By DOUG BEVINS

Herald Reporter An early spring heat wave which made Easter seem like the Fourth of July continued today with temperatures expected to set record highs for the fourth day in a row.

Manchester area residents apparently were taking the weather in stride as thermometers soared into the 90s over the weekend. The statewide forest fire danger remained at a high level today. although last week's series of many brush and woods fires in Manchester didn't continue into the weekend. Local fire fighters reported several weekend calls to wash down gasoline which had overflowed from full

Police said there were large after dark each weekend night. There was no increase in traffic accidents. though, police said. State officials issued an automotive air pollution alert today as 90-degree temperatures continued. Motorists were asked to refrain from unnecessary driving and use public transportation.

People with a history of respiratory ailments were advised to moderate their physical activity Manchester Memorial Hospital spokesman said there were no unautomobile tanks. Officials warned usual emergency room cases over the weekend.

Officials of the Hartford Electric usual weather-related problems over Light Co. said there were no "browthe weekend, although there was a nouts" over the weekend despite the sudden demands for extra power for air conditioning

Local appliance dealers, though, said there was no rush of buyers for numbers of people moving around air conditioners. Dealers said they sold a few units but they didn't expect heavy sales unless the heat wave continued for another two or three days.

Many area residents escaped central Connecticut for weekend trips to suburban lakes and the shore. Beach traffic was heavy Saturday and Sunday and the shoreline parks were crowded. Area lakes were also crowded with boating and fishing enthusiasts over the weekend. The opening day of fishing season Saturday resulted in successful catches by most anglers, state Environmental Protection officials said.

In Manchester, municipal swimming pools weren't open; the season schedule calls for opening on Saturday, May 29. Officials said there

Losing coaches happy with years

NEW YORK (UPI) - "That was a super basketball game" and "I'm very happy with the season" were two phrases uttered by National Basketball Association coaches Sunday - yet both came from the mouths of losers. Philadelphia Coach Gene Shue and Milwaukee's Larry Costello, respectively, spoke those words after their teams were given a bitter early summer vacation. Both nationally televised games were extremely close — Buffalo edged the 76ers 124-123 in overtime and Detroit nipped the Bucks 107-104 as each won their best-of-three series 2-1 - but that couldn't atone for the fact that, for the coaches and their teams, their season was over. "The biggest thing you can say about today is that we never gave up-Doug Collins said in the somber

Big budget cuts still to come

BARBARA RICHMOND The Town Council budget workshops have not reduced the general government budget to date, so the budgets may undergo an across-the-board cut before being presented to a public hearing Thursday, Mayor Thomas Benoit said:

During a press conference last Thursday Mayor Benoit said he has had many letters from townspeople who say they just cannot afford the 9-mill increase called for by the proposed general and Board of Education budgets. The general totals $5.5 million and the education, $9.3 million. Before presenting the general budget, the mayor had deleted some $2 million from department requests The school requests were also drastically cut before going to the board's budget committee.

weekend the group of about 40 local residents lost a request for an injunction by the Tolland Superior Court to have the Board of Selectmen set a date for a referendum on the ballot question.

Whitney argued he and the town residents were denied the right to vote and the strong remedy of an injunction

Judge Jay Rubinow said there is no need to hurry the matter

Whitney said the group has now enlisted the aid of the state's attorney's office in seeking the referendum. More action will be taken in the matter this week, he said. Despite all the legal actions, Whitney said, "It's brutal-

"Two hundred people signed a petition calling for a referendum. Three people (the selectmen) said no. AFRAID TO GROW UP

DEAR ABBY: I am nearly 13, and I have been reading your column since I was about 11. From the looks of the way married people hate each other, it makes me afraid to get married.

I don't think it would be very much fun to be a grownup because they have so many problems like getting jobs, paying taxes and the whole political mess. I don't know what I am going to do when I get out of school, but I think I'd rather just spend my whole life in school than be an adult in a world like this one. People keep talking about peace and love, and all they do is go around hurting and killing each other. What do you think I should do?

DEAR AFRAID: Grow up anyway. We need adults who are dissatisfied with a world filled with people who say they want peace but go around hurting and killing each other. And don't decide against marriage either. My column is a trouble dump. There are plenty of good marriages, but nobody ever writes to Dear Abby to tell me how happy he is.

DEAR ABBY: Is yawning a sign of physical fatigue? Or is it a sign of boredom? CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: It can be either or both, It's usually an involuntary opening of the mouth when you wish others would shut theirs.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the distressed parent who was shocked at her daughter's "dishonesty and bad taste" in choosing to wear a white wedding gown when everybody knew she was no virgin provoked me into writing this. My daughter is divorced, over 30, and no virgin either, but she is planning to be married soon, and she has chosen to year a white gown. In fact, I am knitting it for her now, and I couldn't be happier.

I don't feel that my daughter is declaring herself a virgin by wearing white. She is declaring herself a bride. For that I am thankful.

She could have chosen to live with her partner instead of ALL FOR WHITE IN VA.

In the day when many are confusing customers with out-dated words such as discount, lower prices, low storewide pricing, it is beginning to sound like the cry of wolf. They all were the lowest before, and now they're going to be lower. When the truth of the matter is - inflation is making everything higher. But we con-tinue with a combination that is unbeatable - the best in service, the best in quality, and the best in specials.
We have never stopped trying to maintain low prices.
To top all this we give S&H Stamps which are worth $2.00 back in cash, $3.00 in merchandise at your redemption store, and also now can be refunded for bonus specials. This combination can't be beat. In appreciation, look for our colorful circular that offers you 2 full books of S&H Stamps it's a little more proof, we do a lot more for you.
