

TAKE ADVANTAGE of this 6 room Cape in a convenient location, close to schools and shopping. Featuring 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, large enclosed porch, no room, kitchen w/dishwasher and refrigerator. Excellent offering for first time buyers. Immediate occupancy. Reduced to sell. Offers considered. Asking $137,500. Call Joe Lombardo & Associates 647-1413

Get the Want Ad habit... read and use the little ads in Classified regularly. 643-2711

MANCHESTER-French doors, natural woodwork, large garden w/ vinyl new kitchen. REMAX East of the River. 647-1419

MANCHESTER-French with fully finished basement for your in-law quarters. This is a real gem. Priced to sell as a single family but with the space and facilities of a 2-family. Call us today. Realty World Northeast Associates, 236-9978

SOVIET UP Special financing! Specializing in helping mortgages to help you qualify for and afford the home of your dreams! A special program for a limited time only! Co-terminus, 236.875. PHIL Blazewicz, Dir. Rt. 44 to Rt. 315, Lt on Ripley Hill, Rt on Cooper, Rt on Brenda. Philips Real Estate, 742-1450.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE: EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY. All Real Estate advertised in this newspaper is subject to the Federal Fair Housing Act of 1968 which makes it illegal to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, family status, or national origin, or on any intention to make such a preference, limitation or discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, family status, or national origin.

25 BUSINESS PROPERTY. MANCHESTER-For Rent. Used Car Lot, Main St. near center. In operation at least 45 years. 646-2426, 9am to 5pm, weekdays.

31 ROOMS FOR RENT. LARGE-Country, private bath/entrance, fireplace. Non-smoking male preferred. No pets. 742-8981.

MANCHESTER-Free week with $100 security deposit. Clean, quiet, furnished. 646-8337.

32 APARTMENTS FOR RENT. MANCHESTER-2 Family, 2 bedroom. Range, refrigerator, washer and dryer. No pets. Security. $575 plus utilities. 646-7336 or 643-5372.

ROCKVILLE-Nice 3 room apartment in nice area. No pets. Security included. Rent, $415. Call 646-1060.

BOLTON-2 Bedroom, carpet and appliances. No pets. $575 plus utilities. 643-0926.

MANCHESTER-2, 3, and 8 Room apartments. Security. Ref. reqs. Weekdays, 9am-5pm.

Bridge. The rule of seven. By Phillip Alder. You are playing in three no-trump and the opening lead is in a suit in which you have only one stopper. For how many rounds should you hold up your ace? First you must decide how many tricks you can afford to lose in the suit. If you will surrender the lead at most once before running for home, you can afford to lose three tricks in the suit. In this situation, the "rule of seven" applies. You add up the number of cards you have in the suit, both in your hand and in the dummy, and subtract that number from seven. The number you get is the number of rounds to hold up your stopper.

Let A Specialist Do It!

LAWN CARE PERSONALIZED LAWN CARE & LANDSCAPE WEIGLE'S PAINTING CO. WEIGLE'S PAINTING CO. Quality work on all residential work. WEIGLE'S PAINTING CO. Quality work on all residential work. WEIGLE'S PAINTING CO. Quality work on all residential work.

YARDMASTERS Spring Clean-Up. Yards, Bushes, Trees Cut. Yards, gutters, garages cleaned. Lawn Fertilizer. Appliances Removed. Carpentry, Hauling, Backhoe Work. Any Job Considered. Call 643-9996

SPRING CLEAN UP Yards, Gutters, Etc. Inexpensive Rates. 643-5133

SCREENED LOAM Gravel and Processed Sand, Stone and Fill. For deliveries call 742-7886

32 APARTMENTS FOR RENT. MANCHESTER-2 Family, 2 bedroom. Range, refrigerator, washer and dryer. No pets. Security. $575 plus utilities. 646-7336 or 643-5372.

MANCHESTER-2, 3, and 8 Room apartments. Security. Ref. reqs. Weekdays, 9am-5pm.

AGORAPHOBIA. On today's deal, declarer has eight top tricks. If the hearts are breaking-4-3, South is in no danger of defeat. But if the suit is 5-2 and West can win a spade trick, the contract will die. In this case, South must assume spades are breaking 3-3 with East holding the queen.

80 WANTED TO BUY/TRADE. WANTED-Good used furniture, bedroom set, dresser, dining set and crib. Call 524-8824.

91 CARS FOR SALE. CORVETTE-1979. Completely restored in and out. Loaded. Immaculate, all receipts. Tan with leather interior. Fuel, 2.43-7.855 or 6.46-3283. Asking $10,000. Call 871-0014.

CARDINAL BUICK, INC. 1992 Chevy Caprice $2,895 1991 Buick Wildcat $2,295 1988 Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme $2,195 1989 Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme $2,195

BOB RILEY OLDSMOBILE/BUICK 299 ADAMS ST., MANCHESTER 649-1749

LYNCH USED CAR SAMPLE SELECTION. 84 Chevy Celebrity $2,995 84 Chevy Celebrity $2,995 84 Chevy Celebrity $2,995 84 Chevy Celebrity $2,995

NEW IN MANCHESTER CENTER MOTORS Auto Repair Center. 369-271 Main St. 649-4304

88 TAG SALES. Clothing, T.V.'s, books, curtains, shoes, miscellaneous items. April 27th and 28th, 9-2. 66 Dudley Street, Manchester.

LYNCH TOYOTA-PONTIAC 500 West Center St. 1229 Main Street. Manchester. 646-4321

AGORAPHOBIA. On today's deal, declarer has eight top tricks. If the hearts are breaking-4-3, South is in no danger of defeat. But if the suit is 5-2 and West can win a spade trick, the contract will die. In this case, South must assume spades are breaking 3-3 with East holding the queen.

Manchester Herald

Newsstand: 35c - Home: 30c Manchester's Award-Winning Newspaper Thursday, April 25, 1991

Decision near for Seawolf; state hopeful

WASHINGTON — Navy Secretary H. Lawrence Garrett III told a House panel he is close to making a decision on whether to award Seawolf to a submarine builder in Connecticut or a shipyard in Virginia. Those two contractors along with Electric Boat employ some 50,000 workers in Connecticut.

BAND LEADERS — Carl Salina, left, Coventry High School band director, stands with the three directors of the band from Sherwood High School in Silver Spring, Md., after their arrival Wednesday night. The bands will hold a joint concert this weekend in Coventry.

Legislators push for school funding

HARTFORD — The Catholic school children that swarmed over the Capitol grounds a few weeks ago may have gotten through to the General Assembly; the budget committee chairman wants to put money back in the budget for their school buses.

Music and more sounded in school band exchange

COVENTRY — At around 9:30 Wednesday night two charter buses rolled into the parking lot of Coventry High School. With them, students from Silver Springs, Fla., a suburban city outside the nation's capital, entered the rural environment of Connecticut.

Baker marshals forces for peace talks

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Secretary of State James A. Baker III turned to the Soviet Union for help today to get his lagging Middle East drive in gear. Baker met with Foreign Minister Alexander Bessmertnykh in this Caucasus resort town to discuss preliminary proposals for Arab-Israeli negotiations, even though Syria and Israel had not yet agreed on terms to talk.

Road work not all initially appears

MANCHESTER — While it may appear reconstruction of Main Street is going remarkably fast, it's not quite as fast as it seems. Crews from the Delta Construction Co. of Enfield are tearing up the street as promised, and they are also laying down new asphalt over the dirt. But the new road surface is only a temporary cover, project officials say.

Bolton nearer budget

BOLTON — A budget that would raise taxes an average of $190 per homeowner was presented Wednesday night by the Board of Finance at the K-4 school. The increase is based on the average property tax assessment on a home valued at $129,000.

Kurd Aid concert benefit planned

LONDON (AP) — Musicians performing in Britain, Japan, the Netherlands and Austria will join in a satellite-linked concert for Kurdish relief, the organizers said today.

Crime begets crime

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Criminal activity will continue to spread as young people see their older role models get away with breaking the law and decide that crime is a viable lifestyle, a Yale University study concludes.

16 pages, 2 sections

Table with 2 columns: Section Name and Page Number. Includes sections like Classified, Discover, Focus, Lottery, Nation/World, Opinions, Sports, State, and Television.

Large vertical advertisement on the right side of the page with the text 'FILMED BY THE PROFESSIONALS AT CREO INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES, CEAR RAPIDS, IOWA' and a large graphic element.

RECORD

About Town

Tag Sale at St. Mary's

St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 41 Park St., will sponsor a tag sale Saturday at the church. Doors will open at 9:30 a.m. The sale will feature the usual tag sale items plus perennial plants.

Full Gospel convention

The Full Gospel Intermontennial Church, 745 Main St., Manchester, will hold its 13th annual spring minister's convention April 30 and May 1 and 2. More than 200 guests, ministers, pastors, evangelists and missionaries from around the world will convene for special meetings and seminars. Dr. Philip P. Saunders, pastor of the local church, will host the convention. All meetings are free of charge and the public is invited to attend. For more information call 646-8731.

MCC art, video exhibition

The NEWSPACE Gallery of Manchester Community College will open its end of the year Student Art Exhibition on Friday. On display will be student paintings, drawings, photographs, sculptures, ceramics, graphic designs, illustrations and examples of computer designs. The evening's program will begin at 8 p.m. in room CL244 with a screening of three student videos made in Prof. Kazan's filmmaking course. Following the films, awards will be presented to student artists for outstanding work in the past year.

A 9 p.m. reception with refreshments will be held in the gallery. There is no admission charge and the public is invited. The exhibition will remain on view until May 8. Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., weekdays and 9 a.m. to noon Saturdays. The gallery is located in the Frederick Lowe Building, upper campus, 60 Bidwell St. in Manchester. For more information call 647-6013.

Hebron celebrates Earth Day

On Saturday the town of Hebron will be celebrating Earth Day and Arbor Day with joint festivities. Activities are being arranged by the Regional Citizens for the Environment and the Eagle Scouts.

RCE will begin the day with a Fish Derby. Two hikes/nature walks are also planned for the day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

At 11 a.m. the ceremonies will commence formally at the Town Office Complex near the Emory Taylor Garage on Route 85. There will be an assortment of informative and educational booths and displays focusing on environmental issues which will be exhibited in this area by the gazebo.

Seed packets, along with Red-Twig Dogwoods, will be given away.

There will also be demonstrations on kite-making and bat houses.

The Eagle Scouts, organized by new Eagle Scout Russell Tischer, will beautify the Town Office Complex grounds. The landscape design for this project was donated by Marilu de Carvalho of Taylor's Nursery.

The trees, shrubs and plants for this endeavor have been donated by several local businesses in Hebron. Two major contributors are Ted's Supermarket, through the "Care Company" which supplies their organic products, and Taylor's Nursery.

Anyone wishing to help the Eagle Scouts and take part in the planting may bring a shovel to the Town Office Complex and "dig in." Planting begins at 9:30 a.m. All helpers are welcomed.

18th century tea

On May 5 at 2 p.m. at the Nathan Hale Homestead in Coventry the Artificers of the Nathan Hale Ancient Rifles and Drums, Inc., will hold an 18th Century Tea. The women of the Coventry Historical Society have been invited to join.

Dudley adopted; Rusty waits

By Barbara Richmond
Manchester Herald

There's good news from the Manchester Dog Pound this week. The best being that Dudley has been adopted. The next best being there were no new stray dogs for the second week in a row.

Dudley had been at the pound for many weeks. Dog Warden Thomas Passantelli couldn't understand why he wasn't adopted long ago, because he was such a sweet dog. Passantelli said a young Manchester couple adopted him last week.

The only other dog at the pound, as of Tuesday, was Rusty. He's a large, friendly male shepherd cross. He's about 1 year old and was picked up on Fallow Drive on April 1.

The dog pound is located off Olcott Street near the town's landfill. The dog warden is at the pound weekdays from noon to 1 p.m., Monday through Friday, and someone is also at the pound from 6 to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday. The phone number at the pound is 645-6642. If there is no answer, call the police department at 646-5553. There is a $5 fee to adopt a dog and the new owner must have the dog licensed. Before being licensed, it has to have its rabies shot — see information below.

Charo

Today's featured pet, Charo, is a fluffy female cat, one of many taken in by Aid to Helpless Animals Inc., a volunteer organization. Protectors of Animals Inc. is another organization made up of volunteers who take in stray and abused animals. Both groups are in need of

Deaths

This town listing of deaths is offered free of charge by the Manchester Herald. Paid announcements of death and in Memoriams appear under the Death Notices heading.

Manchester
James A. Grosso
411 S. Main St.
Hebron
Douglas A. Rapp, Sr.
65 East St.
Deaths elsewhere
Wanda R. Myers
Ludlow, Mass.

Public Meetings

Manchester
Thursday
Rejuvenation public hearing, Lincoln Center hearing room, 7 p.m.
Bolton
Thursday
Board of Education, Center School, 7:30 p.m.
Coventry
Thursday
Board of Education, Coventry High School, 7:30 p.m.
Economic Development, Town Office Building, 8 p.m.

Lottery

Here are the latest lottery results from around New England:

Connecticut
Daily: 8-8-4; Play Four: 6-2-4-2.

Massachusetts
Daily: 6-6-9-9; Mass Megabucks: 3-7-8-16-25-42.

Northern New England
Pick Three: 7-2-4; Pick Four: 3-8-2-0.
Tri-State Megabucks: 2-19-29-32-33-35.

Rhode Island
Daily: 8-7-9-9. Grandlot: 6-1-5, 3-6-3-0, 2-8-0-6-8, 7-7-8-0-2.

Weekenders... Places to go... things to do

Folkrocks concert

A Folkrocks concert featuring contemporary and traditional folk singers will be held Saturday, 8 p.m. at the Unitarian Meetinghouse, 153 West Vernon St., Manchester. Admission is $7 adults, $5 seniors and children. For more information call 647-8559 or 742-6329.

Walking tour

The annual outdoor walking tour of the Cheney Brothers National Historic Landmark District will take place on Saturday at 1 p.m. The tour, open to the public, will include the mill area and portions of the west side, and will last about an hour and a half. The walk will be rescheduled in case of rain. For more info call 647-6267.

Roast beef dinner

The Annual Roast Beef Dinner (with strawberry shortcake dessert) of the Coventry Grange will be held Saturday at the Community Center of the Second Congregational Church on Route 44 in Coventry. Dinner settings will be at 5 and 6 p.m. Tickets cost $7 for adults, $3.50 for children under 12. To reserve, call 742-7812, 742-6147, 742-6176, or 742-6256.

Native American powwow

The Manchester Community College Student Senate and the Connecticut River PowWow Society will present a Native American PowWow on Saturday outside the Lowe Building at MCC from 1 to 4 p.m. In case of rain, it will be held inside the building. For more information, call 647-6053.

Sounding Board concert

On Saturday at 8 p.m. the Sounding Board will sponsor a folk concert at First Church of Christ Congregational, 12 South Main St., West Hartford featuring Loraine Lee and Bennett Hammond. Admission is $7, $6 members. For more information, call 278-1445.

Art exhibit

The Art Department of Assumption School is holding its yearly student art exhibit on Saturday from 9 to 6:30 p.m. and on Sunday from 8 to 4 p.m. in the Church Hall, South Adams St., Manchester. Admission is free.

Tailgate tag sale

A tailgate tag sale will be held in the parking lot of Manchester Community College on Saturday from 9 to 3 p.m. Spaces are available to sell tag sale items from your car or van. Reservations for the general public are $10; law enforcement students and MCC alumni, $8. For more information, call 647-6137.

Fashion show

A fashion show presented by the Children's Associated Summer Theater will be held on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Manchester Country Club, 305 S. Main St., Manchester. Tickets are $8 general, $6 for children 12 and under. No tickets will be sold at the door. For reservations, call 646-2668 or 649-7201.

Weather

Clear tonight

Here is tonight's weather for the greater Manchester area: Clear, low near 40. Friday, sunny and pleasant. High near 75.

High pressure across the eastern Great Lakes region this morning will move east across New England tonight and offshore on Friday.

Weather summary for Wednesday, April 24, 1991:

Temperature: High 74, low of 37, mean of 54. The normal is 52. Precipitation: trace for the day, 2.50 inches for the month, 11.25 inches for the year. Normal for year-to-date: 14.10.

Heating degree data: 11 for the day, 330 for the month, 4992 for the season. Normal for the season is 5886.

Family Day Care Providers Association

The Family Day Care Providers Association, Manchester Area, located at 68 Lyness Street, has joined the Greater Manchester Chamber Of Commerce.

The Family Day Care Providers Association's goal is to promote quality, home-based care for working families in our community. They promote education and professionalism for members. They also provide a referral system for the community.

The association has been in business for six years, and currently has 70 members. The co-presidents are Robin J. Leal and Katey Marois.

Yes, spring is here, and today's weather drawing is by Sara Walsh, a fourth-grader at Bowers School in Manchester.

LOCAL/REGIONAL

Dems debate state income tax proposal

By RICK SANTOS
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — Town Democrats, like their fellow party members in the state senate, do not agree on the best method for raising revenues to combat the budget deficit.

That observation was made Wednesday by state Sen. John Larson, D-3rd District, after he challenged members of the Democratic Town Committee to recommend ways to get money to the state.

Spurred by Larson's attempt to let the thoughts of voters, the local party members argued close to an hour about the merits of an income tax, even naming the guest speaker after the meeting to discuss the issue further.

Larson, the senate president pro-tem, said the group is similar in its internal divisions to the Democratic state senators.

Of the 20 Democratic senators, he said four favor the income tax, six oppose it, and 10 are undecided. The Democrats hold a narrow majority of the senate, which has 38 members.

The only difference may be that the local Democrats appear to be taking one side or the other, with few saying they are undecided.

Town Director Stephen T. Cassano, former Director Kenneth Todford, and longtime party member Dorothy Brindamour said they supported the state establishing an income tax because they believe it is the fairest tax system.

Cassano said he would support an income tax only if it were coupled with guaranteed reductions in other revenue-generating mechanisms, including sales and property taxes.

Todford said he did not want a so-called piggy-back tax that would be based on federal tax laws because the state would adopt the inadequacies of the federal system which favors the rich.

Brindamour, who calls herself a liberal, also demanded that Larson tell her why every proposal for an income tax calls for a leveling of the percentage to be paid by those who earn more than $100,000 a year. Those plans always favor the wealthy, she said.

Other party members were cautious about supporting an income tax.

Director Thomas M. Ryan said that he would oppose an income tax with a reduced sales tax since the state generates much money from non-residents through the hotel and restaurant industry.

Larson provided a hint as to his own thoughts about establishing an income tax.

"I don't think taking a system and putting it on top of another system that is already flawed and calling it reform is a solution," he said.

Later, he said specifically that he opposes an income tax and explained his philosophy with an anecdote.

A recent immigrant who works in a restaurant in Hartford approached Larson while he dined there. The man, who works three jobs, told him that a reduction in the sales tax combined with an income tax would devastate him because he can cut back on large purchases, but he cannot give away any more of his paycheck than he already does.

Referendum again rears its head

By BRIAN M. TROTITA
Manchester Herald

COVENTRY — The man who petitioned last year's budget to five referendums is at it again.

Roland Green, a member of the Republican Town Committee, said he will begin collecting signatures this week for a referendum that would be on the town meeting on May 10.

At the town meeting, residents are allowed to propose and vote on changes to the town council's budget. Once the budget goes to referendum, Green needs to collect at least 200 signatures and turn them in 24 hours before the town meeting on May 10.

Green said that a reduction in the sales tax combined with an income tax would devastate him because he can cut back on large purchases, but he cannot give away any more of his paycheck than he already does.

If Green collects the required signatures, the budget would go to referendum on May 21. The town's charter revision commission was proposed that in future years every budget be voted on at referendum.

The town council has adopted a $16.8 million budget for 1991-92 that would raise the tax rate from 38.85 mills to 39.8 mills. Most of the increase in this year's budget is due to higher debt service costs from the renovations at Coventry Grammar School and Capt. Nathan Hale School.

Last year, it took five months and five referendums before voters finally approved a $15.4 million budget.

Green said that even though town officials have said that the proposed budget is balanced, they could still cut the $20,000 needed to avoid a tax increase.

Green said that the town could out several positions to make up the difference. The positions Green would eliminate include a school nurse, a part-time utility clerk, a part-time pound worker, and the superintendent of streets.

Green would also reduce to half-time the school business manager and the recreation director.

In addition, Green said, the schools could eliminate one bus and consolidate the routes.

'No-TV' leader awarded

ANDOVER (AP) — The mastermind behind Andover's weeklong abstention from television will receive a national award next week from a group opposed to commercialism.

The Washington-based Center for the Study of Commercialism chose Diane Grenier as one of its five "heroes," based on her efforts to pry Andover residents away from their television sets this week.

"We're just delighted. Absolutely delighted," said Grenier, chairman of the NTV Committee in Andover. NTV — no television — is a week-long campaign in which about a third of the town's residents have agreed to stay away from the tube.

Grenier, who credits nine other committee members for NTV's success, said the idea behind NTV is to show people how they could use the time they spend watching television. It is also aimed at promoting reading and literacy.

"I'm really excited that the country cares about the issue of too much television," Grenier said.

Teresa Cramm, one of the committee members, has begun a local effort to raise enough money to cover Grenier's air fare and accommodations in Washington, where she will receive the award at the National Press Club May 3.

CSC is a nonprofit organization started in January by a group of consumers, education and religious leaders. The group is dedicated to promoting "social concern rather than materialism, greed and selfishness," according to Executive Director Michael F. Jacobson.

Reginald Pina/Manchester Herald

ROCK EXPLORATION — Brië Beaman, left, and Jennifer Third, both sixth-graders at the Highland Park School, Manchester, climb along a rocky portion of the school's playground.

where they work.

The law would solve a problem in Manchester that surfaced recently when two assistants to Democratic Registrar Herbert J. Stevenson were told they cannot register voters because they no longer live in town.

Stevenson, speaking at Wednesday's Democratic Town Committee meeting, said the proposed legislation would allow assistant registrars to continue working after leaving a municipality, if they had lived there for at least three years.

The current law regarding assistants troubles Stevenson because his assistants had lived in Manchester for many years, he said. He added that there are many other inconsistencies in state election laws, including a provision that allows assistants to town clerks to swear in voters, regardless of where they live.

Although Stevenson's assistants cannot register voters, he said there has been no interruptions in registration.

Stevenson said that he would like to see the law changed so that assistants could register voters in the town where they currently live.

Stevenson said that he would like to see the law changed so that assistants could register voters in the town where they currently live.

Cummings says GOP illegally holding caucuses

By RICK SANTOS
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — Democratic Town Chairman Theodore R. Cummings is charging that town Republicans are holding caucuses and thereby ignoring one of their major campaign planks from the last town election.

But Republican Town Chairman Kevin W. MacKenzie denied Cummings' charges.

"I don't know what he's talking about," MacKenzie said. "I have not caucused with these people. I will not caucus with these people."

Cummings says his proof that the GOP has been caucusing is that one of the Republicans made a telephone call to him to confirm the details of a meeting that was to take place Wednesday night.

The Republican, who Cummings would not name, had apparently believed erroneously that the meeting was to be a joint gathering of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Education and to include members of both parties.

But the meeting was just for Democrats.

"We ask them to practice what they preach," Cummings said. "Stop being hypocrites."

"We don't want to go through this FOI thing again, but if they continue to act arrogantly, we may do it," Cummings said.

Proposal targets assistant registrars

By RICK SANTOS
Manchester Herald

MANCHESTER — Democratic state Reps. John W. Thompson and James R. McCavanaugh have introduced legislation that would allow assistants to the town registrars of voters to live outside the town where they work.

The law would solve a problem in Manchester that surfaced recently when two assistants to Democratic Registrar Herbert J. Stevenson were told they cannot register voters because they no longer live in town.

Stevenson, speaking at Wednesday's Democratic Town Committee meeting, said the proposed legislation would allow assistant registrars to continue working after leaving a municipality, if they had lived there for at least three years.

The current law regarding assistants troubles Stevenson because his assistants had lived in Manchester for many years, he said. He added that there are many other inconsistencies in state election laws, including a provision that allows assistants to town clerks to swear in voters, regardless of where they live.

Although Stevenson's assistants cannot register voters, he said there has been no interruptions in registration.

Stevenson said that he would like to see the law changed so that assistants could register voters in the town where they currently live.

Parks and Recreation Department schedule

The following are some of the programs, trips, and special events being offered by the Manchester Parks and Recreation Department. For more information on programs, recreation facilities, or parks areas, please call the department at 647-3084/5089. A Recreation Membership Card is required for all programs unless stated otherwise.

SuperStar Fun Camp — Registrations will be accepted for our summer SuperStar Fun Camp which will begin June 24 and run for eight weeks to August 16. Youth ages 6-15 are eligible. Weekly fee is $75 per child, with discounts for siblings and early registrants. For more information or a brochure, call the department.

Kidscamp — New this summer is Kidscamp — a half day summer fun program for children who will be entering Kindergarten in the Fall of '91. The program will meet Monday to Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for six weekly sessions beginning June 24. The fee is $50. Terry Mounce will direct the program. Call for an application!

Nike Tykes Summer Fun — Have your preschooler come and join in the fun this summer at Nike Tykes. Fun Tykes — children ages 3 years 3 months to 4 years of age. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday on Tuesday and Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., $40 for three days, $30 for two days per session. Wee Two — Fridays, 9:30-10:30 a.m. for 2 years to 2 years 3 months and 10:45-11:30 a.m. for 12 to 24 months, both are with parent, $20 beginning June 28 for six weeks. Registration is now in progress.

Tennis Lessons — Registration for tennis lessons for the spring and summer is now in progress. Milly Kostik once again will be instructing the classes. Evening class will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays and Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning May 6 for three, four week sessions. Classes are one hour in length and are: Youth Beginners (7 to 15), 4:30 p.m., Adult Beginners, 6:30 p.m., Advanced Beginners, 6:30 p.m. on Mon/Wed and Intermediates, 6:30 p.m. on Tue/Thurs. Day classes will begin June 24 for seven weekly sessions. Classes are: Pee Wee (4 to 5 years) 9 a.m. or 9:30 a.m., Youth Beginner, 10 a.m. and Youth Advanced Beginner, 11 a.m. Fee is $15 for Pee Wee, $20 for youth day $35 for youth evening, and $40 for adults. Raquets are provided for Pee Wee and Youth who require it.

Golf Basics — For the new and experienced player. These classes were well received last year, so please register early! Instructed by Bert Dunlop, he will guide you through the full swing, short game, practice drills, strategy, and rules of the game. Teaching aids such as the Subversion and Sports Enhancement Learning Systems will be utilized. Proper technique will be developed through the use of video taping replay, and analysis. Equipment will be provided for those who need it. Fee is $65 per person.

Seaside IV Saturdays, May 18 to June 8, 10-11:30 a.m. Center Springs Park.
Session V Tuesdays, June 11-25, 5:30-7 p.m. Center Springs Park.
Spring Park
New Session Added: Lunch Time Golf, Fridays, 12 noon to 1 p.m., May 17 to June 14.
Spring Program Registration
Registration is now in progress for the Spring session of the following programs: Watercise — Mondays, May 6 to June 10, 7 p.m. $7. Water Walking — Mondays and Wednesdays, 4 or 4:45 p.m. or Tuesdays and Thursdays, 4:15 or 5 p.m., beginning April 23, $18. Ceramics — Mondays or Thursdays, 6:30-9 p.m. or Wednesdays, 12:30-3 p.m., $38 for 6 weeks. Trips
Trips do not require a Recreation Membership Card and are open to non-residents. Register at the Parks and Recreation Office located in Center Springs Park. All trips depart from the Mahoney Recreation Center, 110 Cedar Street.

Boston on your own — Saturday, June 15, $20 for roundtrip transportation only. 7:30 a.m. departure with drop off and pick up at Quincy Market. Depart Boston at 6 p.m.
Martha's Vineyard — Thursday, June 27. Depart 7 a.m. for Falmouth, MA. Office and donuts will be served on the bus. The ferry will take us to Oak Bluffs on Martha's Vineyard. One may opt for a day long guide tour or plan the day on your own. We depart Martha's Vineyard at 5:15 p.m. and arrive back in Manchester at 9 p.m. Basic fee is $36 per adult and $34 for youth.
Boston Red Sox — Tickets are now on sale for the following Boston Red Sox Games at Fenway Park: Saturday, May 11 v. Texas — Saturday, June 11 v. California — Saturday, July 27 to Chicago — Saturday, Aug. 17 v. Kansas — Saturday, Oct. 5 v. Milwaukee. All tickets are $26.
New York Mets — Tickets now on sale for the following Mets games at Shea Stadium: Saturday, July 20 v. LA Dodgers and Saturday, August 24 v. Cincinnati Reds. All tickets are $26.
New York Yankees — Tickets now on sale for the following games at Yankee Stadium: Saturday, July 27 v. California (Old Timer's Day) and Saturday, September 14 v. the Red Sox. All tickets $28.
For seating information and departure times, call the department at 647-3089.
Upcoming Trips — Newport, July 13; Block Island, July 18; Nantucket, August 8; Saratoga, August 17; Boston Pops on the Hyannis Green, August 18; Medieval Times Dinner and Tournament, September 29; Peaches Place, VI, October 13; Atlantic City, November 10 to 11.

Business Briefs

Photographer of the Year Award from the Connecticut Professional Photographers Association (CPPA) for the second consecutive year.

A graduate of the Rhode Island School of Photography in Providence, Damon achieved this recognition by winning numerous professional photographer print competitions last year.

At the CPPA annual convention, Feb. 9 through 11, Damon submitted six competition prints and earned first-place scores on each. She received the Hallmark Award of Photographic Excellence. Two of Damon's six blue ribbon prints were recognized as Court of Honor winners and her overall competition performance earned the Trekusoff Award for highest cumulative total score.

Photographer of Year
Lynn A. Damon, owner of L.A. Damon Artistic Images on 159 Saddlehill Rd. in Manchester, has earned the Connecticut Portrait

Lynn A. Damon

Bottones
35,000 Hardcover - 1,000 Paperbacks
USED - most hardcovers less than $10.00 - most paperbacks less than $1.00
OUT-OF-PRINT - recent best-sellers and older fiction at a non-fiction
RARE - unusual books for particular tastes
COLLECTIBLE - first editions, fine leather bindings, nostalgia, special interest or just hard to find.
PLUS...
- national search for any recent or old book - only $3.00
- GIFT CERTIFICATES
Our specialty is putting the book you want in your hands.
BOOKS & BIRDS
519 E. Middle Tpk., Manchester, CT • (203) 649-3449
Hours: Tue & Wed 11:30-7:30, Thurs 11:30-7:30, Fri & Sat 11-5
Please call for Sat. & Mon. hours.
WE BUY BOOKS: Quality, Collections, Etc.

ALBASI GREENHOUSES
Opening Saturday, April 27th featuring ★ Beautiful Geraniums
★ Hanging Baskets:
IVY GERANIUMS, NEW GUINEA IMPATIENS, BEGONIAS, FUCHSIA, IMPATIENS, AND OTHER VARIETIES
★ Bedding Plants:
IMPATIENS, MARIGOLDS, BEGONIAS, PETUNIAS, AND MANY OTHER VARIETIES
★ Vegetable Plants:
HYBRID TOMATOES, PEPPERS, LETTUCE, EGGPLANT AND MORE!!!
OPEN DAILY 9 AM to 5:00 PM
VILLA LOUISE ROAD
(off Birch Hill Rd.)
Opposite Vito's
BOLTON, CONNECTICUT
649-0164

NOVA SCOTIA
VACATION BY THE SEASIDE
Where the Prince Reigns
The Atlantic Ocean, Between Portland, Maine and Vermont. Nova Scotia is the M/S Scotia Prince. Drive your car on board and enjoy a cruise for a king — with gourmet dining, live-band dancing, floor shows, and cabins for a good night's sleep.
Wake up the next day and you're in exciting Nova Scotia. Where you can bank on sandy beaches, taste world-renowned lobster and salmon, visit historic sites, and drive through breathtaking scenery.
For complete details on 12 inclusive Prince of Fundy packages, fares, discounts and family savings, call 1-800-341-7540 (ask for operator 194) and request your free Cruises and Tours brochure.
Nova Scotia. A VACATION OF VALUE

STATE Dem budget would surpass Gov.'s tax plan

By PETER VILES
The Associated Press

HARTFORD — Republicans rushing to criticize a new tax plan authored by two key Democrats found an unusual ally in the state Democratic chairman.

"A plan with more taxing and more spending is exactly what the people don't want," said state Democratic Chairman John Dronney. He was responding Wednesday to an income tax-based tax plan drafted by Rep. Richard Mulready, D-West Hartford, and Sen. William DiBella, D-Hartford, the co-chairman of the Finance Committee.

Their plan relies on a state income tax similar to the one proposed by Gov. Lowell P. Weicker. But it would raise taxes much higher than Weicker's, and a huge fund to aid struggling cities and towns.

Republicans quickly panned the proposal, saying it would raise taxes by $1.6 billion and would leave the growth of state spending unchecked. "I just can't believe the kind of House Minority Leader Edward Krawiecki, R-Bristol. It's a 38 percent increase in taxes. It's double the Weicker tax increases."

Weicker, who has threatened to veto a Republican no-income tax plan backed by Krawiecki, said the DiBella-Mulready plan "provides ground for discussion."

"There are differences between the plan released today and the tax and spending proposal I put before the General Assembly in February," Weicker said in a short statement. "But I believe these differences can be debated and resolved by men and women of good will."

Meanwhile, House Speaker Richard Balducci, a pivotal figure in the budget debate, said "overall reform is needed in the state's budget system, and merely tinkering with the current tax system won't solve the budget crisis."

After weeks of careful neutrality in the budget debate, Balducci hinted that he will support a budget based on a state income tax. He cautioned, however, that he has not yet endorsed any plan.

At a news conference, he said the only other option to an income tax, a so-called "conventional" tax plan, does not solve long-term problems that have left the state reeling from one budget crisis to another.

Balducci, D-Newington, said he favors "something that is fair and equitable and is long-term for the people of the state." He later added, "The conventional package, right at the moment, seems to fall short long term."

Outside the Capitol, an estimated 1,500 unionized state employees rallied in support of a state income tax. The workers have tentatively agreed through their labor leaders to $328 million in contract concessions, but they made clear Wednesday that the deal is off if the Legislature does not approve an income tax.

If they don't pass tax reform, they don't get our money," Jerome P. Brown, president of the New England Health Care Employees Union, District 1199, told the cheering crowd of workers.

The DiBella-Mulready plan would raise the budget deficit in a single year, rather than over three years, as Weicker proposed. That would leave a huge surplus — as much as $600 million — for extra municipal aid in future years.

We want to address that slippery slope that all cities and towns are on," Mulready said.

Mulready and DiBella proposed an income tax on a sliding scale, with the rate ranging from 5.5 percent to 7 percent.

TAX RALLY — About 1,500 state employees and their supporters attended a rally on the grounds of the state Capitol in Hartford Wednesday. The rally was held to support tax reform and to call for an income tax as part of the package.

PSNH takeover clears hurdle

By MIKE RECHT
The Associated Press

CONCORD, N.H. — The state Supreme Court has removed the last obstacle blocking the bankruptcy reorganization of Public Service Company of New Hampshire, and has moved the utility closer to being taken over by a Connecticut utility.

In a 3-2 decision Wednesday, the court rejected an appeal of regulatory approval of the rate plan included in Northeast Utilities' proposed $2.3 billion takeover.

Three Public Service stockholders, a ratepayer and the Campaign for Ratepayers Rights appealed the PUC decision to the Supreme Court. The stockholders feel the rates are too low to give them a proper return on their investment in stock and bonds, and borrowing $452 million to pay creditors.

Reorganization also means the second of seven annual 5.5 percent electricity rate increases for Public Service's 380,000 customers in the U.S. Senate for 18 years to run for governor as an independent — re-issuing the mere thought of calling Weicker's bluff.

"If he wants to go to the brink, we'll go to the brink with him," one Republican told The Advocate of Stamford. "Then we'll have a crisis."

House Speaker Richard J. Balducci, D-Newington, and Senate President Pro Tem John B. Larson, D-East Hartford, called the talk irresponsible.

share of Seabrook. After months of haggling and negotiations, Northeast was the bidding for the company in the fall of 1989 when the state, shareholders, stockholders approved the plan, and later the bankruptcy court. Public Service also endorsed it.

A few stockholders, ratepayers and Seabrook opponents have fought the plan throughout the process.

The latest attempt was directed at the state Public Utilities Commission's approval of the rate plan included in the Northeast proposal.

Three Public Service stockholders, a ratepayer and the Campaign for Ratepayers Rights appealed the PUC decision to the Supreme Court. The stockholders feel the rates are too low to give them a proper return on their investment in stock and bonds, and borrowing $452 million to pay creditors.

Reorganization also means the second of seven annual 5.5 percent electricity rate increases for Public Service's 380,000 customers in the U.S. Senate for 18 years to run for governor as an independent — re-issuing the mere thought of calling Weicker's bluff.

"If he wants to go to the brink, we'll go to the brink with him," one Republican told The Advocate of Stamford. "Then we'll have a crisis."

House Speaker Richard J. Balducci, D-Newington, and Senate President Pro Tem John B. Larson, D-East Hartford, called the talk irresponsible.

Phone solicitors said to keep too much money

By ANDREW FRASER
The Associated Press

HARTFORD — Connecticut residents donated $9.3 million last year to charities that contacted them through professional telephone solicitors, but most of their money did not go to the charities.

A report released Wednesday showed the solicitors kept about 75 percent of the money they raised for 137 charities. The charities got the $2.6 million, or about 28 cents on every dollar.

Consumer Protection Commissioner Gloria Schaffer called the report "shocking."

"The real concern is that consumers think they are contributing good hard-earned money to causes that are primary beneficiaries, and that isn't the case," Schaffer said.

Schaffer's agency and the state Attorney General's office compiled the annual report on telephone solicitations Wednesday's report is the fourth they have done.

The report said telephone solicitors raised $37.5 million in the past four years and turned over $10 million to the charities for which they were working.

State Attorney General Richard Blumenthal accused telephone solicitors of "making advantage" of charity groups. He said the price the charities pay solicitors is unreasonable but not illegal.

"What that tells us about Connecticut-paid solicitors is that they are pretty ineffective or very greedy," Blumenthal said. He said charities should try to "drive a harder bargain" when they hire solicitors.

used paid solicitors received less than 10 percent of the money collected last year on their behalf, the report said.

At the bottom of the list were: —The Hearst/Johnson Foundation of West Haven, which received just 4.9 percent, or $750, of the $15,205 collected.

—Vietnam, a Illinois based veterans group, which received 6.4 percent, or $12,000, of $191,000.

—The Connecticut Association of Retarded Citizens, which received 7.27 percent, or $3,210, of $44,146 collected in four separate campaigns.

Twelve charitable organizations that used telephone solicitors last year received more than 40 percent of the money collected, the report found. The top three were:

—Special Olympics International, which received 61.59 percent, or $2,750, of $4,465.

—Darien Police Association, which received 60.98 percent, or $40,000, of $65,600 collected.

—The New London Firefighters Union, which received 58 percent, or $10,000, of $17,235.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in 1984 that a state may not limit how much an organization spends on fund-raising costs. It also struck down another law requiring solicitors to tell potential contributors what percentage of their donations will go to the charity for which they were intended.

As a result of the high court rulings donors are largely on their own when they give to charity. But Connecticut law still requires paid solicitors to identify themselves as such when they go for a contribution. That rarely is done, Blumenthal said.

Blumenthal urged donors to be wary when contacted by telephone solicitors.

Nineteen of the 137 charities that

Fleet reports additional acquisitions possible

NEW YORK (AP) — Fleet-Norstar Financial Group hasn't ruled out additional acquisitions this year after its successful bid for the failed Bank of New England, the banking company's top official says.

Terrance Murray, chairman and chief executive officer, said Wednesday Fleet will be considering acquiring businesses this year to expand its mortgage, student loan and consumer finance businesses "if the opportunity presents itself."

Murray met with industry analysts and financial reporters in New York, two days after the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. selected Fleet's $875 million bid for Bank of New England.

Joining the Providence, R.I.-based Fleet in the bid was Kohlberg, Kravis Roberts & Co., a Wall Street investment group specializing in financing corporate takeovers.

The acquisition, when completed, would make Fleet the nation's 14th biggest banking company and the biggest in New England. The ultimate cost of the takeover to the FDIC is expected to be $2.5 billion, making it the third largest bank rescue in history.

The Bank of New England deal marks Fleet's third acquisition of a failed bank this year. Earlier, Fleet acquired Community National Bank in Glastonbury and Maine Savings Bank of Portland. Fleet now has operations in five of the six New England states.

Although Murray said Fleet has no plans to buy any banks he expressed interest in purchasing some banking operations in New Hampshire because they "look attractive to us. ... Time will tell."

He declined to discuss the future of Bank of New England's existing management. Later in the day, Lawrence K. Fish, Bank of New England's chairman and chief executive officer, announced he will leave the bank after assisting in the transition with Fleet.

Industry groups argue that cable subscribers are demanding more channels and better shows and must pay for them. They say also that local officials unwilling to approve rate increases kept cable prices artificially low and are partly to blame for the rapid increases that followed deregulation.

Under the 1984 legislation, cable systems were exempt from local rate regulation if they were found to have "effective competition," as determined by the FCC.

FTC wants regulation over cable TV pricing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal authorities should consider imposing price restraints on cable TV systems if many viewers depend on cable to receive local TV signals clearly, the Federal Trade Commission says.

The FTC made the recommendation Wednesday in comments filed with the Federal Communications Commission.

Hills and tall buildings can obstruct TV signals and make reception poor for some viewers, who must then rely on cable to receive local signals clearly.

In such cases, the FTC said, "a good basis for regulation might exist."

The FCC did not suggest what percentage of viewers should be dependent on a cable system for good TV reception before its proposal would take effect.

The FCC will consider the FTC's comments and those from other groups in deciding how to refine a competitive standard for cable. Industry groups hope the new definition will derail some efforts in Congress to impose new price regulations on the industry.

The National Cable Television Association had no immediate response to the FTC proposal.

Some members of Congress, encouraged by widespread complaints about skyrocketing cable rates, are promoting legislation that would allow local governments the power to regulate rates for basic cable service. Most communities lost that authority in 1987 under the 1984 Cable Act.

Matzo baker ends price-fixing case

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — B. Manischewitz Co., the nation's leading matzo maker, has persuaded a federal judge to accept a no-contest plea to settle price-fixing charges, a court order said.

U.S. District Judge Harold Ackerman ordered the company to appear in court with government attorneys Friday so he could accept the plea.

Manischewitz faces a fine of $1 million or two times either the loss suffered on consumers or the gains won by the company, whichever is greater. Those amounts have not been made public.

Justin Walder, an attorney for Manischewitz, said the company was pleased with the judge's decision.

A criminal price-fixing indictment, based on a two-year grand jury investigation, alleged that between 1981 and at least April 1986, Manischewitz and unnamed competitors conspired to increase the wholesale price on about $25 million worth of Passover matzo.

Matzo, a flat, unleavened bread, is eaten to commemorate the eight-day Jewish celebration marking the escape of ancient Hebrews from slavery in Egypt.

The Jersey City-based company attributes about 40 percent of its $32.5 million annual sales to matzo, with half of the revenue from sales of matzo specially prepared for Passover.

The IMF said Wednesday 1991 should represent the bottom for a two-year slowdown in the world economy.

Business Briefs

A judge has derailed a plea bargain in the $1 billion settlement of the Exxon Valdez oil spill, saying a $100 million criminal fine was insufficient punishment for the damage Exxon did to Alaska's environment.

Under the plea agreement negotiated by the state of Alaska, the Justice Department and Exxon, the company would have paid $50 million to the state of Alaska and $50 million to the federal government.

Also Wednesday, principles written as an environmental guide to the corporate world in response to the Exxon Valdez oil spill were rejected overwhelmingly by the oil company's shareholders.

The IMF said Wednesday 1991 should represent the bottom for a two-year slowdown in the world economy.

DISCOVER

'Kiss Me, Kate' a must-see

By DAVID LAMMEY
Manchester Herald

It was a Saturday night. The reporter was a few minutes late. He pulled into the East Catholic High School parking lot — and every spot was filled. There were hundreds of cars. The reporter panicked.

Somehow he found a spot — in the boonies, as they say — and joining another man who just parked his car on the grass, dashed into the auditorium.

The show was just starting. Up on stage, under the lights, dozens of performers dressed in dozens of colors were dancing and singing.

People to see ■ places to go ■ things to do

RESIDENT PLAYERS — One portion of the enormous "Kiss Me, Kate" cast are these Manchester residents: left to right, Chris Stone (Petruccio), Pierre Marteny (Harrison Hamlyn (Hazarddasher), and Greg Harmon (Gromio).

whose manners and facial expressions were enough to incite giggly laughter.

The highlight of the play must be when the gangsters wander onto the empty stage and break into "Brush Up Your Shakespeare," a hilarious spoof on all those Shakespearean titles. ("If she says your behavior is heinous, kick her right in the Cornolonus!")

But the actors would feel lonely were it not for the sharp and punchy orchestra in the pit, conducted by Victor Perpetua. And the usual danger of overwhelming the singers was avoided throughout the show, with the possible exception of "Wunderbar," when some of the lyrics were absorbed by the orchestra.

The choreography, by Sheila Waters Fuick, though at times murky and cumbersome due to the huge number of people on stage, is particularly good during the "Bianca" dance and "Too Dam Hot."

And the direction by Donna Dube is admirable. The play moves along quite well for just under three hours. However, stage action is slightly unfocused at times — also owing perhaps to the large number of performers on the stage at any one time. A few lighter cue pickups, and a little less background high jinks would help. But this is nipping, Dube has done well with such an enormous cast.

So the reporter left the cheering auditorium with a bounce in his stride and great tunes in his head, and he did not mind walking to his car parked way out in the boonies.

"Kiss Me, Kate" is finishing its run this weekend — Friday and Saturday showtimes at East Catholic Auditorium are at 8 p.m. Cost is $10 for adults, $8 for students and senior citizens. For tickets call 645-1213 or 291-8676.

NEED SOME EXTRA SPENDING MONEY!!

Newspaper routes available in your area... Earn money and prizes by delivering the Manchester Herald in your neighborhood.

Call today to get more details. 647-9946

- |                 |              |                          |     |
|-----------------|--------------|--------------------------|-----|
| Academy St.     | all          | Stephollow               | all |
| Adeleide        | all          | Squire Village           | all |
| Alpine          | all          | Union Park/Homestead St. | all |
| Birch St.       | all          | Union St.                | all |
| Clearview       | all          | Warrenville              | all |
| Dale Rd.        | all          | Wetherill                | all |
| East Center St. | 25-207 odd   |                          |     |
| East Center St. | 195-202 even |                          |     |
| East Center St. | 342-402 even |                          |     |
| Fleming         | all          |                          |     |
| Guth Rd.        | 89-138       |                          |     |
| Goway St.       | all          |                          |     |
| Greenhill St.   | all          |                          |     |
| Hillard         | all          |                          |     |
| Horace St.      | all          |                          |     |
| Jean Rd.        | all          |                          |     |
| Joyce Ln.       | all          |                          |     |
| Kenwood St.     | all          |                          |     |
| Lodge           | all          |                          |     |
| Ludlow Rd.      | all          |                          |     |
| Main            | 285-378      |                          |     |
| Monroe St.      | all          |                          |     |
| New State Rd.   | all          |                          |     |
| Oxford St.      | all          |                          |     |
| Parkland St.    | all          |                          |     |
| Parker St.      | 2-83         |                          |     |
| Phyllis         | all          |                          |     |
| Rosebud Dr.     | all          |                          |     |
| Sever St.       | all          |                          |     |
| Spruce St.      | 14-108       |                          |     |

CALL NOW 647-9946/643-2711

Manchester Herald

CALDWELL OIL 649-8841
$ .859
C.O.D.
150 Gallon Minimum
Price subject to change

ATTENTION!
FREE BLOOD PRESSURE CLINIC
By Registered Nurse
DAY: Friday
TIME: 5:30 to 9:00PM
PLACE: Liggett Drug and Parkade Health Shop
As a public service sponsored by --
Liggett Pharmacy/Parkade Health Shop

REPLACE YOUR BASEMENT DOOR
BEAT THE MAY PRICE INCREASE!
Free Estimates - Any size, width, length, height
STEEL FOUNDATION PLATES
ON ALL INSTALLATIONS
Tom Kirby 672-6236

ENJOY MORE AFFORDABLE INSURANCE!
NEW
Nationwide's Home & Car Discount
Insure both your home and car with Nationwide, and get a special money saving discount on your home insurance. AND another money-saving discount on your car insurance.
Call Today.
David H. Donaldson
J.D., MBA
303-648-2891
NATIONWIDE INSURANCE

ADVERTISERS
FILMED BY THE PROFESSIONALS AT
CREST INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES, CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

OPINION

Open Forum For the people

To The Editor:
This letter is for all the people in Andover who voted No to the referendum and to all the parents of children who attend the Andover Elementary School who did not vote.
You obviously did not know or understand the issue. The issue is a Vote to "Form a Building Committee." The Andover Elementary School desperately is in need of building repairs, some of the roof problems are the boiler and the septic system. These are health codes. This was not publicized issue, but last week the children could not go outside and swing because there was raw sewage on the playground. Everybody has to consider this problem a necessity.

This issue has been passed on from year to year for so many years this is the point it has come to. We as parents cannot and do not feel good about sending our children to this school. It is not a healthy or safe place for our children to be.
You, the people who voted No, must see this point. If the building committee was formed these problems would finally be addressed. Now they are being passed around again. The children are the ones suffering. This work has to be completed and we have to pay the whole bill. If a committee was formed and the plans drawn and submitted to the state for reimbursement (64 percent) we would get more and it would still cost us the same amount of money. Now we have to pick up the entire cost ourselves. We are getting less for more and in these days of a recession and people tightening purse strings it makes very bad business sense and not a wise use of money.

I'm a non-working mother of 2 young children and the last thing I need is to try to pinch one more penny out of my budget. But reality is reality. Kids are our future leaders and we are treating them very badly.

Diane Rea
62 Shodor Mill Road
Andover

Knows concerns

To The Editor:
This is a very confusing time to be living in Bolton, and as concerned citizens, we are facing some tough choices in the months ahead. Among the choices are candidates in the local elections on May 6. To help you make that choice, I would like to introduce myself to you, and hope to meet you personally in the weeks ahead.

As a resident of Bolton for five years, I am pleased to be running as an endorsed Democrat for the Board of Finance. I have ten years experience as a financial asset manager in the real estate and banking industry, where I learned the value of managing limited resources for maximum results. Prior to that I taught secondary school in rural New England, after graduating magna cum laude from the University of Connecticut. Working in both the public and private sectors, I can borrow ideas from both worlds for a better Bolton.

Having grown up in rural Connecticut and attended a regional high school, I understand your concerns for maintaining our way of life, but not at any price. I have served for two years on the Senior Citizens Commission and have worked to expand our services to seniors using grant monies and local resources. I believe we can keep our taxes reasonable, but not at the expense of our quality of life. It is the challenging role of the Board of Finance to balance the needs of all citizens of Bolton with the resources its taxpayers can provide. I have done this successfully for major banks and pension fund investors; give me the opportunity to work for you.

Beth Harney
176 Bolton Center Rd.
Bolton

Manchester Herald

Founded Oct. 1, 1881 as a weekly.
Daily publication since Oct. 1, 1914.
USPS 327-500 VOL. CX, No. 176
RONALD O. NICODEMUS, Publisher
Managing Editor: Peter Down
Advertising Manager: Wesley Rodus
Business Manager: Joanne G. Fierant
Circulation Manager: Gerardo Colini
Production Manager: Robert H. Cohen
Pressroom Manager: Robert H. Cohen
Main Telephone Number: 643-2711
Circulation Telephone Number: 647-9948
Published daily, Monday thru Friday, with a Saturday/Sunday weekend edition, except certain holidays, by the Manchester Publishing Co., 16 Brainerd Place, Manchester, Conn. 06040. Second class postage paid at Manchester, Conn. Postmaster: Send address changes to the Manchester Herald, P.O. Box 501, Manchester, Conn. 06040.
The Manchester Herald is a member of The Associated Press, the Audit Bureau of Circulation, the New England Press Association and the New England Newspaper Association.
Guaranteed delivery. If you don't receive your Herald by 7:30 a.m. weekdays or 7:30 a.m. Saturdays, please telephone your carrier. If you are unable to reach your carrier, call subscriber service at 647-9948 by 6 p.m. weekdays for delivery in Manchester.
Suggested carrier rates: $1.50 weekly, $7.70 for six months, $23.10 for three months, $45.20 for six months and $92.40 for one year. Newsstand price: 35 cents a copy.

Guilt by her association

I have hesitated to plunge into the controversy surrounding Kitty Kelley's biography of Nancy Reagan, but readers are beginning to ask when I plan to discuss the subject. So, much as I dislike peddling around in that sort of swill, here goes.

As far as Ms. Kelley is concerned, there is little that needs saying. She is out to make money, and isn't fastidious about how she does it. By exploiting certain weaknesses of the book-buying public (see below) she makes plenty of it, and the Supreme Court's rules on libel ensure that her victims (who are always "public figures") cannot sue her.

Her technique is to interview the biographee's enemies, critics, disgruntled former employees, etc., and report whatever they say. Her nominal purpose is to expose "hypocrisy" in high places. Her natural habitat is one of those slobbering "expose" magazines found at supermarket check-out counters.

In the case of Nancy Reagan, who is simply the latest in a lengthening line of her targets, Kelley's revelations range from the unimportant to the implausible. If it is true that Mrs. Reagan has pretended to be two years younger than she really is, American womanhood will survive the shock. On the other hand, to hint at a steamy carnal affair between Nancy Reagan and Frank Sinatra, right there in the White House, when Sinatra was upward of 65 and Nancy was (on Kelley's own theory) over 60, will

WILLIAM A. RUSHER

Nutrition help longevity?

For all our interest in living longer we don't seem to spend much time investigating Methuselah's secret of longevity.
That venerable patriarch lived to 969 years old, the Bible says. If that's true, he is the oldest person who ever lived. Somebody today who was 969 would have been born in the year 1022.

Methuselah was not the only one of the ultra-high numbers when it came to age. It doesn't seem to have been all that unusual for the fathers of the human race to have had lives approaching the 1,000 mark.

Methuselah's grandfather Jared died at 962, and his grandson Noah was alive till he was 950. Adam himself lived to be 930.

According to the genealogy in Genesis, Methuselah died in precisely the year the big flood came. Since his name wasn't on the ark's manifest, it could mean he met his death by drowning. If it hadn't been for that, who knows how long he might have lived?

One of the reasons we don't think more about how people were able to live so long when the earth was new is that we don't really believe they did.
We rather suspect the Bible writers were chroniclers of a mythical golden age when, as Dan Geoghegan says in his book "The Methuselah Factors," the human race "was thought to be in high

GEORGE PLAGENZ

Iran boosts Shiites

By JACK ANDERSON and DALE VAN ATTA

WASHINGTON — Iranian military forces have fought in skirmishes as far as 50 miles inside Iraq several times since mid-March. Their objective is to push Iraqi Shiite rebels under an "Islamic Republic of Iraq," and to knock off pockets of Iranian dissidents who hide out in Iraq.

Reliable sources, including U.S. and Middle Eastern intelligence sources, declined to call the secret forays an "invasion," even though the insertion of hundreds of Iranian soldiers could be called that.

The cross-border incursions have been designed to bolster the dwindling Kurdish and Shiite armed resistance to the government of Saddam Hussein. Also, the Iranians have been able to use the confusion of the civil war to eliminate thousands of Iranian rebels who operate military forces from bases just inside Iraq.

The most significant of the Iranian rebel groups is the People's Mojahedin. For almost a decade, it has been fighting the Iranian leadership — current President Hashemi Rafsanjani, and the Ayatollah Khomeini before him.

Sources within the People's Mojahedin report that the first attacks against their bases in Eastern Iraq occurred on March 10. In twin attacks, large groups of the Iranian Pasdaran — the Revolutionary Guards — reportedly descended on two Mojahedin bases.

The fighting was going on about the same time Rafsanjani paid a secret visit to his Revolutionary Guard Corps command in the Iranian city of Kermanshah. Western intelligence sources say that this same garrison has received large numbers of high-level Iranian political and military visitors, indicating heightened activity. But those sources were unable to confirm the major battles reported by the People's Mojahedin.

The sources, including Central Intelligence Agency officials, do report that the Revolutionary Guards are attempting to cross the border to arm, train and fight with Iraqi insurgents. The Revolutionary Guards are expected to kill themselves rather than be captured because Rafsanjani does not believe he can afford the word to leak out that he is dabbling in the civil war of his neighbor, Saddam Hussein. The incursions are in direct violation of United Nations resolutions banning any Iraqis except U.S.-led coalition forces from the region.

One Iranian soldier, Mehrdad Sagharachi, was captured by the People's Mojahedin on April 1. He reportedly said, "They kept telling us that if we were captured by Iraqi or Mojahedin forces, we should deny that we are even Iranian. They were told to wear local dress like the Kurds so they would not take us and show us in the media in Iraq and show the people that, for example, the Iranian regime had violated the cease-fire and trampled those international things. They have even told us nobody should be captured, and we must do our best to destroy ourselves..."

The official Iranian media has been silent about Iranian-directed battles inside Iraq, even ordering total secrecy regarding identification of corpses brought back from the battles. Families of the dead soldiers are not told how the soldiers died.

One thing Rafsanjani has not kept secret is his desire for the overthrow of Saddam Hussein and the establishment of an Islamic Republic in Iraq along the Iranian model. Rafsanjani has even called for an election in Iraq, something he will not allow in his own country. He firmly believes that with up to 60 percent of the Iraqi population being his fellow Shiites, it is an election that they cannot lose.

Bye, Bye Gorby
Mikhail Gorbachev has been trying, without much success, to appease the communist hardliners in his government who think he is destroying the Soviet Union, and the reformers who think he hasn't gone far enough. Both sides are still calling for Gorbachev to step aside.

Our sources say that the unthinkable is happening — that the two factions have exchanged feelers to determine what kind of deal they could make, and they may be forming a new coalition government, without Gorbachev.

The Persian Gulf War may be over, but it will take years to win peace in the region. As one congressional source put it, "You don't just go in, knock a country a century back in time and leave it that way." George Bush didn't bring the Gulf War beyond stopping Saddam Hussein from taking over Persian Gulf oil riches. The military did its job, now Bush has to do his.

Some nature-food addicts agree that the long lives of the patriarchs were due to their diet of fresh fruits, uncooked vegetables and nuts and seeds.
One health-food cookbook points out that the Bible extols the virtues of a vegetarian diet. It refers to the Old Testament story of Daniel, who was being trained for the royal service under Nebuchadnezzar. The king of Babylon had chosen only intelligent young men of good looks and without any physical defects. They were given the finest food from the royal table to eat.

Daniel, however, and three of his friends insisted on a vegetarian diet. The man in charge of the king's training program was worried this would affect their health.
"Daniel said, 'Submit us to the test for 10 days. Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.' At the end of 10 days they looked healthier and were better nourished than all the young men who had lived on the food provided by the king," says the Bible.

NATION/WORLD

Gorbachev makes bold deal, defeats hard-liners

MOSCOW (AP) — In a bold political stroke, President Mikhail S. Gorbachev has promised new elections in an agreement with his chief reformist rival, and used that deal to fend off a challenge from hard-line Communists.
Gorbachev promised elections for the presidency and the national parliament in the accord with Russian leader Boris N. Yeltsin and the heads of eight other republics. Kremlin spokesman Karen Karaguzian said today.
The Soviet leader unveiled the agreement, reached in Gorbachev's country home, just hours before Wednesday's start of a two-day Communist Party Central Committee meeting in which hard-liners sought his ouster as party leader.

The agreement calls for an end to strikes, the rapid signing of a Gorbachev-advocated treaty on preserving the union, a new constitution within six months, then new elections. It is signed only by the nine republics that want to remain in the Soviet Union.
It was not immediately clear whether the agreement specified that the office of president would be filled in a general election.
Gorbachev has never faced the voters directly and, under the current constitution, would not have to do so until 1995.
Whether striking workers will be swayed to return to work by Gorbachev's tactics is unclear. An estimated 300,000 coal miners are continuing a strike that began

March 1. Among their demands are tying wages to inflation, Gorbachev's agreement with nine republics appears to place a heavy penalty on the six independence-minded republics, which were not invited to Tuesday's meeting. It says the six will not enjoy "most favored nation status" — defined elsewhere to mean they will lose Soviet subsidies and be forced to pay world prices in trade with the rest of the Soviet Union.
Gorbachev said the agreement would put his reforms back on track.
Last week in Tokyo, he said he was giving up on the six independence-minded republics and would pursue the new Union Treaty with the other nine, which comprise 90 percent of the country.

Both GPS and Glonass are designed to provide precise navigation and position data to aircraft via satellite, the FAA said.
The systems can provide extremely accurate position information in all weather conditions, 24 hours a day anywhere in the world, including over the ocean, the agency said.
Both systems will undergo performance testing in U.S. and Soviet laboratories with the aim of producing a single, integrated navigational receiver, Bussey said.
Bussey also said that under the terms of a U.S.-Soviet agreement, a Northwest Airlines Boeing 747 has begun demonstration flights over Soviet airspace using both the GPS and Glonass navigation systems.
Bussey said the use of Soviet airspace allows more direct routes, permits shorter flying time and saves jet fuel.

U.S., Soviets using war technology for aviation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The technology used by U.S. troops to pinpoint positions in the trackless deserts of the Middle East is being used by the United States and the Soviet Union to develop a worldwide satellite navigation system for civil aviation.

"This system will be one of the building blocks of the 21st century's air management system," James B. Bussey, head of the Federal Aviation Administration, told reporters Wednesday.

"This is a civilian version of what we were using in Desert Storm," he said, referring to the Persian Gulf War.
Cooperation with the Soviet Union to produce a standardized system "hastens the day when global satellite navigational systems will be the norm," he said.

Both GPS and Glonass are designed to provide precise navigation and position data to aircraft via satellite, the FAA said.
The systems can provide extremely accurate position information in all weather conditions, 24 hours a day anywhere in the world, including over the ocean, the agency said.
Both systems will undergo performance testing in U.S. and Soviet laboratories with the aim of producing a single, integrated navigational receiver, Bussey said.

Bussey also said that under the terms of a U.S.-Soviet agreement, a Northwest Airlines Boeing 747 has begun demonstration flights over Soviet airspace using both the GPS and Glonass navigation systems.
Bussey said the use of Soviet airspace allows more direct routes, permits shorter flying time and saves jet fuel.

Bussey said that by flying the direct trans-Soviet route, the Northwest plane cut 90 minutes from its flight time and saved several thousand dollars in fuel costs.

RELIEF EFFORTS — Costa Rican Red Cross workers stack supplies for distribution to earthquake victims Wednesday in San Jose, Costa Rica. The quake injured over 800 people and killed 79.

30,000 face famine

SIXAOLA, Costa Rica (AP) — About 30,000 people in Talamanca County — banana-growing land along the border with Panama — face hunger, thirst and the threat of epidemics.
A major earthquake has cut them off from the rest of the country.

Monday's tremor, which registered 7.4 on the Richter scale, killed 82 people in Costa Rica and Panama, 53 of them in Costa Rica. Hundreds were injured and thousands lost their homes.
The quake also knocked down three bridges on the 55-mile road between this rickety border town and the provincial capital, Puerto Limon.

It tore up roads, knocked down utility poles and trashed dozens of towns and villages in Costa Rica as well as Panama's bordering Bocas de Toro province.
"This is one of the most, if not the most, devastated regions, and we don't seem to be receiving priority attention. Very little, almost nothing has arrived," said Dr. Ninette Alarcon, a physician with the Ministry of Health, as she toured Sixaola and its environs Wednesday.

"We're completely cut off except by air. We need food, water, tents and fuel for generators," she said.
She said the first case of diarrhea — resulting from people drinking contaminated water — have already appeared.

There is no electricity. High voltage towers were also knocked down by the earthquake. Sixaola's one telephone is likewise out of order. Maj. Gerardo Salazar, the regional National Guard commander, said some 600 houses were destroyed or damaged in and around

Prostate cancer detectable

BOSTON (AP) — Doctors may be able to detect prostate cancer before it spreads and becomes deadly by routinely administering a simple urine blood test to all men over 50, according to a study published today.

"It's very conceivable that using this test, the statistics in prostate cancer could be dramatically altered," said Dr. William J. Catalona, "instead of seven out of 10 cases of cancer being advanced at the time of diagnosis, we could flip-flop that, and seven out of 10 could be early stage."

The blood test checks for levels of a sulfate protein and is the best way to screen for the cancer, the second biggest cancer killer of American men after lung cancer, researchers say.
Catalona, a researcher at Washington University in St. Louis, directed the study, the results of which were published in today's New England Journal of Medicine. The research was financed in part by Hybritech Inc., a San Diego company that makes the test.

Until now, doctors have relied largely on rectal exams to screen men for prostate cancer. However, about two-thirds of cases have spread to other parts of the body before they are found.
The latest test checks blood for prostate-specific antigen, or PSA. Levels of this protein, which is made only by the prostate, go up when the gland is cancerous.

SCHWARZKOPF'S PEN PAL — Andrea Turnbough displays a framed letter from Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf Tuesday in El Paso, Texas. Turnbough, 11, became pen pals with Schwarzkopf during Operation Desert Shield. The general asked Turnbough to introduce him at the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation's 1991 Albert Schweitzer Leadership Award Dinner May 20 in New York.

The new Marriott, 8 miles south of Hartford & 1/4 mile from the Mesozoic Age.

HARTFORD
The new Rocky Hill Marriott is located only 1/4 mile from the Dinosaur State Park, where over 2,000 dinosaur tracks dating back to the Mesozoic Age have been unearthed and preserved.
Stay at the new Rocky Hill Marriott for only $69 per room, per night, and spend some time touring the park. Then, back at the Marriott, you can work up a sweat in our complete health club, take a refreshing swim in the pool, and unwind in the whirlpool. Later, enjoy a fine meal in our restaurant and cocktails in the lounge.
To make reservations for a weekend getaway at the new Rocky Hill Marriott, call (203)257-6000. This special offer is good Thursday through Sunday and based on availability.

DISCOUNT PET SUPPLIES
EUKANUBA 40 lb. $29 <sup>99</sup>	IAMS Cat Food 20 lb. $21 <sup>65</sup>
Whisper Cartridge 4 pack $5 <sup>49</sup>	Whisper Cartridge 12 pack $10 <sup>49</sup>
VAN NES Cat Box Liners Med-Lg. $2 <sup>09</sup> /box Giant	Parakeet Food Hi-Protein $2 <sup>79</sup> 2 lb.
TETRA Staple .71 oz. $2 <sup>49</sup>	ACUREL F 25 ML $4 <sup>19</sup>

AND SO MUCH MORE!
Brand Name Pet Supplies, Pet Foods
At Everyday Discount Prices!

MANCHESTER PET CENTER
687 Main Street, Manchester
649-4273
No other sales apply.

HARTFORD Marriott
ROCKY HILL
100 Capital Blvd., Rocky Hill, CT 06067 (203)257-6000

ADDER
FILMED BY THE PROFESSIONALS AT
CREST INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES, CEAR RAPIDS, IOWA
1001

NRA promotes gun law

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The National Rifle Association has found a handgun control law it likes, one it says is effective and no more inconvenient to buyers than a routine credit card check. But gun control advocates say the NRA's support of federal legislation based on Virginia's 18-month-old handgun control bill is a ruse designed to take away support from an even tougher law.

The Virginia law requires that a computerized criminal background check be conducted on anyone who buys a pistol or semiautomatic weapon. The check, which can be done while the buyer waits in the store, "has already proved to be extremely effective," according to an NRA position paper.

Since the law took effect in November 1989, Virginia police have checked 89,339 potential gun buyers and rejected 1,461, says state police Lt. R. Lewis Vass.

The NRA, which originally opposed the Virginia law, is supporting legislation by Rep. Harley O. Staggers Jr. that would require the same kind of background checks in all 50 states.

But Richmond Police Chief Marty M. Tapscoot says the Staggers bill wouldn't work nationally because most other states don't have the quick computer access to information Virginia has.

"When you get the Staggers bill you get no bill at all," says Tapscoot, who supports the rival Brady Bill, which requires a seven-day waiting period for handgun sales.

"The technology and records to do what we have in Virginia are just not in place across the country," Tapscoot said. "We're talking years before it could be done. With the Brady Bill we can start saving lives right away."

But NRA spokesman Bill McIntyre says a similar federal law could easily be implemented across much of the country.

"This is not Flash Gordon technology here. It's similar to a credit card check and we're all familiar with those," McIntyre said.

He added that national police statistics show 37 states currently have the computer databases available to enforce such a law.

Under the Virginia law, gun dealers call state police, who check the potential buyer's background while he or she waits in the store. The checks take about 90 seconds.

Two other states, Delaware and Florida, have used the Virginia law as a model for similar programs.

Staggers' similar proposal, however, was recently rejected by the House Judiciary Committee in favor of the Brady Bill, which is scheduled for a vote before the full House next month.

The bill is named for former White House press secretary James Brady who was critically wounded during a 1981 assassination attempt against former President Ronald Reagan and who has campaigned for such legislation for several years.

Proponents say the bill's seven-day waiting period would give police time to probe a buyer's criminal and mental records thoroughly.

PHOTO PROVIDES CLUE — Amelia Earhart and her navigator Fred Noonan, right, stand outside their twin engine Lockheed 10-E Electra on June 29, 1937, in Port Darwin, Australia, a few days before their July 2, 1937 disappearance. Greg Cullig, 28, discovered the plane just inside the door, in an aluminum bookcase. That, Cullig says, links it with Earhart's plane through a similar bookcase found on Nikumaroro, an uninhabited island in the South Pacific. Investigators will search the sea floor near Nikumaroro for Earhart's plane in the coming weeks.

MANCHESTER — Maurice Doyon had seen quite enough. The first-year Cheney Tech baseball coach resorted to drastic measures after watching his Beavers perform abysmally, once again, in the field during Wednesday afternoon's home game against Bacon Academy.

Cheney, which has committed 44 errors in nine games, lost to Bacon, 1-3, and saw its record sink to 2-7. It's actually 44 errors in eight games, since Cheney was erroneously given a 5-4 extra-inning win over Rocky Hill. Besides that game, the Beavers have committed at least four miscues in each outing.

"The worst part is Doyon pulled his team off the field after Bacon's at-bat in the top of the sixth inning. He didn't even let his club have its at bats in the sixth. The reason, according to Doyon, is the team's incredible lack of concentration in the field ever since Game 1 of the season. Cheney's pitching, catching and hitting has been adequate, but the defense . . . Well, that's a different story."

"I was trying to light a fire underneath them," Doyon explained, referring to his unusual tactic. "They got a lead at me. I think everyone was shocked when I did it. I definitely lit them up. I embarrassed them. They were united against me. We'll see if this wakes them up. I was going for the jugular. I didn't know what else to do."

But, united is what Doyon wants his team to be on the field. So, maybe this is a step in the right direction. It was only last Friday that Cheney was beaten by the Beavers for the second time in as many games. Coach Bob Platzer's imposed disciplinary sanctions on his team for missing practice.

Getting beat is one thing, but . . . "When you beat yourselves, it's maddening," Doyon said. "The thing is we don't have a fielding team. They do well in practice. At this point, I shouldn't have to teach them fundamentals."

The exasperating part for Cheney and Doyon is that the Beavers have received good pitching, catching and hitting this far. In fact, Cheney has eight of its nine opponents.

Brian Courville and Eric Morrow are the Beavers' two best pitchers and could hold their own against many teams in the area, provided they have an efficient defense behind them.

"The pitching, catching and hitting has been respectable," Doyon, who coached the Cheney junior varsity last year, explained. "But, then we'll get two outs and an 0-2 count and guy hits a pop fly and our guy dives for the ball. Then, the next guy up hits a two-run home run. Doyon knows the talent is there to be a much better team."

"I know these guys want to play," he said. "Mental lapses, lack of concentration is what gets us in trouble. We should be at least 5-4 or 6-3 at this point."

The fact is if the error onslaught subsides, the wins will begin to appear for Cheney.

Doyon, at least, is hoping for a concentrated, united effort toward that goal.

SPORTS

Top ranking hardly to East Catholic's liking

MIDDLETOWN — Recording artist Johnny Paycheck recorded a song entitled "Take This Job and Shove It."

As far as East Catholic High baseball coach Jim Penders is concerned, you can take the No. 1 ranking in the state, and shove it, too.

The Eagles, elevated to the No. 1 ranking at the start of the week, recorded 18 outs against host Xavier High in Wednesday's ACC clash at Palmer Field.

"They would never get in, 21, or No. 19 for that matter, as the host Falcons scored 10 times in the bottom of the seventh for a wild 13-2 victory.

Bryan DeAntonio's three-run double down the left field line pulled Xavier to 5-5 and handed East its first loss after opening the season with nine wins.

Two years ago East was accorded the No. 1 ranking after a 7-0 start. It promptly lost 4-3, to Xavier in Manchester.

East scored twice in the second and added six in the fifth, including a two-run homer by Rob Penders to left centerfield off the scoreboard, a 410-foot shot. It was his fourth homer of the season. The Eagles would add four in the seventh and had a 12-3 lead going into the bottom of the inning.

Fisher, constantly behind the Xavier batters, started the seventh. He didn't get an out. After five singles, a walk and catcher's interference, Penders brought in Doug DeVecchio.

DeVecchio issued two walks and went 2-0 on a third batter before Penders brought in his son, Rob.

"I was looking for someone to throw a strike," the veteran East coach explained.

Fisher took the mound a second time, and gave up the game-winning blow to DeAntonio.

"As a coach, you'd like to play again tomorrow," Penders said, "but I'm sure the kids are glad they're not playing."

East entertains ACC foe Fairfield Prep Saturday at 11 a.m. at Eagle Field.

"For nine games the pitching has been terrific. But today, wow. Just say it was a stinging defeat," Penders said. "You have to get 21 outs in a seven-inning game. We never got a 19th."

Penders was 3-for-4 with two RBIs, DeVecchio 3-for-4 and Dave Chornick, Brian Dumais and Frank Glauson with two hits each for the Eagles.

Jim Tierney

Doyon lights fire beneath Cheney Tech

MANCHESTER — Maurice Doyon had seen quite enough. The first-year Cheney Tech baseball coach resorted to drastic measures after watching his Beavers perform abysmally, once again, in the field during Wednesday afternoon's home game against Bacon Academy.

Cheney, which has committed 44 errors in nine games, lost to Bacon, 1-3, and saw its record sink to 2-7. It's actually 44 errors in eight games, since Cheney was erroneously given a 5-4 extra-inning win over Rocky Hill. Besides that game, the Beavers have committed at least four miscues in each outing.

"The worst part is Doyon pulled his team off the field after Bacon's at-bat in the top of the sixth inning. He didn't even let his club have its at bats in the sixth. The reason, according to Doyon, is the team's incredible lack of concentration in the field ever since Game 1 of the season. Cheney's pitching, catching and hitting has been adequate, but the defense . . . Well, that's a different story."

"I was trying to light a fire underneath them," Doyon explained, referring to his unusual tactic. "They got a lead at me. I think everyone was shocked when I did it. I definitely lit them up. I embarrassed them. They were united against me. We'll see if this wakes them up. I was going for the jugular. I didn't know what else to do."

But, united is what Doyon wants his team to be on the field. So, maybe this is a step in the right direction. It was only last Friday that Cheney was beaten by the Beavers for the second time in as many games. Coach Bob Platzer's imposed disciplinary sanctions on his team for missing practice.

Getting beat is one thing, but . . . "When you beat yourselves, it's maddening," Doyon said. "The thing is we don't have a fielding team. They do well in practice. At this point, I shouldn't have to teach them fundamentals."

The exasperating part for Cheney and Doyon is that the Beavers have received good pitching, catching and hitting this far. In fact, Cheney has eight of its nine opponents.

Brian Courville and Eric Morrow are the Beavers' two best pitchers and could hold their own against many teams in the area, provided they have an efficient defense behind them.

"The pitching, catching and hitting has been respectable," Doyon, who coached the Cheney junior varsity last year, explained. "But, then we'll get two outs and an 0-2 count and guy hits a pop fly and our guy dives for the ball. Then, the next guy up hits a two-run home run. Doyon knows the talent is there to be a much better team."

"I know these guys want to play," he said. "Mental lapses, lack of concentration is what gets us in trouble. We should be at least 5-4 or 6-3 at this point."

The fact is if the error onslaught subsides, the wins will begin to appear for Cheney.

Doyon, at least, is hoping for a concentrated, united effort toward that goal.

Average stuff derails Bosox

BOSTON — Toronto's Dave Stieb had "just average stuff," but allowed just one unearned run on six hits in six innings.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

"As a coach, you'd like to play again tomorrow," Penders said, "but I'm sure the kids are glad they're not playing."

East entertains ACC foe Fairfield Prep Saturday at 11 a.m. at Eagle Field.

"For nine games the pitching has been terrific. But today, wow. Just say it was a stinging defeat," Penders said. "You have to get 21 outs in a seven-inning game. We never got a 19th."

Penders was 3-for-4 with two RBIs, DeVecchio 3-for-4 and Dave Chornick, Brian Dumais and Frank Glauson with two hits each for the Eagles.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

Boston's Matt Young had his good stuff, but had control problems and was charged with five errors, two earned, on four hits and five walks in less than six innings.

"I didn't have my good stuff and I had to make the best of what I had," Stieb (2-2) said Wednesday night after the Blue Jays ended Boston's six-game winning streak with a 6-1 victory over the Red Sox.

"When you're trying to throw sinkers and you throw a pitch nick high, it's not conducive to a positive outing," said Young (0-1). "I didn't really do my job. I didn't pitch too well and I gave too many walks."

Joe Carter, who made a career of hurting the Red Sox in his years with Cleveland, continued to do his thing. And the Blue Jays' strategy playing Young paid off as the ended a three-game losing streak.

Carter had three hits for the second time within 24 hours and the Blue Jays walked out Young, a left-hander, from the game after he had pitched for 4 1/2 innings and a three-inning contract with Boston as a free agent during the off season.

"I love playing here," Carter said. "You see the ball so well because of the background with the big green wall and the fans are always in the game."

"It's as much the atmosphere here as it is the park. It's fun. I always enjoy playing here."

Carter hit his 20th career home run against Boston in Toronto's 6-4 loss Monday night. He had a double and two singles in a 3-0 defeat Tuesday night, then, two for three singles and two runs scored in the series finale.

"Man, he's hot," Toronto manager Cito Gaston said simply when asked about Carter, who has a lifetime .287 average with 89 hits against the Red Sox.

In addition to his pitching, Young was hurt by two passed balls by catcher John Marzano. However, the pitcher accepted the blame for one of the miscues, explaining that Marzano "set up for a sinker low and away and the ball just took off."

"We knew he was going to have trouble throwing the ball over the plate, as usual," Toronto's Kelly Gruber said. "Basically, you wait him out and make him throw the ball across the dish. And you have to be aggressive, let him know that when he does come in you're ready."

"It was kind of a frustrating night for us, to say the least," Boston manager Joe Morgan said. "You felt all right, but just threw too many pitches. We just have to get him a few runs."

"I don't know what causes his control problem. Sometimes it's mechanical. Other times it's just not knowing," Boston's Wade Boggs had a pair of doubles in reaching 1,800 career hits in the 14th game of his 10th season with the Red Sox.

Asked about reaching another plateau, the five-time batting champion said: "Two thousand (hits) after 10 years would be satisfying for me."

Stieb got started with consecutive victory with relief help from rookie Mike Timlin and Duane Ward. Young was replaced with runners on first and second and no outs in the sixth by Dana Kieckhefer, who allowed an RBI single by Mark Whiten and a sacrifice fly by Glenallen Hill before ending the inning. Kieckhefer was tagged for another hit in the seventh.

ALL FINISHED — Manchester High's Kristin Trombley, foreground, leads teammate Andrea Pojeic across the finish line as the pair took 1-2 in the 800-meter run during Tuesday's meet with Enfield High at Pete Wigren Track.

MHS nine a shutout victim

NEWINGTON — The last thing the Manchester High baseball team needed to see Wednesday afternoon was the sight of Newington High pitcher Frank Barresi.

The flame-throwing right-hander tossed a one-hitter at the Indians as Newington posted an 8-0 victory.

Barresi had a perfect game through 5 1/2 innings before Matt Dallasou doubled.

Barresi walked none and struck out 11, including the first five Indians batters of the game. He also hit Steve Wojtuski was 4-for-4 with two RBIs for Newington. Mike Zapaska was 3-for-3 with two RBIs.

NEWINGTON (AP) — Governor 1-0-0-0, Pusey 1-0-0-0, Liborio 4-2-1-1, Welsch 1-0-0-0, McGee 0-1-1-1, DeLoach 0-1-1-1, Magolia 1-0-1-1, Barresi 1-0-1-1, Merrill 0-1-0-0, Dallasou 0-0-0-0, Porosno 2-1-0-0, Zapaska 3-2-2-2, Terrell 1-1-0-0.

MANCHESTER (AP) — Bostonsky was 3-0-0-0, Boston 0-0-0-0, Clume 0-1-0-0, Rice 2-0-0-0, Ringstrom 1-0-0-0, Balaban 1-0-0-0, St. John 2-0-0-0, Folwell 0-0-0-0, Dallasou 0-0-2-0, Lohman 0-0-0-0, Dussault 0-0-1-0, Pothoush 2-0-0-0, Pothoush 1-0-0-0, Tiller 2-0-0-0.

Manchester 000 000 0-0-1-6
Newington 000 000 0-1-1-1
Jim Jackson, O.J. Conwell III and Mark Pothoush were on the mound for Manchester. WP: Barresi, LP: Jackson.

FOCUS

Dear Abby

Abigail Van Buren

Postage too high for newlyweds

DEAR ABBY: With the recent hike in postage rates to 29 cents, plus the cost of the thank-you notes themselves...

1. A personal telephone call to say thank you for the wedding gift. Having a chance to visit for a few minutes on the telephone would suit me just fine.

2. A warm hug and sincere thanks at the next family, church or social gathering would mean much more to me than an expensive, written thank-you note.

DEAR SALT LAKE CITY: Sorry, a "warm hug" and sincere thanks at a chance meeting at the next family, social or church gathering is not a fitting substitute for a written thank-you note.

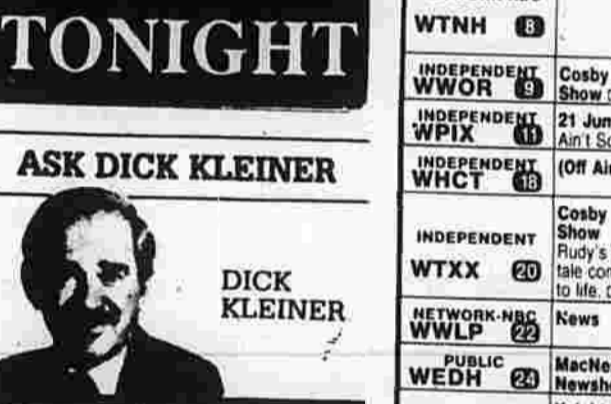

DEAR ABBY: When my son was an intern at a Georgia hospital, he was offered $25 for a vital clinic visit.

DEAR MOTHER: Yes, that's the reason I believe that donated sperm to be used for artificial insemination should be distributed in distant states — far from the donors.

To get Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions," send a long, business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Letter Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. (Postage is included.)

TONIGHT

ASK DICK KLEINER

DICK KLEINER

Q. On "Designing Women," one part of Julia Sugarbaker's wardrobe hasn't changed since the very first episode — her shoes. Are those stiletto-heeled slingback pumps Miss Carter's personal signature, or were they the idea of the wardrobe department? — S.S., Kalamazoo, Mich.

A. Dickie Carter has firm ideas about what her character should wear. The shoes were her contribution.

Q. I'm writing about a movie I saw in the '50s. It was "Westward Ho the Wagons." It was about a man taking wagon loads of women to some far off place in find husbands. It starred the late Robert Taylor and a buxom blonde actress with a heavy accent. It was the best Western I ever saw. Is it on video? — Mrs. L.R.O., Stanwood, Wash.

A. "Westward Ho the Wagons" was made in 1951. The buxom blonde was Denise Darcel. You are alone in thinking it is the best Western. In fact, it isn't even on VCR.

Q. I recently watched Alfred Hitchcock's "Vertigo" with a friend of mine. She said that Hitchcock is in all of his movies somewhere. Is this true? — C., Lawrenceville, N.J.

A. Yes, Hitchcock's cameo appearances were always fun to watch for. In "Psycho," for example, you can catch a glimpse of him strolling past a real estate office.

Send your questions to: Ask Dick Kleiner, c/o Newspaper Enterprise Association, 200 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. 10166. Due to the volume of mail, personal replies cannot be provided.

PEOPLE

Schoolchildren screamed and their teachers giggled and took pictures. The reason for all the excitement at Millersville, Md. Elementary School? Arnold Schwarzenegger.

The body builder turned movie star is the chairman of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports. He dropped by Wednesday to encourage students, teachers and administrators to shape up.

Youth fitness "is in terrible shape, and it is deteriorating. It's going downhill at a very rapid rate," Schwarzenegger said.

By the year 2100, we should have this whole thing turned around and make our children fit again. That is my dream. This my wish," he said.

The actor, star of such films as "Total Recall" and "Kindergarten Cop," visited with a fifth-grade physical education class and spoke to students and parents at a fitness rally.

He is visiting schools in all 50 states to promote physical fitness.

A California company is suing Zsa Zsa Gabor, claiming she reneged on a deal to take part in tourists' "fantasy" vacations because she had recently undergone plastic surgery.

The $1.1 million lawsuit filed Tuesday by Hollywood Fantasy Corp. claims Miss Gabor had agreed to act with tourists in San Antonio, Texas, as part of a fantasy vacation experience. She was to be paid $10,000 plus expenses.

The lawsuit, filed in District Court, claims she canceled the appearances, scheduled for May 2-4, because she recently had plastic surgery and "didn't want anyone except her personal employees to know about it."

Hollywood Fantasy said it had to cancel the event and refund money to those who signed up.

Miss Gabor's publicist, Phil Paladino, called the lawsuit "unnecessary and ridiculous."

Under the contract, Miss Gabor could withdraw if she was offered a "significant" acting job during the same period and informed the company by April 15.

She is currently working on a film called "Queen of Justice" in early May and met the cancellation deadline, Paladino said.

Hollywood Fantasy co-owner Leonard Saffir called the explanation "a sham."

"The movie that she describes, it's not been funded yet. There's no start date," he said.

Grammy-winning singer Lionel Richie and his wife of 16 years, Linda, will divorce, the musician's publicist says.

"Our decision is very painful for us, but we both wish to find happiness in the years ahead," Richie said in a statement released by his publicist, Les Sotera, on Wednesday.

The couple has one child, 9-year-old Nicole. Among Richie's hits are "Say You, Say Me," "All Night Long," and "Endless Love," a duet with Diana Ross.

When he was New York mayor, doors opened for Ed Koch all over the city. But private life means sometimes having to open them yourself.

The ex-mayor signed up for part-time duty as doorman at his luxury Greenwich Village apartment building, one of about 2,800 hit by a handymen's strike.

"Why shouldn't I?" he told fellow tenants. "I live here."

"I don't have the time," said former Conventor Bella Abzug. "And I don't want to take over people's jobs as a matter of principle."

Some 15,000 to 20,000 porters, elevator operators, doormen, handymen, security personnel, cleaners and some superintendents went on strike Sunday.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

Topical honey: burn remedy?

DEAR DR. GOTT: Two years ago I fell against a hot wood stove, severely burning my forearm. In pain and no scarring, I've also treated skin ulcers this way. Is there something to my bizarre finding?

DEAR READER: If it works for you, there must be something to it — although I must admit it sounds pretty far out. Burns are uncomfortable because sensitive nerve endings are damaged; the pain may be worsened by exposure to air. This is why doctors recommend keeping blisters unbroken; the lymph fluid in a blister protects the sensitive tissue beneath until healing has had a chance to get started.

I suppose that a coating of honey might similarly insulate a burned area. Furthermore, the high content of sugar in honey could, I imagine, prevent bacterial growth, thereby protecting a wound or burn from infection.

As you might have guessed, my conjectures about your sticky problem have no sound scientific basis. But I'm trying. For all I know, topical honey may be standard therapy for burns and skin ulcers in primitive cultures; to my knowledge, it isn't in ours.

A recently published book, "Native Harvest" by Barrie Kavauch (Vintage paperback), describes recipes and botanicals of the American Indian. In particular, the section on wild medicines is interesting. Numerous Indian tribes used clovers, comfrey, valerian and yarrow in soothing salves to treat burns. In particular, the yarrow made from the flowers of these plants might contain medicinal remedies, but such a possibility exists.

I'd welcome comments from other readers about the use of honey for burns. In our society, the most appropriate therapy for burns is the immediate application of cold compresses, followed by medical attention if needed.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Please discuss fifth disease in your column.

DEAR READER: Fifth disease (erythema infectiosum) is a mild, acute viral infection, caused by human parvovirus B19. It is marked by fever, malaise and a blotchy red rash on the cheeks ("slapped face" appearance), arms, legs and trunk. The disease lasts about a week and requires no treatment. It causes no health consequences, except in pregnant women, where it may lead to miscarriages.

Fifth disease is so named because, at one time, it was considered to be one of the five most common pediatric illnesses, along with measles, rubella, mumps and chicken pox.

The Associated Press JUST A BUTLER — When he was mayor of New York, doors opened for Ed Koch all over the city. But private life means sometimes having to open them yourself.

Crossword

Crossword puzzle grid with clues for Across and Down.

Stumped? Get answers to clues by calling "Dial-A-Word" at 1-900-454-3535 and entering access code number 184. $65 per minute. Touch-Tone or rotary phones.

CELEBRITY CIPHER

Celebrity Cipher puzzle with grid and clues.

JUMBLE

Jumble word game puzzle with grid and clues.

THE PHANTOM

Comic strip panel titled 'THE PHANTOM' by Lee Falk & Sy Barry.

HAGAR THE HORRIBLE

Comic strip panel titled 'HAGAR THE HORRIBLE' by Dib Dibrowne.

ALLEY OOP

Comic strip panel titled 'ALLEY OOP' by Dave Coverly.

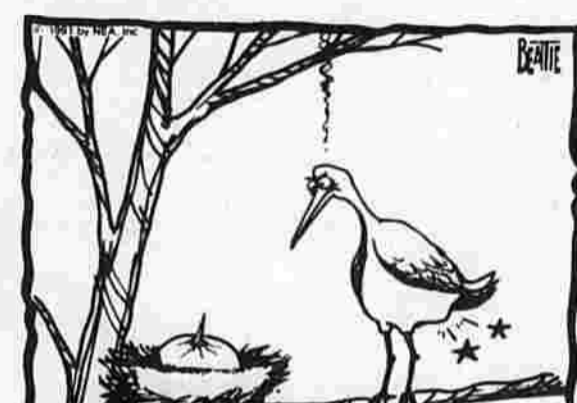

ROBOTMAN

Comic strip panel titled 'ROBOTMAN' by Jim Meddick.

THE NEW BREED

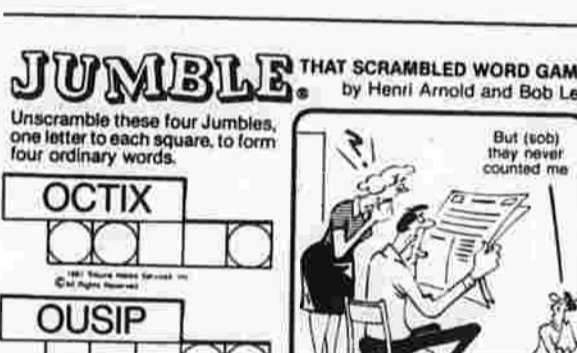

4-25 Isabella Bannerman "Maybe she just needs to go shopping."

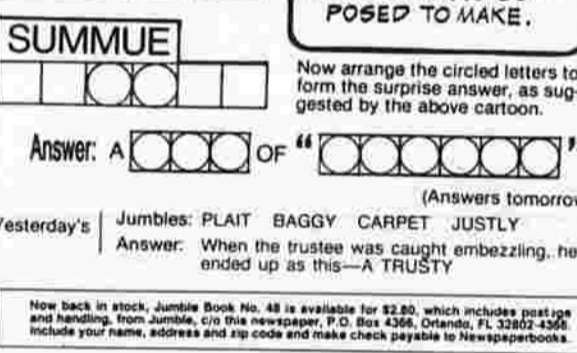

4-25 She had doubts about parenthood right from the very start.

SPIDER-MAN

ERIE

THE BORN LOSER

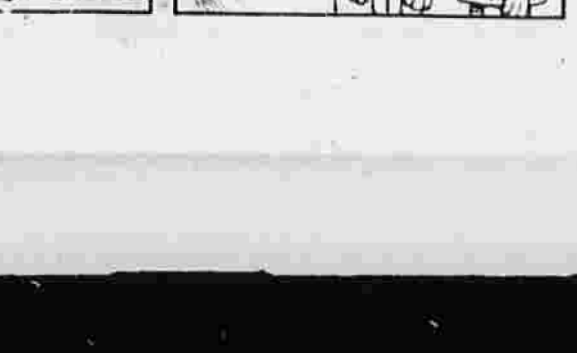

THE GRIZZLIES

ALLEY OOP

ROBOTMAN

PHIPPS

BLONDIE

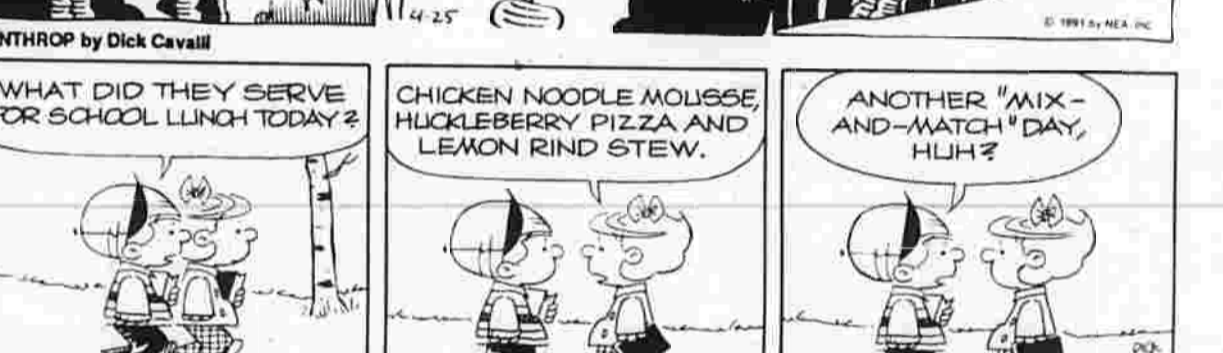

ARLO AND JANIS

SPIDER-MAN

ERIE

THE BORN LOSER

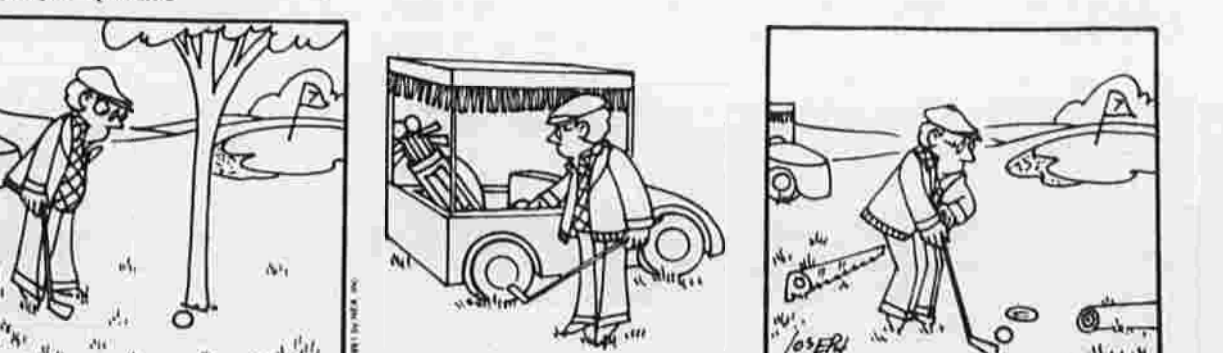

THE GRIZZLIES

ALLEY OOP

ROBOTMAN

PHIPPS

APR 1991

FILMED BY THE PROFESSIONALS AT CREST INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES, CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING 643-2711

NOTICES

As a condition precedent to the placement of any advertising in the Manchester Herald, the advertiser hereby agrees to protect, indemnify and hold harmless the Manchester Herald, its officers and employees against any and all liability, loss or expense... including attorneys' fees...

11 HELP WANTED

PERFECT FOR MOMS!

We're looking for a mature, reliable person with a car for a position with experience answering phones, using the Multi-Mate word processing program, and handling various office responsibilities...

Graphics and more!

1 LOST and FOUND

- LOST-Black cat, small white patch over leg, Wadsworth School, 647-9649 after 6pm.
- LOST-Gray white leashed male cat, Semilong hair, Wetherill St. area, 646-7740.
- LOST-Moris black alk, 3 yr. old orange calico, crown eyes, 30th St. area, 645-8238.
- 2 PERSONALS
- 100 T
- Girls Live One on One!
- Call Now-1-900-950-0969 $2.50 per minute, 10 minutes/minimum.
- Single Girls in Your Area!! 1-900-820-3355 $3/Minute. Must be 18 years.
- SINGLE GIRLS IN-Conneciticut!! 1-900-820-3355 $3/Minute. Must be 18 years.
- WAREHOUSE CLERK WANTED
- CHILD CARE-Loving, responsible person wanted to care for infant in our Manchester home. References. Debra, 647-1497.
- RN or LPN wanted for pediatric office, part time flexible hours. Pleasant working environment, 643-5218.
- WANTED-Babysitter from 2:45pm to 5:45pm daily for a 5 and 9 year and infant. Starting June. Must be reliable and love kids. 649-7773.
- 11 HELP WANTED
- ASSISTANT MANAGER-Work part time for our Self Storage facility located in South Windsor. $5.00/hour call Bob at 292-8355 for more info.
- AUTOMOTIVE OFFICE POSITION-Full time, 5 Monday-Friday. Knowledge of answering business, handling cash, waiting on customers, typing skills are required. Must be bright, responsible and a quick learner. Experience in the automotive industry a plus. Benefits and opportunity for advancement. Please call Tammy at 649-6550 for interview. No walk-ins please.
- COLLEGE-Bound high school seniors. Part time work now, full time this summer. Sabrina Pools, Coventry, 742-7308.
- CUSTOMER POSITION-At Community Baptist Church. Hours: 6:30 pm -10:00 pm, Monday-Friday. Cleaning and light maintenance. Call 871-7337 after 7 pm.
- GENERAL Kitchen Cafe-barista. Marlboro/Glastonbury town line. After Acres Farm, 463 for Charlotte, 633-4681. Extension 455.
- JOBS AVAILABLE NOW ALL TYPES-ALL AREAS
- Gen Labor-usual 10HR
- Security-usual 81HR
- Managers-usual 21HR
- 100% of Overtime Daily
- Choice from 25 Positions
- Call 1-900-226-8269
- $25 for 15 MINUTES
- ONLY $1.66 PER MINUTE

21 HOMES FOR SALE

BEAT-Price! The real original owner 9 room UAR built Garrison Colonial with 4 bedrooms. First floor enclosed sun porch, lower level family room with 2nd fireplace, 2-1/2 baths, hardwood floors and much more. Asking $219,000. UAR Realty, 643-2692.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

BOLTON-8 Room Colonial, 2400 Square Feet, 4 Bedrooms, 2.5 Baths, 1.5 Acres. All Appliances, Owner Reduced, $233,900. 643-2954.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

MANCHESTER-3 Bedrooms, 1 bath, 2 1/2 baths, central air, RE/MAX East of the River, 647-1419.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

MANCHESTER-4 Bedrooms, formal dining room, Family room, porch, spacious yard, $130's. Ron Fournier, 649-3087, RE/MAX East of the River, 647-1419.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

MANCHESTER-3 Bedrooms, 1 bath, 2 1/2 baths, central air, RE/MAX East of the River, 647-1419.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

MANCHESTER-3 Bedrooms, 1 bath, 2 1/2 baths, central air, RE/MAX East of the River, 647-1419.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

THE-Price is right. Renovated 2 bedroom ranch. New furnace, kitchen, bathroom and more. Cozy fireplace and sunny breakfast nook. New listing will sell fast! Call today! Karen Green, Philips Real Estate, 742-1450.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

THREE-Family in nice condition! First and second floors have 2 bedrooms and dining room. Third floor has 2 bedrooms and small 'sitting' room. Enclosed front and rear porches. Separate systems. 3 Washers and dryer hook-ups in basement. Second and third floor exterior sided. Make your appointment to see today! Asking $207,900. Strano Real Estate, 647-7553.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

TIME-Toe Tee Off! $149,900. Golf lovers dream! Surround yourself with a golf course in this 9 bedroom Townhouse with master suite, 2 full baths, 2 hall baths, central air, central vac, finished basement, new bath and room and office. Pool, tennis and par stroke to any green! Owner anxious. Make an offer today! Anne Miller Real Estate, 647-8000.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

ELEGANCE-Personified. Exquisite Waranoka Rd. home with a view of the Hartford skyline. Large fireplace living room opens to an all glass sun-room. Gleaming hardwood floors throughout. Impressive center, entryway. European kitchen, first floor family room and much more! $339,000. "We're Selling Houses" Blanchard & Hossato, 646-2482.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

ENERGY-Efficient. Split level ranch-type radiating, central air, cozy hearth, natural woodwork, hardwood floors, foyer, study. Available immediately. Dawn Sutherland, Philips Real Estate, 742-1450.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

GREAT-Price. Great Home, 3 Bedroom Ranch on Constance Dr. New furnace and baseboards. All new energy efficient windows, new bath and room. $189,900. "We're Selling Houses, 646-2482.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

HANDSOME-7 Room Contemporary on Volpi Rd. 3 Bedrooms, 2.5 baths, 2250 square feet, full basement, finished, new bath and room. $214,900. Excellent value. Priced right at $214,900. Jackson Real Estate, 647-9400.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

IF THE SHOE FITS... NOTICE: If you are considering buying a home, you should know that this is a time to act. This is a time when the market is still hot and prices are still high. If you are considering buying a home, you should know that this is a time to act. This is a time when the market is still hot and prices are still high. If you are considering buying a home, you should know that this is a time to act. This is a time when the market is still hot and prices are still high.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

WHAT-A price! Unusually nice comfort plus cherry fireplace. Pleasant ranch on quiet cul-de-sac area. Tree-lined, hardwood floors, art-in-kitchen, 3 bedroom, kitchen appliances included. Bolton, Reduced! $114,900. Ray Osborne, Philips Real Estate, 742-1450.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

CONDO'S CONDOS! We have units in nearly every complex in the Manchester/Vernon area. East of the River. Call Anne Miller Real Estate 647-8000.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

CONDO'S CONDOS! We have units in nearly every complex in the Manchester/Vernon area. East of the River. Call Anne Miller Real Estate 647-8000.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

CONDO'S CONDOS! We have units in nearly every complex in the Manchester/Vernon area. East of the River. Call Anne Miller Real Estate 647-8000.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

CONDO'S CONDOS! We have units in nearly every complex in the Manchester/Vernon area. East of the River. Call Anne Miller Real Estate 647-8000.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

CONDO'S CONDOS! We have units in nearly every complex in the Manchester/Vernon area. East of the River. Call Anne Miller Real Estate 647-8000.

21 HOMES FOR SALE

CONDO'S CONDOS! We have units in nearly every complex in the Manchester/Vernon area. East of the River. Call Anne Miller Real Estate 647-8000.

THE QUIZ WORLDSCOPE

(10 points for each question answered correctly)

1) This is a photograph by William Snyder of the Dallas Morning News. It is one of several showing ill and orphaned children living in horrible conditions in the East European nation of... the photos won the 1991 Pulitzer Prize in Feature Photography.

MATCHWORDS

1-authorize a-priority 2-approach b-Judge 3-dwelve c-appeals 4-evolute d-approve 5-incident e-a mature

PEOPLE OR SPORTS

1) Unsurprisingly, the best-selling novel regarding its casting of a white actor in an Asian role, the much-ballyhooed movie... 2) After months of controversy regarding its casting of a white actor in an Asian role, the much-ballyhooed movie... 3) Nick Faldo failed to win his third straight Masters golf tournament... 4) The comeback of Mark Spitz to some glory when Spitz laid body to Tom Jager in an exhibition race...

ANSWERS TO THE QUIZ

1-1982 2-1983 3-1984 4-1985 5-1986 6-1987 7-1988 8-1989 9-1990 10-1991

32 APARTMENTS FOR RENT

MANCHESTER-Furnished 3 Room apartment, 2nd Floor, Heat, Private entrances. No pets. Security, References. 643-4880. After 12:00.

MANCHESTER-2

Family, 2 bedroom, Range, refrigerator, washer and dryer. No pets. Security. $575 plus utilities. 646-7336 or 643-5372.

MANCHESTER-May

Nice 3 Bedroom 2 1/2 Bath, 2nd floor, laundry, wall to wall carpeting. $625/month. Security deposit, 1 year lease. 646-4525.

Let A Specialist Do It!

LAWN CARE PERSONALIZED LAWN CARE & LANDSCAPING We are fully experienced, insured and licensed for commercial and residential work. Dependable, fast and honest estimates. 670-8450	PAINTING/PAPERING WEGLES PAINTING CO. Quality work at a reasonable price! Interior & Exterior Free Estimates Call Brian Weigle 645-9312	CARPENTRY/REMODELING KITCHEN & BATH REMODELING Visit our beautiful showroom or call your free estimate. HERITAGE KITCHEN & BATH CENTER 234 Broad Street Manchester 649-5400	HEATING/PLUMBING Installation and Replacement of Oil, Gas & Electric Water Heaters Warm Air Furnaces Boilers Wilson Oil Company 646-6383
YARDMASTERS Spring Clean-Up! Lawn, Bushes, Trees, Cut Yards, gutters, garages cleaned, new Fertilizer Applications Removal, Carpentry, Hauling, Backhoe Work. Any Job Considered. Call 643-9996	MARTY MATSSON Painting Interior/Exterior Wallpapering 30 Years Experience References, Insured 649-4431	CUSTOM QUALITY One stop improvements. Financing to Financing Licensed & Insured. B.B. Moore Call Dave Moore for a free quote. 645-6523	NO JOB TOO SMALL Instant Service/Free Estimates Boltzman Remodeling One Call Does It All 30 Years Experience M.M Plumbing & Heating 649-2871
FRANK'S LAWN &amp; TREE SERVICE A new exciting business... Call today for a free estimate. 643-9321	GL MCHUGH PAINTING Interior/Exterior Wallpapering - Paper removal Caulking, repair and replacement Sealing Holes Owners Est of the River Since 1975 Call today for your estimate. 643-9321	RICK'S HANDYMAN CARPENTRY SERVICE Decks, Additions, Remodeling Heating, Ductwork Senior Citizen discount Invoiced & Insured 646-1458	ROOFING/SIDING LIONEL COTE ROOFING & SIDING 30 Years Experience Fully Insured License # 506737 646-9554
SPRING CLEANING, DETHATCHING, LAWN MOWING, EDGE CUTTING, TRIMMING, LIGHT TRUCKING, ETC. Professional Equipment 646-1894 Fully Insured Free Estimates Ray Hardy 646-7973	TOM PAINTING &amp; WALLCOVERING Complete Interior & Exterior wallcovering. 646-1894 Fully Insured Free Estimates	HOME IMPROVEMENT L.A. HOME IMPROVEMENT Specializing in: Interior - Exterior Remodeling Interior - Exterior Painting Bathroom & Kitchen Remodeling Framing Decks - Sheds - Garages Call and ask about our spring special. Fully Insured Free Estimates 645-1439	ELIMINATE THOSE DOORS From Your Home, Car, Office • Window Screens • Cooling Fans • Clean Your Drapes • Many More - Read and Listen JAMES FLORES & ASSOCIATES 647-4867
SPRING CLEAN UP Yards, Gutters, Etc. Inexpensive Rates 643-5133	BOB - JOBN PAINTING, INC. The 1st in line business. CEILING SPRAY (with extra added) CEILING CONVENTIONAL INTERIOR PAINTING Wall, Trim, Etc. FULLY INSURED - QUALITY - NEAT - ON SCHEDULE - FAMILY 649-9027	MASONRY K & R MASONRY Block, stone concrete porches & patios. 15 years experience. Professional work. 659-7577	BOOKKEEPING/INCOME TAX Joseph P. Demas, Jr. Certified Public Accountant Small business accounting and tax preparation, Payroll, Financial statement audits, returns, consultations. Appointments with and payroll tax preparation. 643-9034
MOWING &amp; PRUNING First Cut Free Light Hauling 649-3104	MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES ODD JOBS Trucking, Home Repairs. You name it - We do it. Free Estimates 643-0304	WATERPROOFING WET BASEMENTS? Haltwater, foundation cracks, sump pumps, tile line, GYPSUM, leaks, and dry wells. Also dampness proofing of concrete walls and floors. Chimney down spouts, stone walls, and concrete repairs. Over 40 years experience. Senior citizen discounts. Albert Zuccaro Waterproofing 646-3361	FURNITURE REPAIR We repair all types of wood furniture and accessories including new chairs, wood turning, wood carving. Prices are Free Call Manchester Hardware 643-4425

HERE'S MY CARD...

PLEASE TELL THEM YOU SAW IT IN THE MANCHESTER HERALD!

Manchester Herald
18 BRAINARD PLACE
HERALD SQUARE
MANCHESTER, CONN 06040
P.O. BOX 591
FAX (203) 643-7496

Swedish - Reflexology - Acupressure European Body Wrap

MASSAGE THERAPY

Leonardo Parla - Diana Raphael

Trager Practitioner
Yoga Instructor
Water Purifiers

130 Hilliard Street
Manchester, CT 06040
(203) 646-1746

HERITAGE KITCHEN & BATH

Professional Kitchen & Bathroom Remodeling
Visit our Showroom
254 Broad Street - Manchester, CT 06040

GEORGE R. JAY
President
(203) 649-5400
FAX (203) 649-8265

DAVESCAPE LAWN MAINTENANCE

LAWN CARE
LANDSCAPING
TREE & SHRUB REMOVAL/TRIMMING
COMMERCIAL SNOW REMOVAL

DAVE ZAREMBA 644-6052

Crystal Crown

BRIDAL VELS & HEADPIECES
"We also carry a full line of wedding invitations & accessories"

LOCATED WITHIN
Looking Good Unisex Haircut
228 Boston Jct. (Rte. 6 & 4)
Boston, Ct.

BUS: 646-8121
TEL: 646-8622

Here's My Card is a special feature of the Manchester Herald and runs every Thursday. If you are interested in placing your business card here please call Paula at 643-2711 for your special low rate.

Cunliffe Auto Body, Inc.

ART CUNLIFFE
Owner

23 Hartford Turnpike Route 83
Talcottville, CT 06066
Phone (203) 543-0016

Owner/Operator
Risk Higher

Free Estimates
Fully Insured

LawnScapes Plus Inc.

Residential - Commercial
Phone 646-3728

Spring Cleanup - Weekly Lawn Maintenance - Thatching
Your Neighbor's Lawn Will Be Brown With Envy.

Bridge

The perfect fitness by Phillip Alder

If you study constructed declarer-play problems you will uncover an interesting fact about fitness. If you work, however, paradoxically, a fitness test will always lose. But if a fitness test is a fitness test, it is needed to win. However, paradoxically, a fitness test is not a fitness test. It is just around the corner.

With that bit of insight, cover the East-West cards and plan the play in four steps. West leads a low play. East wins with the ace and returns another club to your king. Given that the trump is not 4, what is your line? North and South bid aggressively but when holding a double fit, you usually make at least one trick more than the combined point-count suggests.

This problem was devised by the late Paul Roth, arguably the greatest single-dummy-problem composer. At trick three, declarer should lead a spade to dummy's king, ruff dummy's last club, play a diamond to dummy's ace. If the finesse wins, South can afford to lose two hearts trick. However, if the finesse loses, East will win a heart. Declarer finesse and West is end-play. He either returns a heart or ceases a ruff and discards. Note that if declarer doesn't take the spade finesse, the king will be lost. When he finessses the heart, West wins, cashes the spade queen and exits in a minor. He must come to another heart trick.

Wine and Dine

RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

Open 7 days a week
For your casual enjoyment

Daily Specials
Appetizers & Snacks
Char-broiled Burgers
Delicious Super Sandwiches
Beer & Wine

622 Middle Tpk. E
646-9554

LEGAL NOTICES

INVITATION TO BID #1047

The East Hartford Public Schools, 110 Long Hill Drive, East Hartford, CT 06108, will receive sealed bids for P.U.B.L.I.C. S.C.H.O.O.L. RECONSTRUCTION. Bid information and specifications are available in the Business Office of the School Department. Sealed bids will be received until 2:00 p.m. (Wednesday, May 22, 1991) at which time they will be publicly opened and read aloud at the East Hartford Public Schools. The right to accept or reject any or all bids or to waive technical formalities if it is in the best interest of the School Department to do so.

Richard A. Huot, Director, Business Services
047.04.

LEGAL NOTICE

TOWN OF BOLTON

At the April 18, 1991 meeting of the Bolton Zoning Board of Appeals, the following order was entered:

1. Approved application of Peter Brazadonis, 159 Bolton Center Road, for a 21 foot or - setback variance to the Zoning Regulations to construct a garage.

2. Approved application of Robert T. Clunk, 405 Elmwood Ave., for a 20 foot or - setback variance to the Zoning Regulations to renovate and expand a house on 405 Elmwood Ave., dated on Bolton, Connecticut, this 19th day of April, 1991.

John Robert Clunk
Chairman
Bolton Zoning Board of Appeals
647-6137.

WINE AND DINE

RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

Open 7 days a week
For your casual enjoyment

Daily Specials
Appetizers & Snacks
Char-broiled Burgers
Delicious Super Sandwiches
Beer & Wine

622 Middle Tpk. E
646-9554

ADVERTISING

FILMED BY THE PROFESSIONALS AT
CREST INFORMATION TECHNOLOGIES CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA