adventures of Harry Lunan, a handsome, clever, witty serial killer who's embraced a nomadic lifestyle while struggling to cope with his problem. We're talking "dramedy" with a vengeance: Violent, slapstick death. Incredible tension. I'm an audience torn between wanting him to get caught and wanting him to get away with it. We'll have celebrity guests lining up to get knocked off. A status thing.

And we don't have to show you know, every SINGLE murder. We can use a cute little sound effect, like the "Bong" of the frying pan they used in the movie "Frying Bacon." Maybe we can have Harry use a cute murder weapon. We're working on it.

Harry speaks to something in all of us. I mean, this is a guy who has problems in his relationships, as all of us do. The difference with Harry is that he can't have them. Relationships, I mean. He blows into town, gets a job pumping gas or slinging hash and tries to get his life in order.

But that lunatic killing cycle kicks in and Harry's back behind the wheel of that '69 Plymouth Roadrunner with something cool and sticky in the trunk. The horror! The tension! The ratings.

He's a Romantic hero — attractive and dangerous. If Harry asks you out on a date, you'll remember it for the rest of your life because you go home in the trunk, wrapped in 100 pounds of chain.

The great thing is, it's not a ripoff of some other concept. It's kind of a cross between "Rose 66" and "The fugitive." And I save the best for last.

I think we can get Tom Selleck to do it.

From: Mikey
Re: Midweek
Get Selleck.

I spoke to my guy in the network and they, believe me, hot to the point of white-hot to go forward on "Where's Harry." In fact, he says, "Harry-Shmurry, we WORK for this guy! Just kidding." You know how scared they are. All I had to do was whisper, "women 18 to 49," "key demographics" and a "30 rating and a 21 share." Then their piggy little eyes lit up. They're desperate for anything that'll bring in even a piece of the audience. My guy is running through their legal people and standards & practices. Get Selleck.

From: Mikey
To: Moe

Re: Midweek.
Who says Tom Selleck. He has a movie deal with Lorin Runn Shaw's people. How about Johnny Depp? Anybody who can fit "21 Jump Street" and John Waters' "Cry Baby" into the same career could handle a serial killer. We can get Johnny Depp.

From: Moe
To: Mikey

Re: Where's Rhoda

At last. There's we've got a concept here that can really take off. I knew that if you all people could develop a series that you believed in. It's no wonder you've been a success in this business for 30 years, with something new and different every year.

You'll probably want Mark to executive produce it. He's very confident with the format.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1990

CH.	5:00	5:30	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00
OVER THE AIR CHANNELS
3	(OR Air)	Captain Bob	Dragon Warrior	Bill & Ted Adv.	Peewee Play	Jim Henson's Muppet Babies	Garfield and Friends	Tweenage Mutant Ninja Turtles	Captain Planet	430 Shopping	Shopping Spree	Public Affairs	(OR Air)
4	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
5	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
6	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
7	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
8	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
9	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
10	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
11	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
12	(OR Air)	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping	Home Shopping
CABLE CHANNELS
AMC	(4:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small	Journal Adv.	World of Survival	Movie: "Andros and the Lion" (1950) Victor Mature, Jean Simmons	Footprints of Man	AMC	(4:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small
CNN	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small	Journal Adv.	World of Survival	Movie: "Andros and the Lion" (1950) Victor Mature, Jean Simmons	Footprints of Man	CNN	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small
ESPN	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small	Journal Adv.	World of Survival	Movie: "Andros and the Lion" (1950) Victor Mature, Jean Simmons	Footprints of Man	ESPN	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small
HBO	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small	Journal Adv.	World of Survival	Movie: "Andros and the Lion" (1950) Victor Mature, Jean Simmons	Footprints of Man	HBO	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small
NBC	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small	Journal Adv.	World of Survival	Movie: "Andros and the Lion" (1950) Victor Mature, Jean Simmons	Footprints of Man	NBC	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small
USA	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small	Journal Adv.	World of Survival	Movie: "Andros and the Lion" (1950) Victor Mature, Jean Simmons	Footprints of Man	USA	(5:30)	Movie: "Cyrano de Bergerac" (1950) Jean Ferrer	Movies in USA	All Creatures Great and Small

CH.	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30	3:00	3:30	4:00	4:30	5:00	5:30
OVER THE AIR CHANNELS
3	(OR Air)	This Is the NFL	"The Ball of Cable Yarn" (1970) Jason Robards, Stella Stevens	A College Football: Army vs. Navy	From Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia, (Live) (2)	College Football: Michigan at Duke (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)	College Basketball: Arizona at Louisiana State (Live)
4	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
5	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
6	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
7	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
8	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
9	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
10	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
11	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
12	(OR Air)	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL	11:30 NFL
CABLE CHANNELS
AMC	(11:30)	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints
CNN	(11:30)	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints
ESPN	(11:30)	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints
HBO	(11:30)	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints
NBC	(11:30)	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints
USA	(11:30)	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints	Footprints

CHANNEL	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
OVER THE AIR CHANNELS
WFSB	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WTHN	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVIR	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVTV	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVBT	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30	9:00	9:30	10:00	10:30	11:00	11:30	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30
WVNC	6:00	6:30

