Mother Weeps at GI's Coffin

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP) — Funeral services for Spec. 4 Pondexter Eugene Williams are over and a legal fight begins today seeking to bury the black soldier, killed in the Vietnam war, in a whites-only cemetery.

Williams' body rests in a flag-draped GI coffin at a funeral home. The 20-year-old soldier died in a mortar attack Aug. 8.

At services Sunday, the one-time star football lineman at the local high school he helped desegregate was likened to "a man without a country, the justice he fought for, he will not get."

Williams has been refused burial at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens. James Livesay, cemetery manager, said contracts restricting burial plots to whites were the basis of the refusal.

However, an attorney representing Williams' mother, Mary Campbell, said he would file papers today in U.S. District Court in Miami seeking an emergency hearing to force burial.

"We just want him buried there as it should be," said Ralph Flowers, the Negro attorney.

A 72-year-old white woman Mrs. John Diehl, donated a grave next to her infant grandson's for Williams.

"I'll testify, too," she said. "Who am I to discriminate when they need space to bury a boy?"

Livesay has been under pressure from Mayor Dennis Summerlin, and other local leaders to give in. But Livesay remained firm in his decision and declined to comment Sunday on lawyer's advice, he said.

The funeral service was led by vice president of student government at California State College, Los Angeles.

"He is like a man without a country, the justice he fought for, he will not get," said Willis Edwards, 23, a senior at California State who returned last March from Vietnam where he was an Army sergeant.

"Go, they say, and fight for your country. Some of us went and were lucky enough to come back to fight another war of injustice."

Looking toward Williams' mother, Edwards continued: "I am sorry that a man fought for his country and his family has to go through the extra pain of waiting for a court order to bury your son because he doesn't have six feet of U.S. ground to lay his head where his mother can go out and visit him."

Lt. Col. Weldon Wright, an Army chaplain sent from Hunter Field, Savannah, Ga., told the mourners the Army couldn't intervene in the fight.

"But if it was ours to decide this service would have been followed by burial in the cemetery of the mother's choice with

Agnew Promises U.S. Military Aid To South Koreans

SEOUL (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew told South Korea today that the United States is transferring a wing of F4 Phantom jet fighters from Japan to Korea and will supply additional military assistance, including planes with special radar equipment to detect infiltrating North Korean boats.

Arriving in Seoul for a two-day visit to reaffirm U.S. intentions of helping South Korea's anti-Communist government, Agnew announced the new military aid in a speech at City Hall Plaza before paying a courtesy call on President Chung Hee Park.

The new aid is intended to ease South Korean objections to the U.S. decision to withdraw by next June 30 some 20,000 of the 62,000 U.S. troops in Korea. The vice president did not go into details. A week ago, the New York Times reported that the arrival of the Phantom wing—three squadrons totaling 54 planes—would not increase American air strength in Korea greatly because at least two other Phantom squadrons which have been in the country on rotational assignment from the United States will go home soon.

Following his courtesy call today, Agnew confers with President Park Tuesday to receive some details of the specific weapons and equipment the Koreans feel they need to make up for the 20,000 American troops to be withdrawn.

American officials said the Koreans are seeking $13 billion worth of aid over five years.

Launching a four-nation Asian trip, Agnew flew here from Guam, where he spent the night after the transpacific flight from California.

Talking with newsmen aboard his plane, the vice president declared that "we are going to do everything we can to help the Lon Nol government" in Cambodia because "the whole matter of Cambodia is related to the security of our troops in Vietnam."

It was the strongest support any top official of the Nixon administration has given the embattled Cambodian regime, but the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., said it represented no change in U.S. policy.

Discussing his visit to Korea, Agnew told the newsmen "there is little likelihood that as a result of my conversations any specific action will be proposed to the Congress."

Although a figure of $200 million was mentioned, Agnew said he would not say whether the aid would be in the form of cash or equipment.

Police said two other researchers and a watchman were injured, none seriously. The building, containing millions of dollars worth of equipment, was heavily damaged.

Lt. Kenneth Buss said the police received a call at 3:40 a.m. saying a bomb had been planted in the building.

"At 3:42 the building exploded. There was a flash fire," he said.

Robert Fassnacht, 30, of Madison, a graduate student and the father of three children, was killed.

University Chancellor H. Edwin Young stood in the rubble outside the damaged building as dawn broke on the campus.

"This is an unspeakable crime," he said. "Nothing we can say will rectify the violence that has been committed against innocent members on the university community . . . We extend our deepest sympathy to the families of those who have been affected by this tragedy."

A portion of the first floor of the six-story reinforced concrete and brick veneer math building, and the basement, were demolished by the blast. Twisted steel jettied from the structure.

U.S. Planes Strike Near War's DMZ

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. B52 bombers flew to within a mile of the demilitarized zone today to strike at new North Vietnamese threats to an allied artillery base that was under siege for 43 days last spring.

Twenty of the giant stratofortresses dropped 600 tons of bombs on bunkers, base camps and storage and staging areas six miles west of Fire Base Fuller.

The artillery base was named by Americans and South Vietnamese until last spring when U.S. troops pulled out after the 43-day siege and turned it over to the Vietnamese. A little more than a week ago, enemy shelling inflicted heavy casualties on the South Vietnamese at the base.

Fuller is one of more than a dozen allied artillery bases located along the DMZ and the northwest border with Laos to guard against infiltration into the populous coastal lowlands.

Fuller is 22 miles east of the Laotian border and four miles south of the DMZ.

Ground action in both South Vietnam and Cambodia was reported light with only small skirmishes.

While no significant action was reported around Fire Base Fuller, the B52 bombers were sent into the region in an effort to prevent North Vietnamese troops from massing for assaults on the base.

Informal sources said there were also indications that elements of at least two North Vietnamese divisions were trying to move from Cambodia closer to the South Vietnamese border in the region northwest of Saigon.

These sources said that despite heavy American bombing raids, North Vietnamese supply lines through Laos toward Cambodia and South Vietnam appeared to be "fairly open."

But the sources said enemy activity in the 3rd Military Region stretching from Saigon to low, although there were some heavy shelling recently along the border area.

Informal sources in Saigon confirmed that American fighter-bombers carried out heavy raids Aug. 9-11 in the Parrot's Beak region of Cambodia about 75 miles northwest of Saigon.

They were trying to prevent the return of the North Vietnamese U.S. and South Vietnamese troops chased out when they went into the Cambodian border region last May.

The Cambodian military spokesman in Phnom Penh said the American planes destroyed a major enemy base camp and killed some 600 Viet Cong and was no confirmation of the casualty report, and one source in Saigon said the Cambodian spokesman "tends to be generally over-optimistic."

Informal sources reported Sunday that the U.S. Air Force is closing its big fighter-bomber base at Tuy Hoa, on the central coast, withdrawing nearly 100 supersonic jets of the 31st Tactical Fighter Wing, which has been stationed there, and also is planning to close the 6,000-man fighter-bomber base at Takhil, Thailand, 80 miles north of Bangkok.

"The moves are in line with the general tenor of troop reductions around the world," said one source. They also are part of President Nixon's program to reduce U.S. strength in Vietnam to 384,000 men by mid-October.

The U.S. Command reported today that American troop strength dropped 2,350 last week to 468,700 men.

New Charge Fired at Egypt

Israel Appoints Abba Eban As Delegate to Peace Talks

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel fired its fifth cease-fire violation charge against Egypt Sunday but at the same time cleared the way for the Middle East peace talks to start by naming Foreign Minister Abba Eban as its delegate.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said Israel expects the talks to get under way within the next few days.

"From Israel's point of view there is now nothing to prevent the talks from starting," he said.

Eban's appointment was announced after a six-hour Cabinet meeting, but he will not enter the negotiations in New York with Jordan and Egypt until later because the two Arab nations named their U.N. ambassadors as their delegates.

Accordingly Israeli Cabinet Secretary Michael Arnon said

Yosef Tekoah, Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, would attend the first session as Eban's deputy and after the first meeting would return to Jerusalem to report to the Cabinet.

Gunnar V. Jarring, the special U.N. envoy for the Middle East who is the go-between in the indirect talks, will announce soon the date of the first session.

Israel wants the foreign ministers to do the talking because she thinks they are more likely to make progress, and there were indications the Cabinet officials might be brought in during the U.N. General Assembly opening in New York Sept. 15.

Foreign Minister Antone Attalah of Jordan said that his U.N.

McGovern Says:

South Vietnamese Want GIs Withdrawn Now, Poll Shows

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., says a poll conducted and then suppressed by the American military shows that the people of South Vietnam want U.S. forces withdrawn immediately.

Coupled with a recent Harris poll in this nation, McGovern said, the results show that both Americans and South Vietnamese support, in principle, his amendment providing for U.S. withdrawal by the end of 1971.

He said the poll in Vietnam was conducted by the American military command and indicated "that 65 per cent of the people of South Vietnam want us to get out. Only five per cent want us to stay."

"I regret the fact that the poll has been largely suppressed by American officials in Saigon because I think the American people have the right to know that our forces are there against the objection of the majority . . . that we claim to be protecting."

He said that his amendment, co-sponsored by Sen. Mark Hatfield, R-Ore., "has been endorsed by a majority of the American people in a Harris poll a few days ago."

McGovern appeared on the ABC television-radio program "Issues and Answers" along with Sen. Robert J. Dole, R-Kan., a strong supporter of President Nixon's Vietnamization program.

Dole agreed with a recent statement by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew that the McGovern-Hatfield amendment is irresponsible, tying the President's hands by setting a definite timetable.

But Dole also commented that "The President is ending the war and I would guess that this amendment is an endorsement of the Vietnamization program."

McGovern said he thought the amendment had about 40 votes lined up and expressed hope he could pick up enough more before a Senate showdown in early September.

BANGKOK (AP) — Further withdrawals of U.S. troops from Thailand, now under discussion, may exceed 6,000 men, Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman said today.

Thanat said military offices of the two countries would meet shortly to work out a phased withdrawal program.

The new cutbacks, following the withdrawal of 6,000 men over the past 12 months, would come in the period ending next June.

Asked if the withdrawals are based in Thailand, they are stationed principally at air bases at Takhil, Udorn, Ubon, Korat, Utaat and Donnmuang.

Asked if the withdrawals would result in the closing of the air base at Takhil, 80 miles north of Bangkok, Thanat replied that such reports were "premature."

American sources, however, have confirmed that Takhil is to be closed down.

He said, however, that the withdrawals would not affect the B52 base at Utaapao.

Vatican Halts Indian Girl Recruitment

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican admitted Sunday night that "problems" have resulted from the recruiting of Indian girls to be nuns in European convents and said the practice has been suspended while it is being investigated.

"It is true," the Vatican said in a statement, "that for some years young Indian girls, feeling themselves called to the religious life but without the necessary means, had turned to priests and ecclesiastical agencies to be helped in following that which was or which they felt to be their vocation."

The Vatican said "a certain number" were taken in by "various religious institutes, especially in Europe." The statement said that not all the girls had a true religious calling, so some returned to India, while others remained in Europe.

The statement was issued after the London Sunday Times reported that European convents short of recruits had bought more than 1,200 Indian peasant girls for prices ranging from $800 to $750 each.

The British paper's report said 26 Italian convents had bought girls from eight priests or religious communities in India's Kerala state. One Florentine convent bought 20 girls from one priest, the paper said.

Integration Faces Test This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration's claim to have virtually wiped out Southern-style school segregation comes to the test this week as the first of nearly 600 holdout districts begin integrating classes.

Between 80 and 90 Southern districts, acting under court orders or voluntary agreements, open their doors today under plans which, for the first time in a century, eliminate dual systems for blacks and whites.

The administration last week said with 566 districts scheduled to desegregate this fall, more than 94 per cent of the school systems in the South would be in compliance with the Supreme Court's 1954 edict that separate schools are contrary to the law of the land.

Blast Jars Midwest University; Student Dies

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — An explosion, following by two minutes a telephone warning to police that it would occur, ripped through a University of Wisconsin mathematics building today, killing one graduate student.

which can be criticized from the point of view of taste, odor, or appearance.
 The survey included the water supply for some of the country's largest metropolitan centers, and it included the water in the supply systems of the state of Vermont.

A general confusion, by the survey,
 that the bigger the operation, the better
 the water is likely to be, leaves the inference that some of the more questionable conditions were found in the state of Vermont, whose once green reputation seems to be buffeted, these days,
 by one disillusionment after another.

These are the main findings of the federal survey, made by the bureau
 within the bureau within the bureau.
 We wish to make no great quarrel
 with them.

We admit to one hope, probably futile.
 We would hope that, from this disclosure, there does not now have to come a great national scare about drinking water. Let's not deliberately try to see how much we can frighten ourselves.
 Let's not set up an expensive, national crusade for pure water. Let's not welcome, to platform or to microphone and camera, any flood of evangelists who,
 as so much in an appearance, who lead us
 into the passage of new laws, the creation of new bureaucracies, and the increased of new expense, all with the threat that, if we don't, we will label ourselves as being against pure water.

Almost anything else would be better, including, if necessary, an enactment of the new record just set by the average Dutchman, who now consumes 53 quarts of beer a year.

Kidnap Menace At The UN

By Rowland Evans Jr. and Robert D. Novak

WASHINGTON—In the wake of the abduction-murder of Judge Harold Hill in San Rafael, Calif., law enforcement officers are taking extraordinary security precautions for the 25th anniversary session of the United Nations General Assembly in New York Oct. 14.

With at least 50 heads of government and heads of state in attendance, the communitarian session provides a golden opportunity for radical activists to make their presence known.
 The President slipped that time in San Clemente and eluded the newsmaggling him, his companions were Mr.
 Rebozo and Mr. Kissinger. Neither are of Tetonian origin.

But the general tone of life in the White House is described by inmates of the President's household as "a direct reaffirmation of our commitment that the American presence in Southeast Asia is something we are determined to maintain."

This—the business of "the American presence" in Asia—has, from the start of our involvement, been what has been in the minds of our foreign policy theorists as a general matter, rather than the special development of any particular situation in Vietnam or anywhere else. This admission, that we are determined to maintain our own power presence and influence on the mainland across the Pacific, is something that used to slip into the open in the remarks of President Johnson and Secretary Rusk, and it involves a concept of the American destiny which makes Vietnam a convenient pretext for doing something we wanted to do anyway rather than a special cause which demands special help from us.

The frightening inference, every time
 this kind of phrase slips back into high discussion of our foreign policy, is that the principle which guides us in Asia
 is not our fervent belief in a free choice for the people of South Vietnam
 but our own cold power politics theory that we ourselves must have enough of a free hand in Asia to keep the continent from being united against us.

We might still call this a policy for freedom and democracy, but would have a hard time reassuring our inner conscience that it was not, in reality, more a policy of sphere of influence.

Please, No Crusade

The federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare has released a report, compiled by the Bureau of Water Hygiene of its Environmental Health Service, which finds that, of some 12.2 million Americans whose public water supplies were sampled, approximately 800,000 drink water which is rated potentially hazardous to their health
 while another 2,000,000 drink water

"Sette The Day"

By the Editor

The victory of Joe Duffey in the recent primary is a victory of the people, for the people and by the people. To the disillu-sioned, apathetic, and cynical of all ages in our State who had become victims of their own worst fears, it should now be apparent that change can be effected, ideals can be translated into realities, and the human aspirations of all of us can prevail against the ruthless power-seeking of a few self-appointed bosses.

Now did O'Brien get encouragement from either Gov. John Dempsey or Connecticut, outgoing chairman of the Democratic Governors Association, or Dempsey's successor, Gov.
 Robert Scott of North Carolina.
 They told O'Brien that the governors really weren't very upset about White House intension
 and that the prevailing tone
 of the conference was blandly
 non-partisan.

To the 55 per cent of the registered Democrats who felt the pursuit of their private interests and convenience was more important than participating in the democratic process, I can only say, you should hang your heads in shame. The irony of it all is that the voters who have been conditioned by the party bosses to leave the thinking to them, were precisely the voters who, if they could have aroused themselves from their lethargy, would have, Faviot style, pulled the lever of the "endorsed" candidates. Thus John Bailey and colleagues can thank themselves for aiding the socially conscious citizens who support the Herold and WINP affnance co-sponsorship of new Civic Order.

Ernest R. Peterson and

 vocate the inclusion in the call for the annual town meeting an expenditure of $2,500 for a veterans center.

Lord's hobby was so secret,
 she was proud of her collection and had shown it to many of her friends and neighbors and had talked about it freely. "Perhaps," Mrs. Sousa said, "I should have had the collection in a vault at the time. I can only say, it should have been something that could work on when they're in the mood and don't have to visit the bank."

Lord will be in the fifth grade
 at St. Terry School this year and his favorite subject in math. She is a petite brunette, with a dimple in her cheek
 which she smiles. Swimming, bicycle riding, 4-H Club and playing the piano are her favorite past times, along with collecting coins.

"She hasn't picked up a coin yet since that night," said Mrs. Sousa, and Lord doesn't know if she will ever get interested in coin collecting again.

Revenue Collector John W.
 Brown is resigning his post and next month and application for a prospective replacement will be accepted at the time of the through Aug. 31, said Town Manager Terry Spenkel.

Applicants must have at least six years' employment in bookkeeping and accounting or be a college graduate with at least two years' bookkeeping and accounting experience. Preference will be given to local residents.
 The job pays between $5,000
 and $10,071.

Brown, 55, has been revenue collector in the town for six years, beginning as deputy collector and becoming collector
 in 1965.

South Windsor Lori Laments Loss of Coins

Theives, burglars and intrigues are normally the ingredients
 found in Nancy Drew adventure stories, but for 10-year-old Lori Sousa of 26 Farmstead Drive, these elements have come to life.

Recently Lori, with her father and mother, went to visit her aunt and upon their return, their home had been entered through a broken window in the master bedroom.
 Doors were left open, bureau drawers overturned onto the floor and Lori's private coin collection was stolen.

Coins had become her hobby
 and for three years she had received them as gifts. She even looked through change from her father's pickets and had bought some with Christmas and birthday money with the help of her parents. For an assignment one time she even wrote "On Being a Nickel."

"The only thing that was taken was my coin collection," said Lori. Equipment and money-wise the collection had a face value of $27, but, total worth according to a local coin store's figures was approximate $331.

"My special piece was a 1903
 two and a half dollar gold piece
 I had gotten from my mother, who had gotten it from her aunt," said Lori. This one coin, in many Boy Scout's booking of $60. "I'll never be able to get that back again," said Lori.

Other items in her collection
 were silver dollars, Kennedy, Liberty and Franklin half dollars, some silver certificates and coins, as well as sequence albums of all denominations of Venetian coins.

Lori's parents, Raymond and Veronica Sousa, feel that the robbery had to be done locally.
 "We have no set schedule, we usually leave the house for any length of time," said Mrs.
 Sousa, "so someone who saw
 us leave this particular evening,
 someone who knew of Lori's collection must have done this."

Squatrito Kickoff Attracts 200 Guests

By ROY R. COHEN (Herald Reporter)
The campaign kickoff reception which Atty Dominic J. Squatrito gave Saturday was called a success. The weather was perfect. The food was good. The crowd was large (over 200 attended). And there were no speeches—always a hit with people attending a political event.

Squatrito, of Manchester, is the Democratic candidate for state senator from the 4th Senatorial District. Also there were no speeches—always a hit with people attending a political event.

The two are vying for the Democratic nomination for First District congressman.

Saturday's reception was on the grounds of the Squatrito home at 37 Joffe St. Although it was scheduled for 4 to 7 p.m., some people came early and some stayed late. The last didn't leave until about 8:30.

Attending were Democratic town committee members and their spouses from the four towns of the 4th Senatorial District—Manchester, Glastonbury, Macpherson and East Hampton.

He is married to the former Maria Marions of Turin, Italy, and South Windsor, and relatives and friends of the Squatrito family, some from as far as New Haven.

All factions of the local Democratic Party were present. Backers of Joseph Duffy, Alphonus Donahue and Edward Marcus, in last Wednesday's primary for U. S. senator, and backers of William Cotter and Jay Jackson, in the primary for First District congressman.

Attending were State Sen. Barry; State Rep. N. Charles Boggioli, running for reelection in the 30th Assembly District; and Hugh Ward, the Democratic candidate for state representative in the 18th Assembly District.

Squatrito, a partner in the Manchester law firm of Hayer, Law and Squatrito, was graduated from Manchester High School in 1957, from Wesleyan University in 1961, and from Yale Law School in 1965.

In 1961-62 he attended the University of Florence in Italy as a Fulbright Scholar, studying Church-State relations.

He lettered in football, swimming and track in high school and college and was football captain at Manchester High and at Wesleyan.

Squatrito, 31, was on Barry's campaign staff in 1966 and 1968 and, in 1968, was Manchester coordinator for Emilio D'Addario, when he was re-elected First District congressman.

Student Editors Gather for Talks

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — The week-long United States Student Press Association Congress began Sunday night with the arrival of some 800 editors of college papers from all over the country.

The congress is intended to give participants a chance to talk and learn about the news business, with seminars run by experts in business management, advertising, reporting and censorship.

Also attending are two student editors of South African college newspapers.

Michael Vundia, who attends a segregated black university in South Africa discussed discrimination against blacks in his country. Neville Curtis, while from South Africa, said "it is interesting to hear people call this (U.S.) government fascist in South Africa, fascist really is fascist."

Firemen already at the scene were routing traffic around the felled wire, the tree and the damaged car. They pulled the boy off the wire with a forestry brush hook and fireman Bud Meyers immediately began heart massage.

The Andover ambulance was dispatched to pick up the driver of the car involved, look the boy to the hospital and the Manfredi Ambulance Co. was called to take Bradford Clapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clapp of Lake Umbagog, to the hospital.

The live wire, stepped on by Clapp, was on Lake St., some 500 or 600 feet from the fallen tree which came down after a heavy rain storm.

Tolland Problems in Maintaining Town Dump Crop Up Again

Problems in maintaining the dump for the use of local residents during authorized hours only have arisen again.

First Selectman Charles T. Tolland reported the chain and lock to the dump were stolen sometime Thursday night and had to be replaced over the weekend.

The dump must be locked when not in use, according to state health department regulations.

This has resulted in some people tossing rubbish over the fence or leaving it piled in front of the gate.

Tolland has promised to enforce the regulations and remind residents guilty of these practices that they are subject to arrest or fine for the violations.

To combat the problems, three of the constables living in the vicinity of the dump, John Piazza, David Cabana and Thur Zisser, have agreed to patrol the dump at random hours.

The use of the dump will also be the object of a crackdown.

Susan H. Briggs, R1, 22, South Willington, was arrested this weekend by Resident State Trooper Harry Tomasek and charged with violation of the dump ordinance. She is scheduled for court appearance Sept. 15.

The increased use of go-karts, mini-bikes and motorcycles on children on town roads has prompted several complaints to be made to the Health Officer. Tomasek has issued a warning to parents of these children that they are responsible for the violations and that summons will be issued.

Schools Committee

The first meeting of the Tolland Junior Women's Club Scholarship Committee will be held tomorrow night at 8 at the home of Mrs. Lance Lasher, Pine Hill Rd.

Guidelines will be established for the administration of the scholarship fund, which was originally started in 1968. Since that time the club has made an annual deposit in the fund with the plan to award the first scholarship to the best Tolland High's first graduating class.

The fund will be replenished each year to permit the awarding of the scholarship on an annual basis.

The scholarship committee is a subcommittee of the Education Committee and consists of Mrs. Lasher, education chairman; Mrs. Richard Symonds, Mrs. Harry Palag, and Mrs. Robert Henry, all former teachers.

Black Laymen Petition Vatican For Nine Bishops

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first national convention of black Roman Catholic laymen has petitioned Pope Paul VI for authority to elect four black bishops.

It also urged development of a distinctively Afro-American liturgy.

The convention concluded Sunday after electing Joseph Dulin, principle of St. Martin de Porres High School in Detroit, as pro tem chairman.

The request that black laymen be allowed to elect bishops runs counter to the current U.S. practice in which bishops are named by the Pope on the advice of influential members of church hierarchy.

Although there are an estimated 800,000 black Catholic laymen, there are only about 100 black priests and only one black bishop, Auxiliary Bishop Harold R. Perry of New Orleans.

About 125 convention delegates presented the requests to a secretary at the residence of the Pope's U.S. emissary.

Their letter also declared that American bishops "have failed miserably to exercise their responsibility as the successors of the apostles."

Few Mishaps Mar Rockfest

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Rock lovers and art lovers who converged on this small southeastern Pennsylvania borough this weekend, caused minor problems, but massive traffic jams.

An estimated 3,000 to 5,000 rock lovers converged on a large field for a 12-hour rock festival Saturday which came about only an eleventh hour donation of private land.

The art lovers were attending the borough's annual sidewalk art festival.

The arrest of a nude youth, a minor fist fight between members of a motorcycle gang, and the late arrival of 40 portable toilets, marred the weekend.

Police reported that the air at the rock festival was spiced with the smell of marijuana, but pot smoking and selling were not tolerated.

Scott Tut, 23, promoter of the festival, called Charles Royer, 37, who donated the land, to the site Saturday and presented him with a small trophy in appreciation of his offering of the land when critical negotiations failed.

"I'm tired of seeing these kids being kicked from pillar to post," Royer said.

The extended outlook is for fair and seasonable weather through early October, with a warmer spring. Overnight lows averaging from the mid 20s to the low 30s, with afternoon highs in the low to mid 50s.

Soviet Vessel Sinks Into Sea

BONN, Germany (AP) — A Soviet survey ship, swamped by heavy seas last week, sank in the North Sea, the Defense Ministry reported today.

The ship Gordoviy went down during the weekend near the German light ship 28, the ministry said.

The Gordoviy had been under way since it left the port of Leningrad on Aug. 18. Only the ship's stern was above water when the Soviet tug began towing.

The West German navy said Thursday there was no evidence to support newspaper speculation that the Gordoviy was a spy vessel sent to observe German maneuvers in the North Sea.

Cushing Dismisses Retirement

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, who observes his 75th birthday today, says, "I know nothing about retirement."

Earlier he had said he would retire on his 75th birthday but now he says, "Retirement is up to Home. I have no say about it. Some submit resignations but I haven't given it any thought."

He said Sunday in a telephone interview that he was still, but reported my remarks would know long been interested in and promoted aid to minority groups of a portion of his intestine in 1968.

Cardinal Cushing said Sunday the son of a blacksmith in New York City has been pulled from the Catholic Church, he said. "Don't worry, I'll be up and around," he said.

Cardinal Cushing also has spoken of retiring to Latin America to become a father confessor to priests and nuns.

"I'm the easiest confessor in the church," he said. He has

New York City Man Drowns in Connecticut

PORTLAND (AP) — The body of Benjamin Cook, 45, of New York City has been pulled from the Connecticut River.

Cook apparently drowned, according to state police, who said there were no signs of violence. His body had been in the water about three days when it was discovered Saturday, police said.

Bread and Butter Workmen

Bread and butter combination of veteran batterman, pitcher Fran Turkenton and catchers Joe Morrison and Aaron Thomas, and a fellow who prances thievishly in broad daylight, Scott Eaton, were the big men as the New York Giants eked out a 2-1 win over the cross-town rival Jets yesterday.

Hard to believe that these football butts would turn out to be the rival New York club battle in an exhibition game that started out as a miserable day weather-wise.

The heavy, torrential rains ceased an hour before the kick-off and except for a brief light drizzle at the start of play, conditions got better as the day wore on.

Dubious Honor
The weather wasn't any handicap to either club, although Joe Namath didn't suit up because of a chance of injury to his brittle knees.

DARREN, Conn. (AP) — Marjorie Wilkinson, 26, of Danbury, Conn., won the U.S. Women's Amateur golf championship by beating her opponent, Miss Wilkerson, 2-1.

Battle of Stats
The Jets won the battle of statistics except for one thing, and that was the only one that really counted. The Giants had but six first downs, 20 for the Jets, gained but 54 yards rushing to 131, picked up 11 first downs to 17 for the Jets.

Great Start
It appeared that the Giants, humiliated by the Jets in their first meeting early last year, at so an exhibition at Yale by a 17-0 score, would be the right of the bow.

Namath Had Nothing to Say But Fans Did at Yale Bowl

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — "I have nothing to say," said Joe Namath. But the fans did. They said what they had to say. They said that they had to say with practiced ease. And they said what they had to say with waving white handkerchiefs. And, while no one can say for certain why they booed the shaggy-haired quarterback of the New York Jets, one thing is certain—Namath was a target for derision Sunday at the Yale Bowl as the Jets lost to the New York Giants 20-14 in a National Football League game.

Water Ski Winners

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Lisa Allan of Winter Park, Fla., and Mike Snyder of San Anselmo, Calif., won the top titles Sunday in the 28th annual National Water Ski Championships. Allan, 19, won the girls' title, and Snyder, 23, won the boys' title.

NEW YORK (AP) — Cincinnati's Big Red Machine showed the New York Mets one of its better arms Sunday and the way catcher Jerry Rives' glove was popping, you know Don Gullett was something special. "But winning that second ball for Stewart's first home run," said Bench, "that was a good run." A long young left-hander really turned it on. He mowed the field with a blasting fast ball, fanning the first six men he faced.

MY TESTS REVEAL THAT CIGARETTE REACTION ARE INVERSELY PROPORTIONAL TO RATIONAL AND IRRATIONAL STIMULI AS PSYCHOLOGICAL CO-ORDINATES!

WHICH MEAN THAT DOESN'T MEAN I GOT YOUR WHEELS AND AN ANSWER TO IT?

YEAH, BUT IT'S A FREAK! YOU LET US IN THIS PLACE AND YOU WON'T BE A FREAK ANY MORE!

WITHIN HOURS, I'LL REPAIR YOUR AUTOMOTIVE WORLD!

YEAH, AND WHAT YOU REPAIRS THE 100 PER CENT OF IT?

I'M MORE INTERESTED IN THE 10 PER CENT I'LL REMOVE!

THERE'S NO DENYING THE RESSEMBLANCE. SHERIFF, IF BILL SUTTON HAD LIGHT HAIR HE'D BE A DEAD DOG FOR THE HIGH SEAS.

IT'S UNLIKELY THAT THE SHOULD BOTH HAVE A SCAR IN THE SAME PLACE.

YEP! THAT'S WHY THE JURY BELIEVED NEVER BELIEVED.

BUT WE CAN'T TOUCH MICKY, SHERIFF—UNLESS YOUR STATE CHARGES WITH MURDER!

I KNOW THAT!

BUT I WANT TO FIND OUT IF YOU HAVE ANY OBJECTIONS TO MY DOING A BIT OF INVESTIGATING!

NONE AT ALL! AND WE'LL BE GLAD TO COOPERATE!
