United States Consul Lastremski at Callao, Peru, who has been concerning himself with the problem of bettering the trade relations between the United States and the nine million people on the west coast of South America, ascribes to inadequate means of transportation the present small trade relations, and gives some remarkable figures to prove how great is the discrimination in favor of Europe and against the United States under the present system.

The cost of erecting an office building which shall comply with all the provisions of the Building laws in years ago it was estimated that the $2 per enbic foot. A natural result of this reduction, brought about by a variety of causes, remarks the Sun, is that capitalists have decided upon investing more money than ever in big buildings, and plans for several have been drawn, each of which is to be twenty-four stories high.

Physicians in New York City are much interested in the case of a man who had a malignant tumor in his throat, involving the vocal cords, states the Boston Cultivator. To save the patient's life the doctor removed the larnyx and entire vocal apparatus, inserting a metallic tube in its place. Nobody thought the patient would ever be able to speak, and he was considered lucky if the doctor's makeshift enabled him to continue to breathe. But when the wound healed speech returned and the man can talk in ordinary tones nearly as 'well as ever. He addressed a clinic of surgeons recently and told them about the operation. His only disability is an inability to shout, but we have all known people who would be greatly improved for such a chance as this.

Some one given to statistics has discovered that, whereas in 1858 there were only seventy lines of industrial activity open to women, now there are 500. I propose to give you two or three reasons why I think Felix sent Paul back to the froom and adjourned the whole subject of religion. The first reason was, he did not want to give up his sins. He looked around. There was Drustila. He knew that when he ame a Christian he must send her back to Agains her lawful husband, and he said to imself, "I will risk the destruction of immortal soul sooner than I will do that How many there are now who cannot get t e Christians because they will not abandon their sins. In vain all their prayers and al darling sins and win heaven, and now some

It was business among other things that ruined his soul, and suppose there are thousands of people who are not children of God because they have so much business. It is business in the storelosses, gains, unfaithful employes.

It is business in your law office-subponas, writs you have to write out, papers you have to flie, arguments you have to make. It is your medical profession, with its broken nights and the exhausted anxieties of life hanging upon your freatment. It is your real estate office, your business with ords and tenants and the fallure of men to meet their obligations with you. Aye, with some of those who are here it is the annovance of the kitchen, and the sitting room, d the parlor-the wearing economy of try ing to meet large expenses with a small income. Ten thousand voices of "business, business, business" drown the voice of the eternal Spirit, sliencing the voice of the advancing judgment day, overcoming the voice f eternity, and they cannot hear; they cannot listen. They say, "Go thy way for this time." Some of you look upon your goods. look upon your profession, you look upon your memorandum books, and you see the ands that are made this very week upon your time and your patience and your money, and while I am entresting you about your soul and the danger of prograstination you say: "Go thy way for this time, When I have a convenient season, I will call for dwarfs. This was celebrated at St. Petersburg with great show and parade. Zotof, as a high official, was head and front of the performance. It took a long time to prepare for this great event. Invitations to the weding were sent out several months before the day appointed for the ceremony, and all the courtiers and ambassadors were bidden to the marriage of this tiny man and woman. All the dwarfs living within two hundred miles of the capital were commanded to be present. The bride and groom rode on an elephant under a canopy; some of the midgets followed on camels, or rode in sledges carved in the shape of various animals. Many of the vehicles contained a dozen dwarfs at a time. Some of these people did not like the idea of being bid-
