Schools defended

To the editor, Recent days have seen an increased awareness of the hazards of drug abuse and alcohol abuse among young persons in this community Unfortunately there has been the implication that our school administrators, teachers, and the Board of Education are somehow responsible for the problem. It is my conviction that the problem, which does exist, is rooted in the home environments and that it is like Don Quixote jousting with windmills to attack and condemn the administra-

Grand jury named

VERNON-Eighteen Tolland County residents have been named to a grand jury due to consider an indict-ment against Richard T. Delage, charged with the alleged murder of Paget A. Weatherley, a University of Connecticut graduate student, in 1969. The panel is to convene Feb. 4 behind closed doors at the Tolland County Superior Court in Rockville to listen to the state's case against Delage, 31, of Thompson. Nursery school registration

HEBRON-Preregistration for 1977-78 classes for three and four year olds is being accepted by the Hebron Center Nursery School. The cooperative school was incorporated in 1971. It is self-governing, nonprofit, interdenominational, and inter-racial. To learn more, call Mrs. Mary Ruth of Porter Rd., membership

Old car taxes higher

VERNON - Most car owners will receive a higher tax bill for them this year, said Ben Joy, Vernon assessor. He got this message from the Connecticut Association of Assessing Officers. The tax is based on the average retail value of the car. Many used cars failed to depreciate during the past year. Since fewer new cars were bought in the past year, fewer cars were traded in, and used car prices went up, he explained. Also, the tax rate may go up along with the value of the taxpayer's old car, he said.

Better Government meeting ANDOVER - The Andover Committee for Better Government will meet Sunday at 8 p.m. in the home of Ellen Davidson on Rt. 6. It will discuss the traffic signal at the shopping center on Rt. 6, work on its bylaws, and compile questions to ask the fire comnissioners about a town ambulance. It also plans to write a proposed ordinance for the town on paper ballots at all Town Meetings regardless of the subject of the vote. A person's vote is one of the few things he has left, said a committee member.

Scholarships for women

BOLTON-Phipps scholarships are available for members of the Bolton Woman's Club. To be eligible, a nember must be working toward a bachelor's or master's degree and must have completed two or more years of study. The applicant must have earned a 3.0 quality point average or better. Forms are at the home of Sandy Pierog, Brandy St.

Hospital drive closes

VERNON-Several large donations brought Rockville Hospital's first fund drive to a close with a total of $57,490,70 collected. The drive started Oct. 27 and continued through the end of the year. The Kingfisher Corp. of Tolland gave $2,000; Amerbelle Corp. of Rockville, $1,000; and the Morris Joseloff Foundation, $500. The drive's aim was to buy needed equipment for the hospital.

Spacemobile coming

HEBRON-The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) spacemobile is a panel truck which carries equipment that a space science educator uses to conduct lectures and shows. It will come to Rham High School Monday and to Bolton High School Thursday. The spacemobile has been popular with high schools for nine years. DEAR ABBY: In reply to FLORIDA RETIREES, who nestioned how to address mail to couples living together ough not married: My preference may not be proper etiquette, but it solves the problem for me.

I address mail to "Mary and John Smith"—using neither Mr. or Mrs. I use Mary's name first because I know that she is Mary Jones and not Mary Smith, but the mailman

DEAR GRACE: The maliman probably knows as much

GRACE IN MICHIGAN

doesn't have to know.

DEAR ABBY: For years I wore my wedding ring first with my diamond on the outside. I had been told by the eweler that that was the "correct" way to wear them, but I didn't know that it was to keep the wedding ring "closest to the heart" until I read it in your column. But let me tell you why I don't wear them that way anymore: About five years ago, I was eating peanuts at a ball game, and my diamond ring slipped off my finger into the peanut sack. Luckily, I found it among the peanut nells, and when I put it back on my finger, I put it on first and put on my wedding band on the outside. Sign me...
"BETTER SAFE THAN RIGHT"

DEAR BETTER: Speaking from a materialistic point of view, you're protecting the more "valuable" ring. But symbolically speaking, it's easier to replace a diamond than a wedding band.

DEAR ABBY: Concerning the boy who expects a girl to kiss on the first date after he has gone to all the trouble of giving her a free show, dinner, etc.: Your answer was: "A kiss should not be expected in return for an evening's entertainment or anything else. It's strictly a voluntary show of real affection."

You are all wrong.

If the girl doesn't like the guy enough to kiss him, she shouldn't go out with him in the first place!

18-YEAR-OLD GIRL

DEAR ABBY: This is for D, who was concerned about her male friend because he carried his own salad dressing in D's main concern should be keeping up with him in the bedroom. I don't know about the salad dressing, but I know a man who uses wheatgerm regularly on his cereal, and he's dynamite in that department.

DEAR "18": How is the girl supposed to know how much

(or little) she likes a guy until she goes out with him?
