

South Manchester News

W. J. FLOOD, Publisher.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

Subscription, $1.00 Per Year.

STANDING ADVERTISEMENTS will not be changed later than Wednesday noon.

OLIVER MACNELL

Has entire charge of the street sales for South Manchester, and THE MANCHESTER NEWS CO. For Manchester.

Office Over Cheney's Store.

Cor. Main and Charter Oak Streets, Residence 42 School Street, South Manchester, Conn.

Entered as second-class matter at the South Manchester Post Office.

Table with columns for dates and names, likely a calendar or list of events.

TOWN NEWS.

GRADUATED WITH HONORS.

Mary Henrietta Gray, Alice Male Babber, Renben Forrest Gray, Agnes Susan Henderson, Gertrude Levinia Albitson and Mary Jane Johnson were the first six persons to be graduated from the South Manchester Public High School...

BASE BALL.

The New Britain defeated the home team in a game of ball last Saturday on the Mt. Nebo grounds by a score of nine to two.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

Some twenty five children assembled at the residence of John O'Keefe on Spruce street Wednesday evening, to enjoy a six o'clock tea and surprise party on the occasion of the birthday of the twelfth anniversary of her birthday, and the gathering a complete success to her.

MRS. JAMES M. BURKE'S DEATH.

After a long and painful illness, from a complication of diseases, Mrs. James M. Burke died in Danbury Monday night, June 19, 1894.

BASE BALL.

The New Britain defeated the home team in a game of ball last Saturday on the Mt. Nebo grounds by a score of nine to two.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

Some twenty five children assembled at the residence of John O'Keefe on Spruce street Wednesday evening, to enjoy a six o'clock tea and surprise party on the occasion of the birthday of the twelfth anniversary of her birthday, and the gathering a complete success to her.

MRS. JAMES M. BURKE'S DEATH.

After a long and painful illness, from a complication of diseases, Mrs. James M. Burke died in Danbury Monday night, June 19, 1894.

BASE BALL.

The New Britain defeated the home team in a game of ball last Saturday on the Mt. Nebo grounds by a score of nine to two.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

Some twenty five children assembled at the residence of John O'Keefe on Spruce street Wednesday evening, to enjoy a six o'clock tea and surprise party on the occasion of the birthday of the twelfth anniversary of her birthday, and the gathering a complete success to her.

MRS. JAMES M. BURKE'S DEATH.

After a long and painful illness, from a complication of diseases, Mrs. James M. Burke died in Danbury Monday night, June 19, 1894.

BASE BALL.

The New Britain defeated the home team in a game of ball last Saturday on the Mt. Nebo grounds by a score of nine to two.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

Some twenty five children assembled at the residence of John O'Keefe on Spruce street Wednesday evening, to enjoy a six o'clock tea and surprise party on the occasion of the birthday of the twelfth anniversary of her birthday, and the gathering a complete success to her.

NINTH DISTRICT SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

Monday was a busy day in the Ninth District School for principal, teachers, pupils, janitor and everybody connected with the institution.

Exhibitions of the classes at work in all the branches of the school were given, and all were cordially invited to attend.

The result was that fully 500 visitors responded to the call and inspected the work of teachers and pupils.

The gymnastics and kindergarten seemed to offer more attractions to the visitors than any other departments, and both of these were crowded during the entire afternoon session.

Principal Verplank, his assistant, Miss McCook and all the teachers did everything in their power to make matters pleasant for the public and extended every possible courtesy.

The interest manifested in the work has never been equalled before, and many persons were present who had never made the necessary effort to see for themselves what manner of work was being done.

The annual meeting of the North District school took place last week Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

It was explained by C. S. Cheney that the meeting held last year in July was illegal, as the law requires that the annual meetings of school districts be held in June, hence that all action then taken was void.

HELP THE ORPHANS.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given in Ape's opera house on Wednesday evening June 27, by the young people of St. Bridget's church.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be for the benefit of the orphans of the parish. Admission 25 cents.

The following program will be rendered: Selection. Orchestra. Fan Drill. Twelve Misses with Captain Recitation. Miss A. Welch. Piano Solo. Miss D. Sheridan. Trio. Flower Girls. Recitation. Miss A. Welch. Carlethea Drill. W. M. Keating. Motto Song. W. M. Keating. Recitation. Ten Little Fairies. Recitation. Miss N. Maloney. Olee. Members of Choir. Silent Drill. E. Sullivan. Recitation. Cadets. Recitation. Miss S. Welch. Song and March. Children's Choir. Military Drill. Sacred Heart Cadets. The entertainment will be given at 7:30 p. m.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

It is all done for charity, and their efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage and large attendance. The fan, umbrella and military drills will be very nice and form the most attractive features of the evening's entertainment.

The young people of the parish have been working very hard recently, rehearsing their respective parts, under the direction of Miss E. Keating, the organist, and every effort being made to present a pretty and pleasing entertainment.

COMPANY G'S GALA NIGHT.

The private social given by Company G. C. N. G., in the Armory last Friday evening, was well attended and a most pleasant and successful event.

Some four hundred persons were present, and all were enthusiastic in their praise of the social. Col. Burdette was expected and Capt. C. L. Bissell delayed the grand march for one hour in anticipation of the Colonel's arrival, but at the expiration of that time Lieut. Col. Thompson was announced, and he bore a message for the captain, which the latter read aloud from the stage and in which the colonel set forth his regrets at having to disappoint the captain and members of the company, as important law business called him out of the city.

The colonel however took occasion to express his good feelings for the company in a very cordial manner, and hoped that it would exert itself to attain the honorable position it formerly held in the regiment.

Dancing began at nine o'clock, a program of eighteen numbers was presented and afforded all the sport the young people wanted.

At intermission, the settees were taken from the wings of the hall and placed in rows on the side of the long surface, and then members of the company armed with trays and white covers, began to serve all present with cakes in variety, ice cream, two flavors and lemonade.

A great number of things were supplied, and all through the evening lemonade was to be had at the lower end of the hall, and was also passed around to persons who were not dancing, or did not choose to go to the refreshment counter after it.

The last part of the affair was that all these things were served free, not a cent being charged anyone for admission, taking care of clothing, dancing, refreshments or anything else. Frank Goetz was caterer and right well he did his work. Professor Keating's orchestra furnished music and did excellently well, giving many of the new airs in fine style and showing marked improvement in the work. Professor Campbell was prompter and led the bill very acceptably. Lieutenant Colonel A. L. Thompson, Major John Hickey and Sergeant Major John Cheney were the higher military officials that attended.

Much credit is due the captain, officials and private of the company for the very smooth and capable manner in which the arrangements were carried out, and certainly all spoke in the highest terms of praise of the hospitality and cordial reception tendered them by Company G. It was a gala night for the company and it will be to be highly complimented and congratulated on the success it achieved.

The ladies were very pretty and attractive in costume and the scene when they were dancing was a pleasing one. The best of order was maintained throughout the affair.

The fact that all the estimates for the Ninth School District were not completed, the appropriation was made at the next meeting of the board, which will occur in July. The expense in this District has been high during the last year and a largely increased appropriation will be asked for. The amount appropriated for the school last year was $1,000, but about $15,000 have been expended.

The Third District secured an increase of $400, in its appropriation, conditioned on its erecting a new school building and employing an additional teacher.

One hundred dollars were added to the regular appropriation for District No. 2, on the representation of Walter W. Cowles, J. D. Pickles and Marjorie Maloney, the district committee, who find it necessary to raise the grade of instruction there in the district in order to comply with the new law.

It was announced that John Hutchinson declined to serve as treasurer this year and Rev. Thomas Simms named Lucius Pinney for the office. Thirty-two ballots were cast for treasurer, of which Lucius Pinney received twenty-eight and was declared elected.

George H. Southwick was elected as collector, by receiving twenty-seven out of thirty votes.

The total appropriation for all of the schools of the town last year was $20,500, but will be considerably more this year, as can be seen above.

At the meeting of the board of school visitors which was held directly after that of the board of trustees, on Monday, June 19, 1894, the following was reported: Mr. W. J. Dodan, as a member of the board of education of the town of Manchester was accepted and C. W. Cowles was chosen to fill the unexpired term, until a town meeting may be held on the 10th of July. This is the first meeting of the board that has been held since Rev. W. J. Dodan left town and is evident the first opportunity to take action on his resignation.

The question of building a new school house is being agitated in the Third District, and a committee consisting of A. Wells Case, E. C. Stanley and J. L. Barrett was appointed to look up a site, plan, estimates, etc. and report at a special meeting of the District to be held Monday evening June 25.

During the present term the registration has been 61, whereas the seating capacity of the school is 25. It is evident therefore that more room is needed and also that there must be another teacher employed, as it is a physical impossibility for any teacher to properly govern and teach that number of pupils together.

The only difference of opinion that are likely to arise will be on the question of location site and arrangement of the new school building, all of which will in all probability come up for consideration and discussion at the special meeting named herein, when the committee will report its findings.

Owing to sickness of the teacher during the present school year, the Third District is in a high state of excitement, and the other school year the same time that was last year.

This rate was offered to the manager of the Connecticut Christian Endeavor Extension, with the provision that a special Pullman, vestibuled train car be furnished, but he has seen fit to select a route by which the rate is from $1.25 to $1.50 higher per capita, without offering any superior facilities or service for same.

If individuals will combine and form a large enough party to insure a special train, one of Pullman, vestibuled cars will be arranged for, so that delegates and their friends can visit Cleveland and Niagara Falls in a special train in both directions, thereby saving from $2.00 to $5.00 each.

The General Passenger Agent of the New York & New England R. R. Co., Boston, Mass., would be glad to hear of any who desire to take advantage of the above.

HOME MARKET.

Old potatoes are scarce and dear. Green peas are plentiful and are being reduced in price.

Shad has disappeared from the home market.

There is quite an advance in the price of Lobsters. Butter Fish and Fresh Mackerel are lower in price.

Sword fish has just been put upon the local market and is now quite abundant.

Fresh salmon is now on sale and there is plenty of it. The price has been so high that local dealers could not sell it until now.

VEGETABLES. Cabbages, 10 c and 10 c per head. Potatoes, old, $1.25 to $1.50 per bu. Potatoes, new, 40c to 50c per bu. Onions, 4 to 6c per lb. Strawberries, 2 to 3 qt 25c. String beans, 10c to 15c qt. Asparagus, 2 bunches 25c. Lettuce, 5c a head. Cauliflower, 10 to 15c a head. Radishes, 5c a bunch. Green Onions, a bunch of 4 for 10c. Cucumbers, 25c to 30c a peck. Best Green Peas, 2 for 5c. Best Green Beans, 20c per doz.

FISH. Lobsters, Live, 14c per lb. Lobsters, Boiled, 18c per lb. Blue Fish, 10c per lb. Clams, Long or Round, 60c per bu. Butter Fish, 10c per lb. Salmon, 15c per lb. Cod, 10c per lb. Sword, 18c per lb. Halibut, 20c per lb.

BUTTER. Creamery, 28c per lb. Farmers, 29 to 30c per lb. Sugar, 20 to 22 lbs for $1.00. Lard, 10 to 12c per lb. Cheese, 15 to 18c per lb. Ham, 12 to 15c per lb. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

Best Potatoes, $1.50 to $1.75. St. Louis, $1.85, $1.00 to $1.50. Barbed Wire, 2c to 3c. Fowl Netting, 10c to 16c ft.

Timothy, $2.00, $2.50 to $2.75 per bu. Red Top, $2.75 per bu. Clover, Red, 15c to 18c lb. White, 20c to 25c lb. Coal, $6.50 a ton. Canned Goods, very low.

CALL FOR FLOWERS.

Last year an appeal was made through the press to people in the country for contributions of flowers during the summer months to be distributed among the people in the tenement houses of New York. That work was carried on with great success and hundreds of houses received a fragrant note generated from the flower.

An appeal of this kind will be no less agreeable to the people in the tenement houses of New York. That work was carried on with great success and hundreds of houses received a fragrant note generated from the flower.

We desire to do the same work this year. The young people of our club have generously responded to an appeal for workers to receive, arrange and distribute the flowers. So we again appeal to the public, to contribute as abundantly as possible. Flowers should be sent as to reach the City on Tuesday and Friday. Packages not weighing more than 20 pounds will be transported free by express companies. Care should be taken to see that the limit is not exceeded.

As only local agents are instructed to send the flowers through packages should be marked "collected in New York." We trust that the response will be as generous as last year.

Address All Packages To The University Settlement Society, 26 Delany Street, N. Y. City.

Prescriptions put up at Cheney's drug store seem to "get there" every time. Only pure, active drug used.

The Ups with the Downs. Say, pa, will you tell me what makes all this trouble? ... It's all right, my little son Jimmy to me.

AFTER MANY DAYS.

By Edward W. Harris. Captain Edward Ford, of the California Cavalry, of the Second Massachusetts Battalion, will be remembered by every officer in the Army of the Potomac, and particularly by those who served with him in the valley of the Shenandoah, as a scholar, a kindly hearted gentleman, and a gallant soldier.

While the captain was trying to find the officer for whom he had the message, his horse was shot down, and before he could manage himself from the stirrups, he saw pointed above him the gleaming blade of a swarthy Confederate soldier.

"A mighty cheer call that captain!" was the soldier's cry, as he drew the young officer away from the dead horse, and a moment more and both were rushing after the retreating corps, with the enemy in hot pursuit.

"I was no time to make inquiries, to express thanks or to ask for names, but in the few minutes during which they ran on side by side, the face of the man who had come to Captain Ford's rescue was indelibly impressed on his memory.

Not once, but a hundred times, and always with the hope of finding the man who had so unexpectedly come to his aid at Chancellorsville, the colonel told the story of his gallant rescue. But the years wore on, and his dark hair and whiskers became streaked with gray, and still no one could give him light as to the identity of his preserver.

soldiers of every State in the Union who will remember, with pleasure, the happy times spent there as Colonel Ford's guest. One night, just before Christmas in 1876, the colonel stayed up in his library long after his usual time for retiring. It was one o'clock when he went to bed, but the matter on his mind kept him awake till the clock on the mantel chimed two. His bedroom opened off the library, and he was just sinking into a doze when he was startled into wakefulness by hearing a chair turned over in the next room. Quickly and silently he got out of bed, and having no other weapon at hand, he picked up a book, which was near the washstand, and in his bare feet slipped into the library. By the light of a lamp burning on the grounds outside he saw the figure of a man bending over his desk, and with movements so cautious and catlike that he was certain that it was not one of the servants, and also that his own equipment of arms had not been observed by the burglar.

Comparative Mortality of the Sexes. Although woman has been deprived of so many rights and privileges, she has at least the advantage of man as regards longevity; she suffers less from accidents, injuries and many forms of disease; she is, in fact, more tenacious than man of the limited energies allowed her. Dr. Brandreth Symonds has collected and studied a large number of statistics to illustrate this interesting fact. The comparative mortality of the sexes at different ages, shows that in the first year of life the mortality of the female is less than that of the male, being at birth 92.64 per 1,000 as against 112.80, and at the end of the year, 31.85 as against 35.08. This difference continues up to the fourth year.

Everyday garments, particularly those which are not laundered, should be disinfected. Brushing is not sufficient, as it does not remove the unpleasant odors which come from long use. Some women sprinkle their waists with scent, and use sachet powders to perfume their bonnets and wraps. All this would be admirable, if it were availing. Scent needs to be overpowering to conceal the unfragrant emanations from an old garment.

After a few minutes the man was startled by his senses, and rising unsteadily from the floor he rubbed his eyes, and in a dazed, frightened way surveyed the man standing before him. "Who are you, and what brought you here?" demanded the colonel. Before replying the man staggered into a chair, and then in a broken voice, replied: "I am Tom Rushmore, My God, sir, I do not have arrested!"

"Not have you arrested?" repeated the colonel. "What else can I do with you? I find you here as a burglar trying to rob my house, and fortunately I have been able to prevent you from that crime and perhaps from the greater one of murder?"

"My God, sir, I do not have arrested!" "I'll tell you how I know it. There is a bush or shrub known as the pride of China, which is quite common down in my State. This bush in the winter is covered with berries on which the birds delight to feed. These berries are commonly called by us 'madder-berries,' from the fact that over-indulgence in them produces precisely the same effect upon the birds that liquor does on man. One day last winter my stable boy brought a blue-jay home which he said he found drifting about in the road. It would lie in the bird's hand seemingly perfectly contented, with eyes closed and feathers all in a heap, as though he were dead. I took it up, and in a ridiculous manner it is a common North American drunk, nothing more. The bird had indulged in the madder-berries until it was reduced to an almost helpless state of intoxication. Thousands of respectable Northern robins which migrate to Florida in the winter, and which would think to do such a thing at home, are found lying about in the grossest state of intoxication from the same cause."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"I was, sir," replied the man. "What was your corps?" "The Eleventh. But, in justice to myself, I should say I was not one of the men who led the stampede in that fight." "No," said the colonel, "I think I distinctly remember you near the rear, and with the enemy all about." "Yes, remember me?" said the man, in surprise. "I must confess, sir, I do not remember having met you during that time." "Yes, I think you did meet me, and saved my life in that very battle," and then the colonel related the incident at Chancellorsville, which the man distinctly remembered, though he modestly took no credit to himself for the part he had played in the young officer's rescue.

There is but little more to say. The colonel did not risk his visitor a lecture on the immorality of his conduct that night. His heart was too full of the man's gallantry on the former occasion. The poor fellow came in to find something that he might sell that would relieve his family; he went out with money in his pocket and hope in his heart. It is pleasant to add, though it is hardly to be expected, that Tom Rushmore had no need longer to seek for employment. He is now a trusted superintendent of one of the colonel's establishments. His wife is restored to health, his children are reaching man and womanhood, a credit to himself and the State. The colonel still delights to tell of the incident which saved him at Chancellorsville, and he has found him after so many years, but he does not mention the details of their meeting.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT. DANGER IN FERRUGINES. Women who are fond of indulging in strong perfumes should remember that they are decidedly injurious to the sense of smell. By their frequent use the secretory glands of the nose and throat are overtaxed and weakened. One day the person notices that the hearing is less acute than usual, and the sense of smell seems defective. This is, of course, put down to a cold, and but little is thought of it. After a time the entire head becomes affected, and there are throat and lung complications which are likely to end in chronic, if not a fatal illness. Smelling salts are no profane cause of deafness; all strong and pungent odors, particularly those which act upon the secretory processes, should be avoided as far as possible.—New York Journal.

ADVANTAGES WOMEN HAVE. The bachelor girl is holding forth on the advantages women have over men. "For instance in a crowd, or," she was saying, "a woman is always sure of a seat. Half a dozen men will jump up to give it to her, no matter how tired they are. It is a matter of trying of public opinion. Not one man in ten has the moral courage to defy popular prejudice and keep his seat while there is a woman in the car standing."

Science Sinks a Hole. A number of the piers of the fine new bridge at Omaha, Neb., rest on piles which were sunk by the water jet process. The piles were driven from sixteen to twenty-four inches in diameter. They were driven by means of a vertical shaft, directed over the water, where they were to be sunk, by means of a square framework, eighty feet high, resting on the pier, and driven into the ground by a screwing machine, boiler and pumps, the latter made especially for this work. After a pile had been lifted as mentioned, a 24 inch iron pipe was placed on each side of it and connected at the pumps by means of a hose. These pipes carried under the lower end of the pile and were lowered with it. The material to be penetrated consisted of fifty feet of sand, silt and pockets of gravel and clay. When the piles were lowered the pipes sank with it, and as water was constantly being pumped out of the pipes, the average time, washed in the earth in this manner, into which the pile settled easily as a consequence of the water being pumped out. The time taken to sink a pile was drawn up several feet, the pump running all the time, and then lowered again. Two or three repetitions of this operation generally penetrated the hardest material. The best results were obtained by pulling up the pile, giving the water full pressure and not allowing the pile to sink too fast. When the pile was in position the iron pipes were pulled up and the scaffolding removed. The average time for sinking a pile was noted, the weight of the entire apparatus moved being about 60,000 pounds.—New York Advertiser.

AMERICAN WATCHES AS GOOD AS ANY. Some folks still believe that only the Swiss watch is to be depended upon, but the watch dealers say that they can give you a watch as good as any. Any. The most expensive American watches have a more complicated machinery than American watches, and they are made in the same manner as the Swiss watches. They are made in the same manner as the Swiss watches. They are made in the same manner as the Swiss watches.

KNOWLEDGE. Brings comfort and improvement and leads to a higher and nobler life. It is the only way to escape the bondage of the senses. It is the only way to escape the bondage of the senses. It is the only way to escape the bondage of the senses.

THE BUCKLE PAD UPON US. The merry maidens of Gotham are now collecting buckles. They prefer a new buckle to a box of bon bon or a bunch of violets, and when presents are not immediately forthcoming, they go with their buckles. They are now collecting buckles. They prefer a new buckle to a box of bon bon or a bunch of violets, and when presents are not immediately forthcoming, they go with their buckles.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen. Although the dogs may bark at a woman when she is twenty-five or thirty, she was pretty at sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE SMALLPOX SUPERSTITION. The smallpox epidemic at Jora Sanko frightened the people so that the police had to place a guard to keep order in the streets owing to the number of fanatics proceeding to the temple of Sitala by thousands to offer vows to the goddess.—Bermansworth Record.

REV. DR. TALMAGE. THE BROOKLYN SEVEN'S DAILY DEVOTION. Subject "Another Chance." Text: "If the tree fall toward the south or toward the north, in the place where it falls, so shall every man."—Ecclesiastes XI, 3.

The Magic Touch Hood's Sarsaparilla. You smile at the idea. But if you are Dyspeptic. Add Indigestion, try a bottle, and before you have taken half a dozen you will feel better, and no doubt exclaim: "That just what I needed."

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled just right, and why she was altogether about the prettiest thing on earth. Then it suddenly occurred to me that it was because she was sixteen years old. There never was a girl of sixteen that was not pretty; there never was a dress that would not look well on a girl of sixteen.—Aitchison Globe.

THE GIRL OF SIXTEEN. We saw a girl on the streets to-day, and for a moment wondered why her dress did not seem perfectly, and why she was so bright and pretty, why her bangs were curled

We are of the Opinion That This Man needs some repair work done. Don't hesitate to bring us your Wheel, no matter what accident may have happened to it and we will put it in first-class condition.

Changing Solid Tired Wheels to Pneumatics a Specialty. Look at one of our Latest Model Columbias. We have an elegant line of Cheap grade Wheels. Also a stock of Second-Hand that is selling at Hard Times Prices.

Hibbard & Stannard. Plumbing, Steam and Hot-Water Heating, Tinning and General Jobbing.

COAL! COAL!! I have a large stock of COAL of all kinds and sizes on hand and under cover.

TAKE YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS TO Wm C. Brown & Co., Druggists. Nothing but PURE DRUGS used in compounding.

HARD TIMES PRICES. Every Saturday until further notice we will sell our MEATS AT 2 CTS. A POUND LESS THAN REGULAR PRICES.

GRANT & COWLES, FULLER'S BLOCK, North Main Street, Manchester, Conn.

A NEW DEAL. Having bought out H. L. Vibbert's Express, I shall run it to Hartford Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from South Manchester: Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from North Manchester.

GEORGE A. CLARK. Before Ordering your Cemetery Work done, call and see us, and we will guarantee to suit you, in material, price and workmanship.

ELDREDGE & ADAMS, ROCKVILLE, CONN. CHALLENGE'S Adapted to any business or profession. Ruled, with printed headings, and indexed through to require the least possible writing to enter data and refer quickly to any name.

CITIZENS' Bakery. HOME MADE PIES and LOAF CAKE, SPECIALTIES. D. Lull & Son, South Manchester, Conn.

DON'T PAINT THIS SPRING without seeing HUBBARD about it. He furnishes the best paints made and will do the work right.

TOWN NEWS.

SALVATION ARMY WINS. The common council of the city of New Britain voted last Wednesday evening to allow the Salvation Army to parade in the streets, unobscured.

THE STAKES DRIVEN. The surveyors for the proposed electric car line have driven their stakes along Main street indicating where it is intended to have the tracks laid.

A GOOD START. Edwin S. Barrows, who has just completed a thorough course in expert accounting at the Hamden Hartford Business College has been given the position as head book keeper of the E. A. Bliss Store Company at Meriden.

CAED OF THANKS. I take pleasure in heartily thanking and praising those who have aided me in my fight against the opium traffic.

A. B. H. STREETS. An interesting lecture was given by Mr. A. B. H. Streets on the subject of the opium traffic in the city of New Britain.

WILL TAKE PART IN THE PARADE. On Thursday evening the St. Mary's T. A. Society will attend the state parade of temperance societies in New Britain.

FOR THE OLD FOLKS. In spite of the tropical weather last Sunday, there was a good attendance at the "Old Folks' Service" in the Catholic Church, and the exercises were of a pleasing and appropriate character.

TAKEN ON REPUTATION. Mrs. F. Quinn, Timothy O'Connell and James Moran were arrested last Monday on charges of keeping places where liquor are reported to be sold.

DANIEL DOYLE, 35, DEATH. Daniel Doyle, 35, of Rockville, died last Monday and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Wednesday.

WILLIAM'S Root Beer Extract 10cents, Van's 10 cents at Cheney's. For Sale—Cabbage plants, four varieties, also celery, tomato and many flowering plants.

William's Root Beer Extract 10cents, Van's 10 cents at Cheney's. For Sale—Cabbage plants, four varieties, also celery, tomato and many flowering plants.

IN BEHALF OF TEMPERANCE.

An effort is being made to organize a temperance society in connection with St. James' parish and to hold a public meeting on Sunday to discuss the question.

TEACHERS FOR EIGHTH DISTRICT SCHOOL. The district committee for the Eighth School District has employed the following corps of teachers for the coming year.

CAPTAIN HARRINGTON'S DEATH. Captain Alpheus E. Harrington died in William, Mass. on Wednesday 17 and was buried with military honors in the Rockland cemetery on Tuesday.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL. The Episcopal church will give a strawberry festival and entertainment Monday evening 2 o'clock for the church.

GEN CITY LAUNDRY. Bert A. Pringle, proprietor of the Gen City Laundry of Rockville, has a very nice team will be pleased to call at residences for packages of laundry work and return them as desired.

PROMPT PAYMENT. When death invades a household and takes away the head of the family it is quite consoling to the remaining members to know that there is an insurance policy in force payable to them, and it is also very pleasing to learn that prompt payment is made on same.

DANIEL DOYLE, 35, DEATH. Daniel Doyle, 35, of Rockville, died last Monday and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Wednesday.

WILLIAM'S Root Beer Extract 10cents, Van's 10 cents at Cheney's. For Sale—Cabbage plants, four varieties, also celery, tomato and many flowering plants.

WILLIAM'S Root Beer Extract 10cents, Van's 10 cents at Cheney's. For Sale—Cabbage plants, four varieties, also celery, tomato and many flowering plants.

WILLIAM'S Root Beer Extract 10cents, Van's 10 cents at Cheney's. For Sale—Cabbage plants, four varieties, also celery, tomato and many flowering plants.

WILLIAM'S Root Beer Extract 10cents, Van's 10 cents at Cheney's. For Sale—Cabbage plants, four varieties, also celery, tomato and many flowering plants.

HAVE YOU A BATH-TUB?

If you want to fully enjoy life this hot weather, get a bath tub. They are coming into greater demand than ever.

I have sold and set more bath tubs this season, than ever before in a similar period. They can be placed in any house at a very moderate cost and if you once have one, you will never want to live without it.

Call and talk the matter over. There is no better time to do this than now.

T. P. AITKIN, Depot Square, Manchester, Conn.

Cresecent Bicycles. An Entirely New Line for 1894. $75, $80, $100. Western Wheel Works, Chicago, New York. C. H. ROSE, Agent for Manchester.

LOW PRICES ON FURNITURE.

For Parlor and Kitchen, including Carpets, Stoves, Ranges, Crockery, Glass, China and Tin-ware, Clocks, Pictures and Frames, Pianos, Organs, Lamps, Curtains, Fixtures, Wall Papers and in fact everything needed for the household.

HALF-DIME LUNCH.

5c. Each for All Dishes Served. Prompt Attention, No Waiting. Open from 5 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. BREAD AND PASTRY all Home Made. Best Coffee and Tea a Specialty.

MAURICE J. TOOHY, Catholic Undertaker.

WILLIAMS STREET, MANCHESTER, CONN. Calls attended to at all hours of day or night. Hearse and Carriages on short notice.

THE Good News Grand Range.

As the Finest Range in the Market. Ladies' Waists, very pretty and cool, 50 cents each.

The Model Grand Range.

has the Best Casting of any Range in the Market. All kinds of Jobbing at Short Notice.

HUGH MORIARTY, J.M. Burke.

South Manchester News.

VOL. 2. NO. 17. SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN., JUNE 29, 1894. FIVE CENTS.

Bang! Bang!! Bang!!! FOURTH OF JULY.

CHENEY'S STORE is right in it on Fire Crackers, Roman Candles, Sky Rockets, Torpedos, Mines, Pin Wheels, etc., etc.

EVERYBODY HAVE SOME FIREWORKS AND CELEBRATE THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Fireworks Cheapest at CHENEY'S STORE.

FOR ONE MONTH ONLY. With every pair of Ladies' Shoes sold, I will give ONE PAIR of 15 cent Fast Black Hosiery.

ROBERT J. WELDON, South Manchester Boot and Shoe Store.

FERRIS BROTHERS Have received their stock of HAYING TOOLS Hay-Rakes, Forks, Scythes, Snaths, Stones, Rifles, & Best Assortment in Town.

NEGLEGE SHIRTS. In assorted colors, 40 cents each. Regular Custom Made goods. Never sold less than 50 cents each.

SUMMER UNDERWEAR. Nice Assortment from 25 cents a garment up. NECKWEAR. NECKWEAR. Prettiest line in town. Latest tints and styles at rock bottom prices.

W. E. Gleason. An unusual number of deaths have occurred among the Catholic people of this town in the past couple of weeks.

YOUNG'S PERFUMES. IN ALL THE CHOICEST ODORS. These are the very best goods on the market.

T. WELDON & CO., Weldon's Block, Main St., South Manchester, Ct.

Summer Suitings. I have opened a choice new line of Summer Suitings of the latest patterns, and can fit you out in a nobby suit for a reasonable sum.

TOWN NEWS.

Additional local news on pages 4 and 8. Next Wednesday will be July Fourth. A daughter was born to Isaac Lennon of Wells street last Monday.

Dr. Clara M. Sweet is visiting with relatives in town. Mrs. Horace Bidwell is spending the week in Newington visiting friends.

Dr. M. S. Bradley took the third degree in masonry last Tuesday evening. The monthly meeting of the selectmen will be held Monday July 2.

A magnificent rainbow spanned the southeastern sky about 7:15 p. m. Wednesday last. Hosiery is being manufactured in a small way at Parkville in the Gaskell mill shop by Wm. P. Young.

F. B. Hale made the fishing record of the season, in as far as we know up to date, having secured 75 at one time. George Strait traded Tommy S. with R. L. Taylor for a strong, good-looking, 3-year old road horse.

Remember that there will be a dance at Jefferson's Pine Grove Pavilion Wednesday evening July 4. A daughter arrived in the household of Andrew Gardner of Highland Park last week.

John Quinn and John Coleman of Hartford were the guests of Patrick Cunningham of Birch Grove last Saturday. A large delegation went from here to New York yesterday, to attend the Yale Harvard boat race.

The quarantine for scarlet fever has been raised over north, and the premises fastaged. Fred Staged and John M. Aitkin attended the closing exercises at the Boston Conservatory of music last Saturday.

Mrs. F. D. Hale and her daughter Emma are home from Westport where they have been visiting friends. The South Manchester Wheel Club had a spin over to New Britain on wheels last Sunday.

An unusual number of deaths have occurred among the Catholic people of this town in the past couple of weeks. Miss Della I. Sheridan was graduated at the New Britain Normal School last Friday.

Get After 'Em. POTATO BUGS, Must Have PARIS GREEN or SLUG SHOT. FLIES, FLIES, FLIES.

STICKY FLY PAPER IS IN GREAT DEMAND NOW. HEADQUARTERS FOR THE ABOVE AT Cheney's Drug Store.

SUMMER GOODS AT WATKINS BROTHERS.

We are selling good Adjustable Window Screens at 20, 25 and 30 cents each. Screen Doors at 90c $1.25 and $1.50 FOR THE BEST.

Veranda Chairs at 75c and $1.00 each. Rockers Small size $1.25. Large, Comfortable Reed Rockers for $2.25.

Mattings. We have too large a stock of these goods and to close out, will sell good mattings at 18, 22, 25 and 30 cents per yard.

WATKINS BROTHERS. Millinery Flowers Ribbons

Rock Bottom Prices. Miss M. Quinn & Co., School Street, South Manchester, Ct.

SUMMER HATS. UP TO DATE

OUR SPECIAL "THE AMARANTH." New and Pretty Summer Hats. Flowers and Ribbons at Rock Bottom Prices. THE BOSTON STORE, ORFORD BUILDING, South Manchester, Ct.