TOTALPHONE *! The incredible new computerized phone service that acts as your personal home secretary, works for only about 13° a day [24 hours a day, every day) and never takes a coffee break!

Five Extraordinary Totalphone Features:

Call Forwarding Totalphone gives you added security for your home by letting you answer your phone even when you're not there. A simple code allows you to transfer incoming calls to another number any time you want to. So when you're away for a long vacation or just an evening, you can forward calls to where you're going and answer yourself, or transfer calls to a friend or neighbor's phone.

Call Waiting When you're already on the phone and someone else is trying to reach you, Totalphone sounds two beeps. By putting the first call on "hold" you can answer the second. So the kids can talk and Dad won't worry about missing the important call he expects.

Speed Calling With Totalphone, Mom in California who was eleven turns around the dial away is suddenly only a beep and a boop away! Totalphone codes your frequently called local or long distance and emergency numbers so you can reach them as fast as you can push two buttons!

Three-way Calling Totalphone lets you add a third party to your two-way conversation whenever you want to! So when you're talking with your sister across town, you can add Mom in New York and all talk together (without operator assistance)!

Touch-Tone Phones Totalphone service replaces dial phones with modern Touch-Tone® (push-button) phones. Touch-Tone is faster and more accurate than dialing. It's more fun, too, because each button plays a melodic note! Wall or desk Touch-Tone Totalphone gives Southern you many decorator colors to

DEAR ABBY: I am a 52-year-old widow who is being pestered by a backelor in whom I have no interest. But HE I work from 8 to 5, and when I come home I find him ttering around in my garden, or sweeping my garage or I told him I am not interested in marriage, sex, love or s live-in companion. He said HE was.

I don't want to have him arrested for trespassing on my property or harassing me, because I don't think he's

How can I get this man to leave me alone without going NOT THAT LONESOME

DEAR NOT: TELL him you will have him arrested if he doesn't stay off your property and quit bothering you. And if that doesn't work, you may have to call the police. He may not be dangerous, but you have a right to be left DEAR ABBY: My husband and I gave our married son (who lives near us) a key to our home so he can come here to check up on things when we're out of town.

Well, it seems that while we're away, he and his wife come in and borrow whatever they want. We don't even know what they've borrowed until we look for something and can't find it. (I refer to serving trays, linen, card tables, garden tools and bottles from our bar!)
We've always been on good terms with our children and want to stay that way, but we think they have their nerve sant to stay that way, out we think they have their selping themselves to our things and not returning them. Is there any way we can get our key back and put a stop the stay their sellings? to this without demanding it and hurting their feelings?
PHILADELPHIA PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: What's wrong with the direct approach? Simply ask them to return: [a] everything they've borrowed; [b] the key. And don't be bashful about elling them why.

DEAR ABBY: As a professional musician, I know I speak for all pianists and organists who have performed at parties and have wanted to tell the guests the following: Please do not:

1. Sit on the bench with me and engage me in conversation. It makes it impossible for me to perform.

2. Place drinks on the organ or plane. (I've had whole drinks fall on the keyboard and saturate the organ.) Decide that you can play, too, and then proceed to fiddle with the keys while I am playing.

 Sing loudly into my ear.
 Abby, you would be doing all musicians a trememdous favor if you'd publish this. R.G.R., THIBODAUX, LA.

DEAR R.G.R.: Consider it done. CONFIDENTIAL TO "NEW READER" IN BEND, OREGON: You've gone from bed to worse. Bend is a very small town for people with big mouths. Take my advice and move to Portland.

Richard Kennedy, a VFW member, gets plenty of attention as he gives a pint of his blood to the Red Cross during a Bloodmobile visit to VFW Post 2083 on Bidwell St., East Hartford, Saturday. Mrs. Gertrude Feinstein, right, makes it easy for him. Mrs. Helen Medeiros tells him blood donors helped her survive recent open heart surgery. Chester Hanson, post member who arranged the Saturday session, said there were 57 donors. Mrs. Feinstein, staff nurse, said this was excellent for a first time and for an Easter weekend. winning the Masters should stop all that talk about "choking."

The specter of those recent lastround leads he blew in the Tournament Players Championship and the Heritage Classic haunted him all week. But that was before he staved off a charge by Jack Nicklaus Sunday.

"I don't think we need to talk about choking now," Watson said after "I knew we were even at 14," said "licklaus." I was thinking playoff when I teed off at 18. But when I heard Tom had made a birdie at 17, I had to change my strategy. I thought I had it all worked out, but I hadn't allowed for someone else making a birdie. I wasn't prepared for that."

Watson certainty had an opportunity to "choke" again Sunday. With nine holes to play, he led five-time Masters winner Nicklaus by four strokes. Five holes later, they were tied.

"I knew we were even at 14," said in the twosome immediately ahead."

DEAR ABBY: I am a 52-year-old widow who is being pestered by a bachelor in whom I have no interest. But HE is interested in ME. I work from 8 to 5, and when I come home I find him outtering around in my garden, or sweeping my garage or

I told him I am not interested in marriage, sex, love or a live-in companion. He said HE was.

I don't want to have him arrested for trespassing on my property or harassing me, because I don't think he's How can I get this man to leave me alone without going

DEAR NOT: TELL him you will have him arrested if he doesn't stay off your property and quit bothering you. And if that doesn't work, you may have to call the police. He may not be dangerous, but you have a right to be left

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I gave our married son (who lives near us) a key to our home so he can come here to check up on things when we're out of town.

Well, it seems that while we're away, he and his wife come in and borrow whatever they want. We don't even know what they've borrowed until we look for something and can't find it. (I refer to serving trays, linen, card tables, garden tools and bottles from our bar!)
We've always been on good terms with our children and want to stay that way, but we think they have their nerve elping themselves to our things and not returning them. is there any way we can get our key back and put a stop o this without demanding it and hurting their feelings? PHILADELPHIA PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: What's wrong with the direct approach? Simply ask them to return: [a] everything they've borrowed; [b] the key. And don't be bashful about

DEAR ABBY: As a professional musician, I know I speak for all planists and organists who have performed at parties and have wanted to tell the guests the following:

1. Sit on the bench with me and engage me in onversation. It makes it impossible for me to perform.

2. Place drinks on the organ or piano. (I've had whole on fall on the keyboard and saturate the organ.) Decide that you can play, too, and then proceed to fiddle with the keys while I am playing. Sing loudly into my ear.
 Abby, you would be doing all musicians a trememdous favor if you'd publish this. R.G.R., THIBODAUX, LA.

DEAR R.G.R.: Consider it done. CONFIDENTIAL TO "NEW READER" IN BEND, OREGON: You've gone from bed to worse. Bend is a very small town for people with big mouths. Take my advice and move to Portland.
