Bikers and walkers out in full force

Bikers and walkers were out in full force Saturday and Sunday earning money for charity. Above, bikers wait at the starting line at Manchester High School before covering a 19-mile route in a combination walk/bikeathon Sunday sponsored by the Easter Seal Society. Participants received pledges exceeding $10,000. There were 325 bikers and 200 walkers, the most ever to participate in an Easter Seal marathon held here in the past three years. Proceeds will benefit the Hemlocks Outdoor Education Center in Hebron. Below, Michael Mace, 9, gets his card stamped as he completes a walking lap around the West Side Oval in a mini-walk Saturday sponsored by the instructors of the Handicapped. 100 elementary age children participated in the event. Checking off the walkers are, from left, Barbara Slaiby, Marina Moyer and Sue MacLeod, members of the (IOH). The funds will benefit the March of Dimes. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Portugal reaffirms Azore base policy

LISBON, Portugal (UPI) — Vice President Walter Mondale was assured by Portuguese Prime Minister Mario Soares today that his government would not force the United States to withdraw from its Lajes Air Force base in the Azores which became controversial during the 1973 Middle East war. "The base is not being put into doubt at all by us," Soares told reporters after meeting with Mondale at Sao Bento Palace. Mondale conferred at length with top Portuguese leaders today and praised Portugal as one of the world's "most outstanding" symbols of democracy. The troubled situation in the Azores — where separatists want to secede from Portugal and become part of the United States — figured prominently in the talks between the vice president and Portuguese leaders. Armed separatists on the islands, 745 miles away in the Atlantic Ocean, attacked a police headquarters early Monday after police hauled down one of their flags in Ponta Delgada. A bomb also exploded outside a Portuguese radio installation. Nine persons were hurt in the gun and rock throwing fight with police. Soares minimized the separatist movement in talking with newsmen, saying it was confined to "a minority on the island of Sao Miquel." Mondale said U.S. and Portuguese negotiators were continuing discussions on technical issues relating to the base and its use. The United States used Lajes as a refueling stop for its massive airlift to Israel during the 1973 Arab-Israeli war, drawing sharp criticism from Arab nations. The regional government, which was given semi-autonomous status last year, wants to receive lease payments for the base directly from the United States for regional development projects. "This nation stands as a symbol — perhaps the most outstanding symbol in the world today — toward the principle of democracy," Mondale said after meeting President Antonio Ramalho Eanes. Mondale's visit with the president was apparently so useful that it went on for one hour and 25 minutes — twice as long as originally scheduled. Mondale described his meeting with President Eanes at Belem Palace as "very, very useful." He said the main topics of discussion included U.S. support for a projected Portuguese air mobile brigade for NATO, the $300 million which the United States expects to provide to help Portugal out of its balance of payments problems, and opportunities for reviving U.S.-Portuguese trade. Mondale also said the discussions centered on human rights and he noted that Portugal was now — after a half-century of rightist dictatorship — committed to democratic procedures.

Union officer accuses town of unfair labor practice

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter

The president of the union representing Public Works Department employees has said that he will file an unfair labor charge against the Town of Manchester because of a delay in payment resulting from a safety shoe grievance. A town official says that the payment is being processed and should be made soon. The matter evolves from a grievance filed last summer against the town by the union, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), Local 991. The union sought to have the town pay for the steel-toed safety shoes, which are required when working in hazardous areas. The town denied the grievance and said that the individual workers should pay for the shoes. But, a state board ruled that the town should make the payments. Now, Robert Fuller, president of Local 991, has expressed concern that the town's reimbursement of workers who bought shoes has not been made. He said that a May 13 deadline was agreed to for the payment. "It hasn't been done. I will contact AFSCME Council 4 attorney (who represents the union) and have him file unfair labor charges," Fuller wrote.

But, Charles McCarthy, assistant town manager, said that the agreement signed last Tuesday did not include a May 13 deadline for the payment. "That date was discussed as a possibility," he said, but added, "We have no sense that they had to get paid immediately." He said that it took the union a month to meet with the town and resolve the matter. McCarthy also said that the payments to the individual employees should be made soon, maybe even this week. "Departments are in the process of working out the payment," he said. Each department must calculate how much it needs to pay and then submit the invoices for that amount. "The manager doesn't just issue an invoice for a bag of cash," McCarthy said.

Four town projects ranked high for federal highway funding

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter

Four of the six projects submitted by the Town of Manchester have been placed in the highest priority category for federal highway funds administered in this area by the Capitol Region Council of Governments (CROCG). The ranking was drawn up by the CROCG staff and will be reviewed today at a meeting of the organization's Transportation Committee, a spokesman from CROCG's Hartford office said. The region has $40 million in trade-in funds — monies that had been designated for highway projects that have since been disbanded. CROCG has received applications from area towns for about $80 million in projects that could qualify for the federal monies. CROCG will decide which projects will receive the funding. The projects have been grouped into three categories, and four of Manchester's six applications were placed in the highest-priority category.

Other area towns did not fare so well in the preliminary rating as Manchester. East Hartford has one of its three applications — reconstruction work on Tolland Tpke. — placed in the top-priority group. South Windsor submitted five applications. One — Buckland Rd. reconstruction — was placed in the top group. The other four were placed in the third group. Vernon submitted six applications and also had only one — Windsor Ave. reconstruction — placed in the top-priority group. Four of the town's applications were placed in the second category and one was ranked in the lowest-priority group. Andover and Ellington had no applications in the top-priority group. Bolton, Tolland and Coventry did not submit applications. Jay J. Giles, director of public works, said that all projects in the top-priority group should receive funding. The projects in that group total $48 million in total estimated cost. Only 70 per cent of the total cost, however, would be paid by the trade-in funds. Thus, less than $34 million of the region's $40 million would be used in funding the highest-ranking projects. The rest of the money could be used to pay for the $6 million of projects in the second group, Giles said. "If that's the case, we'll get funding for five of our six projects. I feel good about that," he said. The four Manchester projects in the top category total $3,370,000. They are: Reconstruction of the Adams St. bridge; intersection reconstruction at Tolland Tpke., Buckland Rd., Adams St. and New State Rd.; reconstruction of Main St. from Charter Oak to Center Sts.; and improvements at Main and Center Sts. Reconstruction on Vernon and West Vernon Sts. was placed in the second priority group, and reconstruction on Hillstown Rd. ranked in the lowest group. Giles said that if the town does receive the trade-in funding he might propose a bond issue to pay the town's share of the cost. In the past, for such projects, the town and state have usually paid 15 per cent each of the total cost of such work.

Charles McCarthy, assistant town manager, said that some of the work, such as the Tolland Tpke. improvements, would be part of the industrial park plan and might qualify for additional funding in other areas. The rankings, however, could be revised. Giles will attend today's meeting to speak in favor of the high ranking given the Manchester projects.

I-86 contract awarded

HARTFORD (UPI) — A New Britain firm today was awarded a $27.9 million contract to upgrade an 8.7 mile stretch of Interstate 86 in the Tolland-Willington-Ashford area. Gov. Ella T. Grasso announced the award to Arute Brothers Inc., which she said submitted the lowest bid among the seven firms vying for the contract. The program, which is 90 per cent financed by the federal government, will mean jobs for hundreds of Connecticut workers, Mrs. Grasso said.

GOP unveils its budget

HARTFORD (UPI) — The Republican minority in the Connecticut Legislature today unveiled a budget $11.3 million lower than the $1.91 billion document endorsed by Democratic leaders. But the GOP leaders conceded the major parts of their program didn't stand much of a chance because they are outvoted 22-14 and 93-58 in the Senate and House of Representatives respectively. The legislature has set aside Tuesday and Wednesday to adopt a spending and tax plan for the fiscal year beginning July 1. Democratic Gov. Ella T. Grasso has said the plan endorsed by her party's leaders and the budget-writing Appropriations Committee is too large and should be cut. She has hinted she will veto it, if it is not pared down. The Republican program emphasizes additional spending for job development in the private sector and a limit on the number of state employees. It would also redistribute $3.2 million that has been targeted to

New Haven and Hartford to 26 other towns. The tax portion would eliminate over two years the 3 1/2 per cent levies on business machinery and services. The Democratic plan would phase them out over seven years. House Minority Leader Gerald F. Stevens, R-Milford, said however, he had real hopes of attracting enough Democratic support to repeal over a two-year period the state's dividends tax for the fiscal beginning July 1, 1978. That would have no impact on the budget now being formulated but could cost the state between $16 million-$32 million in lost revenue for the following year. Under the Republican plan the state would be limited to 1,000 new employees during the year, compared to the 2,800-3,000 they said Mrs. Grasso wanted to hire. The GOP said such an amendment would save $16 million. Other portions of the GOP program would eliminate coroners and executive assistants, who are patronage employees. In addition to the cuts specified, Stevens and Senate Minority Lewis B. Rome, R-Bloomfield, said the GOP was working on cutting another $20 million-$23 million. They said if Democrats presented "responsible" budget amendments that would cut spending, they would get GOP support. "We're in a difficult period. There is no such thing as a free lunch. We recognize we're not in control of the budget process," said Sen. Lewis B. Rome, R-Bloomfield. "We're going to try to appeal for Democratic votes." Asked if he thought, given the Democratic advantage, there was any realistic chance of getting their program adopted, Stevens said "probably not." "But its part of a record. I want to put their votes on record as to where they stand for the next state election," he said. Stevens is an all-but-declared candidate for the Republican nomination to oppose Mrs. Grasso next year, while Rome is also considering such a run.

Civitan Club, fire fighters to build boat house

Ground has been broken and trees removed for the boat house being constructed by the Manchester Civitan Club and members of the 8th District Fire Department at Union Pond at Kerry St. The facility will house the 8th District's rescue boat. Talking over plans for footings are, from left center, Joseph Tully, chairman of the Civitan project, and Leon Cieszynski, builder, while, from left, Gary Zito, Tom Moore, Lt. Vic LeGeyt, and Richard A. Fyler, all of the department, continue to prepare the area. Proceeds of Civitan's Country and Western Show set for May 21 at Wadell School will be used to further the project and construct Civitan Park nearby. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Kelliher-Krystofik

Karen Jean Krystofik of Manchester and Stephen Patrick Kelliher of Warwick, R.I. were married May 14 at St. James Church in Manchester.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Krystofik of 23 Hemlock St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kelliher of Warwick.

The Rev. Frances Krukowski of St. James Church celebrated the nuptial Mass and performed the doubling ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Maccarone provided the music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Michael Matthew of Syracuse, N.Y., wore a Quina gown trimmed with lace and seed pearls with skirt terminating in a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was trimmed with lace, and she carried a bouquet of roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Clement Desso of Colchester served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Matthews of Syracuse, N.Y., the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. David Matchet of West Suffield. Melinda Matthews of Syracuse, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

Edward Kelliher of Warwick was his brother's best man. Ushers were Michael Thompson of New Britain and Ken Dolnich of Wakefield, R.I.

A reception was held at The Colony in Vernon, after which the couple left for Bermuda. For traveling, Mrs. Kelliher wore an aqua three-piece pantsuit with a white hat and matching accessories. The couple will reside in Warwick.

Mrs. Kelliher is employed by Citizens Savings of Providence in Providence, R.I. Mr. Kelliher, a member of the Phi Sigma Society, is employed as an assistant manager at Metropolitan Property and Liability Insurance Co. (McLaughlin photo)

Acne can be helped

DEAR DR. LAMB - I am 15 years old and I have very oily skin. I've been to a dermatologist and he gave me soap and a tube of cream. He also gave me a pill to take once a day. The chemical in the pill was tetracycline. I used it for a few months and it worked terrific. Then my father read in a newspaper that this chemical could have some bad effects on young people. It never had any on me.

My dermatologist said it was OK but he did cut down the dosage from 500 to 250 milligrams. My father says better safe than sorry but will be guided by an explanation from you. DEAR READER - Your dermatologist was doing the right thing. Tetracyclines are used to eliminate small bacteria that live just inside the skin pores. These bacteria act on the sebum, the oil secretion your skin glands form, to break the fat down to fatty acids. The fatty acids are irritating to your skin and cause the inflammation that damage your skin.

Regular use of tetracyclines in younger people may damage the development of normal teeth. The tooth development phase is over by 12 years of age and this danger no longer exists. Since the acne problem usually begins after this age, during adolescence, it is perfectly safe to use tetracyclines for this purpose and this has been done for many years now with good success and few if any difficulties.

I would have sent you The Health Letter number 82, Acne Can Be Treated to help you but you didn't include your address on your letterhead. Let me remind readers who want a copy of my reply to please put their address on their letterhead. Others who want The Health Letter on acne can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Just write to me in care of The Manchester Evening Herald, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Bottle ban bill salvaged

HARTFORD (UPI) - The bottle bill has been salvaged by the legislature, but its passage is still not guaranteed, says Sen. Lawrence DeNardis, R-Hartford.
DeNardis said the bill, which would require that all beer and wine be sold in returnable containers, was passed by a 19-17 vote in the Senate Saturday afternoon.

The version that passed the Senate contained an amendment that would have set up a fund to pay workers thrown out of their jobs by the law.
The House version did not contain that amendment. DeNardis said he had a chance of passage.

Local man accused of sexual assaults

Manchester police are holding a 19-year-old Manchester man in custody today under a $10,000 bond on charges in connection with six incidents recently in which young girls were assaulted.
Ernest Nickerson, 56 Birch St., was arrested Saturday night and charged with third-degree sexual assault and risk of injury to a minor.
Police said six separate incidents were reported between April 27 and last Friday night in which girls between the ages of 10 and 12 were approached by a man. There were no injuries in any of the incidents, police said. The incidents occurred during the late afternoon and early evening and several were in the Spruce and Wells St. area.

The incident reported Friday occurred on Spencer St., police said.
DeNardis said the bill, which would require that all beer and wine be sold in returnable containers, was passed by a 19-17 vote in the Senate Saturday afternoon.

MARC marks 25th anniversary

Many years of hard work culminated in a gala celebration Saturday night when the Manchester Association for Retarded Citizens Inc. (MARC) observed its 25th anniversary at a dinner-dance at Flano's Restaurant in Bolton.
Former Gov. John Dempsey, the keynote speaker, lauded the association for its dedication and determined efforts to bring the plight of the retarded to the public.
Dempsey dedicated the Manchester Sheltered Workshop in 1966 and it is still successfully providing work for adult retardates.

Other survivors are a son, Alec Marchuk, five daughters, Mrs. Otto (Julia) Balchunas, with whom she made her home, Mrs. Annie Federak of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Mary Dimlow, Mrs. Donald (Opa) Neff and Miss Marjorie Marchuk, all of Manchester; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
The funeral is Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St. Burial will be in East Cemetery.
Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9 and Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

8th District will present budget tonight

The Eighth Utilities District Board of Directors will present the proposed budget for the fiscal year 1977-78 tonight at 7 at the district firehouse, Main and Hilliard Sts.
The $66,740 budget covering the fire and sewer service for the district represents a 3 per cent increase, but directors say it will not mean an increase in the mill tax rate for both services.
District residents are invited to the meeting to make comments on the budget. Final approval will be June 22 at the district annual meeting of all district voters.

Bengston retires

Thomas P. Ford of Rocky Hill has been named officer-in-charge of the Manchester Post Office. He replaces John B. Bengston, who retired as postmaster Friday.
Ford is a career postal employee with extensive experience in the Hartford Post Office. His most recent position in Hartford was manager of stations and branches for three years.
Bengston has been Manchester Postmaster since May 1974. Before that he was assistant postmaster for three years.

Woman is injured in auto accident

Teresa T. Henderson, 43, of 23 Laurel St., was in satisfactory condition today at Manchester Memorial Hospital suffering from a fractured jaw and lacerations received in a one-car accident Saturday afternoon.
Police said the accident occurred at Main and Center Sts. when the Henderson vehicle crossed over the traffic island while traveling south on Main St. The car crossed the northbound lanes and struck a utility pole.
Pending charges were not issued immediately because of the condition of Ms. Henderson, police said.

Bolton educators object to proposed budget cuts

A letter voicing strong objection to Board of Finance cuts in the requested Board of Education budget was sent to Jerald Hassett, finance board chairman. Robert Thornton, school board chairman, said the size of the recommended cut is of serious concern to the school board. He said the board has a responsibly prepared, realistic budget, and to decrease it by $3,616 seems unrealistic. Thornton said the board is opposed to the cuts in its budget. The original request by the school board was for $1,457,182. The finance board cut $42,416, of which $24,000 was from the regular budget and $18,416 was from capital items. Thornton said the school board intends to leave in its budget the

Vernon will set budget at Tuesday night meeting

Vernon's annual town meeting, to act on a proposed $15 million budget for the coming fiscal year, will be Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Vernon Middle School, Rt. 30. Budget requests include $5,698,613 for general government and $9,594,638 for the Board of Education. The school board is urging rejection of the budget, which reflects a 250,000 cut imposed by the Town Council. Mayor Thomas Benoit is asking for passage of the complete package, noting all departments have had to suffer cuts. Since the budget hearing two weeks ago, the council restored $29,000 to the police budget, which received the most attention at the hearing. Several taxpayers spoke in favor of restoring money, the school board agreed to take a reduction of $100,000. If therefore is asking voters to reject the budget so $80,000 can be restored. Director of Administration Stanley Roemer has estimated that the increase to 59 mills would mean taxes on property assessed at $40,000 would go from $2,200 a year to $2,360. Both budgets reflect cuts made by School Supt. Raymond Ramsdell and Mayor Benoit before the budgets went to the council. The original education budget request that went to the board was $9,593,000 and the recommendation was for $9,844,638 before the council cut it. The general government requests totaled $7,785,868 and the mayor's recommendation was for $5,862,769 before the cuts of the council.

South Windsor council to set tax rate tonight

The South Windsor Town Council is expected to set the tax rate at 40 mills, to finance a total budget of $13,229,234, when it meets tonight at 8. The 40-mill tax rate will mean an increase of 1.25 mills from the present rate, on a 70 per cent assessment. Originally, the council thought the tax rate would jump about 2.5 mills.

Coventry High School names top two seniors

Kristi Nelson and Sean Bradley have been named as the top two students of the Class of 1977 at Coventry High School. Kristi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson of 239 Broadway. Area police report

Vernon: Two men were charged Sunday with three counts of reckless driving in connection with the investigation of three fires in Rockville over the weekend. Charged were Larry Gauthier, 17, of 30 N. Park St., Rockville, and Frank Bajcarus, 21, of no certain address. The fires were in dumpsters at a Brooklyn St. apartment complex and at Arthur's Drug Store, and a grass fire on High St. They were released on $500 non-surety bonds for appearance in court in Rockville June 8. Coventry: Raymond R. Elliot, 30, of Nathan Hale Rd., Coventry, was charged Saturday with evading responsibility. Police said he drove a car on Rt. 31 and left the scene at a high rate of speed. Police said a pickup truck ripped the door off a car traveling in the southbound lane of Rt. 31. The four occupants of the car were not injured. Police said the door which was ripped off landed about 100 feet away. A call to Nathan Hale Rd. concerning a domestic dispute led to the arrest of Elliot several hours later police said. He was released on his promise to appear in court in Rockville June 7. Tolland: Robin D. Nicewicz, 17, of 34 Grandview St., Tolland, was charged Saturday with third-degree criminal mischief. Police said he threw a rock at the Kobach house on Rt. 30 and broke a window after a verbal argument. He was released on his promise to appear in court in Rockville, June 7. Area fire calls: -Dumpster fire, Leode Crest Apt., Brooklyn St., Rockville. Sunday, 12:40 p.m. -Brush fire, High St., Rockville. Sunday, 3:04 a.m. -Brush fire, Bald Mountain, Tolland. High school awards on council's agenda

Coventry: The Coventry Town Council will present annual awards to high school graduates at tonight's meeting at 7:30 at Town Hall. The council may set a special town meeting date on the proposed Columbia-Coventry Police Communications Cooperative Agreement. Action may also be taken regarding Town Hall alterations. Town Manager Frank Connolly has completed plans and is asking permission to obtain bids for the work. Other items the council may decide are the proposed cemetery ordinance, a drainage system in Nathan Hale Heights, a Board of Education request regarding lottery funds expected in June, and Lake Road projects. Sewer Authority Chairman Richard Breault will ask the council to apply for a sewer grant to cover 75 per cent of the cost of engineering designs for the proposed system. The council has also scheduled an executive session during tonight's meeting about a personnel matter.

Kozicki brothers finalists in 10-pin scratch tourney

Finals in the 1977 Town 10-Pin Men's Scratch Division Tourney at the Parkade Lanes will be a family affair. Gaining the right to meet for the title yesterday were the Kozicki brothers, Fred and John. The pair will roll in the title match Saturday afternoon starting at 10 o'clock. It will be best of five games.

Finalists in the Scratch Divisions will be Marlyn Rogers and Barbara Brody in Women and Duke Duket and John Chiestler in Men's Scratch. All will roll Saturday. Lynne Topping, defending Women's Scratch champ, was ousted in the semifinals by Rogers. John Kozicki gained their championship by beating Charlie Hartley and Jim Bossie with brother Fred knocked off Bill Avery and Bob Bassett. Bassett eliminated defending champion Denny Carlin. The former also had the day's best single, a 282 effort. Quarterfinal scores were: Bonnie (2) 221-214, Larry Briggs (0) 182-165; J. Kozicki (2) 164-141; Hartley (1) 146-131; F. Kozicki (2) 224-189, Avery (0) 106-81; Bassett (2) 262-171-188, Carlin (1) 192-181. Semifinals: J. Kozicki (2) 192-242, Bossie (0) 192-171; Denny Sedwick (2) 213-227, Denny Sedwick (2) 210-194-225, LaGace (2) 190, Bassett (1) 142-163-173.

Empty seats

Only 1,502 fans showed up to watch the Connecticut Bicentennial play Tampa Bay in spacious Yale Bowl yesterday. The B's lost for the fifth straight time and there were 69,372 empty seats in the concrete saucer. The state's best golfers are slated to take part in the State Class A Tournament tomorrow which the Manchester Country Club will host starting at 8:30. When Manager Billy Martin was fined $2,500 for remarks made about the club it marked the first time a club took this type action against its own field leader. Martin blasted the front office for not bringing back catcher Elrod Hendricks to fill out the 25-man roster. Brad Steur, former Manchester High athlete, is slated to be in the goal for the Connecticut Yankees in the opening American Soccer League game Saturday night at Dillon Stadium against Rhode Island. Jack Ramsey was fired as the Buffalo Braves' coach a year ago in the NBA, because he didn't win, but he caught on with Portland and now has the Trail Blazers, Western Conference champs, in the playoff finals.

Tonight's Muhammad Ali-Alfredo Evangelista heavyweight title fight will be carried by Channel 8. Boxing starts at 10 with the All affair slated anytime after 10, as was the 1500-weight. One of the biggest wins in Cheney Tech baseball history had to be the thrilling 7-1 decision last week over a previously undefeated Vinal Tech nine. Bob Walters is a fine looking pitcher and the school appears well on the way back as a winner on the diamond.

Lemaire sparked Montreal sweep

BOSTON (UPI) - There's no question about who surfaced as the hidden Montreal hero of the Stanley Cup series - quiet center Jacques Lemaire. "It still is Guy Lafleur and Steve Shutt, except tonight, tonight was a mistake," said Lemaire after Montreal's 21 weekend victory over the Boston Bruins gave them the Stanley Cup for the second straight time. "My teammates told me after the warmup (for Saturday night's game) 'Shoot that puck, you look good.' Lemaire said. He scored 4:32 overtime, his second goal of the night. "His goal is my happiness," said a jubilant Lemaire after the game. "I'm on a holiday. I'm on a holiday, starting now. I'm on a holiday, starting now while his mates splashed champagne over one another. Lemaire's performance certainly came as no surprise to Coach Scotty Bowman. "He plays his best when the chips are down. He's unheralded," said Bowman, rumored to be looking for another job after leading Montreal to three Stanley Cups in his six-year reign. "But Lafleur and Shutt gamble a lot, and when you play that way you have to have someone backing you up. Those two guys have more two-one breaks than most lines get because of their gambling style. "They play more like Europeans. I'm not knocking the NHL style of play, but the Europeans make more plays on the ice. That's what Lafleur and Shutt do," said Bowman. The Canadians' fourth straight victory was a relief for Lemaire and for tired teammates Lafleur and Shutt, who played 120 contests starting last August with the Canada Cup series. Shutt, Lafleur, Shutt and Lemaire had enough steam left in warm Boston

NHL

Garden Saturday night to melt the Bruins. The play was set up by Lafleur, with the second Smythe award as the Most Valuable Player in the playoffs. The field winger, who led the Bruins in scoring during the regular season, was the top point-getter in the playoffs with nine goals and 17 assists in scoring. "It's my third cup and it's always nice, but it's not the same excitement," the 25-year-old Lafleur told a posse of reporters in the corner of the dressing room while his mates splashed champagne over one another. Baseball
East Catholic's jayvee baseball team dropped a Saturday doubleheader to South Catholic, 12-5 and 5-2, at Eagle Field. In the opener, the Rebels tagged Eagle starter Jim Doherty for 10 runs and 10 hits in four innings. Kevin Skehan had two hits and Ralph MacCarone a two-run single for the Eagles. In the nightcap, Ken Brasa struckout nine but walked seven as East lost a 2-0 lead. Jim Doherty is the sixth inning, Tom Faust hit safely for 5-7 East with Dan Mackey adding a sacrifice fly. BENNET HIGH
Four runs in the first inning lifted Irling Junior High to a 6-3 victory over cross-town Bennett Junior High Saturday at Moriarty Field. Kelly Britnell, John Kelly and Jamie Gallagher each had two hits and winning hurler Ken Hill doubled for 3-2.

Tennis
EAST BOYS Downed in tennis action Friday was East Catholic's boys' team, 4-3, by Guilford High at the Manchester Racquet Club. The Eagles are 5-4 for the season. Pete Visiglio and Matt Barone, in singles, and Chris Brown and Jeff McDermott, in doubles, played well for East. Results: Fuostle (G) def. Briggs 6-1, 6-2; Visiglio (EC) def. Dondallo 7-6, 6-4; Dondallo (EC) def. M. Barone (EC) 6-2, 6-1; Fuostle (G) def. M. Barone (EC) 6-1, 6-1; Fuostle (G) def. Galt-Cannata 6-1, 6-1; Holtz-Masterson (G) def. Hops stymied

SEATTLE (UPI) - Seattle SuperSonics' guard Slick Watts has abandoned hopes of remating his contract with club owner Sam Schulman. "I don't want anyone to think I'm giving in as a man or saying 'Sam's right,'" Watts said during the weekend. "But I guess Sam knows he's got me in a corner and when all the options are evaluated, he's got me.

Public Service

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) - A public memorial service conducted by Flyers' chaplain Father John Casey will be today for Barry Ashbee, assistant coach of the Philadelphia Flyers, who died of leukemia last Thursday. A team spokesman said the service would begin at 1 p.m. at the Spectrum, simultaneously with funeral for Ashbee in his native Ontario area.

Dominate event

HOLYOKE, Mass. (UPI) - Virginia men dominated the tournament, but a former sparring partner of world heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano was named field at the 1977 World Arm Wrestling Championships Sunday. At Turner, 48, of Brockton, a lumber yard laborer, was named outstanding wrestler after he won his fifth world title in 1976. Rutherford and his crew gambled and lost. Trying to get the qualifying records back, the 1976 champion and pole siter aborted his trial run Saturday, because his speed was too slow to catch Neva. Rutherford said he got another chance that day to qualify Sunday he wound up far behind on the starting grid for the May 29 straight 242-pound title. None of the other hotshots - A. J. Foyt, Mario Andretti, the Unser brothers and Gordon Johncock - could catch Neva either. "We're just glad we were able to compete like that," said the 26-year-old Neva, who had his problems during the first few days of practice, including a brush with the wall the day before his historic qualifying run. Sixteen cars were qualified Saturday before an estimated 200,000 fans and five more joined the tentative race-day lineup Sunday, leaving 12 positions to be filled next weekend. Bobby Unser was the second fastest qualifier Saturday at 179.818 and brother Al was third at 186.950 to round out the first row of starters for the million dollar race.

Baseball

Indianaapolis (UPI) - In the first showdown for the Indianapolis 500 auto race, Tony Sneva was the most daring. The former schoolmaster from Spokane, Wash., who walked away from a hair-raising wreck during the 1975 race, made Speedway history Saturday by cracking the 200-mile-per-hour barrier and winning the pole position for the few days of practice. Driving a McLaren powered by an eight-cylinder Cosworth engine - an all-British combination - he averaged 198.84 mph on his 10-mile test run with a best lap of 200.555. Those marks erased former sparring partner of world heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano was named field at the 1977 World Arm Wrestling Championships Sunday.

Playing poorly, Crenshaw wins

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Ben Crenshaw has won more than $60,000 in the last two weeks, playing what he described as poor golf.

PGA

"I placed second last week (at the Byron Nelson Classic in Dallas) and won this week (the Colonial National Invitation) without hitting any golf shots," said Crenshaw.

Schroeder started his round Sunday one stroke ahead of Crenshaw and five ahead of Tom Watson. Which brought Crenshaw to his explanation of why he won. "Something seemed to take me by the hand and lead me through that wilderness out there," he said.

Jane Blalock rallies to cop first place

TOWSON, Md. (UPI) — Jane Blalock took a page from her new book "The Guts to Win" when she realized she was three shots behind the leader Sunday and rallied to win the $55,000 Greater Baltimore Golf Classic with a 54-hole score of 209.

LPGA

"Let's make a move right now, I said to myself and my caddy," recalled Blalock on her way to a sizzling final round of 68 that won her $25,000 in first-place prize money plus her 17th victory on the LPGA tour.

Dodgers triumph at Shea

NEW YORK (UPI) — John Hale's infield single with two out in the 12th inning scored Steve Garvey with the winning run Sunday in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 4-3 victory over the New York Mets.

With two out in the 12th, Garvey singled off Bob Apodaca and advanced to third on Rick Monday's single. Hale then hit a grounder up the middle, which second baseman Len Haines fielded. But Haines' bouncing throw to first was late.

The Mets tied the score 3-3 in the 10th with the help of an error by Ron Cey, whose two-run homer in the top of the inning put the Dodgers ahead 3-1.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I just read an article in a well-known weekly newspaper that shook me up. It says that out of every dollar given to the American Cancer Society more than 67 cents went for salaries to officers, staffers and administrative expenses and 33 cents went for cancer research.

It also says that although the American Cancer Society took in more than $12 billion in 1976, it spent less than 5 per cent on cancer victims.

Since you are always pushing the American Cancer Society, I think you should have these facts, Abby. And please don't ask your readers to work for this crummy outfit again.

DISGUSTED IN BUFFALO

DEAR DISGUSTED: I'm glad you were sufficiently disgusted to write because it gives me the opportunity to tell you (and about 90 million others) that the "facts" you quoted are simply not true, and anyone who wants a financial report of the American Cancer Society can get it for the asking.

Actual percentages of expenditures for 1975 show that for the $100,963,271 spent by the American Cancer Society, 27.1 per cent went for research; 13.3 per cent went for patient services and 9.0 per cent went for community services; 17.2 per cent went for public education; 10.2 per cent for professional education. Thus, the total directly spent for cancer-fighting programs was 76.8 per cent.

The article you mentioned claimed that less than 5 per cent of all the money the Society took in went to cancer victims. Not true. The direct help to cancer patients and their families amounted to 22.3 per cent.

As for the accusation that 67 cents out of every dollar taken in by the American Cancer Society went for salaries to officers and administration expenses, only 29 cents of every dollar given to the Society went for staff salaries (the officers are UNPAID volunteers) and 5 cents went for administrative expenses. Taken in the proper context, this is an enviable and remarkable feat.

DEAR ABBY: There is this man where I work who is always talking about sex. No matter what is said, he turns it into something having to do with sex.

He is married and has a grown family, and if it weren't for this one fault of his, he would be a very nice person because he is intelligent, well-read and has a good sense of humor. But he spoils everything by dragging sex into every conversation. What is wrong with him, ABBY? BUGGED

DEAR BUGGED: I don't know. But it probably has something to do with sex. When a person constantly talks about sex, it's a fairly safe bet that he's doing all that he can to get it - talking.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HATES TV IN AUSTIN, TEX." You may hate TV, but here's what Lee Lovinger, a brilliant Washington, D.C. attorney, has to say about it: "Television is the literature of the illiterate, the culture of the loveless, the wealth of the poor, the privilege of the unprivileged, the exclusive club of the excluded masses; television is the golden goose that lays scrambled eggs. And it is futile, probably fatal, to beat it for not laying candy. Anyway, more people like scrambled eggs than caviar."

You may team up with a commercial venture this year with someone you've previously known only socially. This could be based on an unusual product or idea.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Charitable impulses should be heeded today. They could take a unique twist. You could actually be the recipient rather than the giver.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) An occasion could arise today where you could lend moral support to one you're fond of. Your backing could give him needed confidence.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If a friend does something outstanding today, be sincere and glowing in your praise. What you say will not soon be forgotten.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You do things with your customary flair and flourish today, but no one will be offended. You perform so well others will be envious.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your ideas are artistic and creative today - and could also be money-makers. Don't sit on your hands and do nothing with them.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Others are setting you free things today because they sense, if you sense them, you'd do so for them.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 22) Bonds with a new and exciting ally may be forged today. You might be able to do things with this person that others cannot.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) Conditions are now ripe to launch that imaginative undertaking you've been contemplating. Waste no more time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 19) A secret admirer has long looked at you from afar. Today let you know his or her true feelings. It would come about subtly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Invite to your home one to whom you owe a social obligation, rather than taking that person out. He or she will be more flattered.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Play it cool today if something is on the dining table that spells promotion for your customers. The less you are, the better you'll fare.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Unlike yesterday, your material perception is really seen today, if you have an idea that could better you, by all means try it.

Oswald: "Best plays! Sometimes there may be two safety plays at your disposal as declarer. In such cases you want to use the one that gives you the best chance for an extra trick."

Jim: "South needs four clubs to make his slam. He has no worries or problems or Berry's World."

Playing poorly, Crenshaw wins

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Ben Crenshaw has won more than $60,000 in the last two weeks, playing what he described as poor golf.

He placed second last week (at the Byron Nelson Classic in Dallas) and won this week (the Colonial National Invitation) without hitting any golf shots, said Crenshaw.

He said he putted well and had a lucky break Sunday to catch Californian John Schroeder, and then he won the $40,000 first prize with a six-foot birdie putt on the 71st hole. He saved the tournament with an 8-foot par putt on the final hole.

"I was lucky on the back nine today and lucky all week," he said. "But the thing is I just didn't give up and that won the tournament for me. After that front nine (four bogys) one side told me to jump in the lake, but the other side said, 'Come on, don't give up. Maybe the back side will be your nine.'"

"I birdied No. 10 and that really brought me back. It taught me a lesson. You just can't give up and that's what makes this such a great game."

Schroeder started his round Sunday one stroke ahead of Crenshaw and five ahead of Tom Watson. Which brought Crenshaw to his explanation of why he won.

Schroeder started his round Sunday one stroke ahead of Crenshaw and five ahead of Tom Watson. Which brought Crenshaw to his explanation of why he won.

"Something seemed to take me by the hand and lead me through that wilderness out there," he said. "Because he has jumped into the top 10 money winners with more than $100,000 with faulty swing, luck and good putting. Crenshaw was asked what he could do if he gets his game together."

"I've discovered this game is pretty much all mental," he said. "I thought if I just swing right, then I would be satisfied that I was playing as well as I could. But, of course, then my putting would probably go."

Jane Blalock rallies to cop first place

TOWSON, Md. (UPI) — Jane Blalock took a page from her new book "The Guts to Win" when she realized she was three shots behind the leader Sunday and rallied to win the $55,000 Greater Baltimore Golf Classic with a 54-hole score of 209.

"Let's make a move right now. I said to myself and my caddy," recalled Blalock en route to a six-hole final round of 69 that won her $25,000 in first-place prize money plus her 17th victory on the LPGA tour.

Blalock opened Sunday's round with two straight birdies but Silvia Bertolacini, who was the leader after two rounds by a single stroke, scored an eagle on the first hole and birdied the third.

However, Bertolacini eventually faded on the front nine when she suffered successive bogeys on the seventh and eighth holes at the lush Pine Ridge course, which played considerably short due to balmy breezes and lack of rain that dried the fairways.

"I knew Silvia had dropped," Blalock said after firing off four of her seven birdies on the front nine. "I was tied or within a shot of the lead for nine holes before she played her birdie on the 11th hole. Still the key for me was being able to maintain my momentum by getting a par on the 13th hole despite hitting a bad three wood off the tee."

Blalock followed up that bad shot with a "super three-iron" which landed within 20 feet of the pin. Two more birdies ended the 31-year-old Blalock to withstand the closing rush that Japan's Takako Kiyomoto put on Leicester Junior College scored 12 runs in the final three frames as it defeated Manchester Community College 12-11. Saturday in the NCAA New England Women's Softball Tournament at Leicester, Mass.

MCC was on top, 10-0, until the bottom of the fifth inning when the Minutemen rallied for four runs, plus one in the sixth and six in the final frame.

Three singles, two bases on balls and a triple by Cindy Scherer tied the contest, 11-1. Joan Kavior reached on an error scoring Scherer for the opening round victory.

Sheila Menegas was tops for Leicester with four hits in four at bats.

Elynn Johnson had three hits and Laurie Christiana two for the 13-8 Cougars. Marianne Pemberton absorbed the loss for MCC which completed their season.

George McGinnis came back with a bucket for the 76ers, but Lucas hit his next shot down the floor and Murphy and Malone added baskets to keep the Trail Blazers in suspense as to whom their final NBA opponent will be.

"It became too easy for us, just too easy," McGinnis said of the Sixers' sleepwalk. "For some reason, we lost our intensity when we got the lead. We thought they were going to die, but they didn't."

"They were talking a sweep, then talking about they would win 4-1 and saying we had guys that couldn't make the big plays," said Murphy, who sat out 19 minutes in foul trouble but still contributed 15 points and 10 assists.

"They have to wonder now if they can win the series," the 5-10 backcourt dynamo said. "If we tie them Tuesday, we'll all come back here (Thursday) and there will be a lot of pride at stake."

It was then or never for Houston as Henry Bibb's two free throws gave the 76ers an 86-69 lead with 4:19 to play in the third quarter. However, Philadelphia lost its touch and the Rockets capitalized.

With Lucas and Calvin Murphy working outside and Moses Malone establishing dominance inside, Houston pecked away at the deficit, finally taking the lead, 108-107, on Malone's turnaround jumper in the lane with 2:45 left.

Houston failed to follow script

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The script said the Houston Rockets were supposed to quietly fade out of the NBA playoffs, while the talented, highly paid Philadelphia 76ers marched on to meet Portland in the championship finals.

But someone forgot to give the Rockets a copy of the script and, instead, chose the one they've been following all year.

Counted out by nearly everyone after their loss at home Friday, Houston came recovered from a 17-point, third-quarter deficit Sunday and shocked the 76ers, 118-115, to stay alive in the Eastern Conference finals.

"This is a team of character and pride," the Rockets' Rudy Tomjanovich said in a wild locker-room celebration. "It's an amazing team. We've been coming back all year. Character won this game."

Rookie guard John Lucas, who hit a jumper with 1:34 to play to put the Rockets ahead for good and tied Tomjanovich for team scoring honors with 21, could barely contain his excitement.

"We've been coming back from 17 all year," he said. "We've got a good team and we don't give up."

Eagles strand 15 runners

Drop 11-4 decision to South

By LEN AUSTER

Left on base. It's a statistic normally overlooked but it tells a large part about Saturday's 11-4 HCC baseball loss by East Catholic to South Catholic at Eagle Field.

The Eagles stranded 15 runners, nine in scoring position twice leaving the bags jammed. And as East Coach Jim Pender noted, "That tells the whole story. If we got a couple of (key) hits in the early innings I'm sure it would've been a different game. We're leaving too many men on base."

In a 4-2 loss to Rockville High last Friday, East left 12 on the basepaths. It was a scoreless tie up to the seventh inning when the Hartford-based Rebels, 5-3 in the HCC and 8-4 over-all, plated four unearned runs.

With runners at second and third and two out, an offering deflected off catcher Dave Bottaro's glove and rolled a short distance away. Pinch-runner Mike Hallisiu scampered home on the passed ball and Lou Delmauro, on second, also scored as Bottaro's return threw to pitcher Craig Steuermann went astray, getting past first baseman Don Martin into rightfield. Two more runs crossed, one on an infield error, before the inning came to a close.

East, 4-3 in the conference and 6-7 over-all, came back with a marker, unearned, in its half of the seventh but South sent 11 men to the plate in the ninth scoring seven times with Mark Traglia, Eric Quinn and Delmauro each stroking two RBI blows. The Eagles tallied three times in the home ninth but it was much too short.

Steuermann went the first 6 2/3 innings for East giving up five hits, walking three and fanning 11. All four runs against the 4-3 sophomore lefthander were unearned. Korman and Dakin finished up. Sophomore right-hander Mark Tosi, 3, went the route for South scattering 10 hits, issuing five bases on balls and striking out eight.

Quinn had three hits and Tony Cicchetti two for the Rebels while John Murphy had three and Don Martin and Dakin, the latter with a two-RBI double in the ninth, two apiece for East.

NEW YORK (UPI) — John Hale's infield single with two out in the 12th inning scored Steve Garvey with the winning run Sunday in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 4-3 victory over the New York Mets.

With two out in the 12th, Garvey singled off Bob Apodaca and advanced to third on Rick Monday's single. Hale then hit a grounder up the middle, which second baseman Len Hundle fielded. But Randle's bouncing throw to first was late.

The Mets tied the score 3-3 in the 10th with the help of an error by Ron Cey, whose two-run homer in the top of the inning put the Dodgers ahead 3-1.

With one out, Bruce Boisclair singled off reliever Charlie Hough and scored when Lee Mazzilli tripled to the center wall. One out later, Mike Phillips hit a grounder to third which Cey mishandled, allowing Mazzilli to score the tying run. Cey's homer was the final out of the game.

Dear Abby By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I just read an article in a well-known weekly newspaper that shook me up. It says that out of every dollar given to the American Cancer Society more than 57 cents went for salaries to officers, staffers and administrative expenses!

DEAR DISGUSTED: I'm glad you were sufficiently disgusted to write because it gives me the opportunity to tell you (and about 50 million others) that the "facts" you quoted are simply not true, and anyone who wants a financial report of the American Cancer Society can get it for the asking.

DEAR BUGGED: I don't know. But it probably has something to do with sex. When a person consistently talks about sex, it's a fairly safe bet that he's doing all that he can about it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HATES TV IN AUSTIN, TEX.": You may hate TV, but here's what Lee Lowingers, a lieutenant Washington, D.C. attorney, has to say about it: "Television is the literature of the illiterate, the culture of the lowborn, the wealth of the poor, the privilege of the underprivileged, the exclusive club of the excluded masses; television is the golden goose that lays scrambled eggs. And it is futile, probably fatal, to beat it for not laying caviar. Anyway, more people like scrambled eggs than caviar."

Astro-graph By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Your Birthday May 17, 1977

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Bonds with a new and valuable ally may be forged today. You might be able to do things you do not think you are capable of.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Charitable impulses should be headed today. They could take a unique twist. You could actually be the recipient rather than the giver.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) An occasion could arise today where you could lend most support to one you're fond of. Your backing could give him needed confidence.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If a friend does something outstanding today, be sincere and glowing in your praise. What you say will not soon be forgotten.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You do things with your customary flair and flourish today, but no one will be offended. You perform so well others will be envious.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your ideas are artistic and creative today - and could also be money-makers. Don't ask on your hands and do nothing with them.
