Oil is still gushing

STAVANGER, Norway (UPI) - A daredevil team of American troubleshooters boarded an oil drilling platform in the midst of the North Sea today in a six-hour effort to try again to shut off a gusher well that went wild five days ago.

The well has been blowing wild at the rate of 28,000 barrels a day in a plume 120 feet high since Friday polluting the sea with crude oil, gas

Agsar "Boots" Hansen and Richard "Toots" Hatteberg of the Red Adair Fire and Blowout Prevention Co. of Houston, Tex. and the rest of their crew was taken off the platform after six hours of work.

"All steps in the operation require fresh, well-rested people," a spokesman said. "Everything is going according to plan."

Atop the $100 million Bravo Plat- of gallons of crude oil form, a metal giant resting on the seabed, Hansen and Hatteberg and their team worked at the dangerous, dirty and difficult job of putting the oil genii back into its bottle.

What they were trying to do, in effect, was to put a faucet on the pipe so they could turn it off. Shore officials also were uncertain how long it might take to cap the runaway

"We have no exact timing on this." Blauw said.

"Out there" was the stricken Bravo platform in the Ekofisk field, Europe's largest offshore operating field. It was the first North Sea field to come into operation.

The 14th of 17 wells drilled into the seabed from Bravo platform erupted Friday night an uncontrolled gusher, ouling the sea with tens of thousands American skimming equipment gathered from the U.S. East, West, and Gulf coasts - was on its way to help clean up the oil slick, said Hans Christian Bugge, director of the Norwegian Environmental Protection Office.

Winds which made today's capping operation possible kept the oil slick pinned in the middle of the North Sea, Bugge said. It was 130 nautical miles from the Norwegian shore.

Bugge said there had been no reports yet of dead fish or other

Hansen and Hatteberg, from Paul "Red" Adair's famed oil disaster company were in command of the capping operation. They worked amid leaking gas where one spark could explode a deadly fire.

Moses says 'no' to team

By GREG PEARSON

Herald Reporter Town Counsel Victor I. Moses has ruled that a quitclaim deed to eight out-of-town residents does not make them eligible to play in the Town of Manchester's top women's softball

DEAR ABBY: I would like to respond to DISGUSTED IN SOSTON about his concern for beauty on the streets and in the shopping centers. "Queen-sized" women in tight pants are indeed unsightly, if not klutzy.

However, has it occurred to DISGUSTED that while he is so zealously championing legislation against such visual pollution, he might also include certain male klutzes?

I refer to men with offensively protruding beer bellies thinly covered by overstretched T-shirts. Trousers cannot begin to scale such heights and dutifully ride low, all the better to reveal proud displays of ridiculously laden, overstuffed abdomess. overstuffed abdomens.

You see, DISGUSTED, there are two sides to every coin and, really, personal decorum rests with the individual. Or should we also attempt to make illegal body odor, runs in stockings, nail biting, etc.?

Poor taste is hardly a matter for legislation, and while there is much to be said for a More Beautiful America, surely there are more weighty problems on which we should expend our efforts!

SEES BOTH SIDES IN N.C. DEAR BOTH: It's only fair to show both sides. And I'm

DEAR ABBY: I invited 22 people to my home for Easter Sunday dinner at noon. Everyone but my husband's brother and his wife accepted. She said, "I'm sorry, I brother and his wife accepted. She said, "I'm sorry, I already promised my mother we'd go to her house for the noon meal, but we'll be hungry again at 7 p.m. so we'll come to your house for leftovers. Okay, honey?"

Not knowing what else to say, I said, "Okay."

Well, they came at 7 p.m. with three other couples I didn't even know, and cleaned me out of all my leftovers and ran.

I stood in my kitchen doing dishes until midnight. I'm plenty burned up because I had plans for those leftovers.
I'll leave it up to you, Abby. How could I have gotten out of letting her come when she invited herself?
TUCKERED OUT IN TORRANCE

DEAR TUCKERED: Just because people invite themselves is no reason to make them welcome. You could have said, "I'm sorry, but my dinner party is t NOON, and I expect to be tuckered out at 7 p.m., so let's make it some other time. Okay, honey?"

DEAR ABBY: I am steaming mad about all of the pollution going on. Not just air and water pollution, but ittering. Today at lunch, I saw a middle-aged woman sit in her car in a restaurant parking lot and throw not ONE but THREE paper napkins out the window.

Being responsible citizens, my girlfriend and I picked them up and calmly handed them back to her through her open window and said. "I think you dropped these."

At this point she got hot and mouthy. I calmly informed her that what she did was against the law and was called "littering." Then I walked away. littering." Then I walked away.

What kind of example is the older generation setting for young people today if this is their normal practice?
SUSIE IN W. COVINA

DEAR SUSIE: A very bad one. And good for you and your girlfriend for having the courage and taking the time to do as you did.

In addition, due to being reared in a home where domestic violence is frequent, all four of her children have sought emotional counseling through their respective schools. What sparks these abusive tirades? Even Nancy, his wife of so many years, isn't sure.

"Drinking has become a problem: he still has a lot of pressure at work. But it can be a simple thing like not can trigger the abuse," she said. Nancy, who says her husband is a good provider, admits there have been times when she has driven herself to an area hospital emergen-

Q. When must studded tires be removed from a motor vehicle? A. Studded tires are per mitted from Oct. 15 to April 30; therefore, they must be removed by the end of the month. A law passed in 1976 completely prohibits studded tires after April 30, 1978. Q. It's "that time of th year." a reader reminds us, when motorcyclists and bicyclists are out riding in numbers again. What rights, privileges and courtesies are due them? A. These riders deserve the same courtesies as the driver of a car, as long as they are obeying the rules. These include, for instance, riding with and not against traffic. Some tips concerning cyclists: · Your horn may startle cyclists, causing them to veer into your path. When you approach, slow down and give them a wide

DEAR ABBY: I would like to respond to DISGUSTED IN BOSTON about his concern for beauty on the streets and in the shopping centers. "Queen-sized" women in tight pants are indeed unsightly, if not klutzy.

However, has it occurred to DISGUSTED that while he However, has it occurred to DISGUSTED that while he is so zealously championing legislation against such visual pollution, he might also include certain male klutzes?

I refer to men with offensively protruding beer bellies thinly covered by overstretched Tehirta. Trousers cannot begin to scale such heights and dutifully ride low, all the better to reveal proud displays of ridiculously laden, overstuffed abdomens.

You see, DISGUSTED, there are two sides to every coin and really personal decorum reasts with the individual On

A game being played to help avert World Hunger

Youths of Emanuel Lutheran Church and Concordia Lutheran Church participate in a 24hour volleyball marathon to raise money for World Hunger at Concordia. From 2 p.m. last Sunday to 2 p.m. Monday, 35 youths and five adults totaled 562 hours of continual playing. The total proceeds from the benefit marathon have not yet been figured. The proceeds will go to the Manchester Council on World Hunger, The Rev. Ronald Fournier, chairman of the council, said that anyone wishing to do so may donate to the hunger program. (Herald photo

Intratown meetings a success

Manchester Town Manager Robert B. Weiss and Eighth Utilities District President Michael Massaro met Tuesday afternoon and both spoke in positive terms about the session

Weiss had requested the meeting to discuss sewer projects that the town has proposed north of Middle Tpke. District officials say that, according to Special Act 200, Board of Directors, have to vote approval of the proposal.

Weiss sought the meeting after the town directors voted to appropriate $110,000 in planning costs for a sewer installation in the Baldwin-Concord Rd. area. The district, however, has yet to act on the proposal. It is expected to vote Monday.

Weiss and town directors have also expressed interest in obtaining a guarantee from the district that it will not later attempt to provide sewer service in areas where the town is now seeking to install sewers. This will protect the town's investment, town officials say.

No specific agreements were reached at Tuesday's meeting, but both Weiss and Massaro said that it helped iron out some areas.

"I thought we came out of the meeting very well. We understand each other," Massaro said. Weiss called the meeting

'satisfactory" and said, "I think we will be able to work out the sewer projects of mutual concern."

Camper dies

VOLUNTOWN (UPI) - State police tipped off by an anonymous telephone caller found the body of a 23-year-old camper today in the Patchaug State Forest.

Authorities said David Martin of Groton had been shot. No other details were available

The body was found at a campsite apparently set up by the victim near Voluntown, state police said.

Lawrence R. Dunn

Win Merit Scholarships

Lawrence R. Dunn, a Manchester High shool senior, and Patricia D. Novak of South Windsor have been named winners of college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships by the National Merit Scholarship Corp.

The area students are among 1,500 national finalists. The awards are offered with the stipulation that they be used at the sponsoring in-stitutions. The scholarships are renewable for up to four years of undergraduate study but are not transferable to another college or university.

Dunn, who has compiled a long list of achievements at Manchester High, has chosen not to accept the scholarship which is for Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. He will be attending Dartmouth College next fall.

Dunn was also named recently as the recipient of a United Technologies Scholarship. He was a respresentative to Connecticut Boys State and to Connecticut's Mock U.N. Assembly earlier this month.

Dunn is also active in the MHS Student Assembly, in intramural basketball, High School World and is a contributor to "Aridian," the literaryart magazine. His field of study will be math and economics.

He is the son of Mr.

Robert M. Dunn of 814 Vernon St. Miss Novak is a senior at Loomis-Chaffee School in Windsor. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Novak of 170 Valley View Dr., South

Windsor Her scholarship is from the University of Rochester, N.Y., which she plans to attend. Her chosen field of study will be science or the classics. Miss Novak is an associate in the Loomis-Chaffee Theater, in which she has done considerable work. She is also a member of a Windsor ballet

At the school, Miss Novak is on the yearbook and newspaper staffs and the editorial board of the schools literary magazine.
