Expert Driver!

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Lillian Tenney, who is 19 and a motorist, plans to talk with traffic officials about her lack of a driver's license.

She has been driving horses and cars for 20 years and says all this time over her driving status is a lot of foolery. She has a collection of nine unpaid citations and court officials aren't sure what to do.

You simply can't go out and drive a 20-year-old woman and get a lot of foolery. She has a collection of nine unpaid citations and court officials aren't sure what to do.

Why, I am an expert, unusual for my age, said Mrs. Tenney. "I've been driving for 20 years and I know what I'm doing."

Contest Looms For 1964 GOP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans appear to be heading into a contest in which emotional appeal may be matched against anti-win claims in the selection of their 1964 presidential nominee.

As matters stand 13 months before the party's convention, backer of Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, R-Ariz., like to think of their man as the emotional favorite for nomination.

Supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, on the other hand, believe in a more philosophical persuasive in modern times and in the University of Connecticut delegates that they should nominate the man they think has the best chance to win.

Willie defied the party pros with a combination of a mellow, limited explosion of convention enthusiasm and a carefully arranged deluge of telegrams and telephone calls to delegates from community leaders at home.

Probably few who read the temper of the delegates at the 1960 Republican convention doubt there will be a comparable upsurge for Goldwater.

Tension Grips Lexington In Wake of Racial Riot

LEXINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Seven young Negroes were arrested here today on charges in the aftermath of a race riot Thursday night that left one white man dead and a newspaper photographer wounded by gunfire.

Lexington city officials went into conference to make plans to check any similar outbreaks of violence. A mob estimated at 2,000 white men gathered on one side of a street bordering the Negro section.

The Negroes left the church grounds gathered on the other side. Police said the groups began throwing rocks, bottles, and sticks at each other.

The discovery was reported to police by a woman caller who said she learned of it from two men who stopped at her home.

The state police immediately dispatched a medical examiner in an effort to determine the cause of death.

Police said they were listing the names of all white persons who were in the area at the time of the riot.

Security Headache for Macmillan Queen Also in Political Row Caused by Redhead's Affairs

There is no suggestion of a security breach, the matter still is extremely grave because Profumo, the husband of former actress Valerie Hobson, could have been subjected to Soviet blackmail. It is in this case that the prime minister and his wife were not recognized. Christine told the Daily Express: "His wife did not know of our relationship."

of the security services, was aware of what was going on. Security agents shadowed Ivanov around the clock. They knew of his affair with Miss Keeler and presumably knew of her relationship with Profumo. Legislators were anxious to know whether their findings were reported to the prime minister and if not, why not. The findings were reported, they wanted to know why Macmillan apparently did nothing about it and showed his confidence in Profumo by sitting alongside him when he made his March 22 statement to Parliament. Macmillan was reported to have ordered an examination of security and police reports on the Profumo affair. Labor party leader Harold Wilson has been promised that he will be called in for a final assessment.

A Buckingham Palace announcement that the queen will see Profumo Tuesday to accept his seals of office — a customary audience for outgoing government members — has been interpreted as a sign of leniency toward the former prime minister. Laborites felt the queen had been misled by the government to grant Profumo an audience. There was some suspicion that the queen will see Profumo personally for having in 1956 been advised by the government to grant Profumo an audience. Stamps In the News

AP News-features
Switzerland's annual Pro Patria (National Day) series this year consists of five stamps, four of which commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Red Cross.

The five franc plus 5 stamp bears the portrait of Anna Herz, a Zurich school teacher who initiated and co-founded the Swiss Nurse Training School. The four other values depict other activities of the Red Cross — a bandaging roll, a gift parcel, providing blood plasma, and a Red Cross arm band, reports the Swiss Philatelic Agency in America.

Tufts Honors Supt. Curtis

Supt. of Schools William H. Curtis will receive an honorary degree of doctor of education Sunday from Tufts University.

Cited by the school as a "leading educator" he was graduated from the Medford, Mass., university in 1920.

Supt. Curtis became head of the Manchester public school system in 1952.

William H. Curtis was a member of Arthur H. Hill in 1950. He was superintendent of Wallingford schools for 14 years and was supervising principal of the Bolport, L. I., N. Y., school system immediately before coming to Manchester.

Earlier this year, Supt. Curtis was invited as the only New England participant in a national conference sponsored by the American Association of School Administrators, held at the University of Georgia. The conference was the first in a pioneer series to acquaint leading educators with broad problems affecting education.

At that time, he was lauded for his "well recognized educational leadership and professional stature."

Supt. Curtis has taken part in many national education seminars and conferences.

Besides the B.S. he received from Tufts, he has a master of science degree from the University of Connecticut and has done other graduate work at Yale.

He is a former president of the Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents and is a member of many professional organizations.

He began his career in education in 1924, when he taught physical sciences at Stratford High School. From 1929 to 1943, he was principal of Lyman Hall High School in Wallingford. He was named superintendent of Wallingford schools in 1943, and held the post until 1950.

He was an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1942-45.

The 64-year-old superintendent is married to the former Miss Grace E. Fiske of Stratford, and the couple has two sons. The family lives in Wallingford.

Official Mourning For Pontiff Starts

Secretary-general of Pope John's funeral, which was scheduled to be held at the cathedral in Rome, Tuesday, June 11, at 10 a.m., was announced automatically when the pontiff died last Monday night.

The archbishop's role as the Mass celebrant, his liturgical of absolution at Pope John's funeral, was because of his position as vicar of the diocese of St. Peter's Basilica.

Only a few hundred persons attended. Among them was a nephew of Pope John, Major Giovanni Battista Roncalli.

Absolution was given before a symbolic coffin on which Pope John's beehive crown was placed. Sixteen candles surrounded the coffin.

As the mourning proceeded, cardinals were in one of the daily meetings that are handling inter-church affairs after the funeral.

There was 38 present today. Newcomers included the first three Americans to join in the meetings: James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles; Joseph Elmer St. Louis, archbishop of St. Louis; and Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer, archbishop of Chicago.

A Vatican communiqué said all the 22 cardinals were expected to be in Rome by Monday.

In Milan, Pope John's personal physician, Dr. Antonio Gasbarri, was quoted by the newspaper "Il Giorno" as saying he was "in his heart" about the pope's death. "I was not surprised," he said, "but we never used them."

"We were not there to make experiments," he said. "We used, with every precaution, the common therapy: antibiotics, intravenous feeding, vitamins, etc."

One of the coming masses likely to be offered by the Rt. Rev. Major Leo Capovilla will be for the pontiff for 10 years, since his days as cardinal-protector of Venice.

Mgr. Capovilla told Thursday how Pope John spoke of fear of his death as he lay dying. "I desired the service that preceded the pope's burial," the bereaved secretary of the world's half-billion Catholics.

This humility also permeated the pope's will, but from honored and humbled people," it said, "I am particularly happy of dying poor after having distributed according to the several exigencies and circumstances of my simple and modest life — put at the service of the poor and the holy church which nursed me — all that came into my hands in the very limited measure during the years of my priesthood and episcopate."

The pope said he sometimes helped the family "in its most pressing needs, as poor does with the poor," but the will made no special material provisions for the family.

"I cannot but leave a great and very special blessing" for the family, the will, written in 1955 and amplified in 1961 and 1962, said.

The pope's 78-year-old sister, Assunta, attended the funeral service but his brothers, Alfredo Roncalli, 74, Giuseppe, 69, and Zaverio, 80, returned to their mountain village of Soto il Monte to mourn apart from the crowds in the Vatican.

Deer Jumps Fence into Road, Driver Gets Venison, Auto Bill

Mrs. Lorraine J. Schiffer of 9 Cardinal Dr., East Hartford, last night at about 8:30, was driving westerly on Weheval St. when a deer jumped over a roadside fence and ran into the front of her car causing considerable damage to the vehicle, which had to be towed away.

She was not hurt, but the young buck weighing between 150 to 175 pounds, had four broken legs and was badly out of shape.

"Venison is good eating this time of year," a state game department official said today.

Police noted that the "horns were in velvet" — in explaining the new growth of horns this time of year when they are covered by a velvet fur. "A beautiful looking buck," he added.

Patrolman Albert Scobbe, who investigated the incident, had to shoot the deer and then turned it over to Dog Warden Lee Froelich who transported it to Police Headquarters where it was later claimed by Mrs. Schiffer's husband.

The incident was the second reported in a week. A deer was killed on Rt. 16 last week when it was into a car operated by a Circuit Court 12 prosecuting attorney. That deer reportedly had an internal sickness and was not eatable. Last night's victim appeared to be in a healthy state.

Navy Veterans Invited to Talk

Training Unit will attend to explain the program. Free air transportation to some monthly week-end cruises is offered from Windsor Locks for enrollees.

Benefits the Navy claims for its program include reinstatement at the previously held grade, four days pay for each weekend drill, exchange privileges, and retirement points.

Attendance at the meeting June 12 is open to all navy veterans, and incurs no obligation.

Hen Coops Burn In Firemen's Drill

Three old chicken coops burned to the ground last night on Rt. 88 in Vernon, as part of the training course seen 25 volunteer firemen are taking.

The men were told to pretend that water was unavailable. They used the hose to extinguish the fire. The coops were started by Joseph Barry, who turned them over to the firemen.

Topics for Study Selected by LVW

A study of the foreign economic policy of Latin America, and a continued study of the United Nations will be part of a program in the national area of the League of Women Voters next year.

The program was discussed yesterday at the league's annual punch party at the home of Mrs. Alfred Karg, 160 Ferguson Rd., North Plainfield.

In next year's program at the state level, three areas are proposed, one of which will be eliminated by the state convention, election law, reappointment of the legislature, and land use and water resources.

On the local level the league will study Manchester's internal planning as it relates to the master plan, the question of consolidation, and the evaluation of the recommendations coming from the charter revision commission. The league will also continue its interest in the expansion of Robertson, Keeney and Highland Park schools, and will make plans to get the vote out for a possible referendum.

Delegates to a state convention of the league June 11 and 12 at Bridgeport University are Mrs. J. J. in Madison, Mrs. Mitchell Haidge, Mrs. Fred Geyer, Mrs. Fredrick Ravine, Mrs. Harry Mastrom, Mrs. John Kowinski, Mrs. Eugene Scatena and Mrs. Ralph Barbardo.

Gets Diploma

Kenneth W. D. Graham of 22 Milgerton St. will be granted the State Professional Diploma in Education by the University of Connecticut at commencement exercises Sunday at Storrs.

Graham did the work for his diploma in linguistics and literature. His paper was titled, "A Linguistic Grammar Review of Grade 12."

Born in Manchester, Graham attended local schools and was graduated from Trinity College in 1958. He worked at United Aircraft for 14 years, five years of which were spent as a training foreman at the Meriden Plant. He transferred to Trinity he received the Master of Arts degree in Education in June, 1961.

Graham teaches Senior English at East Hartford High School.

Pays to Open Daily Mail

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might know if he didn't open his mail:

A California survey of 800 drivers arrested speeding in 1962 found many of them were unconsciously expressing hostility after marital quarrels.

On the other hand, psychologists have found, bowling is a steady and harmless release for the anger and frustration raised by friction within the family. If you're mad at someone, you merely look at the ball and whisper the name. Down it goes, symbolically, and you feel better.

In addition to business papers, bologna sandwiches and chili pickles, a check of 10,000 attaché cases showed that 22 per cent of them contained playing cards—to them away time on commuter trains.

Graham did the work for his diploma in linguistics and literature. His paper was titled, "A Linguistic Grammar Review of Grade 12."

Born in Manchester, Graham attended local schools and was graduated from Trinity College in 1958. He worked at United Aircraft for 14 years, five years of which were spent as a training foreman at the Meriden Plant. He transferred to Trinity he received the Master of Arts degree in Education in June, 1961.

Graham teaches Senior English at East Hartford High School.

Gets Diploma

Kenneth W. D. Graham of 22 Milgerton St. will be granted the State Professional Diploma in Education by the University of Connecticut at commencement exercises Sunday at Storrs.

Graham did the work for his diploma in linguistics and literature. His paper was titled, "A Linguistic Grammar Review of Grade 12."

Born in Manchester, Graham attended local schools and was graduated from Trinity College in 1958. He worked at United Aircraft for 14 years, five years of which were spent as a training foreman at the Meriden Plant. Topics for Study Selected by LVW

A study of the foreign economic policy of Latin America, and a continued study of the United Nations will be part of a program in the national area of the League of Women Voters next year.

The program was discussed yesterday at the league's annual punch party at the home of Mrs. Alfred Karg, 160 Ferguson Rd., North Plainfield.

In next year's program at the state level, three areas are proposed, one of which will be eliminated by the state convention, election law, reappointment of the legislature, and land use and water resources.

On the local level the league will study Manchester's internal planning as it relates to the master plan, the question of consolidation, and the evaluation of the recommendations coming from the charter revision commission. The league will also continue its interest in the expansion of Robertson, Keeney and Highland Park schools, and will make plans to get the vote out for a possible referendum.

Delegates to a state convention of the league June 11 and 12 at Bridgeport University are Mrs. J. J. in Madison, Mrs. Mitchell Haidge, Mrs. Fred Geyer, Mrs. Fredrick Ravine, Mrs. Harry Mastrom, Mrs. John Kowinski, Mrs. Eugene Scatena and Mrs. Ralph Barbardo.

THE BRIDE

wedded in a halo of happiness brings tears of joy to everyone. What happier day could there be? One day Christ will come for his bride. Will he find you waiting? Or will you miss the promise of eternal life?

UN Vote System Analyzed

What the computer reveal about the present one-man, one-vote system in the United Nations General Assembly has absolutely nothing to do with the question of whether that system is logical or fair or something that should be perpetuated.

But it does, of course, have its interest, particularly, perhaps, for some of those whose dislike of the world organization is being impugned to some to seize on every possible alarmist argument against it.

One of the chief alarmist arguments against the United Nations system is that its General Assembly voting system, in which a nation with only 250,000 people, Kuwait, and the United States, with 190,000,000 people, each has one vote, threatens to place us at the mercy of a lot of these small nations which contain a minority of the world's population and which pay almost nothing toward the expense of running the United Nations.

This is where the computer has come in.

Moved more by curiosity than by any effort to defend the present voting system, the Department of Defense officials have run off a series of calculations on what the results of 178 General Assembly votes, taken between 1954 and 1961, would have been under a variety of different voting systems.

The computer actually tried 15 different voting systems, representing just about every kind of weighting of national votes that has ever been suggested—by population, by member assessments, by national income. Under all these weighted systems, the importance of the little nation votes was drastically reduced.

What the computer did, as it ran those 178 General Assembly decisions through these 15 different voting systems, was to measure how the particular point of view of United States policy made out. The statistical results, which we report, has nothing to do with the rightness or wrongness of the system itself—showed that the United States actually held a stronger position in the General Assembly under the present one-nation-one-vote system than it would have enjoyed under any of the alternative systems, in which bigger nations had more votes, as became their size and importance.

There are two practical explanations for this outcome. First, upping the voting power of the bigger nations helped Russia, as well as the United States. Second, during the actual voting record of the General Assembly so far, we have done better at winning the votes of the smaller nations than has Russia.

The fact that General Assembly voting under the present system has happened to go our way does not establish it as a right or ideal system. But this circumstance can be turned about to say something quite important, which is that what may have been operating in our favor, in the past, has been the possible rightness and the possible appeal of the stands we have been taking in the General Assembly. Perhaps, if we have had the great string of successes that voting there, that has been due more to the stands we took than to the system of voting, which obtained. And perhaps, therefore, our chief worry for the future ought not to concern itself with the system of voting by which issues are decided in the General Assembly, but with making sure that our own decisions and policies are sound and fair enough to draw wide support, no matter what the voting system employed.

A Thought for Today

Sponsored by the Manchester Council of Churches

Many people lose heart when they come to religion because they feel that the case for religion is too weak to survive truth that is humanly valid as any observed in the laboratory.

Submitted by The Rev. Paul M. Davis, Second Congregational Church, Manchester, Conn.

Tension Hits Lexington In Wake of Racial Riot

(Continued from Page One) were refused service in one instance but served in others. The violence here, overshadowed a mass demonstration at Lexington where 25 Negroes were arrested after they sat down in a midtown street intersection in protest of segregation policies. That demonstration followed the arrest earlier Thursday of James Jackson, 21-year-old student body president at North Carolina A&T College and one of the leaders of a month-long drive to break racial barriers. Jackson was charged with inciting a riot after he led a similar sit-down in front of the City Hall Wednesday night. He refused to post $1,000 bail.

A part of Rockefeller's task will be to engender the grass roots enthusiasm that has been notably lacking among his party colleagues. Goldwater's camp will have to try to convince the prospective delegates that he can win — that a clear cut contest between a conservative GOP nominee and the liberal-leaning President would end in a Republican victory. Halley's contest is next expected to appear in 1968.

Rams Make Tourney Debut Tomorrow

About a year ago Coach Ron Koussich led an unheralded Rockville High team into the Class B CIAC football tournament. Thanks to a couple of no-hit pitching jobs by Skip Olander, the Rams made it to the finals before meeting defeat. Tomorrow Ron takes another team to the Tournament—this one a high-regarded, second-rated crew. How does he compare the two teams?

"I'd have to say the '68 outfit was stronger defensively," Ron started off, "chiefly because of Frankie Denton in center. He could really go get 'em. Pete Pagan was in left both years."

Last year he had Whit Ferguson in right. John Martello is in right this year and either Tom Martello or Rod Adams in center. Last year it was pretty much a set trio and Jason gave them the edge.

"The infield is about the same. The middle men, shortstop Dick McGill and second baseman Ken Poole are actually the same. Ferguson has moved to first and Al Futz has taken over at third for Tim Pahey. Dougiewicz was the top fielding first baseman last year but he didn't hit well. Futz was good defensively and was also one of our leading hitters."

"This year Ferguson has started out to hit, but he's really an under-rated player, and Futz has done good work on defense but hasn't hit up to his potential."

"Pitching was about the same too. There's a big difference in the boys. Bernie Archibay was a little better guy while Joe VanOrsdon has twice the size but a lot quieter. Bernie was our best pitcher last year while Joe is just starting to find himself with those recent long drives."

"When it comes to pitching, this year's team has a lot more depth, principally because of the development of Pat. He made a good No. 2 man. It would be difficult to pick between Martello and Olander. The difference, of course, is that Martello is only a sophomore."

"I don't want to take anything away from last year's team. They were great. I was very proud of them and I am now, but I'd have to say this year's gang has more potential."

Loss Only Three
"We only lose three starters—McGill, Pagan and John Martello. We sometimes start five sophomores, our first two pitchers and the catcher are sopho so I'd have to say the potential is there."

"Last year's club did a good job all the way. But this gang is getting the job done too and they're still got time to go."

He added the long winning streak (14 straight) not counting a game with Ellington last night is starting to add pressure. So far the Rams have taken everything in stride, tomorrow they'll have another chance when they oppose a tough Housatonic Valley Regional team.

Housatonic coach Ed Kirby has had great baseball success at the Falls Village school. Two of his boys—Tom Parsons and Steve Blase—are hurrying now for the Pirates' top farm at Columbus.

"These two teams will be seen in many respects. They'll hustle, they'll fight the last out and they'll want to beat themselves. It should be a good game."

Bouton Hit By Smash, Jaw Gashed

NEW YORK (AP)—American League manager Joe Altobelli was hit today by a 90-mile-per-hour fastball from Boston's Jim Bouton, which gashed his jaw and knocked him out of the game.

Bouton, who was in the right of mind, threw the ball after Altobelli had been hit in the head by a pitch from Boston's Tom Seaver.

Altobelli, who is 40, was hit in the jaw by the ball, which was thrown from 60 feet away. The ball struck Altobelli's jaw and gashed it.

Barricades Isolate Campus at Alabama

LOS ANGELES (AP)—President Kennedy left missiles behind today and began bearing down on politics, courting the women's vote after lining up California's governor as an informal political agent. Kennedy, winding up three days of military displays in the three states, arranged a mid-morning appearance at a breakfast meeting with party contributors in the $1,000 class.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The voice of the State Department is changing. Lincoln White, who for years has given newsmen and the public the department's view of foreign affairs, has received a new job. Consul General in Melbourne, Australia.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—Bright yellow barricades isolated the University of Alabama campus today as segregationist leaders urged their followers to combat integration with dollars instead of fists.
