Unemployment is one of the most frustrating problems facing Connecticut. That's all the more reason why the Connecticut insurance industry is proud of the way we are helping our economy survive these troubled times.

Because, right now, we're providing paydays for more people than ever before!

Today, 35,000 people living in 156 different Connecticut towns work in Connecticut's life, health and property-casualty companies. We support 15,000 Connecticut agents, brokers and their employees. And we create work for 71,000 of our neighbors who depend upon servicing and supplying our business.

It all adds up. You'll find about 10% of the State's total work force-121,000 people- earning a total of two billion dollars in payrolls...living in Connecticut, buying goods and services in Connecticut, paying Connecticut's taxes, stimulating Connecticut's economy.

What's more, the latest figures show a 13% yearly increase for insurance investment in Connecticut's economy. Promoting the growth of housing, shopping centers, schools, hospitals, colleges, expressways, utilities. And helping sustain jobs for still 8,000 more people.

Employment and investment add up to stability and growth, two vital economic bonuses from Connecticut's concerned insurance industry whose paydays help everyone in the State.

'Cabinet' is shadowy gimmick

WASHINGTON - There's never been any shortage of pretentious ideas in American politics, but some self-anointed conservative gurus have come up with a gimmick that is Fad come and go Semantic Yads come and go. A decade or so ago, it was fashionable to be a "liberal." Most voters pay little attention to ideological labels when casting their ballots. They choose a specific candidate because they like his style, approve of his views on concrete issues which concern them, appreciate the service he gives his constituents or simply dislike his opponent. If Conservatives want more atten-

Board continues budget hassling

By SHEILA TULLER Herald Correspondent

In order to have its 1977-78 budget on Mayor Richard Blackstone's desk by Monday, the East Hartford Board of Education hassled with figures into the early hours of this morning. The board had begun meeting at Penney High School at 7:30 p.m. School Supt. Eugene Diggs proposed a budget of $21,022,690 many weeks ago. The board has been paring this down since. Board members cite rising costs and declining enrollments as they cut. Singe the first budget workshop in early February, the board has cut many thousands. Exact figures are not clear yet. Round robin cut One cut made Monday night was $600 from the proposed $83,570 athletic budget for lower grades. The $600 was to cover costs of a double, round robin basketball tour- Custodians nament at the middle school level. Lionel McCabe, director of athletics, had proposed it. middle school principals Helen Jeffries, George Scheyd and Gerald Welch, supported it. But the board said "no." Center School Principal James

Fallon said he prefers more intramural sports at the middle school By cutting the proposed second round of the annual tournament, the board also cut $1,000 for busing the ford High School varsity teams, a blocking sled for the Hornet football team and a vaulting pit for the track

Penney Principal Donald Cramer argued for more sports funds for his Penney now has 441 boys and 173 girls in interscholastic sports. About one third of the boys are in more than one sport, he said.

There are also 137 students in the band, the cheerleaders and baton twirlers. For a student body totaling about 1,680, this is good student support and it is growing, he said. Most rapid growth has been in girls' sports and in the co-ed cross country team.

"The sense of achievement on the part of the teen-agers is great," said

The Penney cost for coaches, game officials, training supplies and related costs is about $32 000

The sports budgets were settled quickly, compared to the first item on Monday's agenda, the custodians. After a series of rejected motions, the board set aside the custodial account. The board could not agree on the number of custodians to employ next year

Dr. Diggs had urged 102.5 positions. Board member Richard Daley urged only 75. Dr. Diggs disagreed with points in Daley's detailed report. "We have to bite the bullet somewhere," Daley said. Well after midnight, they made no more cuts. The board kept asking questions of the attending principals Many had asked for new equipment. The board will hold its final budge workshop Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at refreshments or to just go ahead and serve something. You said. "The gracious hostess doesn't inquire—she acts. Serve whatever you have, but drop-in guests shouldn't expect a feed-in." I disagree with you, Abby.

I am a pastor's wife, and oh, how I wish well-meaning parishioners would quit feeding my husband! His clothes are bursting at the seams. He is earnestly trying to lose weight, but with all the calls he has to make and people shoving goodies at him constantly, it is almost impossible for him to stay on a diet.

I am not saying he doesn't enjoy eating, because he does.

But it would be so much easier for him to refuse if he were asked, instead of served. Please publish this. It might help. But don't use my name or the town from which this came.

DEAR ABBY: OFTEN A GUEST'S letter prompts me to say that I too have often been a guest in the homes of friends who know perfectly well that I am a Mormon. Yet they still say, "Shall I fix some coffee? Or would you rather Mormons drink neither coffee or tea. Thank you.

Abby, please remind those thoughtless people that wrapping up a little piece for me to take home?"

Now, Abby, you know I'm not going to wrap up ONE piece of bread or one slice of pie for a whole family. So there went a whole loaf of bread and a whole pie!
