Happy birthday

Hebron's Alice Foote to be 109 Wednesday

Mrs. Alice Foote, Hebron's oldest resident, was honored Sunday by family and friends at The Meadows Convalescent Home in Manchester on the occasion of her 109th birthday. Her real birthday is Wednesday, Sept. 21.

As far as anyone knows, Mrs. Foote is the oldest living woman in Connecticut and may be the oldest living person in the state.

Her granddaughter-in-law, Mrs. Edward A. Foote of Hebron, says that although she is generally in good health, the matriarch of the Foote family is not quite as interested as she used to be in some things, like the news, for instance. Her eyesight is pretty good but she doesn't write letters anymore. The friends of her generation are gone.

She still indulges in her favorite game, bridge, with her family. "But she doesn't care much about bidding anymore," Mrs. Edward Foote said.

The Meadows Convalescent Home in Manchester has been Mrs. Foote's home since she broke her hip at the age of 101.

Mrs. Foote taught school in the Hebron area for several years and was a reporter at one time for the Gilead News.

She received cards from President and Mrs. Carter and from several state officials.

She has two sons, Robert, 86, in Hebron, and Arnold, 78, in Florida, and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Kent gym started

KENT, Ohio (UPI) — A tractor with a scoop shovel today began uprooting trees at the construction site for a proposed gymnasium annex at Kent State University near where four students were shot to death during a 1970 anti-war demonstration.

The heavy equipment was brought to the site on a tractor-trailer rig escorted by six KSU campus police cars.

Two girls protesting construction of the gym cried when the trees were uprooted and screamed, "You will have to answer for this later!"

One demonstrator, who identified himself as a member of the May 4th

Coalition which is opposing construction of the $6 million facility, stepped in front of the truck but was moved aside by KSU security police. Security police also forced about 25 demonstrators away from the entrance.

Members of the coalition want the site declared a national historic landmark.

Opponents of the gymnasium, including the coalition, have just about exhausted early legal means to stopping construction. They still have requests pending before the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati and U.S. District Court in Cleveland.

Dayan ordered attack on ship according to classified files

BRIDGEPORT (UPI) — The 1967 Israeli attack on a U.S. naval vessel — which killed 34 Americans — was personally ordered by Defense Minister Moshe Dayan because the ship was "jamming Israeli communications," and was not a mistake as claimed, according to newly-released CIA documents.

The classified documents concerning an American tragedy in the Six Day War were obtained through the Freedom of Information Act by the American Palestine Committee. A copy was made available to United Press International.

Israel claimed the daylight attack June 8, 1967, against the communications ship USS Liberty, was a tragic mistake caused by its warplanes and torpedo boats confusing it with an Egyptian vessel near Israel's 12-mile limit in the Mediterranean. The toll included 164 wounded.

The incident came three days after Israel's June 5 strike across the Sinai Peninsula, which caught the Arabs by surprise. A United Nations ceasefire stopped the hostilities June 10.

The Palestinian committee obtained the information last June, which the CIA said was "unevaluated" for accuracy, after pursuing the Navy Department, the State Department, the National Security Council and the CIA for five years.

Author Norman F. Dacey of Bridgeport, the committee's national chairman, said he chose to make the CIA reports public Sunday so the disclosures would coincide with Dayan's scheduled visit to New York.

But Dayan held a round of secret talks in Paris and then abruptly flew home to Israel Saturday for an emergency meeting with Prime Minister Menahem Begin and other top officials. He flew to the United

Future up to Carter and Lance

Hearing suspended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., declared today Bert Lance's future is in the hands of "two men — the president of the United States and Bert Lance." Carter said public opinion has shifted strongly to his embattled budget director.

During 20 grueling hours of testimony last week before the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee, Lance maintained innocence of wrongdoing in personal banking and financial matters before entering the government.

Ribicoff, chairman of the committee, Governmental Affairs Committee, and Charles Percy of Illinois, ranking Republican on the panel, said Sunday Lance should resign. But he refused, and Carter's statement today seemed to indicate Lance would try to weather the storm.

Ribicoff said he was suspending for two weeks the hearings into Lance's fitness to hold high office, and would make no recommendations during that period or issue any report on the committee's findings thus far.

"I don't know what to write a report on," Ribicoff told reporters before today's scheduled meeting.

Asked what he thought about Lance's future, Ribicoff replied, "At this stage, it's between two men — the president of the United States and Bert Lance."

Press Secretary Jody Powell said Carter feels that Lance enhanced his situation before the committee, citing 2,270 telephone calls and telegrams since Lance began his defense on national television Thursday morning.

Of these, Powell said, 2,025 backed Lance, 245 opposed him.

Powell gave no indication when Carter would hold an expected news conference this week where the president is expected to make his decision on keeping his long-time friend and close political adviser.

Ribicoff and Percy both said in telephone interviews Sunday they have not retreated from the stance they took at the White House on Labor Day.

"I haven't changed the opinion that I expressed before," said Ribicoff. "I'm not going to make any additional comment. My position has not changed since then."

Percy said he is convinced "more than ever" that Lance should step down.

"I think if the name were sent forward today as a new nomination, there would be little likelihood," of Lance's being confirmed, Percy said.

"The corollary would be, I think, it's best under the circumstances for him to step aside so the nation can get on with its business."

Percy noted that while the Senate has no power to remove Lance from office, President Carter has indicated he will make a decision on whether to retain his budget director and longtime friend after hearing Capitol Hill opinions.

"We are now giving our advice," Percy said.

Most members of the 17-member Governmental Affairs Committee have not yet expressed an opinion on Lance's 20-hour testimony.

But two who have are Sen. Thomas Eagleton, D-Mo., and Sen. William Roth, R-Del., on opposite sides of the issue. Both said Sunday on CBS-TV's Face the Nation they thought Lance would keep the job.

Eagleton said he "most certainly" assumes that Lance will remain in his job and hopes the committee hearings will end soon because they have become "a three-ring circus."

Roth also said "the current intent of the President" appears to be to retain Lance. But he said he still has serious questions about the former Georgia banker's ethics.

Hearing gets under way on massage parlor rules

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter

A court hearing for an injunction against the massage parlor ordinances of Hartford and Manchester began today, and early indications are that a decision on the requested injunction will be made sometime in October.

The trial is being held in Hartford's Court of Common Pleas.

Massage parlor owners from both Hartford and Manchester are seeking the injunction against the recently enacted ordinances, which require licensing of the parlors and schooling for the masseuses. The plaintiffs say that the ordinances are unconstitutional and will cause irreparable harm if enforced at this time.

Judge Joseph Goldberg, who is presiding over the case, met in his chamber for an hour with attorneys representing both parties — Atty. Joseph Fazzano, who represents the massage parlor owners, Atty. Anthony Tapogna, Hartford's city counsel, and Atty. Victor Moses and Thomas Prior, town counsel and assistant counsel, respectively, for the Town of Manchester.

Both sides were ready to proceed this morning with the trial.

"We both want a decision right away," Moses said during the brief recess after the in-chambers session. Fazzano filed his brief this morning. Counsel for Hartford and Manchester will have about two weeks to file theirs, according to the attorneys. A decision should be made some time in October, Moses and Tapogna both indicated this morning.

The early testimony concentrated on the Hartford ordinance, which is similar to Manchester's.

Attorneys questioned Laurene Cordilico a research analyst for the State Board of Higher Education. She said that the state files show no school in the state licensed for training of masseuses.

Massage parlor owners from Manchester and Hartford were attending today's proceedings.

Miami hotel bombing tied to militant Cuban exiles

MIAMI (UPI) — Bombs apparently set by militant Cuban exiles exploded at four of the Miami area's best known hotels before dawn today, blowing out windows and spattering dirt near pools and in lobbies.

There were no injuries.

The Pedro Luis Boitel Commandoes, an anti-Fidel Castro organization of Cuban exiles which claimed responsibility for two similar bombings in Washington Sept. 7, claimed responsibility for today's explosions.

The blasts came just hours before a planned march through Miami by Cuban exile groups to protest the thawing relations between the United States and Cuba.

The first bomb went off at 2:03 a.m. at downtown Miami's Dupont Plaza. It was followed at 2:09 a.m. by a blast at the Fontainebleau in Miami Beach, at 2:20 a.m. at the Sheraton Four Ambassadors in Miami and about an hour later at the Eden Roc at Miami Beach.

The explosions at the two downtown Miami hotels — the Dupont and Four Ambassadors — were both in the swimming pool areas and caused the most damage. The bomb at the Eden Roc scattered dirt in a circular driveway leading to the building.

Damage at the Fontainebleau was described as negligible.

Four Ambassadors Night manager Jeff Crane said he didn't even realize there had been an explosion. He heard a noise, but thought it was from the parking garage or boiler room.

"Then I smelled it — it smelled like burned wire — and other people heard it," he said. "It was a small explosion. It must not have been a very large bomb."

The Boitel Commandoes, who take their name from a political prisoner who died in a Cuban jail during a hunger strike, sent UPI's "communique" last Tuesday a warning they would escalate their terrorist acts and demanding the release of 17 anti-Castro political prisoners allegedly being held in the United States, Mexico and Venezuela.

They demanded the International Red Cross investigate the "inhuman conditions and abuses that 20,000 political prisoners are subject to in Cuba," and called for a United Nations investigation of human rights in the Caribbean island.

Moshe Dayan greeted by Vance

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Israeli foreign minister Moshe Dayan flew to Washington today to begin perhaps crucial Mideast peace talks with President Carter.

Dayan flew from New York and was met at National Airport by Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and other top-ranking State Department officials.

Reporters were not permitted on the airport landing ramp and could not question Dayan about some mysterious detours he made over the weekend on his way to Washington.

Scheduled to fly from Brussels to New York Friday, Dayan instead went to Paris and then abruptly flew home to Tel Aviv Saturday for an emergency meeting with Prime Minister Mehaem Begin. His mission was the subject of much speculation, but there has been no explanation.

'Junk' telephone calls

People who dislike "junk mail" - unsolicited advertising delivered at cut rates by the post office - are really going to hate what comes next: junk telephone calls. Marketing experts say higher postal rates and possible cutbacks in deliveries are causing some companies to plan to make their sales pitches by phone. Automated equipment already exists that will let firms dial thousands of homes an hour, play tape-recorded messages praising their products and then record customer orders on tape. Even an unlisted phone number will be no protection against such calls. The equipment can be programmed to dial every combination of numbers in a specific telephone exchange. Clearly junk calls will be more annoying than junk mail. If a person doesn't like mailed advertisements, all he has to do is deposit them unread in the wastebasket. But he is unlikely to refuse to answer the telephone, since the call might be important. Imagine, if you will, a fellow taking a nice hot bath while he's alone in the house. The phone rings, he races down the hall trailing soap suds because the call could represent an emergency. Then, when he answers, he is importuned to buy a combination floor mop and toilet bowl cleaner. Now this man is not just going to feel his privacy was invaded. He's going to want to commit mayhem, but he'll only have a poor dumb recorder to shout at. Ever one to protect the public (and to get himself some publicity), Rep. Les Aspin of Wisconsin says he is introducing a bill in Congress to protect citizens from what he calls "the ultimate invasion of privacy by advertisers." Aspin's measure would give telephone subscribers a chance each year to notify the phone company that they do not wish to receive such unsolicited phone calls. Companies that use the automated equipment would have to get from the phone company a list of persons not to call. They could be fined up to $1,000 for calling a name on the list. Aspin's bill may be premature, since junk calls are more of a future threat than a present nuisance. However, if the practice becomes widespread, something like Aspin proposes will have to be done. Advertising certainly has a place in American life. But if companies stoop to calling people at all hours, disturbing the sick, waking up babies, causing dogs to bark and strong men to curse in frustration, then junk phoning must be curbed.

Sneaky pool

Sometimes the government's left hand really does know what its right hand doeth. A certain country in California, we're told, recently received a federal grant of $7 million in drought relief aid. The money must have done the job, because not long after that the same country applied to an agency of the Commerce Department for $1 million in public works funds to build a swimming pool. The department threw cold water on the second request.

Almanac

By United Press International Today is Monday, Sept. 19, the 262nd day of 1977 and 103 to follow. The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Saturn, Jupiter, Mercury, Venus and Mars. There are no evening stars. Those born on this date are under the sign of Virgo. Irvin F. Westheimer, who founded the Big Brothers movement in Cincinnati in 1903, was born on Sept. 19, 1873. On this day in history: In 1777, American soldiers won the first Battle of Saratoga in the Revolutionary War. In 1863, Union and Confederate soldiers met in the battle of Chickamauga, Ga., during the Civil War. The rebels won the following day. In 1881, President James Garfield died in Elberon, N.J., of gunshot wounds inflicted by a disgruntled office-seeker on July 2. In 1960, Cuban Premier Fidel Castro and his staff were ousted from a New York City hotel because they had discovered plucking chickens for cooking in their rooms. The Communist delegation was in New York to attend a United Nations meeting. A thought for the day: German poet Frederick Wilhelm Nietzsche said: "In revenge and in love, woman is more barbarous than man."

Protests proposed rates

According to HELCO's "New Rates Resulting From Settlement," the monthly rate under Rate 1 for Residential Electric Service is as follows: 1. First 25 KWH 11.92 cents per KWH. 2. Next 75 KWH 6.13 cents per KWH. 3. Next 100 KWH 4.96 cents per KWH. 4. Next 500 KWH 4.36 cents per KWH. 5. All over 700 KWH 3.46 cents per KWH. This means that the consumer is paying more than 194 per cent for KWH.

This is like asking a Cadillac owner to pay 20 cents for a gallon of gasoline while asking a Volkswagen owner to pay 69 cents for a gallon of gasoline. The promotional rate structure which allows for declining rates for increasing consumption is outmoded and outdated. Recently, the Michigan Public Service Commission flattened the residential rate structure of one company and completely eliminated volume discounts for residential users of another. In these proceedings, the Commission stated for the record that flat rates for residential usage "are in the public interest," in part because they will provide "an economic incentive to conserve electricity..." and the low income and low use consumer... will be paying a fairer price for his energy needs." (In Re Detroit Edison Co., Case No. U-4257 (Sept. 12, 1973 - Interim Rate Order) The Commission summed up its policy: "Today, the rate structure must be designed to enhance basic policy objectives in areas of consumerism, environmental protection, public health and safety and conservation of natural resources. Promotional rate structures are out of date from both an economic and social point of view. Society cannot be served by utility rate designs that act to increase the difficulties already being experienced. To promote ever-increasing usage and waste of electric energy, or any energy for that matter, is self-defeating" (Case U-4257)

Tully views challenged

To the editor, I have never met Andrew Tully but I have no doubt in my mind that he is a white man. His recent column on SAT scores achieved by white men, blacks and females leaves me chuckling. His quote, "It is no surprise that blacks score 100 points below whites; it is no surprise that females score 52 points below white males," is a surprise to me as I wonder why it's no surprise to him. He says that except in inconvertible cases blacks and females do not deserve opprobrium if you are a true educator. Why does he imply that blacks and females are backward and less intelligent than white males? Also, why is it important to separate us all into categories? I don't believe that one test can possibly show the true picture of someone's intelligence and I don't believe Mr. Tully thinks so either, but it was a good chance for him to bolster his good old male ego. A man with Mr. Tully's attitude probably thinks he was conceived in a test tube. Ciao, Madeline Cain 86 Lockwood St. Manchester

Reflections

Hal Turkington, Managing Editor. One Nine Three Seven at Nathan Hale. No other year the same. Every pal a comrade true, What 'ere the name, the school, or fame. One Nine Three Seven at Nathan Hale, Sunset and evening glow, But it's the inspiration most, That makes us love it so. WOW! That's 40 years ago! The Town of Coventry is considering buying the Salvation Army Camp Nathan Hale off Lake St. near the Nathan Hale monument in Coventry. It was once known as the Fresh Air Camp. Regardless of its name, or its future ownership, Nathan Hale Camp will be no more. The Salvation Army has purchased property in Ashford for a new camp site. Those lyrics opening this Reflections column are words to the theme song of the camp. All you had to do every year was change the year; the year you see here is one of memories for this reporter. He was the camp bugler in 1937. Don't let camp bugler fool you. There was more to it than rising early in the morning to blow "reveille" on the bugle, or "To the Colors" for raising the flag, "Mess Call" for the row lines, "Retreat" in late afternoon for lowering the flag, "Tattoo" and, finally, "Taps."

Panama treaties: A matter of math

WASHINGTON - The hoopla here from what was called, with good reason, "the week of Panama" has dissipated. Now it's a matter of arming and arithmetically President Carter tries to convince at least 67 senators that the two treaties he signed with Panamanian dictator Omar Torrijos are in the best interests of the United States. One treaty would transfer full control of the Panama Canal to Panama by the end of this century, cancelling a 1903 treaty granting the U.S. sovereignty forever over the vital link connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. About 70 per cent of the 500-square-mile Canal Zone would revert to Panama as soon as the treaty is ratified. A second treaty says the canal will be neutral territory "in times of war as in times of peace." Poll results Early polls of the 100 U.S. senators by the NBC and ABC television networks indicate at least 22 and as many as 27 senators now oppose the treaties, and another 40 to 43 are undecided. Thirty-four negative votes would be needed to defeat the treaties when they come to a vote in the Senate, probably early in 1978. A third poll of nearly one-third of the senators by Scripps League Newspapers, however, suggests that the head counts by NBC and ABC may show more Senate opposition than actually exists. Scripps League found only two of 32 senators definitely opposed to the treaties - both Utah Republicans, Jake Garn and Orrin Hatch. Eighteen others said they are undecided on the issue - although three are definitely leaning against the treaties - and 12 are prepared to vote for them. In Connecticut, both Sens. Abe Ribicoff, Democrat, and Lowell Weicker, Republican, are for the treaties. Decisions five months away The poll that counts, however, obviously will be the one in the Senate chamber, and that is at least five months away. Meantime, members of the Senate will be besieged on the floor by many quarters - the White House, pressure groups on the political right and left, and aroused constituents. It is those constituents - the American people - who hold the key to the ratification or rejection of the treaties. Congressional elections will be held next year and the seats of 33 senators will be up for grabs. If there is a strong outpouring of back-home sentiment against relinquishing the canal, the treaties may well go down to defeat as senators eye the fall election. *Scripps League Newspapers 1977

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: In stressing the importance of speaking up for oppressed minorities, you published a quote and asked if anyone knew its origin.

The original quote was somewhat different. Its author was Martin Niemöller, who served aboard a German U-boat during World War I. He later became a Lutheran minister. When Hitler rose to power, Niemöller opposed him and was promptly thrown into Theresienstadt—a Nazi concentration camp. At this camp 76,000 Jews (of which 15,000 were children) were sent to their deaths. At the time of the liberation, only 100 children had survived.

When Pastor Niemöller was released, he was asked, "How did the world let this happen?" He responded: "In Germany, the Nazis first came for the Communists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the trade unionists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a trade unionist. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up because I was a Protestant. Then they came for me, and by that time there was no one left to speak for me."

How sad that only 32 years have passed and many of us have already forgotten that lesson. Let this serve as a reminder.

SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR SAN: Thank you and the hundreds of other readers who sent me their versions of that brilliant quote. The same sentiments were expressed by Thomas Paine (1737-1809), a revolutionary, whose writings greatly influenced the political thinking of the leaders of the American Revolution.

He said, "He that would make his own liberty secure, must guard even his enemy from oppression, for if he violates this duty, he establishes a precedent that will reach to himself."

And that, my friends, is what human rights are all about.

DEAR ABBY: I have been meaning to write this letter for years, but I never got around to it until now. I want you to know that a letter in your column signed TOO LATE caused me to visit my mother every day during her last two years in a nursing home.

I will always feel indebted to you, Dear Abby, for motivating me to do something that now permits me to live with a clear conscience.

J. E. K., JR., AMERICUS, GA.

DEAR MR. K.: Thanks. Your letter made my day.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "FRIENDLESS" IN DE QUEEN, ARK: You can make more friends in one week by becoming interested in other people than you can in a year of trying to get other people interested in you.

Astro-graph

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Your Birthday

Sept. 20, 1977

You will mix with influential persons this coming year and you should cultivate them. But little people in key places will do much more for you than the bigwigs.

VIROO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Friends are likely to oppose your views today. If the issues aren't too important, it's better to go along with them rather than to make waves. Find out to whom you're romantically suited by sending for your copy of Astro-graph Letter. Mail 50 cents for each and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-graph, P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify your birth sign.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Risks that are well-calculated can work out for you today. Don't get carried away, however. You could quickly dissipate what you've gained.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be satisfied today as long as you're making progress with your aspirations. If you push too hard, you could grind to a halt.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Filter your own or your mate's a little too extravagant today. Each should check on the other so the budget doesn't suffer.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Think for your self today, even though people you truly respect may try to tell you otherwise. Your insight is probably better.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) If at all possible, don't associate with shirkers today. Align yourself with those who have a zest for life and you'll please the boss.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) Try to be with a small group of close friends today, rather than with a large gathering of mostly strangers. You'll be much more comfortable with intimates.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Suppress an urge to gamble on career matters today. Substitute a logical approach any inclination to take a flyer.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You're a good story teller today. But stick to the facts. They're good enough without trying to embellish them.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Someone you're involved with may conveniently leave their checkbooks at home. Unless you think quickly, you'll have to underwrite the expenses.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Impulsiveness and overgenerosity could be the trouble spots in your life today. This is especially true if you're trying to put a deal together.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You have a tendency to procrastinate today. If you get caught up in your own web, you'll try to rationalize your actions.

Jim: "A conspicuous example is the raise of a notrump opening bid to four notrump. Your partner opens one notrump. You have fifteen or sixteen points and a balanced hand. If your partner has a minimum notrump four will be safe, but you don't want to be in six. If he has a max-

LOAN DAY TWO

Jet Banking brings back the day that made borrowing simpler and faster.

Until last spring, getting a loan was a dragged out routine of filling out applications and then waiting anxiously for the bank to answer.

That's why CBT introduced Loanday. It was just what people were waiting for: a fast and simple way to apply for a loan. In a very short period, over 10,000 people used our easy Jet Banking ways to apply for loans at CBT.

So if you need a loan this fall we're making it faster and simpler again. With Loanday Two.

It's Saturday. Most CBT offices will be open for loan applications on Saturday mornings. From 9AM to Noon, until November 5.

It's everyday. If weekdays are more convenient for you, Loanday Two also brings you a lot of ways to make applying for a loan simple, fast and easy. For example:

- It's a same day loan. Apply for your loan any weekday before noon and in most cases, we'll have an answer for you by 3 o'clock that same afternoon.
- It's a phone loan. Maybe you just can't get to the bank at all. So just pick up your phone and dial 1-800-842-2060 (toll free) weekdays 9AM-9PM, Saturdays 9AM-1PM. That'll put you in touch with someone who will be happy to take your loan application over the phone. And call you back with an answer the next business day.
- It's a take home loan. Who said loan applications have to be filled out in the bank? Loanday Two lets you take an application home, fill it out at your leisure and mail it back to us or drop it off at the CBT branch most convenient to you.

It's hard-to-beat rates. CBT's loan rates are competitive with most other banks. And it costs you nothing extra for the Jet Banking service you only get at CBT.

It's simple ways to repay. With CBT's Jet Banking, paying back your loan is simple too. If you want, we'll remember to make your payments for you. If you pay in person, our Jet Deposit Box eliminates standing in line. Or, use Barney, CBT's Alltime Jet Banker, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

We want to give you your next loan
