WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Carter administration for the second time in three months has set aside the Ford administration's schedule for leasing publicly owned offshore tracts for exploration by energy companies.

Interior Secretary Cecil Andrus announced the delay Monday, saying it would provide time for new environmental safeguards to go into effect and for coastal states to review the proposed sales.

Additional adjustments in the leasing schedule may follow, he said, in anticipation of amendments to the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act now pending in Congress.

Andrus in May imposed delays of up to eight months in eight lease sales okayed by the Ford administration.

The latest round of delays pushed back schedules for six of those sales off the East Coast and in the Gulf of Mexico, giving coastal states involved 60 days to review and comment on each sale.

In addition, Andrus set dates

George E. Gerry

George E. Gerry, 67, of Hartford died Monday at Hartford Hospital. He was the husband of Mrs. Julia Lipinski Gerry and father of Mrs. Julia G. Graham of Manchester.

He is also survived by a son and four grandsons.

The funeral is Wednesday at 9:15 a.m. from the Richard W. Sheehan Funeral Home, 1084 New Britain Ave., West Hartford, with a Mass at St. Lawrence O'Toole Church, Hartford, at 10. Burial will be in Rose Hill Memorial Park, Rocky Hill.

Friends may call at the funeral home today from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

William J. Duval

VERNON — William Joseph Duval, 65, of 122 Many Lane died this morning at his home. He was the husband of Mrs. Katherine Jaikay Duval.

Mr. Duval was born in Swanton, Vt., and had lived in the Vernon Stafford area most of his life. Before his retirement, he was employed in the production control department of United Technologies Corp. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus of Rockville.

He is also survived by two sons, Michael E. Duval of Ellington and William S. Duval of Westfield, Mass.; two sisters, Mrs. Oglar Marceau and Mrs. Yvonne Jackson, both of Stafford Springs, and six grandchildren.

The funeral is Thursday at 9:15 a.m. from Burke-Fortin Funeral Home, 76 Prospect St., Rockville, with a Mass at St. Bernard's Church at 10. Burial will be in St. Bernard's Cemetery, Rockville.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Retired justice J.H. King dies

MANSFIELD (UPI) — Funeral arrangements were incomplete today for retired Connecticut Supreme Court Chief Justice John Hamilton King.

King, who retired in 1970, died Monday at a private hospital. He was 77.

He was a Willimantic native who was named to the high court in 1957 and became chief justice in 1963. King had been hospitalized for two months in Natchaug Hospital.

His father, the late William A. King, was attorney general of Connecticut and later speaker of the House of Representatives.

No trial date was scheduled. King's non-surety bond of $100,000 was continued.

Plat improvements nearly complete

A Manchester developer has made most of the requested improvements in one section of the Forest Hills subdivision, Walter Senkow, town engineer, said today.

The improvements were to have been completed by the beginning of this month, but the town will not foreclose as it had threatened, according to Senkow.

Improvements in a second new section of the subdivision are supposed to be completed by an Oct. 1 deadline set by the town.

Early this year, the town set a June 1 deadline for the developer, First Hartford Realty Corp.

The deadline for the older section, including Kennedy Rd., Kent Dr. and Sage Dr., was extended to Aug. 1. At the time it threatened to foreclose, the town presented the firm with a two-page list of needed improvements, including completion of road paving and sidewalk work.

A foreclosure of the bond issue for the subdivision would result in the town receiving the money from the bond issue and finishing the necessary work.

Most of the work requested for completion by the beginning of this month has been done, even though the firm has not submitted a deed and a copy of the as-built plans to the town, Senkow said.

"I suppose I could call the bond, but most of the work has been done," he said.

A deadline of Oct. 1 has been established for the newer section, including Shepard and Grissom Rds.

"There still are a lot of problems," Senkow said of that area.

A representative from First Hartford Realty Corp. could not be reached for comment this morning.

The firm is also the developer of the Manchester West subdivision on Keeney St. The Board of Directors has an agenda item, which it has not acted on, to approve streets in that development.

At last week's board meeting, residents of that area complained that improvements to the roads were satisfactory.

Frank Ennis, a construction engineer for the town, said that he disagreed with the complaints and an inspection of the streets was satisfactory.

Firemen expect record turnout for annual Peach Festival

Members of the Eighth Utilities District Fire Department estimate that this year's annual Peach Festival will be held Friday will be the biggest one yet.

For the 20th annual Peach Festival, the fire department, which sponsors the event, is planning on supplying enough peach shortcake with lots of whipped cream for from 4,000 to 4,500 persons.

The festival will be held in the parking lot at the corner of Main and Williams Sts. near the firehouse at 6 p.m. If it rains, people will be served in the firehouse.

There will be entertainment and about 50 door prizes provided by merchants in the Eighth District will be given out.

The big operation begins several weeks in advance of the event with signs appearing on the Eighth District firehouse and fire trucks. Friends may call at the firehouse today from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Fast buck artists invading home insulation business

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fast buck artists are moving into some segments of the home insulation industry, turning out products so dangerous one member of the industry likens the hazard to pouring "gasoline in your attic."

The government should step in with safety standards for at least parts of the industry, perhaps including surprise inspections to make sure quality products are being made, various manufacturers told a hearing by the Consumer Product Safety Commission Monday.

The agency has been petitioned by the Metropolitan Denver District Attorney's Office for a safety crackdown on all types of insulation — fibrous glass, cellulose and plastic foam — for a variety of alleged safety problems.

Representatives of the Denver office and the Federal Energy Administration testified Monday that the need for action is now urgent because of the government campaign to encourage insulation use as a means of saving energy.

Several manufacturers of cellulose insulation testified the insulation boom in drawing unscrupulous operators into their business. They said these people buy relatively cheap equipment to grind up waste paper and start selling it without testing it completely or at all for fire retardation.

In addition they said there is a shortage of boric acid, the best fire retardant for use on cellulose insulation, and even major manufacturers are having a hard time getting what they need.

"We beg you, we plead with you to give us a standard," said Keener Blackmar of Thermo-Kool, an insulation firm in Hattiesburg, Miss. He testified that one suspect operator in Florida is turning out enough improperly made cellulose insulation to take care of 60 to 70 houses a day and "that stuff is like gasoline in your attic."

He said state officials are going after the individual but it may take two months to shut him down.

Actor seriously ill

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) — Walter Pidgeon, hospitalized earlier this month for brain surgery, took a turn for the worse Monday. The distinguished Canadian-born actor underwent a tracheotomy and was placed in critical condition.

The outlook was uncertain, a hospital spokeswoman said.

Pidgeon, 78, was a star for decades, dating back to the silent film era, and was best known for his pictures with Greer Garson in the 1930s and 1940s, including the Academy Award winning "Mrs. Miniver."

Pidgeon, listed as in good condition at St. John's Hospital during the weekend, began having breathing difficulties Monday morning, a hospital spokeswoman said, and was transferred to the intensive care unit.

A tracheotomy was performed, opening his windpipe to allow easier, more direct breathing.

Pidgeon has a phlebitis-like condition, which causes blood clots in his legs. The clots can be dangerous when carried to other parts of the body, doctors said. A blood clot was removed from his brain Aug. 4, and when his condition worsened Monday doctors found another in a lung.

Store restoration begins

Exterior renovations of the House and Hale department store on Main St. is under way. Shown here are workers from Rudco Air Maintenance Co. of Hartford removing the white paint and restoring it to its original red brick. The 35,000-square-foot store last underwent major renovations in 1961. At that time the store was painted white. The current restoration is expected to take another three weeks to a month, according to Frank Hennequin, assistant manager. The outside trim will also be painted. He said the project is being done as part of the overall "cleanup" of Main St. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Lance is indispensable to Carter administration

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Carter, freshening personal support for Budget Director Bert Lance, has made it clear the former Atlanta banker is an indispensable part of the administration.

Nothing "illegal or even unethical" has been uncovered about his friend's financial activities, Carter said.

The office of the Comptroller of Currency found no grounds for criminal prosecution arising from these loans or from other questionable practices, including hundreds of thousands of dollars in overdrafts run up by Lance's family in his own Georgia bank's accounts.

The President said he considered investigations "complete." Congress apparently disagrees.

Two Senate committees plan to review banking practices in general and Lance's dealings in particular. A report issued last week by the committee concluded Lance's financial practices raised "unresolved questions... as to what constitutes acceptable banking practice."

Eight of 14 questions dealt with the budget director, and Carter handled them with quiet aplomb but without the ebullience that characterized required, but with common banking practices," Carter said.

Before joining the Carter administration Lance got about $5 million in personal loans from New York and Chicago banks in which his own Georgia banks had opened interest-free accounts.

But he admitted he, too, had done the same.

"I can't deny that I have written overdrafts on my own bank accounts on occasion, and so has my wife — not deliberately, but because of an error, because of a higher priority that I assigned to other responsibilities I had at the time."

Vance takes up thorny subject

PEKING (UPI) — Secretary of State Cyrus Vance takes up the thorny subject of Sino-U.S. relations in a meeting today with Deputy Premier Teng Hsiao-ping, considered less anti-American than most Chinese leaders.

Senior U.S. officials said Vance would use the session to open serious talks on the establishment of diplomatic relations, stalled by Peking's demands that Washington break its commitment to the Nationalist Chinese on Taiwan.

The Vance meeting with Teng, a triumph approved last week at the party's 11th National Congress. U.S. officials said they would regard it as a serious second step. Teng does not receive Vance, whose four-day trip is the first high-level contact between the Carter administration and China's new leaders.

Although Vance was glad to confer with Teng — regarded as being more disposed to dealing with Americans and the West than most Chinese leaders — the deputy premier is clearly No. 2 behind Hua, he said.

In Washington, President Carter said he does not yet know what results of Vance's talks may be, and added he would withhold comment until Vance reports back to him.

U.S. officials with Vance said neither side was in a hurry to tackle the key issue of Vance's trip — how to establish Sino-U.S. diplomatic relations without forcing a Washington break with Taiwan, which Peking claims is part of China.

Car sales halted in restricted zone

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter

A plan by Moriarty Bros. to sell automobiles from a Broad St. lot has been stopped because of the town's zoning regulations.

The lot, across from the firm's main showroom at 315 Center St., had been planned for use as a sales area while expansion work is being done at the showroom.

Ernest Macchell, the town's zoning enforcement officer, said that in 1967 the Zoning Board of Appeals approved a request that Moriarty's be permitted to store autos in the Broad St. lot.

The ZBA ruling, however, also said that the area could not be used as a display or sales area and should have no signs, Macchell said.

Thus, sales from the lot have been stopped, Macchell and Moriarty said. Also, a rented free-standing sign and a window sign have been removed from the lot.

"I think it was an oversight," Macchell said.

Moriarty says that sales will continue from the showroom area.

HARTFORD — The legislature's plan to force able-bodied welfare recipients to accept public service jobs has been formally rejected by federal officials because of court cases where it was decided against something like workfare on the basis of involuntary servitude, says Social Services Commissioner Edward Maher after a meeting in Boston.

MERIDEN — Hearings into allegations of sexual misconduct by four Meriden policemen have been concluded with no decision reached by authorities investigating the charges. The Board of Safety Commissioners Tuesday night asked for legal briefs to be submitted and said it will decide what to do about the charges sometime next month.

HARTFORD — H. Reese Butler Jr. and W. Sherman "Sean" Butler said Tuesday they would make their second attempt today to launch an afternoon daily newspaper in the Hartford area with a prototype edition of the Hartford Tribune available for street sales. They are aiming for daily publication beginning Oct. 24 and claim a Hartford-area syndicate is backing the venture with $1 million.

NEW YORK — "Son of Sam"

Wedding invitation spans two decades and an ocean

When Robert Martin, formerly of Manchester and a retired Air Force helicopter pilot saved an unborn baby's life 20 years ago, little did he ever think that there would be a delayed development to the incident.

But the mother, whose life was also spared in the life-saving mission, has not forgotten, and has invited Martin and his co-pilot to her daughter's wedding in September in Scotland.

The incident prompting the wedding invitation began in March 1957 when Capt. Robert J. Martin of the U.S. 67th Rescue Squadron at Prestwick Airport, Scotland, answered an SOS to take an ill mater- nity patient who developed complications during labor from her home on the Isle of Arran to a hospital in the mainland town of Irvine. About a half-hour later, Mrs. J. Lammie gave birth to a baby girl. Capt. Martin is credited with saving both their lives.

How to locate Martin to send him the invitation was a problem for Mrs. Lammie. However, an old newspaper clipping describing the rescue had been kept by Mrs. Lammie. In the clipping was Martin's parents' address in Manchester. Mrs. Lammie wrote to Manchester's police chief enclosing the invitation and asked him to forward it to Martin if he could be located.

Police Chief Lannan sent the letter on to Martin whose address he obtained from the White Sands Missile Range.

He was a bombardier and navigator on B-24s with the 15th Air Force in World War II, and was wounded in action and received the Purple Heart.

Mrs. Lammie is also trying to locate Martin's co-pilot who assisted in the lifesaving operation.

United States, especially in Washington, has been done on my personal account as a private businessman to enhance my business situation," Park told a jammed news conference in his office.

"This is the gospel truth and it also has nothing to do with foreign governments, and the Korean government, of course," he said.

Earlier today, Park, 41, was called in by Korean prosecutors who are conducting a probe of their own into Park's possible violation of South Korea's currency laws stemming from his American activities.

Park said the American press had distorted the case and that he was angry at senior officials of the Justice Department with whom he cooperated in the preliminary investigation of the case last year.

"We promised to keep everything secret and confidential but what came out later was gross exaggeration and even ugly things came out," he said.

Youth program 'positive experience'

The local supervisors of a federally funded job program for Manchester youths called it a "positive experience" for all those involved in the program which ended last week.

The program started with 125 workers in July and ended with 115, with several of those who dropped out for other jobs, according to J.J. Driscoll, one of the supervisors. She and her co-worker, Steve Cassavant, concurred that the youth came out of the program with a positive attitude and many new practical skills.

Ms. Driscoll said a nice rapport was built up between the youth workers and their job-site supervisors, who took the time to work with the youth and teach them skills needed on their jobs. Most of the job sites were in town and public service agencies such as Manchester Memorial Hospital, the town Highway Department, Red Cross, Housing Authority, Board of Education, Police Department and Chamber of Commerce. Some worked in recreation programs.

Ms. Driscoll said she felt most of the youth, who filled in a final questionnaire on the program felt it was a worthwhile experience. She said some of them may never use the specific job skill, but they learned the responsibilities of having a job.

The program is run very professionally, Ms. Driscoll said, with a complete file kept on each youth. The jobs they had this summer can be used as recommendations for future employment.

Some of the youths expressed a desire to continue in their jobs throughout the school year and some employers have asked that they do so, Ms. Driscoll said.

Daly sworn in as judge

BRIDGEPORT (UPI) — Connecticut has a new U.S. District Court judge today. T.F. Gilroy Daly, the former state insurance commissioner who gained national fame as Peter A. Reilly's defense lawyer.

In a brief ceremony Tuesday, Chief Judge T. Emmet Clark administered the oath of office to Daly before about 250 onlookers, including friends, relatives, judges and other members of the Connecticut Bar Association.

After the ceremony, Daly said, "With God's help, I hope to make this a better world."

President Carter nominated Daly to the post earlier this year on the recommendation of Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn. Earlier this month, the Senate unanimously confirmed Daly's nomination.

Illing teacher resigns

Frank Pisch Jr. of 744 Lydall St. has submitted his resignation as a science teacher at Illing Junior High School.

A teacher for seven years, Pisch taught at Illing for one year. He previously taught biology at South Catholic High School in Hartford.

Pisch said he has joined the firm of Frechette, Martin and Rothmann as a full-time Realtor associate. He is also an educational consultant for Outdoor Education Programs on the high school level and an assistant director of Experience It camp in Colchester.

He gave personal reasons for leaving his teaching and said he enjoyed his year at Illing. He is a native of Manchester.

Wilson Deakin, assistant superintendent of schools, said interviews are under way for a replacement for Pisch.

Stager resigns

Jay Stager has resigned as a member of Manchester's Democratic Town Committee.

Fiscal Mastrangelo, chairman of the sixth voting district, said that he is seeking a new member to replace Stager. Mastrangelo said that anyone interested in the position should contact him or any other sixth voting district member of the town committee.

Stager, a professor at Manchester Community College, will be on sabbatical for the next year and, thus, decided to resign from the committee, Mastrangelo said.

One of the youths who worked at the Lutz Junior Museum with the animals, became very interested in that field of work through her summer experience.

The college age crew chiefs also gained valuable experience in supervising the youths, Ms. Driscoll said. One of them said it would help her in her planned field of career in child psychology.

The job program also helped agencies, such as the Housing Authority, complete work that may not have been done otherwise.

Towards the end of the program, the youths were working independently and effectively, Ms. Driscoll said. She and Cassavant are winding up their evaluations to submit to the Capitol Region Education Council (CREC), which oversees the 1,400 jobs for youth in the Hartford area.

Both Driscoll and Cassavant are teachers during the school year. Ms. Driscoll lives in Manchester and teaches fifth grade in East Hartford. Cassavant teaches at Waddell Elementary School in Manchester.

Senior citizens

Hi, everyone! Can you believe that summer is almost over? We have had a good summer here at the center with lots of trips, etc., with more to come. This week we are registering for the Chateau de Ville. This is for the performance of Minsky's Burlesque Polka. As of this writing, we have about ten seats left for the second bus.

On Sept. 1, we will leave for Boston to see the Red Sox game. You should be here at the center at 8:30 a.m.

On Sept. 12, we will register for a three-day trip to the Penn Dutch Country. This trip is scheduled for Oct. 24, 25 and 26. The price is $87. Holiday Fair

Now that summer is almost a thing of history, I immediately start thinking of our Holiday Fair. The date is Nov. 10. I do hope you will start gathering your goodies. Two special items we will be raffling will be a large braided rug supervised by Irene Bissett and a handmade quilt that Leola Caron is supervising my Arts and Crafts class with.

We were saddened to hear that our good friend Lou Weber passed away. Lou was a cheerful person and we will all miss him. Building closed

By the way, the building will be closed next week for repairs and cleaning, so all activities will be canceled. The full listing of activities begin on Monday, Sept. 12.

We will be traveling to Essex to board a train this Thursday and then have lunch at the Dock and Dine Restaurant. Our building will be open for business and the outdoor shuffleboard courts are available for those wishing to use them.

Chip Carters return to Plains

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chip and Caron Carter left the White House Tuesday to return to Plains, Ga., where the President's second oldest son will help with the family peanut business.

The young couple, who had a week-long trial separation earlier this month, took a commercial flight to Georgia with their 6-month-old son James Earl Carter IV, family spokesman Ann Anderson, said.

Plunkett acts as principal

Gregory Plunkett, associate principal of South Windsor High School, has been named acting principal until at least March 1, 1978.

Paul Bordonaro, a business education teacher, will serve as acting associate principal and a replacement teacher for Bordonaro will be hired on a one-year contract.

Plunkett will replace Principal William Spohn until a permanent replacement can be found. Spohn has resigned to accept a position as assistant superintendent of schools in Salem, N.H.

Church bans youths in lot

The St. Francis of Assisi parish council has voted to discontinue its policy of allowing South Windsor's young people to gather in the church parking lot.

Local youngsters have been asking authorities for a place to gather. Last year, a group of young people appeared before the Town Council and requested a place to be set aside for them.

Some asked for a place "where we can drink beer and drive fast." Local officials, fearing problems resulting from such an arrangement, did not act on the recommendation.

Nike League softball teams undefeated in tournament

Seven teams remain alive in the Town Slow Pitch "B" Division Softball Tournament after last night's play. Of those still going in the double elimination tournament, the two Nike League representatives are the only ones unbeaten.

Contests last night at Fitzgerald Field saw Nike League champion Acadia Restaurant turn three four-run innings into a 12-8 win over Tierney's Nike League runner-up. Cherrone's Package scored a run in the seventh inning to nip Telephone Society, 5-4, while Bob & Marie's Pizza, using its hits judiciously, eliminated Thrifty Package, 10-5.

Tonight's schedule finds: North United Methodist vs. Highland Park Market, 6 — Robertson; Method-Highland winner vs. Tierney's, 7:15 — Robertson.

The winner of the Cherrone's Acadia bout is guaranteed a berth in Friday night's finals at Fitzgerald which begin at 6.

Andy Amendola singled, doubled and belted a three-run homer to lead Acadia's 18-hit barrage. Bob Plosky added three hits and Lee Edwards, Ron Nivison, Rusty Franklin and Dom Cristelli two apiece. Brian Quigley, Steve Casavant and Harry Roy each had three safeties for the Funeralmen with Jim McAuley top sticer with a single and three-run homer.

Bob Ferron had four hits, including a triple, and Rick Goss, Jeff Peck and Lou Cherrone two apiece for Cherrone's while Bob Lynn had two bingles and Wayne Johnson two RBIs for Telephone.

Larry Quintiliani singled and tripled and Bob Andreski singled and homered for Pizza with six others socking one blow each. Rick Silver drilled two doubles and two singles to lead Thrifty's 15-hit attack with Scott Hanson, Craig Ogden and Mike Czajka hipping in two apiece.

Moriarty's game away from title

Home runs off the bats of Fred Flynn and Bud Silva and the two-hit pitching of John Serafini powered Moriarty Bros. past Hartford Jai-Alai, 4-0, last night at St. Thomas and into the lead in the Tui League playoff finals.

The MBS led the best three-of-five final, 3-1, and can wrap up the title tonight at 5:30 at St. Thomas. Dave Bidwell draws the mound assignment for Moriarty's and he'll be opposed by Ken Soucy.

Flynn belted a leadoff homer in the top of the first inning over the leftfield fence and Silva followed with a one-out blast over the right-field wall against Flyer starter and loser George Frothingham.

Serafini, meanwhile, was holding Hartford in check with only first baseman Bob Stich able to figure out his offerings. Stich singled in the

Incredible show in Little League

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (UPI) — Fireballing right-hander John Osborne, of the Cajon, Calif. team, put on an incredible show in the opening round of the 31st Little League World Series.

Osborne pitched El Cajon to a 3-1 win Tuesday over Hattiesburg, Miss., striking out 15 batters in the six-inning game and yielding only three hits.

He also belted a solo homer in the first and added a double in the final frame.

In the opener of the doubleheader, Venezuela came up with four consecutive doubles to push across three runs in the fourth inning for an 8-6 win over the Torrejon Air Base team from Madrid, Spain.

Youngstown, Ohio plays Rotterdam, N.Y., and Taipei, Taiwan meets Letchridge in quarter-final competition today.

In Tuesday's nightcap, El Cajon scored its two other runs in the second on a wild pitch, balk, error and a two-base hit by Devin Lunsford. Osborne had a one-hit shutout going into the last inning, but singles by Andy Mott and Mike Williams and

David's complete perfect campaign

With a pair of victories last night at Nike Field over Crispino's, 5-3 and 8-1, David's completed an unblemished 20-0 campaign to capture the Feline League playoff championship.

A three-run sixth-inning boosted David's to its opening game win. Mary Muszynski's sacrifice fly drove in what proved to be the winning run with Mary Gracyalyn and Joan Krogh chipping in two safeties apiece. Katie Graham hurled a six-hit game, striking out eight and walking three. Tom Gorman took the loss for Maracaibo, also going the distance.

In the nightcap, David's bunched seven runs the first two innings to score the easy victory. Graham tossed a five-hitter completing the sweep. Gracyalyn homered and singled, Krogh tripled, singled and drove in three runs and Graham chipped in two safeties. Muszynski had a two-run double. Barb Brody and Lentocho each had a pair of blows for the Supremes.

Notes off the cuff

Popular Band Day at UConn this fall will be Oct. 8 during halftime of the UConn-Hutgers football game. More than 20 bands, plus the entertaining UConn Band will join in a mass production... Mike Liappes, coach of the American Division champion Hartford Jai Alai entry in the Twilight Baseball League, also handles the Penney High diamond nine in the spring. Liappes is also a former member of Moriarty's in the Tui loop and now has his charges up against his former teammates in the playoffs. Being in the playoff finals is nothing new for the M's under Gene Johnson. The latter guided the local entry in nine regular season titles and eight playoff championships. At the advanced age of 40, Johnson still managed to hit over .300 this season with one of the better looking young players in the circuit his son, Mike. Laura Dunfield has rejoined the Recreation Department staff and will handle gymnastics and volleyball activities again. She's also the first certified Amateur Softball Association umpire among her sex on the local scene. Rivers lets bat do talking and Yankees assume lead

CHICAGO (UPI) — Mickey Rivers let his bat do the talking Tuesday night as he went 5-for-5 with three runs batted in to push the New York Yankees past the Chicago WHITE Sox 8-3 and into first place in the American League East.

Boston's loss to Minnesota gave the Yankees a half-game lead.

Afterwards, Rivers said, "I don't feel like talking." But after his performance at the plate, words were hardly necessary. His fourth single, off loser Wilbur Wood, 6-6, in the seventh inning scored Graig Nettles, who doubled, to break a 3-3 tie. It gave Mike Torrez, 15-10, the victory. The unsigned Yankee right-hander went the distance and has won his last seven starts, all complete games.

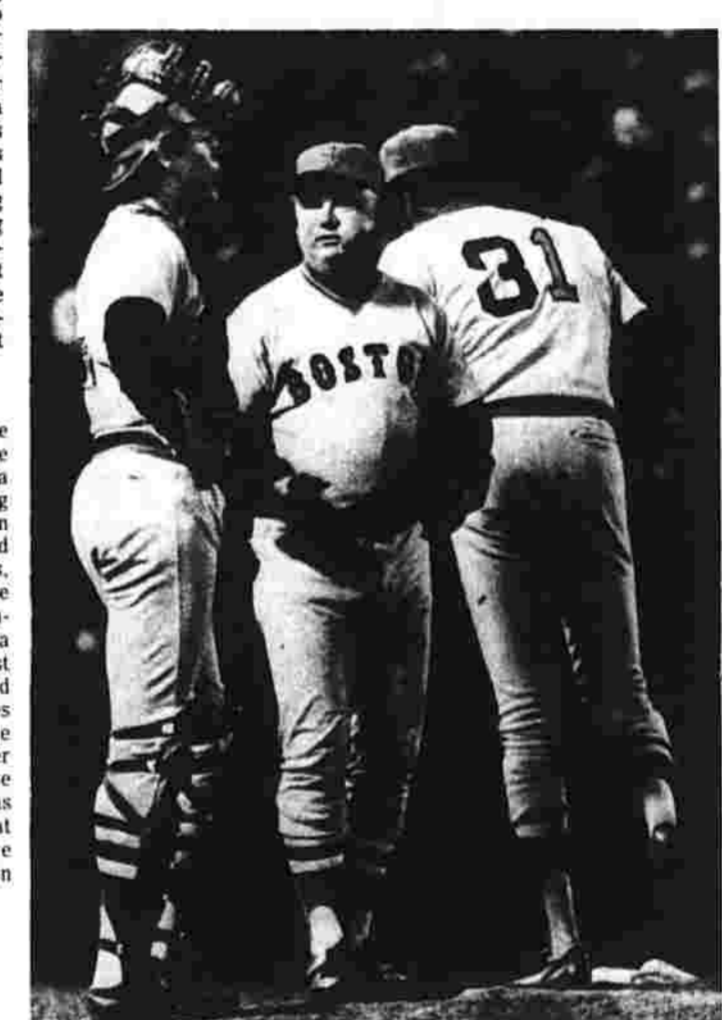

Rivers also had a two-run single during a three-run second inning. Chicago came back with two runs in the third and tied it in the fourth on Chet Lemon's RBI.

The Yankees added four runs in the eighth, the big blow Nettles' 30th homer off Lerrin LaGroy with Reggie Jackson and Chris Chambliss on base. Nettles finished with three hits and three runs scored.

Although the win put the Yanks back on top, Nettles predicted a tight race.

"I can't see any of the three teams (New York, Boston and Baltimore) folding. There is no reason why it won't be decided until the final week."

Torrez, who started the season at Oakland, said, "We're not close"

Forsch in bidding for Young Award

NEW YORK (UPI) — The St. Louis Cardinals' right-hander, Bob Forsch is a dark-horse candidate for the National League Cy Young Award and is a major reason the Cards are still within reach of the Philadelphia Phillies in the NL East.

Forsch, no doubt, picked up some backing from the Los Angeles Dodgers, the NL West leaders. Tuesday night when he stopped them on three hits, 2-1, to register a career-high 16th victory.

Steve Carlton, an 18-game winner with the Phillies, and Rick Reuschel, who has a 17-5 record for the Chicago Cubs, appear to be the front-runners for the Cy Young Award. But, the way Forsch is pitching now he could muster enough support over the final month of the season.

"I was in pretty good command and the pitches were just going to the spots they were supposed to," said Forsch. "My best game? I think so..."

The only mistake Forsch made was in the second inning when Vic Davalillo stroked a run-scoring double with two out.

Lou Brock figured in both Cardinal runs. He singled in the first and knocked Boston out of first place in the American League East, enabled the Twins to remain a game behind Kansas City in the west.

And the Royals defeated Baltimore, 5-2, for their 18th victory in their last 20 at home. They were sparked by George Brett, who prior to this season had never hit more than 11 runs in six innings, which enabled rookie Jim Clancy to gain his second major league victory for Toronto.

Clancy, 24, belted the first eight innings before yielding to Tom Murphy.

Philles 3, Braves 2. The Phillies stretched their winning streak to six games and made it to 20 starts on Mike Schmidt's 31st homer in the fifth inning. Phil Niekro struck out 13 for Atlanta in a losing effort.

Pirates 7, Padres 6. Al Oliver homered off reliever Rollie Fingers to lead off the bottom of the ninth as the Pirates remained 7

Enterprise to unveil new skipper, tactician

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI) — A new skipper and tactician aboard the 13-meter yacht Enterprise today face their first test in the scramble to stop Courageous skipper Ted Turner from running away with America's Cup selection honors.

The New York Yacht Club's America's Cup Committee put some pressure on our committee to make a change," said Lowell North, the San Diego, Calif., sailmaker who was fired Tuesday as Enterprise skipper. "Hood skipper Ted Hood of the Independence" also had to make some changes in his boat."

Halsey Herreshoff, grandson of famed boat designer Nathaniel Herreshoff, will take over North's duties as tactician. Upwind helmsman Main Burnham, a San Diego real estate executive and seasoned yachtsman, will become skipper.

Richard Sawyer, a spokesman for the Kings Point syndicate, confirmed independence tactician Scott Perry was replaced Tuesday by Steve Van Dyke of Philadelphia. He is a veteran of successful cup defenses by Weatherly in 1962 and Intrepid in 1970.

Burnham had no 12-meter experience before joining the Enterprise challenge, but North said, "I think he can do a better job. Everything will be pretty much the same except that Main will be responsible for starting the boat."

Burnham's first start was to come against Courageous in a two-race rematch delayed Monday by rain and Tuesday by fog in which both contenders lost their way.

"We had no idea where we were sailing," said Turner, owner of the major league baseball team Atlanta Braves. "Even the race committee couldn't find the first mark with their radar."

Courageous won the start by four seconds, but both boats veered far west, failed to find the buoy, and circled back toward the spectator fleet.

Enterprise boosted a spinnaker and plowed through the pack of about 40 pleasure boats in visibility less than the length of a football field, sluggish winds, and heavy seas.

"I think we oversteered the mark about three times," said Enterprise navigator Richard Du Moulin.

Enterprise has been unable to beat Courageous since final trials began Aug. 16 and turned in a disappointing 11-12 record in earlier preliminary trials. The NYCC selection committee is to pick the defender by Sept. 8.

Independence, which has a 3-4 record in finals so far and finished last in preliminaries with a 7-13 tally, has handled Turner his only defeat in more than a week. She will rest from race competition today for the third day in a row.

Australia, a new yacht backed by Perth real estate man Alan Bond, begins a final elimination series Thursday against Sweden's Sveriges. The winner will meet the best American boat in finals starting Sept. 13.

Goltz one-hits slumping Sox

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (UPI) — Dave Goltz had the Boston Red Sox outguttered.

Goltz hurled a one-hitter Tuesday night in the best performance of his pitching career, leading the Minnesota Twins to a 7-0 victory over the Red Sox and knocking Boston out of first place in the American League East.

The Red Sox were in first place going into their two-game series at Minnesota, but the Twins knocked them out with a sweep which allowed the New York Yankees to pull ahead by a half-game.

Tuesday's victory, which put the Twins one game behind the Kansas City Royals in the West, was the 16th of the season for Goltz.

"They were looking for more breaking stuff and I had a good fast ball hitting the corners," said the big righthander in explaining why he picked up so many called third strikes. He walked three and struck out 10.

"My fast ball got better as the game progressed. My slider was good and so was my curve. But I threw more fast balls."

Twins' Manager Gene Mauch had a little different theory about why the Red Sox batters were caught looking so often.

"When you can throw three different pitches with the command Goltz had, then the batter has to be somewhat confused about what he is going to see next," said Mauch.

Mauch said he thinks Goltz' success this season may be keyed by a new maturity.

"He knows how hard you have to work to be a big winner," he said. Goltz noted he has changed his windup.

"I used to throw right out of a set position. Now I take a little windup and it gives them more time to think about what might be coming," Goltz said.

Mauch said he thinks the AL West pennant race will be a four-game contest right down to the wire.

"I heard that Whitey Herzog (of the Royals) said yesterday that he thought the Chicago White Sox were out of the race now. If that's true then I've been worrying exactly 31-3 per cent too much."

Red Sox Manager Don Zimmer said he was glad to be going back to Boston where the Sox face the Texas Rangers today.

"This has been a terrible road trip," said Zimmer. "We lost six of seven games on the trip."

Red Carew had a homer and Lyman Bostock and Glenn Adams had three hits apiece to lead the Twins 14-hit attack Tuesday night. Carew hit his 12th homer with two out in the first inning off loser Ferguson Jenkins, 10-8. Bostock followed with a single and scored

Suggestions

Dear Mr. Yost:

Today I competed in the women's singles of the Town Tennis Tournament. It was a very enjoyable experience, but there were only six women entered. I would like to offer some suggestions for improving the publicity.

I suggest that the events be held in September, when people have returned from vacations. In case of rain, hold the tournament indoors — good public relations for the Manchester Racquet Club. If the racquet club isn't available, schedule rain dates on weekends in October, when the weather is often ideal for tennis.

Set the dates in the spring, so that people can plan ahead, and post permanent signs at each town tennis court. Announce pairings well in advance of play, by mailing to the individual contestants, as well as by announcements in the newspapers.

Manchester has a fine recreation department, and it can surely better serve the interests of the many avid tennis players in town. With some planning and publicity, the annual tennis tournament would be more attractive to participants and spectators alike.

Very truly yours,
(Mrs.) Nancy W. Mann

Practice under way for MCC booters

In soccer, just like any other sport at the beginning of the season, many adjustments must take place for the program to be a success.

The adjustments started to take place yesterday for Manchester Community College's soccer team as it began operations with a double session at Cougar Field.

First-year Coach Keith Bolles welcomed a field of 22 players.

Bolles replaces Jim Dyer, who became assistant at the University of Connecticut.

Seven veterans from the 1976 squad will have added safety man Mark Mallett, Gary DeGiacomo, Doug Durand, Bill Young and Roberto Cicero were among those at the opening drill.

The Cougars began play Sept. 17 with a home contest against Southern Connecticut State College.

Royals tough on home field

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Minnesota Twins' Dave Goltz, who has never achieved anything better than a 14-14 record, checked the Boston Red Sox on one hit Tuesday night for his 16th victory.

The 7-0 win, which knocked Boston out of first place in the American League East, enabled the Twins to remain a game behind Kansas City in the west.

And the Royals defeated Baltimore, 5-2, for their 18th victory in their last 20 at home. They were sparked by George Brett, who prior to this season had never hit more than 11 runs in six innings, which enabled rookie Jim Clancy to gain his second major league victory for Toronto.

Clancy, 24, belted the first eight innings before yielding to Tom Murphy.

Obituaries Pension fund reviewed

Dayton A. Cornish Sr.
EAST HARTFORD — Dayton A. Cornish Sr., 85, of 6 Daley Court died Tuesday at a local convalescent home. He was the husband of Mrs. Bertha Zerver Cornish.

Mr. Cornish was born in Glastonbury and had lived in East Hartford for 45 years. Before retiring in 1967, he had been employed as an engineer for the former New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad for 50 years. He had formerly served as secretary and treasurer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He was a 62-year member of Crescent Lodge of Odd Fellows in East Hartford.

Other survivors are a son, Dayton A. Cornish Jr. of Westport; two daughters, Mrs. Mary-Louise Anderson of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Ruth S. Daniels of Northville, Mich.; a brother, Willard Cornish of Glastonbury; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Weir of Manchester; six grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The private funeral will be at Newark and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burnside Ave. Burial will be in St. James Cemetery, Glastonbury. There are no calling hours.

The family suggests that any memorial gifts may be made to the American Cancer Society, 679 Prospect Ave., Hartford.

Mrs. Mildred W. Grizey
EAST HARTFORD — Mrs. Mildred Webster Grizey, 81, of Los Angeles, Calif., formerly of East Hartford, died Monday in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Grizey was born in Pittsfield, Mass., and had lived in the Hartford area for about 35 years before moving to California in 1946. She formerly was employed at the Royal Typewriter Co., Hartford, for 20 years.

She is survived by a son, Frank A. Grizey of Avon; a daughter, Bernice Sperry of Los Angeles; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A committal service took place today in Forest Lawn, Hollywood Hills, Los Angeles.

The family suggests that any memorial gifts may be made to the Heart Association of Greater Hartford, 310 Collins St., Hartford.

The Forest Lawn mortuary, Los Angeles, was in charge of arrangements.

The Pension Board Monday learned that the Town of Manchester's pension fund increased by 3.9 per cent in the past year.

Herbert Maher, an assistant vice-president of Connecticut Bank and Trust Co., discussed the past year's performance of investments from the fund with the Pension Board.

A sheet distributed by Maher compared the investment growth of the fund with indicators of stock and bond growth compiled by Standard & Poor.

The town's pension fund growth was above the 6 per cent growth reflected in Standard & Poor's 500 scale, which rates stock performance.

The 3.9 per cent growth in the pension fund was below two other Standard & Poor indicators — the AAA listing, which showed a 14.1 per cent growth in AAA-rated bonds, and the index showing a 4.9 per cent growth in a mix of stocks and bonds similar to that used for the pension fund.

Maher also discussed strategies for investment in the upcoming year.

"I concede we're in for an economic slowdown," he said, although he does not expect it to be as sharp as the 1973-74 recession period. This expected slowdown will govern investment practices in the upcoming year, he said.

Maher also provided figures that showed the areas where the $2.1 million in funds managed by CBT are distributed. (Aetna Life & Casualty Co. and United Bank & Trust Co. handled the remainder of the $4-million fund.)

CBT invests its largest portion, 18.3 per cent, in energy. Maher said. Other large areas include tobacco and insurance.

The bank has recently sold its shares in the automotive field.

"It's probably a good time to be elsewhere," Maher said.

Pension Board Chairman Fred Geyer told Maher that the board, at this time, cannot give information on expected cash flow for the upcoming year.

In a recent letter to department heads, Town Manager Robert Weiss said that because of a possible budget deficit for 1977-78, the town's contribution to the pension fund may be limited to immediate needs only.

The Pension Board had recommended a $900,000 contribution, a figure that was cut to $500,000 by the Board of Directors. That figure would be further reduced if Weiss' proposal has to be enacted.

Maher also discussed the early retirement of Stanley Lucas, who has worked as a custodian with the Board of Education since 1961.

Manchester police report

A Tudor La. resident was arrested Tuesday morning as she was being evicted from her apartment.

Mrs. Mary L. O'Keefe, 36, of 166D Tudor Lane, was charged with interfering with police. Police were assisting Assistant Sheriff Sedrick J. Straughan in carrying out the eviction orders.

Police said Mrs. O'Keefe refused to allow anything to be removed from the apartment and would not leave. They said it was necessary to carry her from the premises.

She was later processed and released on a promise to appear in court Sept. 12.

Joseph E. DeLaurentis, 21, and Steven R. Maharan, 17, both of Vernon, were arrested early today on a charge of possession of a cannabis type substance. The arrest resulted from a routine patrol investigation of a motor vehicle violation. Police said the substance was found in the car. Both men were released on $250 cash bonds for court Sept. 12.

Charles H. Gary, 30, of Hartford, was arrested on a warrant Tuesday on charges of two counts of third-degree larceny in connection with a two-year-old bad check charge. He was released on $500 nonsurety bond for court Sept. 5.

Richard M. Guinness, 17, of 62 Tracy Dr., was charged with speeding and disregarding no passing markers on New Bolton Rd. Tuesday. He was released on a promise to appear in court Sept. 6.

Brian W. Carter, 17, of East Lyme, was charged with speeding and disregarding no passing markers on New Bolton Rd. Tuesday. He was released on a promise to appear in court Sept. 6.

Edwin W. Glidden, 61, of 638 Parker St., was charged with following too closely in connection with a collision with a car driven by Denise L. Driggs, 25, of Ellington at the intersection of Parker St. and Tolland Tpk. Ms. Driggs was checked at Manchester Memorial Hospital and released.

Charles M. Steele, 30, of East Hartford, received multiple facial injuries, was treated and released from Manchester Memorial Hospital after an accident on Buckland Rd. Tuesday afternoon. Police said Steele's car tire caught in a ridge on the side of the road, causing it to veer into a tree and swerve off the road.

Burglaries were reported on Frances Dr. Tuesday and at a vacant rental office on Tudor Lane early today. Nothing was taken in either break, police said.

A woman reported the loss of two rings, both with diamonds and valued at $550, while she was shopping in the K-Mart Plaza off Spencer St. Tuesday afternoon.

Vandals leave bright trail

A Manchester Police officer followed the trail of bright red paint left by vandals on four cars and two homes in the north end of town Tuesday night.

After the first report of the vandalism was received from a Manchester resident who found the fresh wet paint on his car, parked at North and Golway Sts., police investigated.

They followed the trail of paint poured on cars and the siding of homes on North and Kerry Sts. The paint was poured on the car seats of one car parked at Kelly's Pub on North St.

Police followed the trail to paint on a trash can. Trash cans were searched for empty paint cans, but the only evidence left by vandals was a piece of cardboard, apparently used to wipe the paint off their hands.

About town King funeral

WILLIMANTIC (UPI) — A funeral will be held Thursday for retired Connecticut Supreme Court Chief Justice John Hamilton King.

King died Monday at the age of 77 in a Mansfield nursing home. The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. in the First Congregational Church of Willimantic.

Burial will be in the Old Willimantic Cemetery. There will be no calling hours.

Naum Gabo, sculptor, dies at 87

MIDDLEBURY (UPI) — There will be no funeral for sculptor Naum Gabo, 87, whose major works are represented in both European and American museums.

He died Tuesday in Waterbury Hospital. The Russian-born artist had lived in Middlebury for the past 20 years.

Working with metal, plastic, resin and other materials, Gabo was a pioneer of the constructivist school whose adherents build rather than carve objects.

He was noted for works in colorless plastic in delicately engineered abstract shapes.

Gabo had his first American exhibition in Chicago in 1926 and one of his first major exhibits was staged in conjunction with Alexander Calder at the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford in 1953, a year after he became a U.S. citizen.

He was born in Bratsk, Russia. He left Russia in 1922 and spent 13 years in Berlin and Paris. He lived in England from 1935 to 1946. He moved to Woodbury, Conn., in 1946.

Your neighbor's kitchen

By BETTY RYDER

In Italy, good food is the rule, not the exception. Good Italian cooking does not require money as a prerequisite, but often seafood is an important recipe ingredient. A can of clams, for example, speaks fluent Italian — economically!

Cooks in the southern part of Italy feature pastas of all kinds, teamed with interesting foods. And the flavor of Italy always means seasonings superb. A delicious case in point is Clams Fattucini, a dish that's perfect for a family dinner or a buffet supper party. Over cheese-coated noodles, the easily concocted, inexpensive sauce is poured and the result definitely speaks Italian. Sauce ingredients — whole tomatoes, tomato sauce, ripe olives, minced clams, and the subtle touch of oregano — add the soft, inviting Italian accent.

The small can of clams, kept handy on a cupboard shelf, helps the dish serve four dinners delectably. Clams are not strangers to this particular brand of ethnic cooking as spaghetti is offered in many famous restaurants with white or red clam sauce. The Italian seem to know how to make fish and seafoods (whether fresh, frozen, or canned) go a long way. They'd serve the appealing Clams Fattucini with a crisp, green salad that has been tossed with vinegar and oil, bread sticks, and a robust red wine.

Often the American taste would opt for the green vegetable instead, such as buttered Italian beans with chopped onions. Then tastiness could come from such as a Pineapple-Line Gelatin Salad. Dessert could be Italian, Spumoni is one idea, or as American as bread pudding.

Clam Fattucini is a recipe developed by the National Marine Fisheries Service. In an intriguing little booklet called "A Little Fish Goes a Long Way," the recipes (including Clams Fattucini) show that, indeed, a little fish does go a long way in flavor, nutrition and economy. To send for the booklet, a check or money order should be enclosed for 65 cents for each booklet (send no stamps, please) to: Superintendent of Documents U.S.

Government of Printing Office Washington, D.C. 20402.

The booklet is #903-020-0074-6 and your name, address, and zip code should be included. Although this recipe originated on this side of the Atlantic, the results are as Italian as the beautiful sights of Italy. The recipe goes a long way, especially the fact that a can of clams helps it to serve four. Yes, a can of clams speaks fluent Italian — economically!

Clam Fattucini
 1/2 cup soft margarine
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 3 tablespoons flour
 1 teaspoon sugar
 1 teaspoon oregano
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 Dash of pepper
 1 can (1 pound) whole tomatoes, undrained
 1 can (8 ounce) tomato sauce

Masse-McVeigh

Sharon L. McVeigh of Manchester and Ronald J. Masse of Vernon were married Aug. 19 at St. James Church in Manchester.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. McVeigh of 193 High St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aurele Masse of 147 Benton St.

The Rev. James Archambault of St. James Church performed the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with pink gladioli and daisies. Music was provided by the St. James Folk Group.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza with white lace fitted with illusion, Empire bodice, stand-up lace collar, high rise waistline, full skirt with double-tiered hemline flounce extending to a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was bordered with lace and attached to a lace headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Miss Marilyn McVeigh of Manchester was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Francine Masse of Manchester, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Jane Tedford of Manchester; and Miss Melissa McVeigh of Manchester, the bride's sister.

Fred Nakis of Manchester served as best man. Ushers were Larry Smetana of Manchester; John Masse of Manchester, the bridegroom's brother; and Larry Jeffrey of East Hartford.

On second thought

By Jan Warren

Tennis is for toughies!

Sometimes I wonder how a gentle, peace loving, nonaggressive woman like me ever started to play tennis in the first place.

In my normal state I wouldn't dream of hitting anyone, let alone hitting him in the head with a tennis ball. But occasionally, when I'm caught up in the heat of a rough match, I would do exactly that. If my aim was good enough, Tennis does something to my personality.

One night a week I have a standing date with three other women to play doubles. I rush home from work, pull on my tennis clothes, give my family instructions on how to cook dinner without me, and take off for the courts.

After exchanging a few pleasantries, my friends and I pick up our rackets and start to play. Now, when my partner and I are ahead, we are models of decorum and good sportsmanship.

Therrien-Calderwood

Donna Calderwood of Manchester and Timothy Therrien of Claremont, N.H., were married June 25 at St. Mary's Church in Claremont.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Calderwood of 87 Vernon St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Therrien of Claremont.

The Rev. Gerald Valenger of Claremont celebrated the nuptial Mass and performed the double-ring ceremony.

Margaret Hickey of Cambridge, Mass., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janice True of Bridgewater, Mass.; Melissa Oliver of Manchester, N.H.; and Robin Hilary of Bradford, N.H., the bride's niece. Debra Shaw of Claremont, the bridegroom's cousin, was flower girl.

Scott Currier of New London, N.H., served as best man. Ushers were Ted Perran of Ossipee, N.H., and Michael Tetu and John Pomykato, both of Claremont.

A reception was held at the KoC Hall in Claremont, after which the couple left on a trip to the West Coast. They are residing in Claremont.

Mrs. Calderwood was graduated from Keene (N.H.) State College. Mr. Calderwood is employed at Ultra Precision Products Co. in Claremont. (Hastings photo)

Social Security

I'd like to find out about reduced retirement benefits, but the Social Security office is always too crowded to stop at during my lunch hour. How can I get the information I need?

A. Phone or write any Social Security office and someone there will be glad to answer your questions and mail you free information. The best time to phone is during the latter part of the week and the latter part of the month, during which it is usually slower.

Q. My 33-year-old mentally retarded daughter has been getting disability benefits on my Social Security record since I started getting retirement checks a year ago. She's been sick a lot lately, and I'd like to know if Medicare can help?

A. Disabled people who have been getting monthly benefits at least 24 consecutive months are eligible for Medicare. Your daughter will be notified three months before she is eligible.

Q. After I was turned down for Social Security disability benefits, I saw a specialist, who found something else wrong with me. Can I apply to Social Security again?

A. Yes, if it's been less than 60 days since you received your denial notice, you can have the Social Security office assist you in filing for a reconsideration. If it's been over 60 days, you can file a new claim and present the new evidence.

Q. I've been getting Supplemental Security Income (SSI) checks, and now my son sends me $50 a month to help out. Since this is only a contribution from a relative, must it be reported to Social Security?

A. If you're getting SSI payments, yes, all income, regardless of how you get it, must be reported to Social Security.

Q. When I applied for SSI, I was told my case would be reviewed once in a while to see if I'm still eligible and getting the right amount. Should I wait for this review to report any changes in my circumstances?

A. No, you should report any changes in income, resources, living arrangements, and other circumstances to Social Security promptly.

Liddy moved

LEWISBURG, Pa. (UPI) - Watergate conspirator G. Gordon Liddy has been transferred to the federal correctional institution at Danbury, Conn., prison officials said Tuesday.

Liddy was one of 58 prisoners transferred from the minimum security facility at Allenwood, Pa., 30 miles away, to the maximum security facility here Saturday following a five-day hunger strike over prison conditions.

Liddy and the others were accused of "intimidating" other inmates to join the strike.

Warden Charles Fenton said Liddy and five other prisoners were transferred Monday afternoon by road to the medium security facility in Connecticut following a review of their cases by a committee from Allenwood.

Fenton said it appeared all 58 would be transferred from the minimum security facility to other prisons. A spokesman for the U.S. Justice Department in Washington said no action had been taken yet on Liddy's parole. He was due to be released on parole Sept. 7.

As Grace pulled a six-pack of ginger ale from a market shelf, another cracked slipped out and crashed on her toes. Painfully bruised, she aimed a damage suit at the management. But in court the company denied liability.

But evidence showed that the cartons had been set up at an unstable angle. This was enough, ruled the court, to place legal liability on the market. The court said a store should build its displays sturdily enough to withstand a reasonable amount of handling by the public.

Falling bottles and cans have led to substantial number of lawsuits. Generally speaking, the claimants are successful if they can pin a negligence label on the market.

In another case a shopper touched off a cascade of canned goods when her shopping cart caught the edge of a display in the middle of an aisle. Again, in a court hearing, the company tried to blame the victim.

But again the court ruled in her favor. The judge noted that the display was wide, it left only 30 inches of aisle to accommodate 18-inch carts.

"It should have been readily foreseeable," said the judge, "that shoppers, using carts which are not always easily maneuverable, might risk contacting the display and disturbing its balance."

But in another case, an aisle display left more than four feet of room on either side. A youngster who tripped and fell against the display was unable, in a later lawsuit, to win damages for having been struck by falling merchandise.

The court said that not only was the display proper but also it had been subjected to an unexpected kind of impact.

"It was plaintiff's tripping and abnormal contact with the stack of cases," said the court, "that caused them to fall."

Miss Karen Brooke Moore

Ballet study ahead for Vernon dancer

Miss Karen Brooke Moore, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Moore of 59 Edith Rd., Vernon, has been accepted at the North Carolina School of the Arts in Winston-Salem, N.C.

Miss Moore, who was a freshman at Rockville High School last year, will be a full-time ballet major at the Winston-Salem school.

She received her ballet training from Priscilla Gibson, director of the Priscilla Gibson School of Dance Arts and has appeared in the school's ballet productions of Les Sylphides, Stars and Stripes, La Boutique Fantastique, and Coppelia. This past season she danced the lead role of Aurora in Sleeping Beauty with Christopher Gibson of Harkness Ballet School, New York.

She is currently attending a four-week ballet program at Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, N.Y., under the direction of Elisabeth Carroll, former principal dancer with the Harkness Ballet Company.

Economic development goal of Bolton board

The Bolton Board of Selectmen has voted to form an Economic Development Committee, has made seven more appointments, and is asking for volunteers for several positions yet to be filled.

The selectmen voted to form a seven-member Economic Development Committee. Anyone interested in serving on the committee is asked to call the selectmen's office, 649-8743.

Edward Pospial was appointed to a three-year term on the Board of Fire Commissioners. The term of Carl Preuss was clarified. He will serve until June 30, 1979.

Joseph Lorenzini was appointed to a one-year term on the Building Code Board of Appeals.

John Carey, Joann Neath, Ernest Shepherd and David Minicucci were appointed to one-year terms as energy coordinators.

Mrs. Neath will be the selectmen's representative to the Capitol Region Council of Governments transportation committee.

There are two vacancies for representatives to the Rockville Public Health Nursing Association, one position as consumer representative to the Health Services Agency of North Central Connecticut, Subarea F, and one vacancy as representative to the Bolton Scholarship Fund.

Volunteers are also needed to serve on the park and recreation committees.

Anyone interested in any of the above positions should call the selectmen's office.

Fire marshal's bill
John Whitham and Peter Massolini will attend the next selectmen's meeting to request action on payment of a bill incurred by Massolini. Whitham will represent the Board of Fire Commissioners. Massolini is the town's fire marshal.

Massolini overspent the school category of his budget last year. A $200 amount was budgeted, but he spent $239.92.

At this request, the fire commissioners agreed to pay the bill subject to a transfer of funds within its budget. However, the Board of Finance refused to transfer the funds.

Members of the finance board said Massolini should have sought permission before overexpending his budget. They said going to school was not an emergency.

A bill submitted by Harold Webb for carpentry work at the firehouse was discussed by the commission. Members agreed to pay the bill if a sliding glass door is fixed so it closes properly and trash from the work is removed from the site.

The bill is $468 more than the $750 the price estimated two years ago.

The fire commissioners requested a list of necessary repairs to the firehouse from the fire chief.

William Cavanagh, chief, said the department's apparatus had not been turned in two years. The commissioners agreed to have it done.

The commission approved having the fire department purchase a chain saw as long as it is within the $105 budgeted.

The commission chose Whitham as interim chairman and Cliff Magnuson as interim secretary.

Dooley renamed chairman of Bolton zoning agency

The Bolton Zoning Commission has elected officers for the 1977-78 year. Philip Dooley was re-elected chairman and Edward Zakowski was elected vice-chairman and secretary.

Commission members discussed the proposed commuter parking lot on Boston Tpke. They said the commission would restrict the removal or addition of sand or gravel. They were asked to review the matter by the Board of Selectmen.

The commission, agreeing with the local zoning agent, said Richard Lashoones of Clark Rd. would need a variance from the Zoning Board of Appeals before building on a nine-acre parcel. The parcel does not meet zoning regulations for frontage or odd-shaped lots.

Coaches needed
The athletic department at Bolton High School is seeking applicants for two part-time coaching positions.

A varsity boys' basketball coach is needed from Nov. 15 to Feb. 28, 1978. A college degree is preferred and some coaching experience in high school or college is required. Pay will be between $1,072 and $1,200. The deadline for applications is Oct. 14.

The second position is coach for the varsity co-ed golf team, from March 20 to May 28, 1978. Some experience is desired. The pay will be between $412 and $461. Deadline for applications is Feb. 28, 1978.

Further information is available from Athletic Director Michael Landolph at the high school.

Correction
The engravers at Bentley Memorial Library with which local residents may mark their valuables were donated by the Bolton Jaycees not the Bolton Lions Club as incorrectly reported in Tuesday's Herald.

Rham board hires 11 new teachers

The Regional District 8 (Rham) Board of Education acted on a number of items, including the appointment of 11 teachers for the 1977-78 school year, at Monday night's meeting.

Action was also taken on office personnel, lunch and milk prices, setting the school hours and the substitute pay schedules.

Six teachers were appointed under regular contract with their effective date being Sept. 1.

Laura Boutillier, who received her B.A. degree from the University of Connecticut, will teach home economics. She has taught the subject as a substitute teacher and under regular contract at Iling Junior High School in Manchester.

Christine Harris was appointed as the junior high music teacher. She graduated in 1976 from Heidelberg College in Ohio and taught in the Tiffin Ohio, public schools.

Appointed to the position of librarian was Georgeanna Lane. She received her B.A. degree in 1954 from St. Joseph College and her Master's degree in library science from Southern Connecticut State College in 1970. Her experience includes teaching in Connecticut schools and served as a librarian, library coordinator and media specialist, and consultant for media services.

Larry Massey will teach industrial arts. He received his B.A. degree in 1971 from Michigan State University and his M.S. degree from Central Connecticut State College. He has taught at Simsbury High School.

Ernest Stokes was appointed as a part-time Latin teacher. He received his B.A. degree in 1962 from St. Anselm's College and a master's degree in 1965 from the University of Hartford. Stokes has taught both at Rocky Hill and Bolton High Schools.

Katherine Zartun was appointed home economics teacher. She received her B.S. degree in 1974 from UConn and student-taught at Windham High School. She was also a substitute teacher in the Portland public schools and a home economics teacher at New London Junior High School.

The board also approved the appointment of five teachers with letters of appointment. These included the position of English teacher being filled by Fred L. Ashton III; Ruth Kukika, special education teacher; Patricia Mann, guidance intern; Patricia Tamburri, special education teacher, and Barbara Vallera, English teacher.

The board accepted the resignation of Colleen DePasquale, who was unable to accept an appointment approved at a previous meeting. Also accepted were the resignations of John Tamburri and Roby Rowe.

Ms. Rowe requested a two-year leave of absence which the board denied.

Janet Tuohy was hired to work in the school office, replacing Jan Sperry, who resigned.

Leaves of absence were granted to Marsha Orcutt, Ilona Laporte, Diane Webb and James Aloia.

School hours were approved in other business. Grades 9 to 12 will attend from 7:30 a.m. to 12:04 p.m. and Grades 7 and 8 will attend from 12:10 to 4:40 p.m.

Substitute teacher pay rates will be $20 per day for the first 10 days and $40 per day after 10 days of employment in the same position.

In conclusion the board appointed John LaBoc to act in the absence of the three school administrators.

New EMTs in Bolton

The Bolton Fire Department now has a total of 22 Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs) on its active force of about 35 fire fighters, with the addition recently of these volunteers. Left to right are Cindy Fagan, Kevin Julian, Engine Foreman Joe Fontanella, Lt. Cliff Massey, Enginetank Foreman Tom Behling, Rescue Foreman Ron Morra, Capt. Lance Dimock, Chief William Cavanagh and Tom Cavanagh. Not available for the picture were Peter Ryba and Mike Morin. (Herald photo by Dunn)

In Italy, good food is the rule, not the exception. Good Italian cooking does not require money as a prerequisite, but often seafood is an important recipe ingredient. A can of clams, for example, speaks fluent Italian—economically!

Cooks in the southern part of Italy feature pastas of all kinds, teamed with interesting foods. And the flavor of Italy always means seasonings superb. A delicious case in point is Clams Fettecchini, a dish that's perfect for a family dinner or a buffet supper party. Over cheese-coated noodles, the easily concocted, inexpensive sauce is poured and the result definitely speaks Italian. Sauce ingredients—whole tomatoes, tomato sauce, ripe olives, minced clams, and the subtle touch of oregano—add the soft, inviting Italian accent.

The small can of clams, kept handy on a cupboard shelf, helps the dish serve four dinners delectably. Clams are not strangers to this particular brand of ethnic cooking as spaghetti is offered in many famous restaurants with white or red clam sauce. The Italian seem to know how to make fish and seafoods (whether fresh, frozen, or canned) go a long way. They'd serve the appealing Clams Fettecchini with a crisp, green salad that has been tossed with vinegar and oil, bread sticks, and a robust red wine.

Often the American taste would opt for a green vegetable instead, such as buttered Italian beans with chopped onions. Then tartness could come from such as a Pineapple-Lime Gelatin Salad. Dessert could be Italian. Spumoni is one idea, or as American as bread pudding. Clam Fettecchini is a recipe developed by the National Marine Fisheries Service. In an intriguing little booklet called "A Little Fish Goes Long Way," the recipes (including Clams Fettecchini) show that, indeed, a little fish does go a long way in flavor, nutrition and economy. To send for the booklet, a check or money order should be enclosed for 65 cents for each booklet (send no stamps, please) to: Superintendent of Documents U.S.

Government of Printing Office Washington, D.C. 20402. The booklet is #003-020-00074-6 and your name, address, and zip code should be included.

Although this recipe originated on this side of the Atlantic, the results are as Italian as the beautiful sights of Italy. The recipe goes a long way, especially the fact that a can of clams helps it to serve four. Yes, a can of clams speaks fluent Italian—economically!

Clam Fettecchini
1/4 cup soft margarine
1/4 cup chopped onion
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon oregano
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 can (1 pound) whole tomatoes, undrained
1 can (8 ounce) tomato sauce

Masse-McVeigh

Sharon L. McVeigh of Manchester and Ronald J. Masse of Vernon were married Aug. 19 at St. James Church in Manchester.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. McVeigh of 193 High St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aurele Masse of 147 Benton St.

The Rev. James Archambault of St. James Church performed the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with pink gladioli and daisies. Music was provided by the St. James Folk Group.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza with Venice lace fitted with illusion. Empire bodice, stand-up lace collar, high rise waistline, full skirt with double-tiered hemline flounce extending to a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was bordered with lace and attached to a lace headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Miss Marilyn McVeigh of Manchester was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Francine Masse of Manchester, the bridegroom's sister, Miss Jane Tedford of Manchester, and Miss Melissa McVeigh of Manchester, the bride's sister.

Fred Nakis of Manchester served as best man. Ushers were Larry Smetana of Manchester, John Masse of Manchester, the bridegroom's brother, and Larry Jeffrey of East Hartford.

A reception was held at Mama Mia's in Manchester, after which the couple left for Florida. For traveling, Mrs. Masse wore an aqua pantsuit with white accessories.

Miss Masse is employed as a court reporter. Mr. Masse is employed at Mal Tool & Engineering in Vernon. (Logan photo)

Dividend

The Board of Directors of Colt Industries has declared the regular 6½-cents-per-share quarterly dividend on the company's common stock, payable Sept. 30 to stockholders of record Sept. 12. The board also declared regular quarterly dividends of 40 cents a share on the company's $150 cumulative convertible Series A preferred stock and $1.06 1/4 per share on the $4.25 cumulative convertible Series D preferred stock. Both are payable Sept. 30 to stockholders of record Sept. 12.

On second thought

By Jan Warren

Tennis is for toughies!

Sometimes I wonder how a gentle, peace-loving, nonaggressive woman like me ever started to play tennis in the first place.

In my normal state I wouldn't dream of hurting anyone, let alone hitting him in the head with a tennis ball. But occasionally, when I'm caught up in the heat of a rough match, I would do exactly that, if my aim was good enough. Tennis does something to my personality.

One night a week I have a standing date with three other women to play doubles. I rush home from work, pull on my tennis clothes, give my family instructions on how to cook dinner without me, and take off for the courts.

After exchanging a few pleasantries, my friends and I pick up our rackets and start to play. Now, when my partner and I are ahead, we are models of decorum and good sportsmanship.

"You almost had us," we call encouragingly to our opponents as they knock the ball into the next court. Or, "That was a good idea," we praise when their lob misses the base line by three feet.

But just let our opponents get the lead on us and the match turns into a battle where anything goes. "Hit everything to Becky-Lou," my partner will whisper to me. "She had a tough day at the office!" Or, "Hit to the center and make them fight over the ball!" Or, "Lob everything. That will drive them crazy!"

It's hard to explain what happens to my personality, but it frightens me a little. I take a devilish pleasure in returning a ball to my opponent's feet or even hitting one of them in the backside. This is a part of my nature I would rather not know was there. Fortunately, the etiquette of the game demands that we all shake hands after the match. Then we usually share a thermos of iced tea and exchange a few more pleasantries. By the time we're ready to go home we've usually simmered down.

Last week my partner and I were totally annihilated. We tried every trick we knew, to no avail. Our opponents were without mercy and took us 6-0, 6-1. At one point I became so frustrated I considered breaking my racket in two and giving up the game forever.

"You wouldn't know me," I confessed later to my husband. "I become a regular Jekyll and Hyde on the tennis courts. Seriously! I entertain mean, murderous thoughts. Why I'm probably not fit to be a mother."

My husband didn't seem very concerned. "As long as you work out ALL your aggressions on the tennis court," he said with a smile, "I'll be glad to keep you in tennis balls!"

Therrien-Calderwood

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Therrien

Donna Calderwood of Manchester and Timothy Therrien of Claremont, N.H., were married June 25 at St. Mary's Church in Claremont.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Calderwood of 87 Vernon St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Therrien of Claremont.

The Rev. Gerald Valenger of Claremont celebrated the nuptial Mass and performed the double-ring ceremony.

Margaret Hickey of Cambridge, Mass., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janice True of Bridgewater, Mass., Melissa Oliver of Manchester, N.H., and Robin Hillery of Bradford, N.H., the bride's niece. Debra Shaw of Claremont, the bridegroom's cousin, was flower girl.

Scott Currier of New London, N.H., served as best man. Ushers were Ted Perran of Ossipee, N.H., and Michael Tetsu and John Pomoykato, both of Claremont.

A reception was held at the KoC Hall in Claremont, after which the couple left on a trip to the West Coast. They are residing in Claremont.

Mrs. Calderwood was graduated from Keene (N.H.) State College. Mr. Calderwood is employed at Ultra Precision Products Co. in Claremont. (Hastings photo)

Social Security

Q. I'd like to find out about reduced retirement benefits, but the Social Security office is always too crowded to stop at during my lunch hour. How can I get the information I need?

A. Phone or write any Social Security office and someone there will be glad to answer your questions and mail you free information. The best time to phone is during the latter part of the week and the latter part of the month, during which it is usually slower.

Q. My 33-year-old mentally retarded daughter has been getting disability benefits on my Social Security record since I started getting retirement checks a year ago. She's been sick a lot lately and I'd like to know if Medicare can help?

A. Disabled people who have been getting monthly benefits at least 24 consecutive months are eligible for Medicare. Your daughter will be notified three months before she is eligible.

Q. After I was turned down for Social Security disability benefits, I saw a specialist who found something else wrong with me. Can I apply to Social Security again?

A. Yes. If it's been less than 60 days since you received your denial notice, you can have the Social Security office assist you in filing for a reconsideration. If it's been over 60 days, you can file a new claim and request a reconsideration. If it's been more than 60 days since you received your denial notice, you can have the Social Security office assist you in filing for a reconsideration. If it's been over 60 days, you can file a new claim and request a reconsideration.

Q. I've been getting Supplemental Security Income (SSI) checks, and now my son sends me $50 a month to help out. Since this is only a contribution from a relative, must it be reported to Social Security?

A. If you're getting SSI payments, yes, all income, regardless of how you get it, must be reported to Social Security.

Q. When I applied for SSI, I was told my case would be reviewed once in a while to see if I'm still eligible and getting the right amount. Should I report any changes in my circumstances?

A. No, you should report any changes in income, resources, living arrangements, and other circumstances to Social Security promptly.

Liddy moved

LEWISBURG, Pa. (UPI) - Watergate conspirator G. Gordon Liddy has been transferred to the federal correctional institution at Danbury, Conn., prison officials said Tuesday.

Liddy was one of 58 prisoners transferred from the minimum security facility at Allenwood, Pa., 30 miles away, to the maximum security facility here Saturday following a five-day hunger strike over prison conditions.

Liddy and the others were accused of "intimidating" other inmates to join the strike. Warden Charles Fenton said Liddy and five other prisoners were transferred Monday afternoon by road to the medium security facility in Connecticut following a review of their cases by a committee from Allenwood.

Fenton said it appeared all 58 would be transferred from the minimum security facility to other prisons. A spokesman for the U.S. Justice Department in Washington said no action had been taken yet on Liddy's parole. He was due to be released on parole Sept. 7.

If any action is taken it would be after a disciplinary committee at the Danbury institution reviewed the case, said spokesman Dan Rosenblatt.

Rosenblatt said as far as he knew no such committee had been formed yet. Liddy was sentenced to 20 years for his role in the Watergate scandal, but President Carter reduced the sentence to eight years.

Pinocle

Manchester Top scorers in the Manchester Senior Citizens Pinocle Group game Aug. 18 at the Army & Navy Club are: Margaret and Robert Richards were in charge of the event.

As Grace pulled a six-pack of ginger ale from a market shelf, another pack slipped out and crashed on her toes. Painfully bruised, she aimed a damage suit at the management. But in court the company denied liability.

But evidence showed that the cartons had been set up at an unstable angle. This was enough, ruled the court, to place legal liability on the market. The court said a store should build its displays sturdily enough to withstand a reasonable amount of handling by the public.

number of lawsuits. Generally speaking, the claimants are successful if they can pin a negligence label on the market. In another case a shopper touched off a cascade of canned goods when her shopping cart caught the edge of a display in the middle of an aisle. Again, in a court hearing, the company tried to blame the victim.

But again the court ruled in her favor. The judge noted that the display was wide, it left only 30 inches of aisle to accommodate 18-inch carts.

But in another case, an aisle display left more than four feet of room on either side. A youngster who tripped and fell against the display was unable, in a later lawsuit, to win damages for having been struck by falling merchandise.

The court said that not only was the display proper but also it had been subjected to an unacceptable kind of impact. "It was plaintiff's tripping and abnormal contact with the stack of cases," said the court, "that caused them to fall."
