Friday was a day of fun tinged with a wee bit of sadness for the 80 children from Manchester and Hartford's North End as the ninth annual Interfaith Day Camp sponsored by the Manchester Area Conference of Churches at Concordia Lutheran Church closed with a carnival of games mixed with the saying of farewells. During the games a counselor, Barbara Landolina, looks on as camper Kenneth Dunning makes a hit with his bean bag toss. Games may be fun, but Patty Grant from Hartford stops playing long enough to give her favorite counselor, Becky Bourret, a farewell hug. (Herald photo by Pinto)

One gives up, two at large in bus kidnap

CHOWCHILLA, Calif. (UPI) — The surrender of a wealthy podiatrist's son left two suspects at large today in the kidnap of 26 Chowchilla school children and their bus driver.

Richard Schoenfeld, 22, surrendered to Alameda County District Attorney Lowell Jensen late Friday accompanied by his father, Dr. John Schoenfeld of Atherton, Calif., and Edward Merrill, the family attorney. Chowchilla Justice Court Judge Howard C. Green set $1 million bail each for the three suspects after signing warrants on 27 counts of kidnap and 16 counts of robbery.

Green said he signed the warrants "based on confidential information" in affidavits, the contents of which were sealed.

Schoenfeld's arraignment was set for Thursday at 10 a.m. before Green.

The two missing suspects are Fred Woods, 24, whose father owns the quarry where the victims were imprisoned in a buried van, and Schoenfeld's brother, James, also 24. They were described by police as armed and dangerous.

At a news briefing afterwards, it also was revealed that federal warrants also had been issued at the request of Madera County Sheriff Ed Bates, bringing the FBI into the case. Bates said, "It is reasonable for me to assume that they may have fled California."

Merrill said he advised his client to refuse to discuss the case with authorities. He also said Schoenfeld was "nervous — understandably tense and nervous."

Earlier sources disclosed that a search of the 100-acre Woods estate in Portola Valley uncovered ransom notes demanding $5 million. Exact contents of the note were not disclosed.

Police said Schoenfeld had been on the Woods estate when deputies searched it late Wednesday. They said he had a brief discussion with a reporter. That was the last time he was seen.

Santa Clara County Investigators Thursday also found two vans in a big San Jose garage, which, they said, were used to transport the children from Chowchilla to Livermore. The bus driver, Frank Ray, 55, was taken to the garage and spent several hours there. Because of a court gag order, detectives refused to disclose what they found.

The children, ranging in age from five to 15, were abducted last Thursday as they were being driven by bus to their homes after a day in summer school. They remained in the buried van for 16 hours before Ray and the older children dug their way to freedom.

Some police sources have hinted other suspects might be involved. One state law enforcement official said there was a delay in the police APB because the various agencies did not want to alert other unknown persons, who might have been part of the abduction.

Sheriff Tom Houchins said there was still a search warrant outstanding in the case but declined to elaborate. He also said there were reported sightings of the elder Schoenfeld and Woods in Illinois, Oklahoma and Tennessee. Police agencies in those states were placed on alert.

Schoenfeld was held in the Alameda County Jail without bond, pending the arrival of Madera County deputies.

In Atlanta, Songel Padgett, 24, who had been briefly married to Woods, said she hoped he would also surrender because "he needs help." She described him as a "withdrawn person who wouldn't talk about his problems."

Day camp closes on sad-sweet note

The ninth annual Interfaith Day Camp, which closed Friday, was truly a volunteer effort from its financial backing to its staff nurses, kitchen crew and teen-age counselors.

Manchester churches, church-related organizations, social organizations and individuals provided the funds for the two weeks of camping for 41 local children and 39 children from Hartford's North End at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Serving on the camp staff were the Rev. David Rinas, Nancy Carr, Sister Dorothy Collins, Sister Darleen Mayo, Sister Carolyn Kinnamon, Sister Radke, Irene Goss, Vicki Jennings, Ed Wasilief, Sister Julia Ryan, Rick Numrnych and Sister Ellen Murphy.

Nurses who were on hand for any emergency were Annamay Potocki, Linda Haberern and Gloria Kjelison.

Providing food for the campers were Kitty Cataldo, Virginia Briggs, Barbara Greene, Betty Hubert, Alice Slea, Irene Bengston, Doreen Rinas, Day Regan, Lena Chubert, Kathy Donahue, Florence Parker.

Teen-age counselors were Mari McMahon, Carol Donovan, Linda Fraher, Laura Ronzello, Judy

Wilson, Lou Kalisiak, Kurt Kalbfleisch, Cindy Rothwell, Brent Downing, Tracy Knofla, Carolyn Frattaroli, Lisa Caldwell, Bob Hawkes, Neil Snuffer, Mary Orozco, Phillip Abele.

Girl seriously hurt when struck by car

Nancy Pelletier, 17, of 2 Lockwood St. suffered severe injuries Friday at about 10:15 p.m. on E. Middle Tpke. near Etro St. when she was struck by a car, police said.

She had run into the road to aid a dog which had been struck by another car seconds earlier.

She was taken by Manchester Ambulance to Manchester Memorial Hospital where she was admitted with head, leg and body injuries. She was being treated in the intensive care unit of MMH and was in serious condition late this morning, a hospital spokesman said.

The driver of the car is a young man but was not identified by the police. The investigation of the accident is still incomplete.

Biology gear working

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — The three biology instruments aboard Viking 1 have passed the first half of a critical series of tests leading toward the search for life on Mars next week.

Engineers today prepared to send new orders to the spacecraft in an attempt to fix the jammed digging boom that will gather soil samples for the biology instrument. The results will be known Sunday.

In a new weather report from Viking's desert landing site, Dr. Seymour Hess said there were light easterly winds in the afternoon changing to southwesterly at night. Maximum steady winds were 19 miles per hour although he said there may have been gusts up to 40 m.p.h.

Temperatures during the last full Martian day ranged from minus 24 degrees Fahrenheit to minus 123 degrees.

The biology instruments were tested Thursday and Friday and Dr. Harold Klein reported analysis of the data radioed back showed no problems.

"We have found everything working very smoothly and we're quite prepared, if they ever get that sampler fixed, to accept that sample and get to the serious business of analyzing the soil," Klein said.

Archbishop O'Brien dies

HARTFORD (UPI) — The Most Rev. Henry J. O'Brien, first Roman Catholic Archbishop of Hartford, died at St. Francis Hospital Friday following a long illness. He turned 80 Wednesday.

A priest for 51 years, Archbishop O'Brien was consecrated as a bishop in 1940 and was made archbishop in 1953. He served in that capacity until 1968 when ill health forced him to relinquish his responsibilities.

In 1966, Pope Pius XII appointed him an assistant at the pontifical throne, which gave him a rank directly below cardinal.

The Most Rev. John F. Whealon, who assumed O'Brien's duties as archbishop, said of O'Brien, "He kept the faith with unflinching patience, whimsical good humor and profound wisdom. Now the time of his deliverance has come."

Whealon said "his (O'Brien's) wish is that in place of eulogy we place our lives continuously in the focus of that faith, which he himself kept so well and would have us bring into the lives of others."

Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

Peck facing first challenge

By GREG PEARSON

Herald Reporter

Frederick E. Peck has been Republican Registrar of Voters for 16 years and has never faced a challenge from within the party. This year, however, things are different. He faces not one, but two.

Mrs. Marion Mercer, active in party politics for over 20 years, and Barry W. Botticello, a young attorney, have both announced their candidacy for the position.

What are the reasons for the two challengers appearing on the scene?

Mrs. Mercer said, "My belief is that the Republican registration can be put on the upswing with hard work and stimulated interest."

She expressed concern over the increased number of voters registering as unaffiliated and said, "The main thrust of my efforts as registrar of voters will be to try to interest these unaffiliated voters to join the Republican party."

"I plan to provide the enthusiasm and leadership needed to bring about this increase in the Republican registration," she said.

Botticello said, "I can get more voters into the Republican party. The trend has lately been going the other way. I feel I could do a lot to reverse this trend.

"I'm not trying to downgrade the other two candidates. I think I can do a good job," he said.

He said his age, 25, was one of the reasons he decided to run. "For the party to grow, it has to attract young people and new people in town," he said.

Peck said he was surprised at the opposition that has cropped up this year.

He plans to continue working at increasing the number of voters who register Republican.

"You can see from statistics that the trend the last few years has been to register Democratic or unaffiliated. Naturally, I'd like to increase Republican registration," he said.

Peck served as a constable with the town and has been the Republican registrar since 1960. He also served for ten years as First District chairman of the Registrars of Voters Association of Connecticut (ROVAC). The ROVAC's First District includes the same area as First Congressional District.

Peck, who works as an insurance adjuster besides his duties as registrar, was also elected this year to ROVAC's Board of Directors.

Mrs. Mercer has served 20 years on the executive boards of both the Republican Town Committee and the Republican Women's Club. She was vice-chairman of the town committee for two years and was a district leader in four different districts for a total of 18 years.

She also served two years as a justice of the peace and is now a town constable.

Botticello is a member of the Manchester Bar Association and participated in the April Law Day program. He feels he can win the race for registrar.

"I like my chances," he said. Although he said he is fairly new to town politics, he feels his age will work to his advantage.

Mrs. Mercer has called all the members of the Republican Town Committee and feels she has the support to win. Peck, the incumbent, also said he thinks he will win.

Republican Town Chairman Thomas F. Ferguson said he feels Mrs. Mercer has the most votes of the three candidates right now.

When asked why there is opposition to Peck at this time, Ferguson replied, "It's not discreet for me to say."

State

HARTFORD (UPI) — The architect who designed the University of Connecticut Health Center might earn up to $6.8 million because his fee is tied to building costs that could be three times higher than projected, the Bond Commission says.

The commission Friday approved a $225,000 payment to the designer, Vincent Kling of Philadelphia, bringing his total payments to $4.5 million. Kling's fee is 5.6 per cent of total construction costs.

NEW LONDON (UPI) — Donald Brant and Richard DeFretas, convicted last week of the 1970 murders of a man and woman in Ledyard, were each sentenced Friday to two consecutive terms of life imprisonment.

A jury last week found Brant, 43, and DeFretas, 37, guilty of murdering Gustavus Carmichael, 38, of Boston and a woman whom police described as Carmichael's girlfriend on Dec. 31, 1970.

NEW HAVEN (UPI) — Hartford Attorney Peter Kelly, who failed his attempt to become Connecticut Democratic chairman, Friday night was elected to a seat on the Democratic National Committee.

Kelly, 39, chairman of Hartford Democrats and an early supporter of Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter, lost a bitter struggle Monday to unseat Connecticut Democratic Chairman William O'Neill.

HARTFORD (UPI) — Gov. Ella T. Grasso and Democratic State Chairman William A. O'Neill say they are bitter antagonists in the wake of their bitter contest for the party leadership.

"I think the wounds have been healed," O'Neill said Friday after meeting with Mrs. Grasso, their first since O'Neill was re-elected party chief Monday. "At this point I don't see any open wounds anywhere."

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Rep. Allan Howe, convicted of sex solicitation, is sure he will win his appeal and vows to press ahead in his re-election campaign.

"I am still a candidate and I will continue to fight for what I know is right," the first-term Democrat declared Friday, after a jury of three women and a man found him guilty of offering two police decoy prostitutes $20 for sexual favors.

LAKEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — A light earthquake shook the southern Los Angeles area Friday, but did no damage.

Few residents of the county felt the tremor, centered in the Lakewood-Bellflower area. The seismology laboratory at Caltech in Pasadena measured the quake at a mild 3.1 on the Richter Scale at 1:53 p.m.

OLYMPIA, Wash. (UPI) — The state Supreme Court has issued an order allowing news cameras and broadcast microphones inside courtrooms during trials.

The order, signed Friday by all nine justices, lifted previous restrictions in the judicial canons of ethics which effectively prohibited the use of microphones as well as television and still cameras.

News for senior citizens

By WALLY FORTIN

Hi folks! Well our gang of Yankee fans and some who would be, and a few die-hard Red Sox fans all enjoyed a day at Yankee Stadium. No matter what team you like, just going to see the new stadium was worth the trip. Of course this column was written before we left on Thursday so you already know the results; we'll be able to fill you in on what we did in Wednesday's column.

By the way, speaking of trips, remember that on Monday morning we register for the Rockingham races. Just a reminder that we can take two buses, and maybe a third if we fill it, so my advice to you who are anxious to go — better get here early. We start signing up at 8 a.m.; however, long before that a line begins to form.

The complete package consists of your busfare, reserve seat tickets in the clubhouse, free program, a box lunch and a dinner at the 88 Restaurant, where you'll have a choice of boneless chicken or baked haddock, and the price for the day is $14.75.

More trips

Continuing on with trips, we need about six more to sign up for that Lake Winepesaukee trip in order to take the second bus; therefore, the deadline is this coming Wednesday. The final payment is due no later than Wednesday, Aug. 11, for this three-day trip.

Finally one last call about the Hawaiian Hop. Time is running out, and many of the rooms and spaces on the plane are beginning to fill up. We still are holding on to a few more, so if you would like to join the exciting ten-day stay in beautiful fascinating Hawaii, and visit two islands, then call our office for the information. Wednesday, Aug. 4 is definitely the last day we can accept the down payment.

Now for the news at the center. Tuesday was one of those hot and muggy days, and therefore the action was somewhat limited to outdoor shuffleboard. A fair crowd went shopping while others enjoyed bowling in the air-conditioned Parkade Lanes.

Contractors here

On Wednesday the contractors were here first thing in the morning and started working on the bottom section of the downstairs. This will cause us a little confusion for a couple of weeks. However, we will continue our program as scheduled. We will have all programs on the main floor.

This week we can still for the most part serve our lunches downstairs. This will be the final week for meals until we start the action again in September. Remember now, we do not close down until the last week in August. Keep reading our schedule so you'll know what is happening.

On Wednesday morning we had 11 tables for pinocle with the following winners:

John Gally, 532; John Phelps, 597; Fred Towle, 578; Charles Steele, 570; Helena Gavellio and Archie Houghtaling, 567; Arvid Peterson, 585; Michael DeSimone, 563; Martha LaFaire, 561; Ann Thompson, 535; Clara Henningway, 554, and George Carlson, 530.

Bridge

After lunch it was bridge games and the lucky winners were:

William Lucas, 430; Laella Horton, 420; Lou Buller, 4120; Vivian Lesperance, 3,750, and Marguerite Carlson, 3,580.

This coming Thursday is our big boat ride around New York City, and we will leave the center here at 8:30 a.m. Because we are taking two buses of ninety members, we will not be serving a meal on that day. The building will be open for card playing, visiting, and outdoor shuffleboard games for anyone who would like to participate.

We send our heartfelt condolences to our good friend Louis Weber whose daughter passed away recently.

Menus

Monday, boiled hot dog, baked beans, sauerkraut, roll and butter, chilled fruit cocktail, beverage.

Tuesday, roast beef on a sandwich roll, cherry tomatoes, sliced cucumber, ice cream, beverage.

Wednesday, there will be no menu. Friday, tuna fish salad on lettuce, celery sticks, cucumber spears, carrot curls, roll and butter, potato chips, Jello with topping, beverage.

Sampling the products. From left, Brian Murphy, vice-president; Bob Abramczyk, production manager; and John Marton, market offers 16 regular flavors plus 10 sugar-free flavors, which are bottled and sold at the main plant and store in Manchester. The Pop Shoppe also has another store on Tolland Tpk., near K-Mart in Vernon. Grand opening specials are being offered. The Pop Shoppe is open daily from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Vicar gets church post

The Rev. Bruce W. Jacques, assistant to the rector at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, has been appointed vicar of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in South Windsor. He will preach his farewell speech Sept. 12 at St. Mary's.

Father Jacques was selected to serve as vicar of St. Peter's Church by the church's calling committee. The Rt. Rev. Morgan Forteau, suffragan bishop of Connecticut, approved the committee's selection. The official Episcopal appointment will be made in early September, according to the Rev. Stephen Jacobson, rector of St. Mary's Church.

Father Jacques has served at St. Mary's Church since November 1974. A 1970 graduate of Southern Connecticut State College, he received his master of divinity degree in 1973 from the Philadelphia Divinity School and was ordained a deacon of the church. Later that year, he was ordained to the priesthood by the Rt. Rev. J. Warren Hutchens, bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut. He was curate at Trinity Church, Torrington, for 18 months before coming to Manchester.

Opinion
For safe driving's sake, let's prune the hedges

How often have you seen a motorist inch into an intersection because shrubbery blocked his view of traffic in the other direction?
Manchester has a zoning regulation about visibility for motorists. It's Article II, Section 1, under 1.03.06 — Fences, Screening and Visibility. The subparagraph reads like this:
(e) No object, fence, hedge, shrub or tree shall be maintained at a height that obstructs visibility for automobiles.
Ernest Matchell, the town's zoning enforcement officer, says he recommends it be no

Capital punishment
here and in Canada

While the United States Supreme Court has recently decreed that capital punishment is neither cruel nor unusual, and may be permitted under state regulations, the Canadian House of Commons has voted, 130 to 124, to abolish the death penalty for all civilian crimes leaving only treasonable military crimes subject to punishment by death.
The fact that it was approved by the Commons was sufficient to save three convicted killers of policemen from hanging. They were to have been executed on the day that the Commons acted.
Instead of capital punishment for civilians, the new bill will carry a prison sentence of 25 years for first-degree murder; ten years for second-degree murder in which the motive of premeditation is absent.

Campaign donations
Ray Cromley

WASHINGTON — The list of major contributions to President Ford's campaign is as different from Ronald Reagan's as Reagan's is from that of Jimmy Carter.
A sampling of the Ford big donors — those who gave $100 or more — reveals an unusually heavy backing by men and women who classify themselves as business executives or corporation officers — and as housewives.
The number of those listed as retired also was unusually great in comparison with the comparable Reagan and Carter reports.
Further down the Ford list in numbers came lawyers and bankers and self-employed.
In sample, there was even one major donor who classified himself as "unemployed."

Ford proposal recalls words of Paul Douglas

WASHINGTON, July 23 — When Paul Douglas was a liberal Senator from Illinois, that wise legislator used to complain that the nation's judicial system had become "a sacred cow" and demand that Congress assert its power to legislate what he called "constitutional adjustments" to Supreme Court rulings.
Douglas' words are recalled today when so many reformers, most of them well-intentioned, are expressing horror over President Ford's request that Congress enact his bill to restrain court-ordered busing of public school children.
The argument seems to be that because the highest bench has had its say in refusing to review forced busing in Boston, the subject is no longer open to political discussion — even if only to inquire into busing's effectiveness. Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, a man I admire, has even denounced the Ford bill as "a craven, cowardly, despicable retreat."
Come on, ladies and gentlemen.

Generosity at the taxpayer's expense

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — In addition to being the Bicentennial, 1976 is the 100th anniversary of the birth, and 14th anniversary of the death, of one of the free man's legendary sons: Col. David Crockett of Tennessee.
Though he is remembered today mostly and excessively as a woodsman (he once killed 105 bears in nine months) and as a soldier (he died at the Alamo), it may be instructive now to also recall that he was a statesman who served three terms in Congress.
Admittedly, Crockett's performance in the House of Representatives passed almost entirely without memorable incident. He was a man of raw and limited intellect, somewhat comfortable in the pomp of Capitol Hill. Still, as we are reminded by one of his latter-day colleagues, Democratic Rep. Ron Paul of Texas, the cologne left us with at least one political tale as delicious as any adventure he lived.
According to Paul, who gets his information from the Foundation for Economic Education, the story began in the early 1830s while Crockett was stumping his state for re-election. Coming upon a farmer

Today's thought

An anonymous poem worth sharing:
Go break to the needy
Sweet charity's bread,
For giving is living
The angel said.
But must I give again and again
Without ever stopping?
Oh, no! said the angel
With yourself be true.
Just give until the Lord
Stops giving to you!

Dateline 1776

By United Press International
PHILADELPHIA, July 24 — Congressional President John Hancock fired off a letter to Gen. Phillip Schuyler who had been clashing with Gen. Horatio Gates. He wrote that he was "concerned to find there should be a necessity of recommending harmony to the officers and troops of different states under your command...nothing can show greater weakness or wickedness than to throw provincial reflections on one another."

from unlawful governmental policy. No rational reason can be offered for the citywide busing plans put into effect in scores of communities where imbalances are the result of housing patterns. Why should black children be bused from neighborhoods where the schools are predominantly black only because the neighborhoods are predominantly black?
I don't know whether Congress will buy Ford's spoggal to set a three-to-five-year limit on the period during which judges could impose busing remedies. On its face, it seems contradictory: only a judge can decide whether a community has done its constitutional duty on behalf of school integration. Still, how many cities can afford to bus indefinitely?
An ex-cop: Since Judge Clement Arthur Garrity Jr. ordered busing in Boston, school spending has increased by 46 per cent, whereas spending by all other departments rose by only 3 per cent. Boston's police department also has been forced to increase its budget in order to cope plowing his fields, the colonel introduced himself as "One of those unfortunate beings called candidates," but before he could finish his pitch the farmer cut him off. The man recognized Crockett, and advised him not to waste his time: "I shall not vote for you."

Crockett was stumped and begged the farmer for edification.
"Well," said the voter, "though I live here in the backwoods and seldom go from home, I take the papers from Washington and read very carefully all the proceedings of Congress." Then, specifically, he mentioned the time Crockett had cast a vote to appropriate $20,000 to help some residents of Washington who had been made homeless by a large fire.
Crockett admitted guilt but replied that his was a charitable act, involving a relatively insignificant sum of money, of which nobody in a great and rich country should complain. Yet the farmer was unimpressed with the explanation. "It's not the amount," he said, "it's the principle," for it was not his understanding of the tax disburser responsibilities granted lawmakers by the Constitution.
The farmer said he was not unkind to the unfortunate. To the contrary, his concern was with the unfortunate. "Taxation," he said, "reaches every man in the country, no matter how poor he may be, and the poorer he is the more he pays in proportion to his means. So you see that while you are contributing to relieve one, you are drawing it from thousands who are even worse off than he." That is not democracy. That is not even good sense. It is dangerous precedent.
Relief was certainly necessary for the fire victims, the farmer added, but not with money Congress had no right to give. "The people have delegated to Congress, (the power) to collect and pay money, and for nothing else." If the representatives were truly sympathetic with the fire victims, and truly honest to the Constitution, the voter concluded, they would have asked contributions from their own pockets.
Crockett was touched, enlightened

Track and field tops Games' slate

MONTREAL (UPI) — The Olympic Games enter their second week today with track and field and basketball ready to move into center stage.

After an ominous start due to political turmoil that resulted in the withdrawal of 30 nations, the finest young athletes of the world have taken control of the games, and the promise is for a final week of competition in the true Olympic tradition.

The track and field program, always the feature presentation of the Olympics, got off to a shocking start Friday when New Zealand's John Walker, the world's fastest mile runner, was eliminated in the first round of the 800-meter trials by finishing third in his heat in a slow 1:47.63.

This left the gold medal in the hands of American Rick Wohlhuter, if he can seize it. The semifinals will be held today with the final on Sunday. The 1974 Sullivan Award winner as the top amateur athlete in the U.S., Wohlhuter turned in the best qualifying time of 1:45.71.

AU champion James Robinson also qualified for the semis.

The U.S. earned its first medal in track and field when 18-year-old Kathy McMillan of Raeford, N.C., although bothered by the noise from a crowd of 70,000, placed second in the women's long jump with a leap of 21 feet, 10 1/2 inches. The gold medal went to East Germany's Angela Voigt with 23 1/2.

The only other final on the opening program was in the 20-kilometer walk when New Zealand's Danie Baatista gave Mexico its first ever track and field gold medal when he beat out a pair of East Germans, Hans Reimann and George Foster. The Russians and Americans each had won 13 gold.

assured of a berth in the semifinals, he concluded its preliminaries this morning against Czechoslovakia. The Yanks, seeking to avenge their loss to the Soviet Union in the 1972 final at Munich, won their first four games. Russia already clinched the first women's basketball championship game marked Lee's first start since that incident. In the fourth, Rivers' three-run homer capped a five-run rally that increased New York's lead to 7-6. Rivers had been accused of "sneak pitching," several Boston players during the May 20 flare-up. Fred Stanley drew in another run with a single in the final free exercise. Andrianov, who also took the all-around title on Wednesday, won his final three medals in the floor exercise, the rings and the vault. He was second on the parallel bars, won by Japan's Sawao Katō, and third on the side horse, an event won by world champion Zoltan Magyar of Hungary. The final gold went to Milos Turkahara of Japan, who successfully defended his Olympic horizontal bars title.

Swimming also resumed today following a day of rest with 46-John Naber of USC favored to capture his fourth gold medal by winning the 200-meter backstroke. The American men have won all nine swimming events thus far, with only two races remaining for an unprecedented sweep.

Unser haunts Mets with deciding hit

NEW YORK (UPI) — Del Unser had kind words but a mean bat for his former teammates Friday night.

He homered over the right field fence with one out in the bottom of the 11th inning to power the Montreal Expos to a 3-2 victory over the New York Mets.

But Unser, who was traded to Montreal earlier this week, had only words of praise for Mets' starter Tom Seaver, who left the game after nine innings with the score tied, 2-2.

"It was always a pleasure for me to play with Seaver," Unser said. "He's a fantastic competitor. I enjoyed playing behind him when I was with the Mets."

Although the Unser trade is only a few days old, Met officials are hopeful that it won't be another em-

Yanks' Alexander misses no-hitter

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's no big deal for the Yankees to win a game but Friday night's victory over the Red Sox was something special.

Doyce Alexander came within three outs of producing the first Yankee no-hitter in 25 years, before settling for a three-hit, nine-inning game.

Alexander, who led off the ninth inning with a single to right center field, and lost pitcher Burlington to second and wild pitch on Fred Lynn's singledurled home. Carl Yastrzemski also singled in the

Skipper gets boot

ANAHEIM (UPI) — Flamboyant Dick Williams, who managed the Oakland A's to back-to-back world championships, tried his winning formula on the cellar-dwelling California Angels and failed.

Williams, 47, was hired in 1974 when the Angels fired Bobby Winkles, but after nearly 2 1/2 years as the perennial tailender in the American League West, the Angels gave Williams the axe Friday and promoted coach Norm Sherry to manager.

Williams' former manager, Jim Fregosi, who had been promoted to manager of the Houston Astros, was named manager of the Oakland A's.

Nicklaus takes lead

WINDSOR, ONT. (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus does not want to be accused of needing his own golf course to win his first Canadian Open. He wants to win it right now before it goes permanently to the Nicklaus-designed Glen Abbey next year.

Entering today's third round of the $200,000 Canadian Classic, Nicklaus held a two-stroke edge over four birdies and two bogeys Thursday. He carded six birdies, a bogey and a double-bogey Friday.

"I've played well for two days," Nicklaus said. "It's not as good as I'd like, but I had it closer to the hole."

Haynie tied for top

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Sandra Haynie didn't expect the $222,200 par-72 Sportmen's Golf Club course to play as well as it did.

After all, it was the first time the course was part of the LPGA tour. But for Haynie, the surprise was a good one.

Playing in only her second tournament after a six-week layoff, Haynie tied for the final two holes Friday for a three-under-par 68 and a share of the opening-round lead in the $50,000 Lady Keystone Open.

Hoop plan ratified

NEW YORK (UPI) — Basketball players have approved a complicated plan to settle a players' antitrust suit that had threatened to cancel the merger of the National and American Basketball Associations.

The plan ratified Friday by the players' union calls for a four-year approval of the NBA Board of Governors, was designed to set up guidelines on rookie contracts and provide a final resolution to the Oscar Robertson class action suit.

Olympic briefs

MONTREAL (UPI) — Montreal taxi drivers, angered because they are not getting their share of Olympic business, plan to block major thoroughfares and bridges with their taxis during the evening rush hour Tuesday in what they call "Operation Turtle."

They say they are earning less than before the Olympics started because of free bus and limousine service laid on for athletes, officials and press.

Angels didn't find Williams charming

Williams, 47, was hired in 1974 when the Angels fired Bobby Winkles, but after nearly 2 1/2 years as the perennial tailender in the American League West, the Angels gave Williams the axe Friday and promoted coach Norm Sherry to manager.

Steelers in breeze, 24-0

CHICAGO (UPI) — Era Parseghian needed an error-free game from his first College All Star football team to beat the National Football League Champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

He didn't get it.

His team and the Steelers were caught in a downpour, which forced the game to end in 16 minutes and 22 seconds early.

Manchester week in review

Political candidates nominated

Candidates for state Senate and state House races were selected at conventions this week.

Incumbent Democratic state Sens. George W. Hannon Jr. and David M. Barry were both renominated by acclamation. Hannon's opponent in the 3rd District will be Manchester resident Dr. Frederick W. Spaulding. The Republican candidate in the 4th District against Barry will be Glastonbury's David Cohen.

The 9th and 14th Assembly Districts shape up as rematches of the 1974 races. In the 9th, Democratic Rep. Muriel Yacovone of East Hartford will be opposed by Marilyn K. "Lynn" England of Manchester. Mrs. Yacovone defeated Mrs. England in 1974. The 14th District will have Democratic Rep. Abraham Glassman going against Warren Westbrook, the man he beat two years ago. Both men are South Windsor residents.

A three-way battle is under way for the Republican registrar of voters positions. Mrs. Marion Mercer and Barry Botticello both announced their candidacy for the job, which is now held by Frederick E. Peck. It is the first in-party challenge Peck has faced in his 16 years as Republican registrar.

Manchester made a key switch with its vote to help elect Hartford Councilman Richard Suisman to the chairmanship of the Capitol Region Council of Governments (CROG).

Suisman outpolled Marlborough First Selectman Anthony Maiorano 20-9 on the fourth roll call vote taken on the issue. A two-thirds majority was necessary for victory. Two of the roll calls were taken at Wednesday's meeting. The first two had been taken at CROG's June meeting.

Mayor Matthew Moriarty Jr., who cast Manchester's vote, voted for Maiorano on the first three ballots. Then, on the second vote Wednesday, he switched to Suisman.

Two other communities, Canton and Simsbury, also switched, giving Suisman just enough for victory.

Moriarty said he switched because he wanted to get the issue resolved and he felt, after Wednesday's first ballot, that Maiorano could not win.

A partial ban on watering of lawns was placed on users of the town water system and is still in effect.

The ban permits homeowners on the even-side of the street to water their lawns only on even-numbered dates, such as July 26, 28 and 30. People on the odd side of the street can water their lawns only on odd-numbered dates, such as July 25, 27 and 29.

The ban was put into effect because of complaints the water department has received concerning low water pressure, lack of water and poor water appearance.

Town administrators and leaders of the Manchester Police Union sat down together at a fact-finding session as work on signing a contract continues.

The police have worked without a contract since July 1.

The fact-finding session is the third step in municipal labor disputes. The fourth, and final, is binding arbitration.

Both sides presented their case to state-assigned fact-finder Dr. Rocco Orlando at Wednesday's meeting. He will present a report on the case within the next two months.

The Zoning Board of Appeals tabled until Sept. 20 a number of variances requested for a proposed McDonald's in the Burr Corners Shopping Center. The board expressed concern about traffic flow in the center's parking lot and requested more information about the lot and possible improvements.

The Manchester Housing Authority was notified it will be granted 45 units for Section 8 Housing for the elderly.

Section 8 Housing is a program where participants apply a fixed percentage of their income toward the rent. The remainder of the rent is paid for through funds provided by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Manchester has already started a Section 8 Housing program for low-income families.

The Housing Authority also hired Louise L. Hunter as coordinator of the Section 8 program. The job will pay $9,400 per year.

Education

Mrs. Eleanor Gowen of 50 Plymouth Lane was appointed an administrative assistant at Manchester High School by the Board of Education. She succeeds Parnys G. Pratt who retired as dean of women.

Mrs. Gowen, a former teacher in the Manchester school system, left an English teaching position at Hiling Junior High School in 1974 to become an assistant principal at Tolland High School.

The Board of Education was given a report on efforts to overcome sex discrimination in the school system with regard to staffing, curriculum, physical education program, tests, reading material, and guidance.

A committee of researchers has made recommendations for correction and revisions which are listed in the report.

People

Patrol Capt. Richard Sartor was the only applicant for the new position of deputy police chief. Police Chief Robert D. Lannan will now review whether Sartor is qualified to fill the post. He is expected to announce his decision early next week.

Jay R. Stager was named to the 6th District of the Democratic Town Committee. He replaces Mrs. Frances Merola who moved out of the district.

New dinner theater opens

The Pine Brook Dinner Theatre in Higginan opened last week with a show called "Happy Faces '76." A revue, the best part of the program is a group of well trained voices that present excerpts from opera and Broadway shows.

Called the Milton Berle Royal Singers, they got their start as a backup group for none other than Uncle Milt himself. They finally broke away with Berle's endorsement and now perform all over the country in big show excerpts.

At Pine Brook, you'll hear the lovely soprano rendition of "Summertime" from Gershwin's Porgy and Bess by Renee Stevens; a medley from "Fiddler on the Roof" sung by Ed Price, Miss Stevens, Noel Benson, Barbara Davis and Luke Carrol, and "Libiamo" from Verdi's opera, "La Traviata," sung by the same group.

The show includes a comedienne known as Gwenn McEwen who does a fantastic impersonation of Phyllis Diller as well as other comedy routines. Dave and Dee MacHarris do a spectacular double drum routine as well as several tap dance numbers.

The bountiful buffet features a steamship round of beef from which the chef will carve a slice just for you, the right size and the right of degree doneness.

The Pine Brook will show "Happy Faces" through Aug. 22. "Godspell" is scheduled Aug. 24 through Sept. 19.

Beginning Monday and continuing every Monday through August, a complete opera will be presented by an opera repertory company. The first one will be "Madame Butterfly" by Puccini. Other operas in order of presentation are "La Traviata," "Barber of Seville," "Carmen," "La Boheme," and "Rigoletto."

Ask Kleiner By Dick Kleiner

DEAR DICK: Why was such a clean enjoyable show such as Movin' On canceled and such trash as Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman left on? MRS. MADELYN EARNHARDT, JR., Lemmon Valley, Nev.

DEAR DICK: Do Lee Majors and Lindsay Wagner really jump those ten-foot high walls and fences? CAROLYN GALT, North Vancouver, B.C., Can.

DEAR DICK: I understand that Katherine Nolan, who used to play Kate on The Real McCoys, now helps actors and actresses or models find jobs. Is that true? MRS. C. FERRELL, Stockton, Ca.

DEAR DICK: When the late Richard Arlen was in the Navy, he left a white wool blanket at my place, I was away from home when he left and he never wrote or called me.

DEAR DICK: I saw a novel by actor Alex Cord — "Sandstorm" — which was recently published. Has he ever written anything before? Has he given up acting? MARGOT DEVEREAUX, Houston, Mo.

DEAR DICK: As a big fan of Henry (Fonzie) Winkler, I went to see him at a show and give him a present. I'm not sure if he got it or his "body guards" dumped it.

DEAR DICK: A friend and I have a controversy going and need your help. We are wondering who made the first recording of the song, "Young Love," and the year it was recorded. He says it was Sonny James and I say it was Tab Hunter.

"I'm funny. I'm a clown. But I'm really Leslie Suder, 7, of Glastonbury."

Tara Suder, 5, of Glastonbury, finds out what it's like to have a funny face put on by Kris Whalen, a Lutz museum volunteer.

Precancel collectors a different breed

By Russ MacKendrick

As I was chortling to a neighbor about having just joined the N.E. Precancel Club she asked, "What's a precancel?"

So here are a few to give people an idea of what they are like.

With the exception of the Christmas dove at the upper left they all have an overprint of the point-of-mailing post office. The dove stamp is very special: It is a precancel not because it has really been precanceled, but because it announces that it is one — spelled right out just above the value, 10 cents. As if a streaker carried a sign saying, "I am wearing a white tie and tails."

The usual garden variety precancels are like the Poughkeepsie and South Norwalk — horizontal bars and right side up. The San Francisco on the 2-cent Panama Canal shows that there can be some creativity. The lower left stamp has an overprint without the bars — "Vallejo Cal." And away on the right end is a Fort Wayne "Tombstone" that every precanceler of longstanding has at least one of.

Local people should always be alert to spot the scarce Cheney Brothers overprints on the 1938 Presidential series. Specimens of these will be shown at a later date.

The New England Precancel and Stamp Club has nearly 400 members, most of whom have never seen each other. The enrollment is countrywide with even a few in Europe. The president appeared at Mott's after a ride down from Concord, N.H. The Secretary-Treasurer came from Belmont, Mass. It was an all-day confab and annual meeting. The last one was at Worcester and the next is slated for Athol, Mass. on the 12th of September.

They offer 24 activities or specialties such as Bureau Prints, Commemoratives, Dated, Presidential City Types, Classics (prior to 1920) and so on.

They have a bi-monthly publication — "The Yankee." The mailing of this is like nothing else — it is sent out with a 13-cent precanceled stamp, and inside there is always a bonus, a freshly precanceled stamp of another denomination, such as the new, cheery, 7.9 cent bulk rate. There are six mailings a year, so you get 12 prees just for belonging.

These collectors sometimes go to great lengths. One member, who is also in the Manchester club, sacrificed $5 just to get a Glastonbury precancel on a copy of that gray-on-gray John Bassett Moore. (Remember the grizzled oldster with a Mona Lisa smile shown peeking around a doorway?)

And if they get a stamp with gum on it they soak the stuff off — so they really are a different breed.

Some top numismatists were polled as to the future of the hobby and a couple of them came out strong for medals saying that, whether we like it or not, most of the vitality in the field in the last decade has come from private mints and medalists. Sad but true.

The weekly, Coin World, has started out bravely to try to make a listing of all the brightwork released in honor of the 200th birthday. The official Bicentennials are the National Medals, the ARBA Medals, America's First, Armed Services, and an Exposition medal at Kennedy Space Center, Fla. where you can buy a bronze blank for a dollar and strike it yourself on an automated press.

CW then goes on with what looks like a roll-call of the states, with West Virginia passing.

To be continued in their next issue...and the next...and next...
