brought out over 800 of the brightest and prettiest boys and girls, ranging Linen and Silks, from 6 months to 4 years of age, in St Louis and the vicinity of the city. Prizes were given for 6 months old, 1 year, 18 months, 2 years, 24 years, 3 years and 4 years. There were first, second, third and fourth prizes for both boys and girls in each class. Besides these there were special prizes for the smallest, largest,

The pertraits here presented are of Alene Jones, 4 years old, who took the prize as the smartest child, and Le Roy Bates, first prize for 4-year-old boys. Of course the judges had a hard time deciding between so many charming children, and naturally their decisions created considerable disappointment, but the disinterested spectators agreed
