Penney-FOI decision held off by judge

Hartford Common Pleas Court Judge Robert Satter has held off decision on whether to require the state's attorney general to appoint a special lawyer to handle a Freedom of Information (FOI) case involving the state tax commissioner and the J.C. Penney Co. Judge Satter said Tuesday that he will review the written briefs of both sides before making his ruling. The case revolves around an FOI complaint filed by Manchester Atty. Bruce Beck and Anthony Pagano against Tax Commissioner Gerald J. Heffernan. The attorneys, who represent seven plaintiffs in the appeal of a zone change granted for Manchester's proposed industrial park, requested that Heffernan reveal any communications between his office and the J.C. Penney Co. which would be the major tenant in the park. Heffernan said that state law prohibited him from discussing communication between his office and a

Vietnam pledge denied

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In his first foreign policy statement since leaving office, Henry Kissinger denies the United States made any commitment to supply Vietnam with reconstruction aid, as Hanoi claims. The Vietnamese insist Richard Nixon made a written commitment to provide such aid. But Kissinger told a Chamber of Commerce luncheon Tuesday any aid was contingent on the American congressional process and the observance of the 1973 Paris peace accords. "It would be absurd to claim that they (the Vietnamese) have the right to economic aid after having brutally violated every provision of the 1973 agreement," the former secretary of state said.

Town official to comply with residency rules

Recreation Director Melvin Siebold has a deposit on a house in Manchester and expects to move to town next month. Siebold presently lives in Bristol, where he has resided since taking over as town recreation director in 1969. In November, the Board of Directors defeated a proposal that would have moved him out of school and attending college, he said. Siebold has been criticized in the past by some members of the board and town residents because he did not live in Manchester. There are four other department heads who do not live in town. Siebold has indicated in the past that he wanted to stay in Bristol until both his daughters graduated from high school. "They wanted to stay put. I felt I owed it to them," he said. Both are now out of school and attending college, he said. The Bristol home was put on sale in August, and a buyer was recently found.

End-of-year art show open Friday at MCC

Manchester Community College will present its end-of-year student art exhibition and music program Friday at the Stairwell Gallery in MCC's 136 Hartford Rd. building. The program will begin at 8 p.m. with performances by the MCC chorus and student instrumental ensembles. After the music program, a reception with refreshments will be held in the gallery. On exhibit will be student drawings, paintings, prints, sculpture, crafts and ceramics. The art works will remain on view until May 20 with gallery hours 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and 9 a.m. to noon Saturdays. The chorus program will include an American Revolutionary song, blues, a Lennon/McCartney medley, a spiritual and folk music. Directors are Robert Vater and Jan Wodal, assistant director, with Patrick Robbins as accompanist. The event is free and the public is invited.

MMH praised by JCAH

As an accredited hospital, Manchester Memorial Hospital has received recognition from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals (JCAH) in observance of National Hospital Week, May 8 to 14. The letter of commendation praised the hospital for its efforts to provide a high quality of patient care and services. "Your willingness to participate in the process of voluntary accreditation demonstrates a professionally motivated desire to deliver a high quality of care; and, your accreditation is evidence that your efforts toward this goal have been successful," the letter said. Accreditation is awarded to hospitals that are found to be in compliance with the JCAH's standards for quality of patient care provided.

Audit gives utility high marks

HARTFORD (UPI) — An audit of Northeast Utilities Corp. by the Public Utility Commission (PUC) has given the company high marks in most management areas and indirectly criticizes a state agency and the public for creating the firm's few problems. The audit was conducted by the New York management consultant firm of and hence costs," the audit said. Cressap said much of Northeast's problems were caused by low worker morale brought on in part by the PUC and the public for creating the firm's few problems. "Poor morale undoubtedly has a negative impact on productivity, and hence costs," the audit said. Northeast has said it will ask later this year for the largest rate hike in Connecticut history, $81 million, to meet its high cost of doing business. "In our opinion, NU is a well-managed company, with strengths and accomplishments that far outweigh its weaknesses and opportunities for improvement," the audit said.

For Mother's Day...
The Necklace with a Legend
While the Sand Dollar is one of the most widely known and popular of all shells, few people are aware of the pretty little legend attached to it. Legend has it that these strange shells tell the story of Christ's suffering and his glory. The five holes represent the five wounds of Christ. On the front the Easter Lily—its center, a five pointed star representing the Star of Bethlehem which led the shepherds from afar. On the back the outline of the Christmas Pointa reminds us of his birthday. When the shell is broken open, five Doves of Peace and Good Will appear. Because of this religious legend, this fascinating creature of the sea is often referred to as the Holy Ghost shell. A beautiful story, beautifully told in sterling silver.

New utility settlement means less for consumer

HARTFORD (UPI) — A new settlement that means less money for Connecticut consumers, but more cash for the state's cities, has won the endorsement of all but one party in the ongoing Northeast Utilities rate dispute.

The new plan, devised by the state Public Utilities Control Authority, would replace a tentative agreement worked out last month by various municipalities, Northeast, the state's consumer counsel, and consumer groups.

A public hearing Tuesday, attorneys for all groups except the Connecticut Citizens Action Group agreed to the new plan. A CCAAG spokesman said his group would probably decide next week.

Under the agreement worked out last month, Northeast agreed to pay $5.9 million to settle a 1974 rate case. To settle a 1976 rate dispute, the utility agreed to reduce annual electricity rates by $21.6 million as of May 1.

In return, the cities and consumer groups would drop their suits against Northeast.

Under the first agreement, Northeast would send each of its 850,000 customers a check for $4.28.

Under the new plan, customers would get a $2.60 credit on their monthly bills.

Although consumers would lose under the state agency's proposal, Connecticut's cities would gain.

Under the old plan, Northeast agreed to give $1.6 million to municipalities for excessive street lighting bills. The new proposal would double the cities' share to $3.2 million.

Under the PUCA plan, Northeast would save between $70,000 and $90,000 on mailing costs if it gave customers credits instead of refunds. This money would go to a statewide fund bank.

Congress about to cut taxes for non-itemizing persons

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you are married, or are a moderate-income single person, and you don't itemize deductions, Congress is about to cut your taxes a little and simplify your tax forms a lot.

The persons described above will get a cut averaging $121 a year. Singles making more than $13,750 will pay an average $54 more taxes this year as a sacrifice to a new tax mortality in Congress which says married couples should not have to pay more than two income-earning singles.

If you head a corporation, you may qualify for new tax credits if your company increases employment, but you won't get an extra 2 per cent investment tax credit that had been proposed.

These were among the results of seven hours of intense negotiations by a House-Senate conference committee which late Tuesday completed a tax bill designed to pump $12.7 billion in new tax cuts into the economy over the next two years.

The bill is expected to reach final passage next week and President Carter is expected to sign it.

Major decisions included:

- The current percentage calculation of the standard deduction, with its maximum deduction of $2,400 for single persons and $2,800 for couples, would be replaced by a flat rate deduction of $2,200 for single persons and $3,200 for couples, resulting in a tax cut for 47 million persons, but a tax increase for 1.7 million middle and upper income single persons.
- The flat rate standard deduction will allow simple forms with no calculations required, only a glance at a table.
- No new investment credit would be allowed, but those who increase their employment to 102 per cent of last year's total, and wages to 105 per cent of last year's level, could claim tax credits of up to $2,100 for each new worker, up to a maximum $100,000.
- An end to the sick pay tax deduction and a tightening of tax breaks for Americans working abroad was delayed one year to Jan. 1, 1977.

Bishop Whealon to support change in communion

HARTFORD (UPI) — Archbishop John F. Whealon of the Archdiocese of Hartford said Tuesday he'll support a move to consider changing Catholic communion procedures.

The resolution to ask Pope Paul VI for permission to allow communicants to hold the communion wafer in their hands will be voted on today at the annual spring conference of the nation's bishops in Chicago, Ill.

The current practice is for priests to place the wafer directly on the tongue of the communicant.

Archbishop Whealon had opposed such a change but said he has become much more open to the possibility partly because of the support the idea has received in Connecticut.

Priests responding to a Hartford archdiocesan poll early this year voted 190 to 98 in favor of the change. The Connecticut Catholic Transcript released results last week of a poll showing a majority of respondents favored communion in the hand by 1,263 to 936.

A Connecticut group calling itself Faithful and Concerned Catholics has come out in opposition to the change, claiming that receiving communion in the hand would cheapen the procedure and lack dignity.

The group spokesman, Genaro Cal of Stamford, said Tuesday he fears the bishops will approve the resolution today to ask for Vatican permission to make the change. Two thirds of the bishops must vote in favor for the resolution to pass.

The American bishops rejected the resolution in 1973 and 1969. About 50 other countries have now asked for and received permission to offer communion in the hand.

Insurance bill sent to governor

HARTFORD (UPI) — Legislation designed to protect consumers against excessive automobile and homeowners insurance rates has been given final legislative approval by the House of Representatives.

The measure was approved by a 145-0 vote Tuesday. It now goes to Gov. Ella T. Grasso who is expected to sign it into law.

"This bill will serve the public by correcting the long-standing problems with insurance in this state," said Rep. James J. Palmieri, D-Waterbury.

"But the changes in the bill will not put any insurance company under undue hardship."

Essentially, the measure will make it easier for the state insurance commissioner to declare rates unreasonable.

A complicated provision in the existing law makes it almost impossible for the commissioner to rule that auto insurance company rates are too high.

The bill would make that provision optional and give the commissioner more leeway in determining if a company was charging too much for its auto and homeowners insurance.

The bill would also require insurance companies to explain to a customer in writing why his or her policy was canceled or not renewed.

This portion of the bill is designed to discourage petty cancellations and non-renewals of insurance policies.

Why cheaper paint is more expensive than Touraine:

When they cut the price of the paint, they cut the quality as well. By thinning out the oil base with mineral spirits. By using pigment extenders to beef-up the content of the paint.

The end result: "bargain paint" covers less, fade and peel a lot sooner.

So you have to buy more paint and do the job all over again, before you should have to.

Touraine Paint is made to last up to 50% longer. Because we use the finest linseed oil, acrylic emulsions, and the maximum amount of rich pigments to give you a paint that covers more and lasts longer.

So which really costs you less? The paint, or your time?

Goldstein to give talk on Jewish writers

Melvin Goldstein, professor of English at the University of Hartford, will be guest speaker Friday at 8:15 p.m. when Manchester's Temple Beth Shalom conducts its Sabbath Eve Services. Now working on a book which studies minority-group literature in America, he will speak on the works of Jewish writers Chaim Potok, Bernard Malamud and Saul Bellow. An Oneg Shabbat (Sabbath Tea) and a question and answer period will follow the services.

Prof. Goldstein is also a lay/analyst/psychotherapist and marital counselor at the Psychiatric Clinic in Middlesex Memorial Hospital, Middletown.

He has edited a book on metaphysical criticism of the past and has published articles on psychoanalysis and literature in the Psychoanalytic Review, Literature and Psychology, the American Imago and other journals.

As a chairman of liberal arts and an academic dean, he gave up the idea of seeking a college presidency in favor of concentrating on teaching, scholarship and writing, a Temple spokesman said.

Rose garden

HARTFORD (UPI) — Regal of the $1 admission fee to the Elizabeth Park Rose Garden will be recommended by a Hartford City Council committee.

City administrators said last fall a one-year experiment in charging fees for nonresident visitors was disastrous. Attendance dropped from about 100,000 persons to 3,000 last summer.

President proposes ethics legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Carter said Tuesday he will propose ethics legislation with "far-reaching safeguards" against abuses by federal officials and be endorsed creation of a special prosecutor to handle misconduct.

"The American people must be assured that no one, regardless of position, is above the law," Carter said.

The President's plan has not been completed, but it would include an Office of Ethics to be set up under the Civil Service Commission.

The proposal would strengthen conflict of interest codes and expand those covered by it, Carter said in a message to Congress.

Fiedler opens 48th year with Pops

BOSTON (UPI)—The 82-year-old man, natively attired in a French burlap, was escorted down the aisle at Symphony Hall by a local youth wearing a French gendarme's uniform.

That's how Arthur Fiedler made his entrance Tuesday to the 48th opening night of the Boston Pops. It was Fiedler's 48th opening performance and he celebrated by conducting the Pops in a "French night" featuring Offenbach's "Gaité Parisienne," Saint Saens' second piano concerto, and musical selections from "Gigi."

Fiedler took over the Pops in 1930 when the ensemble was merely a summer exercise for the Boston Symphony Orchestra to keep its members in shape between seasons. Through the years Fiedler has transformed the Pops into a world institution.

Last July 4, nearly 250,000 people watched Fiedler and the Pops stage a musical spectacular on the Charles River Esplanade when the band performed Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture" complete with bells and cannons.

William W. LeBeau

William W. LeBeau, 79, of 333 Bidwell St., died Tuesday in a local convalescent home.

Mr. LeBeau was born May 10, 1898, in Putnam and lived in the Hartford area most of his life until moving to Manchester three years ago.

He was a self-employed painter in the Hartford area until his retirement in 1958. He was a World War I army veteran.

Survivors are 5 daughters, Mrs. Shirley Talley, Mrs. Nancy Gilliland and Mrs. Mary Ann Wagner, all of Manchester and Mrs. Loreta Tanelli and Mrs. Lillian Connolly, both of East Hartford, and 15 grandchildren.

The funeral is Thursday at 2 p.m. at the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 W. Center St. Burial will be in Colonel Gates Cemetery in Rocky Hill.

There are no calling hours.

Feline League sponsor pursues deed ploy

A recent ruling on a deed which affects the eligibility of out-of-town residents to play in the Town of Manchester's top women's softball league has not deterred the sponsor from continuing his efforts.

David C. Woodbury has quitclaimed full-interest in property on Parker St. to eight non-resident women who play on David's team in the Feline League.

Originally he had quitclaimed partial interest in a parcel he owns at 527-529 E. Middle Tpke. Town Counsel Victor I. Moses ruled last week that the quitclaim deed did not make the women eligible to play on the Manchester team.

According to residency rules set by the Recreation Department, players, except in the men's Silk City League, must be Manchester residents or taxpayers or must be employees or members of the sponsor of the team.

There is no termination date listed on Woodbury's new deed, and there is no conveyance tax recorded. The first deed was for half-interest in a property with a termination date.

Woodbury would not comment on his new deed today saying he had been advised not to. "If it's in the public records, then it must be so," was all that he would say.

Auditor voices concern over sewer budget handling

The possibility of renovating Manchester's Municipal Building and some concern about the budgeting practices for the sewer budget were the two major points raised in a half-hour meeting Tuesday night between the Board of Directors and Jerome I. Baskin, the town's auditor.

In his yearly audit report, Baskin said that the Municipal Building is in need of enlarged office space and a public hearing room on the first floor to more easily accommodate handicapped residents.

Town Manager Robert B. Weiss said that the board should begin to think about planning a renovation of the building. Such a project might be available for considerable funding through the Public Works Employment Act, he said. But, to qualify for the program, a project must be ready to go within 90 days of funding approval.

Thus, Weiss suggested that the directors begin thinking about planning for such a renovation project, although he acknowledges that the funds are probably not in the upcoming budget.

Baskin also suggested a review of the sewer budget. He said that usage charges are applied to pay current costs. Such a practice may eventually lead to a shortage in the budget, he said.

Weiss said this morning that the town has been doing the budget in the same fashion for several years.

"This is poor practice and we recognize it," he said.

Democratic Director Phyllis Jackson also expressed concern because the sewer budget includes a $200,000 service charge for the industrial park outlet.

"If we don't get it, we'll be in serious trouble with our sewer operation," Weiss said.

Baskin did praise the improvements in the collector of revenue's office. "The office has improved substantially compared to three to four years ago. It's a commendable improvement, he said.

Republican Director Vivian Ferguson also praised Collector James Turek.

"I feel you've done a great job. I feel the best about this office that I have in seven years," she said.

ROTC lawn rejected

The Manchester Building Committee will not approve of the front lawn at the new Regional Occupational Training Center as acceptable under the project specifications until some improvements are made by the contractor.

The problem with the lawn was brought up at the Building Committee's meeting Tuesday night. They met with Architect Richard Lawrence and Mark Nasin, general contractor, to make some arrangements for improving the lawn.

Paul Phillips, committee chairman, said the lawn looks like a "cow pasture" and that he has received several comments from residents in the area saying how bad it looks.

Nasin said the main problem with the lawn is that it has not been watered this spring. He said it needs continual watering because of the extremely sandy soil. The lawn was re-seeded twice last year, Nasin said, and that it was growing in well late last fall.

Nasin agreed to add more seed and fertilizer to the lawn this week.

Phillips said that he also will send a sample of the soil to the University of Connecticut laboratories to see if it is receptive to grass growth. add one building.

Phillips stressed that he is holding Lawrence responsible for solving the lawn problem. He said the committee is not responsible for making the lawn acceptable, but is only responsible for approving it once it is acceptable according to the specifications of the contract.

The majority of the $1.4 million training center was approved by the committee previously, but certain items, such as the lawn were not accepted because of weather conditions. Additional landscaping was also done by Nasin, which Lawrence said was acceptable.

Phillips also said he would ask Norman Fendell, director of the center, to help with arrangements for daily watering of the lawn.

Agreement reported on Damato sewers

The town and the Eighth Utilities District have apparently reached an informal agreement on the plan to install sanitary sewers for the Sunnyside Apartments on New State St.; however, the form of the agreement is not clear.

Michael Massaro, president of the Eighth Utilities District, said Monday night at a special meeting of the district, which was voting on another sewer project, that he was withdrawing his previously stated disapproval of the New State St. project.

Massaro said that the town could go ahead with the sewer project without district approval. The sewer installation for the apartments was approved April 12 by the Town Board of Directors, but afterwards Massaro objected that the district had not been consulted for its approval.

According to Special Act 200, all sewer work north of Middle Tpke. must be approved by the district voters, as well as the town board.

Massaro said his reasons for withdrawing his objections were that he had not been aware of a previous agreement made on the sewer project, involving the attorneys of the district, Raymond F. Damato, owner of the apartments, and town officials.

Paul Marie, attorney for Damato, said today he first contacted Atty. John LaBelle, counsel for the district, on Nov. 24, 1976 to discuss Damato's intentions to install the sewer. LaBelle referred him to the town.

Marie said he initially was told by Town Manager Robert B. Weiss that he should consult the district since the apartments are in the disputed Backland area, which is still being appealed in court by the town.

Damato then went ahead with making arrangements with the town for the sewer, Marie said.

Tuesday, Weiss sent a letter to Massaro asking that the district take steps necessary to provide sewer for the Damato Apartments and the Industrial Park area, which is in the same section of town.

planned to bear the items would be deleted after this year.

The budget as approved will result in a $2,088,098 levy on the three district towns. The amount to be paid by each is: Andover, $397,782; Hebron, $969,922; and Marlborough, $720,394.

A special school board meeting following the budget session appointed Rosalie Carlson to the position of bookkeeper for the regional district.

Mrs. Carlson has been bookkeeper in the Hebron elementary schools since October 1971.

She replaces Mrs. Lorraine Foley, who resigned earlier this year due to her husband's transfer out of state.

Mrs. Foley is leaving Rham June 1.

Public works bill passed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—One part of President Carter's economic stimulus package — a $4 billion public works jobs bill was on the way to the White House today, while one group of House-Senate negotiators agreed on appropriations and another completed a tax cut bill.

The public works measure won final congressional approval Tuesday in the House on a 355-77 vote and now awaits Carter's signature. Its sponsors said by pumping additional funds into long-delayed local works projects, up to 600,000 new jobs could be created.

Conferees Tuesday finished work on $20 billion economic stimulus appropriations, including funds for the public works measure as well as money for increased revenue sharing, new funds for areas with higher than average unemployment and money for public service type jobs.

Later Tuesday night, other conferees put finishing touches on a tax cut measure designed to encourage contractor, to make some arrangements for improving the lawn.

Phillips said that he also will send a sample of the soil to the University of Connecticut laboratories to see if it is receptive to grass growth. add one building.

Phillips stressed that he is holding Lawrence responsible for solving the lawn problem. He said the committee is not responsible for making the lawn acceptable, but is only responsible for approving it once it is acceptable according to the specifications of the contract.

Rescuing driver from river

East Hartford firemen and paramedics work to rescue a driver whose car went into the Hockanum River behind the Powder Mill Shopping Plaza Tuesday night. The driver, Frank W. Haggerty, 69, of 75 Holmsted St., East Hartford, and a passenger, Grace E. Woodward, 61, of 135 Spruce St., Manchester, were admitted to Manchester Memorial Hospital in serious condition. Police said Haggerty's car went through the Powder Mill lot, down a bank and into the river at about 7:20 p.m. Investigation is continuing. (Photo by Earl Chastain)

Manchester police report

Two young Manchester women were arrested Tuesday in connection with a break and burglary at a Rachel Rd. apartment on April 22.

Arrested were Sharon D. Jerry, 16, of 83E Rachel Rd. and Susan M. O'Rourke, 18, of 22 Greenhill St., both charged with third-degree burglary. Police said a total of about $100 worth of household items was taken in the break.

Both women were released on $500 nonsurety bonds and scheduled for court appearances May 23.

James A. Barron, 20, of 45 Foxcroft Dr., was charged with breach of peace and third-degree larceny Tuesday in connection with an incident April 25. In the incident, another man was reportedly assaulted and items were taken from his car. Jeffrey A. Gorman, 20, of 56 E. Maple St., was arrested Monday in connection with the same incident. Barron was released on a $150 bond for court appearance May 23.

David J. Skipton, 20, of Springfield, Mass., charged with possession of less than four ounces of marijuana and operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor or drugs. He was arrested after his car ran off the road on Lydell St. He was checked for possible injuries at Manchester Memorial Hospital, then taken to police headquarters where he was processed. He is being held in lieu of a $200 bond.

David A. Moquin, 20, of 218 Spruce St., charged with breach of peace after allegedly causing a disturbance at Manchester Hospital emergency room where he was treated for a minor injury. He was held on a $100 bond.

John E. Biley, 41, of no certain address, charged with disorderly conduct in connection with a disturbance at a Lawn Rd. apartment. He was held in lieu of a $50 bond.

Ronald G. Quinn, 29, of East Hartford, charged with third-degree criminal mischief after two windows at a Spruce St. home were broken. He was held in lieu of $50 bond.

Police reported that floss netting over tobacco fields of Hartman Tobacco Co. on Burham St. was torn Monday night or early Tuesday. The damage to the netting was estimated at $500. The company also reported that graffiti has been painted on two tobacco sheds recently.

About $200 worth of tools were stolen from a car parked in the parking lot near Sears store in the Parkade Tuesday.

Short meeting okays Rham district budget

A nine-minute meeting Monday night unanimously approved a Regional District Board of Education budget of $2,231,684, as recommended by the school board.

Before the vote on the budget, board chairman Frank Shannon explained the addition of $2,940 to the budget, since the April hearing, for the summer athletic program and drama workshop.

Shannon said the board was notifying the town recreation commissions that the region will not include summer programs in the budget for 1978-79.

The only discussion on the budget came from Robert Olson, chairman of the Marlborough Board of Finance, who said he felt it was improper to include summer activities in the regional budget and was pleased to hear the items would be deleted after this year.

The budget as approved will result in a $2,088,098 levy on the three district towns. The amount to be paid by each is: Andover, $397,782; Hebron, $969,922; and Marlborough, $720,394.

A special school board meeting following the budget session appointed Rosalie Carlson to the position of bookkeeper for the regional district.

Mrs. Carlson has been bookkeeper in the Hebron elementary schools since October 1971.

She replaces Mrs. Lorraine Foley, who resigned earlier this year due to her husband's transfer out of state.

Mrs. Foley is leaving Rham June 1.

Deadline almost missed

Bolton
Bolton's annual budget meeting, scheduled for May 16, almost had to be delayed when the Board of Selectmen ran into some trouble Tuesday night.

The items to be approved at the meeting had not been approved by the selectmen. And the selectmen didn't have a list of the items. A Board Clerk Shirley Riley checked minutes of past meetings and verified some of the items needing approval.

But the selectmen didn't have a request from the Board of Finance for the town to adopt its 1977-78 budget. Nor did it have the finance board's request to approve appropriations from the capital and non-recurring account for several spending items.

A call to the finance board clerk gave selectmen the information about items needing their approval.

Selectmen ran into another problem with legal advertising for the budget meeting, which must be prepared by the town counsel and published five days before the meeting. It appears selectmen will just meet the deadline for publication.

Noise complaints
In other business Tuesday night, selectmen received two letters from Vernon Rd. residents complaining about noise from Alpha-Omega (the Bolton Lake Hotel).

Another Vernon Rd. resident attending the meeting complained about the inn's sewage system.

First Selectman David Dressely said Bolton has received little state support in attempts to force correction of the sewage problem.

Selectmen decided to tell Alpha-Omega of their concerns about the noise. They also decided to ask the state Liquor Control Commission to help solve the problem.

During the Alpha-Omega discussion, and at several other times Tuesday night, selectmen reiterated the need for a cost laboratory in Bolton.

Receive petition
Selectman received a 35-signature petition from residents of Rollings Hills Trail, asking the board to revoke a driveway permit issued to Alan Robbins.

Dressely said he saw no reason to revoke the permit, although

Anderson waives recount

Andover
Democrat Thomas Anderson, who was defeated in his bid for Andover first selectman, waived the right to a recount Tuesday. Anderson was entitled to a recount because he came within 10 votes of being elected to the Board of Selectmen.

In Monday's town election, 694 persons voted. Of that number, 243 were Republicans, 264 were Democrats and 177 were unaffiliated.

Anderson has 1,159 registered voters. Of that number 348 are Republicans, 431 are Democrats and 380 are unaffiliated.

GOP backs budget plan

Coventry
The Coventry Republican Town Committee voted Tuesday night to support the Town Council's proposed budget, which would reduce the town's tax rate by one mill.

The GOP Town Committee, however, recommends that the council take another $45,000 (one mill) from unappropriated cash surplus to further reduce taxes.

The surplus account now has $138,000, although the council proposed to use some of that account to reduce taxes. The account will still have $90,000 after the proposed reduction.

Town auditors recommend the town retain the equivalent of one mill in that account for unexpected needs, Councilman Robert Keller said.

Keller explained the budget to the group and answered questions. All members were urged to attend the Annual Town Meeting next Friday to support the council budget proposal.

Rental aid pact delayed

South Windsor
A resolution to enter into an agreement with Imaginiers Inc. of Hartford for the administration of subsidized housing in South Windsor was removed from the Town Council agenda Monday night and will be handled by the local Housing Authority.

Frank Alessi, chairman of the Housing Authority, said it will meet with Imaginiers soon.

Deputy Mayor Robert Myette supported the resolution but tabled when it first appeared on the agenda two weeks ago. The council asked Town Atty. Thomas Dennis for an opinion on whether the program should be dealt with by the council or the Housing Authority.

Section 8 Housing Assistance would permit qualified residents to pay no more than 25 per cent of their income for rent.

Social Services Adviser Peter Santarpia said he estimates 20 to 30 local families would be eligible for the program.

In other business Monday night, the council appointed Roland Aubin, David Patria and Joseph Vedovato to the Building Code Board of Appeals.

Vernon budget is ready for annual meeting

By BARBARA RICHMOND Herald Reporter
The Vernon Town Council Tuesday night restored $28,000 to the police budget, added to non-tax revenues and deducted from the tax collector's, recreation, pension fund and capital improvements budgets.

A public hearing last week devoted most of the time to explaining why the police budget shouldn't have been cut by the council.

Mayor Thomas Benoit said he was told by Police Chief Herman Fritz that $28,000 will restore some of the equipment the department needs, "but it will still be a very tight budget."

The department request was for $1 million. The mayor recommended $961,952 and the council recommended $948,197.

The original revenue estimate presented to the council March 22 was $4,495,922. Tuesday night, a revised estimate included $790,047 which will be subject to enactment by the General Assembly and some cash surplus, totaling $4,627,515.

The tentative additional revenues would include Town Aid Road Grant, $24,200; guaranteed tax base and lottery grant, $146,447, and motor vehicle property tax pro-rate, $300,000.

Benoit said the governor has also stated that any additional funding received by the state in the 1977-1978 fiscal year, under Title II of the federal Emergency Public Works Act, would be passed through to towns as unrestricted block grants.

He also said favorable Congressional action would mean that Vernon would continue to receive federal Title II grant funds next year on a direct basis. To date, Vernon has received three payments totaling $91,326.

The amount to be raised by taxes, assuming no growth in the Grand List, at the present mill rate of 55 and a 98 per cent collection rate, would be $9,151,856.

Additional tax revenue generated from a .47 million growth in the Grand List, the 58 mill rate and 98 per cent collection, would equal $27,585. This total of $9.4 million would mean $814,358 would have to be raised by increasing the tax rate.

With the value of one mill at $174,112, a 4.7-mill increase would be needed to balance the 1977-78 budget.

The $9,010 removed from the tax collector's budget was for the salary of an assistant and the $9,000 removed from the outdoor recreation budget was also for the salary of an assistant director. It is assumed these positions can be filled through the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) funds.

The council also reduced the pension fund by $5,000 and the capital improvements budget by $25,000.

The council was shocked to hear, from Arnold Zachin of the Insurance Advisory Board, that the Hartford Insurance Group would not renew the town's contract "because the loss record has been deteriorating so badly in the last year and a half."

The town purchases fire, general liability, automotive, and workmen's compensation coverages.

Zachin said on general liability the town was paying about $44,000 and when the Hartford Group was asked to reconsider it finally gave a cost of about $119,000. The council had appropriated $130,000 for all insurance and Zachin said it looks like it would need closer to $180,000 to $190,000.

Zachin was asked to try and get some other quotes. Councilman Thomas Dooley said, "We can't afford to go higher; maybe we should reduce our coverage and take a risk, or consider self-insurance."

Mayor Benoit said he will contact other towns in the area. He said maybe the towns will have to get together and go down a different road. He asked Zachin to come back with a recommendation from the advisory board.

The council also discussed the possibility of leasing trucks for refuse collections, instead of buying new ones.

The mayor appointed an interim subcommittee, headed by Mrs. Marie Herbst, to study reviving a Merit Board for the town.

Gilbert avenges loss to East by 13-4 count

By LENA AUSTER
Herald Sports Editor

Mistakes of omission and commission by East Catholic opened the door and opportunistic Gilbert High took advantage to register a 13-4 non-conference baseball win yesterday at Eagle Field.

Winced mustered just nine hits, but most came at the right time usually following walks (7), East errors (6), and other assorted sundries.

"You can't complain about the pitching," stated East Coach Jim Penders. "But the defense, plus more mental errors in the first three innings than ever before."

The victory by the defending state Class M champs avenges an earlier setback to the Eagles and pegs the "Yellow Jackets" overall record to 7-2. East had its three-game winning streak and now stands 4-5 for the campaign.

The visitors from blow a three-run double off the base of the leftfield wall by Wayne Lippincott. That two-bagger came off Frank Greene, who 3 2/3-innings fanned eight while allowing no runs.

Gilbert completed its scoring in the eighth and ninth frames, putting two tallies on the scoreboard in each.

East got a run in the fifth on Pete Kiro's RBI double, two in the sixth and added a final tally in the ninth on Don Martin's RBI triple.

marked second baseman Tom Zecchin also notching three runs batted in. Paul Winn went the first 5 2/3-innings for Gilbert to gain his third triumph without a loss. The Yellow Jackets played errorless ball with third sacker Jay Lemere coming up with two fine plays.

John Murphy had three hits and an RBI and Kiro had a pair of blows for the Eagles.

One distinction

Baseball's Hall of Fame will not have a place for Ken MacKenzie, current Yale varsity baseball coach, but the former major league lefthanded pitcher has one distinction to his credit in our national pastime.

The 42-year-old MacKenzie posted a 5-4 non-loss record with the New York Mets in their first year in the National League in 1962.

By winning more games than he lost, MacKenzie became the first Met hurler to record a season winning record.

MacKenzie, now in his ninth year as Yale's coach, is a Yale grad who attracted attention when he won 19 of 25 games over a 73 game period at New Haven and bagged a brilliant 1.77 earned run average. Eleven of his wins were scored over Harvard and Princeton.

Signed by the Milwaukee Braves after graduation, he spent five years in the minors before being sold to the Mets. Over an eight-year period, the onetime Yale whiz played with the Cardinals, Giants, Astros and Expos before coming to Yale.

Before a recent game at Yale Field, MacKenzie was going over the ground rules with the umpires when he thought back to his days with the Mets and related this yarn.

"Yogi Berra (as a Met coach during MacKenzie's time) always came out with the lineup cards for the ump's and to go over the ground rules.

"The ump's always explained the ground rules but this particular game, Mel Steiner, I believe it was, decided to let Berra take over," MacKenzie recalled.

"Steiner checked the lineup cards and then turned to Berra and said, 'Yogi, you give the ground rules.'"

"Berra was 'cough, you should be managed to say, 'O.K., any ball that goes over the fence is a home run and it broke the umpiring crew into laughter,' MacKenzie added.

There's also a yarn that makes the banquet circle about MacKenzie who played under Casey Stengel as Mets' manager.

MacKenzie remarked to Stengel that he was probably drawing the lowest salary of any 1966 Yale grad.

"Stengel, never at a loss for words, shot back, 'And I bet you've got the highest earned run average, too, of any Yale grad of 1966.'"

MacKenzie, who also played and coached hockey at Yale, succeeded another former major league as head baseball coach, Ethan Allen in 1969.

Ace on 18th

Harry Atherton is one of the veteran golfing members of the Manchester Country Club.

Monday, playing in a foursome with Jim Breen, Walter Ferguson and Bill Ogden, Atherton waited until the 18th hole before getting a hole-in-one.

Atherton was teamed against Ogden and the latter was one up before teeing off on the final hole. He registered a birdie on the two-stroke lead was shortlived when Atherton saw his ball drop in the hole, 159-yards away to knot the count. Assistant Pro Joe DiMinico reported yesterday Breen birdied the 18th and Ferguson settled for a par.

Rham nips Cheney on ball field, 2-1

Three hits in the sixth inning, the only one it would get, pushed across the winning run to give Rham High a 2-1 Charter Oak Conference baseball win over Cheney Tech yesterday in Hebron.

The triumph ups Rham's record to 5-3 while Cheney slips to 2-6 with the loss.

Rham got a run in the first as Tim Fisher walked, stole second, advanced to third on a groundout and scored on a passed ball.

It remained that way until the sixth inning when the Schemis finally got a safety of Cheney hurler Bob Walker. The first hit was by Fisher. Then Crandell Yopp singled to

Tribe girls bow on softball field

Manchester High's girls' softball team dropped a 9-7 verdict to Windham High yesterday at Fitzgerald Field.

The Silk Towers, now 4-5, took a 3-0 lead in the second inning on Doreen Downham's triple, two walks and three consecutive singles. But the visiting Whipple's retaliated with four runs in the third with the big blow Cathy Moreau's three-run homer.

Windham added four runs in the fourth frame with Moreau adding a home run in the sixth. Manchester managed just one run in the fifth and three in the seventh with the final rally falling short.

Ellen Donadio had three hits for Manchester. Downham took the loss.

Manchester's Jayvees upped their record to 4-0.

East Hartford trackmen easily outpoint Indians

Manchester High's boys' track team, which the past two years had beaten East Hartford High by one point, didn't find the magic yesterday as the Hornets scored a resounding 90-55 CCIL victory at Pete Wigren Track.

The victory keeps East Hartford in the unbeaten ranks at 5-0 while the Silk Towers now sport a 2-2 log.

Karl Golnik, throwing with a bad back, took second place in the discus for Manchester with teammate Matt Walsh third. East Hartford had two wins, Rich Brunelle in the 120 and 330-yard hurdles and Ron Ravalese in the shot put and discus.

Glenn Flodoroff and Wes Fedorchak took one-two in the 100-yard run for Manchester with teammate Carl Kjellson winning the high jump. Tim Wrobel with a personal best of 42-feet, 9-inch took second in the shot put. Ed Lemieux with a personal best 10:17 took second in the two-mile run.

East Hartford's Larry Komarenko was a triple winner, taking the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the long jump.

Pirates look tough again

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates were supposed to be remodeled during the winter with the accent on speed and defense and their Eastern Division rivals sighed with relief that they no longer would be facing that rat-tat-tat attack which was Pittsburgh's trademark.

It hasn't worked out that way. The Pirates have more speed and defense than in recent seasons, but they still score runs in bunches and look every bit as tough offensively as in the past.

And now, Tuesday night's 8-7, 11-inning triumph over the Atlanta Braves, has moved them into first place in the East. The Braves, meanwhile, have lost 10 straight games.

Right fielder Dave Parker led the Pirates' 12-hit attack with two homers and a single and drove in three runs. The Braves tied the score in the seventh inning on a two-run homer by Jeff Burroughs, but the Pirates won the game in the 11th with the winning run scoring on a sacrifice fly by Ed Kirkpatrick.

Kent Tekulue, who shot a straight game for the ninth and 10th innings, received credit for his second victory while Phil Niekro, who went the distance, suffered his fifth loss without a win.

Elsewhere in the NL, Chicago whipped Houston, 9-0, Los Angeles beat New York, 4-1, Philadelphia topped San Diego, 8-7, in 10 innings, and Montreal clobbered San Francisco, 3-2.

Gabe S. Astros 9. Ray Burris pitched a five-hitter for his third win and Manny Trillo hit a three-run homer to lift Chicago past Houston. Bill Buckner had three doubles, including one which opened a four-run seventh-inning rally. J. R. Richard was the losing pitcher.

Dodgers 4, Mets 1. Burt Hooton pitched a four-hitter and struck out 11 while Phil Niekro pitched a straight game for the ninth and 10th innings, received credit for his second victory while Phil Niekro, who went the distance, suffered his fifth loss without a win.

Elsewhere in the NL, Chicago whipped Houston, 9-0, Los Angeles beat New York, 4-1, Philadelphia topped San Diego, 8-7, in 10 innings, and Montreal clobbered San Francisco, 3-2.

Area baseball

Coventry High dropped its third straight baseball decision yesterday, 2-1, to Vinal Tech in Charter Oak Conference play at the Patriots' field.

In other area contests, Bolton High was outslugged by Cromwell, 17-4, and Ellington High blanked Tolland, 9-0.

Final Tech pushed across the winning run in the sixth as it remained unbeaten at 8-0. Mark Morse went the distance and absorbed the loss for the Bears.

Hilling JV
Hilling Junior High's jayvee baseball team bowled 8-7 to Vernon yesterday.

Scott LaBrec had three hits and Rich Mikoleit doubled for Illing. Danny White played well defensively for 9-1 Hilling.

Golf
Cheney Tech's golf team fell under the 500 mark to 24 yesterday, bowing 3-2 to Rocky Hill High at Manchester Country Club.

Mike Fraser and Fran Maloney picked up points for the Beavers but the visiting Terriers took the match by winning the medal point by 19 strokes.

Results: Chamon (RH) def. Vinal Tech 1-0; Fraser (CT) def. Cabot 2-1; Maloney (CT) def. Holmes 8-4; Blunar (RH) def. Panthanos 10-8.

Football draft
NEW YORK (UPI) — The 28 National Football League clubs start searching in the haystack at 10 a.m. (EDT) today in the final seven rounds of the college player draft to find the proverbial needle.

Young pitching staff gives Brewers' lift

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bill Travers, 24, Jerry Augustine, 24, Moose Haas, 21, Barry Cort, 21, and Jim Slating, 26, are five good reasons the Milwaukee Brewers are in first place in the American League East, 1 1/2 games ahead of the fast-charging New York Yankees.

The Yankees with Fingers, Gullett and Hunter have more of a veteran staff than ours," says McLish, "but I wouldn't trade our guys for theirs straight up."

"They're the youngest, sure, but they could be the best too."

Latest to shine in the Brewers' "kiddie corps" is Cort, a 6-foot-5 right-hander who notched his first major league victory Tuesday night with a 6-2 decision over the Toronto Blue Jays.

The Brewers gave Cort the support he needed with three hits in the third, two of them coming on a single by Jon Voshaq.

Elsewhere in the American League, Chicago routed California, 9-1, Chicago outslugged Kansas City, 8-4, Texas blanked Detroit, 14-0, Minnesota edged Cleveland, 4-3, in 10 innings, and Seattle outlasted Boston, 10-8.

Yankees 8, Angels 1. Bucky Dent hit his first grand slam in the major leagues.

American League

leagues and Reggie Jackson added a two-run shot to key a seven-run fourth inning, which gave the Yankees their 11th win in 12 games. Recently acquired Mike Torrez, picked up his first victory as a Yankee by pitching five innings of one-hit ball before leaving with a blister on his pitching hand.

"Sox 8, Royals 4. Richie Zisk, the American League home-run leader, belted his eighth of the season — a two-run homer in the third — Tuesday night with a 6-2 decision over the Toronto Blue Jays.

The Brewers gave Cort the support he needed with three hits in the third, two of them coming on a single by Jon Voshaq.

Elsewhere in the American League, Chicago routed California, 9-1, Chicago outslugged Kansas City, 8-4, Texas blanked Detroit, 14-0, Minnesota edged Cleveland, 4-3, in 10 innings, and Seattle outlasted Boston, 10-8.

Cougar nine loses

Dropping its third straight, Manchester Community College's baseball team fell to Housatonic Community College, 10-3, yesterday in Bridgeport.

The Cougars, 11-8, have a makeup game today in Housatonic, 10-19-0, got a run in the first with the locals knocking it in the second on John Zadrozny's double followed by two wild pitches.

The home-standing Hawks then tallied four runs in their half of the frame before Mark McMahon's RBI single in the fifth cut it to 5-2. Housatonic put it away with four markers in the seventh with MCC getting one back in the ninth on a triple by Tom Kearney and infield out.

Craig Zysk, Bob Henry and Frank Degenero each had two hits for Housatonic. Kearney had three hits and McMahon and Tom Dawson two apiece for MCC. Dawson absorbed the loss.

News for senior citizens

Hi! We started to register for a day at the dog track this past Monday, and we're surprised that we only filled one bus by the end of the day. After this long, cold winter and the high cost of fuel, I felt there would be a lot of folks who would like to win some of that money back. Even if you're not a real bettor, where can you go for a day out, the excitement of watching the dogs chase the rabbit around, then stop for a delicious buffet meal on the way home. We will take a second bus if we can fill it, so give it some thought and stop by to sign up. The complete trip of a bus ride, ticket to the track and a buffet lunch is $9. This trip is scheduled for Thursday, May 19, as part of our Big Week.

Cruise
Speaking of trips, a last reminder to all going on the Bermuda-Nassau cruise. The show starts with a bus ride from our Center this Saturday at 10:30 a.m., and we'll be boarding the ship at 2 p.m.

Paul wants to remind you all to pack a nice lunch, because after eating your breakfast you won't be eating again until dinner time that night. By packing a lunch, you can crunch on it on the bus and that will hold you for a while. So plan on arriving here at the center around 10 a.m., and also remember that your main suitcase will be placed on the bus and you will not see it until you get into your cabin on the ship. So bring a little carry-on bag that you can handle and keep your pills, etc. in that where you can get at them when needed.

Other trips
Still on trips, this coming Monday we sign up for two trips. One trip is to the Boston Red Sox-Yankee game on Tuesday evening May 31. We only have 40 tickets to go on sale and we'll go on a first-come basis. The other trip is for our week at Wildwood, N.J., scheduled for June 13 through the 17.

The price for the Wildwood trip is $100 and includes bus, hotel, meals, and entertainment. It's a five-day package and a deposit of at least $50 per person must be paid when signing.
A reminder once again that one person can sign up for just two persons and we start signing up around 8 a.m. However, a number of people arrive here at the center around seven and some even earlier than that, therefore a word to the wise. We will not take reservations for any trip over the phone until we have given members a chance in person.
Center events
Let's talk about the happenings here at the center and we start with last Friday afternoon's setback

Hospital auxiliary honors member, elects officers

By JUNE TOMPKINS
Herald Reporter
The Manchester Memorial Hospital Auxiliary paid tribute to one of its members and elected officers at its annual luncheon meeting Monday at The Colony.
Mrs. Vivian Ferguson was presented with an inscribed silver broad tray in recognition of her 15-year volunteer service with the hospital's Gift Shop, 10 of them as shop chairperson.
The group accorded her a standing ovation after the presentation.
With the increase of business responsibilities, the auxiliary has appointed Mrs. Ruth Edwards manager of the Gift Shop with full administrative powers working directly under the chairperson who is Mrs. Alexander Elgner.
Mrs. Gerald Hall of 58 Plymouth Lane was elected president of the MMH Auxiliary. She succeeds Mrs. William Stuck.
Other officers elected are Mrs. Jeffrey Barnes, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Stone, second vice-president; Mrs. Norman Connolly, secretary; Mrs. Paul Martz, treasurer.

Board members appointed for next two-year terms are as follows: Mrs. Aaron Cook, community outreach; Mrs. Alexander Elgner, Gift Shop; Mrs. Philip Zaparka, library cart; Mrs. Joseph Swenson, nominating; Mrs. William Norris, pediatric craft corner; Mrs. Edison Davis, Penny Saver; Mrs. Raymond Peracchio, physical therapy; Mrs. Roderick Myers, program; Mrs. Richard Davis, publicity; Mrs. Alexander Elgner, receptionist; Mrs. Martin Harvill, tours; Mrs. Robert Barnes, ward clerks.
Board members appointed to fill unexpired terms are as follows: Mrs. Robert Heavside, baby photos; Mrs. Francis Dieterle, coffee cart; Mrs. C.W. Wickersham, communique; Mrs. Lloyd Foster, emergency department; Mrs. Robert Russell, finance; Mrs. Walter Johnson, hostesses; Mrs. John Wheeler, junior volunteers; Mrs. William Stuck, member-at-large; Mrs. Richard Bolin, membership; Mrs. Jack Hunter, social.

"Exercise and physical fitness are not a fad." This statement followed by comments on the relationship of the two to good health came from the group's guest speaker, Robert A. Habasevich.
"Less than five per cent of those over 25 years of age are physically fit," said Habasevich, director of rehabilitation services at the University of Connecticut Health Center in Farmington.
A registered physical therapist and assistant professor of UConn's School of Allied Health at Storrs, Habasevich told the group that one of the causes of coronary, the number one killer in the western world, is lack of physical exercise.
He said it is erroneous to believe that the older one grows, the less is the need for exercise.
"When was the last time you exercised to a point of over 108 heart beats a minute?" he asked.

Card party
Then on Friday, May 20, we have tickets for our final but biggest treat of Big Week, Our Big Set-Back, Military Whist Card Party at the Community Y on N. Main St. Our super-good friends, Mary and Ed McKeever will again run the show for us. We have two hard-working gals, Eve Warner and Irene Bisette who took time to solicit some very nice door prizes donated by many of the local merchants.
So you see, things are beginning to move around here and my advice is to get your tickets right soon because we will be somewhat limited to the numbers for each event.
Speaking of the McKeever, the Mary half of the family will be with us tomorrow afternoon to explain all use all who would like to and those who don't, we hope they really enjoy our programs.
We know many who would like to help, but can't for good reasons. We understand this and appreciate that they do find time to participate. For those who feel our center is a clique, well it must be a big one, because on the 18th of this month, we will pay honor to over 75 volunteers who so graciously gave of their time to help us this past season.
Now here are the volunteers for May and June. For our kitchen social games Ernie Irwin will do the calling assisted by George Vallone, Violet Dion and Ernestine Donnelly will handle the cards and canned goods. In the kitchen for our morning coffee break will be Johanna Badstuber, Anna Demko and Ann Thompson. For our card games, Gladys Seelert and John Gally with George Last as an assistant. Marge Reed will be handling the bridge games.

Senior volunteers

As you remember, we started something new this past year by putting all our Senior Volunteers on a two-month tour of duty. Every two months we make a change and in that way, we try to reach all of those who would like to help us one way or another.
Funny thing though, every so often we get the word that some of our members mention that the Senior Center is okay only if you're in the clique. Let us tell you this. Those who talk like that are just the ones who will not offer their help by volunteering. Therefore, we try to use all who would like to and those who don't, we hope they really enjoy our programs.

Then on Friday, May 20, we have tickets for our final but biggest treat of Big Week, Our Big Set-Back, Military Whist Card Party at the Community Y on N. Main St. Our super-good friends, Mary and Ed McKeever will again run the show for us. We have two hard-working gals, Eve Warner and Irene Bisette who took time to solicit some very nice door prizes donated by many of the local merchants.
So you see, things are beginning to move around here and my advice is to get your tickets right soon because we will be somewhat limited to the numbers for each event.
Speaking of the McKeever, the Mary half of the family will be with us tomorrow afternoon to explain all use all who would like to and those who don't, we hope they really enjoy our programs.
We know many who would like to help, but can't for good reasons. We understand this and appreciate that they do find time to participate. For those who feel our center is a clique, well it must be a big one, because on the 18th of this month, we will pay honor to over 75 volunteers who so graciously gave of their time to help us this past season.
Now here are the volunteers for May and June. For our kitchen social games Ernie Irwin will do the calling assisted by George Vallone, Violet Dion and Ernestine Donnelly will handle the cards and canned goods. In the kitchen for our morning coffee break will be Johanna Badstuber, Anna Demko and Ann Thompson. For our card games, Gladys Seelert and John Gally with George Last as an assistant. Marge Reed will be handling the bridge games.

Knockout planned

Here's some good news for you folks who love to eat. Our good friend, Norman Fendell, director of the ROTC building is offering a real treat for you folks. This Thursday he is serving a knockout, all you can eat.

Hospital to expand parking lot facility

The Manchester Memorial Hospital Auxiliary paid tribute to one of its members and elected officers at its annual luncheon meeting Monday at The Colony.
Mrs. Vivian Ferguson was presented with an inscribed silver broad tray in recognition of her 15-year volunteer service with the hospital's Gift Shop, 10 of them as shop chairperson.
The group accorded her a standing ovation after the presentation.
With the increase of business responsibilities, the auxiliary has appointed Mrs. Ruth Edwards manager of the Gift Shop with full administrative powers working directly under the chairperson who is Mrs. Alexander Elgner.
Mrs. Gerald Hall of 58 Plymouth Lane was elected president of the MMH Auxiliary. She succeeds Mrs. William Stuck.
Other officers elected are Mrs. Jeffrey Barnes, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Stone, second vice-president; Mrs. Norman Connolly, secretary; Mrs. Paul Martz, treasurer.

Youngsters The magic of poetry

By BETTY RYDER
Family/Travel Editor
Thomas Carlyle wrote "A vein of poetry exists in the hearts of all men," and Maria Sassi, poet-in-residence for the Fine Arts Program in the Manchester Public Schools, has proved that such a vein also exists in the hearts of the very young.

Maria, a writer and poet, conducts workshops for children and also gives readings of her work in the Greater Hartford area.
She has just completed conducting classes in poetry for the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades at Buckley School in Manchester.
"The fifth and sixth graders are calling their section, 'Poems—New Poets!'"
This past winter, Maria also taught a class at Temple Beth Shalom School and at the Braeburn School in West Hartford.
The works of the youthful poets will be exhibited at the Hartford Art Festival on June 5 and will encompass poetry from students in all three schools.
Maria, who lives in West Hartford, will be teaching classes in poetry for youngsters 7 to 10 years of age, for eight weeks beginning the first Tuesday in July at Footprints at 466 Main St., Manchester.
"The program is called 'Open Up to Poetry' and will include writing poems around us and inside us," she said.

Dick and Diane prepare Polet Veronique

If you attended the Manchester Scholarship Foundation's Gourmet Dinner, you no doubt enjoyed "Polet Veronique," which was one of the many delicious dishes served. But if you didn't attend, you can still try your hand at making this recipe.

Working that night as executive chef was Diana Boutby of East Hartford with Richard Bassiere of Coventry as assistant chef. Both Diana and Richard are sophomores in the Hotel & Food Service Management program at Manchester Community College.

Students in the HFSS program rotate jobs, and that night it was Diana and Richard's turn.

Richard will be attending the University of Nevada at Las Vegas where he will be studying hotel and restaurant administration.

Diane will assume the position of food production manager at a nursing home.

Here is the recipe they prepared for the Gourmet Dinner:

Polet Veronique
(Chicken with white grape sauce)
3 1/2 lb. chickens
8 oz. long grain rice
1 lb. mushrooms
1 whole egg
Currant jelly
1/4 lb. butter
Chicken bouillon cube
1/2 cup sherry wine
3 tbs. flour
6 frozen patty shells
Cook rice according to directions on package and allow to cool. Mince mushrooms and add to cold rice and seasoning and whole egg. Bone out chickens allowing one-half chicken per order. Place chicken skin side down on table and place rice stuffing in middle of each portion. Bring up both sides of chicken towards center and turn over with seams down and shape with hands till it resembles a stuffed cabbage. Melt butter and currant jelly together. 'Til jelly is dissolved. Spoon over chicken and bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes - keep warm in clean pan.

Sauce: Pick up all drippings from pan that chicken was roasted in with flour and add one cup of water, sherry wine and chicken bouillon cube. Allow to simmer and adjust seasoning with salt and pepper. Strain and carefully fold in seedless grapes. Serve chicken on top of patty shell and crown with white grape sauce.

On second thought

By JAN WARREN

I'd rather have writer's cramp!

On the very day that the U.S. Supreme Court made its decision on corporal punishment, our teen-ager daughter was issued and ultimatum by the principal of her Mississippi high school. Either she write, "I will not chew gum in Mr. Watkins' class!" 1,000 times, or she would get three wacks with a paddle. The principal gave her till 8 a.m. the next morning to make her decision.

Now I feel very strongly that our kids should fight their own battles and take responsibility for their actions. But I feel just as strongly about corporal punishment, particularly for 17-year-old girls whose crime is chewing gum...SUGARLESS GUM (even a dentist wouldn't object to that!)

Therefore I abandoned all the principal I usually stand for, sharpened my pencil, and helped my daughter write-off her punishment.

One thousand is a lot of times to write "I will not chew gum in Mr. Watkins' class!" Sara had obviously had some experience with this kind of writing before, because she let me in on the story.

"The way to do this," she said, "is to do a row of I, then a row of will, then a row of not. And don't forget the period after Mr. He's a stickler for that!"

"Sara, you're hopeless," I cried. Then I added, "I've learned something from the experience, too. I will NOT chew gum in Mr. Watkins' class!"

motion without raising my pencil from the paper, even to cross the "I" or to do the "will."

We stopped several times to moan and groan and wiggle our fingers but for the most part we stuck to our work till it was finished. The whole process took two and one-half hours.

"When! Have I learned something from this experience," said Sara when we were finally finished.

"Never again. From now on I'll take the whack...whack...whack...and it will be over!"

"Sara, you're hopeless," I cried. Then I added, "I've learned something from the experience, too. I will NOT chew gum in Mr. Watkins' class!"

Lead poisoning dangers

DEAR DR. LAMB— We just learned that my husband has lead poisoning. What is the prognosis and treatment for this disease?

At first it was thought to be gout. There was pain in the wrist and ankles. Then pain in the shoulder started and the doctor suspected bursitis. Next rheumatoid arthritis was suspected but a blood test was negative.

The pain kept getting worse and involving more parts of the body—shoulders, wrist, hands, fingers, elbows, knees and lower back. A general feeling of no strength, being tired all the time, gray gums accompanied by a weight loss.

Finally another blood test and urine analysis led to the present diagnosis.

Perhaps you can alert people that it is very possible for adults to get lead poisoning from occupation or whatever.

DEAR READER— Occupational lead poisoning is rather widespread in our modern society. Most of the news items have emphasized the lead poisoning that occurs in children from picking off bits of old lead-based paint.

Lead can be absorbed from fumes in the air, through the skin or swallowed. Lead is used commercially in many industries. Most industries that use lead have a safety routine that helps prevent lead poisoning. A heavy emphasis is placed on washing and changing clothes after exposure, before eating or before going home. Smelting, printing, parts of the petroleum industry, mining, storage battery manufacture, ceramic and glass work and plumbing are all examples of some of the industries using lead.

Lead can affect the digestive system causing severe abdominal pain from cramps of the digestive system. The pain may resemble an acute surgical condition but the pain is usually not made worse by pressing on the abdomen. The pressure may even give some relief.

Anemia may occur. The nervous system may be involved and can cause convulsions, paralysis and nerve damage.

Involvement of the muscles causing the kind of pain your husband experiences does occur. Interference with the normal elimination of uric acid by the kidneys may cause high uric acid levels and a condition we call "staircase gait" so I am not surprised your doctor entertained a diagnosis of gout.

The gray or bluish line you noted on the gums is a sulfide and we call this a lead line.

The diagnosis is made by laboratory studies identifying the increased amounts of lead and lead elimination in the urine.

Involvement of the brain is an emergency, otherwise the treatment is gradual and usually highly successful. Your husband should recover completely.

Removal from exposure to lead is important. The pressure used to help wash out the lead from the body. If some muscles are weak, then physical therapy to

THE FAMILY LAWYER by Will Bernard

Disembarking from plane

Martha whistled a sigh of relief when the airplane touched down safely at her destination.

"This was my first flight," she explained to a nearby stewardess. But as Martha emerged from the exit door, she failed to notice a sharp drop to the platform of the ramp. She lost her balance, fell, and suffered injury.

Shortly after she filed a damage action against the airline, charging negligence. And after a court test she won a substantial verdict. The court pointed out that the stewardess, aware of Martha's inexperience, should have given her fair warning of the danger at the doorway.

In its role as a common carrier, an airline bears a high degree of responsibility for passenger safety during embarkation and disembarkation. This involves not only "fair warning" about hazards but also the proper maintenance of boarding facilities.

Thus, liability was imposed in a second case because the retractable stairway was not firmly anchored in place. Under the weight of a departing passenger the stairway shifted position, dumping him down the steps.

Again, the court saw this as the kind of mishap that due care by the airline could have forestalled. Of course, the passenger has responsibilities as well. Take this case:

An elderly traveler, handicapped by arthritis, started down the steps with a steady hand on the railing. But he let go before he reached the bottom and lost his footing.

In this situation a court decided he could not blame the airline, since it had been within his own power to prevent the accident. The court noted also that he was accompanied by a companion who, if asked, could easily have lent him a helping hand.

Growing older

Finding funds in the field of aging

Meet the "Money" book. The projects funded under the Older Americans Act keep us alive. Well, just about alive. There's money for housing and health. There's money for welfare, education, income. There's money for employment. In some areas there's money for social security. Within these defined programmatic categories, directors and staff in offices of the aging do as good a job as they can.

benefiting the aged. Here again we get chapter and verse. This book tells readers how to apply for foundation money. The authors assume that the foundations listed awarded their grants to nonprofit institutions rather than to individuals. But it's important to make a special point. We are a nation of joiners. A great many Americans who care about their communities are members of nonprofit institutions and organizations. Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions clubs sponsor national and local programs to improve the quality of life among senior citizens. The same is true of religious institutions. The educational establishments and youth groups such as the Scouts and 4-H also want to help.

This brings us back to the "money" book. The correct name of the book is, "A National Guide to Government and Foundation Funding Sources in the Field of Aging." The authors are Lilly Cohen, MA, of Adelphi University's Program on Aging, and Marie Oppedisano Reich, PhD, of the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs, both in New York.

The book covers data relative to federal and state grants as distributed under the Older Americans Act. Additionally, there are analyses of other federal programs whose purposes may be applicable to some funding of the aging. Then there is grant information about state programs, state agency activities, area agency planning and social services related to the aged.

There is also a breakdown by federal catalog number and program title of ongoing aging programs. The categories run from volunteerism through mental health from education to supportive services; from behavioral research to veterans' programs to nursing homes — and more.

If there's a program for the aged working, this book will give readers a full financial story. The who, what, where, why of getting the money is covered. The "how much money" is listed. The "how to ask for the money" is explained. Eligibility requirements and where to apply are specified. The application procedure is defined. Any official senior citizen office anywhere in the United States can check its own programs and expenditures against the data in this "money" book.

What follows the breakdown of the federal and state availability in this funding guide is just as important. We get to Chapter IV. That's the listing by states of foundations interested in programs that support the aging. Their names are in this book for a reason. Between January 1972, and August 1976, the 126 foundations are named made 500 grants of $5,000, or more for projects

The solar dog house, called "Charlie's house," was built by Thomas E. Brown of Coventry and Robert M. Snigis of Waterbury. The project was designed to show how solar heating can be used in a small animal shelter.

Another project, a solar tracking mount, was built by Earl J. Brown of 407 Center St. and Ronald P. Casassa of Groton, to illustrate the increasing sophistication of solar energy harnessing. The track enables the collectors to

Retired teachers to have luncheon

The Manchester Retired Teachers' Association will have its annual luncheon Monday at noon at the Manchester Country Club. There will be election of officers.

Give your brainchild one of ours.

Right now, we're having a sale that celebrates those special events that only happen once. A sale that says those once in a lifetime events deserve a once in a lifetime purchase: a Singer* sewing machine at prices lower than ever before.

Two museum volunteers given service awards

Two members of the Lutz Junior Museum Volunteer League in Manchester were presented with special service awards and officers were elected Monday at the league's annual luncheon meeting.

The awards were two scholarships to the summer classes given at the Oak Grove Nature Center given by the Lutz Junior Museum Volunteer League in the name of Dianne Goodwin and Ann Conde, the award winners.

The luncheon was in honor of the museum volunteers who put in nearly 6,000 hours during 1976-1977. Donna Haack was elected president of the league.

Other officers elected are Kris Whalen, vice-president; Diane Goodwin, secretary; Sandy Jones, treasurer.

Committee chairmen appointed are Martha Russell and Mariys Dvorak, membership; Pat Crombie and Rosemarie Kunz, hospitality; Linda Haberman and Elaine Gould, crafts; Carole Cheney, clerical; Carol Clevering, exhibits; Ruth Wilson, Library; Marie Patulak, telephone; Kris Whalen, publicity; Sandy Jones, school loan; Martha Montany, expediting; Grace Barrett, accessioning; Edith Palmer, store; Lila Elam, receptionist.

Curators appointed are Lane Pastel Schneider and Donna Haack, history; Susan Cahalan, science; Betty Bleiler, social science; Edith Palmer, natural history; Michele Welch, industry.

Volunteers earning 10-year pins are Beverly Kaminsky, Martha Montany and Dolores Swallow.

Five-year-pin volunteers are Ann Conde, Sally Martie, Chris Schneider and Betty Whitshell.

Roses were presented to those who had served 100 hours or more. They are Wayne Belanger, Kris Whalen, Elaine Gould, Richard Cartwright, Diane Goodwin, Linda Haberman, Maurice Lambert and Edith Palmer.

EAST HARTFORD AREA NEWS

Students had facts for council session

By SHEILA TULLER Herald Correspondent The students did their homework. The nine Youth-In-Government Day councilmen from East Hartford High School presented the facts to back up their proposals at Tuesday night's Town Council meeting.

In little over an hour, they discussed six issues, approved a series of proposals to better the town, and called for establishment of an energy conservation commission and several committees to study their proposals.

Council Chairman Bruce Chamberlain, conducting the meeting with a firm gavel, expedited the long agenda with proper procedure and a dash of humor.

Majority Leader Michael Gale urged the town to install sidewalks along Scotland Rd. from Burnside Ave. to the high school entrance and along the driveway into the school.

He estimated the cost of $4 a foot. The total cost would be near $4,100. Gale added costs and a request for additional lighting along the driveway for the protection of pedestrians and drivers.

"The lighting would also reduce vandalism in the area," Gale said. The minority councilmen — Rick Lewis, Al Jardin and Cindy Drumm — had big plans for the town and went to the top for their facts.

Miss Drumm contacted Sen. Abraham Ribicoff and Rep. William Colter, seeking help on the Hockanum River cleanup project. Both responded she said. The senator gave her an address to contact for possible funding of the project.

Let's get together with the other towns along the river to work out the problem," Gale said. "We've had the problem for years — we should do something about it."

The majority and minority agreed. Councilman Lewis, minority leader, illustrated his idea with a map and pictures. Lewis said the town needs a sports stadium including a football field, baseball diamond, soccer field and track.

Lewis pointed to Shea Park off Silver Lane on the map. "This 10-acre park would be ideal as it is between the two high schools and close to the highway."

Lewis' idea calls for all varsity sports to be played at the complex, leaving school fields for practice. Lewis also envisions minor league teams including ladies softball, "now that equality's coming around."

Rescuing driver from river

East Hartford firemen and paramedics worked to rescue a driver whose car went into the Hockanum River behind the Powder Mill Shopping Plaza Tuesday night.

The driver, Frank W. Hagearty, 69, of 75 Holmsted St., East Hartford, and a passenger, Grace E. Woodward, 61, of 135 Spruce St., Manchester, were admitted to Manchester Memorial Hospital in serious condition. Police said Hagearty's car went through the Powder Mill lot, down a bank and into the river at about 7:20 p.m.

School shift signups due

The deadline for parents to make use of the East Hartford school system's open enrollment has been moved from the first part of May to May 30, said school Supt. Eugene Diggs.

About 24 per cent of the Silver Lane students are termed "minority." The staff and parents of the school have focused their attention on programs which stress multi-ethnic values, he said.

Silver Lane has hired bilingual teachers and aides to assist children who speak mainly Spanish. The PTA focuses on ethnic values in its school programs.

South Grafton is another good example of a local school meeting local needs, he said. The school has developed a "traditional" program where the basics are stressed.

The Mayberry School has used the individually guided education (IGE) method. Each child moves through the school at his own speed.

Diggs said parents can learn more about their schools through an "Our Schools" booklet offered at each school. If too many students request one school, the students will be picked by lottery, he said.

Requests should be addressed to Ernest Grass, Supervisor of Pupil Accounting, 110 Long Hill Dr.

Blaze in warehouse hurts contents only

A fire at the C & M Warehouse, 69 Leggett St., East Hartford, at about 3:45 a.m. today, caused damage to the contents of the building but didn't do any structural damage.

Deputy Fire Chief John Rivli said. He said the fire seemed to have started around some plastic cans stored in the building and some powdered butter milk.

He said the building also contained a large number of cartons containing empty bottles. He said the damage to the contents of the building was extensive but the monetary value will not be determined until Fire Marshal John Armstrong has examined the building.

It isn't known at this time whether there is any connection between the fire and a burglary into the warehouse reported several hours before the fire.

Police said they answered the earlier alarm and found an overhead door had been opened and four cases of liquor were found behind the building. It is not known what else is missing.

East Hartford police report

Five young persons were arrested by East Hartford Police Tuesday afternoon after Penney High School complained about a group of youths on school property.

Taken into custody were East Hartford residents James M. Patrelo, 18, of 24 Cannon Rd.; James D. Seeley, 18, of 140 Michael Ave.; John P. Christ, 18, of 117 Michael Ave.; Pasquale Barile, 17, of 136 Michael Ave., and Manchester resident Karyl A. Duffy, 16, of 1166 W. Middle Tpke.

All were charged with loitering on school grounds. Court date is May 16 in East Hartford.

Plainclothes policemen arrested a Middletown woman at an East Hartford bar today and charged her with prostitution, East Hartford Police said.

Brenda Harris, 19, was taken into custody at about 1 a.m. at the Eastview Bar, 389 Main St., police said. She allegedly approached one of the policemen and made a proposal, officers said.

Ms. Harris was held on a $50 bond and was to be presented in court today.

A nine-minute meeting Monday night unanimously approved a Regional District 8 Board of Education budget of $2,221,684, as recommended by the school board.

Before the vote on the budget, board chairman Frank Shannon explained the addition of $2,040 to the budget, since the April hearing, for the summer athletic program and drama workshop.

Shannon said the board was notifying the town recreation commissions that the region will not include summer programs in the budget for 1978-79.

The only discussion on the budget came from Robert Olson, chairman of the Marlborough Board of Finance, who said he felt it was improper to include summer activities in the regional budget and was replaced Mrs. Lorraine Foley, who resigned earlier this year due to her husband's transfer out of state.

Mrs. Foley is leaving Rham June 1.

Deadline almost missed

Bolton

Bolton's annual budget meeting, scheduled for May 16, almost had to be delayed when the Board of Selectmen ran into some trouble Tuesday night.

The items to be approved at the budget meeting hadn't been approved by the selectmen. And the selectmen didn't have a list of the items.

Board Clerk Shirley Riley checked minutes of past meetings and verified some of the items needing approval.

But the selectmen didn't have a request from the Board of Finance for the town to adopt its 1977-78 budget. Nor did it have the finance board's request to approve appropriations from the capital and noncurrent account for several spending items.

A call to the finance board clerk gave selectmen the information about items needing their approval.

Selectmen ran into another problem with legal advertising for the budget meeting, which must be prepared by the town council and published five days before the meeting. It appears selectmen will just meet the deadline for publication.

Noise complaints

In other business Tuesday night, selectmen received two letters from Vernon Rd. residents complaining about noise from Alpha-Omega (the Bolton Lake Hotel).

Another Vernon Rd. resident attending the meeting complained about the inn's sewage system.

First Selectman David Dreselly said Bolton has received little state support in attempts to force correction of the sewage problem.

Selectmen decided to tell Alpha-Omega of their concerns about the noise. They also decided to ask the state Liquor Control Commission to help solve the problem.

During the Alpha-Omega discussion, and at several other times Tuesday night, selectmen reiterated the need for a constabulary in Bolton.

Residents complained it was a road and not a driveway because it will serve two homes. The petition will be sent to the Zoning Commission.

Dog deadline

Selectmen were told that state officials set a deadline of July 1 for Bolton to get its own dog pound. Ronald Mathewson, state canine control officer, said dog funds would be withheld until the towns gets a pound.

The July 1 date brought some laughter from selectmen, because they won't be in office on that date.

Correction

The Bolton election article in Tuesday's Herald incorrectly reported that Republican Norman Preuss had the right to a recount of the vote between himself and Democrat Joann Neath.

Mrs. Neath defeated incumbent Preuss for a selectman's seat by 20 votes. The state law providing for automatic recounts says a recount may take place if the win is "less than 20 votes."

Anderson waives recount

Democrat

Democrat Thomas Anderson, who was defeated in his bid for Andover first selectman, waived the right to a recount Tuesday. Anderson was entitled to a recount because he came within 10 votes of being elected to the Board of Selectmen.

In Monday's town election, 684 persons voted. Of that number, 243 were Republicans, 264 were Democrats and 177 were unaffiliated.

Anderson has 1,159 registered voters. Of that number 348 are Republicans, 431 are Democrats and 360 are unaffiliated.

Marion Copeland was moderator of Monday's election. Poll workers were Doris Hutchinson and Marguerite Yeomans, checkers;

Marion Stanley and Marion L. Alfano, challengers; Else Stiens, Dorothy Thompson, Edith Budrick and Lillian Barone, machine tenders; Tina Anson and Margaret Vinkels, absentee ballot counters, and J. Cuyler Hutchinson and Richard Walton, mechanics.

Vernon budget is ready for annual meeting

By BARBARA RICHMOND

The original revenue estimate presented to the council March 22 was $4,405,922. Tuesday night, a revised estimate included $70,947 which will be subject to enactment by the General Assembly and some cash surplus, totaling $4,677,515.

The tentative additional revenues would include Town Aid Road Grant, $24,000; guaranteed tax base and lottery grant, $146,447; and motor vehicle property tax pro-rate, $300,000.

Benoit said the governor has also stated that any additional funding received by the state in the 1977-1978 fiscal year, under Title II of the federal Emergency Public Works Act, would be passed through to towns as unrestricted block grants.

He also said favorable Congressional action would mean that Vernon would continue to receive federal Title II grant funds next year on a direct basis. To date, Vernon has received three payments totaling $91,326.

The amount to be raised by taxes, assuming no growth in the Grand List, at the present mill rate of 55 and a 98 per cent collection rate, would be $2,151,856.

Additional tax revenue generated from a $4.7 million growth in the Grand List, the 55 mill rate and 98 per cent collection, would equal $27,585. This total of $4.4 million would mean $914,538 would have to be raised by increasing the tax rate.

With the value of one mill at $174,112, a 4.7-mill increase would be needed to balance the 1977-78 budget.

The $9,010 removed from the tax collector's budget was for the salary of an assistant and the $9,000 removed from the outdoor recreation budget was also for the salary of an assistant director. It is assumed these positions can be filled through the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) funds.

The council also reduced the pension fund by $5,000 and the capital improvements budget by $26,000.

The council was shocked to hear, from Arnold Zachin of the Insurance Advisory Board, that the Hartford Insurance Group would not renew the town's contract "because the loss record experience has been deteriorating so badly in the last year and a half."

The town purchases fire, general liability, automotive, and workmen's compensation coverages.

Zachin said on general liability the town was paying about $44,000 and when the Hartford Group was asked to reconsider it finally gave a cost of about $119,000. The council had appropriated $100,000 for all insurance and Zachin said it looks like it would need closer to $130,000 to $150,000.

Zachin was asked to try and get some other quotes. Councilman Thomas Dooley said, "We can't afford to higher, maybe we should reduce our coverage and take a risk, or consider self-insurance."

Mayor Benoit said he will contact other towns in the area. He said maybe the towns will have to get together and go down a different road. He asked Zachin to come back with a recommendation from the advisory board.

The council also discussed the possibility of leasing trucks for refuse collections, instead of buying new ones.

The mayor appointed an interim subcommittee, headed by Mrs. Marie Herbst, to study revising a Merit Board for the town.

GOP backs budget plan

Coventry

The Coventry Republican Town Committee voted Tuesday night to support the Town Council's proposed budget, which would reduce the town's tax rate by one mill.

The GOP Town Committee, however, recommends that the council take another $43,000 (one mill) from unappropriated cash surplus to further reduce taxes.

The surplus account now has $138,000, although the council proposed to use some of that amount to reduce the surplus. The account will still have $90,000 after the proposed reduction. Town auditors recommend the town retain the equivalent of one mill in that account for unexpected needs, Councilman Robert Keller said.

Keller explained the budget to the group and answered questions.

The group expressed concern about overuse of the town engineers, the need for full-time planner, equal pay for the town clerk and tax assessor, and the effectiveness of the town road crew.

After the coffee hour, proceeds from the fund-raiser will benefit the Windham Regional Hospital Pediatric Department, the group decided to form a subcommittee to study the council's charge to the Charter Revision Commission and make recommendations

South Windsor

A resolution to enter into an agreement with Imagners Inc. of Hartford for the administration of subsidized housing in South Windsor was removed from the Town Council agenda Monday night and will be handled by the local Housing Authority.

Frank Ahean, chairman of the Housing Authority, said it will meet with Imagners soon.

Deputy Mayor Robert Myette suggested the resolution be tabled when it first appeared on the council agenda two weeks ago. The council asked Town Atty. Thomas Dennis for an opinion on whether the program should be dealt with by the council or the Housing Authority.

Section 8 Housing Assistance would permit qualified residents to pay no more than 25 per cent of their income to that commission.

The Republicans have been debating the merits of a strong manager form of government as opposed to a strong mayor.

All members were urged to attend the Annual Town Meeting next Monday to support the council budget proposal.

Gilbert avenges loss to East by 13-4 count

By LEN AUSTER
Herald Sportswriter
Mistakes of omission and commission by East Catholic opened the door and opportunistic Gilbert High took advantage to register a 13-4 non-conference baseball win yesterday at Eagle Field.

The victory by the defending state Class M champion averages an earlier setback to the Eagles and pegs the Yellow Jackets' overall record to 7-2. East had its three-game winning streak end and now stands 4-5 for the campaign.

The visitors from Winsted mustered just nine hits, but most came at the right time usually following walks (7), East errors (6), and other assorted sundries.

"You can't complain about the pitching," stated East Coach Jim Penders. "But the defense, plus more mental errors in the first three innings than ever before."

Gilbert plated two runs in the first off starter and loser Kevin Martin and chalked up three more tallies in the second. All five runs, on just two hits, were unearned as a result of four Eagle miscues.

The Yellow Jackets chased second East hurler Craig Steuermagel in the fourth, the inning's big blow a three-run double off the base of the leftfield wall by Wayne Lippincott. That two-bagger came off Frank Greene, who 2 2/3-innings fanned eight while allowing no runs.

Gilbert completed its scoring in the eighth and ninth frames, putting two tallies on the scoreboard in each.

East got a run in the fifth on Pete Kiro's RBI double, two in the sixth and added a final tally in the ninth on Don Martin's RBI triple.

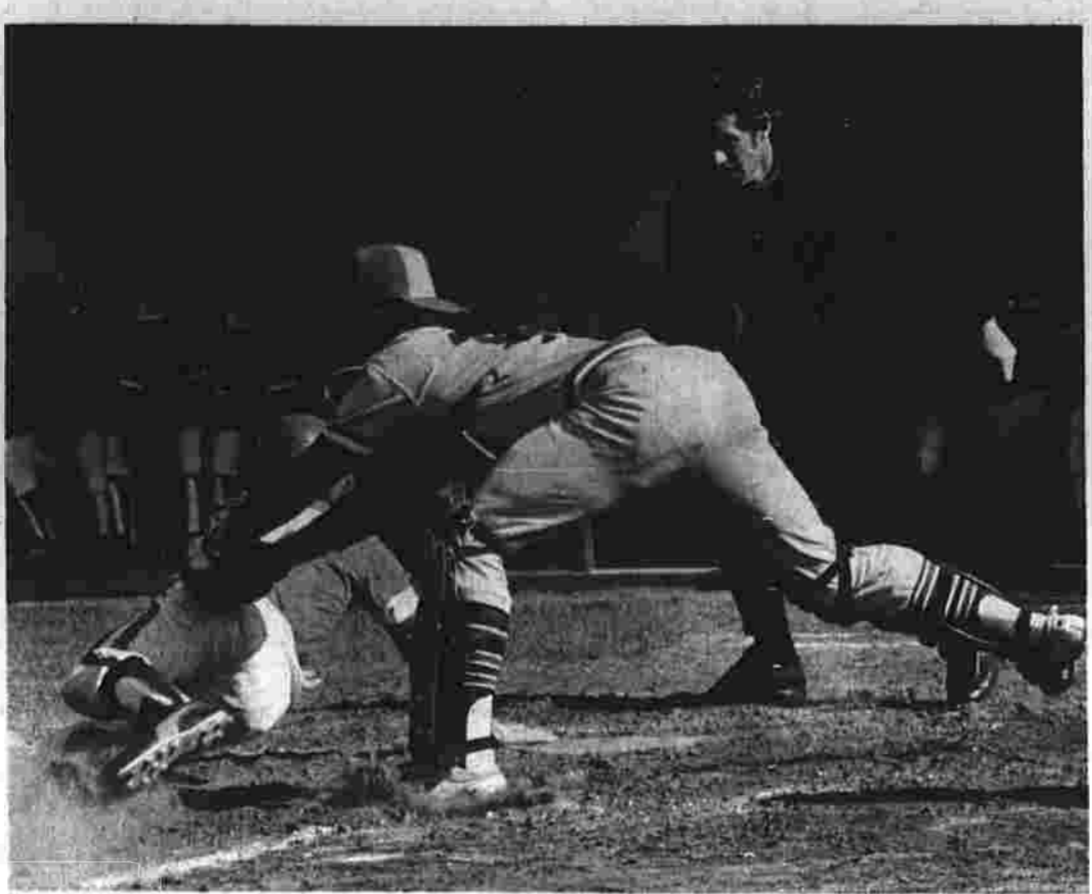

Lippincott had a fine week for Gilbert with three doubles and five RBIs. Mark Eseppe, a slick-fielding shortstop, also had three safeties and drove in three runs, with Tom Zecchin also notching three runs batted in. Paul Winn went the first 5 2/3-innings for Gilbert to gain his third triumph without a loss.

The Yellow Jackets played errorless ball with third sacker Jay Lemere coming up with two fine plays.

John Murphy had three hits and an RBI and Kiro had a pair of blows for the Eagles.

One distinction

Baseball's Hall of Fame will not have a place for Ken MacKenzie, current Yale varsity baseball coach, but the former major league lefthanded pitcher has one distinction to his credit in our national pastime.

The 42-year-old MacKenzie posted a 5-4 win-loss record with the New York Mets in their first year in the National League in 1962.

By winning more games than he lost, MacKenzie became the first Met hurler to record a season winning record.

MacKenzie, now in his ninth year as Yale's coach, is a Yale grad who attracted attention when he won 19 of 25 games over a three-year period in New Haven and boasted a brilliant 1.77 earned run average. Eleven of his wins were scored over Harvard and Princeton.

Signed by the Milwaukee Braves after graduation, he spent five years in the minors before being sold to the Mets. Over an eight-year period the onetime Ivy League whiz played with the Cardinals, Giants, Astros and Expos before coming to Yale.

Before a recent game at Yale Field, MacKenzie was going over the ground rules with the umpires when he thought back to his days with the Mets and related this yarn.

"Yogi Berra (as a Met coach during MacKenzie's time) always came out with the lineup cards for the umpire and to go over the ground rules."

Indian golfers split in CCIL

Breaking into the win column yesterday was Manchester High's golf team at Rockledge Country Club in West Hartford. The Indians nipped Enfield High, 4-3, but were toppled by homesteading Conard, 6-1. The decisions leaves Manchester 1-3 in the Conard's Richard Smith took medalist honors with a 73 with teammates Jay Burrill and Kevin Lynch firing 77 and 78 respectively. Manchester's Dave Thomas was next best with a seven over par round of 79.

Thomas and Jeff Shnyder notched points against Enfield with the Indians gaining two points, and the match by taking the medal by six strokes.

Rham nips Cheney on ball field, 2-1

Three hits in the sixth inning, the only one it would get, pushed across the winning run to give Rham High a 2-1 Charter Oak Conference baseball win over Cheney Tech yesterday in Hebron.

The triumph up Rham's record to 5-3 while Cheney slips to 2-6 with the loss. Rham got a run in the fifth as Tim Fisher walked, stole second, advanced to third on a groundout and scored on a passed ball.

It remained that way until the sixth inning when the Sachems finally got a safety off Cheney hurler Bob Walker. The first hit was by Fisher. Then Crandell Yopp singled to left moving Fisher to second. Tom Gardner followed with a single plating Fisher with what proved to be the winning run.

The Beavers rallied briefly in the seventh. Mike Pinkin reached on an error, winding up at second base. Gary Marineau's in-field out moved Pinkin to third and the latter scored on Dave Bolduc's groundout. Walter fanned eight and walked but two as he lost his fourth in six decisions. John Erickson hurled a four-hitter for Rham to gain the victory. He walked none and struckout four.

East Hartford trackmen easily outpoint Indians

Manchester High's boys' track team, which the past two years had beaten East Hartford High by one point, didn't find the magic yesterday as the Hornets scored a resounding 90-55 CCIL victory at Pete Wigren Track.

The victory keeps East Hartford in the unbeaten ranks at 5-0 while the Silk Towners now sport a 2-2 log.

Karl Golnik, throwing with a bad back, took second place in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash and the long jump.

Young pitching staff gives Brewers' lift

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bill Travers, 21, Jerry Augustine, 24, Moose Haas, 21, Barry Cort, 21, and Jim Slaton, 26, are five good reasons the Milwaukee Brewers are in first place in the American League East, 1 1/2 games ahead of the fast-charging New York Yankees.

The Yankees with Figueroa, Gullett and Hunter have more of a veteran staff than ours," says Mellich, "but I wouldn't trade our guys for theirs straight up."

"They're the youngest, before leaving with a blister on his pitching hand."

Area baseball

Coventry High dropped its third straight baseball game to the Vinal Tech in Charter Oak Conference play at the Patriot field.

In other area contests, Bolton High was outslugged by Cromwell, 17-4, and Ellington High blanked Tolland, 9-0.

Vinal Tech pushed across the winning run in the sixth as it remained unbeaten at 8-0. Mark Worcester went the distance and absorbed the loss for 6-3 Coventry.

Bolton managed just two hits in losing its ninth victory in an effort to rock Rocky Hill High at the Patriot field.

In other area contests, Bolton High was outslugged by Cromwell, 17-4, and Ellington High blanked Tolland, 9-0.

Vinal Tech pushed across the winning run in the sixth as it remained unbeaten at 8-0. Mark Worcester went the distance and absorbed the loss for 6-3 Coventry.

Cougar nine loses

Housatonic, now 19-10, got a run in the first with the locals knotting it in the second on John Zadrozny's double followed by two wild pitches.

The home-standing Hawks then tallied four times in their half of the frame before Mark McMahon's RBI single in the fifth cut it to 5-2. Housatonic put it away with four markers in the seventh with MCC getting one back in the ninth on a triple by Tom Kearney and infield out.

Craig Zysk, Bob Henry and Frank Degenero each had two hits for Housatonic. Kearney had three and McMahon and Tom Dawson two apiece for MCC. Dawson absorbed the loss.

Attendance up

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National League announced Monday attendance for the month of April exceeded two million fans for the first time in its history.

The figures, the NL said, showed 2,299,926 fans attended 118 playing dates for an average attendance of 19,491. The old record for April attendance was in 1976 when 1,906,025 fans attended 108 games for an average of 17,651.

Fisk honored

NEW YORK (UPI) — Catcher Carlton Fisk of the Boston Red Sox, who hit .326 from April 25 through May 1, was selected Monday as the American League's player of the week.

Bolton girls

Bolton High's girls' softball team squared its record at 2-2 yesterday with a 17-1 win over Cromwell High in Cromwell.

Laurie Tierney had four hits and Debbie Fullo three for Bolton which totaled 20 safeties. Darby Barnard won her second game against no losses, allowing just five hits.
