BRIDGEPORT (UPI) — Connecticut Treasurer Henry E. Parker thinks the problem still plaguing black Americans is lack of political power and economic achievement. "What good is the right to sit at the lunch counter, if we don't have the money for coffee and a sandwich?" he asked today.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A small tax cut and greatly simplified forms are all but assured for those Americans who don't have enough expenses to itemize deductions next April 15. Three of every four taxpayers are expected to receive tax cuts of about $100 to $200 and to file on forms that require no calculations in determining how much tax is owed — not even basic addition and subtraction.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (UPI) — The South African government, bowing to pressure from black officials, says it will not enforce rent increases in Soweto that touched off demonstrations earlier this week. A delegation from Soweto's Urban Bantu (African) Council, the black ghetto's equivalent of a city council, flew to Cape Town Friday to meet government officials to discuss the rent hikes, which were scheduled to take effect Sunday.

HARTFORD (UPI) — Reported crimes in Hartford dropped 29 percent, an average of 15 crimes a day, the first three months of this year compared to the same period last year, according to police. The largest area of decrease was in property crimes, including burglaries and auto thefts.

HARTFORD (UPI) — The chairman of the rate controlling panel for Connecticut's utilities says he favors a rate increase for Northeast Utilities if it means the early completion of a nuclear power generating plant. Albert Kleban, head of the Public Utilities Control Authority, said Friday if the plant starts up earlier than planned, it could help the state's largest utility avoid costly conversion of some plants from oil to coal.

KINSHASA, Zaire (UPI) — Zaire government forces are under orders to "hunt down" retreating rebels who invaded southern Shaba province seven weeks ago and block their withdrawal into Angola. President Mobutu Sese Seko told the official news agency AZAP Friday paratroopers dropped behind rebel lines would try to round them up rather than allow them to slip back to Angola, from where they launched the invasion March 8.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Surface mining of coal, which left the hills of Appalachia scarred and now threatens the western Great Plains, may soon be under a federal law requiring land reclamation. Congress passed similar strip mining bills twice before only to see them vetoed by President Gerald Ford, who claimed they would cut production and increase unemployment.

KEY LARGO, Fla. (UPI) — The Gulf Stream was helping to break up two huge oil spills that threatened one of the world's prime fishing and diving areas today, and the Coast Guard called in oil containment units to make sure the slicks remained offshore. The heavy, chocolate-brown concentrations clogged a 30-mile area offshore from Marathon and Islamorada in the Florida Keys. Just a shiny ribbon of oil streaked the waters closer to Miami.

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Republican party marked the first 100 days of the Carter administration by attacking the President's energy program, criticizing his instant voter registration plan and proposing to bring more blacks into the party of Lincoln. The Republican National Committee winds up its two-day meeting today — the first held outside Washington in a decade — with passage of a $250,000 plan to recruit more black Republican candidates.

HARTFORD (UPI) — Opponents of the $1.91 billion budget offered by the Democratic leadership and endorsed by Gov. Ella T. Grasso today faced the first of an expected series of attempts to sidetrack it.

The budgetmaking Appropriations Committee scheduled an unusual Saturday session when dissident Democrats combined with Republicans to postpone Thursday's scheduled vote on the spending and tax plan.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Carter met with several top advisers today at the White House as he prepared the final draft of his welfare reform package. Wearing dungarees and an open collared shirt, the President sat in the Cabinet Room and told those around him he wanted to know the areas of agreement and disagreement.

Area girl Loyalty Day state queen

Miss Linda McCarthy, Manchester's VFW "Loyalty Day Queen," Friday night was named the state "Loyalty Day Queen" at a ball in Putnam.

Miss McCarthy, who represented the Anderson-Shea Post at Friday night's Loyalty Day Ball, will reign over the state Loyalty Day parade in Putnam, Sunday.

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McCarthy of Main St., Talcottville. She will be graduating in June from Rockville High School, where she is a member of the cheerleaders team. She is planning to attend Bander College, a fashion design academy in Miami, Fla., in the fall.

She has been a model for several years, but is more interested in fashion design, her father said.

One dies, four hurt when car hits tree

An 18-year-old Manchester resident was killed and four other town teenagers were injured in a one-car accident that occurred shortly after 12:30 a.m. today on E. Middle Tpke.

Chris G. Winot, 18, of 181 Glenwood St., was dead on arrival at Manchester Memorial Hospital, according to police and hospital reports. Winot was a passenger in the front seat of the vehicle, police said.

The operator of the auto, William Doll, 17, of 166A Tudor Lane, and three other passengers were also injured. Doll, Dean LeBlanc, 16, and Pamela LeBlanc, 18, both of 47 Kensington St. were treated and released at Manchester Memorial Hospital. The fifth person in the vehicle, Brian J. Dochery, 18, of 22 Ashworth St., was admitted and is in satisfactory condition, according to a hospital spokesperson.

Police said that the vehicle was westbound on E. Middle Tpke. when it went out of control off the side of the road near the intersection with Welcome Pl. The car hit a tree and a fence before coming to a stop, police said. The accident is still under investigation and no charges have been filed, police said.

Winot was born in Manchester and had lived here all his life and was a graduate of Manchester schools. He was a member of South United Methodist Church.

He is survived by his parents, Mrs. Grace Johnson Winot of Manchester and Lester C. Winot of Hartford; two brothers, Bruce D. Winot and Dennis C. Winot, both of Manchester; and two sisters, Mrs. John (Mary) Mumford and Mrs. Donald (Gienna) Covil, both of Manchester.

The Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St., is in charge of arrangements, which are incomplete.

The family suggests that any memorial gifts may be made to the American Cancer Society, 337 E. Center St., or to the Heart Association of Greater Hartford, 310 Collins St., Hartford.

Union denies town charges

Robert Fuller, president of the union representing blue-collar workers in the Public Works Department, has denied the charges made by the Town of Manchester against the union.

The town has filed a charge of failure to bargain in good faith against the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, Local 991. The town and the union are presently in the binding arbitration stage of labor negotiations.

"I believe it's not proper, and it's not true," Fuller said of the town's allegation.

The binding arbitration step includes final contract presentations by both the town and the union. A three-person board appointed by the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration decides on one of the two proposed contracts.

The town charges that Local 991, in presenting a contract proposal for binding arbitration, failed to include a dozen items that had previously been agreed upon by the two parties.

Fuller said Friday afternoon that the agreements reached in the 12 areas were only "tentative" ones, which are subject to change before the final contract is signed.

The Connecticut State Board of Labor Relations has set up an informal hearing on the town's complaint for Monday, May 16 at 10 a.m. Peter C. Horn, an assistant labor relations agent, will conduct the hearing.

Meanwhile, binding arbitration proceedings with the town and both Local 991 and the Manchester Police Union, Local 1465, are continuing.

The town and Local 991 have scheduled sessions for Monday and Friday. The town and the police union have scheduled a session for Wednesday, May 16.

$14.7 million budget proposed for schools

By GREG PEARSON

Herald Reporter

The Manchester Board of Directors Friday night proposed a $14,707,500 education budget and an $80,000 budget for town council's office. The education budget is $130,000 less than that proposed by Town Manager Robert B. Weiss, but is an $832,000 increase over what the Board of Education is expected to spend for the present fiscal year.

The increase proposed by the directors for 1977-78 educational spending marks a six per cent hike over the present year, a guideline that the board has attempted to place on all town departments.

The directors also learned that the six per cent across-the-board increase would result in a cut of 3.35 mills from the General Fund tax rate proposed by Weiss.

Paula Yellman, the budget analyst, said that the six per cent figure, if added to present-year expenditures, would cut $1,008,000 from the budget proposed by Weiss. The manager's budget called for a 9.43-mill increase.

Republican Paul Willhide, long a critic of increased educational costs, said of the proposed $130,000 cut in school budget, "They (the Board of Education) could do that like rolling off a log." The other Republicans on the board — Carl Zinsner and Vivian Ferguson — said that they felt there were several programs the Board of Education could do away with. But the directors generally agreed that the education budget should receive equal treatment with other town departments.

One budget that will receive more than a six per cent increase is the town council's office, which expects to spend $64,000 for the present fiscal year.

Mayor Matthew Moriarty voiced the most support for the larger increase for the council's office. Pointing out that the town council has about 150 pending cases, he called the $80,000 "a minimum amount" that could be given the department for 1977-78. In fact, Moriarty, along with fellow Democrat Beldon Schaffer, supported a $90,000 figure for the budget.

The directors proposed that the town council remain a part-time position to be appointed by the majority party. The assistant town counsel, however, would become a full-time permanent position at a salary of $17,000, according to the board's proposal. The directors also approved the budgeting of $7,000 in contingency to be used to hire another part-time assistant, or to contract attorneys as needed.

Present Town Counsel Victor I. Moses had recommended the creation of a permanent full-time town counsel to provide a constant worker in the office. This, however, would have taken the position out of the hands of the majority party. Thus, the directors Friday voted to support a part-time town counsel with a full-time assistant.

The board also agreed to increase the Police Department budget to a figure recommended by Weiss that is slightly more than a six per cent increase over the present year.

Under the six per cent guideline, the police budget would have been $1,951,000. Weiss' recommendation is $1,983,925.

Zinsner objected to the increase above the six per cent limit for the police, but Moriarty defended the move.

"You're talking about public safety, not potholes. You can treat this budget differently, and you should," Moriarty said. He said that he could not, "in good conscious," vote for a police budget lower than the manager's recommendation.

Oil well flow stopped

STAVANGER, Norway (UPI) — A daredevil crew headed by famed Texas oil well troubleshooter Red Adair today finally shut off a gusher that had blown wild for a week in the middle of the North Sea.

"It's off 'The flow is stopped'" shouted Phillips Petroleum officials as the 120-foot geyser of crude oil, gas and mud subsided.

The legendary Paul N. "Red" Adair stopped it at 11:35 a.m. (6:35 a.m. EDT) using the first method his assistants tried earlier in the week — a pair of what oilfield workers call "blind rams" thrust together inside an upside down valve on top of the well.

Both times Adair's men tried the same technique, the "blind rams" held for only seconds, then blew out again.

But Adair, 62, founder of his own Red Adair Oil Well Fires & Blowouts Control Co. of Houston and mustering the experience which has made him the world's main oil well disaster fighter, tried one of the tricks he promised when he flew here Friday.

"They extended the stroke of the blind rams, so that they went together at a greater pressure," an oil company spokesman said. "This was enough to contain the pressure of the well."

Since 10:30 p.m. April 22, the well had spouted in an awesome fountain, spewing 28,000 barrels tons of crude oil a day into the North Sea. The resulting oil slick spread over some 2,100 square miles, an area larger than Delaware. But a lucky combination of currents and winds kept it in the center of the North Sea where it

East Hartford mayor asks only .6 mill budget hike

By MAL BARLOW

East Hartford Reporter

A smiling Richard Blackstone Friday unveiled to the press a town budget calling for only a .6 mill tax increase.

The mayor's proposed budget calls for spending of $34,422,563 for the fiscal year 1977-78. The current budget is $32,910,360.

The tax rate he recommends to meet this budget is 47.2 mills. The current rate is 46.8.

How can he keep the rate so low? "Our form of government is better," Mayor Blackstone said. "It's the serious attitude we take in the development of the budget."

Other towns in the state are facing rate hikes of over 10 per cent this year. And most are not run by a strong mayor as in East Hartford but by town managers or weak mayors and strong councils.

"The town manager form means the town's council gets a budget proposal they must cut. With this form (in East Hartford), we don't."

The mayor said he expects the Town Council will approve his proposed budget with only minor changes. Changes might be forced on them by changes in expected state and federal funds.

"There can't be large cuts," he said. "We have tried to boil this down as tight as we could."

The budget is 4.6 per cent higher than the current budget. Of the increase, $896,854 is in the town administration portion and $616,349 is for the Board of Education. The largest single new item is $142,562 in higher payments to the Metropolitan District Commission.

Higher payments to workers and higher material costs are reflected throughout the budget.

The mayor recommended the school board make a total of $199,000 in its budget request of nearly $20 million. His biggest suggested cuts were in the custodial and transportation areas.

The board does not have to follow his suggestions. The Town Council can approve or deny the board's budget, but it cannot change it.

The board meets Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Penney High School to discuss their budget. They meet jointly with the council Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Town Hall to discuss it further. The council will hold a public hearing on the budget Thursday, May 12 at the Town Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The council will give the final word on the budget and the tax rate Wednesday, May 18.

Group homes do well, but need volunteers

Group homes, often resented and feared in many communities, have quietly existed in Manchester for a number of years without causing any problems and sometimes without being recognized by neighbors.

That's the opinion of representatives of the group homes for teen-agers and adults with special needs reported Thursday to the Community Services Council.

Mrs. Solange LeDuc, who supervises a group home for 10 retarded boys said, "As long as I've been at our place, which has been six years, we've had no problems. Some of the people don't even know it's a group home." Some of the boys hold jobs at the Sheltered Workshop or at the Regional Occupational Center, she said.

As in most group homes, she and her husband are the mother and father figure in family group setting, she said.

A home for retarded women ranging from 18 to 25 years of age, is designed to assist women who have spent most of their lives in institutions and foster homes to learn the skills of independent living, Paul Correll, a member of the staff said. To live at the home, the retarded person has to have a potential for independent living, he said. Both this home and that for retarded boys is sponsored by Mansfield State Training School.

Correll told how the employees at local banks and stores have "been willing to take that extra moment needed so that our women don't feel uncomfortable" and have been helpful during his attempts to show the women living skills.

"We are finding out what services we can give to the community and what they can give to us as the women move out into various areas to work," Correll said.

About town

The Ladies Guild of Assumption will hold its annual communion dinner Monday. A Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 p.m. at the church. Dinner will be served afterward at the Manchester Country Club. The Rev. William McCarthy of St. Luke's Parish in Hartford will be the guest speaker. Mrs. William Reiser is chairperson of the event.

Mary Allen Blakey, a former Vista volunteer in an outreach program to Manchester's elderly and now a member of the staff at that house, said job opportunities are needed. "We need all the help we can get from employers who respond to the handicapped and can deal with people with problems."

The home for retarded boys needs someone to assist with recreation on weekends because the residents have nothing to do during this period, Mrs. LeDuc said.

The home for emotionally disturbed boys also needs people to give their extra time for recreation and Mrs. Correll said that is hoping that the Community Y can be used for this purpose.

For over seventy-five years, the Ostrinsky family has been involved in the business of recycling in the Town of Manchester. As a past president of the Eastern Paper Mill Suppliers Association, Mr. Abraham L. Ostrinsky has kept abreast of standards and procedures for packaging and presenting to various mills a product for recycling that has continually met the demand for other than natural resources. Ostrinsky has a constant market for his product, (salvageable material) and has paid his customers higher prices because he has insisted on handling only that type of material which is free of contamination. Environmental Control, pollution, resource recovery, and ecology are familiar topics discussed and acted upon by the various mill and secondary handlers associations. It is for the best interest of the public to be concerned with our future for as those resources which are recycled, you can start now by selling your paper-metal-and iron.

Strong new democracy?

There are so few democracies around anymore that it is cause for great rejoicing when a new one joins the dwindling ranks.

Much has been written about Spain's struggle to establish political freedom in the 17 months since the death of its long-time dictator, Francisco Franco.

It is also a potentially dangerous step for the fledgling government of Premier Adolfo Suarez. The Communist party, which was outlawed by France after the 1936-39 civil war.

Less paranoia, more faith

If a government official a dozen or so years ago had said that there was no reason for Americans to get all paranoid about a few Communists in Indochina, there would have been a national uproar.

Yet Andrew Young, ambassador to the U.N., has said exactly this in regard to Africa, and nobody in or out of government seems especially upset about it.

Young wisely points out that the many artificial borders defining African nations, borders laid down by Europeans in the last century without regard to tribal realities, will lead to conflicts

Fem libbers ruining the whole racket

WASHINGTON - A few years ago, a famous author of the Twenties named Anita Loos pointed a finger of blame at the noisier proponents of the Equal Rights Amendment, which was rejected last week by the Florida Senate and now has a foot and a half in the grave.

On her 80th birthday, the creator of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," told a New York Times reporter, "The people I'm furious with are the women's liberationists. They keep getting up on soapboxes and proclaiming that women are brighter than men. That's true, but it should be kept quiet or it ruins the whole racket."

I suspect the tendency of some femlibbers to raise strident voices has been responsible for ERA's troubles. ERA has been approved by only one state since March 1976.

In Florida, pro-ERA forces called in that aggressive feminist, Betty Friedan, to lobby for the amendment. Now Mrs. Friedan is as bright as any woman, but she shows it by trying to look down her nose at the opposition.

Besides, Florida is a Southern state, despite its large population of retired Yankees, and Dixie traditionally has held that a woman's place is in the home, or a reasonable facsimile thereof.

Town didn't flunk

To the editor: In reference to your article "Town flunks test in filling job," April 29, what has our society come to? No longer do we judge a person because of qualifications, but rather whether they belong to the protected minority class.

That the United States would do well to stay out of. An example is the current fighting in Zaire, which he maintains is "basically nonideological."

The United States, he advises, should seek strong trade ties to African nations without regard to ideology, because "when the fighting stops and the trading starts, we will win" in competition with communism.

Town fails to act

The Board of Directors of the Town of Manchester has little trouble in making decisions to develop a fifteen million dollar industrial park, but for over six years they have failed to adopt a policy that would require department heads to live within the town.

In the case of recreation director, Siebold, he has resided in the Town of Bristol for over a six year period.

Perhaps this accounts for the continuing controversy in the Recreation Department.

Enforcement needed "Look here," said Ervin. "Congress has enacted legislation that prohibits discrimination against women in things like employment. We have executive orders that prohibit discrimination on account of sex. We don't need any new laws.

Ervin may have oversimplified the issue. But the language of the amendment is so sparse it begs for over-simplification by zealots on both Bolton Minor injuries were reported in a five-car traffic accident at Rt. 4 and Steele's Crossing Rd., Bolton, Friday afternoon.

Conventry A car driven by Robert A. Labanauskas, 27, of Torrington, which had been following the Brookman vehicle, swerved to avoid the accident.

Middletown A car driven by Robert A. Labanauskas, 27, of Torrington, which had been following the Brookman vehicle, swerved to avoid the accident.

Conventry Joseph C. Michael, 21, of 23 Spruce St., Manchester, was arrested Friday on charges of third-degree forgery and second-degree larceny.

Middletown Michael was held overnight on a $2,000 bond. Court date is May 17.

That's strange... my reflection is getting a lot older than I am!

Board seeks $33,000 pay for Weiss

The Manchester Board of Directors Friday night proposed a $33,000 salary for Town Manager Robert B. Weiss, an increase of almost ten per cent over his present income.

Mayor Matthew Moriarty recommended the increase and cited the work Weiss has done in the past year. "If the effort the manager has put forth this year isn't extraordinary, I don't know what is," the mayor said.

Other directors also spoke in favor of increasing the salary. Republican Vivian Ferguson said, "When a department head makes what the manager makes, there's something wrong."

The board also said that it now proposes to be created in 1977-78 without board jurisdiction for the new job.

Another item handled Friday night was an agreement by the board that 23 non-union clerks will continue to receive salary treatment similar to union checks.

A request from the Capitol Region Council of Governments (CROC) that the town's fee to the organization will be increased to $550 to just over $8,000.

The board also reacted favorably to a written proposal from Republican Paul Willhite which discussed the manager's salary and the pay for several other town workers.

Willhite proposed that a salary range be established for the manager and that the board award salary increases based on annual performance.

Another part of his proposal included a system for awarding salary increases to non-union department heads and mid-management personnel.

The board scheduled its next workshop for Monday at 7:30 p.m. The final meeting on the budget will be Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Building's Hearing Room.

Thoughts

"Someday, after mastering the winds, the waves, the tides and gravity, we shall harness for God the energies of love, and then, for the second time in the history of the world, we will discover fire."

God is a fire of love—a fire that touches us in so many ways, and we have the power to ignite this fire of love in others.

Reply to a friend: I invite you to answer the call of the spring, Allow the Lord to renew you—look and listen for the signs of touch, and take the time to share that touch of love with another. God is calling you to love—to bud and blossom and to be all that you are created to be.

News for senior citizens

Hill In Wednesday's column, I mentioned a few trips lined up for May, June and July, and forgot to tell you about one more in June—our five-day hop to wonderful Wildwood in New Jersey. This is scheduled for June 13 through 17, and the complete package has gone up about five dollars over last year.

It will cost an even $100 this year, and this includes bus fare, motel accommodations, meals, entertainment; also, a box lunch to munch on as we roll along.

We heard this confirmation that our good friends Jim Spasato and Stan Chapin are patients of the local hospital. This means that six of our good friends are in MMRH. If you know of any others, please call the office and let us know.

One thing I want you to know about Big Week is that we display our crafts in Walkins window that week. This year we can get in on Monday, so May 16 we will start. I know I can count on lots of help that day, plus loads and loads of items. We will have to go some to beat last year but let's try.

The plants for the Mother's Day Tea are progressing nicely. We are making you a favor, we have handsome men serving you refreshments; and remember, all would-be mothers adopt me for the day.

Card games On Wednesday morning, we had a nice turnout for our pinocle games and the lucky winners were: Vincent Borello, 65; Lee Steimneyer, 62; Mike Haberman, 61; your truly, Wally and Gloria, will be at your disposal to help this happen. Wednesday afternoon the arts and craft class were busy making favors for the Mothers Day Tea. I can't thank the class enough for all the work they do for the center and me. I hate to mention names for fear I will omit one, but you know what you are doing and who you are.

I also want to let you know about the golf scores from this past Monday. It was a gloomy day and we still had 27 players turn out.

Wings of evening

The believer

I have heard it argued that there is no such thing as an "unbeliever," to the effect that anyone who believes there is no God "believes" something. Actually, I feel that this is twisting the meaning of the word "believer" because it has usually meant "one who believes in God." In years gone by when some young person tried to bait me by boasting that he was an atheist, saying, "I don't believe in God!" my usual response was, "Well, that's interesting. What kind of a god don't you believe in?" There would be a brief pause, then a halting description of a deity that no self-respecting theologian would possibly worship.

Then my comment was, "I don't believe in that kind of a god either." Practically everyone has some kind of God if we define deity as that concept which integrates all of life and ultimately brings meaning and purpose to existence. One may habitually reject the concept of God with a grey beard sitting on a cloud holding a thunderbolt in readiness for some sinner, but as a matter of fact it is the idea of a supreme being that becomes the keystone in his arch of important values.

My religion is doing good!

Recently I had the privilege of talking with a very charming person who claimed that her "religion" had nothing to do with God. "My religion is doing good to my fellowman," she explained. My response was, "It is good to help your fellowman but that is only morality and not religion as commonly understood. 'Doing good' is of great importance. You recall that Jesus made it the test of entering the Kingdom in His parable of the Last Judgment (Matthew 25:31-46). In part it goes like this: 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me drink, I was thirsty and you gave me to drink. I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came to me.' His brother was bewildered and asked when they had done this, Jesus gave his answer: 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.'"

Those who helped "even the least" were admitted to the Kingdom but the others departed from the face of the Father. Ethics, morality, doing good, are vital within the Kingdom.

"One night toward the end of January I settled into bed late, after a strenuous day. Corieita had already fallen asleep and just as I dived off the telephone rang.

"An angry voice said, 'Listen, nigger, we've taken all we want from you; before next week you'll be sorry you ever came to Montgomery!' I hung up, but I couldn't sleep. It seemed that all of my fears had come down on me at once. I had reached that saturation point.

"I got out of bed and began to walk the floor. Finally I went to the kitchen and beat a pot of coffee. I was ready to give up. With my cup of coffee sitting untouched before me, I tried to think of a way to move out of the picture without appearing a coward. In this state of exhaustion, when my courage had all but gone, I decided to take my problem to God. With my head in my hands, I bowed over the kitchen table and prayed aloud. The words I spoke to God that midnight are still vivid in my memory.

"I prayed: 'I am here taking a stand for what I believe is right. But now I am afraid. The people are looking to me for leadership and I stand before them without strength and courage, they too will falter. I am at the end of my powers. I have nothing left. I've come to the point where I can't face it alone.'"

"At that moment I experienced the presence of the Divine as I had never experienced Him before. This is one of many experiences that tell us that God is most real when the need is greatest.

"I want to congratulate you on your fine sermon, my son, but I have a few suggestions to make. It would be better if you pronounced the benediction in the usual manner instead of raising your glass and saying 'Psalm!' Also it is customary to walk down the stairs from the pulpit and not slide 'down the banister.'"

A churchle

Some time ago my wife and I visited friends in Western Germany for several days. One of our interesting experiences was attending a "winefest" in a public hall crowded with about three thousand people. The toastmaster was full of funny stories which our friend translated for us. I remember this one in particular:

A young minister was uneasy when he heard that the bishop was coming to attend his church. He confessed to a friend that he was afraid his sermon would not be good enough. His friend suggested that he take a pitcher of white wine into the pulpit and slip a glass from time to time to help steady his nerves. Everyone would think it was water so he would be safe. All through the service the minister sipped the wine and managed to get through his sermon with ease.

Afterwards the bishop spoke to him gently. "I want to congratulate you on your fine sermon, my son, but I have a few suggestions to make. It would be better if you pronounced the benediction in the usual manner instead of raising your glass and saying 'Psalm!' Also it is customary to walk down the stairs from the pulpit and not slide 'down the banister.'"

Bolton budget is set

By DONNA HOLLAND Herald Correspondent

The Board of Finance, by a 4 to 2 vote, has adopted a $2,365,578 budget for 1977-78.

Of the total amount, $1,414,776 is for the Board of Education and $790,500 is for general government.

Board members voted against the budget were Morris Silverstein and Gary Mortensen.

Townsmen will vote on the budget at the annual budget meeting May 16 at 8 p.m. at the Community Hall.

The finance board approved appropriating $118,318 from this year's capital and nonrecuring account for items originally requested in the 1977-78 budget. Silverstein and Mortensen voted against the appropriations. Town Meeting approval is necessary.

The items requested for the town are a 10-foot heavy-duty snow plow, $2,100; three radios, $1,600; two police mobile radio, $450; two Scott Air Paks, $1,260; one mobile radio, $400, and one Citizen Band radio, $400.

The items requested for the school board are roof drains for Bolton Elementary School, $2,600; amesite resurfacing at Bolton Center School, $1,800; amesite resurfacing at Bolton High School, $4,000, and improvements to Memorial Field, $2,500.

Finance board members approved the creation of a new budget within the town's budget for 1977-78. It will be called the reserve fund for the revaluation of property and land.

The board appropriated $6,000 to that budget. The fund is not to last more than four years. Mortensen opposed the appropriation.

East Hartford budget would cut nurse post

"I don't like to mistreat people," said Mayor Richard Blackstone Friday as he explained why Miss Caroline Furness will lose her East Hartford job July 1.

The mayor's proposed budget for fiscal year 1977-78 does not include her. Director of nursing services. "Her position will not exist," he said.

"It's my hope the (East Hartford Public Health Nursing Association or EHPHNA) will take her on as their director. This will correct their deficiencies," he said.

EHPHNA has been warned that it does not meet Medicare funding requirements because it does not have a director of its own. The four EHPHNA nurses have worked under the direction of Miss Furness, who is paid by the town.

Miss Blackstone said his budget includes $23,150 for the new position of full-time health director. Dr. John Gullivan is now the part-time director at $2,250.

The mayor said he would not say who he would appoint as full-time director until the Town Council approves his budget. He said both Dr. Gullivan and Robert H. Schultz, director of administrative and environmental services, are qualified for the job.

There are only four EHPHNA nurses. They may need a supervisor, but not a higher paid director. Mrs. Tozier said she doubts Medicare rules require a director's job.

She refused to say whether she would urge the EHPHNA board to hire Miss Furness as director.

Miss Furness said Friday, "Why did he do it the way he did if he doesn't want to mistreat people?"

She said she has worked for the town 11 years as of April 25. She will lose town benefits if let go and is upset about it. Her pay this coming year would have been $18,200.

She said she does not believe the real reason she is being let go has anything to do with Medicare requirements. She said these can be met through a number of methods. She has a list of 40 joint town and nursing association offices which do meet them across the country.

Two years ago, Miss Furness was asked to work on combining town and school nurses into one system. The plan failed at a public referendum.

The doctor has held that against me," she said, referring to Dr. Gullivan.

The proposed budget with the health department changes goes to the Town Council. They plan a public hearing Thursday, May 12.

The final council vote on the budget is set for Wednesday, May 18. It will then set the budget, the tax rate and the fate of Miss Furness.

Celtics square series, White scores 40 points

BOSTON (UPI) — Jo Jo White said it before the game and he repeated the remark after rescuing his Boston Celtics from NBA elimination.

"Even if we do lose to it at home," said White Friday night, minutes after rifling 40 points in Boston's 113-108 defeat over the Philadelphia 76ers in the sixth game of the Eastern Conference semifinal series.

He led Boston with 16 first half points and added 16 more in the third period when the 76ers cleared the lead from 11 to four points.

After Philadelphia took a pair of one point advantages in the fourth period, White was again to score six of the final eight points. The key play came on a Dave Cowens block of

A Henry Bibby shot with 1:43 to play.

Cowens, operating the final 18 minutes with five fouls, picked up the blocked shot and gunned a pass to White for a layup. He held the ball for a moment, scored a basket, and moved around, we got an easy shot. But you've got to have five guys thinking that way."

White repeated what he said earlier in the week. "The 76ers are the worst defensive team in basketball" and "I still stick by that remark. Whenever they get behind, they start overplaying and chasing the ball."

The overplay and chase began early in the game. Until midway through the final period as the 76ers trailed after losing an 11-10 lead until overtaking Boston momentarily at 94-93 and 96-95.

The comeback was classic Philadelphia one-on-one with Doug Collins

Rockets nip Bullets, Murphy scores 40

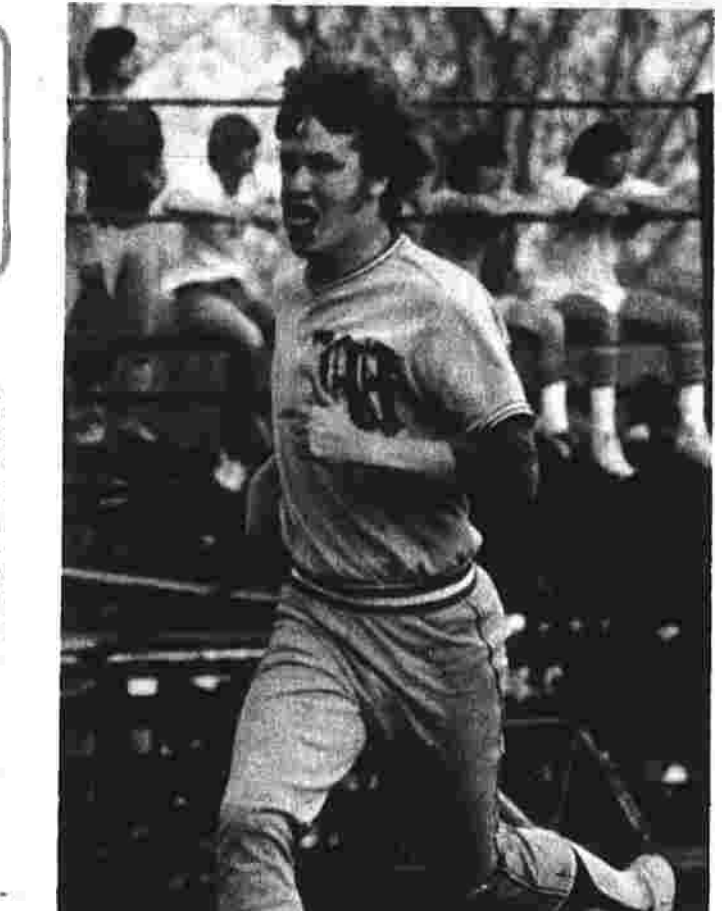

HOUSTON (UPI) — John Johnson came off the bench late in the third period to ignite Houston with five straight points and Calvin Murphy scored 18 of his 40 points in the final quarter Friday night to give the Rockets a 123-115 victory over the Washington Bullets and a 3-2 lead in their NBA quarter-final playoff series.

The sixth game of the best-of-seven series will be played Sunday in Washington and the seventh game, needed will be in Houston next Wednesday.

Washington, which has now dropped two straight in the series, owned a slim lead through much of the third quarter. But the 6-foot-4 Johnson put Houston into the lead at 77-77 on a three-point play with 3:11 left in the third quarter.

Johnson and the Rocket sub hit two free throws.

Before the end of the quarter the Rockets boosted their lead to 11 points. Murphy, the Houston shot scorer, scored 40 points and helped Houston stay ahead, scoring at will on driving layups and from long range. And it was Murphy

Jabbar big man in Lakers' win

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar scored 45 points and pulled Los Angeles to 118 rebounds Friday night to lead the Los Angeles Lakers to a 112-105 victory over the Golden State Warriors and a 3-2 lead in their NBA Western Conference semifinal series.

The sixth game of the series will be played at Oakland Sunday afternoon. The Lakers have not won at Golden State since 1973. A seventh game, if necessary, will be held here Wednesday night.

Abdul-Jabbar came within one point of equalling his career playoff high of 46, scoring 45 points in the first quarter and 16 in the first period. He was 16 for 28 from the floor.

The Lakers, who lost the third and fourth games of the best-of-seven series at Oakland, got a lift when guard Lucius Allen returned to the starting lineup and contributed 15 points. Allen suffered a dislocated toe in the first quarter of the opening game of the series.

Rick Barry led the Warriors with 28 points but committed eight turnovers. Barry was 13 for 26 from the field. Cazzie Russell added 12 points while Don Cheney hit 11 and Don Ford and reserve Earl Tatum got 10 apiece for Los Angeles.

Winning for the 46th time in 44 games at the Forum this season, the Lakers led from start to finish although the Warriors were in the game until the last six minutes. Ahead 91-85 after three quarters, the Lakers had a 100-91 lead after a 16-footer by Allen with 6:35 to go. However, 7-foot rookie Robert Parish made a slam dunk at 5:26 and Barry canned a 16-footer at 6:01 to cut the Lakers lead to five points at 100-95.

The Lakers then scored the next eight points, six of them by Abdul-Jabbar. At 5:43, Allen hit a 17-footer.

At 5:02, Abdul-Jabbar scored his first points of the final quarter with a 12-foot hook shot. The Lakers' 7-2 superstar hit a rebound at 4:19 and added a pair of free throws at 3:40 to put the Lakers in front by 13 at 100-95.

Golden State trailed 84-58 at halftime but got to within one at 86-85 late in the third quarter. But the Lakers scored the last five points of the third period. Ahead 91-85 after three quarters, the

Pressure on USA in zone Davis Cup

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UPI) — The U.S. tennis team, led by Billie Jean King, is under heavy pressure to win the Davis Cup tennis final, but now the U.S. team is feeling the heat.

"They're tough," said not-playing U.S. captain Tony Trabert. "But we're not out of it."

Still, a surprise 3-6, 6-4, 8-6, 6-4 victory by Ricardo Cano over Dick Stockton, added to an easy win by home team hero Guillermo Vilas over Brian Gottfried, gave Argentina a commanding 2-0 lead Friday in the best-of-five tournament and made hash out of Trabert's game plan.

Stockton served an ace to begin the first game of the first match, broke Cano in the next game and ran out the set 6-3 before the Argentine, who admitted later, "I was very nervous," got his hearing.

Then, halfway through the second set, Stockton was hit by a back spasm that he said "turned into a knot," and the match, stop play by excited fans, turned into a close contest with Cano gradually pulling away as he acquired confidence.

For Vilas, under extreme pressure from

Three-way tie in LPGA play

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Mary Lou Crocker wasn't all that pleased when she birdied the 11th hole Friday to tie in the first round of the $60,000 U.S. Women's Classic LPGA tournament.

"I would rather snipe on the lead in the next day than take the lead on the first," she said. "You have the monkey on your back that way."

Crocker finished with a four-under-par 68 over the 6,000-yard Green Valley Country Club course in the first round.

Debbie Austin and rookie Debbie Massey. Carol Mann finished one stroke back at 69. Five golfers tied at 70 and six more at 71. Defending champion Jan Stephenson was among those at even-par 72.

Portland outscore Tech

Nine runs in the third inning lifted Portland High to a 10-1 Charter Oak Conference baseball decision over Cheney Tech yesterday in Portland.

Portland now stands 5-3 in COC play while Cheney has a record of 1-8. The Highlanders got a run in the second and then exploded in the third. Five hits in a row, then a strikeout and another five hits produced the Portland rallies. Cheney averted the shutout in the fifth inning. Chris Vann singled and was forced at second by Jim Boudreau. The latter scored and scored on Dave Gustamachio's line single to leftfield.

Larry the win. Gary Dembowski was big sticker for the Highlanders with three hits with Bill Borg, Orlando Perez and Dan Ledoux.

BOSTON (UPI) — Jack McKeon knows why the baseball is leaving American League ballparks 35 per cent more frequently than a year ago.

"In spring training, I thought it might be because of the lighter Arizona air (where the A's train), but things haven't changed since the start of the season," he said.

Unfortunately for manager McKeon and his Oakland A's, it was the long ball that was responsible for a 7-4 defeat to the Boston Red Sox Friday night.

Although the A's matched the Sox with three homers apiece, the Fenway Park denizens made their round-trippers come for six runs while the visitors' shots only accounted for four.

"I definitely think the ball is livelier," said McKeon after watching newly acquired pitcher Doc Ellis (1-2) get shelved for eight hits and all seven runs in his fifth inning start. "I've never seen so many tremendous shots."

Baseball Angels post one-run win

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two newcomers and a resident ace combined Friday night in a game California Angels baseball's free agent draft with a vast of money in his hands.

"This was our first one-run victory as a team," said former free agent Don Baylor after his 11th inning homer gave Angels a 3-2 victory over Baltimore.

Baylor's homer, his sixth, came off Baltimore reliever Dyer Miller, 1-1.

Angel veteran Frank Tanana, scattering seven hits, went the distance and won his fourth game and his 11th straight game.

Roy Roush, rookie infielder, struck out four batters and struck out nine.

Phyllis 6, Giants 5
Winning pitcher Steve Carlton singled home what was to be the winning run in a three-run sixth inning for the Philadelphia Phillies. St. Louis topped Atlanta 5-2. Houston crushed Philadelphia 11-3. Philadelphia topped San Francisco 6-5 and Los Angeles blanked Montreal 4-0.

Reds 3, Cubs 2
George Foster singled home Ken Griffey with the tie-breaking run in the sixth inning to give the Reds their victory over the Cubs.

Dodgers 4, Expos 0
Ron Cey drove in his 28th run in his 39th game as he led the Dodgers to their seventh straight win.

Kingman credentials brought up to date

NEW YORK (UPI) Dave Kingman is eager to get out of New York and apparently plans on using the New York Mets' trip to the West Coast to sell himself.

Kingman, unsigned by the Mets, has said he will play out his option if the Mets don't trade him and he would like to go to the West Coast team. Reports have been circulating that Kingman might be with a western team by the time the Mets return for a road trip and the big slugger wants to assure the West Coast club that he'd be worth obtaining.

The San Diego Padres got the message Friday night when Kingman hit a pair of three-run homers to power the Mets to a 9-2 victory. Kingman blasted an off-liner Rick Bauer in the first inning, then another off Dave Freisen in the fifth as the Mets snapped a four-game losing streak and handed San Diego its sixth loss in a row.

The homers gave Kingman six on the season.

Series suspended
NEW YORK (UPI) — World Television Channel, a boxing series televised on many local stations throughout the country, has been suspended indefinitely as a result of the investigation currently being conducted into alleged improprieties in Don King's rival ABC-TV boxing series.

WTC president Hank Schwartz stressed that the decision was made due to the bad press boxing has received in recent weeks as the result of the allegations against King and does not in any way reflect the legitimacy of WTC bouts.

Burns enjoying spot at top of golf field

WOODLANDS, Tex. (UPI) — George Burns has led tournaments before, but he has never led one before. So he's trying his best to keep things in perspective.

"I want to be very low key about this," said Burns. "I don't want to get excited. In the back of my mind I just keep waiting for something to happen. But I'm hitting the ball real well."

Burns put together a four-under-par 68 Friday over the 7,000-yard Woodlands Country Club course to share the second-round lead of the $20,000 Houston Open with veteran Gene Littler at nine-under-135.

Littler held the best round of the tournament—a 65.

Two shots back of the leader was Canadian George Knudsen and at 130 were Chi Chi Rodriguez, Leonard Thompson and Doug Lewell.

It was at the Houston Open last year that the 27-year-old Burns seemed on his way to his first victory. He had a two-shot lead going into the last nine, but he bogeyed four of the last eight holes and finished third.

"Things like that have slowed me down a little," said Burns, who is in his third year on the tour. "In the past I've hurried a lot getting over the ball. I guess I was just trying to get things over with."

Burns was looking to accept responsibility and work without supervision. Excellent company benefits. Excellent opportunity M/F. Call 646-7282.

Boston's Carlton Fisk is greeted at home plate by Dwight Evans (24), George Scott and Carl Yastrzemski (8) after second-inning homer last night against Oakland. (UPI photo)

SCOTT, who says he is beginning to relax at the plate, had three hits and scored three times.

Page matched Scott's single, double, and homer while lifting his average to .385. He has ten hits in his last 21 at-bats while extending his batting streak to seven games.

"I can't blame the ball for what happened tonight," said Ferguson Jenkins, who gained his only Gross's first homer since he returned from a three-run homer and a three-run homer and back-to-back shots from Carl Yastrzemski, with a man on, and George Scott, who carried an average of .235 into the game.

"It was just a case where they hit more damaging ones than we did," said McKeon. "That three-run shot by Fisk really killed us. We were taking that away and it was even."

"They were hot," said Boston manager Don Zimmer. "There were no cheapies."

Fisk, whose second-inning drive cleared everything in left field, scored those runs. Page matched Scott's single, double, and homer while lifting his average to .385. He has ten hits in his last 21 at-bats while extending his batting streak to seven games.

Ellington High was upset by Stafford, 5-3.

Newington won its first after five setbacks while Rockville now stands 4-1.

South Windsor fell to 3-4, losing to 7-6 Glastonbury. Rham is now 4-3 after bowing to 5-3 Cromwell while Ellington is now 2-6 after succumbing to 4-5 Stafford.

It was a bad day at slippery rock yesterday as four area schoolboy baseball teams were in action — and all lost.

Rockville High fell out of the unbeaten ranks, falling 4-3 to Newington, South Windsor High was downed in another CVC test by Glastonbury, 8-3. Rham High was toppled by Cromwell, 6-3, and

Obituaries

Buel L. Hasbrouck

Buel L. Hasbrouck of 101 Concord Rd. died early this morning at Manchester Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Mrs. Ethel Bowman Hasbrouck.

Mr. Hasbrouck was born Sept. 22, 1900 in High Falls, N.Y., and lived in Torrington before coming to Manchester 35 years ago. Before his retirement in 1967, he was employed as a supervisor in the master mechanics group at Pratt and Whitney Division of United Technologies Corp., East Hartford, and was a member of the firm's Quarter Century Club. He was a 50-year member of Seneca Lodge of Masons, Torrington. He also belonged to Cyrus Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, in Torrington.

He is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. L. Gerard (Betty-Jane) DuBois of East Hartford; and six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St., is in charge of arrangements, which are incomplete.

Mrs. Esther U. Tyson

Mrs. Esther U. Tyson, 77, of 22 Bond St. died Thursday at Hartford Hospital. She was the widow of William Tyson.

Mrs. Tyson was born June 19, 1899 in Philadelphia, Pa., and lived there until coming to Manchester earlier this year.

She is survived by a son, William Z. Tyson of Beachwood, N.J.; a daughter, Mrs. John Dettinger of Manchester, with whom she made her home; and three grandchildren.

The funeral is Monday at 2 p.m. at St. James Episcopal Church, Glastonbury. Burial will be in St. James Cemetery, Glastonbury.

Friends may call at Fitzgerald Funeral Home, 225 Main St., Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Edward M. Dailey

ROCKVILLE - Edward M. Dailey, 77, of St. Petersburg, Fla., formerly of Rockville, died Thursday in St. Petersburg. He was the husband of Mrs. Althea Calve Dailey.

Mr. Dailey was born in Rockville and had lived here until 10 years ago when he moved to Florida. Before his retirement, he was employed at Dean Machine Products Inc., Manchester.

Other survivors are a son, Edward Dailey of Colchester; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Siwik of Ellington and Mrs. Carolyn England of Stamford; a brother, Raymond Dailey of Manchester; two sisters, Mrs. Helen Weber and Mrs. Madeline Martley, both of Rockville; and several grandchildren.

The funeral and burial will be in St. Petersburg.

Hubert C. Parks

Hubert C. Parks, 74, of 333 Bidwell St., died Friday at Manchester Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Mrs. Lois Upson Parks.

Mr. Parks was born Dec. 31, 1902 in Dickinson Center, N.Y., and lived in the Waterbury-Cheshire area for 50 years before coming to Manchester in 1971.

Before retiring in 1960, he had been an auto mechanic for many years at Hunter's Garage, Yalesville. He was a member of Mill Plain Union Church, Waterbury. He was a 50-year member of Union Lodge of Masons, Thomaston, and also belonged to Crescent Chapter, OES, Cheshire.

Other survivors are two sons, Lloyd Parks and Roger H. Parks, both of Manchester; and two granddaughters, Teri Parks and Sharon Parks, both of Manchester.

The funeral is Tuesday at 10 a.m. at Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St. The Rev. Newell Curtis Jr., pastor of Center Congregational Church, will officiate. Burial will be at noon in the New Pine Grove Cemetery, Waterbury.

Friends may call at the funeral home Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. There will be a Masonic service Monday at 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

The family suggests that any memorial gifts may be made to the Masonic Home and Hospital, Wallingford.

Manchester police report

Manchester Police Friday night arrested a 15-year-old town resident and charged him with carrying a dangerous weapon.

The youth, whose name cannot be released because of his age, has been turned over to juvenile authorities. The arrest was made by police after four persons from the Coleman Bros. ride show reported that their tires had been slashed. The ride show is being presented through this weekend at the Parkade.

Police also reported a break Thursday at a South Adams St. home. Police said that a woman arrived at the home to find that someone had forced the rear door open.

She entered the home and found a woman, described as about 20 years old, with dirty blond straight hair and wearing a rust-colored jacket. The resident of the home ran for help, and the woman who had entered the home also ran, police said. The homeowner will provide police with a list of missing items.

A 1976 Chrysler Cordoba was stolen this morning from the parking lot of a Spencer St. restaurant, police said. The car is red and white, according to the police report.

Police arrested David L. Chaney, 29, of Storrs, and charged him with third-degree larceny and fourth-degree larceny. The charge was made in connection with the theft of a chain saw and cigarettes from the K-Mart store on Spencer St., police said. Court date is May 9.

Other reported arrests included: Alois Schmitt, 26, of Hebron, charged with operating under the influence of alcohol. Court date is May 17.

Clarence Tedford, 54, of 110 Birch Mt. Rd., charged with operating under the influence of alcohol. Court date is May 10.

George D. Glidden, 31, of 30 Strant St., charged with breach of peace. Court date is May 9.

Robert K. Vicino, 23, of 178 New State Rd., charged with breach of peace. Court date is May 13.

Kenneth Levesque, 28, of 150 Vernon St., charged with improper use of registration plates. Court date is May 10.

Police checking armed holdups at two stores

Manchester Police are investigating two armed robberies that occurred within three hours early this morning.

Details on both incidents were sketchy this morning. The first robbery occurred at 1 a.m. at Kentucky Fried Chicken, 307 W. Middle Tpke. Police said that two men entered the store and robbed it at gunpoint. An undisclosed amount of cash was taken in the theft, police said.

The second theft occurred at 3:55 a.m. at the 7-11 Store, 305 Green Rd. A night clerk at the store was robbed at knife-point, police said. An undisclosed amount of cash was taken from the cash register, according to police.

In both cases, descriptions of the persons involved in the thefts were not available this morning.

Second Congregational offers public programs

Second Congregational Church of Manchester is offering two new programs during May which are open to all residents of the Manchester area.

Starting tomorrow at 4 p.m., a study of the Book of Psalms will be offered at the church. The sessions will deal with a study of why this book is treasured by Jews and Christians alike. The Rev. Dr. James MacLaughlin, pastor, will lead the group study.

On Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., there will be a Faith Exploration program led by Roderick Wright.

Reservations for both courses may be made by calling the church office, 649-2863.

Housing checks half completed

The Manchester Health Department has completed about half of its planned inspections for housing code violations in a section near the center of town.

The streets currently under inspection are Hamlin, Holl, Harrison, Hannaway, Pearl, Knighton, Bissell, Birch and Florence.

About 80 homes have been inspected, according to John Salcius, housing inspector, but the inspectors have had trouble finding residents home in the area.

Salcius said he plans to draft a short letter to leave at the residents' home when they are not home to explain the purpose of the inspections. The inspectors are also requesting residents of the area to contact the health department if they want to make an appointment to have their homes inspected.

The inspections are normally made between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

The inspectors look for violations such as inadequate number of electrical outlets, inadequate plumbing, heating and ventilations facilities and maintenance of internal structure.

In conjunction with the housing inspection program, the town is conducting a housing rehabilitation loan program for home improvements. Residents in owner-occupied dwellings who meet the geographical and financial requirements may borrow up to $5,000 at an interest rate of 5 per cent or less. Anyone interested in the loans should contact Marilyn Walsh in the Human Services Department.

The inspections are part of a five-year program to inspect about 7,000 homes which are about 25 years-old or older. The Health Department inspectors visit about 80 homes a month, Salcius said.

In the most recent previous inspections in the Loomis St. area, 62 of 109 units were found to be in violation of some section of the housing code. The most common violations were lack of electrical outlets or inadequate maintenance of walls, ceilings or floors.

Prospective jurors told to fill forms

Joyce Gutman, jury chairperson for the Town of Manchester, asks any town resident who receives an application form for jury duty to complete and return it.

Mrs. Gutman said that she is unable to strike names from the jury list upon request.

The names of prospective jurors are selected at random from the town's voter registration list, she said. The names are chosen according to a formula that is based on the number of Manchester residents being sought for jury duty.

The numbers involved in the formula change from year to year, so one person's name should not be selected in successive years, Mrs. Gutman said.

Lesotho is unusual place for Africa

By RUSS MacKENDRICK

"Who's Lesotho, Dad?"
"It's not a who, it's a place — near Botswana."
"Oh."

The place used to be called Basutoland, then a British Crown Colony. In October 1966 it took the name Lesotho and became the 40th free nation of Africa and the 131st sovereign country on the globe.

It is a mountainous rectangle, 90 by 130 miles, completely surrounded by the lands of South Africa. This and San Marino are the only genuine enclaves in the world today. Monaco is nearly swallowed by France but it does have one border on the sea.

The Kingdom of Lesotho is not at all like our usual idea of Africa. It is never hot, the rainfall is scanty, and there are no large wild animals. The country is said to be free of the typically African pests and diseases.

From early times it has been sought out by missionaries setting up schools, so the literacy rate is high. For a college education they can offer the University of Botswana, Lesotho and Swaziland, with its main campus in Roma, Lesotho.

The population is something over a million, but there has never been an invasion of white settlers — there are only two or three thousand Europeans in residence here.

The chief occupations are livestock raising and farming. The principal exports are wool, mohair and hides. The most important crops are corn, sorghum, beans and wheat. A major portion of the country's income is derived from the wages of the thousands of Lesothians who work in the diamond mines or on the farmlands of South Africa.

They use the South African currency; the values given on the stamps are in cents that are hundredths of a rand. (One rand equals $1.15)

The stamps, which have just been released, show some of their endangered wildlife. The full set has rock rabbits, a porcupine, a striped polecat, klipspringers (antelopes) and baboons. Each stamp is watermarked with the Basuto Hat and carries the World Wildlife Fund symbol with its friendly panda bear.

They have had about 200 stamps since they became independent in 1966. The scarcest ones are a couple of errors — two Basutoland Postage Dues were overprinted with the misspelling "Lseotho." These are listed at $50 and $90.

Although for everyday use they have South African money, they also put out their own coinage, with the units "licente" and "maloti." They issued a gold FAO 10-maloti piece in 1969 with a sculpture of King Moshoeshoe, and the same value in silver for their 10th anniversary last year.

Coming events

Numismatic Auction: Friday, May 6, at the Gallery East — corner of School St. and Rt. 5 in East Hartford. There will be 250 lots, including U.S. type coins, silver dollars (a bust 1796), several gold pieces and some proofs and rolls. There will also be some foreign lots. Inspection is at 5:30 and the auction starts promptly at 7 p.m. The auctioneer will be Joe Cassano, a former president of the Central Connecticut Coin Club.

The regular meeting of the CCC Club will be held at the K of C Hall, 138 Main St., Manchester, on Tuesday, May 3. Doors open at 7 p.m.; meeting at 8. Visitors always welcome.

The First Sunday Stamp Bourse at the Ramada Inn, East Hartford, tomorrow will offer several $5 gift certificates as door prizes.

If you are being haunted by some unfulfilled obligation, perhaps you should get A Rount Tult — from the Dawn Marketing Co. Dept. F, 295 Wyoming Ave. Wyoming, PA 18644. ($3.25 in bronze, $15 in silver)

Stop & Shop Ground Beefs make better burgers.

Better, because all three Stop & Shop Ground Beefs are consistently lean, juicy and delicious. You can depend on it because of the way we make them.

No hit-or-miss methods for us. Stop & Shop Ground Beefs are prepared under strict supervision in our own federally inspected meat plant. The fat contents are scientifically measured. And, they're vacuum packaged — good and fresh — for refrigerated delivery to our stores... all ready for the final grind by your Stop & Shop butcher.

We're making all three Stop & Shop Ground Beefs leaner than before to give you more meat for your money. So shape 'em round, oval or square, and after they're cooked, you'll enjoy bigger Cheese burgers, bigger Bean Burgers, bigger Pizza Burgers, bigger Sahara Burgers... week after week.

Now you can buy great chicken. Or you can buy great chicken.

White Gem

At Stop & Shop, we've always given you a choice — in almost every product category — between our brands and what we think are the best of the rest.

Chicken was an exception. Our "White Gems" ruled the roost exclusively in our meat department for 25 years. The reason. We couldn't find any other chicken exceptional enough to sell side by side with "White Gem".

Then Frank Perdue came along to make a name for his chickens in New England. We put them to the test, and they passed with flying colors. So we made room for them on our poultry counters.

Now, you don't have to go anywhere else to buy a Perdue chicken. And you know you can't go anywhere else to buy tender, meaty, flavorful "White Gem" Chicken. Only Stop & Shop has it.
