take appropriate actions to protect Connecticut's in Connecticut Rep. Astrid Hanzalek, R-Suffield, said she was under the impression Ajello would file suit against the plan if the welfare of downstream areas is not insured. The Connecticut River committees' in the two states oppose tapping the river at Northeast Utilities' Northfield Mountain pump station to the Quabbin Reservoir, which supplies metropolitan Boston with water. The Springfield, Mass., City Council and Connecticut Legislature are on record against the plan. "River communities i both states are concerned because the present and future water needs of been determined," said Mrs. Hanzelak.

"The Connecticut River Valley system has not yet been studied to determine exactly how much water can be withdrawn on either a daily or annual basis without damage," she said. The two groups asked the FPC not to approve the plan until-

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is in her senior year at college. She is a beautiful girl who has won many honors and beauty contests, but she never let it go to her head. She was always very popular with both boys and girls, and she never gave us any trouble. She wrote to tell us that she plans to get married after she wrote to tell us that she plans to get married after she graduates in June. The man (from what she says about him) is a fine person. He is her college professor. My husband is heartbroken and says if she marries him she can't set foot in our house again. You see, he is of a different color. I also feel that she would be better off marrying her own kind, but I would never turn her away How can I get my husband to change his mind and accept our daughter's husband even if he is white? We are black.

DEAR MOTHER: Remind your husband that for a people who have suffered from racial discrimination for centuries to insist on "reverse discrimination" in choosing mate makes no sense. He'll lose his daughter and gain nothing for his race.

MICHIGAN MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: I am a 40-year-old divorced woman who came to visit Chicago from a foreign country last October. Without going into detail, I find myself now in a most stressing circumstance. I am confirmed to be pregnant. The man has left me, and I am without friends, without funds and no source of

I will not submit to an abortion as it is against my religious principles. Where can I get help? I feel my obligation to give life to this child, but I cannot see my way clear to be a proper mother and raise a child. Please, please help me.

STRANDED IN CHICAGO DEAR STRANDED: Call BIRTHRIGHT-312-233-0353. A courteous, understanding woman will answer all your questions and offer suggestions that are alternatives to portion. At no cost to you you will be offered medical care for yourself, and arrangements for the adoption of your child. Counseling is available free, too. I urge you to call them at once. Good luck and God bless. Please let me know how you make out. I care.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who has two daughters, ages 7 and 5. The 5-year-old strangled her cat with a ribbon and seemed very pleased with herself. When I asked her whatever made her do such a terrible thing, she said, "My brain told me to do it," and she showed no remorse

The 7-year-old confided that she has been stealing money from her friends and school supplies from school. She says she knows it is wrong, but she can't stop doing it. The girls' mother knows all this, and says she doesn't see anything "unusual" about it. ("All kids steal and kill animals—it's just a part of growing up.") She even hides these facts from her husband. I am worried sick. Tell me what to do before it's too la

DEAR FRIEND: The mother and daughters need treatment, and as a friend who's "worried sick." you should tell the woman's husband what's going on immediately!
