D'Amato-Lesiak

Margaret A. Lesiak of Unionville and Joseph D'Amato of Manchester were married Aug. 6 at St. Mary's Church Unionville

The bride is the daughter of Andrew Lesiak of Unionville and the late Grace Lesiak. The bridegroom is the son of Anthony A. D'Amato Sr. of Manchester and the late Mildred D'Amato of Manchester.

The Rev. Robert E. Saunders, principal of East Catholic High School and the Rev. James E. Noonan, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Unionville, celebrated the nuptial high Mass and performed the double-ring ceremony. Richard Lee of Unionville was soloist accompaning himself on the guitar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Maureen LaFlamme of East Longmeadow, Mass., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Ellen Lesiak of Bristol, the bride's sister: Mrs. Louise Herdlein of Manchester, the bridegroom's sister; and Mrs. Christine O'Connor of New Britain. John F. Lombardo of Manchester served as best man. Ushers were Archie D'Amato of Vernon, and Anthony D'Amato Jr. of Manchester, brothers of the bridegroom; and Robert O'Connor of New Britain. A reception was held at Howard Johnson's Convention Center in New Britain, after which the couple left for Bermuda. They will reside in Warehouse Point. Mrs. D'Amato is employed as a teacher for the Town of

DEAR ABBY: Since we moved to a farm, relatives and friends have come uninvited and unannounced. Some even come for the weekend, asking if they can leave their children with us for "a few weeks." (They say, "It will be a good learning experience for them.") Abby, don't people realize that a farm is not a vacation resort? There's work to be done daily, even if we don't punch a clock or report to a foreman. We like company, but we don't want them dropping in whenever they feel like it. Please print this, but don't tell where it came from. NO GUTS DEAR NO: People with no guts need to be protected from people with guts galore. I hope this letter helps, but don't count on it. DEAR ABBY: My 17-year-old daughter recently brought home a swim suit she purchased. She tried it on for me and it looks very skimpy. Most of her rear is exposed to public view. She showed me how the top can be removed to go topless, and says she may wear it that way sometimes. I told her that she might get arrested if she goes topless in public, but she says it is now legal for girls to go topless Is that true? MRS. C.

DEAR MRS. C.: My Texas legal experts inform me that females who go topless in public can be charged with indecent exposure and/or disorderly conduct.

DEAR ABBY: May I comment on the letter complaining because some perfectly able-bodied people use the parking area marked, "Reserved for the Handicapped." I have high blood pressure, diabetes, chronic bronchitis and a bad heart, and I am not supposed to walk great distances, so I used to use the convenient parking areas set aside for the handicapped. I no longer do so, however, because of the dirty looks I got from people who saw me Please tell your readers that not all handicapped people are on crutches and in wheelchairs. I may look healthy, but

I am HANDICAPPED, TOO DEAR HANDICAPPED: Go ahead and use those convenient spaces and ignore the dirty looks. God knows, and YOU know, you qualify, and those who don't know on't matter. DEAR ABBY: Some Duluth, Minn., waitresses complain bitterly that Canadian tourists refuse to tip them! What say your Canadian readers deny or justify non-tipping U.S. waitresses' FATHER L. IN CLEVELAND DEAR FATHER: I'm for letting my Canadian readers speak for themselves. Canadians?

Mayor Richard Blackstone's staff is running a paperwork race to make sure the town gets all of $3.6 million in federal public works funds aimed its way. On Aug. 1. Congressman William Cotter told the mayor the town would get the funds through the Public Works Employment Act.

The mayor said then the town would have to make sure all the proper forms for every proposed project were ready in time. Most ederal programs give towns about 30 days after a grant has been okayed to wrap up the paperwork details.

But last Friday the mayor got the official notice of the funds and the time allowed for paperwork was much less. All paperwork must be done within 15 days.

Usually, as most homemakers know, when washing socks, two go in and one comes back. Now, hopefully the socks will be snapped together before entering the washing machine, and come back out still attached. Reminds me when I used to put snaps on the kids mittens so when they took them off they could snap the pair together so as not to lose one. 'Course sometimes snap or no, they'd lose the pair.

D'Amato-Lesiak

Margaret A. Lesiak of Unionville and Joseph D'Amato of Manchester were married Aug. 6 at St. Mary's Church n Unionville

The bride is the daughter of Andrew Lesiak of Unionville and the late Grace Lesiak. The bridegroom is the son of Anthony A. D'Amato Sr. of Manchester and the late Mildred D'Amato of Manchester.

The Rev. Robert E. Saunders, principal of East Catholic High School and the Rev. James E. Noonan, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Unionville, celebrated the nuptial high Mass and performed the double-ring ceremony. Richard Lee of Unionville was soloist accompaning himself on the guitar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Maureen LaFlamme of East Longmeadow, Mass., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Ellen Lesiak of Bristol, the bride's sister; Mrs. Louise Herdlein of Manchester, the bridegroom's sister; and Mrs. Christine O'Connor of New Britain. John F. Lombardo of Manchester served as best man.

Ushers were Archie D'Amato of Vernon, and Anthony D'Amato Jr. of Manchester, brothers of the bridegroom; and Robert O'Connor of New Britain. A reception was held at Howard Johnson's Convention Center in New Britain, after which the couple left for Bermuda. They will reside in Warehouse Point. Mrs. D'Amato is employed as a teacher for the Town of Enfield, Mr. D'Amato is employed by the Institute of Living in Hartford. (Brycon photo)

Dear Abby By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Since we moved to a farm, relatives and friends have come uninvited and unannounced. Some even come for the weekend, asking if they can leave their children with us for "a few weeks." (They say, "It will be a good learning experience for them.") Abby, don't people realize that a farm is not a vacation resort? There's work to be done daily, even if we don't punch a clock or report to a foreman. We like company, but we don't want them dropping in whenever they feel like it. Please print this, but don't tell where it came from.

NO GUTS DEAR NO: People with no guts need to be protected om people with guts galore. I hope this letter helps, but don't count on it.

DEAR ABBY: My 17-year-old daughter recently brought home a swim suit she purchased. She tried it on for me and it looks very skimpy. Most of her rear in exposed to public view.

She showed me how the top can be removed to go opless, and says she may wear it that way sometimes. I told her that she might get arrested if she goes topless in public, but she says it is now legal for girls to go topless

Is that true? MRS. C.

DEAR MRS. C.: My Texas legal experts inform me that females who go topless in public can be charged with indecent exposure and/or disorderly conduct.

DEAR ABBY: May I comment on the letter complaining because some perfectly able bodied people use the parking area marked, "Reserved for the Handicapped." I have high blood pressure, diabetes, chronic bronchitis and a bad heart, and I am not supposed to walk great distances, so I used to use the convenient parking areas set aside for the handicapped. I no longer do so, however, because of the dirty looks I got from people who saw me parking there. Please tell your readers that not all handicapped people are on crutches and in wheelchairs. I may look healthy, but HANDICAPPED, TOO DEAR HANDICAPPED: Go ahead and use those convenient spaces and ignore the dirty looks. God knows, and YOU know, you qualify, and those who don't know don't matter.

DEAR ABBY: Some Duluth, Minn., waitresses complain bitterly that Canadian tourists refuse to tip them! What say your Canadian readers deny or justify non-tipping U.S. waitresses?

FATHER L. IN CLEVELAND DEAR FATHER: I'm for letting my Canadian readers speak for themselves. Canadians?
