By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer
PHNOM PENH (AP) — Enemy troops smashed the vanguard of the Cambodian government's first major offensive of the war today, forcing Cambodian soldiers back after an abortive attempt to recapture an important position in the country's heartland.

Enemy gunners fired more than 400 mortar shells into forward positions of the government soldiers in the village of Taing Kauk, 55 miles north of Phnom Penh, and followed the barrage with ground assaults and volleys of rocket grenades. Twenty Cambodian soldiers were killed and more than 40 wounded in the attack that lasted from just after midnight until past dawn.

Communist losses were given by government commanders as 20 dead left on the battleground and an estimated 200 more dead and wounded carried away during the night.

The government operation was aimed at reopening 50 miles of Route 6 from Skoun to the provincial capital of Kompong Thom, 80 miles north of Phnom Penh. The 40-mile segment has been in enemy hands for three months.

Although an amphibious force broke the siege of Kompong Thom last Wednesday in a strike up a flood swollen river from Cambodia's huge lake of Tonle Sap, success of the entire operation would be judged on the government's ability to reopen Route 6 and retake more than 1,000 square miles of rich rice and food producing area.

In other battlefield action: —The North Vietnamese kept up their siege of Fire Base O'Reilly in the northern quarter of South Vietnam despite an eighth straight day of heavy air strikes by American bombers. Enemy gunners poured more than 100 rounds of mortar shells into the base near the Loatian border and South Vietnamese positions around it and clashed with government infantrymen Sunday. Field reports said 10 North Vietnamese soldiers and two South Vietnamese troops were killed and five government soldiers wounded.

—The U.S. Command said activity across South Vietnam had increased slightly Sunday with a 2½-hour fight 60 miles northeast of Saigon and four brief clashes in the central highlands and northernmost quarter of South Vietnam. Headquarters said 21 enemy and five Americans were killed and eleven Americans wounded in the five clashes.

—In Laos, a government military offensive near the Plain of Jars was reported bogged down because of heavy rains that have hampered American bombers supporting the government forces.

The U.S. Command in Saigon announced today more cutbacks in American forces and said troop strength has dropped to 396,300, the lowest level since January 1967.

The command said two U.S. Marine aviation support units were withdrawn from active duty today and will return to the United States later this month.

Four Towns End Strikes At Schools

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Schools opened this morning in three towns that were strike-bound last week—New London, Middletown and Milford—but there was one new walkout casualty—West Haven.

In Bristol, teachers voted 484-55 this morning to go back to work with a negotiated contract still requiring approval of the Board of Finance. Schools in Bristol closed since the scheduled start of classes Wednesday, will open Tuesday.

The proposed contract, accepted by negotiators for Bristol teachers and the school board, calls for an additional appropriation of $575,000 for teachers' salaries and other improvements. Last week the finance board turned down a proposal calling for an extra appropriation of $600,000.

Teachers voted 425-64 in Milford this morning to stay off the job, but schools opened for the first time since they were ordered closed Wednesday morning.

Teachers in New London ended a two-day walkout and returned to classes this morning, but schools were scheduled to be closed Tuesday because more teachers face contempt of court hearings.

Judge David Shea of Superior Court meted out fines totaling $7,550 against the New London Education Association, the group's officers and 43 teachers Saturday. Members of the NLEA voted Sunday night to go back to work and said they would appeal the fines.

In Middletown, where schools opened for a couple hours each of three days last week, teachers were back on the job this morning while negotiations were scheduled to continue.

School Supt. Clarence Green of Middletown said teacher attendance for a two-hour orientation

Beauty Queen Places Faith In U.S. Youth

By G.G. LABELLE
Associated Press Writer
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The new Miss America sees herself as a spokesman for the young people of the United States and she thinks they are a wholesome lot.

The brunette beauty queen, 21-year-old Phyllis George of Denton, Tex., says she believes 95 per cent of the nation's youth are "on a straight line and only 5 per cent are involved with drugs and violence."

Asked what her message to youth would be, she replied, "I have learned that the way to get something done is not through violence."

Miss George said "civil rioting" is the nation's most pressing problem. Asked about the war in Vietnam, she said the public should support the men fighting there.

"I have many friends over in Vietnam," she added. "One just came back and he lost a leg. He

Auto Worker Strike Expected

DETROIT (AP) — With both sides expressing little hope of avoiding a strike, bargainers for the United Auto Workers and industry giant General Motors Corp. today made one last stab at writing a new contract before a midnight strike deadline set by the union.

About 7,500 workers jumped the gun at three Canadian GM plants and one in Framingham, Mass., and refused to report for work when the first shift started.

The wildcat walkouts crippled operations at assembly plants in Framingham, Oshawa, Ont., Ste. Therese, Que., and a trim plant in Windsor, Ont.

"It is quite certain a strike will begin in U.S. and Canadian plants at midnight—Monday," Leonard Woodcock, UAW president, said at the conclusion of a two-hour meeting Sunday. Woodcock had nothing to say at the opening of today's bargaining other than that he had had a good night's sleep.

Auto Strike At-a-Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The United Auto Workers plans to strike General Motors at midnight tonight unless a new contract can be negotiated by then. Here at a glance is a rundown on the impact a strike against the world's largest manufacturing concern would have with auto assembly plants shut down and parts plants left in operation:

WORKERS: At least 344,000 hourly rated GM workers would be idled in the United States and Canada.

PLANTS: GM has 119 plants in 18 states and 69 cities. The UAW says 27 GM plants would be exempted from the strike.

DEALERS: GM has 13,600.

SUPPLIERS TO GM: The pinch would be felt by GM's 39,000 suppliers, with which it spent $11.5 billion for goods and services last year.

STEEL: GM consumes more than 10 per cent of America's steel production.

GM THE SUPPLIER: The firm is a major part supplier to the other automakers as well as independent truck manufacturers and the agricultural implement industry, however 27 parts plants would be left in operation.

OTHER GM PRODUCTS: The firm is the nation's largest builder of diesel engines for industrial and truck use and is a major builder of railroad locomotives and giant earthmoving machines. It also produces appliances, including Frigidaire refrigerators.

DEFENSE SPACE: Last year GM's defense and space work totaled $699.5 million.

SALES-PROFITS: 6,259,652 GM cars and trucks were sold last year. GM's total sales were $24.296 billion, profits $1.71 billion.

TAXES: GM paid $743 million in U.S. and foreign income taxes last year and another $793.4 million in state, local and Social Security taxes.

Israelis Threaten Lives of 450 Arabs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israel has warned Palestinian guerrillas it will impose the death penalty on 450 sympathizers rounded up in occupied Arab territories if the remaining hijack hostages are harmed, an Arab emissary disclosed today.

Dr. Wazi Qamhawi of Nablus in Israeli-held Jordan said he carried the warning to Amman over the weekend at the behest of the Jerusalem government. He said the Israelis also threatened to blow up houses of guerrilla convicted by Israeli courts and to confiscate their property.

A known sympathizer of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, which is holding the hostages, the Nablus doctor was one of three Arab emissaries dispatched to Jordan by the Israelis.

After the three arrived in Amman, the Israelis disclosed they had rounded up 450 Arabs in Jordan's occupied west bank and in the Gaza Strip.

The Popular Front said Sunday it would retaliate for the mass arrests "with complete ruthlessness."

The guerrilla leadership revised its figure today on the number of remaining hostages to "about 50" after airline officials reported 55 persons still unaccounted for. The Popular Front had claimed Saturday it retained only 40 captives.

The last of the other 257 hostages, held for as long as a week, reached Nicosia Sunday. Many then left for Zurich and London, while others spent their first night of freedom in Cyprus.

They were passengers in a Swissair DC8 and a Trans World Airlines Boeing 707 that the Popular Front hijacked Sept. 6 and a BOAC VC10 commandeered last Wednesday. The commandos had demanded the release of seven Arab prisoners of Britain, West Germany and Switzerland as the price of their hostages' freedom.

However, the seven remained imprisoned and a Popular Front statement Sunday night did not spell out terms for the release of the remaining hostages. It said the demands have been communicated to the governments involved.

The statement telephoned to news agencies in Beirut said, "The PFLP has made these as its final demands and will settle for nothing short of the unconditional surrender to them by all governments concerned."

At the White House in Washington, press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler encountered a barrage of questions and came back with a stock answer that the administration is attempting to secure the prompt release of all the remaining hostages and these efforts are continuing.

He said he was not at liberty to go into detail. But he did say that:

"We are still deeply concerned for the passengers that are unaccounted for and still presumably held."

Ziegler was asked how the United States feels about the Israeli roundup of 450 Arabs. He said he had no comment.

The press secretary sidestepped a direct answer to a question whether this country backs Israel and whether the roundup was a joint retaliatory move. And he denied there was any joint action.

"I don't have any reaction to give you on the action of the Israeli government," Ziegler said. "Our policy is to work with the five governments for the release of hostages being detained by the hijackers."

Negotiations between the Palestinians and a committee of the International Red Cross were suspended Sunday and the Red Cross negotiators flew back to Geneva.

Officials of the Red Cross and the Swiss government met for more than three hours today with the four-nation hijack crisis committee. The Swiss Foreign Ministry then announced that the organization had a mandate to work for release of all the hostages.

With the absence from Amman of the Red Cross team, Vatican emissary Msgr. Jean Rhodin, met for 30 minutes

Life with Hijackers Desert Diary Tells Stewardess Story

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — The three stewardesses said: "We thought at times we would die within the week. One of the hardest things was not knowing what was going on in the outside world and existing in a state of constant uncertainty."

The stewardesses were aboard the TWA 707 hijacked Sept. 6 on a flight from Tel Aviv to New York via West Germany. They are Bettie McCarthy, Vicki McVey and Rosemarie Metzner. All live in the New York area.

They described their week

mitted aboard for the first time. He came each day until Thursday.

TUESDAY
We were allowed to leave the plane for the first time and stretch our legs. Meanwhile, the guerrillas searched our hand luggage. They asked many questions of passengers who were found to have dual citizenship (Israeli-American). The guerrillas pressed about connections with the Israeli military or anything to do with Israel at all. They were quite obsessed with this. We were outside the plane for about 1½ hours. It was uncomfortably hot in the afternoon when the temperature really soared outside, but it never got really stifling inside. At midnight the guerrillas took out six men and we never saw them again.

WEDNESDAY
The excitement of the day was the landing of the hijacked British airplane at the airstrip. We were told that the same hijacker who took our plane also hijacked that one. At about the same time rumors spread that there had been a few passengers aboard the hijacked jumbo jet when it was blown up in Cairo. This didn't make things more pleasant for us. There was a problem aboard with a number of the religious Jewish passengers who were insisting on kosher meals. We organized toilet, garbage and water details among the passengers. We were allowed outside the plane in the late afternoon.

THURSDAY
We broke out the lifeboats and cut up the ropes to give to the kids. They jumped rope under the plane. We had our first and only meal outside on this day. A passenger, Patricia Ridenhour of Charlotte, N.C., had her 28th birthday and we celebrated it with a candle, rhino-wine and a birthday card written on the back of a menu. She received an extra bottle of water for the occasion.

The guerrillas started opening

Congress Astir Over Destruction of Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The capture and destruction of four jetliners by Palestinian guerrillas has triggered congressional demands for retaliation, including proposals for an air quarantine of any nation harboring hijackers.

The proposals have emerged angrily along the entire political front of Congress—Republican, Democratic, liberal and conservative.

A bill advanced by New York Republican Sen. Charles E. Goodell and Jacob K. Javits would require the President to take steps for an international shutdown of air traffic to nations contributing to hijacking.

Such a quarantine would be imposed if the country had participated in an air piracy, provided a haven for its perpetrators, or refused to secure the safe return of planes, passengers and crews.

The President would be empowered to revoke all U.S. air traffic to the nation in question—and to any other country not joining the boycott.

In the House, meanwhile, the Foreign Affairs Committee is lining up hearings on several other proposals introduced in the wake of last week's hijacking and dynamiting by Arab guerrillas of four airplanes carrying several hundred U.S. citizens.

One bill, backed by Rep. Sid

Wants Legalized Wiretapping Meskill Outlines Program To Cut Connecticut Crime

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Rep. Thomas J. Meskill, R-Conn., called for legalized wiretapping today as part of a five-point program he said would "cut the heart out of organized crime in Connecticut."

Meskill, the Republican candidate for governor, said he would have the anticrime package introduced in the 1971 General Assembly if he is elected and introduced four state representatives he said will sponsor the package.

Meskill said his anticrime package would not conflict with his "open position" on a state-run lottery or legalized horse racing. He said either device, as a means of producing revenue for the state, still might be acceptable.

The Meskill plan outlined today would give the state attorney general criminal jurisdiction, with a public safety established in his office.

He said Connecticut is at a disadvantage in fighting organized crime because, unlike its neighbor states, the attorney general has no criminal powers.

The GOP candidate also said he would push for carefully supervised wiretapping as a means of cracking down on professional criminals.

Meskill said he also would grant immunity to witnesses whose testimony could help police and other enforcement agencies bring criminals to court.

Other features of his anticrime proposal would be a strengthened state statute to combat loan sharking and adoption of anti-gambling legislation patterned after federal law.

At his state capitol news conference this morning, Meskill referred to a 1969 expose of organized crime which appeared in a series of Hartford Times articles.

"Organized crime is the most threatening and costly kind of crime in Connecticut," Meskill said. "It is controlled by men who have become rich and powerful by luring our people to destroy themselves with drugs, by collecting incredible interest rates from those in financial difficulty, by encouraging the needy to gamble and by extorting profits from business as they increase the cost of labor."

The Republican nominee was accompanied today by Meriden Mayor Donald T. Dorsey, who is running on the GOP ticket for attorney general.

He also introduced the four would-be sponsors of his anticrime bill: State Reps. Brian

MANCHESTER EVENING HERALD, MANCHESTER, CONN., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1970

THE WAY I HEARD IT by John Graber

The Metropolitan Opera opens its season tonight with good fun, but if you don't know Verdi's "Ermani" which has never been recorded the distinction of being a season opener for the institution. The management has announced the repertory for the season, and since there are a number of people in the area who journey to New York for it, I'll list what they may hope to see.

I don't have the actual performing dates, but they tend to keep under their hats down here, fearing changes due to illness and so on. On the whole it is not an exciting season. Everything is well known, or at least has been seen at the Met since 1950-51.

To begin in the list comes Beethoven's "Fidelio." Personally I find this one dull. It sounds like a mixture of Verdi and Puccini, not like an opera. This may be heresy to some, but it is the reaction of many I have heard. It has some nice tunes, but has been seen at the Met since 1950-51.

Bellini's "Norma" is the only offering by that composer. Presumably Joan Sutherland will sing, and it is one of the rather few operas she does superbly. If you neglect her bad dictation in Italian, she did it last season to great acclaim. Bellini's "Carmen" is back in the repertory again after a lapse of three seasons if memory serves me correctly. It is well known as to need no comment, and it goes over well with any kind of audience.

Donizetti's "Don Pasquale" is one of two operas by that composer to be seen this year. The other is "Lucia di Lammermoor."

Weicker Charges Rivals Weaken Political System

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—Congressman Lowell P. Weicker Jr. opened his campaign for the U.S. Senate Sunday with accusations that his two opponents are endangering "the democratic system."

In the November election, Weicker faces the Rev. Joseph P. Kamp, the Democratic candidate, and Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, a Democratic incumbent who is running as an independent.

Addressing members of the Connecticut Republican Club at his annual clambake, Weicker said he would like to see the approach in his campaign: "Either pointing to the 'degraded' state of the nation, or to the fact that the Rev. Joseph P. Kamp is a 'traitor' to the state."

Educators Say Black Colleges Short-Changed

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—President of nine Negro colleges have protested to President Nixon that institutions of higher learning for members of their race are being short-changed by federal funds.

The nine administrators held a four-hour conference Sunday at the White House. They issued a statement to the effect:

The meeting was sponsored by the Chicago Friends of the College, Birmingham, Ala., and the college's president, Dr. Louis Pitts. Dr. Pitts told the conference, "America is not serious enough about the problem of equal education for blacks."

Thailand, perhaps for a combination of interesting reasons, has decided not to send troops into Cambodia...

One reason may be the amount of publicity given, recently, to the arrangement by which American money was paying Thailand for sending troops into South Vietnam...

But a more basic reason for Thailand's decision, which Thailand also accompanied by advice to the effect that no American troops should be sent back to Cambodia either...

The Great Corn Blight

In spite of damage both from the new spread of blight and the recurrence of some old-fashioned drought, the nation's corn crop this year will be the third highest on record.

But it is a turn which seems in harmony, too, with reviving memory of the fact that Southeast Asia has some success in maintaining some degree of independence over thousands of years of experience with a variety of ideological moods and expansionist regimes in the Chinese giant to the north.

In all these thousands of years, the ancient kingdoms of Southeast Asia combined an undying, unyielding resistance to the Chinese influence, when it tried to advance upon them...

Thailand is, of course, one of those famous dominoes, and Cambodia is the neighbor domino which leans most heavily against it.

On The Move

Look at the new population map of these United States and you see two large trends at work, one within the states themselves, one by the states.

Within the states, the move has been out from the cities into the suburbs. It is not merely a geographical movement of statistics, either.

The many amendments may have done some damage, particularly the one that exempts the City from completion of the plan, and the corporation counsel has been asked for an opinion before Stamford's CDAP is sent to Hartford.

suburbs during these recent years of growth. This was the sector, for instance, which provided surprising strength for John F. Kennedy in 1960.

The only safe thing to say is that the political and sociological change involved in the decline of the cities and the rise of the suburbs is not yet ready for any final analysis...

In the end, somebody may go back in and rebuild the cities as residential centers, from which people will commute outward to factories located in the green belt.

The population movement as it affects whole states, or regions, involves an increasing concentration in the states of the Far West, the Southwest, and the coastal fringe of the Northeast...

The fact that, although the national population has increased some 20,000,000 in the past 10 years, four states, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota and Mississippi have all suffered population losses in the same period...

It seems to us that perhaps the only real result of this decline of population for a few states is that of a bitter blow to their state development commissions.

Washington - As the Congressional clock ticks away for this Congress, the Nixon administration is down to a final and highly ironic hope for survival: Intervention from President Johnson's last Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW) Wilbur Cohen.

Private correspondence of last spring reveals Lawrence F. O'Brien, Democratic National Chairman, in solid agreement with National Treasurer Robert Strauss's public attack on ideologues who would make the Democrats a minority left party.

First, he feels the welfare reform-and with it, Mr. Nixon's revolutionary scheme for family assistance payments - can become law only if cleared by Long and his committee.

Second, Cohen believes that to get Finance Committee approval, the bill must contain Long's pet proposal of a cash subsidy for the working poor paid through employers.

Without minimizing the potential seriousness of the 1970 attack of blight, then, one can guess that it has produced two main things, first, a series of headlines across the nation, and second, a prospective new rise of prices along a basic consumer front.

And without becoming much too cynical, one could make an estimate that the much publicized corn blight of 1970 might end up putting more money, not less, in the pockets of our corn farmers, and all those who process and market corn in one way or another.

CDAP Wins

It was a hard fight but those who supported City adoption of the Community Development Action Plan came out on top, and their victory means that Stamford will remain eligible for funds for the many CDAP programs already underway...

The objections on the basis of housing sites previously proposed by the Housing Site Development Agency were easier to understand, though the fears were equally unfounded.

As you know, it is a theatre experience produced by Daytop, a treatment center for drug addicts. It is acted by residents and was written by them and their counselors. The language is quite strong at times - but in the context of the production, appropriate.

As might be expected from actors who are not professional, their performances bear the stamp of the amateur. In spite of this, or rather because of it, their sincerity, their magnificent honesty, and the depth of their purposefulness illuminate every scene, every line.

It seems curious to me that while we in education are struggling to impress upon the young people for whom we are responsible, the spirit-murdering effects of narcotic addiction, we largely ignore one of the most powerful, plastic visual tools available to us. If every junior and senior high school student in New York City were taken to a performance of "The Concept" I am certain that it would prevent addiction in large numbers of them, and cause others who are experimenting with drugs to stop.

Our young people would understand not only the effects of drugs but also the need for human connection which would relieve them of the need to seek surrogate measures to deal with their inner loneliness.

Duffey Wins Support Of UAW Panel

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP)—Joseph Duffey, the Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, won nearly unanimous endorsement from the United Auto Workers' Community Action Program Council convention here over the weekend.

The action Saturday followed by one day Duffey's endorsement by the Connecticut AFL-CIO.

The UAW council endorsed Duffey by an estimated 10-to-1 margin over Sen. Thomas Dodd after about 15 minutes of debate. Dodd, a Democrat, is seeking a third term, this time as an independent.

The UAW convention also endorsed the remainder of the Democratic ticket, with the exception of State Sen. Gloria Schaffer, the candidate for secretary of state.

Meanwhile, leaders of the state Building Trades Council said Saturday they dispute Duffey's endorsement Friday by the AFL-CIO convention, which was held in Hartford.

Terrence J. Quinn, secretary-treasurer of the Building Trades Council, said the endorsement should be declared "null and void" because of "the many violations of Roberts Rules of Order" at the convention.

Duffey won a majority of the votes at the convention, and supporters of Dodd staged a walk-out during the balloting.

"Another convention should be held and be chaired by a representative of the national AFL-CIO," said Quinn, who is asking the AFL-CIO president George Meany to investigate the convention.

To call the convention vote an endorsement of Duffey is to misrepresent the facts, Quinn declared.

"It was not a valid endorsement," said William Early, another official of the building trades council.

Although many of the pro-Dodd delegates did not cast ballots at the convention, it was clear from the totals that Duffey would have outpolled Dodd anyway.

Democratic Leaders Getting Behind Duffey

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Joseph Duffey, the Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, received endorsement from leading Connecticut Democrats at a fund-raising dinner Saturday night, including his gubernatorial running mate who called on Democrats to get behind Duffey.

"This is the strongest ticket we have had in years, and I believe that Joe Duffey's candidacy adds new energy and enthusiasm to it," Rep. Emilio Q. Daddario, the Democratic candidate for governor, told the crowd of 1,100.

Sen. Thomas Dodd, D-Conn., who bolted the Democratic party this year to seek re-election as an independent, sat at the head table for about 20 minutes and left before the speeches started. An aide said Dodd was committed to attend a meeting in Norwich.

Duffey won a three-day Democratic primary and faces Dodd and the GOP candidate, Lowell P. Waidler Jr., in November.

"Joe Duffey won that primary as a Democrat, working within the Democratic party," Daddario said.

"He is a progressive, sensitive and intelligent political leader who stands in the great tradition of the historic idealism of the Democratic party—the party of Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman, Lyndon Johnson, John and Robert Kennedy," Daddario said.

Duffey noted that many people regard his chances as hopeless because of Dodd's presence in the race and because of opposition within the party.

"They say we do not have a chance," Duffey said, "but the party this year is going to go down because of a third-party candidate."

"The experts and the skeptics were wrong in 1948 and the Democrats were wrong in 1964," Duffey said, recalling Harry Truman's election to the presidency.

"Those who have gotten up and pulled out of this party out of their own petulance or vengeance are perhaps working as much to defeat the Democrats as to help their own cause," Duffey said.

John M. Bailey, the Democratic state chairman, stressed the importance of supporting the entire Democratic ticket, this fall and warned that the Republicans "smell blood—Democratic blood."

"This year, of all years, we as Democrats cannot afford the individual luxury of deserting our party standard because of individual disappointment in our party's choice of its candidates," Bailey said.

Gov. John Dempsey lashed out at criticism of his administration and accused the Republicans of "trying to profit by selling Connecticut shorts."

"There is nothing wrong in Connecticut or in our nation as an independent, self-governing administration, foreign and domestic, cannot put to rest," the governor said. He is retiring at the end of his 10th year in office.

Duffey estimated the Democratic State Committee would net about $75,000 from the dinner.

Five reasons why you should help us raise $3,715,535.00 by the end of October.

This is the goal of the 1970 United Appeal of the Greater Hartford Community Chest. More than 5,000 of your friends and neighbors will be working in the campaign to reach this goal. That's one reason why you should help.

The Need It's greater than ever. The 71 agencies of the Community Chest are working full-time, the year around, to provide basic services to more than one out of every three families in Greater Hartford.

The Value The United Appeal is our area's largest single annual fund drive. And the most effective. More than 92c of every dollar raised goes directly to local Chest agencies.

Caring Your gift to the United Appeal is in the best tradition of neighbor helping neighbor — showing that you really do care about the needs and problems of the thousands who depend on the services and programs of the Community Chest agencies.

Sharing $3,715,535 sounds like a lot of money, and it is. But look at it another way: It's just $7.51 for each of the 495,000 people living in the 12-town area served by the Community Chest. And for the average giver it's less than 50c a year for each Community Chest agency. When everyone gives a little, a lot gets done.

It's Fair No one expects you to give more than your Fair Share. For one person, that can be hundreds of dollars. For another, just a few. As a starting point, the United Appeal defines a Fair Share gift as equivalent to at least one hour's pay a month.

Now it's up to you!

13 More Bodies Recovered In Typhoon's Wake

CASIGURAN, Philippines (AP) — Search teams recovered the bodies of 13 more victims of Typhoon (Georgia) today, raising the known death toll to 54 with at least 100 missing and feared lost.

The typhoon which devastated this town of 13,000 persons and two nearby coastal villages before veering out to sea three days ago packed winds of 100 miles per hour.

Georgia has begun to die out over the South China Sea about 70 miles east of Hong Kong.

Many houses, stores and public buildings—including schools and the town hall—were flattened by the storm.

Most of those killed were aboard eight small boats that had docked Thursday evening, but whose passengers remained on board because of heavy rain.

About 3 A.M., high winds tipped the vessels from their moorings and tossed them out into deep water where they capsized. The total number of persons aboard is not known, but officials estimate it at about 120.

Only a few are known to have survived.

The typhoon moved up the Pacific Ocean coastline along a 10-mile front. All connections roads within that swath were cut and all radio and telegraph communications were knocked out.

Mountains of the Sierra Madre range rise some 4,000 feet behind the coastal settlements and it was about 48 hours before the storm hit.

About 3 A.M., high winds tipped the vessels from their moorings and tossed them out into deep water where they capsized. The total number of persons aboard is not known, but officials estimate it at about 120.

Providence Man Found Murdered, Kin Slain Earlier

PROVIDENCE (AP) — A Providence man whose brother and sister both were slain has been shot to death.

Police said Raymond M. McKenna, operator of the Phoenix House, a drug rehabilitation center, was shot in the chest and his body left in a car on a downtown street Sunday night at 9:15.

His brother, Donald was found bound and beaten to death in a North Attleboro, Mass., field July 16, 1964. His sister, Elizabeth, was shot to death last week outside a Craighton apartment house along with Louis "Duke" Fox, 31.

McKenna has a long record of drug violations and other offenses dating back to 1956, police said. He started Phoenix House a private center in 1969. The car bearing his body was found with the engine running and the doors closed, police said. McKenna's body was slumped across the front seat. He had apparently been seated on the passenger side when he was shot.

The car was found a few blocks from the Phoenix House. An autopsy was expected to be performed by state Medical Examiner Dr. Joseph Palumbo.

Headquarters said the action will reduce American troops in Vietnam by 1,319. The moves are part of President Nixon's withdrawal program that will reduce the authorized American strength in Vietnam to 304,000 by Oct. 15.

The command said American troops strength last week had dropped by 2,000 men and set this year the strength had been pared by 78,100 men.

Vernon School Board Schedules Review of Summer Work

The Board of Education will give to individual members also meet tonight for the first time to review the summer work since school recessed in June.

The meeting will be held at the Sikes School cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Most of the meeting will be devoted to catching up on reports filed for the summer months. The annual organizational meeting of the board is scheduled for Oct. 22.

Regular pinocle will be played tomorrow at 1:15. Thursday tournament session will be held at 1:15, both at the Little Fisk Building.

Thursday's session will be followed by a pot luck supper.

The Vernon Recreation Department has issued an urgent appeal for assistance with one of its programs involving the town's senior citizens.

Each Monday afternoon the elderly people hold a kitchen social at the Little Fisk Building, Henry Park, Vernon, January through June these people were transported by bus but the cost became prohibitive, Donald Berger, recreation director said.

Through the summer months these people were transported by recreation department staff.

Since school has resumed, the staff is no longer available and Berger is now asking for volunteers to transport these senior citizens on a one-a-month basis. The one time involved would be about an hour, from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Between 25 and 30 people attend the weekly social and seven or eight need transportation, Berger said. Anyone interested in volunteering should contact Berger any evening.

Teen Center
Effective this week, The Ram's Horn teen center, Rt. 30, will go on a new schedule. It will be open from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. every Friday and Saturday.

Plans call for the center to be open on Sunday afternoons also but this schedule will not start until late October.

Student officers of the center are now selling membership from Sept. 1 to Aug. 31. Cards will be available at the center Friday and Saturday night.

With this new schedule the Recreation Department is seeking adults who would be interested in working on a paid basis as supervisors. Those interested should contact the recreation office any afternoon after 3 p.m.

Classes Open
With the exception of the Chalmers Course, all classes of the Vernon Adult Evening School are still open for registration.

Mail registrations will be closed as of this weekend. Adults may register in person at Rockville High School, Monday through Friday, Sept. 14-18 from 7 to 9 p.m. and on Sept. 19 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Classes that are near capacity registration, but are still open, include: Monday—Business and Chinese, Drapery Making and Woodworking; Tuesday—Crewel Embroidery, Typing 1 and Up; Wednesday—Cake Decorating, Shorthand 1, Welding, Decorative Painting and Intermediate Sewing.

Dance Club
The Vernon Square Dance Club will hold a club dance on Sept. 19 at the Vernon Elementary School from 8 to 11 p.m. Bidding will start at 4 p.m. with Homer Waltz as auctioneer. The sale will continue until all items have been sold. There will be a break from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. when a cafeteria style lunch will be available.

Full Session
The Women's Fellowship of the First Congregational Church of Vernon, will hold its first fall meeting Wednesday at the chapel of the church. The evening will start with a pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m.

Just Handshake Away--Then Boom

Alou's Boot Allows Cubs To Top Bucs

NEW YORK (AP) — Danny Murphy and Steve Blass were just a handshake away — when Matty Alou let the Chicago Cubs slip through his fingers.

Alou, the usually sure-handed center fielder, muffed a fly ball with two out in the ninth inning Sunday and the Cubs went on to kayo Blass and score two quick runs for a 3-2 victory that lightened the three-team scramble for the National League's elusive East Division title.

The sudden turnabout carried the third-place Cubs within one game of the first place Pirates and within one-half game of the runner-up New York Mets, who lost 4-1 to St. Louis on Sunday. The 13th inning homer, it also caught Murrigh, the Pirates' manager, with his usual outstretched.

"To tell you the truth," he said, "I was sleeping out of the dugout to shake Steve's hand."

Blass led 2-1 and was one out away from a division crown when Alou dropped pinch-hitter Willie Smith's short fly for a two-base error. Don Kessinger, who placed a run-scoring single on the next pitch to tie the game, took second on Glenn Beckley's first-pitch single which off-lined the shaven Blass.

"I should have caught the ball," said Alou, fighting back tears in the Pirates' quiet clubhouse. "I knew the wind was blowing in, but I should have caught the ball."

"I'm not about to criticize Matty," said Blass, who wound up with his 12th loss in 21 decisions. "I saved me a thousand times. I had a chance to get Matty off the hook, but I had gotten Kessinger, but I didn't do it."

Joe Hagos drove in four runs on Joe Torre's home run. The loss kept the Mets in second place, one-half game behind Pittsburgh and one-half game ahead of Chicago.

Hodges was asked afterwards if he was still the number one pitcher in the National League. "It may be high," he replied. "I'd like to see it. How many do we have left?"

"The answer to that one is 18 and it didn't take Hodges long to do the mental arithmetic involved in this problem."

"Sixteen left," he said. "That means we need 15-1 for 92 victories. I think we might win if not for the Mets, 92 is just about impossible."

Asked before the 1969 season how many victories he thought the Mets were capable of, he said, "I quit guessing after last year's season. I was 13 for 1969. I was a long one to turn out in order and St. Louis beat them 5-4 in 13 innings."

Magic Number Three For Baltimore Flag

NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Hargan's fast ball was gone with the wind, Rich Morales' homer was gone in a flash... and the Baltimore Orioles were just gone.

Hargan said the wind helped as he pitched a two-hitter to beat Cleveland over New York Yankees Tuesday at Kansas City, replacing the recently-fired Chuck Tanner takes over as manager.

Hargan quipped after allowing the Yankees a fourth inning single by Roy White and a single by Danny Cater in the eighth. "I'd always heard that if you get a good home, ride it, so I stayed with my fast ball."

Morales' first major league homer, a sixth-inning shot off Jim Fregos, was the winning run after the White Sox scored seven times in the fifth and held off the Yankees 7-3.

The Orioles' clinching number one home run in the eighth inning was hit by Jim Fregos, who tripled in the first inning and led off the game with a two-run first-inning homer.

Elsewhere in the AL, Kansas City took a 2-1 lead over Oakland in the eighth inning. Oakland's lead was cut off by a home run by Tommie Davis.

The White Sox, playing their last game under acting manager Bill Adair, won 3-1 over the Yankees in their fifth inning.

In their fifth inning, Adair led off with a home run. Morales' long ball put the Sox in the lead. West Division-pacing Twins were a run short with their two-run uprising in the ninth.

The Red Sox were mathematically eliminated from the pennant race by dropping to one win in the Orioles in Baltimore Saturday night.

The Orioles completed a sweep of the three-game series and moved to within three games of the Yankees.

Vet Amateur Matches Par In Big Field

By EARL YOST

Professionals and low handicap amateur golfers set out today in quest of bettering Sam Petrone's par 70 yesterday in part of the annual two-day Manchester Open Tournament.

The lowest two-day score will win.

Perfect weather blessed a field of 189 amateurs Sunday but this morning the golfers were treated to a soggy course made so by heavy rain.

Petrone, a top amateur for years who plays out of Hubbard Park, was in the lead at 37-71 and former Manchester Country Club champion Bob LaFrance was next in line with a 72.

Nicklaus Off Form But Series Winner

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The big guy with the golden name sat there and looked positively embarrassed, a sheepish grin crossing his face when someone informed him he had averaged almost $20,000 a round for his six appearances in the World Series of Golf.

Nicklaus appeared on the verge of collapse in the front nine over the 7,100-yard Firestone Country Club course Sunday in the final round of the World Series.

In those nine holes he recorded four bogeys, missed three fairways and five greens in four traps and missed five putts under nine feet.

You can sit in our spic-and-span waiting room, have a cup of imported coffee and not walk out broken in mind, spirit and checkbook.

One big reason for this is that we have always made VW's better and better. We don't always make them different and different.

So when you're buying a VW, you're buying a lot in common: most VW parts still fit most VW's.

It is actually easier (and cheaper) to get parts for a Volkswagen than for many domestic cars on the road today.

It is also easier to get a whole VW. $1839* does it. Lots of cars just come and go. VW's just go on and go.
