Reagan and Ford concentrate on Florida

Democrat ranks may dwindle

BOSTON (UPI) — President Ford and Ronald Reagan peer beyond Tuesday's New England primaries for higher stakes in the sunshine showdown in Florida.

But for some of the eight major Democrats in the Massachusetts-Vermont contests, the second primaries of 1976 may be their last.

Neither Ford or Reagan campaigned in the two states, leaving a platoon of Democrats to bask in the limelight stolen by Republicans the week before in New Hampshire.

Alone in the nation in 1972, Massachusetts went for Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., in the 1972 general elections, a decision that cost Republicans representation at this year's GOP convention. Republicans here send 43 delegates to the convention while neighboring New Hampshire, with one eighth the population, sends 21 delegates.

The struggle for 104 Democratic convention delegates in Massachusetts — candidates' first test in a large industrial state — appears likely to eclipse the Vermont primary, also Tuesday, the first in that state since 1920.

With the busing issue inflaming emotions in Massachusetts, the state may prove fertile ground for Alabama Gov. George Wallace in his first primary battle since being paralyzed by an 1972 assassination attempt in a Maryland shopping center.

The primary is the first of 1976 for the well-organized and well-bankrolled campaign of Washington Sen. Henry M. Jackson who has made his own pitch to anti-busing sentiment.

Democrat Milton Shapp, the low-keyed millionaire now serving as governor of Pennsylvania, also faces his first test.

Other major candidates confront their second contest of the election year with the results likely to trim the liberal field.

Fresh from capturing 30 per cent of the vote in New Hampshire, former Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter arrived in Massachusetts to find fruits of early victory carried a bitter aftertaste. At least three of his rivals attacked the frontrunner 51-year-old peanut farmer and former nuclear physicist for being too general in proposals.

"I don't take these attacks on me personally and I don't think they will have any effect on my campaign," Carter told a luncheon rally at Faneuil Hall Friday.

Arizona Rep. Morris Udall, Carter's closest rival in New Hampshire, summoned liberals to unify behind him before it was too late to influence the Democratic party's selection of a nominee.

News summary

Compiled from United Press International

State

WESTPORT — The Connecticut gaming commission has told the prospective owners of the Bridgeport jai alai area to start gearing up to open, possibly on May 1, according to Paul Silvergeld, commission chairman.

HARTFORD — Gov. Ella T. Grasso has come down with the flu and canceled several activities scheduled for today and Tuesday.

HARTFORD — The state's labor unions like much of Connecticut's political leadership, are waiting for the pack of presidential candidates to sort themselves out before taking sides. Democrats will stage a primary May 11.

SOUTHURBY — For Norman John Rees, the secret years of stress and stealth as Soviet spy and FBI double agent must have paled beside the fear of exposure.

He apparently took his own life early Sunday rather than face his family and friends who would awaken to read about his deeds.

The Dallas Times-Herald reported that day the former Mobil Oil Co. engineer admitted selling information to Soviet intelligence agents from 1942 to 1971. The FBI convinced Rees to become a double agent in 1971.

Regional

GLOUCESTER, Mass. — Two Massachusetts state representatives from the famous fishing port of Gloucester, David S. Lane and Richard R. Silva, both Republicans, say President Ford has promised to sign a bill extending the offshore fishing limit to 200 miles effective Jan. 1, 1977.

National

Eight state legislatures, fed up with a rising national debt now 12 figures in the red, are advocating an amendment to the U.S. Constitution requiring a balanced federal budget.

NEW ORLEANS — Mardi Gras revelers are taking a breathing spell today to get ready for Tuesday's 15-hour blowout which traditionally is the last big fling before Lent, which begins Wednesday.

LOS ANGELES — Former President Richard M. Nixon looked tanned, healthy and relaxed as he returned Sunday night from a nine-day trip to China with the praise of Peking's leaders ringing in his ears. He now faces further questioning by mail by the Senate Intelligence Committee concerning intelligence activities during his administration.

WASHINGTON — The 16-month fight over the 1974 Oklahoma senatorial election shifted to the Senate today, where Republicans and Democrats once again battle over demands for a new Senate election. Former Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okla., who lost to Republican Sen. Henry Bellmont in a close race, is calling for the new election.

International

MOSCOW — Cheering, clapping and chanting "Long Live Communism," some 5,000 delegates to the Soviet Communist Party Congress today unanimously approved the party's program for the next five years — detente abroad and the pursuit of Communist objectives at home.

KINSHASA, Zaire — Zaire has reversed its one-time support of pro-Western factions in Angola and recognized the Soviet-backed government there in return for what amounts to a nonaggression pact.

with the busing issue inflaming emotions in Massachusetts, the state may prove fertile ground for Alabama Gov. George Wallace in his first primary battle since being paralyzed by an 1972 assassination attempt in a Maryland shopping center.

Eighth District voters to elect clerk tonight

Eighth District voters tonight will elect a new clerk to fill the unexpired term to July 15. The post was vacated in October, when long-time clerk Joseph Volz resigned because of poor health. District Director John Flynn has been serving as acting clerk.

The election will be at 7:30 in the Whiton Library Auditorium, N. Main St.

The part-time position pays $1,750 a year and is filled annually. Nominations will be from the floor and paper ballots will be used for the election.

Announced candidates are Edward M. Fitzgerald, 225 Main St.; Elwood A. Lechausse, 64 Tanner St.; and David L. Thompson, 117 Buckland St.

Those eligible to vote tonight must be Town of Manchester electors and residents of the district for at least three months.

John LaBelle, district counsel, has advised the district board that residents of the disputed Buckland area are eligible to vote tonight, provided they are on the town's voting lists.

Board may be too optimistic, according to MEA negotiator

By DOUG BEVINS
Herald Reporter

Lee Hay, a Manchester High School teacher and chief negotiator for the Manchester Education Association (MEA), says school board officials are probably overly optimistic about a teachers' contract settlement within two weeks.

"Negotiations are progressing very well," Hay said, "and we expect a settlement well before the end of the school year."

Hay wouldn't be more specific, but he said he doubted a mid-March settlement as estimated Thursday night by Asst. School Supt. Wilson Deakin, the school board's chief negotiator.

The MEA, which is the bargaining agent for about 550 public school teachers, has conducted four or five negotiating sessions with the school board, Hay said. The next round of talks is scheduled this week.

Hay confirmed that the MEA is considering a two-year contract — one of the school board's aims — but a decision on that issue hasn't been made.

But things are going very well, Hay said, echoing Deakin's other comments.

"We've never made progress like this before," Hay said.

Hay said there nearly 50 "language" changes proposed by both sides, and agreements, withdrawals or compromises have whittled the unsettled "language" items to half a dozen.

And each side is relatively close to the other on the financial aspects of the new teachers contract, Hay said.

"Both sides have moved from their original positions," he said. "Both sides are being realistic this year, and both sides are aware of the economic situation," he said.

Deakin's comments Thursday night, just before a closed-door meeting on school board negotiating strategy, were about the same as Hay's comments.

Hay said one reason for better negotiating procedures this year appears to be the school board's decision to let Deakin do the negotiating. Two years ago, Hay said, progress was slowed because the school board hired a professional negotiator.

Two years ago, negotiations started in January and ended unsuccessfully in May. State mediation failed, and the teachers' contract went to arbitration. Settlement wasn't reached until November, after teachers had been working without a contract for five months.

Wheel of Fortune contest launched by auto dealers

Manchester area automobile dealers are oiling up the Wheel of Fortune for a Car Giveaway contest starting today. On April 3, some lucky individual will spin the wheel to win one of 11 new cars from a participating dealer.

The Car Giveaway is sponsored by the Retail Trade Division of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce, The Manchester Evening Herald, the auto dealers and several local merchants.

Starting today and continuing through March 31, The Herald will print contest coupons for the free car in special advertisements scattered throughout the newspaper.

All a person has to do to enter is to clip the coupons, fill them in, and deposit them in the corresponding stores.

There will be weekly drawings in which one coupon from each of the 53 participating stores will be drawn and placed in a master cylinder at The Herald.

The deadline for the weekly entries will be Fridays at noon and the weekly drawings will be conducted Saturdays at noon. The final deadline is Friday, April 2, and the final drawing is scheduled for noon on Saturday, April 3. The winner of the final drawing will then spin the Wheel of Fortune to determine which of the 11 new cars is the prize.

Herald Advertising Director Al Hall, explaining the contest procedure and rules, said names of the weekly drawing winners will be published in The Herald each Monday.

The Wheel of Fortune, which will be displayed at participating stores all month, contains the names of the 11 cars and their respective dealers.

The cars and dealers are a Pinto Pony from Dillon Ford, a Duster from Manchester Plymouth, a Toyota Corolla from Lynch Motors, a Datsun B-210 from DeCormier Motor Sales, an Astre from Ted Trudon Pontiac, a Dodge Aspen from Charches Motors, a Chevette from Carter Chevrolet, a Mercury Comet from Moriarty Bros., a Mazda Mizer from Manchester Motor Sales, a VW Beetle from Ted Trudon Volkswagen, and a Skylark from S & S Buick.

It isn't necessary to buy a copy of The Herald to enter the Car Giveaway. Entrants may use an ordinary piece of white paper and submit one reasonable facsimile of the coupon. Reproductions of coupons by a duplicating device aren't acceptable.

Only one entry per store per week is allowed. No purchase is required. All entrants must be at least 18 years old. The winner doesn't have to be present at the drawing to win. Participants may enter as many of the weekly contests as they wish, and Hall said people should enter every week at every participating store to increase the chances of winning.

The winner of the new car can't transfer the ownership nor can it be redeemed for cash, but the winner may purchase another car from the same dealer who provides the winning car, using the winning car as a down payment.

The winner must pay all tax and registration fees.

Employees of The Herald, the Chamber of Commerce and its directors, and their immediate families are ineligible.

Complete details of the Car Giveaway are on Page 10 of today's Herald.

George DeCormier of DeCormier Motor Sales displays the Wheel of Fortune that will be used April 3 to select the winning automobile in the Car Giveaway sponsored by The Herald, the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce, local auto dealers and participating merchants.

Display Bicentennial finery at ball

Among the more than 500 attending Manchester's gala Bicentennial Ball Saturday evening were Dominic Squatrito, left, his wife Carla, and Kathy and Philip Zapadak. Congressman William Cotter assisted John Sullivan, chairman of the ball, and Mayor Matt Moriarty Jr. in lighting the Bicentennial candle as the guests sang "Happy Birthday America." Each person attending the ball received a bronze Bicentennial medal. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Electrical fires caused by vandals on Kerry St.

By DOUG BEVINS
Herald Reporter

A heavy chain thrown on electrical wires on Kerry St. caused several small fires, blacked out Kerry St. homes for nearly four hours, and threatened to start major blazes Saturday, officials said.

Eight District fire fighters were summoned to 23 Kerry St., an old bakery building, at 12:40 p.m. Saturday on a report on burning wires. Fire fighters found that a chain, apparently thrown on power lines by vandals, had wrapped around ground wires during Saturday's strong winds.

Officials of the Hartford Electric Light Co., who said the power outage started at 12:30 p.m., said the wrapped chain caused a heavy surge of power into four homes on Kerry St.

Fire fighters said wire insulation burned at 23 Kerry St.; a fire in wires at 10-12 Kerry St. scorched collar beams of the dwelling; a television set was burned out at another Kerry St. home and a furnace was shorted out at another address on the street.

HELCO officials said the incident caused a power failure in several homes for three hours and 40 minutes.

Police are investigating the vandalism incident.

Eight District Fire Lt. Wally Irish, the department spokesman, said the hazardous situation could have caused more serious structure fires if the burning wires hadn't been discovered in time.

Fire fighters, after extinguishing the electrical fires, disconnected electrical lines to other homes to prevent other blazes. Fire fighters stayed on the scene for about two hours.

Operation Rice Bowl

Operation Rice Bowl stickers carrying the Lenten Covenant are still available in most area churches and from the MACC office. Families participating in Operation Rice Bowl covenant together to:

- 1) pray for the starving
- 2) participate in a weekly sacrificial meal
- 3) contribute the money saved for the hungry of the world.

The prayer for the starving and the special Lenten menus will be printed in The Herald each Saturday during Lent for use throughout the community on the following Wednesday.

World Day of Prayer
Friday, 12 Noon, March 5

Celebrated around the world in 169 countries and an unknown number of languages, dialects and accents, World Day of Prayer has become a united cry of faith from the hearts and lips of Protestant, Episcopal, Orthodox and Roman Catholic women. In Manchester we will join in prayer at St. Mary's Episcopal Church first for lunch and then sharing with our sisters around the world a common worship service. Before the final prayer for peace for all people, there is a prayer we wish to share with you:

"We thank you, Lord, for the many people who are striving to help their neighbors and are working in many ways for justice and liberation." To that prayer, thinking of the many of you we see and hear from who so quietly continue day after day to reach out to help your neighbor, we say Amen!

Guatemalan Relief
A word of gratitude to those who have sent checks through the Council on World Hunger to help feed victims of the Guatemalan earthquake. Many of our area churches have also had, or are having, special collections for Guatemala within their congregations. A mailgram to the Conference from Bishop Swanson, world director of Catholic Relief Services, several days after the earthquake informed us that in addition to immediate emergency materials, 10,000 blankets, 40 community first aid kits, 120,000 square feet of shelter material, and 1 ton of children's clothing were air-shipped on Feb. 4 and another $300,000 worth of clothing left New York by boat on Feb. 6. An additional $10,000 was allocated for on-the-spot purchases of supplies.

These figures indicate only the immediate efforts made to save lives and assuage suffering during the first dreadful days as casualties were estimated and reports from outlying areas began to come in.

Response to such disasters fall into three stages:

- 1) immediate relief of blankets already on hand
- 2) rehabilitation services which include emergency supplies to rebuild water resources and supply seeds and tools.
- 3) long-term relief of the need of these Central American brothers and sisters for food, clothing, medicines, and shelter will continue. The Council on World Hunger will continue to channel your money through to agencies working in the area. The first $2,000 was sent through CROP to provide emergency food supplies to earthquake victims. Checks presently being received will continue to be used to provide emergency food and stocks for food-for-work projects as rehabilitation begins.

Later on these checks marked for Guatemalan relief will be sent to World Hunger-MACC, marked for Guatemalan relief and mailed to MACC, P.O. Box 773. All contributions to MACC services are tax deductible.

Hymn-along
Sunday, March 7, from 2-5 p.m. we ask you to join us in an old-fashioned hymn sing. We will meet at Congregational Lutheran Church for a moment's prayer and directions and then go in groups to area convalescent homes. A flu date will be published if the homes are still in seige.

Opinion

Project Concern comes of age

There is hope for us all. We do mature and improve with age and experience.

Recent proof is the acceptance of the Project Concern program about to complete its 10th year.

Project Concern began in the fall of 1966 as an experiment. About 265 mostly black and Puerto Rican children were bused from Hartford to five suburban towns: Manchester, South Windsor, Farmington, West Hartford and Simsbury.

The boards of education in all five towns faced great opposition in approving Project Concern then. The reasons given by opponents were answered rationally, all but one. Board members could not answer questions of prejudice.

Most voted yes in the face of the prejudice.

After the two years, a set of studies on Project Concern revealed: The IQ of bused younger children rose as much as 10 per cent; even the older bused children showed greater academic growth than their counterparts in Hartford; the suburban white children generally liked the Project Concern children; the suburban children did better than in their own previous classes.

The theory tested by the experiment was: Disadvantaged children in a segregated school fall farther and farther behind in academic achievement.

The progress of the Project Concern children in non-segregated schools compared to the lack of progress of their counterparts in Hartford appeared to bear out the theory.

If the theory was correct, Project Concern should have been continued and enlarged to stop the academic failings of segregated children. It was enlarged.

Project Concern became a large-scale program run by the Hartford Board of Education. It involved 14 suburban towns adding East Hartford and Glastonbury on this side of the river. Hundreds of city children started and are finishing their elementary school years in the program. Some of the towns continued the children in higher grades. Private and parochial schools also accepted Project Concern children.

This year there are 950 children enrolled in the suburban public school part of the program.

Due to the children's progress, Hartford's board expanded the program from its present 33 students, to consider present students continuing into the higher grades, and to drop tuition charges from $700 to $600 per child per year.

We applaud the Manchester board. Its vote will:

- Continue giving quality education to city minorities in an integrated environment;
- Insure Manchester's white children will know face-to-face minority children and grow up less insulated;
- Add thousands of dollars to the town's education budget with minimal extra expense (no new classes are to be set up, only vacancies filled);
- Give Hartford state funds more for the program;
- Help the suburbs thank the city which supplies many of our jobs and services; and
- Prove an example of a workable integration program to the rest of America.

Though Project Concern, Manchester and other area towns may approach a more sane society. We may avoid the violence and hatred we see near us in Boston.

Project Concern is hope. It is hope for hundreds of city children, hope for an America without fears and prejudices, hope for us all.

Today's thought

A few weeks ago at the Prayer Group at Emanuel Lutheran we were discussing joy — Christian joy. We felt we should show our happy hearts by sharing with others the following: Our blessings far outweigh our problems; concentrate on the positive things rather than the negative ones; give thanks to God for what is good, instead of grumbling about the bad; and to "let go and let God."

Dear God, Please keep us humble. Remind us to share each day our joy with others. Amen.

Bay Staters are Nixon-haters forever

WASHINGTON — President Ford narrowly defeated Ronald Reagan and Richard Nixon in the Hampshire. Perhaps he'll do better tomorrow in Massachusetts because Reagan hasn't campaigned there, but he still is running against the ingrate Nixon's backstabbing hustle job in Communist China.

Massachusetts, the only state to go for George McGovern in 1972, already was full of people who were angered by Ford's pardon of the apparently unregenerate Nixon. They are Nixon-haters forever. Republicans who are not inclined to cast a ballot for anybody who did Nixon a favor.

Reagan said his narrow loss in New Hampshire was a victory. That's as may be, although the Californian rates points for doing that well against an incumbent. However, most incumbent presidential candidates don't have an albatross named Richard Nixon around their neck.

Of course Nixon hurt Ford in New Hampshire. Every poll said the state's voters were distrustful of the government in Washington.

But that distrust was born of Nixon's Watergate, not of Ford's frequently unimpressive performance since he moved into the White House.

Besides, take it from a transplanted New Englander, the stolid, slow-talking Ford was more in the New Hampshire image than the relatively flamboyant Reagan. Had Nixon moved out of character, and postponed his party with his opportunistic pals in Peking, Ford's win would have been much bigger. Nixon's trip reminded New Hampshire of his existence and of Ford's controversial pardon — a piece of amnesty granted by a decent and compassionate man designed to put Nixon and Watergate behind us.

Put another way, there had to be many Republican voters in New Hampshire who accepted Ford's decency and yet voted for Reagan because they could not forgive Ford for letting Nixon off the hook. My own admittedly unscientific telephone poll in eight of the state's communities found that only three Republican voters out of 21 endorsed the pardon.

So I reject as preposterous the statement by Hugh Gregg, Reagan's New Hampshire manager, that the Nixon trip had no effect on the primary results. Nixon didn't visit Red China, he went show biz. At this writing he had about eight hours of re-embroidered Alencon lace and Bishop satin-pearl sleeves with lace cuffs, with re-embroidered Alencon ruffle accenting the A-line skirt and chapel-length train. Her ivory Camelot beading was attached to an imported ankle length veil of silk illusion.

It is not the intention of the Parade Committee nor Fairbanks to request town employees working under union-negotiated contracts to work for nothing. However, it is important that all town departments who assist in the preparation and execution of this parade be treated on the same basis.

Fairbanks who serves as parade committee coordinator and myself, parade committee chairman, share the same concern; that 200th anniversary of independence in a fitting manner. Neither of us care to enter into a dispute between town officials and department heads. We merely ask for their most valued assistance in the planning, executing, and celebrating of Manchester's largest commemoration of our nation's freedom.

Sincerely,

Parade official clarifies position

To the editor:

I am writing this letter in hope of clarifying any misunderstanding which may have resulted from an article appearing in the Manchester Evening Herald on Friday, Feb. 20, concerning the cost of protection for the Bicentennial parade.

Ted Fairbanks is a valued member of the Parade Committee. He has assisted the committee in numerous areas which have needed experienced supervision.

In the Herald on Feb. 20 a remark was attributed to Fairbanks' stating, "various town departments should donate their services." Fairbanks has served the town of Manchester as a member of the Police Department, a member of the town Board of Directors, and is now the superintendent of Building and Grounds for the Board of Education from which he will retire this June. He is well aware of the operating procedures for municipal departments of the town of Manchester.

It is not the intention of the Parade Committee nor Fairbanks to request town employees working under union-negotiated contracts to work for nothing. However, it is important that all town departments who assist in the preparation and execution of this parade be treated on the same basis.

Fairbanks who serves as parade committee coordinator and myself, parade committee chairman, share the same concern; that 200th anniversary of independence in a fitting manner. Neither of us care to enter into a dispute between town officials and department heads. We merely ask for their most valued assistance in the planning, executing, and celebrating of Manchester's largest commemoration of our nation's freedom.

People thanked for assistance

To the editor:

Recently my family suffered a major tragedy in their lives but fortunately enough people cared to lend a helping hand. During these times, people like you have made my parents and sisters a little bit happier and grateful.

I understand literally hundreds of people showed up the following day of the five donating long hours to help get our home back together. Without your care and understanding, I think the tragedy would have been felt more deeply.

I only wish I could be home to thank all of you personally for being there. This is the only way I know how.

Truly,

Reflections

Hal Turkington
 Managing Editor

Our "Joe McCluskey Fund for the U. S. Olympics Team" hasn't gathered any moss, but neither has it gained impetus.

Its suggestion did, however, create interest, and from reports passed along we can expect contributions to continue.

We'd like to share some of the comments, and the first one has to come from Joe's coach at Manchester High School, Pete Wigorn. Pete was here Tuesday to deliver his donation, and you may have seen in Wednesday's sports section Pete giving me his contribution.

"I give to our Olympics fund every year, but this idea gives me even more desire to contribute in honor of Joe," Pete said.

The column a week ago brought back memories for Jack and Lill Hunter; they attended the 1972 Olympics at Munich.

I asked Lill if I could use parts of her letter that accompanied her check, and she said "yes." This is what she said:

"I cannot tell you what a feeling gave us to see the United States athletes march in that huge stadium! The German Band played "When the Saints Go Marching In." Both Jack and I had tears in our eyes - and believe me, we weren't the only ones who responded in that way.

"There we were, with Englishmen in back of us, some French and Japanese in front of us - and everyone clapping and waving together!"

"We were in Innsbruck as well, and stood in the center of the square when the flame-carrier arrived there on his way to Munich. We then had the thrill of seeing him enter Munich and then again arrive with such glory and pride into the stadium during opening day ceremonies. I truly think it was the biggest thrill of my life!"

The Hunters met many Olympic officials because they stayed at the same hotel. And on one of many plane rides they became acquainted with Sammy Lee, the U.S. gold medal rider in the 1948 and 1952 Olympics.

***

Dad and Mom were with us on the 1973 Munich visit, and we talked about the trip one night last week

Graves-McComb

Mr. and Mrs. David F. Graves

Davyl Graves-McComb of Suffield and David Frost Graves of West Suffield, were married Jan. 10 at The First Church of Christ, Congregational in Suffield.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester D. McComb of Suffield. Mr. Graves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell T. Graves of West Suffield.

Dr. James Spangenberg, chairman of the Home Economics Department at Keene (N.H.) State College, officiated.

The bride and groom were given in marriage by their parents. The bride wore a Victorian ivory satin-pearl gown designed with high collar with ruffled lace trim, bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace and Bishop satin-pearl sleeves with lace cuffs, with re-embroidered Alencon ruffle accenting the A-line skirt and chapel-length train. Her ivory Camelot beading was attached to an imported ankle length veil of silk illusion.

Volunteers are key to Penny Saver's success

By BETTE RYDER

Family/Travel Editor

Volunteers are the backbone of any organization and the Penny Saver's shop opened for business on Oct. 25, 1972.

The thrift shop, which is one of the three fund-raising ventures of the Manchester Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, clocked 47 volunteers giving 4,688 hours of service in a single year.

In addition, $22,000 was given to the hospital in 1975 from the Penny Saver alone.

The other two MHA fund-raisers are the baby photos taken at the hospital and the gift shop located in the hospital foyer.

The shop became a reality in October 1978 and opened its doors at 474 Main St. on Nov. 4, 1978.

When the shop opened those quarters, it was moved into the basement of the church two doors away. Still later, a new location at 815 Main St. was leased in May 1983.

Through the ensuing years, customers increased, volunteers increased and proceeds to benefit the hospital continued to rise.

On Oct. 16, 1971, the building in which the shop was housed was severely damaged by fire. Although the fire did not penetrate the shop itself, flooding caused a great deal of damage to merchandise stored in the cellar.

A temporary location was found at 57 E. Center St. and once again, the shop opened for business on Oct. 25, 1972.

Still growing, the Penny Saver moved to larger quarters and is now comfortably located on Purnell Pl.

Many volunteers donate hours sorting, pricing, selling and keeping inventory of the various items offered for sale.

The large facility is separated into a storage area for out-of-season clothing, a sorting section, and a sales room where articles are displayed.

Besides clothing of all sizes and shapes, for young and old alike, there are small appliances, jewelry, drapes, blankets, small pieces of furniture, etc.

Mrs. Robin Smith, president of the auxiliary, said items not sold or reclaimed by the donors are given to the Salvation Army and other area groups seeking items for the needy. Raquel Flakoff serves as chairman of the Penny Saver and Evelyn Dugh is its manager.

Those wishing to leave items may do so during business hours, Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Thursday till 9 p.m.

WIN A FREE 1976 AUTO

Just Follow These Contest Rules...

- Free car coupons will be included in various ads appearing in The Herald through March 31, 1976.
- Persons entering this contest will write name, address and city in space provided on the coupon or one reasonable facsimile of the coupon. (Not a reproduction by duplicating device)
- The coupon must be brought to the store whose name it carries and must be placed in that store's receptacle provided therein on, or before store closing April 2, 1976.
- It is not necessary to buy a copy of The Manchester Herald; you can use an ordinary piece of white paper and submit one reasonable facsimile of the coupon for the contest. Only one per store is permitted.
- All entrants submitting coupons must be 18 years of age or over.
- No purchase is required to enter this contest. Winner need not be present to win.
- The winner of the car may not transfer their ownership nor redeem it for cash but may purchase another car from the same dealer that provides the winning car, using the winning car as a down payment. No Manchester Herald employees, Chamber of Commerce manager, secretary and Board of Directors or their immediate family are eligible.
- You may enter as many times as you wish and should enter every week and at every cooperating store as new drawings are held each week and weekly winners coupons are placed in master cylinder for final drawing.
- Winner of the master cylinder drawing will spin the "wheel" listing the cars available. Where the wheel stops determines the winning car.
- The auto dealer of the winning car has the right to a reasonable ordering and delivery time if the car is not in available stock. The winner must pay any tax and license fees.

Tourney tests Tuesday for Eagles and Indians

UConn objective realized

"Our objective every season is to get into the tournament," Deo Rowe said minutes after his University of Connecticut basketball team whipped Rhode Island, 76-66, at Storrs before a sellout crowd of 4,460.

Rowe expressed his objective via the win although it wasn't official until last night that UConn would be the fourth team in the New England Regional starting Thursday night at the Springfield Civic Center.

UConn's opponent will be the No. 1 ranking team in New England, Massachusetts, the Yankee Conference champion, Providence and Holy Cross meet at 7.

The two teams met twice during the regular season, UConn winning at Amherst and UMass squaring the series by taking the contest at Storrs.

The rubber game Thursday night at 9 should be a dilly, especially if Rowe can get his Huskies up to the peak they displayed Saturday afternoon against the Rams.

"Defense was the big difference. Our defense had to play good to win. We shot poorly in the first half, only 35 per cent.

"I was scared to go to work today. I'll be none of you guys (media) ever feel that way," Rowe said as he accepted congratulations from backslappers among the alumni who somehow manage to get into post-game press conferences - especially after victories.

East Catholic's contribution to the UConn, Joe Whelton was at his very best in the final 20 minutes, and his outside shooting - five for seven - helped him to a game-high 18 points.

"That No. 11 (Whelton) just about killed us," Rhody Coach Jack Kraft said of the little guard's second half offensive show.

UConn held only a 33-31 edge at intermission before notching win No. 15 in 24 starts.

Tomorrow night the Huskies trek to Fairfield for the regular schedule finale.

When Tony Hanson unloaded a looping pass half the length of the court to a racing Al Weston with the score 69-62, and the latter drove in to score, it checked a Rhody comeback and propelled the UConn to victory.

The large lettered ECAC sign was unveiled with 53 seconds left and everyone knew by then the UConn were headed for post-season play.

Standing, thunderous ovations for seniors John Thomas and Weston with 17 seconds left were most fitting. Thomas was immense, as usual, grabbing 17 rebounds and Weston played his usual strong all around game. The UConn Pop Band never sounded better, or louder, after game playing time expired.

Activity in the 54th annual CIAC State Basketball Tournament picks up this week as all preliminaries are out of the way. Only 16 teams remain in each division and by Saturday that number will be cut to four.

Manchester High and East Catholic have first round R1's Tuesday night. Ellington High has its Class M first round engagement tonight while Bolton High, a 62-61 winner over Tolland Saturday in a playoff, returns to action Wednesday night.

Manchester, ranked second in the LL Division with a 20-2 mark, has its work cut out as the Indians face 18th-ranked and defending champ

Bridgeport Central at Sheehan High in Wallingford. Central, 12-8, advanced to the first round with an 80-75 win over Stamford while Manchester drew a bye and has been idle since Feb. 21.

East Catholic moved easily into the first round with a 94-51 rout of Wilcox Tech. The ninth-ranked Eagles, 18-4 for the season, have a stern test as they'll face eighth-ranked 18-3 Crosby High of Waterbury at New Britain High. Crosby, which had a 15-game winning streak in regular season play, walloped Waterford, 97-50, to move into the first round.

Ellington, 19-4 and sixth-ranked in the Class M Division, faces 22nd-ranked 11-10

Directions to Sheehan

Take I-91 to Exit 15, take Rt. 68 west and continue to Hope Hill Rd. Take left turn and school will be on the right.

Brookfield tonight at Plainville High in first round play. Brookfield upset 11th-ranked Avon, 74-71, in the playdown to gain the right to meet the NCCC champ Purple Knights.

Bolton, 14th seed in the S Division, improved its record to 13-8 with the win over Tolland. Kevin Kowalskyshyn and Paul Groves paced the Bulldogs with 27 and 17 points respectively. Bolton's first round foe Wednesday at Glastonbury High is not a stranger - fellow COC member Cromwell High which met twice during regular season play with Cromwell taking both, 63-61 and 64-48.

Directions to New Britain High

White Sox launch spring training

SARASOTA, Fla. (UPI) — Bill Vecek sends 25 non-roster players on the field today as his Chicago White Sox become the only major league baseball team to open spring training.

The colorful owner is opening camp in defiance of the rest of the major leagues, since other owners have kept their training camps closed until an agreement is reached with the Players Association.

Vecek, who took over the White Sox after the close of the 1975 baseball season, loves his maverick role.

"This is the most important year of a checkered career and I'm savoring it," he said Sunday as he lolled in the sun beside his Sarasota motel room. "And nobody, if I can help it, is going to spoil it."

"People know the baseball season is about to begin and we're going to get an excellent chance."

Vecek said he is sick of all the legal battles that have bogged down baseball.

"Everybody is fed up with all this activity involving courts of law and the bargaining table," he said. "It doesn't make sense. Sports is meant to be an escape."

Vecek says he feels the White Sox will benefit from opening spring training today. He says his players will be less vulnerable to injury and that his club will be living up to all of its contractual agreements with Saratoga.

He said the White Sox would be ready to play their first exhibition game on March 10 against Pittsburgh and that if the Pirates weren't ready, he might have an intrasquad game.

Vecek said the 25 players on the field today, including veterans Cleon Jones and Bob Oliver, were going to get an excellent chance.

He said the White Sox have fewer established positions than any other major league team with many posts "wide open... so we need more time to give everybody an opportunity to make the team."

Nicklaus and Snead lead two youngsters

LAUDERHILL, Fla. (UPI) — Puddle-jumping Jack Nicklaus and puzzled J.C. Snead battle each other and a group of young pursuers today for the $60,000 first prize in the third Tournament Players Championship.

Nicklaus and Snead both had their problems in the third round of the rain-delayed tournament Sunday, but both scrambled to four-under-par 68 and are deadlocked for the lead at 204.

Just one shot back at 206 were two of the tour's bright youngsters — Roger Maltbie and Mark Hayes. British Open champion Tom Watson was another two strokes behind the leaders at 207.

Don January, who had led after the second round Friday, shot a 73 Sunday and dropped to 206, where he is tied with Hale Irwin.

Nicklaus, seeking his second TPC title and first win of the year, landed in four puddles left on the course by the same steady rain that forced Saturday's postponement.

He got favorable rulings and saved par on the eighth and ninth, but on the 10th, an official made him drop the ball into a narrow strip of muddy sand where it buried and cost him a bogey five.

On the next hole, the par five 15th, Nicklaus found a puddle in the fairway, but his troubles were about to end.

He dropped out of the water and belted a three-wood hole high just off the left fringe of the green. He drew his sand wedge and chipped the ball into the hole to tie him for the lead with Snead.

Celtics square Warriors' set

BOSTON (UPI) — It was billed as the game between the NBA champions of 1975 and 1974, the nationally televised sneak preview of Seven Games in May.

Had Sunday's basketball game been a drama, critics would have said the suspense lasted two minutes and the rest dragged to a foregone conclusion: The Boston Celtics dispensed with the climax in the first 12 minutes, then stuck around to finish off the Golden State Warriors 119-101.

The Atlantic Division leading Celtics obviously played their running game while the Warriors did not.

The Celtics' running resulted in 20 fast break points while their pressing defense contained the Warriors to nine baskets in a 41-34 first period. It was the difference in the game.

Boston, after shooting 720 in the first quarter, hit at a 500 in the second quarter but increased its lead to 21 points. The second half was rather dull as Golden State came no closer than 16 and trailed by as much as 32.

Dave Cowens led six Boston scorers in double figures with 23 points. John Havlicek added 20, Scott 18, Jo Jo White 16, Don Nelson 13 and Paul Silas 11. Jamarl Wilkes paced the Warriors with 23, rookie Gus Williams had 19 and Rick Barry was one of three players with 14.

Washington defeated Houston 110-108, Philadelphia beat Seattle 130-115, Phoenix topped Detroit 109-98. Los Angeles downed Cleveland 108-97 and Portland beat Atlanta 102-98 in their NBA games.

Denver defeated Kentucky 112-111, the New York Nets beat Indiana 130-118 and St. Louis downed Virginia 113-109 in ABA action.

Bolton's 110, Rockville's 108, Elvin Hayes' jump shot with one second left, enabled Washington to beat Houston.

70ers 130, Ponies 115 - Philadelphia, which trailed by four points at the half, scored 73 points in the first half.

Ashe, Connors head Aetna field

HARTFORD (UPI) — Arthur Ashe and Jimmy Connors will provide America's best one-two punch in an effort to break Australia's tour dominance in Hartford's annual World Cup tennis tournament this week.

It was Connors' first appearance in the best-of-seven match tournament that has been won by Australia for five of the six years since the event began in 1971.

The four-day competition opens Thursday night with a mixed doubles match in the 10,000 seat Veterans Memorial Coliseum at the Hartford Civic Center.

Connors will play a five-man team captained by Dennis Ralston.

His first hookup since the 1972 Davis Cup competition, and Ralston is predicting an American victory.

Heading out the American team, which won its only tournament here in 1971, will be Dick Stockton and the doubles combination of Bob Lutz and Stan Smith.

The Aussie team, led by captain Fred Stolle, features World Cup veterans Rod Laver, John Newcombe, John Alexander, Tony Roche and newcomer Phil Dent.

Wrestlers up mark to 500

Against crossroad East Catholic at the Eagles' Nest.

Results: 10 — Ramos (W) pinned Wilson 5:57, 108 — Cordera (M) dec. Filaherty 5-0, 115 — Chandler (M) dec. Boisouts 17-12, 122 — Southwick (W) dec. Smith 14-1, 129 — Girolli (M) dec. Gamache 16-4, 135 — Miller (W) dec. Hoey 10-4, 141 — Kennedy (M) pinned Richards 5-36, 148 — Marshall (M) dec. Allison 7-0, 158 — Brezanski (M) tied Edwards 4-4, 170 — J. Jones (M) dec. Salvaggio 8-1, 188 — Hawkes (M) pinned Tabor 1-21, Unlimited — T. Jones (M) dec. Lyman 14-0.

Upping its record to the 500 level Saturday was the Manchester High wrestling team with a 36-16 win over Windham High in Williamstown.

Sophomores John Cordera, Corky Chandler, Doug Marshall and Jerry Kennedy gained wins for Manchester, the latter with a pin. Bob Hawkes improved his personal record to 10-1-1 with a pin. Al Girolli decided his foe to move his record to 9-3 and Tom Jones saw his record go to 7-4 with a superior decision.

Manchester, 77, closes out regular season action Thursday at 3:30

Conn makes tourney, plays UMass

CENTERVILLE, Mass. (UPI) — The field is filled for three of the four ECAC Division I basketball regional with the addition of Connecticut and Manhattan, but the final spot in the Southern tournament won't be decided until tonight at the earliest.

Connecticut, 12-9 after its "must" win over Rhode Island Saturday night, routes out the New England regional while Manhattan, 16-11, completes the Update New York tournament, according to announcements made Sunday by the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

In the Southern regional, either West Virginia, 12-12, or Duquesne, 12-12, will gain the final berth. With a win tonight over visiting New Hampshire, West Virginia will be named. If the Mountaineers lose, Duquesne would get the final berth by beating Xavier Tuesday. If both teams lose, West Virginia will be named.

Thirteen of the 16 teams to play in the four regional tournaments were selected last week.

Connecticut will meet top-seeded Massachusetts, 20-4, in the nightcap of the Thursday night's opening round at the New England tournament at the Springfield Civic Center, Providence, 12-8, faces Holy Cross, 20-4, in the first game.

Manhattan will meet host Syracuse, 18-9, in the second game Thursday night while St. Bonaventure, 18-9, will play Niagara, 16-9, in the opener of the Update New York regional.

Thursday's first round of the Metropolitan New York-New Jersey regional at Princeton, St. John's, 21-4, opposes St. Peter's, 18-9, while

Basketball

JUNIORS

One-point winners Friday night at the East Side Ice were the Saints over the Lakers, 50-49. Leo Diana and Joey Lovell paced the winners with 13 and 11 points and Bob Smith hooped 25 for the Lakers and Glenn Cobb eight.

MIDGETS

Fifteen points by Pat McCann and 10 by Brad Jones led Police to a 39-17 victory over Pro Remodeling at the East Side.

Pee Wee

Dean Page had 16 points and Tom Finegan Jr. to lead Nassiff Arms to a 34-29 win over WINF last night at the West Side Ice. Jim Kibbie had 11 points and Tony Chevrette and Will Brantl six apiece to pace the Radomans.

INTER-TOWN

Dropping a 57-43 duke last night was Manchester to Wetherfield. John Stanton and Rick Rymilar paced the winners with 14 and 13 points respectively. Pete Kiro had 13, John Wyse and Ken Hill nine apiece and Jamie Gallagher eight for Manchester.

Seven top fives bow

Gary Heckman tossed in 12 points and Dave Gentile 11 to pace Wapping Congregational to a 33-31 win over Emanuel Lutheran at Hiling. Ron Tweedie had 13 markers for the losers.

College basketball

Alabama came out on the short end against what can be considered worthy opponents. Only No. 5 ranked No. 2 Washington fell to Oregon State, 73-64. No. 13 Missouri was tripped by Oklahoma, 88-87. No. 14 St. John's was drenched by Providence, 67-53. No. 15 Louisville was shocked by Wichita State 79-74, and No. 18 North Carolina State tumbled to Wake Forest 98-56.

NOW accounts offered patrons by Heritage

It's called NOW account, NOW for negotiable order of withdrawal. A NOW draft looks like a check and works like a check except it pays the depositor five per cent interest, and NOW is now available at Heritage Savings and Loan Association, announced William H. Hale, president of the local thrift institution. The Heritage NOW account will be free of charge and will earn five per cent per annum on a day of deposit to day of withdrawal basis. This is the highest rate permitted under the new law, according to Hale.

NOW is a savings account which permits check-like transfers while paying interest, combining the benefits of both a savings and a checking account. The account holder is supplied with a book of NOW drafts which he uses like checks. In addition, NOW accounts provide a regular monthly statement which shows the amount of deposit, how much the account has earned, and the number and amount of checks written. A NOW account is insured the same as a regular savings account.

All previously opened personal checking accounts at Heritage Savings and Loan will automatically qualify as NOW accounts and will start earning five per cent interest effective March 1st.

Hale commented, "We are delighted to be able to offer this new service which is really a great improvement over the standard checking account. NOW accounts are the biggest new banking idea since the 1930s. We think it's the 'better way' and we feel our customers will be just as excited as we are at the prospect of earning interest on their NOW accounts."

Police report

Michael P. Sullivan, 21, of East Hartford was taken into custody early today after a disturbance at Tolland Pike and Windsor St. involving an out-of-gas automobile, Manchester Police said.

Sullivan is charged with improper parking, intoxication and breach of peace. He is to appear March 15 in Common Pleas Court, East Hartford.

Police said they checked the Tolland-Windsor intersection at about 12:40 a.m. today and found a car parked in the middle of the street, blocking traffic.

Police called a wrecker to tow the car, and the wrecker arrived at the same time as the car's owner, police said. The owner, carrying a can of gasoline, allegedly caused a disturbance when he learned police were towing his car, police said.

Other arrests made or summonses issued by Manchester Police included: Jane R. Fuller, 18, of 325 Highland St., charged Saturday afternoon with fourth-degree larceny (shoplifting) at King's Department Store, Manchester Shopping Parkade. Court date is March 15. A Memorial Hospital Saturday afternoon for injuries he suffered after a motorcycle accident on Birch Mt. Rd. Police said Fraser's motorcycle went out of control on loose stone at a curve in the road.

Bruce Hallenbeck, 23, of 46 Horton Rd., a motorcyclist hurt in a Saturday morning accident at Main and Birch Sts., was listed in fair condition today at Hartford Hospital.

Besides Hallenbeck's motorcycle, vehicles involved in the accident were driven by John E. Perferetto, 25, of Storrs, and Steven Mosher, 26, of 147 Adams St. Details weren't available.

Gordon J. Fraser, 18, of 203 Maple St., was treated at Manchester Memorial Hospital Saturday after-

Stereo equipment stolen

A burglary at Tech Stereo of 1149 Tolland Pike, netted thieves $2,100 worth of stereo equipment this morning, Manchester Police reported.

It was the second major theft of merchandise from the Burr Corner store in two weeks.

Police said they responded within two minutes to a 3:17 a.m. alarm at the store, but no one was near the store when officers arrived. Police found that a front door had been smashed, apparently by two cinder blocks found inside the business.

Missing after this morning's incident were three stereo receivers, one amplifier, and a portable television set.

In a similar incident Feb. 22, burglars got away with $2,150 worth of stereo equipment, police said.

Other burglaries and thefts reported over the weekend or today included: Theft of an antique, floor model radio from a storage area at a Hilliard St. apartment. The victim said the radio was worth about $500.

A break into a barn on Spencer St., discovered Saturday. It appeared nothing was missing.

Several breaks into automobiles. A Citizen Band radio worth $120 was taken from a car at the Parkade Saturday, and a radio-tape player worth $100 was taken from a car on Laurel St. Saturday.

A break into a Campfield St. house. It wasn't immediately known if anything was taken.

Vandalism reported to Manchester Police over the weekend included breaking windows at Benet Junior High School, Hing Junior High School, Manchester High School, and House & Hale Department Store, 945 Main St.

Town Engineer Walter Senkow said today that the streets will not be closed off, however, except for brief periods when cuts will be made across the street.

The drain does not run down the center of the road.

At Broad St., where the project starts, traffic was being directed through the excavation site today.

Town starts to install storm drain

Work has begun on a storm drain in Little and Durant Sts. and some disruption of traffic in the area can be expected, Town Engineer Walter Senkow said today.

Senkow said the streets will not be closed off, however, except for brief periods when cuts will be made across the street.

The drain does not run down the center of the road.

At Broad St., where the project starts, traffic was being directed through the excavation site today.

The Board of Tax Review consists of Roger McDermott, chairman; Charles McKenzie and Harry Deegan.

Tax board in session

The Manchester Board of Tax Review will be in session tonight to meet with taxpayers requesting adjustments in their assessments.

The session will be from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Municipal Building.

Similar 7 to 9 p.m. sessions will be held Wednesday of this week and March 8 and 10 of next week.

In addition, a 9 to 11 a.m. session will be held Saturday.

No appointments are needed and those wishing to file complaints may appear on any of the scheduled dates.

Those unable to appear on any of the announced dates may appear this Friday, from 7 to 9 p.m., by appointment.

DEAR READERS: Last week I published the results of my reader survey on what men first noticed about women. (Boys were out in front by a wide margin.) Here are the results of what women notice first about men:

A shopping 58 per cent of the women who responded said, "His physique!" But nearly every female who wrote that it is the first thing she notices about a man also wrote that it was certainly not the most important.

One Beverly Hills reader who described herself as a "22-year-old liberated working woman" wrote: "I polled the opinions of the women with whom I work and came up with the consensus that it's wise to avoid the body beautiful-type man because men with great bodies and bulging muscles are usually conceited, dull or bisexual."

On men's physiques: More than 50 per cent of the women wrote that they prefer to have their men at least as tall as they are. A 6-foot Syracuse woman, signed "Amorous Amazon," wrote: "Give me a little guy. They overcompensate in ways that more than make up for their size!"

An Indianapolis woman wrote: "I notice how a man is built first. The thin ones are usually penny-pinchers. Fat men are more generous, and better dancers, and they don't object to a gal who's a little on the heavy side herself."

A Las Vegas, Nev., woman wrote: "Now that men are wearing their clothing more form-fitting, they can't hide a beer belly or a flabby tummy as they used to." (From South Dakota: "I'm big, and I like the convenience of being able to wear my guy's clothes.")

Second to a man's physique (and a close second at that) was "grooming," with emphasis on the hair. Oddly enough, the women said they care less about whether or not a man has hair than what he does with what he has.

More San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego women wrote that they are turned on by men with FACIAL HAIR. "If it's neat and well cared for," from Seattle: "I like my men bald - and the baldier the better!" There were many number of women who stated that they see nothing wrong with men who "touch up" their hair and wear hair pieces if it looks "natural."

The 23 per cent of the women who rated grooming No. 1 got right down to the nitty gritty: Mid-western woman noticed fingernails, taste in clothes and general cleanliness. From every state came the comment that the men who "look" well-groomed have to "smell" clean, too! (From Tulsa, "Smell me from the man who did my hair. I'd rather have the honest odor of perspiration.")

Immediately following physique, grooming and taste in odor of female readers' preference "the eyes." (From Jane state in the U.S.A., "and the Canada and abroad (including Belfast, Ireland and Rome, Italy, as well as Rio De Janeiro) came mail saying, "We eyes did everything," or "The eyes are the windows of the soul!"

More New York, "Our woman's club took a vote, and 20 out of 24 voted that a man's eyes are the first thing we notice about a man. You can tell more about a man's character from his eyes than from anything else. His mouth can lie, but his eyes can't."

spade, but will put in considerable study about the second one. If he wins it and the club finesse is on he runs off twelve tricks. If the club finesse loses and spades were 5-2 he still makes five odd. If he were 4-4 he makes the same three he would score if he had ducked the second spade. But if West had led from a five-card suit, he will have ducked this suit right out the window.

Oswald: "Most match-point players would grab that second spade. They would see that their three trump was a very normal contract and would go after the overtricks. This time they would be rewarded irrespective of where the king of clubs happened to be because East held only two spades."

Your checking may be free. But does it also pay 5% interest?

First Federal Savings' new free NOW Account does!

Someday all banks will catch up with First Federal Savings. But right now, you get more than a free checking account when you open a Free NOW Savings Account with us.

Our Free NOW Savings Account	Interest Paid
	5%
Other Free Checking Accounts	0%

You also get 5% interest on your money! Remember free checking accounts pay nothing. Zero.

The word NOW means "Negotiable Order of Withdrawal." For all practical purposes, it looks like a checking account. Works like a checking account. Might as well be a checking account. Except—it also pays interest! A full 5% on the money in your NOW Savings account. And that could add up to a neat sum every year. Money you wouldn't receive from any free checking account.

With First Federal Savings' NOW Account there's no charge per draft (we can't call them checks). No limit on the number you can write. There is no charge for pre-numbered drafts printed with your name. You can also choose, at a slight cost, from a large selection of styles and colors, pre-numbered and fully personalized with your name and address.

You'll also receive each month, along with your cancelled drafts, a free, simplified NOW statement listing all drafts, deposits made and interest earned. By the way, be sure to add that 5% interest to your balance, when reconciling your figures at home. It helps you meet still other bills.

So come into any First Federal Savings office and open a NOW Savings account today. And start earning a sweet 5% on your money. It keeps money coming in even while you're paying out.

Enclosed is $ _____ to open a Free NOW Savings Account. ($100 minimum deposit)

"Great Beef"

natural aging for tenderness doesn't make it older...
just makes it better.

Don't you get a nice, warm feeling when you see your family enjoying a roast or steak you've put on the table. You can have that feeling with every roast and every steak, if it comes from Stop & Shop. This consistent quality is what makes our Great Beef great. It's a special kind of fresh beef... because no other where else... because no other stores have their own meat plant... or the same special way of handling beef. We seal big, butcher-sized chunks of beef in air-tight, vacuum packages. This keeps them fresh and juicy for days... while they get more tender and flavorful... while they're delivered to our stores where our butchers cut them into the steaks and roasts you buy. You see, natural aging doesn't make our Great Beef older. It just makes it better.

get extra savings on our Great Beef... buy our butcher-size cuts

Choose one of our specially priced butcher-size cuts of Great Beef. Then our meat man will cut it into steaks or roasts and have them wrapped for your freezer... at no extra charge.
