Tolland County Politics Firearm Owners Organize To Back Top Republicans

By BETTE QUATRALE
(Herald Reporter)

The Connecticut Sportsmen's Alliance, formed in 1968 to lobby against gun control, has branched out in its political interests. Its headquarters is in Tolland.

The alliance is designed to protect the interest of legitimate firearm owners, sportsmen and collectors, who have been made the scapegoats for the ill of society by politicians constantly using us for political expediency," according to the group's secretary Mrs. Thana Metaska of Tolland.

"The CSA's primary purpose is to act as a central clearing house for political issues for the 700,000 sportsmen of Connecticut."

"We are a nonpartisan organization which will support those candidates who favor severe and mandatory penalties for the criminal misuse of firearms, not the penalizing responsible gun owning citizens."

Although laying claim to non-partisanship, the alliance endorses Republican candidates, particularly the top officials.

Receiving the sportsmen's endorsements are GOP gubernatorial candidates Thomas Dodd, seeking re-election as U.S. senator on the independent level, the alliance merely says in his capital letters, "YOU KNOW HIM!"

The alliance does endorse some Democrats, mainly those for state representative who voted against gun control legislation proposals, and has taken a hands-off policy in the First Congressional District race between Ann Ticebello, Republican candidate and William Cotter, the Democratic candidate.

Either would be acceptable to the Sportsmen's Alliance, according to Mrs. Metaska, who said consideration was not given to candidate Ned Coll since he is not running under a party banner.

Second Congressional District Republican candidate Robert Steele received the group's endorsement over Democratic rival John Pickett.

Area Republicans supported in the House races are Thomas Donnelly of South Windsor (46th District), who is given special mention since "he led the floor fight to defeat this onerous bill."

Also included are State Rep. Robert D. King of Tolland (46th District), and State Rep. Dorothy Miller of Bolton (51st District).

Area Democrats receiving the Sportsmen's Alliance support are Democratic State Attorney General Robert Killip.

Explaining their actions regarding Dodd, Duffy and Pickett, the alliance claims to oppose them on "what we consider to be their extremism and radical views on the right of the American people to keep and bear arms."

"Doddario has cosponsored a bill, H.R.1680, which would virtually eliminate the manufacture of handguns and lead eventually to their confiscation," Mrs. Metaska states. "Congressman Masahl on a recent television debate charged that this would eliminate more than 10,000 Connecticut jobs," she added.

Although Duffy is quoted as stating "hits and shodguns would not be registered at this time," the Sportsmen's Alliance condemns him due to a policy on the ADA which he heads, calling for the total disarmament of society, and the outlawing of private ownership of handguns and other concealable weapons.

Group's Executive Director, the alliance, which has proved to be a thorn in Doddario's side according to some sources, was formed as a result of the

Business Mirror Stocks Turnover Record Reflects Funds Activity

By JOHN CUNNING
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The record-breaking surge in stock market volume during the past few weeks reflects a marked change in the attitudes of some mutual funds, which account for a growing percentage of activity.

During the final full week of September, volume reached a record high of $3,422,450 shares on the New York Stock Exchange. That record survived just two weeks before it was broken on volume of 84.1 million shares.

There is little question that institutional traders provided much of the action, as revealed by big block statistics.

Included in the old, one-week record were about 470 blocks of 10,000 shares or more, and last week's new high included about the same number. Big blocks accounted for 13,245,000 shares of trading.

Accompanying this rise is a steady reduction in the cash position of mutual funds, indicating that much of the surge in volume is coming from that source.

Earlier this year the funds maintained record amounts of cash as they, too, shied away from a market that was proving costly to all investors. Moreover, they expected a rash of redemptions because of their poor performance, and needed cash with which to honor requests. Their average cash position, therefore, rose to 12 per cent or more of assets.

The rush to redeem has not developed as anticipated—which isn't to say that it never will. Through August, at any rate, redemptions were falling, which is a departure from precedent.

In August 1969, for example, the redemption rate was 8 per cent of average net assets of mutual funds. In June it had fallen to 7.3 per cent, to 7.2 in July and all the way down to 6.4 per cent in August.

Mutual fund officials note that in previous years when a market recovery was under way, many customers came in their thousands, the enticement being rising per share value and the sense of relief on being able to dispose of holdings at prices higher than a few weeks or a few months earlier.

That the same pattern appears to be delayed this year has given encouragement to portfolio managers. Maybe, they are saying, those big reserves of cash aren't necessary. Market analysts now believe that the cash position of mutual

Board Sets Up Committee To Consider Poor Learner

The Board of Education last night voted to form a nine-member committee which will make recommendations to improve the learning environment of children with learning disabilities.

Walter Doll Jr., board chairman, appointed Dr. Walter Schardt to chair the committee. The group will be composed of three from the Manchester Association for Children With Learning Disabilities, three from the Board of Education, and two from the educational policies committee and one from the personnel and finance committee, and three from the professional staff, one of whom will be a teacher with special training with children having learning disabilities.

The action is a follow-up to a presentation by Dr. Robert E. Karns, at the board's Sept. 28 meeting. At that time, he said Manchester has a moral, educational and legal responsibility to the 1,500 school system students who are probably affected by learning disabilities. Dr. Karns also submitted a list of general, specific and immediate recommendations for long and short-term programs.

The board voted to refer the question of the "altermate" or "parkway" high school to the board as a committee of the whole. The motion also included an invitation to Dr. John Allison, Capitol Region Education Council executive director, to elaborate upon the plan at a future board meeting.

The "parkway" school, which has been tried successfully in Philadelphia, uses offices, shops, etc. in place of the traditional school buildings and classrooms. Hartford has contributed $1,000 and five other towns $500 each to the $4,375 planning fund to establish a school in Greater Hartford.

In another motion, the board voted to sign an inter-district committee agreement authorizing the regional unit to act as a vehicle to apply for state and federal funds. Signing it was pointed out, pre-empting individual schools applying but from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at the Community Y. Appointments for the tests are necessary and may be made by contacting the agency's office.

Attending the training sessions will be Mrs. Stanley Bates, agency director; Mrs. John Munkitvick and Mrs. Francis Gower, staff nurses; and Mrs. Raymond Gorman, Mrs. Robert Weiss, Mrs. John Tolgen, Mrs. Thomas Donovan, Mrs. John Franzosa, Mrs. Richard Hayes, Mrs. John DeMarche, and Mrs. Eugene Yost, volunteers.

Syracuse To Start Chapter of IOH

A chapter of Instructors of the Handicapped (IOH) will be inaugurated in Syracuse, N.Y., on Oct. 26. It is the result of a three-day visit and talks to approximately 2,000 students in Syracuse and suburban Onondaga County secondary schools by seven members of the Manchester mother chapter: John Kautz, School for Retarded Children; Hope Pastel, pediatrician and brother of Dr. Harvey Pastel, Manchester surgeon.

After their talks, the Manchester IOH members distributed applications to 600 students in the Syracuse area. They also expressed interest in becoming instructors in the Syracuse program.

Saturday morning, they spoke to Catholic Youth Organization members at the Syracuse Red Cross Center. This was followed by a tour of Syracuse University, conducted by Frederick McCurry, former town resident and Manchester High School and Springfield College athlete. He is now principal of McCurry School.

As a break from their tour of schools, the IOH teenagers were guests of honor at a Friday night football game between Bishop Grimes High School,

Statewide Classes Asked on Narcotics

DANBURY, Conn. (AP) — House Speaker William Ratchford, D-Danbury, said Monday night that every school in the state should have a drug education program, and he called for the state to provide a model curriculum.

"I was disturbed to learn in a recent state survey of 105 Connecticut towns that only nine had a budgeted drug education program," Ratchford said at a Democratic headquarters.

"Every school in this state from Danbury to the remotest school in the state should be teaching the dangers of drug use," he said.

The House speaker also called for a compact between Connecticut and New York to halt the flow of drugs over state lines.

New College Is Suggested In UConn Study

The creation of a college of environmental studies at the University of Connecticut has been recommended by the university's Environmental Studies Task Force.

Joseph N. Gill, state commissioner of agriculture and natural resources and chairman of the task force recently sent copies of the force's interim report and recommendations to all faculty members of the university.

The task force was authorized by the university's Board of Trustees to prepare plans for the creation of an academic unit broadly concerned with the study of the natural and social environment.

The interim report recommends that the proposed college offer curriculum and research in natural resources, land use, population dynamics, pollution, economic policy, international cooperation and urban and metropolitan area problems. The college would also train public officials.

The report also recommends that the proposed college incorporate or combine with a number of the activities now carried on within the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources, and offer programs in environmental studies at bachelor's, master's and doctor's degree levels.

The task force also drew up guidelines for curriculum.

Among these were the establishment of the "highest academic standards in all programs, the use of innovative approaches to teaching and the establishment of multiple-track major programs leading to a baccalaureate degree.

The report indicated that the establishment of the new college would require a review of present agriculture programs, with some to move from their present departmental status into non-departmental status, while others would be strengthened.

Keq-Roll Record

ST. PAUL (AP) — Members of a University of Minnesota-Duluth fraternity arrived in St. Paul Monday with an empty beer keg they rolled 150 miles from Duluth.

The Phi Beta Chi chapter of the high schools should be teaching the dangers of drug use," he said.

The Guinness Book of World Records lists 101 miles as the longest distance a beer keg has been rolled.

About 40 students led Duluth and New York to halt the Saturday and traded four-hour flow of drugs over state lines.

Look, I read the papers and watch TV and what do I see? Not only are a lot of businesses leaving the state, but I don't see many new ones coming or old ones expanding. My father used to say, "Just do your job and mind your own business." Well, I figure my job is my business. Companies that help pay for schools, welfare, law enforcement and parks... they're my business too. Matter of fact, the way I see it, anything that goes on in Connecticut is my business. I'm a taxpayer in this state and I want to know what's going on and what I can do to help. If you have any information that will make me better informed, please send it now.

French, Russian Protocol Signed

MOSCOW (AP) — Presidents Georges Pompidou and Nikolai S. Podgorny signed a periodic consultation agreement between the French and Soviet governments. The televised signing, complete with toasts in Soviet champagne, came on the last day of the French president's eight-day state visit to the Soviet Union. Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin were present for the ceremony.

The terms of the agreement were not announced. But informed sources reported that it expands a similar pact signed four years ago during President Charles de Gaulle's visit to Moscow. It was believed that there would be closer contact on foreign policy. Pompidou reportedly had been much concerned earlier this year that changes in weather, scenes and mood of the play. The production is headed by Jeff German Waddell. His workers are Johann Young, Prudis Clark, David Waddell, Jim Gruber, Guy Cartwright and Robert Rogden.

Nixon Vetoes Limit On Campaign Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has vetoed a bill to limit campaign spending on radio and television, calling it "worse than no answer to the problem of soaring political costs."

Democratic sponsors of the measure pledged an effort to override the veto immediately or after the Nov. 3 election re-licensing. But one of them, Sen. Philip A. Hart of Michigan, said it will be "very tough" to muster the necessary two-thirds vote. Hart was one of the bill's original sponsors.

Nixon's veto message, issued Monday while the President was appearing in Stamford and Hartford, Conn., on a barely disguised campaign mission, said the bill fell short of his laudable goals and "threatens to make matters worse."

"The problem with campaign spending is not radio and television," Nixon said in a press release. "The problem is spending. The bill would cover candidates for president, vice president, senator, representative, governor and lieutenant governor."

Duffey 'Would Override' Veto, Candidate Contends

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Democratic candidate Joseph Duffey says if he were U.S. senator he would vote to override President Nixon's veto of the campaign-spending bill because it is a step toward prohibiting lavish campaigns.

"For many years responsible members of both parties have worked for legislation to set reasonable limits on the huge sums of money that are too often wasted on major political campaigns," Duffey said Monday.

He charged that the President's veto was "a cynical partisan act and a disservice to American voters."

Nixon, in vetoing the bill Monday during a visit to Stamford, Conn., on a weekend hunting trip, have been found dead, poisoned by gas in a trailer, police said.

Dr. James Skillen, Sullivan County medical referee, pronounced them dead Monday of accidental gas poisoning due to a leaky gas stove.

The victims were identified as William Peckars, 23, and Joseph Peckars Jr., 28.

Dr. Skillen said they had been dead more than 24 hours before he was called to examine the bodies.

'Our Town' Cast, Crew Ready for Opening Night

The production of "Our Town" is to be presented Friday and Saturday at the Elementary School, began as an effort of the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Church to present an unusual worship service last spring.

The group had decided to present just the third act in the church sanctuary. However, after rehearsal, it was discovered that copyright laws prohibit presentation of only a portion of the play and that the play was subject to royalties.

The decision was made to include all interested young people of Bolton in casting and production. The group engaged Leon Rivers and Robert Morna of the town Youth Council as sponsors.

According to the director, Mrs. Nancy Fenty, "The play is appropriate for the celebratory state visit to the Soviet Union. Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin were present for the ceremony."

The terms of the agreement were not announced. But informed sources reported that it expands a similar pact signed four years ago during President Charles de Gaulle's visit to Moscow. It was believed that there would be closer contact on foreign policy. Pompidou reportedly had been much concerned earlier this year that changes in weather, scenes and mood of the play. The production is headed by Jeff German Waddell. His workers are Johann Young, Prudis Clark, David Waddell, Jim Gruber, Guy Cartwright and Robert Rogden.

Tigers Beat Dukes by Savage 38-0

The Bolton Tigers again asserted themselves Sunday as the undefeated leaders in the Charter Oak midweek football southern conference. Their defeat of the Portland Dukes by a score of 38-0, also demonstrated convincingly they are a threat.

Portland, while obviously hoping on running back Joe Muro, was ineffective in stopping Bolton's passing attack. Both Dan Ward and Muro completed pass plays which figured in Bolton's scoring.

Paul Groves was outstanding on the receiving end of several Muro passes. He was particularly impressive on a behind-the-back, one-handed catch which gave the Tigers a two point conversion.

The Tigers wasted no time in getting into the scoring column. Muro returned the opening kick off 80 yards for six points. Muro also made the two point conversion on a hand-off from Ward.

The second score came on a screen pass to Groves for 22 yards out. A pass from Ward to Groves for two more points made the score 16-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The running of Mury and Groves left the ball on the two yard line when the "B" team took over. On the next play Steve Munson made the field goal and Joe Marcella ran for two points.

The "B" team likewise left the Tigers in good field position before making their exit.

Glen Evans recovered a fumble deep in Portland territory. Groves completed the drive for two points on a two-yard plunge. He made it an eight point play with his ability and catch of a Ward screen pass.

The final scoring came on a Muro-Miles Ryan option pass from 17 yards out. The conversion was unsuccessful.

The Tigers' defense, in addition to recovering four Portland fumbles, at the hands of Rich Morris, Steve Walters, Kevin and Kurt Bogner, also held the Dukes to only two first downs.

Both of these children were the only two first dogs.

46th District Doocy Backs Glassman's Candidacy

Fred Doocy, former state senator and lieutenant governor of Connecticut, endorsed the candidacy of Abraham Glassman, Democratic hopeful for state representative, and lashed out at endorsement letters by citizens praising Glassman's opponent, incumbent State Rep. Thomas J. Donnelly.

"In recent days," Doocy said, "I have read statements and letters to the editor supporting the Republican candidate for state representative. Although most of these press releases endorsed the incumbent representative, Donnelly, because of the hall is dedicated to the memory of the Rev. Theodore Williams Chandler, through whose vision and faith this building was erected."

Rainy Reading
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Thanks to 300 students and professors of the University of Notre Dame who braved rain and frosty temperatures to read the works of William Shakespeare for 97 consecutive hours, a private school for remedial reading has $1,000 for its operations.

Volunteers mounted outside near the campus flagpole and spent much of the time under umbrellas because of heavy weekend rains.

The $1,000 collected in a fall set near the readers goes to Sister Maria of St. Francis convent in nearby Mishawaka.
