Australians Applaud Pope

By PATRICK O'KEEFE
Associated Press Writer

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — With half the world and half his Far East trip behind him, Pope Paul VI became today the first Roman Catholic pontiff to visit Australia. Tens of thousands applauded as he rode through police cordons into Sydney.

Prime Minister John G.orton welcomed the frail 73-year-old Pope at the Sydney airport, saying: "Many of us have admired your fortitude in the extensive travels you have undertaken in the old world and the new."

The self-proclaimed "apostle on the move." Pope Paul now has visited every continent during his 7½ years in the Holy See except Antarctica.

His arrival in Sydney followed a gruelling 20 hours during which he flew 5,000 miles from Manila to Samoa, made appearances in American Samoa and the new independent nation of Western Samoa and then flew 2,400 miles to Australia. By crossing the International Date Line twice, he left Manila Saturday night, arrived in Samoa early Sunday, then got to Australia Sunday night.

A spokesman said the pontiff was "very tired" when he left Manila, but he slept all the way to Samoa, and stepped briskly and refreshed from his chartered Italian jetliner at Pago Pago.

Security at Sydney was tighter than for any other visitor in the nation's history, including former President Lyndon B. Johnson. Australian authorities wanted no recurrence of the attempt on Pope Paul's life minutes after he arrived in Manila Tuesday, for which a Bolivian artist is charged with attempted murder and assault.

There was no trouble. About 5,000 persons roared greeting at the airport, though officials had expected as many as 50,000. Authorities attributed the lack of people to public fears of massive traffic jams.

The late afternoon sky was clear and sunny as the Pope expressed his friendship to all Australians. "We greet in a special way all the brothers of the Christian churches," he said. Most Australians are Protestant with the 3.3 million Roman Catholics amounting to just over one-fourth of the population.

Spectators were kept 10 feet away from the shiny gray Rolls Royce that carried Pope Paul down Sydney's clean boulevards lined with skyscrapers to the town hall. The Pope, his crimson cape fluttering behind him as he turned right and left, waved and blessed the crowds.

After a short ceremony at the Town Hall, the Pope said Mass in the Gothic St. Mary's Cathedral. Then he retired for the night to the residence of the papal nuncio.

Tuesday the Pope is to participate in discussions of the Catholic bishops' conferences of Australia and Oceania, both meeting in Sydney. He will celebrate a huge open-air Mass Tuesday and Wednesday at Sydney's Randwick Racecourse before continuing his 28,000-mile trip by flying to Jakarta. After the Indonesian stopover, the Pope flies to Hong Kong, then Colombo and on to the Vatican.

A full schedule has been the keynote of the 10-day journey.

U.S. Census For 1970: 204,765,770

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau, releasing final figures on the 1970 census, said today the total population of the United States as of April 1 was 204,765,770.

The figure includes U.S. servicemen stationed abroad and federal employees overseas.

As a result of the new census, California will gain five seats in the House of Representatives.

Representation in the House is based on population.

The bureau said the five-seat gain by California will move it into the lead among the states and in House representation, with 43 members.

New York will lose two seats as a result of the census, dropping it to second place with 39 representatives.

Also gaining seats are Florida, three; and Arizona, Colorado, and Texas, one each.

Hartford Teachers Still Out

HARTFORD (AP) — Schoolchildren looked forward to a third week of shortened classes here Monday with several hundred teachers remaining out on strike and substitutes again taking over some of their classes.

The striking teachers, members of the Hartford Federation of Teachers voted overwhelmingly Sunday night to continue their strike. A first vote—a show of hands—was taken on whether a formal secret ballot would be needed. It wasn't.

Then the teachers endorsed continuing the strike with another show of hands.

The union meeting drew between 500 and 600 teachers to a hall in East Hartford. The union claims 800 teachers have been staying away from classes, but the school board claims the number is only 400. There are 1,700 teachers and 28,000 students in the public school system.

The vote to continue the strike came after a resumption of talks between school board and union negotiators over the weekend. But federation members told the meeting that little progress had been made after more than 20 hours of the bargaining table.

The two sides met briefly Monday morning when the school board asked for a recess until the afternoon. Spokesmen said the school board would meet before the afternoon session to discuss the events of the weekend.

Earlier Saturday, the board and the union recessed their negotiations until Monday so union leaders could attend the meeting held with the presence of a mediator. They had resumed in full Saturday after a two-week period.

Gun Post in North Vietnam Hit by U.S. Fighter-Bomber

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—A U.S. fighter-bomber made another "self-defense" attack on North Vietnam early today, hitting an anti-aircraft position 5½ miles north of the demilitarized zone before the gun post could fire on the plane.

Informed sources said the pilot of the F105 Thunderchief learned from his electronic detection gear that he was being tracked by the post's radar and that it had begun computing the point at which to fire.

A U.S. communique said the attack was "protective reaction against an enemy radar-controlled anti-aircraft position" and that "protective reaction is the inherent right of self-defense."

It was the first U.S. air attack on North Vietnam reported in a week, since the heavy raids Nov. 21-22. In all previous air attacks on North Vietnam since the bombing halt two years ago, the United States claimed it was retaliating to attacks on unarmed American reconnaissance planes. But after the raids last weekend Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird broadened protective reaction to include protection for pilots flying strikes against North Vietnamese supply routes through Laos to Cambodia and South Vietnam.

The F105 that made the attack today was on such an attack mission and was not escorting a reconnaissance plane, informed sources said.

The attack was the third in three months by a U.S. plane against radar-controlled guns in North Vietnam before the North Vietnamese fired. Such attacks were also reported on Aug. 28 and Sept. 5.

The American pilot attacked at night through overcast skies, guided by radar, and the U.S. Comnd said the result of the attack were not known. It was believed that, because of the weather, the pilot fired radar-guided rockets or missiles.

"There was no damage to U.S. aircraft," said the U.S. communique.

Since the halt in the bombing of North Vietnam, U.S. planes have made between 65 and 70 so-called retaliatory strikes, most of them by only a few planes. Ten American jets and one helicopter have been lost over North Vietnam since the bombing halt, and another helicopter was destroyed in the U.S. raid Nov. 21 on the Son Tay prison compound 20 miles west of Hanoi.

The U.S. Navy today announced another raid on a POW camp Nov. 22, this one in South Vietnam and this one successful. The Navy said a team of 15 Americans and 19 Vietnamese militiamen raided a Viet Cong camp in a dense bamboo grove in the southern Mekong Delta and freed 19 Vietnamese. Eighteen Viet Cong fled, two were captured, and the raiders suffered no casualties, the Navy said.

Elsewhere in the war, enemy ground troops stepped up attacks in both Vietnam and Cambodia.

The U.S. Command in Saigon reported 23 enemy rocket and mortar attacks in Vietnam from 8 a.m. Saturday to 8 a.m. Sunday, the largest number in near-

Panthers' Long-Term Goal: Utopian Communist World

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Black Panther party, temporarily scrapping plans to write a new U.S. Constitution, has turned instead to a long-term goal of a utopian Communist world society free of oppression.

About 5,000 delegates representing racial minorities, women and homosexuals flocked to Washington over the weekend to the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention, which was to have acted on ideas threshed out in workshops at Philadelphia over the Labor Day holiday.

But it was a convention without a convention hall, and delegates spent much of their weekend drifting aimlessly until a Saturday night speech by Huey P. Newton, the Panthers' minister of defense.

"We will hold our Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention for a raincheck until such a time as we liberate Washington, D.C., and then we'll hold it in the White House, but we'll call it the Black House," Newton told 400 persons in a church while another 1,000 listened outside via loudspeakers.

He described the Panthers' goal of a "new world" society without boundaries, where everyone would have an equal voice, work would mean "meaningful play" and each person would produce to his ability and take according to his actual needs.

Newton also explained how the party's ideology had evolved, first from nationalism to "revolutionary nationalism within a socialist framework," followed by international socialism and the current goal of "revolutionary intercommunalism" and ultimately true communism.

The plan requires "oppressed" (See Page Five)

In Attack on Cong Camp Raiders May Have Flown From Secret Thailand Base

By J.T. WOLKERSTORFER
Associated Press Writer

NAKHON PHANOM, Thailand (AP) — Most of the information available, in Washington and in Southeast Asia, indicates that the U.S. commando raid on the Son Tay prison camp in North Vietnam either originated or returned to an air base in north-east Thailand.

The most likely base is the royal Thai base here, a top secret special operations installation about 265 miles south-south-east of Hanoi and 365 miles northeast of Bangkok, Thailand's capital.

Asked if the commandos had taken off or landed at Nakhon

Phanom, Col. Edward J. Walsh, commander of the 56th Special Operations Wing at Nakhon Phanom said: "I can't comment on that. We were kept in the dark too. The operation was run from the highest level."

When a reporter suggested that there were "Jolly Green Giant" rescue helicopters on the flight line at Nakhon Phanom and that search and rescue missions are frequently run into Laos and North Vietnam from the base, Walsh replied:

"Those Jolly Greens out there don't belong to me. They shuttle in from Udorn and stage out of here on their SAR (search and rescue) operations."

Other sources at the base said that "if they landed anywhere in Thailand, it was almost certainly Nakhon Phanom, we're closer to Hanoi than anybody else. Most of the SARs into Laos and North Vietnam are run from here. It would be the logical place."

The only other possibility is Udorn, and it's another 50 miles away.

Security guards at Nakhon Phanom also reported that just before the bombing raids on North Vietnam, extra heavy guards were put on several aircraft. "We were never told why," one security guard said, "but it was just before the bombing."

That would have been about the time the commando raid was launched.

Nakhon Phanom would have made an ideal take off or landing site for the raiders. The 56th Special Operations Wing, until August 1968 designated the 56th Air Commando Wing, has always been involved in clandestine operations over Laos and North Vietnam.

Air Crashes Claim Two State Men

CHESTER (AP) — One man died in the crash of a private twin-engine plane Sunday but a passenger survived the crash and the 12-hour overnight wait for help.

The body of the pilot, Henry Racicot, 32, of Essex, was found in the wreckage by searchers Monday morning.

The plane went down about 1½ miles short of its destination, the Chester Airport, where Racicot was employed.

The passenger, Michael Piere, 22, of Essex, was taken from the wreckage to Yale-New Haven Hospital where he was reported to be under treatment in the emergency room for multiple injuries. He was not placed on the danger list when he arrived at the hospital, a hospital spokesman said.

In an unrelated accident during the weekend, a Trumbull man died when his makeshift plane crashed in Stratford.

Racicot reportedly took off from Bradley International Airport at Windsor Locks at 5:34 p.m. Sunday with plans filed for a flight to Chester. He was last heard from over the Madison-Guilford area near the coast of Long Island Sound. He gave no indication of trouble but was not heard from after that radio report, an airport spokesman said.

A ground search was conducted in the Chester and Madison areas Sunday night by police and firemen after the plane disappeared. The focus was shifted Monday to the wooded, sparsely populated countryside surrounding the Chester Airport.

In Stratford, a plane powered by a Volkswagen automobile engine crashed in the Housatonic River Sunday morning.

The pilot, Salvatore Capaci of Trumbull, had just taken off and his son watched as the aircraft veered over into the water.

The crash also was seen from a boat by Harry Seifried of New Haven, who rushed to the scene while the plane was still afloat, police said.

Seifried said he was able to grab the hand of the lifeless pilot but was unable to drag him

Steady Downpour Triggers Accidents; 14 Die

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fourteen persons are dead and five missing in the wake of a 24-hour rainstorm which struck Southern California during the Thanksgiving weekend.

The storm contributed to a California record holiday death toll of 85 traffic deaths.

Eleven Boy Scouts, reported missing overnight after a flood-ravaged creek in Angeles National Forest separated them from a camping party 45 miles north-east of Los Angeles, were sighted early today by helicopter-borne rescuers and reported in good condition.

Showers continued to smarl Los Angeles freeway traffic during the morning rush hours and the National Weather Service said Northern California also would get more hard rain by tonight.

Driven by high winds, the rain melted hillsides onto numerous highways as holiday travelers started home.

Missing were four persons who disappeared on an airplane flight from Las Vegas, Nev., to Roseburg, Ore., and a young man apparently drowned in a stormy sea.

The dead included two pilots killed in air crashes, five persons in automobile wrecks Saturday, four more persons in traffic accidents Sunday, a farm worker electrocuted by wind-

No ordinary individual, supposedly experienced in the modes of conduct of public life, would expect to be able to indulge in at-will criticism of the President...

It was such a naive, almost touching claim of immunity from even the routine courtesies of a Cabinet relationship...

The nature of the challenge, and the consideration that Mr. Hickett, aside from his transgressions in the realm of form and courtesy...

Anyone in his position would have fired Mr. Hickett. Aside from personalities, however, we doubt that the President can strengthen his chances for 1972 by narrowing his base.

A Prudish Preference: The Supreme Court of the United States ruled on the permissive side of two obscenity issues the other day...

His abstention from voting probably made no difference in the outcome, it being assumed that, had he voted, his decision would have been on the permissive side too.

Justice Douglas-watches think they see a reason for his apparent policy of abstaining from participation in obscenity cases.

He has been the author of an article published in a magazine sometimes considered worthy of suppression and published by a firm which has also been agent for a movie which is even now under attack in the courts for alleged obscenity.

In other words, Justice Douglas, being an honorable man and a conscientious judge, may feel a little sensitive over the possibility that somebody might accuse him of a conflict of interest if he attempted to vote on obscenity matters.

We doubt, as we try to take the view which might be authorized by a cool pursuit of pure principle, that Justice Douglas' error in such a situation would be any worse, morally, than other recent publicized instances of conflict of interest, in which judges in high places were attacked for participating in cases where they themselves had some tangible, if slight, financial involvement.

But if it is not a matter of moral purity, it might still be considered a matter of taste. Would we rather have a high judge disqualify himself because of some financial involvement or because of an involvement with near-pornography?

Our Problems Are Not Simple: Never, to borrow from a cabinet member, has there been so much to be done as when he has so little to do.

By the time this (current) generation got to college, the average number had been exposed to some 1000 hours of television, an average of 2.5 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Now whenever you might think about such exposure to the steady fare of violence, crime, horror and similar programming always cited by the view-with-alarm, think of what such prolonged exposure does to the human intellect and power to grapple with complexity.

Mr. Nixon recently asserted that the sustained popularity of this entertaining vehicle stemmed from the inevitable triumph of the good guys. Perhaps he was correct, but as Mr. Nixon quickly discovered, when this simplification is superimposed on the real American scene even for one example, it becomes difficult to tell the good guys from the bad guys.

Unfortunately the same short-circuiting of serious communication is re-creating into a maverick of liberal impulses and decisions.

Richardson's Folly

By Rowland Evans Jr. and Robert D. Novak

WASHINGTON—In a private conversation Nov. 19 with Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, Secretary Elliot Richardson, who began his stint at HEW amid cheers from Capitol Hill, requires some serious fence-mending there.

He applauded left-oriented criticism of the program by the militant National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO). The point is that Richardson, though brilliantly efficient in taking command of the makeshift HEW bureaucracy, is a novice in Senatorial head-counting. Friends and foes of the bill think he may have mistaken exaggerated gratuitousness of Senatorial speech patterns for a hard commitment—particularly in the case of Clinton Anderson.

When the committee convened last Monday, Anderson was still outraged that Richardson had accused him of breaking a "firm commitment" to pro Anderson, he declared to HEW officials at the closed-door meeting that during 24 years on Capitol Hill he had never wavered on a commitment and had never been accused of doing so. The Secretary was just plain wrong, Anderson asserted.

Pilot Unsure of Cause Of Alaskan Plane Crash

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — A federal official says the pilot of a military cargo plane has been unable to tell investigators what caused the DC-8 jet to crash on takeoff, killing 47 of the 228 persons on board.

"The pilot doesn't know what happened," said Rudolf Kapustin, who heads the eight-man National Transportation Safety Board—NTSB—team investigating the Friday night crash.

Kapustin interviewed William G. Reid, Napa, Calif., pilot of the Capitol International Airways jet, at a hospital here Sunday.

The Vietnam-bound jetliner nosed roughly back onto the icy runway while taking off, exploded and burned before breaking apart, investigators said.

"There is no evidence at this time that the brakes were locked and there is no evidence at this time that the engine overrode the brakes," Kapustin said.

Kapustin said interviews with the crew confirmed earlier reports the plane was slow to accelerate.

Ivan K. Stracener, supervisory air safety investigator for the NTSB, said pieces of the plane's tires were found at intervals from the beginning of the runway.

Stracener said that when the plane's engines were brought up to full power prior to takeoff, the crew could have gotten under way by sliding the jet's runway with its wheels locked.

The team said tape recordings of the conversation were brought up to the pilot and control tower did not indicate an emergency. The conversation involved routine takeoff clearance from the lower and acknowledgment from the pilot.

Initial unconfirmed reports to the investigators mentioned a vibration problem in one engine, a fuel or oil leak and a tire blowout on takeoff.

Frank Malone, Anchorage representative of the NTSB, said the No. 1 engine of the DC-8 was checked before the plane left McChord Air Force Base, Wash., because of a "slight vibration problem."

The team said reports by some passengers that the fuel was dripping from an engine while the plane stopped here probably referred to normal venting of excess fuel from an engine.

Kapustin said the plane apparently reached "V1" speed, the speed at which an aircraft is committed to flight because insufficient runway space remains to halt safely.

"The actual speed they attained won't be known until the flight recorder is analyzed," Kapustin said.

Kapustin said the device was sent to the NTSB laboratory in Washington, D.C.

Mon Surprised: SAY BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Sue McGee woke up feeling abdominal pain and, thinking she might have appendicitis, asked her husband Charles to drive her to a hospital.

There doctors told the 33-year-old mother of four that her appendix was fine. The baby she was about to have was the trouble.

'Unconditional' Mideast Talks Vowed... Except...

TEL AVIV (AP) — Defense Minister Moshe Dayan says Israel is ready for unconditional peace talks with the Arabs, but it is not going to give up the Golan Heights, the Gaza Strip and command of the Strait of Tiran. Speaking to a Labor party rally Sunday night, Dayan listed these territorial goals as Israel's "guidelines" for negotiations, along with a demand for an agreement that no Arab army ever crosses the Jordan River to advance on Israel.

But these are not preconditions, Dayan asserted, because the Arabs would not have to sign their agreement... in advance. We will sit together and discuss these matters."

All the territory listed by Dayan was captured by the 1967 war, along with the Old City of Jerusalem, Jordanian territory on the west bank of the Jordan River, and the rest of the Sinai peninsula west and northwest of the Strait of Tiran.

Israel's determination to retain the Golan Heights, the Gaza Strip and the western shore of the Tiran Strait, between the Gulf of Aqaba and the Red Sea, has been repeatedly stated. Dayan made no mention of Old Jerusalem, but the Israeli government has said a number of times that it would not give that up.

Dayan said Israel wants to negotiate "to examine ways to end the fighting... because there is no point in war." He told his picture news conference that "if the war is resumed, we will fight."

Israel broke off indirect negotiations with Egypt and Jordan at the United Nations on Sept. 4, charging that Egyptian movements of anti-aircraft missiles toward the Suez Canal had violated the cease-fire which was preliminary to the talks.

Deputy Premier Yigal Allon told another Labor party meeting Sunday that the Israeli government has "moral, political and military justification" to go back to the talks. Otherwise, he said, the world would blame Israel for the failure to achieve peace.

The deputy premier said the Israeli Cabinet would decide in a few days what conditions are necessary before the talks can be resumed. These will involve the Egyptian missile buildup along the Suez canal, he said, but he gave no indication what the modification Israel would make in its demand that the missiles be returned to their disposition before the cease-fire. Egypt has said repeatedly it will move no missiles back.

The Israeli government today accused Egypt of building more new anti-aircraft missile sites in the 50-mile standstill zone along the canal. It was the 24th Israeli renewal of the agreement on Nov. 6.

The Israeli Cabinet on Sunday authorized Dayan to discuss political questions with American officials when he visits the United States next month on a bond-selling visit. He is expected to meet Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, Secretary of State William F. Rogers and possibly President Sargent as they make their rounds. They placed an alarm at the firehouse, located next door to the town hall.

Also based at Nakhon Phanom are new superjet observation planes that can fly over enemy positions without being detected. A1 Skyraider fighter-bombers and AC119 gunships.

Since U.S. Navy Seabees first built the base in 1965, Nakhon Phanom's quiet mission has remained fundamentally unchanged, but amenities have been added for the 5,500 soldiers and airmen stationed here: Swimming pool, tennis and basketball courts, neat redwood barracks with semiprivate rooms and hammock bungalows under the eaves, a television station, and a retired Skyraider parked in front of 80th Wing headquarters, armed with a full load of dummy bombs and rockets, and with its name painted on the nose: "The Proud American."

One recently deactivated squadron of the 66th was billed as the "No. 1 truck killer in the world" for its night air interdiction missions on the Ho Chi Minh trail, and the 50th Wing was recently awarded the Presidential Unit Citation for "day and night, low speed and low altitude missions" to attack enemy supply lines, provide close air support for friendly forces, and armed escort for rescue efforts.

Thirty-eight members of the wing were decorated for a 61-hour search and rescue mission in which the wing flew 17 sorties out of Nakhon Phanom before rescuing a downed pilot.

As long ago as 1966, it was possible to sit on the bank of the Mekong River and watch the Skyraiders roar across the river and fly out over the purple mountains of Laos, where branches of the Ho Chi Minh trail are only minutes away. Often the "rolling thunder" of Delta Callouts, 119 Center bombing on the trail could be heard.

Although the bombing halt over North Vietnam has been in effect more than two years, Nakhon Phanom's Skyraiders

A huge turnout is being predicted for next Saturday's election for the Manchester Republican Victory Party, being sponsored by the Manchester Republican Victory Party being held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the American Legion Home on American Legion Dr., formerly Leonard St.

A buffet will be served at 10 p.m. and dancing will be to the music of "The Bentleys". The general manager of the event is Wallace Irish Jr., the district chairman is Mrs. Elsie Dobkin.

A new twist in post-election parties is being offered by Democrat Dominic Squitrito, who lost his bid for election Nov. 3 to the State Senate.

Squitrito believes in "Appreciation Parties." He held one yesterday for his teen and pre-teen election workers, and he is scheduled to hold one Sunday for his adult election workers.

Yesterday's party was at his election headquarters, Next Sunday's reception, from 1 to 5 p.m., will be at his home.

Thursday is the deadline for the filing of financial statements by those who were candidates for state and district office and by all town committees.

The statements must be filed in the secretary of the state's office.

Preparatory to the Dec. 9 meeting of the Democratic Town Committee, its executive board of the town committee will meet Wednesday, to prepare recommendations to the full membership. Wednesday's executive board meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Building's conference room. The Dec. 9 town committee meeting will be in the Municipal Building at 8 p.m. in Room, also at 8 p.m.

The executive board will discuss possible rules changes, will decide on three appointments to fill vacancies on the town committee, and will discuss a proposal for adding two voting districts to the seven Manchester now has.

State Rep. Donald Genovese, who conducts office hours in the 8th District Firehouse on the first Monday of each month, has changed the date for his office hours this month. They will be on Tuesday, Dec. 8, and not Monday, Dec. 7.

The change is because of a pre-season Legislative Conference next Monday, for all 177 Loyalist state executive committee representatives and 36

Vernon Probate Judge Sworn In For A Short Term

Atty. Thomas F. Rady III was sworn in as judge of the probate district at ceremonies held Saturday at the probate office in the Memorial Building.

Judge Rady will have to be sworn in again in January. His election to the probate office in the Memorial Building was for a four-year term, on Nov. 3. His election to the short-term is to fill the vacancy created when the late Judge Antoni Sadiak died a year ago this past October.

Rady, a Democrat, defeated Atty. Fred McOne in the Nov. 3 election. His father, the late Thomas F. Rady Jr., served as judge of the same district for 17 years. He died in the Spring of 1966, during his fourth term.

Yesterday's party was at his election headquarters, Next Sunday's reception, from 1 to 5 p.m., will be at his home.

Ted on Town On the Eve Of DeGaulle Rites?

LONDON (AP) — A British weekly newspaper published a picture Sunday which it said showed Sen. Edward M. Kennedy at night clubbing with an Italian princess in Paris the night before he attended the funeral services for Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

The newspaper, The People, said the picture showed Kennedy and an unidentified man escorting French aristocrat Maria de la Roche to a club where they danced till 3 a.m. It said the French government was "shocked" but "for diplomatic reasons asked the French press to print neither picture nor story."

Neither Kennedy nor the princess was available for comment Sunday in Washington said a spokesman in Brussels.

The NATO conference when De Gaulle died and went to Paris with the congressional delegation to the memorial service, said Kennedy's wife was with him in Brussels and Paris.

The U.S. Embassy in Paris said it had heard nothing of such an incident.

Thomian

Thomian is a system of theology, based on the research and teachings of St. Thomas Aquinas, who was born about the year 1225. Thomas Aquinas was a great theologian of the Dominican Order.

As long ago as 1966, it was possible to sit on the bank of the Mekong River and watch the Skyraiders roar across the river and fly out over the purple mountains of Laos, where branches of the Ho Chi Minh trail are only minutes away. Often the "rolling thunder" of Delta Callouts, 119 Center bombing on the trail could be heard.

Although the bombing halt over North Vietnam has been in effect more than two years, Nakhon Phanom's Skyraiders

Tax on Waste STORIES (AP) — A report by the University of Connecticut Institute of Water Resources says that taxes on waste matter discharged into municipal sewers might be the best way to encourage control and finance waste treatment.

Dr. Robert L. Leonard, assistant professor of agricultural economics, said in a report released over the weekend that rates for domestic at the club, Co Chalm, Pine Ridge Apt. New the so-called "off-duty taxes" State Rd., to make paper mache angels.

The hearing originally had been scheduled for Thursday night. The town charter requires that a public hearing be advertised three times, with the last advertisement to be five days before the hearing (the day of the hearing may not be counted as one of the five days). The five-day requirement was not met in time for a hearing Thursday.

Shifts Mark Rotary Show Of Antiques

Several "firsts" will mark the fifth annual Rotary Club Antique Market, Dec. 12 and 13, in the Manchester High School cafeteria. Forty-one exhibitors will display antiques Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m.

It will be the first show to which Senior Citizens will be admitted at half price. They will receive the special reduced rate upon presentation of Golden Age cards.

This is the first year the show will have been held in the High School cafeteria. All previous ones were held in the Main St. Armory. The new location will provide off-street parking for 500 cars, as well as street parking for another 100.

Mrs. Nina Holman of Bedford, N.Y., is one of a number of antique dealers exhibiting for the first time. She specializes in nautical and whaling items, including ship models, scrimshaw, and paintings.

Also, for the first time, cafeteria facilities will make it possible to serve a full lunch at noon and dinner in the evening. In addition, cakes, pies, coffee cakes, and cookies, made by Rotarians' wives, will be available at the snack bar throughout each day of the show.

Coventry
Northfields Residents Set Meeting Tonight

Residents of Northfields subdivision will meet tonight at 7:30 at the high school, to prepare for a Wednesday hearing before the Public Utilities Commission.

The PUC is holding the hearing to consider a proposed 100 per cent increase in water rates in the subdivision, as applied for by the General Water Service Co. of Bridgeport.

Residents of Northfields are opposed to the rate hike, claims there have been many problems with the water there. During some periods over the past summer, many homes were without water entirely for several days at a time.

Petitions in support of the opposition to the increase are being circulated throughout the subdivision, which contains about 100 homes presently.

Petition circulators Bruce Wilson and Frank Blanton support membership, $5 for an adult and $25 for a child, and $25 for a life membership.

Booth Dimock Library is open from 12:30 to 5 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays; 9 to 9 p.m. Thursdays, and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays.

Vote Making
The Board of Admissions for which were to be completed as new sections of the subdivision the Town Hall, Route 31, to examine the qualifications and act on the application of any resident eligible to apply for admission.

Attendees Seminar
Mrs. Edward Walcott, senior nurse of the Coventry Public Health Nursing Association, with other area nurses recently attended the third biennial Post-Natal Seminar at the Yale New Haven Medical Center.

The day-long conference featured noted physician-lecturers from the U.S., Canada and France.

Stress was placed on the need for early identification of transitional problems of the newborn and the importance of proper facilities to care for the infant who has difficulty adjusting to his new environment.

Emphasis was also placed on the nurses' role in the newborn nursery in the detection of early symptoms.

Advisory Committee
The annual meeting of the Medicare advisory committee Windham PTA was held last week in Williamsville.

Coventry was represented by Mrs. Ernest Laddoy, Mrs. Har-

Peter Gedrys of Northford lost 43 pounds the European Health Spa way.

He says:
"For years I felt tired all the time, ready to sleep whenever I sat down... even when I was driving. I was exhausted when I should have been busy and having fun. My wife worried about my heart. My doctor urged me to exercise and go on a diet. Handicapped by 47 pounds of useless fat, I thought I was too heavy and too tired to take time for exercise. "Of course, I had tried all kinds of diets and exercise at home. None of them worked. "When I joined the European Health Spa, I weighed 247. I steadily staff members helped me with an exercise program that was fun and a diet I could live with. "It's easy to drop in at the Spa for quick workouts. It puts me in touch with lots of nice guys working toward goals like mine. "Now I feel great. I'm now 104 pounds for quick workouts. I've lost 43 pounds in 10 weeks! I'm a new man in many ways."

Elks Get Plaques For Contribution To Newington

The Manchester Lodge of Elks and 30 other lodges of the state recently were presented plaques from the Newington Children's Hospital for their continuing interest and financial support.

Three Manchester men took part in the program. They are Alfred M. Ritter, exalted ruler of Manchester Lodge; Anthony Merola, crippled child's chairman of the lodge; and Dr. George A. Chailouette, chairman of the hospital's Elks committee of the Connecticut Elks Association.

The plaques contain a drawing of the hospital's ambulance services waiting room which the Elks provided in the hospital's new wing by placing $30,000.

Vernon Vandals Wreck Tower Lighting

The War Memorial Tower on top of Fox Hill in Rockville, was decorated this year as it is every year, with Christmas lights. The tower, when decorated gives the appearance of being a giant Christmas tree and can be seen for miles around.

Right after the lights were installed, and before they were turned on, vandals broke every light and ripped out the wiring. Recreation Director Donald Berger said the tower has been vandalized before and many of

Andover Appropriations on Ballot At Meeting Wednesday

A special town meeting has been called for Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Andover Elementary School.

The ballot on the meeting will be appropriations approved by the Board of Finance; one of $12,000 for an additional truck for the town, and one for $2,000 requested by the Board of Education to cover increased costs of Andover children attending schools in Vernon.

A third item to be presented to the townspeople will be a request for a $17,000 appropriation, recommended by the Board of Finance, to purchase the Provenance property. The latter is the site of the Conservation Commission.

Other business to be brought up will be the acceptance of two roads, Webster Dr. and Hickory Dr., in the area which is now known as the Ellsworth Park Estates. These roads have been inspected by First Selectman Percy Cook and approved as having conformed to all road specifications, and having met all town requirements.

Also on the agenda is the procedure to establish continued dual usage of the existing road between the old Town Hall and the property of Peter Managga, formerly the estate of John Brown. The road situated between the two properties is partially owned by both the town and the neighboring property owner and has been used by both for many years. The road provides the town with its only access to the rear of the Town Hall. The matter is being brought up at the town meeting as a formality due to the change in ownership of the neighboring property.

Colonel—Son Sent to Room

Two more meetings on the topic of drugs are scheduled to be held this week.

The social action committee of the Andover Congregational Church will feature Al Cooper of Hartford at a meeting to be held at the church on Wednesday morning at 9:30. Cooper will be speaking about H.I.P., Inc., a non-profit organization that is seeking to establish a community house in Hartford for youthful drug offenders. In order to obtain a grant from the federal government, the group must raise 40 per cent of the funds from private sources.

H.I.P., which began in Philadelphia, is the subject of an article in the October 1970 issue of YOUTH magazine, and has branches springing up in cities all over the country. Much of its work is in counseling drug addicts.

Another meeting concerning itself with drugs and drug education is being held Thursday evening at 8 at the Congregational church social room.

Guest speaker for the meeting will be Jerry Demers, a registered pharmacist at the Bolton Drug Store, who will meet with the people to discuss drug problems and their effects within the home.

The Mothers' Group of the church, which is presenting the program, has issued an invitation to all interested adults in the community wishing to learn more about drugs, to attend.

Head Mrs. Miller

State Rep. Dorothy Miller has announced plans to be in Andover this evening at the town office building from 7 to 9 p.m. Mrs. Miller will be here to meet with her constituency and to answer any questions that may arise concerning either the legislature or her role in it. It is the intention of Mrs. Miller to try to present in an Assembly at least one day a month to meet with the public and discuss any bills presented in the General Assembly or those yet to be presented. She will also concern herself with items of interest to Andover residents; any persons or groups who might wish to have a bill introduced to the assembly are invited to present a request to Mr. Miller.

As of this time, Mrs. Miller has decided to visit Andover on the last Monday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. Should another day or time be found more convenient or desirable, the schedule will be changed accordingly.

Christmas Party

The Democratic Women's Club of Andover will hold its annual Christmas Party at its Dec. 8 meeting, which will be held at 8 p.m. at the Elementary School conference room.

Games will be played at the party and a grab bag will be held. Refreshments and music will be supplied. All Democratic women residents of Andover are invited to attend.

Love Lost

LONDON (AP) — Eartha Kitt says her romance with a Danish businessman is over — even though "I love him so much."

The 42-year-old singer, who had announced Friday her engagement to wealthy Ole Brodum-Nielsen, told a reporter after they had a brief meeting here Sunday.

"My wedding plans are definitely off. I'm flying home to Beverly Hills as soon as possible."

The 29-year-old Dane explained there seemed to be a misunderstanding.

Reds May Meet In East Berlin Later in Week

BERLIN (AP) — Communist party and government leaders of the Soviet bloc will meet in East Berlin, probably later this week.

ADN, the East German news agency, and Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, announced today that "leaders of fraternal parties and the governments of the states of the Warsaw Pact will meet in Berlin in the beginning of December."

It was believed that the leaders of the Soviet Union, East Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria would attempt to reach agreement on a unified approach to West Germany's Eastern policy. Its new pact with the Soviet Union and Poland pending negotiations with Czechoslovakia and most of the West German government's demand for an easing of Communist restrictions on West Berlin before the Bonn parliament ratifies such treaties.

For three days the East Germans have been stopping traffic to and from West Berlin from time to time to demonstrate their opposition to a meeting in the city today and Tuesday of the West German Christian Democratic party.

Governors-Elect Shun Stand On Welfare Reform

SOUTHERN PINES, N.C. (AP) — Welfare reform and federal revenue-sharing may become major topics of discussion by the national Governors Conference in February if Governor Milton J. Shapp of Pennsylvania has his way.

Shapp tried to stir up some strong action on both issues during an orientation seminar for new governors at Southern Pines this past weekend. But veteran governors put a damper on his attempts by saying the non-political gathering was not the time or place for policy-making.

"It just wasn't in the cards," Shapp told reporters. "Nobody came down here prepared to discuss the issues and take stands."

"But I think a start has been made and I think the voices of state houses are going to be heard more in Washington," Shapp said.

The national Governors' Conference will hold its annual midwinter meeting in Washington, Feb. 23-26.

Gov.-elect Wendell Anderson of Minnesota said: "We're not concerned about the plan. We just want a plan on that the federal government will recognize the states' plight."

The other Democrats at the meeting were John West of South Carolina, Jimmy Carter of Georgia, Cecil Andrus of Idaho, John J. Gilligan of Ohio, David Hall of Oklahoma and J. J. Shroyer of Nebraska. One of the two Republicans attending the session, Thomas J. Meskill of Connecticut, also attended the meeting.

Vernon 'Y' Acquires Land Tract In Ellington

The board of managers of the newly formed Indian Valley YMCA, serving Vernon, Tolland, Ellington and South and East Windsor, signed a bond for deed Friday for some 14 acres of land in Ellington.

The land will be the future site of a full facility YMCA. It is owned by C. R. Burr Inc. and is located in the geographic center of the five-town area, on the east side of Pimney St., north of what is known as the Five Corners area in Ellington.

Caray Greene, executive director of the Indian Valley "Y," said the acquisition of the land "is a most significant step forward in the Y's young history."

He said that the by-laws of the newly formed group were reviewed and accepted by the Hartford County Board of Directors, this past week. The Hartford County Y is the parent organization.

Greene said the Indian Valley group, having met the criteria established by the National Council of Young Men's Christian Association, will apply in the near future to be recognized as an official branch of the Hartford County YMCA.

"Wrap and Sell"

The third annual "wrap and sell" night of the Rockyville Area Ski Club will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the several door prizes will be awarded.

Members and friends are urged to bring their old or outgrown equipment.

At 8:30 p.m., a representative of a local ski shop will talk on the new equipment. Some 30 senior citizens have registered to go to Hartford, on Jan. 20, to take a test for glaucos. There are 15 seats still available on the bus. Those wishing to register should contact the Recreation office at the same time as noted above.

Anti-Christmas

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Mrs. and Mrs. Harold L. Allison had stolen the figures from their outdoor Nativity scene.

The theft took the holy family, three wise men, shepherds and animals. They tried to pry a lighted cross from the roof of the house but gave up after breaking a few light bulbs.

"Stealing a baby Jesus is really taking Christ out of Christmas," Mrs. Allison said.

State Men Survive Crash in Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Two Connecticut servicemen were listed among the survivors of the crash here of a Vietnam-bound DC-8 Friday night which killed 49 persons.

The Connecticut survivors were listed as Air Force S. Sgt. Ronald P. Halbach of Bridgeport and Sgt. Allan H. Corvill of Brookfield.

Halbach told his parents he suffered a fractured back in the mishap and was taken to Ellmendorf Hospital. Corvill phoned his parents Saturday to tell them he had sustained whiplash injuries.

Redskins Fake Field Goal Attempt Foiled by Giants' Rookie Green

WASHINGTON (AP)—Joe Green may be a rookie in the National Football League but the New York Giants' safety knows how much discussion is necessary for a team to plan a field goal.

When the Washington Redskins set up for a field goal on the last play of the game Sunday after quarterback Sonny Jurgensen had faked a kick, Green knew something was afoot.

"It doesn't take that long to kick a field goal," Green said afterwards.

The Bowling Green defensive back got only a brief burst from tight end Martin McCoever who moved downfield for the pass, as he blitzed toward Jurgensen. Green noted the Washington quarterback's 14-yard loss at the 27-yard line for the Giants' 27-0 victory for the first time since the Redskins' 1961 championship season.

"I don't think he could see several men clear as he went down, kicking a couple in the end zone.

"There was a lot of people in the end zone. I went right for Jurgensen because he's the only one who can see through the line. The 23-year-old Green hit Jurgensen at the knees and pulled him off the ball, away from the line of scrimmage.

"I was still worried about him getting the ball away, so I kept hitting him until he was out of the end zone. I knew it was a good play."

LSU Moves Closer to Orange Bowl Fourth-Ranked Notre Dame Hit by California Lightning

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW HAVEN (AP)—With five of a possible 11 first place votes, Stanford High School won the Orange Bowl in the final New Haven Register Intercollegiate Football Poll.

Second was Notre Dame with 10 votes, followed by Michigan with 8, and Texas Tech with 7.

Stanford, a 10-0 team, was selected by the poll's 11,000 voters as the best team in the nation. The school's record is 10-0, with 47 touchdowns and 47 field goals scored.

Notre Dame, 9-1, is 10-0 in conference play. The team has scored 47 touchdowns and 47 field goals.

Michigan, 8-2, is 10-0 in conference play. The team has scored 47 touchdowns and 47 field goals.

Texas Tech, 7-3, is 10-0 in conference play. The team has scored 47 touchdowns and 47 field goals.

Jets' Nock Hungry, Upsets Minnesota

NEW YORK (AP)—Nock, Nock, Who's there? The answer was supposed to be the Minnesota front four. Carl Eller, Alan Page, Gary Larsen and Jim Marshall.

But the play on words revolved around the old child's game and George Nock's name never developed for the Vikings Sunday as the sophomore running back smashed and wriggled for 117 yards in 22 carries while leading the New York Jets to a surprise 20-10 victory.

He was so impressive, in fact, the Jets may sign him.

Nock and General Manager and Coach Webb Ewbank still have not reached agreement on a 1970 contract. The 5-foot-10, 200-pound product of Morgan State reportedly is asking $20,000 and the Jets offered $10,000.

But then, maybe that's why Nock's training the way he is.

Stanfield's Goal
Tops Springfield
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Jack Stanfield's slowly rising goal tricked past Springfield goalie Bruce Landman Sunday after the second period when what proved to be the winning goal Sunday as the Rochester Americans gained a 2-1 victory over the Jets.

But Don Westbrook pulled Springfield from behind less than two minutes later.

It stayed that way until Stanfield's slow stude Landman's 12:28 of the first period. Ralph Stewart added an insurance goal for the Americans with 20 seconds remaining.

Yoviesin Wins Coaching Honors
BOSTON (AP)—John Yoviesin, who wound up his 14-year career at Harvard this season with a 7-2 record and an upset victory over Yale, was chosen unanimously by the New England Football Writers Association today as 1970 New England Coach of the Year.

It was the fourth time Yoviesin has won the award—the first in 1961, 1962 and 1968.

The award is presented annually to the outstanding coach in the New England area.

Yoviesin coached Harvard from 1956 to 1970. He led the team to a 147-103 record and a national championship in 1968.

Boston Wins Contest With Slow Arrival
BUFFALO (AP)—There were the Buffalo Bills—on the field, on the sidelines, on the bench, on the press box, on the radio, on the TV screen, on the scoreboard, on the stadium, on the city, on the state, on the nation, on the world.

The Bills won their 11th straight game Sunday, 20-10, over the Cleveland Browns.

The game was a defensive struggle, with the Bills' defense holding the Browns to 100 yards in 30 plays.

Buffalo quarterback Earl Morrall threw for 175 yards and three touchdowns.

Clinton scored once in the second period.

The game was a defensive struggle, with the Blades' defense holding the Comets to 100 yards in 30 plays.

Bruins' Orr Loses Puck, Then Plays Usual Game

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Boston Bruins' rookie defenseman Bobby Orr lost the puck in the first period, but then played an unusual game.

Orr, who is only 19 years old, was named the NHL Rookie of the Year.

He played 20 minutes in Sunday's 3-2 victory over the New York Rangers.

Orr's first goal came in the second period.

He also scored in the third period.

Nixon Panel Issues New Inflation Alert

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House, resorting to a policy it earlier predicted, criticized today the wage settlement in the General Motors strike and a presidential board's recommendation to increase wages in the railroad industry.

The White House thus moved into a "higher inflation" phase, a phrase covering presidential pressure to hold down inflationary wage and price booms.

The council said that the General Motors settlement, "if generalized throughout the economy, would crowd further upward costs per unit of output, and, therefore, the price level."

"Apart from further increases through the cost of living escalator for the past year, the increase substantially exceeds any trend estimate of gains in national productivity," the council said.

"It also raises costs further in the industry whose products overseas are accounting for a substantial and growing share of the domestic market."

The council reserved an opinion on the railroad wage package as a whole but noted in a so-called cost-of-living escalator clause under consideration.

"If an assumption about inflation that represents no improvement is explicitly embedded into a contract for future years, we thereby guarantee that these costs and prices will continue rising at an unchanged rate," the council said.

It said that "freezing into the contract such an assumption about future inflation would saddle the industry for the larger cause of achieving a new stability for the price-cost level."

The presidential board has recommended wage increases in the railroad industry averaging 11 per cent a year over three years. The board did not specifically recommend a cost-of-living escalator clause but did note that including one would yield a wage increase in excess of nine per cent annually.

Turning to price increases, the council noted that General Motors announced additional price booms for automobiles.

"An increase of six to seven per cent in the price of passenger automobiles would add about $2 billion to the total cost to dealers and possibly $2.5 billion to the cost to consumers," the council said.

Such an increase, the council said, translates into a rise of about three-tenths of one per cent in the Wholesale Price Index.

The council also noted price hikes in the oil industry, saying that they come "when petroleum inventories are at a level higher than is normal for this time of year."

The council said that on Nov. 21, a major oil company, not named in the inflation alert, boosted the price of crude oil by 25 cents per barrel. That increase is now under investigation by the government.

Nixon Unit Calls For New Canal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission has ended a six-year study with a controversial proposal to build a $2.8 billion sea-level waterway across Central America within a few miles of the Panama Canal.

But before a shovel is turned, the proposal faces major biological, diplomatic and ecological hurdles both in the United States and Panama.

The Atlantic-Pacific Inter-Oceanic Canal Study Commission spent $22 million before turning its conclusions over to President Nixon Monday, calling for the canal to run across Panama and parallel to the existing Panama Canal.

The commission said the current lock-type Panama Canal, which opened in 1914, will reach its maximum capacity of 26,800 annual transits by the end of the century, and a new, wider canal is needed for defense purposes.

Nixon Orders Full Probe On Defector

By JOHN STOWELL, Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has ordered a full and immediate investigation of a denial of political sanctuary to a Lithuanian sailor who jumped from a Soviet fishing boat onto the deck of a U.S. Coast Guard cutter last week.

A preliminary report, requested by Nixon Monday morning and delivered later the same day, indicated "the situation was very poorly handled and there appears to be some error in judgment."

The report said White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler.

Nixon was described as concerned at not being notified immediately and having to learn about it from news reports.

The president told Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Secretary of Transportation John Volpe, to lay a full report on his desk Wednesday.

The sailor, identified only as Simas, had told a Coast Guard cutter Nov. 23 he planned to jump into the water after the cutter Vigilant and the Soviet vessel separated. They were moored side by side near Martha's Vineyard, Mass., for a discussion of North Atlantic fishing rights.

The State Department advised the Coast Guard not to encourage a trap which could embarrass the United States if the defector was phony.

The sailor changed his plans and jumped while the ships were still tied together. During the 10 hours of negotiations that followed the captain of the 100-ton cutter accused the defector of stealing $2,000 from the ship's fund and Rear Adm. William B. Ellis, commander of the Coast Guard's 1st District at Boston, ordered the man returned.

Witnesses said the sailor reportedly disclosed specific casualty figures in such attacks.

Australian Militants Plan Demonstration Against Papal Tour

By PATRICK O'KEEFE, Associated Press Writer

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Pope Paul VI celebrated High Mass tonight at Sydney's Randall race track before a throng of 200,000 as a small group of militant Protestants planned the first hostile demonstration of the papal tour.

The crowd was one of the largest ever assembled in a closed area in Australia, but it was only two fifths of the 800,000 officials of the papal tour had predicted.

The Pope celebrated the Mass at an altar erected just above the race results board. Flags in the papal colors of yellow and white and a background of ochre cloth draped the parimutuel boards on each side.

The program was much like the Pope's 1965 Mass before 80,000 persons in New York's Yankee Stadium. The pontiff rode in an automobile around the brightly lit turf track, blessing the crowd and stopping half a furlong from the finish post. Then he walked 60 yards to the altar on a carpet of red.

That showed up brightly on color television.

The Mass honored the bicentenary of Capt. James Cook's landing in Australia, which the country is celebrating this year.

Addressing the crowd, Pope Paul warned Australians not to substitute "hedonism" and "eroticism" for "life's moral and spiritual dimension."

"Do not close your limited circle for the sake of a selfish satisfaction," he said. "Live the words of St. Peter: 'You are slaves of one except God, so behave like free men, and never use your freedom as an excuse for wickedness.'"

"Your moral and religious spirit stands at the summit," the Pope continued, but he warned that with societies as well off as Australia's there is the danger of forgetting "life's moral and spiritual dimension." "Then what emptiness in the human heart," he declared. "What a temptation there is to fill his place with counterfeits, some of which, such as self-centered hedonism, eroticism and many others, lead in the end to contempt for man, and do not, for all that, satisfy his profound restlessness. Man's heart, is made for God."

The crowd responded with a mild applause.

A tiny group calling itself the Australian Alliance of Bible-believing Christian Churches planned to parade with placards in front of the Sydney town hall Wednesday night while the 75-year-old pontiff held an ecumenical prayer service inside with Anglican, Methodist, Baptist and Lutheran church leaders.

Between 25 and 100 persons were expected to demonstrate. An organizer of the protest, John McKenzie, said the group would be "silent and peaceful."

A slight shadow already had been cast over the prayer service by the refusal of the Anglican archbishop of Sydney, the Most Rev. Marcus L. Loane, to participate. He said he could not share "in unfettered fellowship with the Roman Catholic Church, until doctrinal disputes are ironed out."

McKenzie said his organization has no quarrel with the Pope's coming to visit Australian Catholics, but it opposes Protestants associating with him. The protest will be led by the Rev. Frederick Channing of St. Paul's.

Blasts Hit Viet Medical Site, U.S. Embassy in Cambodia

By GEORGE ESPEE, Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — An enemy rocket wrecked an American medical station in South Vietnam Monday killing or wounding the entire staff, and in Phnom Penh a bomb exploded in the U.S. Embassy at dawn but injured no one.

Meanwhile, the Viet Cong announced its forces would observe three-day cease-fires in Vietnam for Christmas and New Year's and a four-day cease-fire during the Tet festival of the Lunar New Year at the end of January.

South Vietnamese government sources said the allies would declare cease-fires for the same holidays but would not announce them until shortly before each holiday. They will probably be only 24 hours each.

The medical dispensary was smashed during a 20-round rocket barrage on the Chu Lai base camp, headquarters of the U.S. American Division 50 miles south of Da Nang. It was the first rocket or mortar attack on Chu Lai since June 19.

Field reports said one of the 100-pound missiles tore through the roof of the first aid station. The reports said there were no patients in the dispensary, but less than a dozen Americans on the staff were killed or wounded. The U.S. Command's security regulations require disclosing specific casualty figures in such attacks.

In March, 1965, Viet Cong terrorists bombed the U.S. Embassy in Saigon with a car filled with explosives, killing two Americans and 20 Vietnamese and wounding 150 persons, most of them Vietnamese.

During the big Communist Tet offensive in 1968, Viet Cong forces invaded the U.S. Embassy compound in Saigon, killed five American guards and wounded 11 before being driven out.

On the battlefield of Indochina, on light and scattered combat was reported across South Vietnam.

The Cambodian Command announced that its infantry and navy units had launched operations to retake the east bank of the Prek Kdam ferry which North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops captured two days ago.

The ferry, 20 miles north of Phnom Penh on the Tonle Sap River, is a gateway to the northern front where more than 20,000 Cambodian troops are cut off by road from Phnom Penh. Many of the government troops are reported running out of ammunition.

Thirty miles north of Phnom Penh, two isolated Cambodian government units were reported trying to fight their way through North Vietnamese and Viet Cong defenses and link up near Betsay, on Route 6.

Police in Torrington apprehended one youngster from a school closed for the third time in a week Monday and turned him over to juvenile authorities.

"We are not policemen," said the SNET spokesman. "But we don't want to see our system used to harass people."

State School Officials Act As Bomb Scares Spread

By DON MEIKLE, Associated Press Writer

HARTFORD (AP) — Harassed by an outbreak of bomb threats which has also been afflicted by bomb hoax calls, school systems have struck with the help of the telephone by students, of course, but undoubtedly many of them, and action by students themselves.

By tracing bomb hoax calls which have been effective.

What to do in case of a bomb and other devices, the Southern threat is a question that has New England Telephone Co. has had to be faced by many school districts to several principals, superintendents and principals.

Some 15 to 20 have called the State Department of Education's civil defense consultant, Leo M. McCann, in the past few months, asking for advice.

"Everybody's perplexed," says McCann. "It's a very distressing situation, and a very frustrating situation."

In a time when bomb threats are rare, school officials simply evacuate the buildings and conduct searches for explosives.

But in a time when threats are phoned in every day and no bombs are ever found, officials are tempted to ignore the calls, suspecting that disruption is exactly what the callers want.

"There was a similar situation in the 1950's, when I was assistant superintendent of schools in Hartford," McCann recalled. "There were so many threats that instead of evacuating

After 109 Years Case Bros. Paper Plant Ending Town Operation

By WILLIAM COE, Herald Reporter

All paper manufacturing will cease at Case Bros. plant on Glen Rd. within two weeks, and the entire facility will be phased out over the next several months, according to company officials.

Some 75 persons still employed here by the 109-year-old firm, a division of the Boise Cascade Corp., will be affected.

The company will attempt to relocate many of these to the Brattleboro, Vt., plant, which will assume all operations.

The local plant had employed about 100 until a sharp drop in business forced the shutdown of one papermaking machine and the layoff of 25 employees last September.

Removal has been circulating among employees since then. The end was near for Manchester operations of the firm, founded here in 1861 and operated as a family-owned business until it was sold in 1967 by the descendants of the founders.

The rumors have now been confirmed by a compelling announcement to employees that the plant is to be closed.

The plant is under way, the division's top official, S. Philip Silver, and John Wasserman, told The Herald that the decision was painful but unavoidable.

"We feel bad about the decision to leave Manchester, and did everything we could to avoid it," said Silver. He said there was a sharp decrease in the paper business generally and a 25 per cent decrease at Case's in particular that occurred about mid-year and has continued at the same level since.

Economists are predicting more of the same for at least a year. Silver said, "once elsewhere in the industry has been a story of increasing inventories accompanied by a drop in sales."

Makes Specialty Papers Case's is a maker of specialty papers and preboard sold to the office and school markets. These markets have "pulled in their horns" in inventories of paper supplies.

The State Department advised the Coast Guard not to encourage a trap which could embarrass the United States if the defector was phony.

The sailor changed his plans and jumped while the ships were still tied together. During the 10 hours of negotiations that followed the captain of the 100-ton cutter accused the defector of stealing $2,000 from the ship's fund and Rear Adm. William B. State Official Surprised By Census News

HARTFORD (AP) — "A mis is as good as a mile." And Connecticut citizens may well keep that homily in mind as they survey the final census figures released Monday which show that the state almost, but not quite, won a seventh seat in the U.S. House.

The decennial population reapportionment placed Connecticut at 24th in population among the states, with 2,000,000 residents, including 18,075 persons who claim Connecticut as home but are residing outside the United States.

It was a single step up in the listings for Connecticut, and came at the expense of Iowa, which dropped one place to 25th.

Divorce Legalized by Italian Parliament

ROME (AP) — The Chamber of Deputies completed action today on a bill legalizing divorce in Italy and Pope Paul VI denounced it as damaging to family life and relations between Italy and the Roman Catholic Church.

The pontiff interrupted his activities in Australia to dispatch a message expressing "profound suffering" over the bill.

The Pope's comments were released by the Vatican.

The Pope's message strongly indicated that he did not consider the matter closed on a diplomatic level. The Vatican has previously issued official protests to the Italian government over the divorce bill and another is reportedly being prepared.

The Vatican statement said the Pope was informed of Parliament's action, and went on:

"The news, even if not unexpected, brought profound suffering to the Holy Father, and this for a double reason: For the very grave damage which divorce brings to Italian families and especially to children, and also because the Holy See, as it has pointed out leaning on ample and serene argumentation, considers the present law damaging to the Concordat in a

Presidential Aide Kissinger Seen Target in Kidnap Plot

By RONALD J. OSTROW, Los Angeles Times

WASHINGTON — High government sources, outside the FBI, believe they have information about a plot to kidnap a federal official, with Presidential Assistant Henry A. Kissinger the prime target.

The Los Angeles Times learned Monday.

As a result, these officials are known to be deeply concerned that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's Senate testimony Friday about a kidnap plot, which he linked to an antiwar Catholic group, may have complicated an investigation that was far from complete.

The investigative information is classified. A spokesman for Attorney Gen. John N. Mitchell said Monday that Mitchell did not know that Hoover was going to testify about the investigation at hearings on FBI appropriations and was further surprised that the testimony was made public.

The six — three priests, two nuns and a Catholic draft resister — stressed at a press conference here their commitment to the nonviolent revolution against injustice.

They reiterated an earlier declaration that they were responsible for destroying draft board files in Philadelphia and ran-

State School Officials Act As Bomb Scares Spread

By DON MEIKLE, Associated Press Writer

HARTFORD (AP) — Harassed by an outbreak of bomb threats which has also been afflicted by bomb hoax calls, school systems have struck with the help of the telephone by students, of course, but undoubtedly many of them, and action by students themselves.

By tracing bomb hoax calls which have been effective.

What to do in case of a bomb and other devices, the Southern threat is a question that has New England Telephone Co. has had to be faced by many school districts to several principals, superintendents and principals.

Some 15 to 20 have called the State Department of Education's civil defense consultant, Leo M. McCann, in the past few months, asking for advice.

"Everybody's perplexed," says McCann. "It's a very distressing situation, and a very frustrating situation."

In a time when bomb threats are rare, school officials simply evacuate the buildings and conduct searches for explosives.

But in a time when threats are phoned in every day and no bombs are ever found, officials are tempted to ignore the calls, suspecting that disruption is exactly what the callers want.

"There was a similar situation in the 1950's, when I was assistant superintendent of schools in Hartford," McCann recalled. "There were so many threats that instead of evacuating
