TAX SHELTERED RETIREMENT SAVINGS. An ordinary worker could retire with $290,592.46 in his tax sheltered Heritage

Savings IRA (Individual Retirement Account), based on today's interest rates and tax laws. The worker in our example would deposit the $1500 annual maximum at today's 71/4% interest from age 30 to age 65. The tax savings alone would put him $153,345.89 ahead-just because he used a Heritage IRA account. The Heritage IRA account sure is a BETTER WAY to save for retirement-$153,345.89 better in this case. These figures are for IRA accounts with a $1500 annual deposit maximum. Keogh accounts for the self-employed accumulate even more funds with a $7500 maximum. If you don't have a pension, ask at any of our offices about tax sheltered retirement savings. You pay no income tax on the money you deposit and none on the interest it earns. You are taxed only as you withdraw funds during retirement when you are likely to be in a lower tax bracket. DEADLINE DEC. 31. To qualify for IRA or Keogh you must act by December 31. Now is the time to arrange your tax sheltered retirement savings account.

Rep. Richard Willard of the 11th District has been named vice-chairman of the House's Judiciary Committee. Willard is from East Hartford.

Figures compiled by the Connecticut Conference of Municipalities show that state towns and cities rank high in the nation in local taxes per person but the state government ranks in the bottom half in per capita taxes. Connecticut communities taxed at an average of $355 per capita in 1974-75, the last year for which national figures are available. This was the fifth highest rate in the nation. The national average for local taxes was $288

State taxes were $342 per capita, compared to a national average of $376 per person. The state ranked 30th out of the 50 states in this category.

Combining local and state taxes, Connecticut ranked 15th in the nation with a per capita tax of $697, compared

Gorman Park welcomes skaters

Plenty of wood helps keep the fire warm on the shore of Gorman Park's pond Tuesday afternoon. East Hartford Park and Recreation Department workers snowblow and sweep the ice. Workers at Gorman were Mark Crowley, Ronald Toce and Rene Beaudre. With temperatures in the teens Tuesday night, crowds increased. Martin Park off Burnside Ave. was also open to a good crowd. When the ice is thick and hard and the snow is cleared, the ponds are open to skating from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. with supervisors present. Today's heavy snow may prevent skating at Gorman. Workmen hope to get Martin Park plowed off by late today for skating tonight. The Laura Hale Music Shell is the structure in the background above. Its stage faces the hillside beyond. Because natural gas is the cleanest, most environmentally desireable, and most efficient energy source, we call our CNG Natural Energy Consultants "The Conservationists." Because it conserves natural energy and can cost up to 23% less to operate than older models, CNG's Conservationists are recommending A.O. Smith's Conservationist.

When you replace your water heater with an A.O. Smith Conservationist. you'll be using less energy because the Conservationist applies more of the gas that's burned to actually heating the water. And, the Conservationist has higher-efficiency insulation, a flue design that conserves even more energy, and a glasslined tank that holds in heat and that's covered by a

DEAR ABBY: After running a small, clean, home-owned grocery store for 36 years, I am going out of business. The wife and I worked hard—sometimes 15 hours a day, seven days a week—but with the large chain supermarkets moving in all around, we couldn't survive.

We gave people cradit when things were rough. Why not? They were our neighbors, our friends. We cashed their checks and never turned anybody down when they came around with tickets for raffles, church suppers, school plays, etc. We gave to all the worthy causes and school plays, etc. We gave to all the worthy causes and even placed their posters in our store to advertise sing events. (No supermarkets around here did that. Against company rules!) be those same people would drive right by our store to patronize the big markets because they thought they could save a few pennies. They didn't even bother to compare our prices or give us a chance to compete. So we're going out of business. Abby, please print this so people will realize that the home-owned businesses can't survive unless people give them a break. SAD IN SAVANNAH

DEAR SAD: It's sad indeed. I'm running your letter for all the honest, hard-working little people who deserve a break. I hope it helps.

DEAR ABBY: I need help and don't know where to turn My husband and I have been separated for over two years, and I still love him, but there is no chance of our getting back together again.
Abby, how do you stop loving somebody? I've beer going to group therapy meetings, but it has not helped to stop the ache in my heart. Misery may love company, but it doesn't make me feel any better. Maybe a reader who has gone through the same thing can give me some suggestions. ACHING HEART DEAR ACHING: You can't "kill" love. It has to die by itself. Don't dwell on thoughts of him and throw out all the reminders and souvenirs.

Force yourself to think of something else. Keep busy, and don't feel sorry for yourself. Tell yourself you deserve to be happy, and eventually you will be. Good luck.

DEAR ABBY: I wrote a letter to you one night, complaining that my husband gets moody and won't talk to me. We have a beautiful marriage except when my husband won't answer my simplest questions, such as:
"How's the weather outside?" "How's the car running?"
Well, I left that letter unsealed on my dresser and fell asleep before I put it away. The next day my husband said, I read that letter you wrote to Abby." And ever since I haven't been able to shut him up! You might tell your readers that if they want to get a message to their spouse, they should write you a letter and let it lay around unsealed. (P.S. I do not recommend this to women with violent husbands.) Thanks for the use of your important name.

DEAR J.P.: You are welcome.
