News for senior citizens

It there! Time is running out on rehearsals for the 1976 Senior Variety Show. In fact, it all happens on next Friday and Saturday evening, at the East Catholic High School auditorium.

Tomorrow will be a doubleheader rehearsal starting at 2:30 in the afternoon and lasting until 5:30, then again from 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock in the evening. Monday and Tuesday rehearsals will start at 6:30 p.m. at the East Catholic auditorium. What do you know, Wednesday we will have off. How about that? On Thursday it will be a full dress rehearsal, and then of course, on Friday and Saturday is when we put it all together.

Here is some interesting news for you folks who will be taking that New Orleans trip April 9. Jim Uccello would like all going to be here at the center at 6 a.m. as he hopes to leave by 6:30 a.m. sharp.

The happenings here at the center start with Thursday evening's highly successful St. Patrick's Dance held at the center. We had a nice crowd, and everyone enjoyed the dancing, and the food that was prepared and served by the following students, Peter Humphrey, Ralph Stott, and Peter Maynard, from Manchester Community College. We thank them very much for their hard work in helping to make the party the success it was.

The joint was jumping for a good three hours to the tunes of Lou Joubert's band, and by the end of the evening everybody was a bit tired, but happy.

Tomorrow at 2:30 at the Manchester High School auditorium, the Round Table Singers will present "South Pacific," and have invited all senior citizens as their guests. All you need to do is show your Gold Card at the door.

I just received some good news for all folks going on that Las Vegas trip. Paul just received a stack of super fan books which have been valued at $39.95 including a couple free breakfast coupons, and they are all free. So that should help you enjoy your stay in Las Vegas. You folks who have already signed up can pick up the coupon book anytime. Any others who are thinking about joining this trip better hurry and sign up, and they too can get a book of coupons.

By the way, please send your second, and possibly the third final payment to Paul as soon as you can.

Hi gang, about the Variety Show. If you are planning on taking our big bus to get to East Catholic for the show, then you must call our office ahead of time, so that Jim will get an idea on just the route he will have to take. So call our office, 643-3310, and tell us the night you're planning to go by our bus.

Also at this time, I can't help but make an exception, and give a little extra praise to some of our members who lately have been working overtime on behalf of the show. First the ladies, Tony Pousch, Ann Rohan, Theresa Negro, and Anna Demko, who are really doing a big job in making up the many costumes which you'll be seeing in the show. Also to Joseph DuPont, Russell Nettleton, and Howard Miller who are handling the lighting system and sound system and will be doing other stage work. Their efforts are what will make this a super show.

Center activities

Back to our action here at the center, and on Tuesday, instead of working on ceramics, the class went to town on making more things for the show. Meanwhile our Senior Bowling League was busy at the Parkade Lanes with the following results:

In the Class A group, Myron Ames took the high triple with a 320, and the high single was won by Richard Colbert, 224. In the Class B group, Clifford Hammond won the high triple with a 421, and Tommy O'Neill won the high single with a 189.

In the Women's Class A group, Mary Chaves won both the high triple with a 146, and the high single with a 159. In the Class B group, Betty Miller won both the high triple with a 342, and the high single with a 122.

Then came Wednesday, and in the morning it was pinocle games with 44 players, and the winners were: John Gally, 631; Cecile Benson, 603; Edward Shenzie, 492; Robina Carroll, 600; Sue Kerr, 578; Emma Russell, 561; Grace Windsor, 553; Sam Schors, 549; Grace Frost and Mary Nackowski, 552; Gladys Seelert, and Bess Moonan, 549.

In the afternoon it was bridge upstairs in the main hall of three tables, and the lucky winners are: Ivy Siddell, 3,450; Josephine Schuetz, 3,130; and Marge McLain, 3,050.

Meanwhile, downstairs the arts and crafts class was busy making paper roses, and other needed things for the show.

Nationality Night

Here's a reminder to put in your date book. Wednesday, April 7th, we will hold our first of the season Nationality Night. This meal is prepared and served by the students from Manchester Community College. This meal will be Colonial Night consisting of baked ham, raisin sauce, sweet potatoes, salads, dessert and a beverage.

If you haven't attended one of our Nationality Nights, you sure are missing something. These students put on a super meal, and decorate the place accordingly. The food is plentiful and delicious.

The meal, by the way, is limited to the first 100 members, and tickets are now available at the office. The action starts at 6:30 in the evening, and after the meal we move upstairs, where we will be treated to some wonderful entertainment by none other than our super friends, the Manchester High School Round Table Singers. We will not reserve any tickets for this event over the phone.

Next Thursday, because we will be involved with the dress rehearsal for our Variety Show, we will not have a meeting in the afternoon. We will serve a hot meal however, and members may play cards or visit.

Dance lessons end

This past Thursday we held our final social dance lessons of the season. At this time we want to express our sincere thanks to Lee and Beverly Burton for doing such a terrific job in teaching our group the various dances, especially the "hustle." We really appreciate their

Manchester week in review

Town focuses on budget

The town's attention focused on the budget this week. Town Manager Robert Weiss released his recommendation for spending in the fiscal year which begins July 1. His budget calls for an increase of 5.96 in the mill-rate which would bring it to 56.63 mills.

His recommendation also calls for an increase of 0.65 mills in the rate for the Town Fire District and a 30 per cent increase in water rates which would bring an automatic increase in the sewer rates.

Mayor Matthew Moriarty Jr. said he was unhappy about the budget request and indicated the Board of Directors would not accept it without careful scrutiny.

A public hearing will be held April 5. The directors will work on the budget and must use up their decision by May 7.

The tax will be levied on a total taxable assessment list of $209,869,727. The Board of Tax Review arrived at that figure this week after making corrections and adjustments which totaled a $426,937 reduction.

Education

Manchester educators defended their 1976-1977 spending plan against cuts by Town Manager Robert Weiss and the Board of Directors this week, warning of possible closing of South School and other cutbacks.

School Supt. James Kennedy explained to directors that declining student enrollment hasn't allowed for significant savings because the decline has been gradual and is spread throughout town.

The Board of Education asked for a 1976-1977 budget of $14,150,063. Weiss recommended $13,850,063, and promised to cut that figure even more if his plan for distribution of state Instant Lottery money isn't approved by the town council. Directors have the final say.

In other education news this week.

State Rep. Ted Cummings of Manchester, a member of the General Assembly's Education Committee, reported that the committee had approved a bill to increase local Lottery grants to local school districts.

The bill, now before the Appropriations Committee, would mean an extra $58,000 to $60,000 for up the police department's youth services bureau. The commission said there wasn't enough money to fund all the requests for extra juvenile officers; new youth bureaus were given priority.

Police Chief Robert Lannan announced that Sgt. Eli Tambling, a Manchester policeman since 1957, will attend the spring session of the FBI National Academy. Tambling will be the seventh local officer to attend the FBI school.

Fire protection

The Eighth District received assurance this week from Town Manager Richard Weiss that the town is interested in cooperating with the district in fire protection, but the manager said he has suggested instead Weiss said he has invited Town Fire Chief John Hyatt to meet with District Fire Chief Granville Langued "to develop plans for cooperative activities wherever possible." The town and district are in a dispute over who will provide fire protection in the Buckland area.

The Connecticut Justice Commission, the agency responsible for awarding federal law enforcement grants, this week denied a $13,000 grant sought by Manchester to beef up the police department's youth services bureau. The commission said there wasn't enough money to fund all the requests for extra juvenile officers; new youth bureaus were given priority.

Town focuses on budget

The town's attention focused on the budget this week. Town Manager Robert Weiss released his recommendation for spending in the fiscal year which begins July 1. His budget calls for an increase of 5.96 in the mill-rate which would bring it to 56.63 mills.

His recommendation also calls for an increase of 0.65 mills in the rate for the Town Fire District and a 30 per cent increase in water rates which would bring an automatic increase in the sewer rates.

Mayor Matthew Moriarty Jr. said he was unhappy about the budget request and indicated the Board of Directors would not accept it without careful scrutiny.

A public hearing will be held April 5. The directors will work on the budget and must use up their decision by May 7.

The tax will be levied on a total taxable assessment list of $209,869,727. The Board of Tax Review arrived at that figure this week after making corrections and adjustments which totaled a $426,937 reduction.

Education

Manchester educators defended their 1976-1977 spending plan against cuts by Town Manager Robert Weiss and the Board of Directors this week, warning of possible closing of South School and other cutbacks.

School Supt. James Kennedy explained to directors that declining student enrollment hasn't allowed for significant savings because the decline has been gradual and is spread throughout town.

The Board of Education asked for a 1976-1977 budget of $14,150,063. Weiss recommended $13,850,063, and promised to cut that figure even more if his plan for distribution of state Instant Lottery money isn't approved by the town council. Directors have the final say.

In other education news this week.

State Rep. Ted Cummings of Manchester, a member of the General Assembly's Education Committee, reported that the committee had approved a bill to increase local Lottery grants to local school districts.

The bill, now before the Appropriations Committee, would mean an extra $58,000 to $60,000 for up the police department's youth services bureau. The commission said there wasn't enough money to fund all the requests for extra juvenile officers; new youth bureaus were given priority.

Opinion

Enduring legacy of consumer decade

The past 10 years might well be called the decade of the consumer, it was not of Ralph Nader.

It was in the spring of 1966 during the Senate's hearings on automobile safety that the modern consumerism movement may properly be said to have been born.

Americans were to witness the passage of a profusion of laws mandating not only a series of new safety and emission controls on automobiles but a general cleanup of our air and water.

Dedicated young law students flocked to Washington to enlist in "Nader's Raiders" and began haunting the halls of the regulatory agencies.

Certainly pollution was a growing problem that demanded national attention. Great progress has been made in this area, and not even industry, for all its complaining about the expense and the pettifoggings regulations, would want to go back to the old ways.

Not all of the consumer-related developments of the past 10 years can be credited to (or blamed on) Ralph Nader. President Johnson had been prodding Congress to do something about automobile safety long before the famous hearings, and environmentalism had early heroes in John Muir and Gifford Pinchot and others.

"This is no time for gilding riches but to secure what we have got. Every shadow of oppression and extortion ought to disappear, but instead, it is the greedy articles of merchandise multiplied four fold their original value. The farmers are extortionate where ever their situation furnishes them with opportunity. These are the people that I complain mostly of; they are wounding the cause, and they are wounding the cause, and they are wounding the cause."

But it is interesting to speculate about what the history of this decade would have been like if consumerism and everything that term has come to signify had not been given such an initial boost by GM's foolishness.

How much better off is the ordinary American because of the efforts of the consumer advocates and public interest spokesmen? Have the benefits been commensurate with all the sound and fury—as well as the costs?

We might, for one thing, still be driving Corvairs, a fine little car. A number of lawsuits alleging safety defects were brought against it but none stood up in court. It was the Arab-inspired gasoline shortage of 1973 and the resulting 55-m.p.h. highway speed limit, not heavier bumpers or seat belts or warning flashes, which drastically cut the toll of fatalities.

Certainly pollution was a growing problem that demanded national attention. Great progress has been made in this area, and not even industry, for all its complaining about the expense and the pettifoggings regulations, would want to go back to the old ways.

But there has also been a less felicitous aftereffect of this era in the form of widespread popular distrust of corporations and disenchanted with the capitalist system itself. Had ascetic and unsmiling Ralph Nader ever had anything good to say about American business, even once, perhaps the Czechoslovakian counterpart of the CIA would not have toyed with the idea of recruiting him, as was recently revealed.

All in all, however, it has been a worthwhile and fruitful decade, despite its excesses. The nation's goals in the area of pollution control are within grasp and corporate America evinces a continuing awareness of its social responsibilities. The legacy will endure.

There will probably never again be such an upsurge of "consumerism" in America. Yet while we have learned much about our limitations as a nation, we have learned much more about our abilities to achieve desired goals.

boyfist of Boston, who was thought to be hearing coffee, was "roughly handled" and "never so swelled since he was born." When he refused to hand over the keys to his shop to a crowd, an Irish woman "seized him by his neck" to get the keys. The mob then tipped over a cart "upon it" and "opened the warehouse, hoisted the coffee themselves and put it into the truck, and drove off."

As businessmen and profiteers drove prices up, they were undermining the already shaky value of both Continental and state currency. During the war the many issues of paper money quickly depreciated in value: with no backing in gold or silver, and only the promise of redemption from Congress and the states behind it, the paper currency was not held in high esteem.

When the people lost faith in the money of Congress, someone coined the expression "not worth a Continental." A bit of slang that became part of our American vocabulary. How to cope with this situation? Could this runaway inflation be controlled? Members of the first Continental Congress were apprehensive about the probability of rising prices when they adopted the first nonimportation plans and tried to establish schedules that would restrain price increases.

OPERATION RICE BOWL MEALS

Those wishing to participate in Operation Rice Bowl to benefit World Hunger Relief need only contribute $3 to serve a family of six. A hunger meal is one-half of the suggested main dish with a glass of milk or hot beverage with sugar; a starvation meal is one-third cup of rice with a cup of hot or cold water.

Wednesday's prayer Lord, God be with the world, food and energy prices but each of us. But while we tighten our belts, others starve. This day we eat a hunger meal as an act of loving sacrifice for those who have so much less than we. Inspire us to offer them not only our charity but a just world in which we share equally in your blessings. Amen.

Suggested menu Quick stew by Annamay Potocki Dice enough carrots and celery for 2 tablespoons of parsley. Onion and potato optional. Simmer in slightly salted water all the above. Add small cans evaporated milk and one can pea soup. Simmer.

TOWN OF MANCHESTER, CONNECTICUT

March 26, 1976

TO: BOARD OF DIRECTORS
 FROM: R.B. WEISS, GENERAL MANAGER
 SUBJECT: Tentative Budget and Budget Increase
 Fiscal Year Beginning July 1, 1976

The General Fund Budget submitted to you reflects an over-all expenditure increase of 8.2% above the current year's level of expenditure. While this appears to be a relatively modest increase in view of the cumulative inflation in recent years, the impact on the tax rate is considerable requiring an increase of 5.8 mills to $6.63.

Unfortunately, revenue from sources other than property taxes appears substantially lower than in the current year. In recent years a major reliance has been placed upon Federal Revenue Sharing for operating costs. At this time the status of Revenue Sharing is uncertain beyond the first three quarters of the new fiscal year.

It should be understood that in developing budget recommendations for next year, with the exception of some modest increases in police services, this is at best a "hold the line" budget. Any budget can be cut and the Board may want to seriously consider reductions in services. A great deal of "risk taking" would be involved in this process but the following areas are suggested for your consideration:

DEFER PENSION CONTRIBUTIONS $400,000
 This action would merely postpone the inevitable cost for pension benefits but is an option open to the Board at this time.

NO SALARY INCREASES $200,000
 No Salary Increases Binding Arbitration Law it is unlikely that an arbitrator would deny increases. However, the effect of any increases could possibly be delayed to a future fiscal year by the Town due to delays intrinsic in the Compulsory Binding Arbitration Law procedures.

FREEZE ALL VACANCIES $100,000
 This would seriously impair our ability to maintain service levels expected by the public we serve based upon our current year's experience.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN POLICE SERVICES $52,000
 With the present crime patterns in Manchester, this could be a self-defeating move.

PROVIDE FOR ONCE PER WEEK RUBBISH COLLECTION $35,000
 Based on last year's reaction, strong negative public response could be anticipated.

GENERAL FUND

Categories	1975-76	1976-77	% Increase	% of Total
Board of Education	$13,062,581	$13,062,581	0%	45%
Fixed Costs (misc., debt, employe fringes)	2,235,737	2,702,482	21%	9%
town - other	6,272,445	6,790,206	8%	25%
Total	$21,570,813	$22,345,269	4%	100%

In addition, the Fire Department Special Fund will require a tax rate of 6.65 or an increase of .65 mills. As a result of increased costs, the water rates should be increased by 30% - the first increase since 1970. This compares with a quarterly cost of $15 for the typical Metropolitan District residential customer and $19 for the Hazardsville Water Company. Projected increases for water are $8 and $13 annually, respectively. This will mean a quarterly increase of $3.25 for the typical residential customer. At the present rate sewer cost would increase $4.02 for the typical residential customer for each quarter. The rate for the Special Taxing District will remain at the present 12 mills.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS - CURRENT
 The following capital improvements are recommended to be funded from Revenue Sharing funds. Separate capital improvement budget contains further detailed information.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

1. Manchester Recreation Center	$14,000
2. Highway Equipment	50,000
3. Town Hall Heating System Improvement	12,000
4. Sidewalk Construction	75,000
5. Sidewalk Repairs	25,000
6. Convert Library Basement to Hearing Room	25,000
7. Center Springs Park Pond Dredging	15,000
8. Public Works Radio System Improvement	5,500
Total	$222,500

If Revenue Sharing funds available exceed the above amount, it is recommended that the resurfacing of playground and parking areas at Bowers, Nathan Hale and Wadwell be added to the program as recommended by the Board of Education at a cost of $45,000.

ELIMINATE CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS AND ANTICIPATE THAT FEDERAL REVENUE SHARING WILL CONTINUE AT THE PRESENT LEVEL. $222,500
 This would be very speculative as to funds and would seriously affect several areas of proven need.

If you decided to choose all of these options, the amount of taxes to be raised would be reduced by $1,099,500 or approximately 3.3 mills.

REVENUE ANALYSIS
 The Grand List showed a healthy increase of $11,064,837. At the current tax rate this would produce some $560,000 in extra revenue. However, this is partially offset, as mentioned above, by the revocation of Public Law 74-334 under which certain personal property had been exempted and for which we received $199,000 in the current year in lieu of taxes from the State.

Property tax collections for the current year will probably reach 98.1% of estimates compared with an original projection of 98%. A major reason for this shortfall is the elderly tax freeze and circuit breaker tax relief bill - the impact of which had not been fully considered in last year's projections. The deficit total amounts to $129,000 which fortunately will be made up this year on other revenues. For next year's tax projections, we anticipate a collection rate of 98.1% which takes the above into consideration.

Estimates from Federal Revenue Sharing are somewhat speculative at this time. We are certain of three Revenue Sharing payments in the new fiscal year but we do not know what the actual payment will be due to annual formula adjustments which will be known late in April. For budget purposes we have anticipated the continuation of the present rate of quarterly payments - which you will recall are less than for the previous year. The fourth quarterly payment is set up for Capital Improvements. Also $67,000 of Revenue Sharing Funds are allotted in this budget to the Fire District which is the estimated portion of Revenue Sharing receipts attributable to the District activities under the Revenue Sharing formula. In summary, Revenue Sharing in the General Fund shows a decrease of $90,022.

The General Fund budget of approximately breaks down as follows:

Coventry
The general government portion of the budget as proposed by Town Manager Allen Sandberg is $1,264,280.

It is about a 25 per cent higher than last year's budget of $1,013,783.

The combined proposed budgets of the Board of Education and Sandberg come to $1,544,893. This is about 16 per cent higher than last year's combined budget of $1,356,663.

This 16 per cent would mean a 13-mill increase.

Major increases proposed in the general government budget are:
 • An increase of $3,500 for the Parks and Recreation Commission.
 • About $9,500 increase in town manager's office.
 • About $10,000 increase in Town Hall maintenance.
 • A $9,000 increase in the assessors budget.
 • A $35,000 increase in the police budget.

• A combined increase of about $65,000 for roads, garage maintenance and the landfill.
 Major school increases are:
 • $5,000 in the Social Security account.
 • $10,000 in insurance.
 • $20,500 in the retirement account.
 • $15,000 in the reserve fund.
 The Town Council is meeting with boards and commissioners to review the budgets. It will hold public hearings on them in April.

Andover to get lottery funds

The Andover Board of Education was advised by State Rep. Al Ahearn it would receive $6,838 from the instant lottery.

Ahearn said the funds come under the control of the school board and must be spent for education.

He said the purpose of the funds "is to raise the educational standard in poorer towns in the state to provide better education for their children."

The school board will include the funds in its 1978-1979 budget to purchase textbooks.

Other board business included:
 • Adopting the school calendar for the 1978-1979 year. School will begin Sept. 8. If no snow days are taken, school will end June 15. All half-days will be shown on the calendar.
 • There were 77 books donated to the school library. They were purchased with money donated to the Linda Harriman fund. It is in memory of an Andover student who died in 1968.
 • Principal David Kravet will soon be in an exchange program with the principal of the Hebron Elementary School.

Combined team

There is a distinct possibility that Bill and Bennett Junior Highs will field a combined football team in the fall.

The Board of Education has asked for a budget increase of 8.9 per cent. School Superintendent Robert Weiss recommends 8.9 per cent, and it appears the Board of Directors will cut that figure even more.

School Supt. James Kennedy has already figured out how to cut $175,000 from his budget plan. If the cut is more than $175,000, as expected, extracurricular activities is among several accounts which might be hit.

The realm includes shortening the schedules for athletic teams as well as having only one football team at the junior high level.

While the circumstances might not be the greatest in the world, the end product might be an improvement. With one gridiron team, there should be harmony and these youngsters in actuality won't lose out on two teams like each other, especially when they're opponents on the playing field. Some, sometimes most, of the sophomore year is needed to get them to like each other — and to play together.

Along these lines, Manchester High basketball coach at last Thursday's hoop banquet described in part what occurred with the Jayvees. By the end of the campaign they had learned to play together as a unit but Pearson related how skirmishes broke out in the early going between teammates.

It is a fourth-grade group that they bumped heads and were pulling in opposite directions.

Bits and pieces

Eldon Miller, who guided Western Michigan to a mid-American Conference basketball championship this year, has been appointed coach at Ohio State. He will try to lead the Buckeyes back to national prominence, they once possessed. The annual meeting of the Nepsic Tennis Club was held recently and officers and directors were elected. Officers are William Bayer — president; Eric Anderson — secretary; William Kraigt — treasurer. Directors are Richard Murphy — facilities; James Rice — finance; William Dow — membership; Patricia Dow — publicity; tournaments — Marti Parham and Raymond Easterbrook.

Last Sunday at Staples High in Westport, the statewide United States Gymnastics Federation intermediate and advanced level gymnastic championships were held. In the 15-18 intermediate age group, Lory Coomb of Manchester placed third in the balance beam, floor exercise and vaulting, second in uneven bars and third all-around. Kathy Beach of Manchester in the age 19-22 intermediates took fifth place. In the same bracket, Mary Mayhew of Hebron placed second all-around at the end of the optional and was named to the Connecticut All-Star team which will compete in the Eastern Seaboard State Regional in New Jersey next Saturday.

Ron Boucher of Manchester won the eighth annual Connecticut State Regional Karate championship staged last Saturday in Ellfield. Boucher en route to the lightweight division crown defeated another Manchester resident, Joe Caccopio. He later went on to win the grand championship match, defeating the heavyweight division champ. Boucher also placed second in weapons Kata (form) competition. And with two guards like that running the balance beam, floor exercise and vaulting, second in uneven bars and third all-around. Kathy Beach of Manchester in the age 19-22 intermediates took fifth place. In the same bracket, Mary Mayhew of Hebron placed second all-around at the end of the optional and was named to the Connecticut All-Star team which will compete in the Eastern Seaboard State Regional in New Jersey next Saturday.

Pros and cons

One never likes to see a program reduced. The bad part is that the number of youngsters involved will be drastically reduced and the number who can (and will) play will assuredly go down. The positive aspect, however, is these youngsters will learn to play together at the lower level. They will become teammates as a unit, not just a happening which should result in better conditions at the high school level.

To many it will be a terrible thing if these cutbacks do happen and the MONTREAL (UPI) — The delivery of two shipments of tiles to be used in the construction of swimming pools for the Summer Olympics were delayed for four days by ice jams in the St. Lawrence Seaway, but it should not affect completion of the pools, an official said.

TULSA (UPI) — Five more players have been named by Oral Roberts University to play in the 14th annual All-Star College Basketball Game at the school April 3.

Named were Rick Bullock of Texas Tech, Al Fleming of Arizona, Harold Johnson of ORU, Lars Hansen of Washington and Bayard Forrest of Grand Canyon College.

Whalers regain East leadership

HARTFORD, (UPI) — The New England Whalers decided to change the format in Friday night's World Hockey Association encounter with the Calgary Cowboys.

The Whalers lost to the Cowboys 7-6 in a shootout Wednesday night but in the rematch Friday the Hartford-based team dictated the tempo enroute to a conservative 4-1 victory.

The win moved the Whalers into sole possession of first place in the defended East Division with 71 points. Indianapolis advanced from fourth to second place at 70 points with a 3-2 win over Cleveland Friday. And Houston topped Cincinnati 5-1 to drop the Stingers into a third place tie with the Crusaders at 69 points each.

"We didn't want to get into a shooting match with Calgary like we did the other night. We wanted to concentrate on defense and I think it was the best team defensive effort since I have been coach," said New England Coach Harry Neale.

"We played intelligently and didn't give away a lot of scoring opportunities. When we did make a mistake, Landon (Bruce) bailed us out," Neale said.

NCAA tourney opener

GREEN LEAFS (UPI) — As hard as the hitters battered the ball in spring exhibitions Friday, they couldn't come near matching the thunderous noise made by out-of-shape executives in meeting halls.

The most far-reaching explosion occurred at Tampa, Fla., where the American League expanded to 14 teams for 1977 by adding Toronto. Previously, the AL also had announced a return to Seattle for next year.

Meanwhile, in New Orleans, the Louisiana Superdome Commission voted unanimously to submit a baseball lease for an 81-day season in the dome stadium. The move came just at a time when the National League may feel pressed to

Majors expanding again, hitters ahead of hurlers

GREEN LEAFS (UPI) — It was just like old times in the National Basketball Association's Midwest Division.

The Detroit Pistons and Chicago Bulls, two of the league's most bitter rivals, have had a little more hard times this season, engaged in a brewing defensive slugfest Friday night with the Pistons coming out on top, 85-77.

The victory was the fourth straight for Detroit and enabled the Pistons to move a full game ahead of the Kansas City Kings in their battle for the final playoff spot in the Midwest sector.

John Mengelt, a bruising guard, who should be playing fullback in pro football, did the most damage for the Pistons. He scored 12 points to propel Detroit from a 23-16 second quarter deficit into a 48-38 halftime lead.

"I enjoy coming off the bench when we're a little behind," said Mengelt. "I like the role of being the sixth man in that situation."

But Mengelt cooled off and finished with just 17 points, which was still good enough to co-lead the Pistons along with Bob Lanier. Mengelt possibly lost a little of his incentive when fiery Chicago guard Norm Van Lier was thrown out of the game with a 4:40 remaining in the ball because of an altercation with Detroit forward Al Eberhard.

Detroit built up a 67-59 lead after three quarters and saw it dwindle to three points when Mickey Johnson, who led Chicago with 18, converted two free throws with 4:36 to play in the game, making it score 76-75.

The Pistons held Chicago to only one basket after that as Lanier scored five 15-pointers in the final four minutes to seal the victory.

In other games, Boston beat Cleveland, 95-93. New Orleans won last race from the National League to the Canadian city by availing an expansion franchise to a group from Labatt's Brewery. "We are obviously very pleased," said Don McDougall, president of Labatt's. "We will now be turning the operation over to professional baseball people."

Unbeaten Indiana favorite over UCLA

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Andre McCarter articulated the unique aspect surrounding today's NCAA semifinal game between UCLA and Indiana.

"It's a good thing for college basketball that UCLA is kind of underdog," the former Philly high school legend said following Friday's practice in the Spectrum.

UCLA, the defending champion, meets the undefeated and top-ranked Hoosiers following a 2:15 p.m. EST semifinal game between Big Ten runnerup Michigan and Rutgers, also undefeated.

UCLA earned its underdog role the painful way, taking an 84-66 beating from Indiana in the season opener each school, and the memory of that Indiana game is still fresh in McCarter's mind.

"I don't think that game makes a damn bit of difference concerning this game," Knight said.

Asked about Indiana's role as favorite, Knight replied, "It doesn't make any difference. Underdog or favorite, it doesn't score any points for us."

All-Americans Scott May and Kent Benson of Washington State, who were named to the team because of their points and UCLA is hoping freshman center Dave Greenwood, who did not play the first game, will have some success in containing Benson.

UCLA's offense also relies primarily on two men, All-American Ernie Ladd and Washington State's John Johnson, who plays like an All-American when it counts.

Pistons and Bulls in old time brawl

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Rickey Green and Ed Jordan may stand still for the opening introductions in today's Michigan-Rutgers NCAA basketball semifinal game but they'll be lured by a sellout Spectrum crowd and a national television audience after.

Green leads the fast break that has carried the ninth-ranked Wolverines (24-6) to the final four and Jordan is the team's star. He scored 22 points in a game for the unbeaten and third-rated Spartans (21-0).

Michigan's coach, Coach Tom Izzo, said he expects to meet the Indiana-UCLA winner in Monday night's finals — contain Green and lead the Knights' fast break.

"I've got to play my style of game against him (Green)," said Jordan, the outstanding player in last week's Eastern regional tournament. "On

Wolfe star in defeat

NEW YORK (UPI) — It is rare for a National Hockey League goalie to receive plaudits from an opposing team that has just shelled him. But Washington rookie netminder Bernie Wolfe, who suffered a 4-1 defeat by the Buffalo Sabres Thursday, is an exception. He was just superb most of the time, simply unbeatable," said Sabre Coach Floyd Smith, whose team aimed 43 shots at the 5-8 Wolfe, while Washington responded with only 20 at the Buffalo cage. Wolfe stopped 29 of the shots, including the first 29 Buffalo attempts to score. In the final period, when the score tied 1-1, the Sabres finally broke through for three straight goals and Andy North were at 1-1. Wolfe, who had a shutout in his previous game, made a brilliant save to keep the score tied 1-1, the Sabres finally broke through for three straight goals and Andy North were at 1-1. Wolfe, who had a shutout in his previous game, made a brilliant save to keep the score tied 1-1, the Sabres finally broke through for three straight goals and Andy North were at 1-1.

There is just so much any goalie can do before he's going to give in," said Wolfe's Coach Tom McVie. "Bernie gave me one heck of an effort, more than I could have possibly hoped for. He's got to be one of the finest young goalkeepers around today."

Wade gains berth in tennis semis

BOSTON (UPI) — At this point in her young life, Natasha Chmyreva may be blessed with too much of a good thing — talent. The lanky, 17-year-old Soviet sensation matched stroke for stroke with fourth-seeded veteran Virginia Wade of Great Britain in the first of their quarter final match in the $75,000 Virginia Slims of Boston tennis tournament Friday night — and then fell apart. Wade, who coasted to a 7-5, 6-1, victory after breaking Chmyreva's serve in the final game of the first set with a burst of volleys, said experience made the difference. "I think Natasha got down because she lost that first set," she said. "She got lazy and lost her concentration. It's easy to do at her age when you've got as much talent as she does, especially with a serve like that. But you've got to learn to fight back."

Green in Heritage lead

HILTON HEAD, S.C. (UPI) — Hubert Green is close to exhaustion, but it doesn't show in his golf game. "I'm pretty tired right now, exhausted," said Green, who holds the lead in the Heritage Classic after having just won the Doral Open and Greater Jacksonville Open back-to-back. "Being in the lead is more tiring. It's a physical thing as well as mental."

Montgomery sets swimming record

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — Jim Montgomery tolerated his 200-yard freestyle record to be broken for about six hours. Montgomery, of the University of Indiana, set the NCAA record of 1:37.65 two weeks ago in a Big 10 meet. But he watched USC freshman Bruce Furniss top the mark Friday afternoon in a preliminary heat in the NCAA Swimming and Diving championships at Brown. In Friday night's finals, Montgomery was a little edgy. "I really committed a false start. Then the Indiana senior composed himself and regained the NCAA, meet and American record with a 1:36.91 time. Furniss finished second in 1:37.44 and Tim Shaw of Long Beach State, California, of the Thursday's 500-yard freestyle, was third in 3:49.10.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Every year the company I work for encourages its employees to donate blood...

Thank God, my father is well now. But more than that, God bless all of those who donate blood to help others.

DEAR M: Next year? Why wait a year? A healthy person can donate blood every 56 days.

DEAR ABBY: I have heard that there is a fortune to be made in massage parlor today, and that kind of work appeals to me.

I am 25, single and healthy. I live in Bangor, Me., which has a population of about 40,000, and would you believe there isn't a massage parlor in this town?

Before her retirement in 1969, she was employed as a detailer at Pratt and Whitney Division of United Technologies Corp., East Hartford, for 13 years. Survivors are two sons, Thomas E. Strange of Ashford and Michael D. Strange of Cheshire; her mother, Mrs. Tressa Loos Cunningham of Marlborough; a brother, George Denner of Marlborough; a sister, Mrs. Anne Waddell of Manchester; and six grandchildren. The Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St., is in charge of arrangements, which are incomplete.

Solons reject shiny medals for guardsmen

HARTFORD (UPI) — Shiny new medals won't be awarded to Connecticut National Guardsmen for service to the state in the nation's Bicentennial. A bill ordering the medals be minted at a cost of $40,000 was unanimously rejected Friday by the legislature's Public Employee and Military Affairs Committee.

Short career

HARTFORD (UPI) — Because of an error, U.S. Senator Robert C. Byrd's name will not appear on the Connecticut Democratic presidential ballot May 11. The West Virginia candidate inadvertently chose an independent voter rather than a required Democrat as his state coordinator, the Hartford Courant reported Friday.

Glastonbury child saved from drowning

GLASTONBURY (UPI) — A young girl found floating face down in a pond Friday was revived by a rescuer who said God helped him get the child breathing again. One-year-old Leigh Ann Petrowsky had wandered from her home and fell into a pond at nearby Glen Loehen Mall. Rufus Gartell, 20, an unemployed carpenter, saw her floating and pulled her from the water. "I carried her out and put her on the boardwalk. I started trying to breathe life into her. I breathed and I breathed, but she wasn't doing anything," said Gartell. "I am a Jehovah's Witness," he said. "Finally I looked up and said, 'Please Jehovah, will you help? Don't let her die. And that's when she began to wake up.'" Gartell said. The child was admitted to Hartford Hospital for observation and is reported in stable condition.

Rawlins renamed

Dr. Sedrick J. Rawlins of 66 Waranoke Rd. has been reappointed to the state Council of Corrections. His reappointment was announced Friday by Gov. Ella T. Grasso. Dr. Rawlins was a member of the state Board of Parole from 1959 to 1972. His first appointment to the Council of Corrections was in 1974. Later that year he was named to a national board of the American Medical Association, which was established to study improvement of health care services in correctional institutions throughout the country.

Choirs to exchange lofts

The adult choirs of Emanuel Lutheran Church and Community Baptist Church will exchange choir lofts Sunday. The Emanuel Choir, under the direction of Melvin Lumpkin, will sing at the 10:30 a.m. service at Community Baptist Church. At Emanuel, Ann McClain, organist and choir director at Community Baptist, will be soloist at the 8:30 a.m. service, and will direct the Baptist choir at the 11 a.m. service in singing anthems and leading the congregation in the musical part of the service. The Churchmen of Emanuel Church will have a Communion breakfast Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the church. The Rev. Russell Camp, chaplain at the Enfield State Correctional Center, will speak. Pastor C. Henry Anderson will conduct the Communion service, and Ernest W. Benson is in charge of the breakfast. Men and boys of the church are invited.

Police report

MANCHESTER
Kenneth D. Baldwin, 28, of 45 N. Elm St. was charged with operating under the influence of alcohol or drugs in connection with a two-car fender bender Friday at 11:59 p.m. on Huntington St. He drove a car into the parked car of Margaret Grigg of 66 Wadsworth St., police said. He is scheduled to appear in Common Pleas Court 12 in East Hartford April 13.

Anthony D. Deciantis, 17, of 106 E. Center St. was arrested Friday at 9:25 p.m. and charged with fourth-degree larceny. He allegedly drove away from Moriarty Bros. service station on Center St. without paying for $2 worth of gas taken from a self-service pump, police said. Court is April 12. Michael A. Marino, 22, of 79 Dart Hill Rd., South Windsor was arrested Friday at 12:30 p.m. on a court warrant charging him with illegal sale of a controlled substance and illegal possession of a controlled substance. He was released on a $1,000 nonsurety bond for court April 12.

An apartment on Hilliard St. was broken into Friday and ransacked. Police suspect children did it as there was half eaten food strewn about the kitchen and toothpaste strewn about the bathroom. Nothing appears to be missing.

VERNON
David B. Kester, 19, of 188 Skinner Rd. suffered major injuries Friday afternoon when his motorcycle ran into the rear of a car on Rt. 30, police said.

Kester was taken by ambulance to Rockville General Hospital where he was admitted. His condition was reported as "stable" this morning by a hospital spokesman. The car he hit was driven by Raymond Lovering of 8 Niederwerfer Rd., South Windsor.

Kester was charged with following too close and operating a motorcycle without a motorcycle license. He is scheduled to appear in Common Pleas Court 19 in Rockville April 14.

The Boucher & Young Building on Rt. 30 was broken into Friday night. Missing is a horn from the burglar alarm.

Her first signed bill this session

Gov. Ella Grasso signs a bill for the first time during the current session of the General Assembly in her office in Hartford. It is a special bill enabling the Town of Manchester to sell notes or bond at more than a five per cent interest rate in order to build firehouses or buy fire equipment. Standing with her are the men that worked for the passage of the bill. They are, from left, State Rep. Ted Cummings, State Rep. Fran Mahoney, Town Manager Robert Weiss, State Sen. Dave Barry, and Town Fire Chief John Rivosca. Construction on the town's fire station in Buckland resumed this week (Herald photo by Pinto)

'South Pacific' resounds at MHS

By JUNE TOMPKINS

Against a background of palm trees and a tropical island, Bailey Auditorium resounded Friday night with the unforgettable music of Rodgers' and Hammerstein's "South Pacific." Students at Manchester High School united their efforts in another annual musical extravaganza featuring spectacular talent in performance and stage production. Comedy and romance are interwoven in a story that is set in the South Pacific.

There is a romance between a wealthy plantation owner and a shy Navy nurse from Little Rock, Ark., and a tender relationship between a USMC lieutenant and a Tonkinese girl — both affairs overshadowed by the presence of World War II. Antics as only the American servicemen can conjure them, are provided by a bunch of zany Seabees. Mickey Simon's resemblance to a suave, handsome Frenchman, Emile de Becque, the plantation owner, is striking, and his voice is equally impressive. The audience will not soon forget his masterful rendition of "Some Enchanted Evening." Playing opposite Simon is Susan Sterling as Ensign Nellie Forbush, the character who undoubtedly had the cleanest hair during the show's Broadway run. Every performance of the song "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" comes with a shampoo on stage. Susan has her share of wet hair and suds. She sings with a clear voice and fine diction.

Playing the handsome Lt. Joseph Cable, USMC, is Brian Beggs who sings the hauntingly lovely "Younger Than Springtime" to Karen MARDLE, who plays Liat, the young girl with whom he falls in love. The provocative role of Bloody Mary is given a personalized interpretation by Dawn Hliyak who gives a creditable rendition of the well-known "Ball Ha!" and the calypso-type number, "Happy Talk."

Thank heaven for the Navy nurses who prompt "There Is Nothing Like A Dame," a show stopping tune sung by the lusty-voiced Seabees. One of the catchiest songs Rodgers and Hammerstein ever wrote, it is highlighted in "South Pacific" by a motley looking navy crew who not only sing, but dance and mime through several witty verses and choruses.

It is doubtful any professional production ever had a better comedy team than Patrick Irish and Carl Girelli as Luther Billis and Stewpot, respectively. Irish brings the house down with his hula number in the Thanksgiving Follies number, playing it to the hilt. As Luther's sidekick and shadow, Girelli is a natural clown and has a knack for being busy in his role without upstaging. Paul Maiment plays a forceful Navy captain teamed with Henry Cremisi as a Navy commander.

Adding a note of authenticity to the show's casting is Duc Minh Nguyen, a Vietnamese student, who speaks his French lines with a true accent. All those in supporting roles showed artistic direction and complemented the rest of the cast.

The dancers are colorfully costumed in floral-patterned sarongs that harmonize with the lavish tropical set designs. The full orchestra, including harp, and production are directed by Martha White, high school music director.

Participating Manchester Civic Orchestra members and MHS alumna, in addition to school musicians, made the performance as much of a community effort as a school affair. It's worth mentioning that the boys' long hair styles were cleverly disguised to conform with the close-groomed look of the 1940s, the time period of the story.

Praise goes to the entire group of young people who showed, for another year, what cooperative effort and enthusiasm from young people can achieve. The few hitches that customarily appear in first-night performances will, no doubt, disappear by tonight. "South Pacific" plays at Bailey Auditorium again tonight at 8 and Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are available at the door. All Senior Citizens will be admitted free on Sunday only.

About town

Members of Manchester Junior Women's Club health committee will be selling raffle tickets Sunday at Highland Park Market to benefit the Lupus Foundation.

The People's Group will have a bowling party tonight at 8 at the Parkade Lanes.

"The Hour of Joy," a fellowship program for residents of Westhill Gardens and Annex, will be Monday at 1:45 p.m. in Herrmann Hall, Bluefield Dr. James Powers will be guest speaker. Refreshments will be served.

The Port of New Orleans is the second largest in the nation, handling annual cargo totals exceeded only by New York.

Charities 'scalp' youth

MIDDLETOWN (UPI) — The American Cancer Society and the Heart Association of Central Connecticut have scalped a 16-year-old high school junior. For weeks Lyle Herman solicited money pledges from classmates at Middletown High School, with a promise he would shave his head bald. With $250 in pledges for the two organizations collected, barber Joseph Lombardo did the honors Friday while the student body looked on. Afterwards, the completely bald Herman said "Wait till my mother sees me tonight."

Ask Kleiner
By Dick Kleiner

DEAR DICK: Could you please tell me if the rumor of Elton John tearing up his rented home in Beverly Hills is true? — S. VARNER, Mobile, Ala.

One of Elton's friends says: "It was blown out of proportion. Elton is immaculate. The truth is that he rented a home and installed some speakers and, of course, he made some holes in the walls. He also overwatered a plant and it leaked on the rug and stained it. But he had the holes in the wall repaired and the rug cleaned."

DEAR DICK: A recent item detailed New York appeared in our newspaper and read, "It seems Jack Ford has acquired a reputation of something as a rock groupie." Can you please elaborate? I never heard that term before. — R.F.M., Blairmore, Alta., Can.

A groupie hangs around rock groups. Generally, the term refers to young women who run after their idols in a blatant manner. But it can refer to ardent fans of either sex.

DEAR DICK: Could you please tell me how to become an actress? — LISA SPENCE, Newington, N.H.

No, I can't. Only God or nature can make you an actress. If you think you have talent, keep acting — in school plays, little theater, wherever. Take courses in schools to perfect and polish your talent. Don't try to go to New York or Hollywood until you're really confident in your abilities. And then don't make the trip until you have some names of capable and responsible agents to see.

DEAR DICK: I read in a magazine that Cher was pregnant. Is this true? — NANCY D'ANNIBALLE, Steubenville, Ohio.

Yes, it is. Nobody knows for sure (except Cher) when the baby will arrive, but the best guess is June or July.

DEAR DICK: Could you please tell me the name of the TV show that starred Andrew Duggan as Murdoch. He was the owner of a big ranch. I, the mother, say the name of the show was High Chapparral. My son and daughter disagree with me. I-KNOW-IT-ALL-MOTHER, Montreal, Que., Can.

This proves once and for all that mothers do not know it all, all the time. This time, you're wrong. High Chapparral starred Leif Erickson as a ranch owner, but Duggan's show was Lancer, with James Stacy and Wayne Maunder as his sons.

DEAR DICK: Who played Mr. Murdoch in "Artists and Models" with Martin and Lewis made in '55? And what was the name of the TV series he was in as the father of a young man? — R. E. MIHALICK, Pueblo, Colo.

Another Murdoch question? It was Eddie Mayehoff who played that part, and his TV series was That's My Boy.

Folk heritage is class topic

An introductory course in folk heritage, "Aspects of American Folklore," will be offered by the community services division of Manchester Community College beginning Thursday, April 1. Students will explore the verbal, partly verbal and nonverbal traditions which have been transmitted orally or by custom from one generation to another.

School offers da Vinci show

Leonardo da Vinci, as everyone knows, painted the "Mona Lisa" and "The Last Supper," but most people do not realize that he also drew up plans for the first airplane, helicopter, armored car (tank), three-tiered machine gun, mechanical car, air conditioner, jack...and the list goes on.

In seniors' variety show

These lovelies pose in their finery for a "Beautiful Girls" number in the Senior Citizens Variety Show to be presented Friday and April 3 at 8 p.m. at East Catholic High School.

Featured in operettas

Eric Coates of Manchester has tea with Susan Knapp during a rehearsal of the Simsbury Light Opera Company in preparation for two Gilbert & Sullivan operettas.

Historical photos in UConn exhibit

Parts of a recently rediscovered treasure trove of Connecticut history have gone on display at the University of Connecticut's William Benton Museum of Art. "The Perseverant Vision of E.A. Scholfield, New England Photographer, 1843-1930," will be on view until April 15.

Town man to direct 'Carousel' in Windsor

J. Alan Rice of Manchester will direct the Windsor Jesters' spring production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Carousel" to be presented April 2, 3, 9 and 10 at the Sage Park School in Windsor.

There's plenty of time to vie for MPS medals

By RUSS MACKENDRICK

You have plenty of time to whip an exhibit together and capture one of these Manchester Philatelic Society medals. They come plated in silver and gold and also in solid bronze. Anyone can play, and the number awarded will depend solely on the quality of the exhibits, like running a race against a stopwatch instead of rivals.

The occasion will be the 16th MANPEX, this year to be held at Illing Junior High School. It is to be a two-day show, April 24 and 25, and the usual 4,000 visitors are expected.

Besides the medals there are some special awards: The Best of Show; The Fred Deming Memorial for juniors; the Oren B. Maxim award for a Connecticut Philatelic Society member; the Marcus White for postal stationery; and an American Philatelic Society certificate for the best exhibit by an APS member.

For idea jogging here are titles of some past winners: Shades & Varieties of the Connecticut Charter Oak Stamp; Olympic Games of 1968; Lindbergh Covers and Stamps; Accession of Monaco's Prince Reinier; U.S. Postal Cards; Stampless Connecticut Covers; and Telegraph

Stamps and coins

Stamps.

Kids have won the Deming award for duck stamps, vice-president's birthplace cancellations, and a pot-pourri of FDR.

The exhibits should be of 16 album pages, minimum. For a prospectus write MANPEX, P.O. Box 64, South Windsor, CT., 06074. April 15 is the deadline for entries.

Designing new coins

Coin World put out the first edition of the supplement "International World Coins" on the 17th, and it was rightfully devoted to the Irish.

The lead story is a piece written by William Butler Yeats 50 years ago when they were making up the new Irish Free State designs. Yeats was a senator and chairman of the coin committee. He admired Greek coinage but remarked that they wouldn't do for gamblers to flip because they weren't balanced. Also because of the high relief they wouldn't please bankers who had to roll and stack them.

He told of seven artists working on the designs. Each one was given a photograph of the Irish hunter champion "Goldfinder II," and the half-crown shows a true sculpture of this magnificent horse. All the coins had to have an ancient harp on the date side. The various other sides showed, besides the horse, a kamikaze woodcock, a pig and piglets, a bantam hen ruffled to protect her chicks, a hare, a wolfhound, a bull pawing the ground, and a leaping salmon.

All this makes them just great for collectors who like coins, farming, and the outdoor life.

Results of the derby

The results of Linn's Stamp Derby: The most popular design of 1975 was the Soyuz, with Banking and Commerce running second. Collective Bargaining was voted to be both the Worst and the Least Necessary. It doesn't seem all that bad—my vote went to the second choice for worst—the Contributors to the Cause set, with their color combos of smeared ocher. Sad that such a good idea would be shot down by poor execution.

They have no class

Remember when Scott could sum it all up with one Combined Catalogue at the season's end? No more—now it's to be in four volumes. The first is due in July, and then on and on.

Also the new Harris US/BNA is ready. The ad for it in Linn's shows the Mona Lisa—La Gioconda—cradling a copy in her arms saying "I've got mine!" As Queen Victoria said of another lousy joke, "We are not amused." Some of these hucksters have no class.

Planned tomorrow

In Danbury tomorrow at the Holiday Inn (Exit 8 off I-84), will be the Fourth Sunday Show sponsored by the Connecticut Stamp Dealers' Association. Free admission and parking. Special educational exhibit.
