James M. Burke and a party of friends took a trip down to Westbrook and other places along the Sound last week and were returning home Saturday evening by the New London and Northern railroad.

They then telegraphed to Boston stating their dilemma, and asked them to express their views on the matter.

THE PRIZE GAVEL. The prize gavel presented to the South Manchester Division 8 of 47 Friday night is made from wood taken from the historical battle ship Kosarage and was originally presented through the efforts of E. L. G. Hohlenthal over a year ago.

It passes around among the Divisions in the District quarterly, going to the last place where new names were added to the roll here during the last quarter.

The gavel was won once before by the South Manchester Division.

It is of solid water-logged oak, black as ebony, highly polished, and bound as ebony, silver plated on each end.

At the quarter ending June 30 last, the local Division had a membership of 163, the highest mark it ever reached.

BISHOP McMAHON DEAD.

The Rt. Rev. Lawrence S. McMahon, bishop of the diocese of Hartford, died suddenly at the pastoral residence in Lakeville, Monday evening, Aug. 21, 1893, aged 58 years.

He was ordained a priest at Rome in 1850, and consecrated bishop, Aug. 10, 1879.

This is done, partly to get rid of ready cash, in order to make purchases of new Fall and Winter goods, and also to stimulate trade during the dull season, which is undoubtedly the good business policy, and redounds largely to the benefit of the consumer.

A musical festival took place in the Salvation Army barracks on Monday evening, in which Adjutant Dunham and wife of New Haven, Captain Williams of New Britain, Booth of Norwich, Frazee of Waterbury, Lindsey of Middletown, and Cades Connally and Keith of Waterbury took part.

Rev. Mr. Peck, a Wesleyan student, who supplies Turnerville, occupied the pulpit at the church last Sunday, and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Baker of Rockville.

It was intended to have Captain Noble of the Salvation Army preach, but on account of the fact that Adjutant Dunham who came to town on Saturday, would not allow it, it is against Army rules for an officer to occupy a pulpit, out of the barracks, without having the corps with him.

TOWN NEWS.

Patronize Home Trade.

Write the mark down sales that are in progress among our merchants, people here with little or no occasion to do any of their purchasing in the city, as competition has brought prices down to very low figures; in many instances below cost.

This is done, partly to get rid of ready cash, in order to make purchases of new Fall and Winter goods, and also to stimulate trade during the dull season, which is undoubtedly the good business policy, and redounds largely to the benefit of the consumer.

A musical festival took place in the Salvation Army barracks on Monday evening, in which Adjutant Dunham and wife of New Haven, Captain Williams of New Britain, Booth of Norwich, Frazee of Waterbury, Lindsey of Middletown, and Cades Connally and Keith of Waterbury took part.

Rev. Mr. Peck, a Wesleyan student, who supplies Turnerville, occupied the pulpit at the church last Sunday, and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Baker of Rockville.

A HANDSOME SIGHT.

The Center Congregational church was beautifully decorated last Sunday by the conservators of the National Shrine, in all parts of the country, at a cost of $10,000 to its relatives, the treatment covering a period of eight years and after going through all this, had as strong a desire for drink as ever.

Finally he drifted back to New York, attended a "Holiness Meeting" of the Salvation Army, was converted, and now, nine months have elapsed, during which time he has not drunk any intoxicating liquors, nor has he any desire to do so.

He is at the present time assistant editor of the War Cry. Mr. Leo stated that the cost of trying the Keeley cure is from $10 to $20 a week, but he has no hesitation in saying that it is a humbug. The meetings throughout were well attended and very enthusiastic.

On Sunday evening four new converts were added to the local corps.

MORNING NEWS.

The South Manchesters played a return game with the Nubians on the Mt. Nebo grounds last Saturday afternoon, in an interesting game. The Nubians put up a stiff game that they did at Naubac, before they had a better team.

The home team greatly mistook their cue, and when the Nubians took the field, the home team pitched in a complete rout. The home team clinched the game in the first two innings, when they let up a little, and the game interesting. The battery of the home team showed positions during the game, and showed that they could do it if it came to a pinch.
