Watching dedication rites

Sitting in the foreground of the crowd that witnessed the dedication of Manchester's Bicentennial Band Shell Sunday are three of the many citizens who have been instrumental in getting the band shell built. From left they are Ralph Maccaroni, chairman of Sunday's program, George T. LaBonne, chairman of the major fund raising committee, and Carol Kuehl, who has kept a photographic record of progress in the band shell construction. (Herald photo by Pinto.)

Bicentennial Band Shell dedication rites conducted

Dignitaries and leading Manchester citizens sat in places of honor on the platform Sunday at dedication ceremonies for the Bicentennial Band Shell, but most of the accolades went to hundreds of Manchester residents who contributed funds for construction of the shell.

Many of those contributing sat on the rough ground in the natural amphitheater around the shell to enjoy the performances of local groups.

Speaker after speaker characterized the band shell construction as a community effort and a fitting permanent memorial to the Bicentennial year.

George T. LaBonne, chairman of the fund drive committee, said, "This has been a total town effort and will continue to be." He was alluding to the fact that some work on the shell, landscaping and a permanent audio system for instance, are yet to be done.

William Sleith, chairman of the site selection committee, said, "We are a different kind of community. We do a great many things together for each other."

Dr. Ronald Dennison, president of Manchester Community College, expressed thanks from the staff and students at Manchester Community College. He said he was pleased that the shell is the first permanent building on the campus. It will be used for the college's graduation.

During the ceremony, LaBonne presented two plaques to Nathan Agostinelli and Francis Mahoney, masters of ceremony for the dedication. One contains the names of persons who contributed $250 or more and the other the names of those who contributed $100 or more. They will be placed on the wall of the shell.

Before and after the official ceremony, local groups representing a variety of talents entertained.

Terrorists seize school

ONNEN, The Netherlands (UPI)—Armed South Moluccan terrorists demanding independence for their homeland seized a school and an express train in northeast Holland today, taking more than 100 hostages. Gunmen holding the school fired at anxious parents gathered outside.

The attacks were apparently a replay of twin south Moluccan attacks 17 months ago and came just two days before Dutch general elections.

Witnesses said the terrorists who seized an elementary school in the predominantly Moluccan town of Smeldum fired shots from the school toward the crowd of anxious parents gathered outside after some persons tried to contact them through megaphones.

Windows in the school and in half of the train had been blacked out. Authorities said up to about 120 children and teachers were being held at a school. They said the terrorists had allowed 15 South Moluccan children to leave the building.

Between 25 and 50 persons were believed still being held hostage on the train, a bright yellow intercity express halted just outside Groningen, authorities said. They said 34 passengers were known to have left the train, but a number of others were also thought to have escaped without notifying authorities.

The three main political parties immediately called off their campaigning for Wednesday's Dutch general elections.

About half a dozen armed South Moluccans — one thought to be a woman — hijacked the Intercity express train at about 9 a.m. just outside Groningen. Police said 34 passengers managed to leave the bright yellow train — half of whose windows have been covered.

Another group of terrorists seized the elementary school, allowing 15 South Moluccan children to leave. About 120 children and their teachers were thought to have been in the school at the time of the attack. The windows of the building had been pasted over with newspaper.

In Groningen a transport federation spokesman said taxi drivers in the town — who have been striking for the past five days — had offered to replace the hostages on the train.

In December, 1975, South Moluc-

can terrorists hijacked a commuter train in the same area and held the passengers hostage for 12 days. Two days later, another Moluccan group held some 25 persons hostage for 15 days in the Indonesian consulate in Amsterdam. Four persons died in the attacks.

Groningen police said the raids appeared to be a carefully planned repeat of the 1975 attacks. The hijackers in the 1975 incident were sentenced last year to 14 years in prison and the consulate attackers were jailed for six years.

Carter signs bill to cut some taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Carter today signed a major tax cut bill that will lower withholding by a few dollars a week beginning in June and simplify tax forms next year for 50 million Americans who use the standard deduction.

Carter signed the bill in a White House Rose Garden ceremony despite his opposition to a tax credit for businesses which hire more workers.

The bill will pump into the economy $19.5 billion in new tax cuts for both individuals and businesses and will extend $14.2 billion in current tax cuts over the remainder of this fiscal year and the next two years.

The bill as finally passed provides that some 46.9 million taxpayers who use the standard deduction — single persons making less than $13,750 and all married couples — would get a tax cut averaging about $3 a week.

The 1.7 million single persons making more than $13,750 would be hit with tax increases averaging $1 a week if they use the standard deduction. This would be brought about by setting a flat standard deduction of $2,200 for single persons and $3,200 for married couples.

Tax forms for all who use the standard deduction — about 74 per cent of taxpayers — would be vastly simplified. Taxes will be figured by a glance at one table. No calculations would be required.

A provision Carter wanted to drop when he withdrew the rebate was nevertheless included by Congress. It gives businesses a "new jobs" credit, ranging from $630 to $1,806 for each new employee hired above a base level of 102 per cent of last year's employment and 105 per cent of last year's total wages.

Begin hospitalized with heart ailment

TEL AVIV, Israel (UPI)—Right-wing leader Menahem Begin, slated to become Israel's next prime minister, sustained an apparent relapse today from a heart attack suffered two months ago, and was placed in a hospital intensive care unit.

Begin, 63, apparently suffered exhaustion following grueling schedule of public appearances since the election victory of his rightist Likud bloc May 17.

His doctor, Shlomo Lanidao said Begin did not suffer another heart attack, but said he would remain in the hospital for several days.

The doctor said Begin was well after a sound five-hour sleep. Begin's eldest daughter, Hassiya, said her father felt "wonderful."

But the recurring illness cast doubt on the Begin's ability to lead a new coalition government headed by his Likud bloc with him as prime minister. He said he hoped to form a new government by next month.

Negotiations with other political parties aimed at forming a coalition were to be held as planned. The Likud leadership scheduled a private meeting later today to discuss the forthcoming talks.

Begin, who had a near-fatal heart attack in March, complained of pains after midnight and Lanidao said he was taken immediately to the intensive care unit of Ichilov Hospital in Tel Aviv for an examination. He said Begin will remain in Ichilov for observation for several days.

Israel virtually was shut down because of the Shavuot holiday commemorating Moses receiving the 10 Commandments.

U.S. Ambassador Samuel Lewis, who arrived only last week, sent a message to Begin that was taken to the hospital by an embassy first secretary, Bernard J. Rothkline, who specializes in Israeli political affairs. The message was sealed in a white envelope.

Opinion

Budget veto in order

The buck stops here. This slogan was prominently displayed on the desk of the late President Harry Truman who is increasingly admired by more and more Americans as history places his presidency into perspective. It is a fitting slogan today for our political leaders and for Gov. Ella T. Grasso who has before her a state budget she condemns as being too large for the state's resources to bear and which the legislature has vowed it cannot cut any further.

She can sign it and thus admit that her fears of a budget shortfall next year are exaggerated or unfounded.

She can veto it and risk dividing her administration. Democratic party which controls the General Assembly.

Or she can let it become law without her signature which would be a cop-out and, we think, completely out of character for a governor who has been a bulwark of fiscal conservatism, despite party affiliation, in these trying economic times. We think she has the courage and that right is on her side to veto the budget and return it to the legislature.

The legislature can take the political easy way out of overriding her veto, but then must answer for it as they should for it is what they have added to the budget that makes it unacceptable to the people of Connecticut and to Gov. Grasso.

A veto will afford the legislature an opportunity to take another hard look at the budget and hopefully trim it more in line with realistic revenue estimates and the governor's original proposals.

The buck has stopped at the governor's desk permanently. A veto is clearly in order and needed to keep Connecticut fiscally sound as it is beginning to emerge from economic doldrums.

For it is a fact, the legislature is trying to pass the buck by not doing its job honestly presenting the governor a truly balanced budget.

SEATO's quiet demise

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, a cornerstone of American policy in Asia for two decades and one of the rationales for our involvement in the Vietnam war, will pass out of existence on June 30. A quiet burial is being arranged at the State Department, says the New York Times.

"The big issue at SEATO headquarters now," one Asia specialist is quoted as quipping, "is what to do with the furniture." The dead bodies — some 56,000 of them on the American side alone — have already been disposed of.

Track resurgence draws reader's praise

Dear sir: When I was competing in high school track in another part of Connecticut during the 1950's, Manchester High School was a track power under Coach Pete Wigren. Manchester teams could compete successfully against any New England high school and I have participated in large meets where a name runner was invited to run an exhibition race and in which the Manchester runner posted a better time in that event during the high school meet.

Since becoming a Manchester resident in 1951, I have been hopeful that the track team would regain its former power and feel that a giant step in that direction was achieved on May 12 when Manchester High wedged East Catholic High in one of the best dual high school track meets I have ever seen.

Since my son once competed for East and I know Coach Dave Kelly and Captain Luke O'Connor very well, I expected that I would find myself in my usual role as an East rooter, however, I found that I knew Manchester High runners equally as well, for example, I have served as commentator at our church many times when Ed Lemieux (the two-time winner) was one of the altar boys, and Captain Steve Dawson was my son's scout troop and paid me the honor of asking me to make the presentation of his Eagle Scout Award during his scouting days.

Therefore, I found myself a very neutral observer thoroughly enjoying each outstanding performance. The Manchester team demonstrated good team spirit, turned in some stellar performances, and I believe that with the stimulus of their first victory over East may have turned the corner in a return to its role as a track power.

I am now particularly looking forward to the New England Relays which will be held at the high school in late June to see the present stars of the Manchester and East Catholic High School teams compete against the collegiate and AAU runners who will be participating. I am confident that this group of Manchester High and East Catholic trackmen will give a very good accounting of themselves.

Very truly yours,

Wants pet returned

To the editor: On or about April 14, 1977, my 13-month-old Collie was lost in the Rt. 6, Andover area. For a period of eight, consecutive days our family searched unsuccessfully to find our beloved pet and made countless house-to-house inquiries.

On May 11, 1977, I learned that the Andover dog warden found my collie and sold him for five dollars to a family who already has several pets of their own. Because of technicalities the Andover dog warden will not return my collie or allow myself and my heart-broken daughter to visit our lost pet. In addition to many months of love, care and great expense to raise our thoroughbred collie, it would seem totally unfair for the family who adopted Kash to keep me in good conscience.

I appeal to you for the return of our pet collie. Telephone 646-1190.

There's no assurance you can get insurance

It's a seller's market in auto policies

By Robert Taylor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Being denied auto insurance despite a good driving record is an old story to many residents of poor, crowded, crime-ridden neighborhoods. Now even the relatively affluent are experiencing the humiliation of being turned down. Example: Career woman, 38, who lives in a suburb of Hartford, Conn., "The Insurance City," receives notice that her policy won't be renewed. No reason given. Angered, but comforted by the knowledge that she has a spotless driving record, she calls her friendly, reliable agent of 10 years.

Sports cars out

"You have a Porsche," he replies, "and the company won't insure your new, but sporty Porsche or other sports cars."

Mindboggled, she calls several other agents. She's told the companies they represent aren't taking new customers. Finally, she finds herself in the hands of an insurer, but at a slightly higher rate than she paid before. She is relieved but puzzled.

For the first time, many drivers are finding that you can't always buy auto insurance like a loaf of bread — or an auto. You may put down your money but the seller — the insurance company — may not want to sell you a policy. It thinks it may lose money on the deal.

Become irate

Rejected, the irate motorist can turn to the so-called assigned risk pools set up for drivers who can't get insured through regular channels. Chances are he or she will pay more and be restricted to limited coverage.

Sometimes make of car is a factor. Other times it is the age of the driver. But often the safest risks in terms of auto make, age, place of residence and other criteria are turned away.

Presidents sitting ducks for naughty rumors

WASHINGTON — Every President of the United States is a sitting duck for rumors intended to debunk his public image, usually circulated in the capital's press rooms and other places where the media gather. Now some dutiful gossip has come up with a "report" that Jimmy Carter was "caught with a girl in his room" when he was midshipman at Annapolis. Ordinarily, there would be no comment in this space on such a trivial tidbit, but I wonder at the naivete of those who consider it a legitimate news item.

Best foot forward

To be sure, it is a healthy thing for the Republic to suffer periodic campaigns to present our captives of state as they are rather than as their flacks paint them. Like insurance salesmen and even newspaper columnists, Presidents and kings seek to put their best foot forward in life. They speak not of youthful indiscretions, to say nothing of official blunders.

But I am not sure the public finds more than a passing fascination in Joe Keller stories about their heroes. Parents may not condone but they privately acknowledge that college students of both sexes are inclined to get together whenever the exigencies of college life permit. Jimmy Carter caught with a girl in his room smacks of routine. Were every grownup today charged with the same "offense" there wouldn't be enough scarlet letters to go around.

Privately relieved

In fact, most folks tend to be privately relieved, if not delighted, to discover that their heroes are — or were human. King Henry VIII, who somehow found the energy to collect six wives, has been a British hero for centuries.

There was applause when President Cleveland, confronted with charges of fathering an illegitimate child, remarked that he hoped the voters had not supposed they had

Thoughts

In the New Testament, the apostle James issues a challenge to us all: "But some one will say, 'You have faith and I have works.' Show me your faith apart from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith." James 2:18

The challenge is simple. Our day-to-day actions are a reflection of our faith. If we have a good relationship with God, it will show itself in our 1963, a jury in New York Supreme Court broke the million-dollar barrier by awarding that sum to a 13-year-old boy. Since then the million-dollar milestone has been surpassed many times. In New Jersey, for instance, accident victims can sue for "pain and suffering" if their medical expenses exceed $200. Study has shown collision among accident victims, doctors and "ambulance chasing" lawyers to get expenses up and cases into court.

No-fault plans, adopted by 16 states, were supposed to solve lots of problems. They have lived up to many promises — among them, prompt payment of medical expenses, reductions in expensive suits — but costs have risen in "no fault" states. One reason has been the type of no-fault legislation approved in some states.

Rebuffed motorists often see themselves as tiny Davids pitted against the insurance Goliaths. Some complain to their state insurance commissions. If they're old customers, companies often are forced by law to give them renewals.

No matter how just or unjust the refusal of a company to do business, it is a fact of life that auto insurance has become bad business. Simply put, insurance companies in the past several years have ended up paying out more than they've taken in premiums.

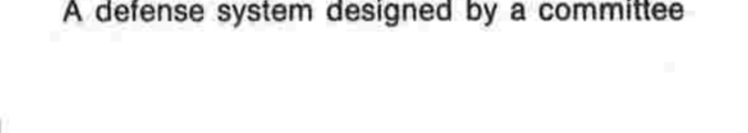

Bad year for losses The year 1976 was declared by the industry as the worst in its 225-year history. Losses added up to $4.5 billion, according to industry spokesmen. Auto insurance accounted for more than one-half of that total. Another $2.2 billion loss was reported for the first nine months of 1976.

Looked at another way, during the first half of 1976 auto insurers paid out $108 for claims and expenses for every $100 they received in premiums. In New York, the figures were $100 taken in, $116 shelled out.

What are the causes? Inflation is the major one. Insurance rates have gone up but the cost of the things insurance pays for — crash repairs and hospital bills, for example — have gone up even higher.

Accidents have increased. Auto thefts have soared. Awards in court suits have jumped. In September

Yellowstone Park, the Seattle World's Fair, into San Francisco and Los Angeles, Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon, Monument Valley, Great Sand Dunes of Colorado, Mexico.

Some years, the tour went south first, stopping at Fairfax, Va., Birmingham, New Orleans, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona.

They'd tour the Hormel meat packing plant in Wisconsin; the Kellogg's Cornflake plant at Battle Creek, Mich.; the Heinz tomato canner in Canada; Disneyland; and glass factories.

While they used motels most of the time, there were times when the group camped out.

The Herald published stories sent home by someone on the tour. This paragraph that follows was in 1968, when the girls camped out at Meramac Park in Missouri:

"You get a wonderful feeling as you slip into your damp sweat suit at night and crawl into your sleeping bag. You lie awake under the starry night and listen to the coyotes and mountain lions. Then, of course, you wake up to the mildew all over your sleeping bag and yourself."

There were chaparrons on the trip, driving the wagons and becoming mothers and fathers to the tourists. The station wagons were sover-laden when the tours ended, about the middle of July.

Those trips were just what they were planned to be — educational. This is how Linda Jacobs reported it in 1968:

"To me, the Phinney-Hunt Tour has been more than a tour. It is, first of all, an enlightening chance to see the country, but at the same time, it has increased my understanding. To live in harmony with people for a month, you must work at accepting these people for what they are. It has given us a chance to learn about other people, no matter how different they are. And from certain incidents, which evoked compassion or ecstasy, I feel a more mature person for having come on this trip."

Where did the tours stop? First stop generally was Niagara Falls. Others were at the Badlands, at

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are expecting our first child in August, and my mother has already notified me that she is coming to "help me" with the baby. This will be her first grandchild, so we can appreciate her eagerness to "help," but I hope you will publish this letter. It may save our happy relationship with Mom.

We want Mom to know that we have taken a course in how to handle a new baby, so if she really wants to help, she can pitch in and do the laundry, cleaning and cooking. But when it comes to handling the baby, that will be OUR responsibility.

All too often "Grandma" moves in to "help" and she takes charge of the baby completely, making the new mother feel as though she is not yet capable of being a mother.

I'd like Mom to know that I love her, but I'm fully prepared for motherhood, so if she's traveling 2,000 miles to "help" me, I hope she sticks to the housekeeping duties.

HER LOVING DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: If your mom doesn't see this, and makes the trip anyway, please let her hold her grandchild once in a while, dear. She's not traveling 2,000 miles to do your laundry.

DEAR ABBY: We don't know whether we have a problem or not, but many of our friends have suggested that we might have.

Our son (I'll call him "Buddy") has asked if he could take ballet lessons. He is nearly 10, and is a perfectly normal boy in all respects, but this request of his has us worried. His father is afraid this might be a sign that his son isn't going to be "all man," and I'm afraid we might not have any grandchildren. (He is our only child, and I've had a hysterectomy.)

Buddy is graceful and well-coordinated, having taken figure skating for two years, but his father had hoped he'd get interested in contact sports.

What is your thinking on this?

BUDDY'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: It takes a great deal of "manly discipline" for a boy to excel at ballet. If your 10-year-old son wants to take ballet lessons, don't discourage him.

DEAR ABBY: If the husband is all dressed up in a pale blue jacket and light slacks and looks like he's going to Hawaii, shouldn't the wife dress accordingly, instead of wearing a black gabardine suit like she's going to New York?

How can I tell these friends of ours that they look like they'll be together? It's odd, and people talk.

Should I mention this to the wife? Or should my husband mention this to the husband?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: I don't recommend talking to either one about it. More important than whether people "look" like they belong together is whether they FEEL like they belong together.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

YOUR BIRTHDAY - May 24, 1977 You may meet someone who is extremely creative and imaginative this coming year. It behooves you to team up with this person because he or she can help you create a market for your own brandchildren.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You impress and win people over to your side today because of who and what you are. Gifts and other flattering gestures are superfluous.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Let compassion rule your actions today. If you want to do something out of the goodness of your heart, go ahead though others feel it's illogical.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Not only will you enjoy yourself today, but you'll please your friends if you overlook their minor faults and concentrate on praising their virtues.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Try not to let side issues distract you if you have an important career or financial goal in your sights today. Stay on target.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Use your wit, charm and imagination to go after what you want today. Hard-sell tactics will be far less successful.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You'll outstrip your competition today in areas you feel strongly about in things where your interest is lukewarm, the results will be similar.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You're extremely competent in handling others today where you need by example. To look for them to do what you can't or won't is illogical.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) No challenge is too great for you today if it's for unselfish purposes. You can rise to any occasion provided the motivation is a noble one.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You may have a situation involving a friend that's tough to solve today. Solicit your mate's advice. His or her idea is different, today. Stay on target.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Favorable opportunities abound for you today. Take care not to influence a rate or promotion.

Manchester police report

Manuel J. Soares, 16, of South Windsor, was arrested over the weekend on a re-arrest warrant charging him with third-degree burglary and larceny in connection with break-ins on Sycamore La. recently. Police said bicycles were stolen in the breaks from storage areas in apartments.

George B. Frank, 38, of 4 Pearl St., was arrested on a warrant from Common Pleas Court 13 on charges of third-degree burglary and second-degree larceny issued by Windsor Locks Police. He was turned over to Windsor Locks Police.

David J. Swanson, 22, of East Hartford, was charged with operating a motor vehicle while his license is under suspension and operating an unregistered motor vehicle Friday night. He was released on $300 bond for court June 14.

Linda L. Skigel, 26, of Norwich, was held over the weekend on a re-arrest warrant charging her with third-degree larceny. She was held under $500 bond for court today.

Also arrested on a re-arrest warrant was Virginia L. Copeland, 32, charged with fourth-degree larceny. She was taken into custody at the Natick Corrections Center and later released back to the center. Nancy H. Monnier, 17, of 1200

Man dies after fall

Lawrence Dobson, 64, of the East Hartford Convalescent Home at 745 Main St., jumped off a patio 26 feet above a sidewalk Sunday at 12:04 p.m., police said.

About town

The Manchester WATERS will meet Tuesday at the Italian-American Club on Eldridge St. Weighing in will be from 7 to 8 p.m.

The local chapter of Parents Anonymous will meet Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Center Congregational Church, 11 Center St.

Friendship Circle of the Salvation Army will meet tonight at 6 for an international supper and a fellowship with Brig. Jean Seaver at Officers' Headquarters.

Full agenda faces zoning agency

The Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC) will meet today at 7:30 p.m. in Lincoln Center to discuss elderly housing regulations, inland-wetlands permits and a plan of development for an approved Residence M Zone.

The Town of Manchester is seeking an inland-wetlands permit for the dredging of Center Springs Pond. Such a permit is needed for any project that will affect waters designated as inland-wetlands.

The town has also applied for an inland-wetlands permit for work connected with two proposed sewer projects—the industrial park sewers, and the sewers in the Baldwin-Concord Rds. subdivision.

Jack Goldberg and Robert Stone have also applied for an inland-wetlands permit, which is on tonight's agenda. That matter, however, is expected to be tabled by the commission.

The two developers had submitted for a cluster zone development on the Lenti Farms tract off Gardner St. The public hearing for the 78-unit project had been scheduled for a meeting earlier this month, but was postponed.

Since then, Goldberg, a former member of the Board of Directors, and Stone, a former member of the Manchester Economic Development Commission (EDC), have resigned their positions on the town boards. A question of a conflict of interest had been raised because both developers were on town boards. The proposed development includes two reten-

Vernon man rescued from car in river

A Vernon man was rescued from his car last Saturday night by members of the Eighth District Fire Department when his car drove off a bridge in N. Main St. and landed in the Hockanum River.

Christopher Feigl, 26, suffered multiple minor injuries, was treated at Manchester Memorial Hospital where he later left of his own accord, a hospital official said.

Correction

A story in Friday's edition of The Herald incorrectly reported that Manchester's swimming pools will be closed daily until noon.

The only change made in scheduling is for weekend opening times. All town pools, except Globe Hollow, will open at 1 p.m. instead of 10 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. The move was made to stay within the Recreation Department's budget for 1977-78. Globe Hollow will continue to open at 10 a.m. on weekends.

Arson charged levied

Manchester police arrested a former Manchester youth on a court-issued warrant in Orlando, Fla. Friday on an arson charge in connection with a fire which burned a large tobacco shed on Burnham St. last October 18.

Peter C. Drown, 16, of Orlando, Fla. was arrested by local detectives and brought back to Manchester where he was being held today under $10,000 bond for presentation in court today.

Drown was charged with second-degree arson, first-degree criminal mischief and first-degree reckless endangerment in connection with the October blaze. The shed, tobacco and other materials inside it were completely destroyed in the fire.

Other charges lodged against Drown were three counts of third-degree burglary and one count of third-degree larceny in connection with break-ins of apartments on Tudor La. in March and April.

No trouble reported at Coventry concert

Police Chief Robert Kjelquist Sunday commended organizers of a two-day rock concert and picnic held at Coventry's Laidlaw Park this weekend.

He said there were no complaints about noise or other disturbances during the festivities.

There were three one-car accidents reported Saturday night in that area, but none was serious. Police did say they involved concertgoers.

About 150 persons attended Friday night and more than 200 attended Saturday night, organizers said. Most were Coventry and Manchester High School students, they said. The event was called a senior class picnic on the permit.

Friday night was quiet, the group spokesman Richard Archambault said. There was no live entertainment that night, he said. Saturday night, however, three live bands played continuous music for the group.

Rumors about the accidents apparently upset the group Saturday night and the

PZC hearing is tonight

Coventry
The Coventry Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC) will hold a public hearing on a proposed amendment to the zoning regulations regarding home occupations.

Other agenda items at tonight's 7:30 meeting at the Town Hall include subdivision application on Cassidy Hill Rd., Carpenter Rd. and Broad Way and Bishop Lane.

The PZC will also discuss a rear lot application on South St., a special permit application for the Presbyterian Church, and sale of town property on Pine Lake Dr.

School board mulls buying post office

The Sykes School houses Grade 6 students from all over the town.

Also at tonight's meeting, the board will review areas where cuts will be made in its budget, which was reduced by $250,000 by the annual town meeting last week.

Dr. Raymond Ramsdell, superintendent of schools, will present recommended tuition charges for the coming school year; Charles Brisson, business manager, and Martin Fagan, principal of the high school, will discuss the school's trust and activity funds; Albert Kerkin, assistant superintendent, will discuss Public Law 94-142 and the guaranteed tax base.

The board will also be asked to grant leave of absence to two teachers; approve the resignations of four teachers and ratify the contracts of two teachers.

Democrats begin study to assume Bolton posts

Democratic selectmen who will take office July 1 have begun a series of work sessions so they will not go in cold, said Jim Cannon, Democratic town chairman.

Mrs. Cannon said the selectmen-elect discussed administrative direction, policy and personnel appointments. She said the next work session will include all Democratic elected officials and a session is planned with both new and present town officials.

At its meeting Friday, the Democratic Town Committee:

- Elected Sandra Pierog corresponding secretary.
- Encouraged a mass swearing-in of newly elected town officials.
- Decided to have a voter registration drive in the spring.
- Discussed fund raisers for the coming year. The group will man a booth at the Hebron Harvest Fair in September and plans a dinner-dance in the fall.

Special meeting
The Board of Education will have a special meeting tonight at 8 at Bolton Elementary School. Included on the agenda are the 1977-78 proposed budget and an executive session to discuss personnel.

all three occupants in the vehicle, police said.

The South Windsor Fire Department and the Wilson Rescue Squad were summoned to extricate the three persons. The East Hartford Fire Department's paramedic unit gave first aid at the scene.

Town 10-pin title to John Kozicki

Manchester's newest 10-pin bowling champion is John Kozicki by virtue of a three to two game win over his older brother Fred in the finals of the 1977 Town Tournament staged at the Parkade Lanes Saturday.

In Handicap Division play, Marilyn Rogers defeated Barbara Brody, 1, and Ralph Dukett won by default over John Chiesler when the latter wrenched his back and was unable to roll.

John Kozicki won the first, third and fifth games in the brother act for the Scratch Division laurels.

The new champ, who succeeds Denny Carlin, averaged 169.4 in the title match. He carried a 177 season average into the tournament play. Fred Kozicki averaged 162.3 yesterday after compiling a 176 regular season mark.

The latter rolled the best single, 211, and also had the lowest score, 128, in the best of five finals.

Scores were: John Kozicki 180-169-165-175-180, Fred Kozicki 138-149-147-211-158.

Marilyn Rogers, with a 35 handicap, tossed games of 184-206-207-194 while Barbara Brody rolled 124-190-165-179 with a 25 pin handicap.

Bernie Giovanni, Lanes manager, presented cash and trophies to the winners and the runner-ups received cash.

St. Paul drubs East

By LEN AUSTER
Herald Sports Writer

If Saturday's baseball game had ended after one inning, everything would've been okay for East Catholic.

But the rules say you have to play nine frames and in those final eight, visiting St. Paul scored 21 runs, East none, to take a top-sided victory at Eagle Field.

The loss mathematically eliminates the Eagles from post-season consideration, standing 7-10 over-all with only today's 11th at Bulkeley High in Hartford remaining. East winds up in a tie for fourth place in the HCC with Northwest Catholic, each 4-6. The Falcons from Bristol are 6-3 in HCC action with the 1976 Class M runners-up 10-6 over-all.

East started off alright in its half of the first as Mark Dumais doubled inside the leftfield line, was sacrificed to third by Mike Freihelt and scored on Mike Furlong's infield groundout.

Everything would've been fine, except St. Paul had 24 more outs to work with. In that span the Falcons, with a past reputation of being a good hitting club, raved five Eagle hurlers for 28 hits.

Six runs came across in the second, three in the fourth five in each of the fifth and sixth innings and the final two in the eighth as the en' Falcon Coach George Smyth was playing station-to-station baseball. St. Paul never stopped swinging the sticks.

"They're aggressive and carry their own weight," appraised East Coach Jim Penders who in days previously, including the night before, saw his nine waste two 5-4 leads.

Ed Barnett and John Coughlin each had four hits and Tom Reynolds, Rick Hallick and Dave Peevich three apiece for St. Paul. Reynolds went the first five innings to earn his fourth win against over-all.

Freshman Pete Kiro paced the youthful Eagles with two of their four hits. Frank Greene started on the mound and absorbed his second loss against wins in 1-1/3 innings.

And what's scary about St. Paul is that of its starting nine, eight will return

Erving at best under pressure

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) - To say Julius Erving is at his best under pressure is like saying President Carter hates to smile or Muhammad Ali can't talk.

But there is one man who really believes "Dr. J" does no better under trying conditions than any other pro basketball player - Erving himself.

"I don't think I'm a pressure player," Erving said Sunday, after scoring 33 points to lead the Philadelphia 76ers to a 107-101 victory over the Portland Trail Blazers and a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven NBA championship series.

"My concentration on offense is more profound in the playoffs than during the season. Also, the opponent's defense does cause a chemical reaction in your body," The 76ers found the chemistry to be perfect Sunday, going to Erving time and time again whenever Portland made a run at them. The Blazers worked after the strategy that carried them to a playoff victory over Boston and Houston.

"Basically, all we've done is what we've done in our previous games," Collins said. "The two Hoves and their father, Gordie, have worked after the strategy that carried them to a playoff victory over Boston and Houston."

"I've got to believe I can do better and I got to believe the team can do better," Gross said.

Guard Doug Collins contributed a steady, but mostly unnoticed, 30 points as the 76ers stuck with their "Doc and Doug" show that carried them to a playoff victory over Boston and Houston.

"Basically, all we've done is what we've done in our previous games," Collins said. "The two Hoves and their father, Gordie, have worked after the strategy that carried them to a playoff victory over Boston and Houston."

Howes with Whalers

HOUSTON (UPI) - The Howes family will take their hockey talents to the New England Whalers of the World Hockey Association next season, sources said Sunday.

The Whalers will announce the signings of Houston Aeros hockey stars Mark and Marty Howes today, according to reliable sources.

The two Howes and their father, Gordie, have worked after the strategy that carried them to a playoff victory over Boston and Houston.

Nicklaus 'win' halted by rain

DUBLIN, Ohio (UPI) - Jack Nicklaus may end up winning the Memorial Golf Tournament today but Mother Nature came out ahead in Sunday's final round of the $225,000 event.

Play was halted three times by thundershowers, the last of which channeled the final 10 players off the Muirfield Village Golf Club course before they could complete their rounds.

They were scheduled to complete play today, starting at 9 a.m.

Nicklaus, the designer of the Muirfield layout, has three holes to play and holds a two-shot lead over Hubert Green, who shot into contention with three birdies in a five-hole stretch on the back side.

Green has four holes to play.

The only other player with a shot at the $45,000 first prize is Masters' champion Tom Watson, a playing partner of Nicklaus's who has three under par and was through 15 holes Sunday.

Nicklaus, who trailed upstart Bobby Watkins by a shot going into the final round, assumed the lead with a birdie on the second hole while Watkins bogeyed the first two holes.

Watkins regained a momentary tie when Nicklaus bogeyed two straight holes but then began his fall with a double-bogey six on the 9th.

From then on, Nicklaus never led by less than two shots.

"I've still got a ways to go," said Green, who hasn't won a tournament since capturing three in a row early last year. "I don't think Jack's going to back much."

"I don't think anybody looks for too many birdies on the last three holes," said Nicklaus. "I'll just try to play them the way I would normally, center-of-the-green-type shots. That's the way I'd play Watkins regained a momentary tie when Nicklaus bogeyed two straight holes but then began his fall with a double-bogey six on the 9th.

UConnns win playoff

STORRS (UPI) - Freshman righthander Dennis Long scattered seven hits and senior Matt Hukill hit an eighth inning solo home run as the University of Connecticut captured the ECAC New England baseball playoffs Sunday with a 2-0 victory over Boston College.

UConn scored its first run in the fourth inning when Jim Toler singled and Doug Colins picked up the victory to raise his record to 8-2. UConn will play Temple University Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the first round of the regional tournament at Palmer Field in Middletown.

UConn jumped out to an early 1-0 lead on a solo home run by Russ Larbee, but an error by UConn shortstop Doug Colins led to a 2-1 fourth inning lead.

RB singles by Tom Songin, Kevin MacDonald and Bob Santilli in the seventh inning gave BC a commanding 5-1 lead.

George Ravanis picked up the victory to raise his record to 8-2. UConn will play Temple University Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the first round of the regional tournament at Palmer Field in Middletown.

Balls fly out of Fenway, 11 homers in one game

BOSTON (UPI) — It started innocently enough with a first-inning homer by Boston's Fred Lynn that barely cleared Fenway Park's left-field wall 315 feet away.

Less than three hours later, George Scott of the Red Sox hit a grand slammer to mtd the home-run parade at 11. It struck end-to-end, the homers would have covered the better part of a mile.

Tim power show, conducted by the Boston Red Sox and the Milwaukee Brewers, tied the single-game major-league homer mark set by the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers in 1950 and equaled by the Chicago Cubs and New York Mets in 1967.

Boston's Butch Hobson took advantage of the favorable wind to smash a two-run, 350-foot shot in the second and Carl Yastrzemski added a 400-foot blast into the right-field bleachers an inning later to give the Red Sox a 4-0 lead.

The Brewers' bats didn't remain silent for long, though. Second baseman Don Money flicked a short-range drive into the left-field net in the fourth inning, and hit prodigious drive at least 400 feet over the net in the seventh inning to bring home the last three in a five-run inning and give the Milwaukee a 6-4 lead.

The Brewers went berserk in the seventh inning, getting solo shots from six Lezcano, Mike Hegan and Von Joshua, the latter two back-to-back and landing in virtually the same area, 450 feet away in the centerfield bleachers.

A 9-4 lead proved to be high and safe as Lynn clubbed a three-run homer in the bottom of the inning 410 feet away into the right-field bleachers.

Boston's Dwight Evans triggered the seven-run eighth-inning rally with a tremendous blow that probably would have traveled well over 500 feet if its progress had not been halted by a year-old wall behind the centerfield seats.

Scott concluded the fireworks eighth batter when he hit a 450-foot drive field landed 300 feet away in the Red Sox bullpen.

Grammas happy to leave Fenway

BOSTON (UPI) — Milwaukee Brewers manager Alex Grammas was relieved to leave Fenway Park.

The Brewers, hitting 244 coming into the weekend series with the Boston Red Sox, bounced 59 hits in, out, and around Fenway Park but could manage only a split of the four-game series.

"This place will drive a manager crazy," said Grammas, who laughed at the events that had taken place over the previous 48 hours. "I've had enough. Let someone else get through here."

"Bobby Bragan (a Brewer coach) said that this place was pretty. I told him that was pretty ugly when you have to manage in it. You've got to admit that it's pretty tough to score 40 runs in four games and split."

The Brewers and Red Sox combined to score 71 runs and collect 96 hits from Friday night to Sunday evening in windy conditions that favored them long ball. There were 23 home runs. Milwaukee, which had come into the series with 25 homers, stroked 11, and Boston added 12 to its previous total of 35.

"I've probably smen more in a series as long as point in my 22 years in baseball," said Boston manager Don Zimmer of the runs and home runs, but he couldn't recall when.

"The way it turned out, we were lucky to split."

Zimmer, who got bad news when reliever Jim Willoughby fractured his right ankle while chasing a fly ball in practice, also was relieved with the win.

"I'm satisfied to split two, especially the way we came from behind to win them," Zimmer said.

"When we get better pitching, we'll be okay. We'll pitch better. I know we can. I guarantee it."

Dwight Evans, whose eighth-inning home run in Sunday's first game set the stage for George Scott's winning grand slam, said what every player, manager, and coach knows about the 65 year-old ballpark: "You never can have too many runs in Fenway Park."

Track strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — If the 600 striking parimatel clerks at Belmont don't return by Monday morning, all bets at the track will have to go through OTB offices.

Belmont will be open Monday, offering free admission to its customers if the strike continues, track officials said, but no bets will be made at the track itself.

The clerks struck the New York Racing Association Thursday night, and forced a premature end to Aqueduct's racing season.

Grammas also thought he had seen as much fireworks when he was a coach with the Cincinnati Reds. "I think we did it in Houston one time about four years ago, but it's very seldom you're going to see 71 runs in four games."

"It's tough to have five-run leads and not feel safe," Grammas said. "Our trouble, and I think we can be secured at the Business Office, 45 N. School Street, Manchester, Connecticut 06040, Raymond E. Demers, Business Manager. Sincerely, Raymond E. Demers Business Manager 048-5

Weaver not surprised at club

NEW YORK (UPI) — Manager Earl Weaver of the Baltimore Orioles isn't surprised at the club's performance.

"I'm not surprised we're in first place," said Weaver, sounding like he was making his own words. "People forget to look at what we had left after some of our stars left us. Nor did they know what we had coming up. A guy like Eddie Murray, for example."

Murray knocked in two runs with a bases-filled single and Rudy May beat the Yankees last June 15, beat them for the second straight time this year after winning three games against them last season. He allowed seven hits, walked two and struck out three in besting Jim Hunter.

Hunter, the nominal ace of the Yankee staff, was tagged for four runs and five hits in 5-1 innings and suffered his third loss against one victory. May's record is 5-4.

Nettles drove in three runs with a homer and a double in the second game in first place, which the Millionaires won easily. Guidry allowed four hits in 1-3 innings and was sailing along with an 8-1 lead when Don Drysdale homered with one out in the ninth. Manager Billy Martin promptly brought in "Dew," who closed out the "Well," said Martin, who is disappointed when the Yankees don't win the game. "I could have won all five games in the series. In the first game, we didn't get the big hit and Saturday's game was terrible. Guidry is no surprise to me. He'll stay in the rotation for the time being."

DETROIT ON MOVE WITH YOUNGSTERS

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jason Thompson, Tim Corcoran, Dave Rozema, Steve Kemp and Fernando Arroyo are hardly household names in baseball as yet, but if their performances in Detroit's impressive three-game weekend sweep of the Chicago Sox are any indication, the young Tigers may be the team to watch as this American League season goes on.

Corcoran, a 24-year-old outfielder recalled from the minors only two weeks ago, was 7-for-12 with four RBI in the Tigers' sweep. Arroyo, a 25-year-old converted relief pitcher, won Friday's first game of the series (in only his second major league start) by stopping the White Sox on a five-hitter. The 22-year-old Kemp, less than two years removed as the No. 1 amateur draft choice, was 6-for-12 in the series with three RBI.

The Tigers completed their rampage over the White Sox with a 14-3 victory Sunday, highlighted by the 20-year-old Rozema's fifth route-going performance of the year and five RBIs by Thompson, the 22-year-old, 6-foot-4 first baseman who has been developed into the most feared hitter in the youthful Detroit lineup.

"We're finally getting the pitching from our starters to go with our hitting," said "Tim" Thompson, who hit 3 RBIs. Rozema yielded 12 hits, including Oscar Gamble's seventh homer and Richie Zisk's RBI, and was not nearly as sharp as his previous games. However, he admitted he was not used to the luxury of such big leads.

"Having a seven-run lead like today often makes you let up," said Rozema.

Thompson, who hit 17 homers in his rookie season a year ago and has seven already this year, added a triple and a sacrifice fly to the Tigers' cause.

Twins 8, Angels 5

Pinch-hitter Craig Kusick hit a three-run homer to cap a five-run sixth inning, enabling the Twins to increase their AL West lead over Chicago to two games. Glenn Adams was the lone millinaire sup-side to pinch for three RBIs for Minnesota.

Indians 7, Royals 1

Buddy Bell rapped out four hits, scored two runs and drove in another in the Indians' 7-1 victory over the Royals.

Indians' manager Jim Fregosi said Bell's performance was "a real surprise."

Balls fly out of Fenway, 11 homers in one game

BOSTON (UPI)—It started innocently enough with a first-inning homer by Boston's Fred Lynn that barely cleared Fenway Park's left-field wall 315 feet away.

Less than three hours later, George Scott of the Red Sox hit a grand slammer to end the home-run parade at 11. If homers would have covered the better part of a mile.

Them power show, conducted by the Boston Red Sox and the Milwaukee Brewers, tied the single-game, major-league home-run record by the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers in 1950 and equaled by the Chicago Cubs and New York Mets in 1967.

Boston's Butch Hobson took advantage of the favorable wind to smash a two-run, 350-foot shot in the second and Earl Vastremski added a 400-foot blast into the left-field bleachers an inning later to give the Red Sox a 4-0 lead.

The Brewers' bats didn't remain silent for long, though. Second baseman Don Money flicked a short-rocket into the left-field net in the fourth inning, and hit a prodigious drive at least 400 feet over the net in an inning later to bring home the last three runs in a five-run inning and give Milwaukee a 6-4 lead.

The Brewers went to bat in the seventh inning, getting solo shots from Sixto Lezcano, Mike Hegan and Yu Joshua, the latter two back-to-back and landing in virtually the same area, 430 feet away in the centerfield bleachers.

A 9-4 lead proved to be less than safe as Lynn

Grammas happy to leave Fenway

BOSTON (UPI)—Milwaukee Brewers manager Alex Grammas was relieved to leave Fenway Park.

The Brewers, hitting .244 coming into the weekend series with the Boston Red Sox, bounced 59 hits in, out, and around Fenway Park but could manage only a split of the four-game series.

"This place will drive a manager crazy," said Grammas, who laughed at the events that had taken place over the previous 48 hours. "I've had enough. Let someone else get grey hairs here."

Grammas also thought he had seen as much fireworks when he was a coach with the Cincinnati Reds. "I think we did it in Houston one time about four years ago, but it's very seldom you're going to see 71 runs in four games."

"It's tough to have five-run leads and not feel safe," Grammas said. "Our trouble, and I think

Don Zimmer is experiencing the same problem, is that our pitching has just been worked to death. Our starters just had to keep going. I couldn't take them out.

"The way it turned out, we were lucky to split," Zimmer, who got bad news when reliever Jim Willoughby fractured his right ankle while chasing a fly ball in practice, also was relieved with the split.

"I'm satisfied to win two, especially the way we came from behind to win them," Zimmer said.

"When we get better pitching, we'll be okay. We'll pitch better. I know we can. I guarantee it."

Dwight Evans, whose eight-inning home run in Sunday's first game about stage for George Scott's winning grand slam, said what every player, manager, and coach knows about the 65-year-old ballpark: "You never can have too many runs in Fenway Park."

Track strike

NEW YORK (UPI)—If the 600 striking jockey clerks at Belmont don't return by Monday morning, all bets at the track will have to go through OTB offices.

Belmont will be open Monday, offering free admission to its customers if the strike continues, track officials said, but no bets will be made at the track itself.

The clerks struck the New York Racing Association Thursday night, and forced a premature end to Aqueduct's racing season.

Larry Bowa knocked in three runs with two doubles and Bob Boone tripled home two runs in the Phillies' victory over the Astros. Larry Christenson won 8-1-3 in his first win since April 30.

Weaver not surprised at club

NEW YORK (UPI)—Manager Earl Weaver of the Baltimore Orioles isn't the right who rubs it in when he turns out to be right.

He just couldn't resist the temptation Sunday, however, after the Orioles split a doubleheader with the New York Yankees and left town with a half game lead in the American League's Eastern Division race. After all, weren't the Yankee millionaires supposed to be clinching the division title along about now?
