V.A. news

Q - May a veteran receive service-connected disability compensation while incarcerated in a county penal institution? A - Yes, unless he is rated by the VA as being incompetent by reason of mental illness. If rated incompetent and his estate from any source equals or exceeds $1,500, further payments of compensation shall not be made until the estate is reduced to $500.

Q - Is a GI home loan a gift? A - No. The loan must be repaid if the government pays the guaranty on the loan to the lender, the veteran or serviceman usually becomes obligated to repay this sum to the government.

Q - I was in a VA hospital for three months; my last check was for $50 instead of $175. I am single. The VA pension is my only source of income. Why was my check reduced? A - The pension of a hospitalized veteran without a spouse or child is reduced to an amount not in excess of $50 a month after two full calendar months of care. Full pension is resumed following release from the hospital or VA maintenance, but the money reduced from the pension is not refunded.

Ford, Carter confident as first debate nears

By CLAY F. RICHARDS. United Press International. President Ford and Jimmy Carter meet in the first presidential campaign debate tonight—a historic confrontation that, like the Kennedy-Nixon class of 1960, may have a major impact on the outcome of the election.

At the time of the debate, Ford and Carter are confident they will win the election. Ford has been the more conservative of the two, while Carter has been the more liberal.

Kissinger leaves Africa with 'sense of hope'

NAIROBI, Kenya (UPI) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger left Africa today ending his 10-day shuttle "with warm feelings and a sense of hope" that he has achieved a solution to the thorny question of black majority rule in Rhodesia.

Minutes after the Kenyan president's country farm at Nakuru, Kissinger said he had a "sense of hope" that he has achieved a solution to the thorny question of black majority rule in Rhodesia.

Schorr wins

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Questions remained today over Daniel Schorr's future as a CBS reporter, but there no longer was any doubt that he had won his fight with Congress over the secrecy of a news source.

The House Ethics Committee, avoiding a constitutional confrontation over free press issues, decided Wednesday to take no punitive action against Schorr for refusing to divulge the source of a leaked intelligence report.

"Reason has finally prevailed and, I hope, will prevail against any future efforts to use congressional coercion against the exercise of freedom of the press," Schorr later said.

"I hope this painful seven-month experience has had some positive effects." The panel lifted the subpoena it had placed against the reporter in an effort to determine who gave him a copy of the secret House Intelligence Committee report he had published in New York's Village Voice newspaper last February.

The committee spent five months and $150,000 trying to identify Schorr's source. It is expected to salvage its effort by recommending methods for tightening security.

CBS News President Richard Salant said the network was "pleased" at the committee's action.

"Its decision is, we believe, a wise one, for it helps to maintain a fundamental right and requisite of a free press—the right to protect the confidentiality of news sources."

There was no immediate word, however, on whether Schorr would resume reporting for the network. He has been suspended with pay since identifying himself seven months ago as the Village Voice's source.

Carter regrets tagging LBJ a liar

By LEWIS LORD
United Press International

Jimmy Carter is voicing no concern over telling Playboy he looked at women in lust, but the Democratic presidential nominee says he regrets saying that President Lyndon B. Johnson was a liar.

Carter's press secretary, Jody Powell, said Wednesday that Carter phoned Lady Bird Johnson Tuesday to apologize for telling Playboy "I don't think I would ever take on the same frame of mind that Nixon or Johnson did — lying, cheating and distorting the truth."

"The governor expressed his regret for seeming to put Johnson and Nixon in the same category," said Powell.

The apology came a day before Mrs. Johnson welcomed Carter's wife, Rosalynn, on a campaign stop in San Antonio. Mrs. Johnson didn't mention the comment, but elsewhere in Texas outrage was expressed by two of the state's major politicians.

"As far as I am concerned, Jimmy Carter has forfeited all right to the support of any Johnson Democrat in Texas," said Texas Democratic Chairman Frank C. Erwin Jr. Former Texas Gov. John B. Connally, a Johnson associate who became a Republican in 1973, termed Carter's statement "reprehensible."

"I am no longer a member of President Johnson's party, but my admiration and affection for him were not buried in the grave over which I delivered the eulogy at Johnson City," Connally said.

Both Carter and President Ford let their running mates do the campaigning as they prepared for tonight's initial campaign debate, which will be televised at 9:30 p.m. EDT

FBI sharply cuts back security case load

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Director Clarence Kelley says the FBI investigates 500,000 cases of all sorts each year, but since 1973 has reduced its probes of domestic security cases from 21,414 to 626.

"In July, 1973, we had 21,414 domestic security cases," he told the Senate Wednesday. "By March 31, 1976 we reduced this caseload to 4,868 investigative matters, a 78 per cent reduction."

"As of September 20, 1976, this figure has been further reduced to 626. This includes investigations of 78 organizations and 548 individuals."

Kelley credited the reduction to shifts in procedure and to a more tranquil domestic climate. He cited these factors:

- A decision to stop relatively unproductive investigations of rank and file members of violence-prone organizations and to concentrate only on leaders and policy makers of target groups.
- A decision to substitute a "quality approach" to probes of domestic security threats rather than engage in broad sweeps aimed at picking up masses of information, much of which turns out to be irrelevant.
- Finally, a decline in violent group tactics in the United States following the end of the Vietnam War.

Kelley testified Wednesday in the Senate's newly created intelligence oversight committee when it is charged with monitoring the activities—and preventing abuses—of the U.S. intelligence community.

Irregularly ordained women granted eased requirements

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — The Episcopal Church's House of Bishops reversed itself Wednesday and voted unanimously to ease requirements for 15 irregularly ordained women priests.

The bishops' action cleared the way for the conclusion today of the church's 65th triennial convention after acting on a host of minor matters and proposals, including resolutions regarding homosexuals and a proposed $96 million dollar fund raising drive.

The convention, in its actions approving women's ordination and revision of its Book of Common Prayer, has changed the life of the three million-member church in the United States.

For some, these actions meant the church had lapsed into heresy and they pronounced it to be in a state of "internal schism."

Others see them as the winds of reform and compared the 13-day General Convention to the Roman Catholic Church's Vatican Council II.

Soyuz 22 cosmonauts make safe return

MOSCOW (UPI) — The two Soyuz 22 cosmonauts landed safely on target in the Soviet Union today after an eight-day mission in Earth orbit.

Moscow Radio said the cosmonauts softlanded at 10:42 a.m. (3:42 a.m. EDT) 93 miles from Tselinograd in the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The report described the mission as "successful."

Tass news agency said cosmonaut Leonid Y. Verbytkovsky and Vladimir Aksenov "feel well."

Ground control gave the cosmonauts the okay to begin their descent at 10:17 a.m. (3:17 a.m. EDT) and then 10 minutes later, when they were 3.1 miles from earth, they were instructed to open their parachute, the radio said.

Their final pre-descent communication from ground control included a message from Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev wishing them "a happy landing," the radio said.

The mission, one of the briefest Soviet manned flights in recent years, opened a program of close space cooperation with other Communist nations.

Tass said it "has been fully carried out."

Bykovsky, the Soyuz 22 commander, reported on national television Wednesday night that he and flight engineer and flight engineer Aksenov had completed a rigorous 16-hour preparation program for landing.

They successfully tested the rocket motor on their tiny descent module, moved log books, film and other materials into the return vehicle and wrapped up the last of their experiments.

Tass news agency said the final scientific work involved the effect of cosmic ray particles on light-sensitive cells in the human eye.

Bykovsky, 42, and Aksenov, 41, were rocketed into Earth orbit Sept. 15 in the Soviet Union's third major space probe this summer.

Soviet scientists said their main task was to photograph for economic purposes large areas of the Soviet Union and East Germany.

Polio vaccine contract signed

ATLANTA (UPI) — A developing nationwide shortage of polio vaccine apparently ended Wednesday when the National Center for Disease Control signed a contract with a drug manufacturer for new supplies.

The manufacturer, Lederle Laboratories, will deliver 2.5 million doses of the vaccine by Oct. 4 and another 2.5 million doses by Oct. 18, according to a spokesman at the CDC.

If the federal government needs more vaccine, it can order it under an open-ended, minimum guarantee clause in the contract. The spokesman said.

All persons who take the vaccine will be given a statement outlining the drug's risks, the agreement between the drug company and the CDC states. The risk statements will be distributed to all local and state public health departments administering the vaccine.

Lederle insisted the CDC require all public health departments to warn recipients of the drug's possible side-effects. The drug company's demand has delayed the signing of the contract since the original agreement for the vaccine ran out in June.

The new agreement means vaccine supplies will start filtering into state health departments within the next two weeks.

The vaccine shortage came at a time of large demand for the drug when schools began fall vaccination programs.

The demand for the risk clause grew out of a Texas court case in which a vaccine manufacturer was held liable when a child who had received the vaccine developed polio. The polio vaccine uses a live virus to build up immunity to the crippling disease.

Campaign '76: California is the runner-up bowl

By JOHN BALZAR
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Californians voted by the millions in their favorite state to elect the White House, but home-state triumphs were not enough for Ronald Reagan or Jerry Brown.

Likewise, the victors just now are beginning to move into California, the richest of all prizes in the Nov. 2 election with 45 electoral votes.

Democratic Northern California headquarters only last Saturday, 44 days before the election. Some Democrats worry that he frittered away important organizational time.

Similarly, President Ford only recently could claim success in merging his California backers with the Reagan forces in what most Republicans now insist will be a unified GOP effort.

Just 10 days ago, state GOP Chairman Paul Haerle observed about the organizational efforts: "As they used to say about St. Louis baseball teams, I don't see how either of them can possibly win this thing."

Slowly, the campaign tempo has picked up, at least a little. Most active are Republicans, traditionally better organized in a state where they are outnumbered almost 2-to-1 by Democrats.

"The Ford people have done a pretty good job of getting the Reagan people involved in the campaign. You have to mobilize the Republican volunteers... For any Republican to win in this state you have got to identify the Republicans, independents and Democrats who will vote for you, and that's what they have done," said Mike Deaver, one of Reagan's top aides.

Democrats aren't quite that satisfied. The harmony displayed at the Democratic National Convention remains, but getting down to work is another thing.

"Yes, it's been slow," said Democratic Los Angeles Councilman David Cunningham, an early Carter supporter. "But you know Democrats are slow to move and quick to react."

As usual, California has an array of unassessed political ringers figuring in the race.

Attracting most of the attention is the "real" role that will be played by Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. and former Gov. Reagan. Both are pledged to campaign actively for their respective Democratic and Republican nominees.

But neither has been able to shake widespread belief among politicians that they will do the minimum required to keep in the good graces of their parties.

Another factor is the extremely close battle between Democratic Sen. John V. Tunney and his Republican opponent, S.I. Hayakawa, 70-year-old semantacist and former president of San Francisco State University.

Republicans hope that Hayakawa, a political newcomer and recent GOP convert, will attract independents and Democrats to the Republican ticket. Hayakawa rose to national prominence as a hard-liner against student rebellions in the 1960s, and last June defeated three party veterans to win the nomination.

Farm labor is yet another issue at play in the presidential race. Cesar Chavez and his United Farm Workers of America have qualified a ballot initiative to prevent legislative tinkering with Brown's landmark 1975 California agricultural labor relations law which gave farm workers the right to secret-ballot union representation elections.

Chavez is among the most skillful political organizers in the state and Carter, who has endorsed the ballot measure, can be expected to benefit from a massive street-corner voter registration drive led by Chavez volunteers.

California did not escape the congressional sex scandals, either.

Veteran Democratic Rep. Robert Leggett, a married father of three, is running scared in his district northeast of San Francisco after acknowledging that he maintained a mistress in Washington who bore him two other children.

The smart people still save at Hartford National

Back in 1792, when Noah Webster was beginning to write his dictionary in a West Hartford home, there were only five banks in the whole 13 United States.

advice, and credit, and even the 1792 version of checking. In fact, he never had to bother with another bank.

For a man who wrote the definition of saving, Hartford National added up. Even in 1792.

Smart man, Noah Webster. Things haven't changed all that much in 184 years. We don't print money anymore, and savings earn interest now. And the smart people still get more for their money by saving at Hartford National.

In fact, more than 180,000 smart people save at more than 60 Hartford National offices today.

It makes sense. We've had a long, long time to polish all the ways we can help you save. We've always modified different savings plans for different individual needs.

What's going on?

The scholastic soccer season is less than a week old and we've already had surprises galore. Perennial power Windsor Locks has lost twice and hasn't won yet — while the CCLL race appears to be a wide open dog fight.

Getting gears rolling

Never in my previous three football seasons has Manchester High not been on the varsity. That's exactly the case presently as 39 are listed on the varsity with another 26 slated for jayvee play on Tuesday.

Thoughts ApLENTY

By Len Auster

Western title may go to Royals but Oakland A's maintain pride

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Kansas City Royals may be able to wrest the American League West crown from the Oakland A's but they'll never be able to separate the five-time divisional champions from their pride.

"We never quit, even after our loss last night," said Tenace, commenting on the Royals' 3-1 victory over Oakland Tuesday night. "This club has a lot of pride."

As divisional champions. "If they win that will give them a lot of help." In other games, Baltimore swept a doubleheader New York, 2-0 and 5-2. Cleveland shut out Detroit 3-0. Boston downed Milwaukee 6-3. Minnesota beat Chicago 6-3 and Oakland 4-1.

NEW YORK (UPI) — There wasn't any champagne flowing in the New York Yankees locker room Wednesday night but there weren't any tears either.

The Yankees, having a chance to clinch their first pennant since 1964 with a doubleheader sweep over the Baltimore Orioles, lost both games instead, 2-0 and 5-2. Their magic number for clinching the American League East title remains at three.

Cheney Tech was thumped in its opening by Cromwell but came back Tuesday to drop a reportedly good Prince Tech club, 3-2. The key to the Beavers' success will be how well their defense stands up. They do have offensive prowess with Doug Victor and Doug Landry showing the way thus far.

So, at this week's job-site meeting, Director of Public Works Jay J. Giles said that a three-man survey crew from the town Engineering Department would do the relocation surveying.

Bits and pieces

Mark Twain once said, "the report of my death is greatly exaggerated," after reading his obituary in a newspaper account. The same can be applied to the Manchester High girls' cross country team. It's not buried.

MCC soccer team wins via shutout

The lack of offensive control and defensive errors proved to be the downfall for Eastern Connecticut State College's jayvee soccer team as it dropped a 6-0 verdict to Manchester Community College yesterday at Cougar Field.

Only Royal run of the night gets home — Kansas City Royals' George Brett slides into catcher Gene Tenace waits belated throw home ahead of the ball as Oakland A's Brett scored on hit by Hal McRae.

Good finish for Willoughby

BOSTON (UPI) — It looked like another sad chapter was going to be added to the 1976 story of the Jim Willoughby. However, the 27-year-old Red Sox right-hander pitched out of trouble and picked up his eighth save of the season as Boston defeated the Milwaukee Brewers, 6-3, Wednesday night.

Junior Whalers

The Hartford Junior Whalers will be starting their fourth hockey season with tryouts for boys in the Greater Hartford area. The tryouts will be for the Pee Wee (age 11-12) and Bantam (age 13-14) teams.

Country Club members to decide Open future

Members of the Manchester Country Club will decide at next month's meeting whether to continue support of the popular Manchester Open Golf Tournament, change the format or drop the September fixture entirely.

Noose tightens on Bucs as Phils near clinching

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Philadelphia Phillies, who only a few days ago appeared on the verge of total collapse, can clinch the National League's Eastern Division title with just six victories in their last 12 games.

They tightened the noose around the Pittsburgh Pirates' necks Wednesday night, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals, 9-4, after the Pirates dropped a 4-3 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

National League

Wednesday night, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals, 9-4, after the Pirates dropped a 4-3 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

Should the Phillies win six of their remaining 12 games, they would finish the season with 97 victories. The Pirates could then win all 10 of their remaining games and complete the season with only 96 wins.

"The right guys were coming to bat in the right situations," said Manager Danny Ozark of the Phillies following his team's third win in its last four games. "The nice thing is that just about everybody on the club was involved."

The Phillies scored eight runs in the last half of the eighth inning to overcome a 4-1 deficit.

Dick Allen, making a key contribution for the second straight game, singled home three runs, including two to highlight the eighth inning, which brought reliever Gene Garber his eighth victory. Allen's two-run single gave the Phillies a 4-4 lead and Bob Boone's fly-run singled and Bob Tolson's sacrifice fly added insurance runs.

The Cardinals knocked out Jim Kaat with four runs in the first inning but failed to score the rest of the way against five relievers, who allowed a total of three hits.

Joe Wallis singled with one out in the ninth inning, scoring rookie Jerry Tamm from second base and giving the Cubs their victory over the Pirates, who have lost five of their last six games. The Pirates had tied the score for the second time in the top of the eighth on singles by Dave Parker, Richie Zisk and Ed Ott. Kent Tekulve suffered his third loss against five wins for the Pirates.

The Cincinnati Reds, who already have clinched the NL's Western title, defeated the San Diego Padres, 4-3, the New York Mets topped the Montreal Expos, 4-2, the Houston Astros downed the Atlanta Braves, 5-2, and the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the San Francisco Giants, 3-1, in other NL games.

Veteran Hartsfield named Jays' skipper

TORONTO (UPI) — Veteran minor league Manager Roy Hartsfield says he is the best of nations in waiting to make the majors will be his strongest point as first manager of the American League Blue Jays.

"To say that I am very happy and excited to be here would be the understatement of the year. I've waited a long time to manage at the major league level."

Hartsfield said he will meet with Jays' Executive Vice President and General Manager Peter Bavasi during the next few days and will announce his four or five man coaching staff soon.

"I'd like to have nine jacksrabbits," he said, "conservatively, 75 to 80 per cent of the game."

Asked if he regretted leaving the sunny climes of Hawaii for a one-year contract in Toronto, Hartsfield said "to come out of the minor leagues to the big league level, it could be snowing out there and I wouldn't mind."

The Cardinals knocked out Jim Kaat with four runs in the first inning but failed to score the rest of the way against five relievers, who allowed a total of three hits.

Joe Wallis singled with one out in the ninth inning, scoring rookie Jerry Tamm from second base and giving the Cubs their victory over the Pirates, who have lost five of their last six games.

The Cincinnati Reds, who already have clinched the NL's Western title, defeated the San Diego Padres, 4-3, the New York Mets topped the Montreal Expos, 4-2, the Houston Astros downed the Atlanta Braves, 5-2, and the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the San Francisco Giants, 3-1, in other NL games.

Getting hold of the wrong object
Conard goalie Dave Morrissey came out of his net and went after the ball but instead got an arm full of Manchester's Bill Finnegan.

Johnny Miller back, favorite in Kaiser

NAPA, Calif. (UPI) — It's been three weeks since Johnny Miller played in a golf tournament, if he follows, he should win this week in the $75,000 Kaiser International starting today at Silverado.

"Almost every tournament I've won has been after I've come home to Napa and then gone back out again," he says. "I probably should go to a shrink and find out the reason why..."

Miller has won this event the last two years and it is played practically in his back yard. He has a big home near the 10th green.

Pats' ticket sales up
Noll said the Patriots were "impressive" against Miami.

"They just physically knocked the heck out of Miami, and impressed us considerably," Noll said. "The offensive line had a fantastic day."

New England coach Chuck Fairbanks said his team will have to be "right in there every second" if it hopes to defeat Pittsburgh.

"They are a complete football team," Fairbanks said. "They run, they pass, defend, have skillful players returning the ball on defense."

McGuire admitted
COLUMBIA, S.C. (UPI) — University of South Carolina Head Basketball Coach Frank McGuire is in a Columbia hospital today being treated for what doctors say is a possible bleeding ulcer.

McGuire was admitted to the Intensive Care Unit of Baptist Hospital Wednesday after he became ill while addressing a local civic club.

Sign lineman
PLEASANTVILLE, N.Y. (UPI) — Bill Ellenbogen, a player cut during training camp, has been signed by the New York Giants after all.

The Giants are desperate for some offensive line help to improve their running game.

The Patriots said people started calling for tickets for future games during halftime Sunday and it ended being the best day in the club's history for advance sales.

The Steelers, last season's Super Bowl champions, are viewing the upcoming game in Pittsburgh as a must win.

The Patriots beat the Patriots because we're down one right now in our division," Pittsburgh coach Chuck Noll said.

Pittsburgh is 1-1, the same record as the Patriots.
