

Gardening

By Frank Atwood

Visiting her daughter at San Jose, Calif., south of San Francisco, Mrs. Rudolph V. Gorsch found a flower she had never seen, in her daughter's garden. Most of us in this part of the country have never seen one either. It was an artichoke, in bloom.

What we know and sometimes serve at the dinner table is the artichoke bud, with its stiff, thick leaves tightly clasped. When the whole globe-shaped bud is cooked over steam, the leaves are pulled off, one by one, at the table. The thick lower end is dipped at our house in melted butter and then an edible mush is scraped off by pulling the base of the leaf between the teeth.

At the center of the bud one finds a core of fuzz which is pulled off and discarded. This is the "choke" and would, if left on the growing plant, become the flower. At the base of the bud is a thick, tender core, good for several bites. This is the "heart" and considered the best part of the artichoke.

Mrs. Gorsch's artichoke is past the edible stage. In commercial fields, where my wife and I saw them growing several years ago, the buds are cut when they have reached full size and before the flower has begun to show.

Large plants

The plants are large, growing up to five feet tall, and to give them room are set six feet apart in the row with the rows also six feet apart. The plants are heavy in that warm climate and will produce for three or four years. Then they have to be replaced with new fields where small plants are started from suckers which appear on the old plants. The artichoke is of Mediterranean origin.

San Jose is not in the commercial artichoke area, which is several miles farther south, but still near the coast. We came upon the plants without knowing what they were but I, did that they must be artichokes. Presently we saw the name of roadside stands where artichokes were sold at what would not be very low prices. We took a bagful and our daughter and son-in-law showed us how to prepare and eat them.

Mrs. Gorsch, the former Mrs. Doris Beiding is a former woman's editor of The Herald. She and Dr. Gorsch were married eight years ago. Her daughter Linda, Mrs. Richard Lynchski, lives in San Jose; her husband is an engineer with General Electric and was transferred to California three months ago from Schenectady.

Horticultural show

The Connecticut Horticultural Society has held its September flower show for several years. The show this year will be called, instead, a "horticultural show," including fruits and vegetables as well as flowers. It will be held at the Pond House in Hartford's Elizabeth Park Saturday, Sept. 11 and 12.

There is no admission charge for visitors who are welcome from 2 to 8 p.m. on Saturday and from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Anyone may exhibit. Membership in the society is not required, and there is a special section for junior exhibitors who are mostly of 4-H Club age.

Frank J. Rice of Farmington is the chairman, the first commercial nurseryman to take this responsibility for some years. Entries must be made between 8 and 10:30 Saturday morning. Ribbons will be awarded but no money prizes.

Non-competitive educational exhibits will be a feature of the show. The Bonsai Society of Greater Hartford will exhibit dwarf trees and shrubs, grown in pots.

Bristol Nurseries, famous for development of new varieties of chrysanthemums, will show many of the new "mums."

Lincoln Foster of Falls Village, nationally known as a rock garden authority, will work with other Connecticut rock gardeners on a display of these plants.

William C. Bolecki of Windsor, who has a large collection of cactus at his home, will take a selection of these plants to the show.

Earl Kurtz Jr. of Cheshire will show tropical foliage plants which he grows at his nursery.

Stanley Papanos, turf specialist for the Connecticut Extension Service, is preparing an exhibit of several kinds of turf and will answer questions on care of lawns.

Youth orchestra auditions

Auditions for new members to the Greater Hartford Youth Orchestra will be Sept. 13, 14 and 15. The orchestra, which was in residence at Lucerne, Switzerland, this summer, is conducted by Bernard Lurie, concertmaster of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra.

The group accepts students of high school age and up to 21 years, and is sponsored by the Julius Hart School of Music, junior and adult division of Hartford Community Chorus and the Adult Reading Orchestra.

For its December concert, the chorus will perform Palestrina's "Gloria." Rehearsals are held Monday from 7:45 to 9:15 p.m. and will begin Sept. 27.

The Adult Reading Orchestra, conducted by Wilfred Fildar, will begin rehearsals Oct. 7 at 8 p.m.

For audition times and further information about these groups, call the school registrar at 943-4461.

Other performing organizations sponsored by the school but not requiring auditions are the Greater Hartford Community Chorus and the Adult Reading Orchestra.

The elementary and junior orchestras, also sponsored by the school and conducted by Charles Palmer, will audition new members

United Way goal is $92,237

Ken Hankinson has a United Way checkbook in his pocket, and the first entry says $92,237.

That's Manchester's goal in the 1976 United Way campaign, and Hankinson hopes to reach it when the drive ends in late October.

He announced the goal at a United Way luncheon at Manchester Country Club Thursday.

The Greater Hartford United Way kicked off its campaign Wednesday night, and Hankinson said he came away from that meeting "with my batteries charged."

Thursday, he introduced his vice-chairman for the Manchester drive, Wally Irish.

Bill Hale, president of Manchester United Way, spoke briefly about the drive, about volunteers, and about the campaign aids furnished by several business firms to help direct the campaign.

Representing the Greater Hartford United Way were James C. Turner and Ed Ota, executive directors.

Six representatives of Manchester agencies which benefit from United Way contributions describe the work of their agencies. They were:

Pam Saloom, director of Lutz Junior Museum; Lois Lewis, executive director of Manchester Public Health Nurses Association; Arlene Rosenberg, director of Child & Family Services.

Also, Dr. Tanash Aloyan, director of Child Guidance Clinic, Hyaline Hurwitz, director of Manchester Homemaker's Service; and Lewis Stein, director of the Sheltered Workshop.

The goal this year is a modest increase of seven per cent, said Hale, who expressed the opinion that Manchester should go over the goal as it did with an $88,000 goal in 1975.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI) — A British and a Yugoslav airliner, carrying a total of 169 persons, collided in the air today northeast of the Yugoslav city of Zagreb and both planes crashed into cornfields.

Spokesmen for Zagreb hospitals said there were no survivors.

The British Airways Trident jetliner with 63 persons aboard and a Yugoslav DC9 airliner of the Inex-Adria line with 106 persons on board, collided late this morning about 20 miles northeast of Zagreb, the capital of the Yugoslav republic of Croatia.

The British plane, flight B476, was a regular scheduled flight en route from London to Istanbul, Turkey, with 54 passengers and a crew of nine, British Airways in London said.

The three Manchester projects are reconstruction and improvements to Adams St., valued at $94,000, and W. Middle Tpk., valued at $1,265,000, and various intersection upgrading throughout town, valued at $325,000.

The Federal Highway Administration is paying for about 70 per cent of the cost, with the town and state splitting the other 30 per cent, but the federal money can't be released

The last air crash in Yugoslavia was in September, 1973. A Yugoslav Airlines DC9 crashed at Titograd, southern Yugoslavia, killing all 41 persons aboard.

CLUTRAP inaction may delay $2.3 million in town projects

By DOUG BEVINS

Herald Reporter

Failure by regional policy makers to approve a Capital Region Transportation Improvement Program will probably delay more than $2 million worth of road projects in Manchester, according to a state Department of Transportation official.

William Lazarek, the department's transportation planning manager, said today that three Manchester projects estimated to cost $2.37 million will be held up because anticipated federal grants won't be released until the regional program is approved by regional officials.

The three Manchester projects are reconstruction and improvements to Adams St., valued at $94,000, and W. Middle Tpk., valued at $1,265,000, and various intersection upgrading throughout town, valued at $325,000.

There is some confusion, though, as to whether the Transportation Improvement Program really needs CLUTRAP approval, because the program has already been okayed by the Capitol Region Council of Governments.

Lazarek said federal requirements have been met by the Capitol Region Council of Governments' action, but that organization won't officially sign the approval until CLUTRAP acts favorably.

So without the CLUTRAP approval, the Federal Highway Administration won't release the money.

Manchester's three projects are only a small part of the total Transportation Improvement Program, a $30 million work program affecting almost every community in the 29-town region, Lazarek said.

Other projects involved include new traffic signals in East Hartford, road work in Hartford and Newington, highway barriers in Wethersfield.

Hartford's Carbone was joined by two other CLUTRAP board members — state NAACP President Ben Andrews and Arthur Green, director of the state Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities — in voting against the program Tuesday. Their "no" votes and two abstentions left just five favorable votes, and six were needed for approval.

Carbone argued that the state should adopt a minority hiring plan similar to the City of Hartford's before undertaking the program. The city requires all construction contractors to have 15 per cent minority workers and inspects work sites to make sure the order is carried out.

State officials say Connecticut already complies with federal affirmative action laws, but Carbone, Andrews and Green said this is not enough.

Sunday music program launches fund drive

A concert of contemporary big band jazz music will climax Sunday's free "Afternoon of Entertainment" at the site of the proposed Bicentennial Band Shell on the Manchester Community College campus near the Wetherell St. entrance.

The afternoon's program will begin at 2, and the concert by the 18-piece MCC Concert Jazz band is scheduled to start at 5:15 and continue until about 6:30.

The concert will include music composed and arranged by members of the band as well as selections from the repertoires of Stan Kenton, Woody Herman, Maynard Ferguson, Count Basie and other such band leaders.

Conducted by William Stanley and sponsored by the MCC Extension Division, the band rehearses throughout the school year as a workshop for professional and student musicians from the area.

The band's co-leader and trumpeter, Roland Chirico of the MCC faculty, said, "It's the only big band in the greater Hartford area that is dedicated to contemporary big band jazz."

The Sphinx Temple Highlanders Pipe Band will open the afternoon's program at 2. Also appearing in 15-minute performances will be the Manchester Square Dance Club, the Manchester High School Round Table Singers, the Burton Dancers, Griffith Irish Dancers, Silk City Barbershop Chorus, DuBaido Trio, the Senior Citizens "Sunshiners," folk singer Shirley Giraults and the folk duo Marian Maccaroni and Tom Casalino.

Former Manchester Mayor Nathan Agostinelli and Francis Mahoney, co-chairmen of the Bicentennial Committee, will officiate at brief ground breaking ceremonies for the Bicentennial Band Shell.

After the ceremonies, the Greater Manchester Wind Ensemble will perform under the direction of Philip Streifer.

Shortly before the jazz concert, the Connecticut State Bicentennial Ballroom will be inflated, and, hopefully, take off from near the band shell site.

Ralph Maccaroni, chairman of the event, suggests that those planning to attend the program bring lawn chairs or blankets and, perhaps, a picnic lunch. No refreshments will be sold during the afternoon.

The free "Afternoon of Entertainment" signals the formal opening of the public fund-raising drive for the Bicentennial Band Shell.

Tickets for a raffle, which offers five vacation trips as top prizes, will be sold during the afternoon. The raffle is being sponsored by the Manchester Exchange Club to raise funds for the erection of the Bicentennial Band Shell.

Town clerks meet in Vernon

Town clerks from across the state met in Vernon Thursday for the beginning of their annual conference, which will continue today. The group heard Secretary of State Gloria Schaffer, Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, Thursday afternoon. Manchester is represented at the conference by Town Clerk Edward Tomkiel. ### Clerks asked to educate voters on constitutional amendments

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter
Secretary of State Gloria Schaffer, Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, told Connecticut town clerks meeting in Vernon Thursday that they must educate voters about the constitutional amendments that will appear on November's ballot. She spoke at a luncheon for the clerks, who are meeting at the The Colony for their annual two-day conference, being held Thursday and Friday.

Pointing out that amendment questions are often overlooked by voters, Mrs. Schaffer told the group, "You have a real selling job to do. You must make people know that the amendments are there and get them fired up enough to vote on them." She stressed an amendment that will establish guidelines for the reapportionment of the state's assembly districts.

"If it weren't illegal, we should all vote for this twice," she said. The senatorial candidate, who is running against incumbent Republican Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, explained that the last reapportionment in 1972 was a drawn-out process with many delays and problems. "This amendment will do away with the partisanship that comes along with reapportionment. There isn't any legislator who is willing to say, 'I'll be the scapegoat. Go ahead, take my district.' We need to have fair-mindedness in reapportionment," Mrs. Schaffer said. Other amendments on this year's ballot include one that will allow 17-year-olds who will turn 18 before the election to register up to four months before the voting day, even though they are still 17.

Mrs. Schaffer explained that this amendment would permit 17-year-olds to register in their home town before leaving for college. They now have to come back home after their 18th birthday or register in the town where they are attending school.

"For a Connecticut resident going to school in California, this will eliminate the question of, 'How can I register at home without spending $700?'" she said. ### Auto insurers to hike rates

HARTFORD (UPI) — Three insurance groups this month will implement auto insurance premium hikes averaging 12.7 per cent that will affect almost 150,000 Connecticut residents. The state Insurance Department recently approved a 17.5 per cent hike for Kemper Insurance Co., and a 12.2 per cent increase for Nationwide Mutual Co. that will affect 128,000 policyholders. The Royal-Globe Insurance Co. was granted an 8.5 per cent increase in premium rates for its 20-

800 Connecticut customers. The average yearly premium cost for an urban area resident with family coverage for liability, collision, comprehensive and towing will rise from $352 to about $420 while rural area residents will see their costs for a similar family plan go from $265 to about $325. Kemper, of Long Grove, Ill., was granted its fourth rate hike in the past year. Increases in September and November of 1975, last April and the latest one, totaled 49.6 per cent. Nationwide's is the second premium hike in a year. The company implemented a 18.8 per cent increase in February, its first increase in three years.

Dr. Lloyd voices fears of vaccine profiteering

HARTFORD (UPI) — Drug companies may be trying to reap windfall profits from swine flu vaccines by pushing a more expensive type, says Connecticut State Health Commissioner Douglas S. Lloyd. "I have some questions as to why there was an increase of vaccine and not the monovalent vaccine, which we had used before," he said.

Lloyd said Connecticut apparently will get 1.5 million doses of swine flu vaccine, about half the 3 million doses he estimates it will take to immunize everyone in Connecticut. "Priorities have already been set for those persons who will be given the vaccine if there isn't enough to go around for everyone," he said. "Elderly persons will be the first to get them and anyone under 18 years of age will not get them because the vaccine's efficacy has not been proven in youth," Lloyd said. "No cases of swine flu have been reported in Connecticut to date," he said.

Armed man holds up Main St. milk store

A thin young man carrying a small handgun robbed the Cumberland Farms Dairy Store at 1063 Main St. Wednesday night and made off with at least $75 in cash, Manchester Police reported. Detectives, beginning an intensive investigation today, are seeking a man described as about 25 years old, five-foot-ten inches tall, thin (about 140 pounds), with shoulder-length black hair. He was wearing a brown cowboy hat and a khaki Army jacket during the holdup, police said, and had several adhesive bandages on his face. The dairy store clerk called police at 10:05 p.m. and reported he had just been robbed. The clerk said the man entered the store, pulled out the handgun (which was probably an automatic), and demanded money from the cash register. The clerk complied, handing over about $75, and then was ordered to open the safe. Again he complied, giving the robber two bank bags containing an undetermined amount of change. The clerk was then told to lie on the floor until the robber left. The clerk told police the man then left the store, but the clerk wasn't sure if he walked away on foot or used a getaway car. Several automobiles in the vicinity were stopped and checked by police shortly after the robbery report, but motorists didn't fit the robber's description, police said.

Mystic drug-taking ritual ends with one person dead

HARTFORD (UPI) — Police today were putting together details of an alleged mystic drug-taking experience at a Hartford residence that left one person dead and two others injured seriously.

The bizarre sequence of alleged events began Wednesday night in a home in a quiet residential South End neighborhood but did not end until the body of Bruce Bishop, 24, was found more than nine hours after he was killed on Thursday.

Bishop, a 1974 Trinity College graduate, was stabbed 11 times and his throat slashed. He had gone to the house to aid Thomas Flower, 24, who police said had "freaked out" on drugs after a mystic ritual. Flower, taken to Hartford Hospital after he apparently slashed his own wrists, was charged with murder.

Police said Phyllis Roberts, 22, a Trinity College graduate who leases the Spiral Court house, called police after Miklavic put his fist through a glass-paned hatch about 11 p.m. Wednesday. He was treated at the hospital for a cut hand and arm and a drug overdose, police said. Bishop went to the home several hours later after Miss Roberts called and asked him to look after Flower.

Miss Roberts told police when she phoned the home from the hospital early Thursday. Flower answered but he was "incoherent" and dropped the telephone. Worried, she called Trinity history instructor Michael Lestz, who went to the home and found Flower dazed and with his wrists slashed. Lestz took Flower to the hospital.

It was not until Lestz returned to the home to help clean up the blood that he discovered Bishop's body and notified police. "Neighbors said they heard screams from the home between 1 a.m. and 3 a.m. Thursday.

For period ending 7 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 11. During Friday night, showers and thunderstorms will be scattered across parts of the north Atlantic states, California, the southern Rockies and western Texas. Elsewhere, generally fair weather should prevail. Minimum temperatures include: (approximate) (89) Chicago 51 (70), Dallas 61 (82), Denver 52 (65), Duluth 46 (71), Houston 59 (82), Jacksonville 56 (80), Kansas City 56 (83), Los Angeles 63 (73), Miami 74 (88), New Orleans 60 (81), New York 61 (73), Phoenix 80 (95), San Francisco 60 (74), Seattle 48 (69), St. Louis 48 (61), Washington 61 (75).

Newspapers to appeal judge's press ban

HARTFORD (UPI) — A newspaper says it expects to appeal to the Supreme Court to lift a gag order barring reporters from pretrial proceedings for a man charged with six murders at the Donna Lee Bakery.

A lawyer for the Hartford Times said he would appeal Superior Court Judge Edward C. Hamill's rejection of three newspaper bids to lift the gag order in the trial of Gary Schragger, 33, of New Britain.

Hamill Thursday turned down motions by the Times, Hartford Courant and New Britain Herald objecting to his ejection of reporters and the public from a pretrial hearing two weeks ago.

The judge also denied a newspaper request to delay Schragger's trial until his ruling was appealed. The trial is scheduled to start next week with Hamill presiding.

The murders of which Schragger is accused took place Oct. 19, 1975, during an apparently botched holdup at the bakery in New Britain.

Hamill presided over the trial of Ronald Piskorski, 26, who was found guilty and given six consecutive life terms for the murders.

St. Mary's Church celebrating Holy Eucharist Saturday

St. Mary's Episcopal Church will celebrate the Holy Eucharist Saturday at 4 p.m. to coincide with the Eucharistic celebration which will take place in Minneapolis, Minn., beginning the triennial meeting of the Episcopal Church's General Convention.

The convention, governing body of the Episcopal Church, consists of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies with delegates from every diocese in the United States. Meeting every three years, the General Convention establishes policies and programs for the entire three-million member denomination.

This year, two issues involving major controversy will be hammered out by the convention. They are — a proposal recommending a change in the church's Canon Law which will permit the ordination of women as draft of the proposed new Book of Common Prayers which includes the liturgies of the church. The revision of the church's liturgies has been going on over the past 10 years and the proposed New Prayer Book is the result of this 10-year project. The last revision of the church's liturgies was in 1928.

The Rt. Rev. John M. Allin, presiding bishop in the United States, will be the chief celebrant at the Minneapolis Eucharist. Parishes throughout the country will hold services to coincide with the opening of the General Convention and the Rev. Stephen Jacobson will be the celebrant at the service held at St. Mary's.

Senate urged to back budget to cut nation's joblessness

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, Thursday called the current unemployment rate of 7.9 per cent "unconscionable" and urged the Senate to approve a budget which he said would put 1.5 million Americans back to work next year.

Muskie, chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, said the $412.8 billion in spending recommended by his committee for the fiscal year beginning Oct. 1 would be a "step" toward meeting twin goals of balancing the federal budget and achieving "full employment" by 1980. Economists generally have devised a 4 per cent jobless rate as "full employment."

Muskie said achieving those goals would require Congress to exercise "real fiscal discipline" in the years ahead. The proposed budget is $19 billion more than President Ford originally proposed and would include a deficit of around $50 billion.

Sen. James B. Allen, D-Ala., said he didn't believe such a deficit could be reduced to zero in four years.

decades, much less four million more jobs than Ford's budget proposals. In both cases the extra jobs include public works and public service jobs programs which have not yet been fully approved by Congress.

Evaluating teachers discussed at meeting

Bolton

The object of the workshop was staff evaluation. The purpose was to provide information for administrators who will be testing new evaluation procedures and instruments during the coming school year.

Dr. Brubacher will work with the professional development council to finalize the contents of a teachers' handbook on evaluation.

He will work closely with the administration during the year in the implementation and evaluation of the staff evaluation program.

Allen said our objective is to have a new evaluation program ready for total implementation for the 1977-78 school year.

He said he is alerting the Board of Education to such a program might necessitate a review of some present board policies dealing with evaluations.

Board and council discuss cost cuts

East Hartford
The joint committee of Board of Education and Town Council members who are studying the feasibility of joining some of their departments met recently for the first time.

Emery Daly reported to the board Wednesday the committee decided to attack one area at a time. The first area to be considered are the maintenance departments.

The committee felt this area would be the best starter because it offers the largest potential dollar savings.

At the next meeting, Oct. 6, Mayor Richard Blackstone and School Superintendent Dr. Eugene Diggs will define the exact function of each maintenance department including personnel, services, and costs.

Serving with Daly on the committee are board members Dorothy Carey, Richard Daley, and Larry DeForte.

Councilmen Henry Genga, John Finnegan, and Richard Torpey represent the council. Genga was named committee chairman.

The funds are used for safety equipment, uniforms and practice materials. It costs about $150 to outfit each boy on the team. The money is raised mainly by the boys and their parents.

The Rams are the older midgets aged 12 and 13. They will meet the Tigers Sunday.

The Bucks are the younger players aged nine to 12. They will meet their counterparts at the Bolton Tigers Saturday, Sept. 18 here at the Gilead Hill School off Rt. 85.

Hebron does not have a pony team. Their midgets are part of the Eastern Connecticut Midget and Pony Football Conference as are the Bolton teams.

Treasurer is sought

East Hartford
George Dagon, town council chairman, appointed council members William Daley, Joseph Denhamaro, and Esther Clarke to recommend an appointee for town treasurer.

The death of Treasurer William Dwyer created the opening. The town charter states the council is responsible for filling vacated offices of elected officials.

The charter also states the appointee must be of same political party as the former official.

At one time, Dagon was considering the office as was councilwoman Odessa Ferry.

Recently Democratic Town Committee Vice-Chairman Pauline Larson, who had indicated an interest, decided against it.

Crowd ignites Phillies who check loss skein

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim Lonborg said it "might have been a little too much" and Manager Danny Ozark said it "gave everybody a twinkle down the spine."

They had lost three straight games and 11 of their last 12, cutting their 15½-game lead to 4½ and returned home to face fans generally considered the most fickle in sports.

But as the Phillies ran onto the field to face the Chicago Cubs Thursday night, the crowd of 27,194 rose and gave them a 90-second ovation, which amounted to a tremendous vote of confidence.

The Phillies lived up to that "vote" as they defeated the Cubs, 4-2, and increased their lead over the idle Pittsburgh Pirates to five games in the National League's Eastern Division.

"That had to be stimulating to everyone on the club," commented Ozark. "It gave everybody a twinkle down the spine."

"It might have been a little too much for us to contend with," said Lonborg, who pitched a seven-hitter and raised his record to 15-9. "It's the kind of thing that lifts you a few levels and you have to force yourself to get back on the ground."

The Phillies scored four runs in the second inning — their biggest rally since August 24 — with the key hits singles by Dave Cash and Larry Bowa. The Cubs scored both their runs off Lonborg on a single by Larry Blittner in the sixth inning.

Bill Bonham suffered his 11th loss against eight victories for the Cubs. Cincinnati defeated Houston, 4-3, in 11 innings. San Francisco beat Los Angeles, 4-2. St. Louis topped Montreal, 6-1, and San Diego defeated Atlanta, 4-3, in the other NL games.

Reds 4, Astros 3
Pinch-hitter Bob Bailey singled in Joe Morgan with the winning run for Cincinnati in the 11th inning after the Reds tied the score at 3-3 on a two-run single by Morgan in the ninth. Rawley Eastwick won his 11th game with two innings of shutout relief while Ken Forsch was the loser.

Giants 4, Dodgers 2
Gary Thomasson's two-run, seventh-inning homer broke a 2-2 tie and enabled John Montefusco to win his 15th game against 12 losses for San Francisco. Los Angeles had tied the score at 2-2 on Reggie Smith's homer. Tommy John lost his 10th game for the Dodgers.

Cards 6, Expos 1
Lynn McGlothen pitched a four-hitter and drove in three runs with a pair of singles, raising his record to 12-13 for St. Louis. It was the ninth complete game for McGlothen, who struck out two and walked none. Don Carrithers was the loser for Montreal.

Padres 4, Braves 3
Tito Fuentes singled with two out and the bases filled to drive in Doug Rader with the winning run for San Diego in the bottom of the ninth inning. Rader started the ninth with a single and was sacrificed to second by Fred Kendall. Two walks and a force out preceded Fuentes' game-winning hit which gave reliever Butch Metzger his 11th win against one loss.

Czechs stop Canada

Montreal (UPI) — It was supposed to be the great goaltender Jiri Holacek that Czechoslovakia was counting on to carry them through the Canada Cup of Hockey. It was in fact a 34-year-old ice box mechanic-education student who put the world champions into the finals.

"We knew earlier today he would be in the nets," said World Hockey Association superstar and leading Team Canada goalie-scorer Bobby Hull of substitute goaltender Vladimir Dzurilla, who shut out the tournament favorite host country 1-0 Thursday night and clinched a playoff spot for the unbeaten Czechs. # 'Dick Danielson Day'

Saturday in Manchester has been declared "Dick Danielson Day" by a resolution by the Town Board of Directors. It honors the long-time Manchester High soccer coach who has contributed greatly to the sport.

The day begins in the morning at 11 when the alumni scrimmage will be held between past graduates and the 1976 squad. Many former stars, including members of three state championship clubs, are expected to participate.

The day will conclude in the evening at Fiano's Restaurant in Bolton where a testimonial dinner will be held.

Pro hockey

With four minutes left in the opening session and Canada on its only full power-play chance of the night, Hull came streaking in alone from the blueline on Dzurilla. But the goalie stood fast and Hull, who had scored at least one goal in each of Canada's first three games and four altogether, could do no better than shoot into Dzurilla's pads.

Dzurilla was particularly brilliant during the first two periods.

The victory boosted the Czech to a 3-0 record and seven points. Canada is second at 3-1 and Russia, the only other team in contention for a berth in the finals, has five points at 2-1-1.

The Soviet Union blanked yesterday's Team USA in Philadelphia 5-0 to stay in playoff contention. But in order to make the final round, the USSR will have to beat Canada in Toronto Saturday night in a must-game for both clubs. Canada can earn a place in the finals with a win or a tie in that game.

Brett hit spree silences critics

NEW YORK (UPI) — When George Brett was taken to a Kansas City hospital Wednesday night for X rays of a possible facial fracture, he was treated as a ballplayer — in particular a Kansas City Royals' ballplayer — instead of just a patient.

"And he didn't like it one bit," Brett explained, "your friends, your next door neighbors, people you know... everyone is stopping you and wanting to know when you're going to quit chinking. When I went to the hospital, there were three or four doctors and nurses and all they said was 'we're going to choke.'"

Brett, who caught Dave Chalk's knee in the check while breaking up a double play, took a big step towards getting the Kansas City faithful off his back Thursday night when he lashed a two-out single to centerfield in the 10th inning to score Dave Nelson from second base and give the Royals a 5-3 victory over the California Angels.

The hit, Brett's fifth of the night, helped snap a four-game Kansas City losing streak and enabled the Royals to maintain their five-game lead over Oakland in the American League West. It was just the second victory in the last 11 games by Kansas City.

The winning rally started after California reliever Mike Ovey got Frank White to fly out and Bob Stinson to strike out to open the inning. Nelson singled to catch Ovey and pinch-hitter Jim Wohlford and Brett worked out of a bases-loaded, one-out situation without giving up a run. Oakland scored single runs off loser Ken Brett in the second and third innings on RBI singles by Gene Tenace and Don Baylor.

Angels 4, Brewers 2
Thurman Munson and Chris Chambliss each homered to give Ken Holtzman his 13th win against eight losses and increase New York's first place lead in the American League East to 12½ games. Munson's homer, a solo shot, gave him a team-leading 93 RBI.

Indians 4, Orioles 2
George Hendrick and Buddy Bell hit homers to pull Cleveland within 2½ games of second place Baltimore in the American League East. It was the fourth straight victory over the Orioles by Pat Dobson, who increased his record to 14-11.

Red Sox 5, Tigers 0
Rick Wise hurled 6 1/3 innings of perfect ball and settled for a 10th victory in leading Boston to their 10th victory in 15 meetings with the Tigers. Jim Rice hit his 19th home of the season for the Red Sox.

Twins 6, Rangers 0
Red Carew hit his third pinch-hit grand slam of the year to back the three-hit pitching of Dave Goltz in giving Minnesota its fifth straight win. Goltz, 12-13, did not allow a runner past second, walked one and struck out eight.

Three Penguin players named

Three Formal's Inn Penguins have been named to the Central Connecticut Girls' Softball League all-star team.

First baseman Kathy Strand, second baseman Lisa Schwartz and pitcher Doreen Downham made the squad. Strand and Schwartz for the second time each.

Formal's placed fourth in the league in regular season play and was second in the playoffs finishing with a 16-9-2 record.

Watson shares lead

PINEHURST, N.C. (UPI) — It's been a bone dry year for Tom Watson as far as victories on the PGA tour go, but he doesn't blame anything, or anyone, but himself.

"I haven't won a tournament this year because I haven't played well enough to win a tournament," said the 1975 Byron Nelson and British Open champ Thursday after grabbing a share of the first round lead in the $200,000 World Open. "It just simply hasn't been hitting the ball as well as I did last year."

Watson tore up the par threes in Thursday's first round of the tournament over the 7,007-yard, par-72, Pinehurst No. 2 course for a first-

No races, huh?

Doesn't it seem just a short while ago there were no major league pennant races? That was true but no longer as Philadelphia in the NL East and Kansas City in the AL West have gone into tailspins.

While they still hold margins, the leads are tenuous. Pittsburgh is hot on the heels of the Phillies and has picked just the right time to go on a winning streak. The Pirates have also received excellent pitching out of their starters recently.

Kansas City isn't exactly giving the pennant away but Oakland is gaining. The Royals' better start winning again or the expansionists will find themselves behind Charlie O's troops. Wouldn't that be a kick in the head considering the trouble they've had this year?

The best bets right now are New York in the AL East and Cincinnati in the NL West. The Reds lost part of their edge over Los Angeles but have slowly moved out again. The Yanks had the smallest of advantages of the four leaders for a long time but now appear to be the most secure.

If Pittsburgh and Oakland overtake the present pace-setters and the Yanks and Reds maintain their positions, it would make one young sportswriter look like a genius. Those were the choices here back in April.

The Yanks and Reds in the World Series? The Bronx Bombers in six games? It could happen. And Vida Blue could be the most valuable player for New York, if a judge now listening to litigation rules him Yankee property. Now that's something.

Pretty soon

Talking of things to be believed, can you believe the college and pro football seasons start this weekend

UCLA opens with win

NEW YORK (UPI) — UCLA's first-year Coach Terry Donahue beat Arizona State's Frank Kush, but he's not about to gloat over it.

"Their program will not fold," Donahue said after his Bruins soundly whipped favored Arizona State, 28-10, Thursday night, dampening the hopes of the seventh-ranked Sun Devils to claim the national championship this year. The victory also needed a 13-game ASU winning string.

Kush, who has worked 18 years to gain recognition for the Sun Devils, was thoroughly disgusted after the nationally televised contest.

"We had no offense at all, he said. "They completely intimidated us."

He was not any more satisfied with the defense, which let the 14th-ranked Bruins ramble for 569 yards.

Bjorn Borg delivers serve. Suede, eliminated Manuel Orantes.

Evert, Goolagong head for finals

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI) — Chris Evert, sailing toward her inevitable clash in the finals of the U.S. Open with Evonne Goolagong, went after her 100th straight clay court victory today in a semifinal match.

In today's other semifinal, Goolagong met fellow Australian Dianne Fromholtz.

Neither Evert, the top seed, nor Goolagong, the second seed, have dropped a single set on their way to the semifinals. Evert goes into today's match against Yugoslavia's Mima Jausovec, having lost only five games in four matches.

Goolagong's victories have not been as overwhelming — she has lost 18 games.

The U.S. Open is the only major championship to elude the 25-year-old Goolagong, who won Wimbledon and the French Open in 1971, the Australian Open for the third time this year and the Virginia Slims title, also this year.

The men took the day off today. Saturday's semifinals pits fifth-seed Ilie Nastase against second-seed Bjorn Borg and top-seed Jimmy Connors against third-seed Guillermo Vilas.

Tennis

"I'll play a different game tactics him this time," said Borg, who is one of the games best groundstrokers. "I will not be able to beat him with serve-and-volley tennis."

The 30-year-old Nastase said he feels he is playing well enough to win the tournament and the $30,000 top prize.

"I like the court. It's faster than it used to be and faster than the ones in Europe."

Better days loom ahead for East soccer squad

By LEN AUSTER

With seven starters back from a year ago, East Catholic hopes for better fortunes on the soccer field in 1978. The Eagles, 0-1-1 last season, open a 14-game slate Thursday afternoon at Bolton High.

Second-year Coach Tom Malin indicated any success the team experiences depends on how much it communicates. "We have to be able to communicate better," he stated. "It's an inherent weakness with us."

We've stressed this, getting in top physical condition and working on skills in the pre-season.

One position not settled is goal where senior Geoff Blackwell and junior Don Martin are competing for the starting berth. In front of the netminder will be senior sweeper Bob Legier who excelled in a recent scrimmage.

Four sophomores are in contention for two fullback slots. Steve McCurry, Henry Carr, Rick Krol and Mike Gagliardi are presently battling for berths. The halfback line seems settled with senior Tom McCurry, junior Peter Stebbins and freshman Mark Marciano with junior Terry Falson the top reserve.

This will be the third campaign together for the front line and this area Malin considers a plus.

About town

The Assumption Junior High School will sponsor a paper drive Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the parking lot at the Church of the Assumption. Papers are to be tied. The school will have paper drives about every five or six weeks during the school year.

The Women's Auxiliary of Manchester Midget and Pony Football Association will have its first meeting of the season Monday at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Michael MacBryde, 84C Ambassador Dr.

Manchester Chapter, Parents without Partners, will sponsor a tag sale Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 680 Center St. (corner of Center St. and Carol Dr.)

The board of trustees of South United Methodist Church will meet tonight at 7:30 at Susannah Wesley Hall of the church.

Francisco Morasco of 29 Jordin St. attended the meeting as an interested citizen. His concern was whether he could qualify for a loan although he lives just outside one of the boundaries at Autumn and Parker Sts.

Mason said a reviewing committee would consider such applications and decide on any exceptions to the guidelines for administering the program.

The Manchester home improvement program is designed to assist eligible families to improve the condition of their homes by making available either grants and/or low interest loans. The loans/grants are designed to correct housing code violations and to make general repairs to the property.

Although the banks have indicated a willingness to participate in the program, Mason said the mechanics of the arrangement would be worked out only after the proposal is approved by the Board of Directors.

Martin School PTA ice cream social is Saturday

The Martin School PTA will sponsor an ice cream social Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m. on the school grounds. The rain date is Sunday. Entertainment will be provided at 2 p.m. by the Plum Cake Players who will perform magic and a clown act with audience participation.

MHS kitchen area vandalized

Vandals broke into the Manchester High School kitchen area Thursday night, broke cafeteria equipment, threw food around, and caused flooding of the kitchen floor, police reported this morning.

The break into the school was discovered by a policeman on routine patrol at about 2:45 a.m. When the policeman entered the school, he found the kitchen office area ransacked, and about two inches of water on the kitchen floor.

Mary Upping, cafeteria director for Manchester schools, said mustard, ketchup, mayonnaise, milk and other food items were removed from refrigerators and thrown on the floor.

Bread and rolls were also thrown on the floor, and were found floating in the water. The flood was caused by a turned-on sink faucet.

A meat slicer was broken when it was pushed off a counter, Mrs. Upping said, and an adding machine, and other office materials damaged.

School maintenance personnel were called in to work at 4 a.m., she said, to clean up the mess and get things back to normal for cafeteria operations today. Lunch was being served as usual despite the problems, she said.

Thursday night's incident wasn't the first time the high school cafeteria had been burglarized, Mrs. Upping said, but past breaks haven't involved as much vandalism.

Police are investigating the disappearance of a department store money bag containing nearly $8,000 which was to have been deposited in the bank Wednesday night.

Authorities said the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co's Manchester Parkade branch had no record of the deposit, which was to be made by an employee of Davidson & Leventhal at the Parkade.

The missing money bag contained a total of $7,993, police said.

Two East Hartford youths were arrested Thursday afternoon on charges stemming from a disturbance at Manchester's Globe Hollow swimming area, police said.

Kevin A. Giberson, 17, of 93 Phelps St. was charged third-degree criminal trespassing, third-degree criminal mischief and possession of a gun on town property.

Police said driving safety is always important, but is more so now because schools have opened. Officers have promised to track down and arrest motorists who violate statutes regarding stopped school buses.

A new Mercury stolen from an Avery St. home Thursday morning was found by police on Newberry Rd. near the river. It was stripped of its tires and battery.

No police action was taken in the matter.

Edward C. Nielsen, 58, of Northfield Rd., Coventry, suffered minor injuries in a two-car accident Thursday at 8:49 a.m. on Rt. 6 in front of the Andover Shopping Plaza.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I recently met a man I thought was together. He's 29, handsome, a smooth talker and single. The relationship went fine until I caught him in a few, then I did a little detective work. I became suspicious when he told me he had a "weekend" job. I discovered that he is engaged to another woman. He told her if anyone contacted her and asked her any questions about him, not to give out any information because some "hypochondriac" was chasing him! Meanwhile, he checked up on me to find out what my assets are. (I'm a widow and well enough off, so I don't which I'm sure he had in mind.) Should I let him know I am on to him? Or give him enough rope to let him hang himself?

DISGUSTED IN DIXIE
DEAR DISGUSTED: Never mind the rope. He's already hung himself where you are concerned. Cut him down.

DEAR ABBY: My 13-month-old child, Pam, is teething, and she chews and bites everything in sight. Pam was crawling around on the floor with my sister's little boy who's 8 months old, and she bit him. Naturally the boy was frightened, so he screamed.

My mother-in-law who was there at the time became furious and ordered her husband to bite Pam. Pam was on the arm, leaving teeth marks, and Pam screamed as hard as she could. My mother-in-law said she didn't leave any teeth marks on her cousin.

When I told my husband about this, he sided with his mother, saying it was an old-fashioned remedy for breaking children from the habit of biting. My mother is old-fashioned in many ways, and she said she never heard of this remedy. Have you? Thanks for your opinion.

PAM'S MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: No. But I have heard that a human bite can be more dangerous than an animal bite if the skin is broken. Teething children should be provided with teething rings—not cousins!

DEAR ABBY: My youngest daughter is going to be married soon. Her father is completely paralyzed and can't get her away. I was teasing her and said that I would give her away, and she said she would love it because she has two brothers and she would rather not choose between them.

The lady who directs weddings said it would be all right. I would like to know if you would give my daughter away for me.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE
DEAR MOTHER: It's your daughter's day. Let her do so as she wishes. I think it's a wonderful idea.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to ABBY, Box 6970, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

DiFazio charges Rep. Cotter took illegal contributions

Lucien DiFazio, Republican candidate for the First Congressional District seat, has charged his opponent, incumbent Democratic Rep. William R. Cotter, with accepting illegal contributions from staff members.

DiFazio said at a news conference Thursday in the Hartford Hilton that Cotter received contributions from staff members. This, he said, violates federal laws prohibiting contributions by staff members to U.S. representatives.

"Whether or not the Justice Department prosecutes these two-year-old violations is not the central issue," DiFazio said. "The main issues here are inefficiency of Cotter's staff and blatant evidence of Cotter's inattentiveness as shown by his not being aware of these obvious violations."

DiFazio, who is an attorney in Hartford, said he has informed the Justice Department of these violations. He was told that the department's policy is not to prosecute violations unless staff contributions were made under duress or directly to the Congressman.

The following were listed by DiFazio as staff members who contributed to Cotter in 1974: Malcolm

O. Campbell Jr. of Washington, administrative aide, $100; Salvatore P. Gallo of Wethersfield, district aide, $100; Robert L. Rigney of Bloomfield, district field representative, $100; Alfred Rioux of Newington, district field representative, $100; Henry Gionfriddo of Hartford, district aide, $500; and Robert J. Smith of South Windsor, district aide, $100.

Rep. Cotter's office replied this morning that Cotter "has reported every contribution as required by state and federal laws. There has been no coercion. He has applied with the spirit and the letter of the law."

Gaming commission restructuring urged

HARTFORD (UPI) — Sen. Louis Ciccarello, D-Norwalk, listened to gaming commission officials deny politics was involved in its operation and said he would propose restructuring the panel because he didn't believe them.

Ciccarello, Senate chairman of the General Law Committee which handles gaming legislation, Thursday presided at a committee review of the Commission on Special Revenue, which supervises legalized gambling in Connecticut.

"Most of the information we got bolstered my contention that this commission has got to be completely restructured," said

The committee spent three hours questioning Commission Chairman Beatrice Kowalski, Executive Secretary John Macdonald and James M. Fitzgerald, expected to replace Macdonald who has said he will resign Oct. 15.

All said partisan politics was not involved in a seemingly arranged shift of musical jobs at the commission. Published reports have said the job changes were orchestrated along those lines.

But Ciccarello said — and other panel members implied — they were suspicious of the denials.

"Frankly I take that with a grain of salt," he said.

In the personnel shift Chairman Paul Silvergleid resigned and was replaced by Mrs. Kowalski. Both are Republicans.

Macdonald, also a Republican, was asked to resign by the commission and Fitzgerald, a Democrat, resigned as a commission member in expectation of getting Macdonald's $33,540-a-year job.

Democratic Commissioner Francis X. Hennessey also resigned to accept a judicial appointment, also a Democrat.

Several committee members said they were unhappy with the way Macdonald's vacancy has been handled.

Fitzgerald has said he has been assured by other commission members he has the votes for the executive secretary's job.

Ciccarello said he thought the commission should consider persons not associated with the panel for the executive secretary's position. The executive secretary, paid $33,540 a year, runs the commission on a day-to-day basis.

"Hiring an executive secretary from within shows the commission is acting on its own," he said. "The whole commission has to be subject to review. It needs to be completely restructured."

The commission, created in 1971, oversees legalized gambling in Connecticut. Its members, who are paid $10,000 for their part-time posts, are appointed by the governor and legislative leaders.

Republicans have always held a 5-4 majority on the panel. Last year Ciccarello's bill that made the commission into an executive department with a commissioner — answerable to the governor and who must be approved by the legislature — was defeated 11-10 in committee.

He said he would reintroduce that legislation and saw much improved chances for its passage.

Local nursing home no longer accepting new welfare patients

For the past three weeks, The Meadows Convalescent Home has not admitted welfare patients because of lack of sufficient funding from the state.

Don Corriveau, assistant vice-president in charge of operations at Geri-Care, the nursing home chain of which The Meadows is a member, today said that it's Geri-Care's intent to maintain the present status until the state can provide a reasonable reimbursement formula.

He compared the present daily reimbursement rate of $10.83 at The Meadows, including meals, with the average daily motel rate.

"We can't afford to continue under the present rate," he said.

However, patients needing nursing home care who cannot be admitted to one of several nursing facilities refusing welfare patients are being located elsewhere.

Harold McIntosh, assistant director of health services for the state, said the state tries to find a facility as close to the patient's home as possible. For instance, a Manchester resident might be placed in a nursing home in Rockville, South Windsor, Glastonbury or East Hartford, he said.

He also said some of the 39 nursing homes out of 200 nursing facilities in the state who are supposedly refusing to accept welfare patients, are taking some patients on a limited time basis, not long term.

He said the state is working on a revised reimbursement formula which should relieve the financial strain under which many of the nursing homes are operating. If and when it is adopted, McIntosh said the formula would be retroactive to July 1, 1976.

Town ranks high in vote contest

Manchester, which is now conducting a "100% Voter" drive, ranks in the upper one-third in voter turnout among the 180 cities entered in the nationwide Bicentennial contest to be "America's Votingest City" by Nov. 2.

Manchester had 20,478 voters in November 1974, out of an estimated voting-age population of 33,319 (18 years of age or over) for 61.5 per cent. This percentage is well above the median 1974 voter turnout of 49.5 per cent among communities entered in the Bicentennial contest by Aug. 1, according to a report of the contest committee in Alameda Calif.

Late in December, when official voting results are available, awards will be given to communities with the highest percentage of voting age registered, to those with the highest percentage of registered voters voting on Nov. 2 and to those with showing the greatest improvement over Nov. 5, 1974 in the first two categories.

Duplicate awards will be made for communities of various sizes. Awards for excellence will also be made for voter turnout of 70, 80, 90 and 95 per cent.

Alameda initiated the voting challenge as an official Bicentennial project "in celebration of America's 200 year as a free nation, governed by a free people, casting their free vote."

HOME HAS LARGE FAMILY ROOM
RUSTIC THREE BEDROOM

FEATURE HOMES

By W. D. FARMER

Economic use of space in this home allows for spacious and convenient living. The entry is directly into the large living room. A door which closes the room off for entertaining also leads to a hall and the rest of the house. The family-dining room combination has lots of light from the two big windows and for handiness is located next to the kitchen.

The kitchen is well endowed with cabinet space and efficiencies such as a combination oven-surface unit and an optional dishwasher.

The rest of this home encompasses the sleeping quarters. The generous sized master bedroom is highlighted by a spacious walk in closet and a private bath with vanity.

For added storage there is a disappearing stair leading to the attic space. Outside storage is adjacent to the double garage.

This house contains a total of 1,224 square feet.

For further information on plan number 261, write W. D. Farmer Residence Designer, Inc., P.O. Box 49463, Atlanta, Ga. 30329.
