Eight Human Beings Perish Miserably-Penned in a Little Building on a Poorfarm -The Flames Break Out at Night While a Blizzard

The building on the Boone County (Iowa) poorfarm used as an insane asylum was burned, and eight of the nine inmates lost their lives. The fire started about 10 o'clock p, m., and when discovered was under such headway that nothing could be done to save the unfortunates in the building. Six years ago Boone County decided to take charge of its incurable and harmless insane who had before been kept in the State asylums. For that purpose a two-story frame milding was erected on the poorfarm near

Henry Holcomb, who lived with his wife in signed for his act by his parents. They retired at about the usual time last night and were asleep at 10 o'clock, when were awakened by Mrs. Hibbard, one of the nine insane persons, who came into he house and said that the madhouse was
