DEAR ABBY: May God bless you for asking readers who had spent three months or more in a mental hospital to write to you explaining the problems of getting back into society. You really do care about people, don't you?

I spent two years in a county mental hospital. At first I expected to be thrown together with freaks and nuts who would climb the walls, scream bloody murder and act crazy. Some were a little strange, and occasionally hostile and hard to handle, but none was dangerous. Most were in a deep to handle, but none was dangerous. Most were in a deep to handle, but none was dangerous. Most were in a deep state of depression.

Abby, will you please say a kind word for those wonderful people who work with disturbed patients? It takes a deep love for humanity to care for people who are mentally ill.

Today I am home, well and happy, and I know I never could have made it without the patient, loving and understanding people who looked after me. Thank you.

FORMER MENTAL PATIENT DEAR FORMER: I appreciate your kind letter. And I still welcome letters from former mental patients. You need not sign your names. The response to my request has been

DEAR ABBY: I am a minister's wife, and I would like to DEAR ABBY: I am a minister's wife, and I would like to tell you what Christmas means to me:

It means spending the holidays going to programs in which my musically talented children perform. (Most ministers marry women who can play the piano so they will always have someone to play for the services. These wives usually produce musically gifted children.)

Christmas means working hard to make gifts for the family in order to live within a limited budget. Ministers' wives have always done this. It means cooking everything, from scratch for the same reason.

from scratch for the same reason.

Christmas means being excluded from a lot of holiday parties because most people don't want us to know the kind of drinks they're serving. (We know anyway).

Christmas means spending all the time at the stove, sink or washing machine. Nobody offers to help with anything, and after a few tries, you end up doing it alone because it's esier than begging for help is.

Christmas means receiving gifts from your family that will enable you to serve them better—rarely anything to satisfy your personal, feminine desires.
Christmas means becoming physically exhausted and trying to keep it from showing. The family isn't concerned. Any suggestions, Abby?
NAMELESS AND NO LOCATION

DEAR NAMELESS: Yours is the saddest Christmas song I've ever heard. Clip this and show it to your family. If they don't know how you feel, they should.

DEAR ABBY: I've been going with Roy for a year and a half. We plan to be married. Roy's brother went with a girl I'll call Gloria. Gloria and I are good friends. Gloris broke up with Roy's brother and is going to marry someone-else.

My boyfriend and I were invited to the wedding. I want to go. My boyfriend says that he will not go and that out of respect to his brother, I shouldn't go, either. I think he's out of line, and I told him I thought he was childish—and if What do you say? EASTERNER
