TOWN NEWS.

According to the completed returns of the enumeration of school children between the ages of 4 and 16 years, as sent in to the State board of education, there were 1,966 in the town of Manchester at the time the enumeration was made.

The members of St. Mary's Club enjoyed an oyster supper last week on the strength of bets made that Mitchell would win against Corbett in the late "omphalanthus." Mitchell had many friends in the club and they did for the oysters.

Miss Maytie A. Case will give an organ recital and concert at the opening of the new Methodist church in Burnside. This event will take place shortly before the dedication of the church, and no doubt many people from this place will attend.

At the South M. E. Church next Sunday, the Sacrament will be administered at the morning service. The young people's meeting will take place at 6 p. m., and sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Taber at 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Ellen Hasley died at her home in Vernon of pneumonia at the age of 22 years, on Saturday Jan. 27. The funeral in charge of undertaker Maurice J. Tonhey took place at 10 o'clock from St. Bridget's church and was largely attended.

The new Methodist church at Burnside is nearly completed and the dedication will take place sometime this month. The church and its furnishings, which include a good pipe-organ, will cost about $12,000. The only delay now waiting for the memorial windows. It takes a long time to make those.

Judge Johnson imposed a fine of $20, and costs on Patrick O'Neil last Saturday on a charge of reputation and a fine $20, and costs and 30 days in jail for the second offence in keeping liquor with intent to sell. An appeal was taken from the decision and bonds were furnished by W. J. Carr to the amount of $200.

On Sunday January 14, a successful operation was performed on Mrs. Best McDonald of this place at the Hartford Hospital, and she is improving nicely. She expects to come home tomorrow. She went to the hospital sometime ago for this purpose, but it was deemed best to have her wait until she became stronger before undergoing the ordeal.

Martin Keating Feenon of Dublin, (nephew of Prof. Wm. Keating, South Manchester, is open to give evening instruction in English, mathematics and bookkeeping to a limited number of pupils.

He also teaches grammatical English to French and German pupils desirous of learning the language. Miss Ellen Butler of Tipperary, Ireland, died last Sunday at the residence of Mrs. P. P. Tonhey. She was 70 years of age and an old resident of the town, having worked in the Union Mills over 40 years ago. Her funeral took place from St. Bridget's church, Tuesday morning, Rev. W. J. Doolan officiating. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

George W. Daines, grand dictator was the installing officer at Mount Nebo Lodge Knights of Honor last week Thursday evening. The dictator and four brothers from Pioneer Lodge, Hartford were present. A supper was served after the exercises of the evening and a pleasant social hour enjoyed. Brief addresses were made by the visiting brethren and also by members of Mt. Nebo Lodge.

Mrs. Catharine Clifford died last Monday aged 89 years. Her funeral took place from St. James church, Wednesday morning last, Rev. D. A. Haggerty officiating. She was laid at rest in the Catholic cemetery. She came from Beaver Creek, Wis. several weeks ago to visit with her nephew, John Connors of Spruce street, at which residence she died. Dr. Weldon pronounced her case to be cancer of the liver.

Miss Maytie A. Case has given notice of her resignation as organist at the South Methodist church. She has been induced to remain with the church until after Easter, and thus arrange and carry out the Easter program. She will retire take a rest, and after a time may accept a higher position elsewhere. She has had some tempting offers. The South M. E. church will regret very much to lose her, as she is a talented and accomplished musician, and a very popular young lady.

Mrs. Ann Haggerty, keeper of the West Boarding House, has been confined to her bed for the past six weeks with a broken hip, and on Wednesday last was permitted to get up for the first time. She now moves about on crutches and has had a painful time of it this winter. It will be remembered that she fell on the ice and sustained the injury named above. Her niece, Mrs. John Wadlow, has been in charge of the house during Mrs. Haggerty's suffering.

To Rent—Tenement of seven rooms. Apply to James Tanner, School street, South Manchester, Conn. Cheney's Sons will close out the balance of their stock cloaks at very low prices. Fine assortment valentines at Cheney's Sons.

THE BEST METHOD OF EDUCATION.

Rev. J. A. Bidde here gives notice that he will give a discourse on "The Best Method of Education" at his usual evening service in St. Mary's Episcopal church, next Sunday beginning at 7 o'clock. This is a timely topic and no doubt the pretty little church will be well filled with people interested in hearing what the Rev. gentleman may have to offer.

ANNOUNCEMENT. The undersigned wishes to announce to his friends and the patrons of the late firm of Lamb, Hibbard & Co., that he has sold his interest in said firm to Wm. E. Hibbard and James H. Stannard under the firm name of Hibbard & Stannard, who with increased facilities are prepared to execute promptly all orders entrusted to them. Thanking you for the many favors in the past and soliciting for the future the continuance of the same, I remain Yours truly, LOUISE M. LAMB, Manchester, Conn., Feb'y. 1, 1894.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES MORSE. The funeral of Charles Morse, whose sudden death was noted in THE NEWS last week, took place last week, Friday afternoon, services being held by Rev. E. H. Barker, The Rev. Mr. Morse was laid to rest in the cemetery at Plainfield for burial. Deceased was a native of Canterbury and in 1861 represented that town in the General Assembly, and in 1877 was a State senator from the Second District (in the southern part of Windham county). He had charge of Cheney Brothers east boarding house here for a number of years, and lately was engaged in the painting, decorating and paper hanging business.

LENTEN SERVICES IN ST. MARY'S CHURCH. Ash Wednesday Feb. 7—Easter Day March 25. Holy Communion: Sunday Feb. 11, March 11 and Easter Day. Holy Baptism: Saturday, Feb. 17, Sunday, Feb. 23 and Easter Even, Saturday, March 24 at 3 p. m. Services for Holy week will be announced later.

CHANGE OF FIRM. The firm of Lamb, Hibbard & Co. was by mutual consent dissolved last Wednesday, by the withdrawal of Louise Lamb, and the business will be continued at the old stand by W. E. Hibbard and J. H. Stannard, the two other members of the firm, under the new title of Hibbard & Stannard. Messrs Hibbard and Stannard are both expert mechanics and have been in the practical operation of their business and thoroughly competent and reliable in every way. The old firm did a prosperous business under the able financial direction of Mr. Lamb, who has had a large experience, and the younger members have benefited by his training and purpose to pursue the same conservative, careful and successful policy in the future, that prospered so well with them in the past.

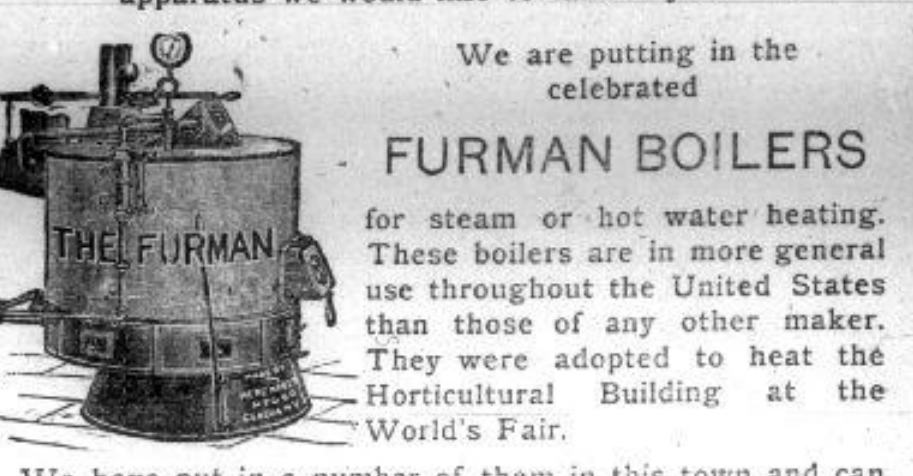

HANDSOME ORANGES. Henry E. Thompson of Daytona Florida, sent some oranges, mandarin and tangerines to George H. Southwick, and they reached him in good order last Monday. The fruit throughout is of unusually fine flavor and quality and very attractive in every way, but one feature of especial prominence, and in fact one that we have never seen equalled, is in four oranges that were included in the lot and placed there particularly for Mrs. Southwick. They measure between 1 1/2 and 1 3/4 in circumference each, and weigh respectively, one pound five, six, seven and nine ounces. They are of the navel variety, and at the first glance would be taken for grape fruit, as they are about the same size and shape, but have a rougher exterior and are of a somewhat darker color. They are wonderful growths in their line and well worth seeing.

SOCIETY SEGER. At the annual meeting of the Society Seger, held last Saturday evening, the following officers were re-elected: Alfred Anderson, president; Carl Kjelson, vice president; Ernest Hultander, recording secretary; Alfred Hallden, assistant recording secretary; R. E. Johnson, financial secretary; Miss Hanna Bengtson, assistant financial secretary; Richard Anderson, treasurer. The following are the sick committee: Aaron Linne, Carl A. Johnson, Edwin Johnson, Miss Hilda Ryden, Miss Emma Olinman and Miss Charlotte Bengtson.

This society was organized Aug. 25, '89, and in the four and half years (nearly) of its existence has paid out as sick benefits to its sick members and its widows the sum of $243.07. Its total income for that period has been $1,951.88, and it has now a balance in its treasury of $675.75 to meet any emergency that may arise. It does an excellent work in providing for and taking care of its sick members and is well worthy of the careful investigation and approval of all thoughtful persons at the present time. Full instructions regarding its operations can be obtained from the officers and members at any time.

Steam and Hot Water -- HEATING --

If you are thinking of making a change in your heating apparatus we would like to talk to you.

We are putting in the celebrated FURMAN BOILERS for steam or hot water heating. These boilers are in more general use throughout the United States than those of any other maker.

We have put in a number of them in this town and can refer to the users who speak highly of them. Now is the time to attend to this in order to be ready for cold weather.

Dreamland. She looked me full in the face—her eyes flashed, and she stopped crying. "You will regret that laugh!" she said haughtily. "It is cowardly! Your duty as a gentleman is first to listen to me."

THE CAPTURE

Martha, the old servant, awakened me. She said, "Your uncle is dying!" I went down stairs, and again found myself before the half-open door.

"Here! I see her moving about in the dying man's room, a few steps from me. There she remains as a sovereign. She devotes herself to the patient. She obeys each request of the doctor, who, with her watch by my uncle's bedside, I watch her every movement and a wild hatred, mixed with agony and humiliation, burned in my veins.

"I returned from Germany, I found her with my uncle, and she said to me: "She is my old friend Senart's daughter. He died ruined—a poor old fellow! I hope that you will not object to my giving her a small dowry. You will still be a millionaire!"

"She was very beautiful, but proud and haughty. She received me coldly and in a very ungracious manner, but in spite of that I fell promptly in love with her. Her step made me tremble and her fine profile charmed me. At the end of a month I would have given heaven and earth for her love. I dared not tell her so, to ask her to marry me, but she refused me without hesitation.

"After a few minutes, I collected myself and begged in a supplicating voice: "Forgive me! Take back this packet! I would rather die than accept the estate on these conditions."

"Do you wish to kill the patient?" "Do you wish to kill the patient?" "Do you wish to kill the patient?"

"Do you wish to kill the patient?" "Do you wish to kill the patient?" "Do you wish to kill the patient?"

"Do you wish to kill the patient?" "Do you wish to kill the patient?" "Do you wish to kill the patient?"

LADIES' DEPARTMENT. THE BEST-DRESSED QUEEN. The Dowager Duchess of Portago is the best-dressed woman in Europe; and her exquisite figure and extraordinary charm of manner have a great deal to do with her some appearance. She takes after her father, the late King Victor Emmanuel, in her love of sport, and except the Comtesse de Paris, finds more amusement in outdoor exercise than any other royal lady now living.

RODIES ARE MOST PRECIOUS. It is a lamentable fact that our American girls are not of more robust order. In this respect only do they suffer in comparison to foreign girls—those of England particularly. There is something about the very frame of the English girl that makes her girl look almost infantile.

WOMAN SUPPORTING MEN. It is reported that the army of the unemployed in New York city is about to be considerably increased from a new source. The stores there, especially the large retail shops, in decreasing their force of clerks after the holidays, have been as far as possible, substituting women for men, and a great many of the latter have lost their places that they have filled for many years.

Golden Silence. "I made $500 once," said the man in the mackintosh, "by merely keeping my mouth shut." "Was it an auction?" asked the man in the slouch hat.

THE POPULARITY OF PUR. Even white chiffon waives are now decorated with sable or violet for bralettes, or a yoke trimming and gupure lace has the same treatment, which has ceased to look odd.

COYOTES STUCK TO THE ICE. A gentleman from up the river, who, for obvious reasons, does not want his name mentioned, relates that a few evenings ago he had occasion to build a bonfire on the ice of a pond about two miles below Florissant.

THE ONLY EXPLANATION. Jack—"I don't comprehend Miss Smith." Tom—"Well, we were children together, and here now I'm 32 and she's only 22."

Major Graham Davis of North Carolina, is actively interesting himself in a movement to save from ruin the old fort of Fort Mifflin on the coast and preserve to the State the ground on which it was built.

REV. DR. TALMAGE. THE BROOKLYN DIVINE'S SUNDAY SERMON. Subject: "A Vision of Heaven."

HOOD'S SANSAPARILLA PURIFIES THE BLOOD. Broke out on one little girl's face. Her hands swelled and biters formed and later broke open. The itching and burning soon cured her.
