PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.

Some thirty friends and neighbors called on P. A. Brink of Church street last Monday evening, and gave him a genuine surprise party. They brought along plenty of good things to eat and enjoyed themselves with music, singing, social intercourse, and a very choice collation.

QUITE A PEAR.

Dr. Maine of this place has a "Clay's Favorite" pear tree on his farm at Bolton Notch, that came into bearing this year for the first time, and although it has not many pears, those that it did bear are unusually large, and one in particular was found, on measuring, to be eleven inches in circumference, a fraction over four inches in length and weighed about fifteen ounces.

NIGHT BLOOMING CERESUS.

W. H. and Mrs. Franklin of South Main street had a rare exhibition of the beauty and fragrance of the night blooming cereus this week. They have a plant that is twelve years old, and bears six feet high, and five feet eight inches in width, and has bloomed annually since it was seven years old.

DUTIES ON SILK.

The old rate of duties on carded or combed silk was 50 cents a pound. Schedule L of the new tariff law reads as follows: "25% Silk partially manufactured from cocoons or from waste silk, and not further advanced or manufactured than carded or combed silk, twenty per centum ad valorem. Thrown silk, not more advanced than single, tram, or organzine, sewing silk, twist, floss, and silk threads or yarns of every description, and spun silk, in skeins, cones, warps, or on beams, thirty per centum ad valorem."

SOUTH MANCHESTER RAILROAD.

General Manager R. O. Cheney sent in his annual report this week to the railroad commissioners and the interstate commission for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, and we furnish the following abstracts believing they may be of interest to readers of THE NEWS.

PASSENGERS.

Total number of passengers carried 113,250, daily average 304, as against a total of 129,139 with a daily average of 354 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, making a decrease of 9,889 in the number of passengers carried in the past year, something over 1,000 a week and exactly 197 a day.

FREIGHTS.

In the past year 23,647 tons of freight have been carried as against 28,825 in 1893, a falling off in the freight traffic of 278 tons in the past year. The total number of freight cars handled during the year has been 5,118. The total number of miles freight have been hauled 1570. The number of miles passengers have been carried is 17,233. The falling off in freight is due to dull times, and in the passenger list, partly to depression in trade and partly owing to the fact that quite a number go to Burnside and take the electric cars.

Few Spanish farmers are able to read and write. An Irishman says that the best preventive for the nose-bleed is to keep your nose out of other people's business.

The city council of London is discussing the establishment of municipal parks, where money may be advanced to the poor at reasonable rates of interest.

Professor Vanbray recently lectured on the subject of "Fashionable Languages." Before the members of the Dada-Frank English Club, "English," he says, "may not be called the most fashionable language in all parts of the world."

The New York Independent states that when war broke out between China and Japan, the country applied to the United States government to protect its citizens in the other country, just as German citizens in Paris were put under the protection of the American minister during the war with Germany.

The Philadelphia Record the value and necessity of home rule for American cities receive an emphatic illustration in the statement made in the New York Constitutional Convention that the yearly revenues of New York City are $86,000,000. The total revenues of the United States in 1870 were only $50,000,000.

A medical writer suggests that the admittedly large increase in crime of violence and in suicides the past few months has been due to the fact that the security and dearness of fruit in our markets have compelled more food eating than usual. This assumes, of course, that animal food stimulates the passions and enlarges the latest beast in mankind.

Shipping cotton to the United States would seem at first glance a good deal like carrying coal to Newcastle, but, nevertheless, the exportation of forty thousand bales from the Egypt to American ports shows that the cotton business are no spectators of proverbial idleness. The Egyptian cotton coming to this country, explains the New York Dispatch, is largely taken by New England mills, which find it useful for giving a silk gloss to many textures.

Now, explains the Chicago Record, we have a new set of artificiality, one of whom has figured out that the rate of about eight millions. It is crossed by large ranges of mountains, is a well-watered and fertile country, and has a delightful mild climate. The trade is controlled chiefly by the Japanese, who possess large interests in the country, and the effort to protect the Japanese traders who live in Korea has precipitated the present crisis with China. For centuries the King of Korea has been the acknowledged vassal of the Emperor of China. The natural hostilities of the land are offset by the deplorable bad government of the people, and the interference with taxes and the civil service is patently the inefficient and corrupt system of the Chinese. Uprisings and revolts are frequent. The immediate effect of the acquisition of Korea by Japan would be an expansion of British commerce, while, on the other hand, its retention by China would mean narrowing of industry. Its control by Russia would mean commercial exclusion.

The Boston Herald remarks that man is growing lazier and lazier every year. He is living in a machine age, when his walking and his climbing, if not his eating, is done for him by some mechanical invention too obvious to be recorded. If it were not for the athletics and gymnastics it is believed the race would lose the use of its legs, as scientists say it is losing its jaws and its teeth from too much civilization. Men who used to skip up the long flights of stair of down-town buildings with a jaunty stride now complain if they are asked to walk up one. And it isn't age, either, for boys in their teens will "wait for an elevator" an hour rather than give their legs needless exercise. The result of so much level action would be horrid were there no bicycle in existence. But the "whiplash" comes "twain" for hours and says not a word when there is a saddle under him. It may be this universal wear is the real cause of the present indolence. On some new principle developed by this popular notion, otherwise able-bodied citizens now refuse to live in houses with high stories and no lifts, "and kick at any 'steps' or make any artificial track in the short, there are people who would rather risk their lives than have the grade changed on a road they would be in the habit of crossing.

JAPAN'S GREAT VICTORY. THE CHINESE ARMY UTTERLY ROUTED IN KOREA.

Sixteen Thousand Men, including the Flower of the Army, were killed in the battle of the Yalu. The Japanese army, numbering 20,000 men, defeated the Chinese army of 15,000 men in a battle fought on the Yalu river, near the Chinese and Japanese troops, in which the former were utterly routed. On the day before the battle the Chinese returned from Pong-San made a reconnaissance in force, drawing the fire of the Chinese forces, and thus exposing their position. The column fell back in good order with little loss.

By the next night all the Japanese were in position for a combined attack upon the army. The Chinese column, consisting of the 1st and 2nd divisions, the 1st and 2nd regiments, and the 1st and 2nd battalions, were routed in a battle fought on the Yalu river, near the Chinese and Japanese troops, in which the former were utterly routed. TOWN NEWS.

BALLOTS ARE CALLED FOR.

It is expected that the republican caucus for the nomination of candidates for town offices will be held next Wednesday evening, and a lively time is anticipated.

The disposition seems to be to make all the nominations by ballot, judging from numerous expressions of opinion heard, and some active "scratching" is confidently looked for.

It is much more soothing to the feelings of the average mortal to record his objections to a candidate by a secret ballot, than to stand up and be counted, particularly when the number that is willing to stand up in opposition to the influential leadership is small, as it usually is, from the fact that their stock of moral courage to stand is limited.

This "rising vote" is a most convenient parliamentary device, and is used very effectively by political leaders, wherever found.

HARVEST FESTIVAL A PINE SUCCESS.

The harvest festival of fancy work and musical jubilee conducted by the Salvation Army September 15, 16, 17 and 18, proved eminently successful and far surpassed all expectations of the influential leadership is small, as it usually is, from the fact that their stock of moral courage to stand is limited.

The people of the town were most generous in their contributions of fancy work, supplies and salable articles in general and the result was that a substantial and highly appreciated and useful display was exhibited.

The sales amounted to $110, and the expense of the affair was but $10, so that there is a net balance of $100 in the treasury, which will be needed to buy a supply of coal for the winter, meet the interest due on the indebtedness and pay for other requirements of the Army.

The musical jubilee on Monday evening was largely attended and highly appreciated and enjoyed.

Captain Lindsay feels very grateful for the generous contributions made by the people here, and wishes hereby to extend his thanks to all those who aided in any way in making the harvest festival the unexpected success that it was.

Commander William Booth of London, England will speak in Waterbury, Monday October 29 and arrangements are being made to charter the best bus to carry people from here that day, leaving on the noon train and returning at night when the meeting is over.

No doubt there are many people here besides the Salvationists who would like to hear Commander Booth, and if such there be, they would do well to make it known to Captain Lindsay of the local corps, as he is desirous of knowing how many would like to go.

In order to get a special train and a reduced rate of transportation, a certain number of passengers must be guaranteed. It is to be hoped that those interested will advise Captain Lindsay as soon as possible. This is the best business card which Commander Booth will speak. He will hold a meeting each in the afternoon and evening of the day named above.

Captain Lindsay is trying to make arrangements to bring Mrs. Bathgator Booth here to speak at a public meeting in the near future. She is said to be a very clever speaker and no doubt people in this place would be very much interested to hear her.

TO AID THE BLIND.

An entertainment and supper will be given in Cheney Hall, Thursday evening October 4, to raise funds for the "Connexion Institute and Industrial Home for the Blind."

Admission to entertainment will be free and all for the supper will be charged for the 25 cents.

The entertainment will consist of speaking, singing, recitations and instrumental music by blind people.

The supper will be under the personal supervision of Mrs. M. S. Chapman, Mrs. A. Wells Case, Mrs. W. R. Tinker, Mrs. A. G. Olson and Miss E. Keating, as representing the several churches here, and they will select such assistants as they need.

Miss Lizzie Neak of Hartford has been here this week making the necessary arrangements for the event, and requests that persons holding pledge cards, make returns of such things as they choose to contribute, to the several pastors of the churches here, as soon as convenient.

She also wishes to acknowledge the abundant generosity, kindly aid and courtesy that have been extended, and to thank one and all for the great zeal and interest manifested. Everybody is invited to attend the entertainment and supper, and help along this most deserving cause.

TAX COLLECTIONS.

The forthcoming report will show the following regarding the work of John Loomis, our tax collector.

Whole amount actually collected and paid to the town treasury up to Sept. 15, 1894, $16,428.97.

Discount of 5 percent allowed on taxes paid up to and including April 2, 1894, as by law provided, $2,278.83.

Abatement made and approved by the selectmen $274.77.

Interest paid on tax bills since April 2, 1894, $53.97.

Amount of taxes unpaid up to Sept. 15, 1894, $316.84.

As a handsome and artistic piece of potpourri, as well as a work of art, we are pleased to have it.

"THE TIGER" AT APELS.

John E. Dumas of New Haven, the celebrated young Irish comedian, will appear in the role of "The Tiger" at Ape's opera house Tuesday evening Sept. 25, in a return engagement. He is supported by a company that has been enlarged and strengthened since it was here last year, and several new specialties will be introduced. The play and players were well received here before, and the probabilities are that they will be greeted with a full house next Tuesday evening.

HOME FROM IRELAND.

James and Mrs. Ruddell and their three children returned last Saturday after a three months visit to their native home in Derry, Ireland.

They had quite a rough time on the voyage, for a couple of days they crossed on the steamer "Campania," in five days nine hours and fifty minutes. They are in excellent health and enjoyed their visit very much.

Mr. Ruddell had returned to his work in the silk mill last Wednesday. His brother, Richard Ruddell, who has been in Ireland for a year past, came back also last Saturday. They report that crops in the northern part of Ireland are good this year, excepting potatoes and apples. Mr. Ruddell had been eleven years here.

Mrs. Daniel Davidson returned after three months in Ireland last Saturday, as did also Mrs. Rachel Mahaffey and Robert Rolston. They were passengers with the Ruddell family on the "Campania."

"OLD FOLKS" SUNDAY.

The "Old Folks" meeting at the South M. E. Church last Sunday was very pleasant and successful. Some 600 people attended. Carriages were furnished for those who had no conveyances of their own and lived at considerable distances from the church. A pretty and fragrant bouquet tied up with lavender colored ribbon on which was inscribed the text of the day was presented to each of the old people.

Rev. Ed. G. H. Smith preached a sermon suitable to the occasion, and a love feast was held which the guests of the day were permitted to give reminiscences, many of which were of a very interesting character. The feature of an "Old Folks" Sunday was very much enjoyed.

A GREAT ADVANTAGE.

Whereas numerous commercial schools advertise systems of so called Actual Business College, it becomes the Hartford Business College to assert its claim of having the only genuine system of Actual Business Practice in the state.

When our students buy a bank draft on New York, they buy it at the Accountants' Bank of Peckard's Business College in New York City.

When our students order petroleum from Pittsburgh, it comes over the transportation company's lines from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

When we send a check, note or exchange to Hamilton Ontario, it actually goes over the line into Canada. We don't imagine that it does.

When we receive a consignment of goods from Des Moines to be sold on commission, it actually comes to us from the West in Iowa.

These are only a few simple illustrations to the effect that

NO IMAGINATION is entertained in any of our work but that we have Actual Business Practice in Actual Business.

THANKFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED.

THE NEW BRITAINS KNOCKED OUT.

The game of base ball at Woodland Park last Saturday afternoon between the New Britains and the home team resulted in a splendid victory for the latter, the visitors being outplayed at every point.

Fully as many persons witnessed the game of ball as the horse races, and gave encouragement to the players at every good point made.

It would have been more interesting however, if the contest had been a close one, but as a matter of fact, the New Britains were out of their class.

A comparison of the work of the two pitchers, Bowers and Roche, will demonstrate this point sufficiently. Bowers pitched two innings, 14 outs, no errors and struck out 9 men; Roche made no runs, no hits, 4 assists, no errors and put out 5 men.

But 7 hits in all were made off Bowers' delivery, while Roche was pummeled out for 14.

The New Britains scored 5 out of a possible 9 possible runs, while the home players won but two errors.

Most of the home team's runs were made on a grand standing catch of a foul fly and won a scholastic applause.

The home team had a regular "bump" consisting of three players, two of whom were the regulars, and the third was a substitute.

There was a double play by the umpire, the first of which was, that the New Britains were at the bat with a strike up on a first and second base.

The ball was hit to the pitcher, who pushed around in their bases, the striker going to first, when the umpire declared him out.

This is said to be all right under the present rules, as it is not necessary for the catcher to hold the ball or touch the striker who makes three strikes, with one on first and second bases. He is declared out under the rules by the fact of not making a hit, and even if the ball is sent into the diamond, it need not be caught by the pitcher under these conditions.

This explanation shows that the play was right, the only point about it being that there was a foul tip instead of a strike, but the umpire being back of the pitcher did not hear it and hence his decision stood. The difference in the score was so great however that it did not materially affect the game. The official score and summary follows:

The Hannum Hartford Business College, Cor. High and Asylum Sts., Hartford, Conn.

The Hartford College has been organized and successfully at work for over thirty years and there is not a feature of modern business education and practice which is not adequately represented. The various special rooms are fitted up with reference to practical work in the more prominent fields of modern trade with the addition of banking, commission and transportation departments, together with higher office work and a most satisfactory system of shorthand.

An important feature added in recent years is that represented by the INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS PRACTICE ASSOCIATION, which is composed of the leading business colleges of the United States and Canada, who are eminent for their attainments and recognized as representing the best thought of the times.

By this matured scheme of Business Practice, the students of the different colleges are brought into direct and corresponding relations through the mails. Each of these points is identified with the production of the staple commodities of its locality, and the student thus becomes acquainted with the products of each of the other localities, their distribution and consumption. A National Commerce is thus demonstrated and brought within the range of school work.

By this means of trade and correspondence between students of these Colleges instruction and practical work are combined in Transportation, Shipping, Commission, Jobbing, Wholesaling and Banking, bringing them much nearer the actual business of the world than has ever before been reached.

The Transportation Co. is conducted as a great corporation, with general offices and local stations. Abstracts of all business are reported to the central office and audited each week. Bank correspondence, exchange settlements, and other features, never before properly and accurately illustrated, are conducted successfully and in perfect harmony with Morse's Actual Business Practice.

The Hannum Hartford Business College is the only Connecticut college enjoying these advantages. There are other special features which will be found well worth the careful attention of those desiring the best results in this line. The terms of tuition have been placed from the first on a liberal basis and the high position now occupied by this institution has been won as a result of the most thorough and scientific work in this important field of commercial progress.

TOWN NEWS.

A copious rain set in on Wednesday lasting through the day and night and doing a world of good in wetting the parched earth. It will probably pass for our "line storm". Company G., C. N. G. will send a strong tug-of-war team to Rockville tomorrow to contend with a team from Company C. of Rockville at the Pitton Fire Company's field day exercises. Read what Wm. C. Brown & Co. have to say on the matter of school supplies in their new advertisement in another column.

P. A. Johnson of Chesterton, Indiana, was the guest of Rev. A. G. Olson this week. He had just returned from a visit to Sweden, coming over on the "Campania". He left for his home in the "Hoosier" state Wednesday.

Wm. Hamplins who boards with Thomas Prichard of Church street was taken to Hartford hospital Tuesday. He is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. He has a wife and seven children in Ireland.

Brother Beale of the Berlin News favored us with a copy of the premium list of the 9th annual fair of the Berlin Agricultural Society, which will take place Sept. 29 and 30th.

We are indebted to S. T. Adde of the Windsor Locks Journal for a complimentary season ticket to the nineteenth annual fair of the Suffolk Agricultural Society, which took place on the 18, 19 and 20 of September.

Go to Apel's opera house next Tuesday evening and listen to the Irish ragpipper, hear the sweet singing and see Harold Johnson of John E. Brannan and see his clever dancing, all of which will please you immensely.

The prohibitionists will hold a caucus in the town hall Monday evening, Sept. 21 at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for town officers, judges of probate, justices of the peace, representatives and also to choose a new town committee.

Richard Flavell of Astoria, Long Island City, who has been recently employed by the East River Silk company, is now occupying the position of collector for the Prudential Life Insurance Company.

Clinton Nichols of Highland Park, who recently graduated from the Hartford Hannum Business College, has secured a good position with R. G. Dun & Co., Hartford. Mr. Nichols took his business and shorthand courses and graduated with high honors.

The fall term opens at Steele's day school for girls, 14 Spring street, Hartford, Wednesday, September 26. Mr. Steele is now ready to make engagements for instruction in pianoforte playing.

Mrs. John Daley of East Windsor, mother of Bill Daley the well known horseman, died last Monday aged 84 years. She was buried in the Blue Hills cemetery, Hartford on Wednesday. W. E. Gleason attended the funeral, deceased being his grandmother. A number of acquaintances from this town were present also.

Mrs. Gibbons and her daughter Mrs. Peck and the latter's husband, Mr. Peck, all of Tallahassee, Florida, were in Boston with Mrs. R. N. Stanley last week and returned Saturday. They left for their home in Florida last Wednesday, after a two months' stay in the north.

Piccolo Vincent, who is located at the store of Hale Day & Co. on Charter Oak street, hereby gives notice that he is prepared to do harness repairing in all its branches, and furnish any new parts desired. He solicits a share of the public patronage.

C. E. House, James Joyce, O. J. Atwood, George S. Reed and a number of others from his place, whose names we did not learn, attended the bicycle races in Springfield last week, and were well repaid for their pains, as the events were among the best on record.

Robert Richmond's horse broke loose from where he was hitched at Rockville during the races last week Thursday and was not heard of again until Monday of this week. The animal had wandered away up to Tolland and was finally secured and brought home.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democratic voters of Manchester are hereby requested to assemble at the Town Hall, Friday, Sept. 28, 1894, at 8 o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates for town offices and transact any other proper business.

PER ORDER TOWN COMMITTEE.

UNCLE TOM PARADE. The parade given by Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company at noon yesterday was quite unique and attracted much attention. They had eight pretty Shetland ponies, three very handsome chariots, emblematic of "The Rock of Ages", "The Crowning of Little Eva" and "Abraham Lincoln Emancipating the Slaves", several genuine blood hounds, three bands one of white and the other of colored musicians, and all in attractive uniforms.

DID NOT BREAK IN THE DOOR.

Deputy Sheriff Treat and Constable Hall raided the James Smith place on Main street last Sunday and secured one bottle of lager beer, but did not break the door as has been stated. On the contrary Mr. Smith admitted the officers, after he had demolished a number of bottles and doubtless supposed all were broken.

GIVE THIS MATTER YOUR ATTENTION.

Women desiring to vote for school visitors at the town meeting October 1, will do well to call on the town clerk, Daniel Wadsworth, and have their names registered with him, as required by law. Those who registered last year are now entitled to vote on all questions pertaining to school matters. They may if they see fit, have their names cancelled also, and make their nominations for school visitors.

WILL SAIL TOMORROW.

Albert and Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. John Russell, Miss Anastasia Telford, and Miss Maggie Nicholson will sail from Liverpool tomorrow, September 22, for their homes in this place. They have been visiting in the old country for several weeks past. They expect to arrive here a week from tomorrow, if they have a safe voyage.

AMOS L. SPENCER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Amos L. Spencer died suddenly at the Hartford hospital yesterday morning, from heart disease. He had been there for three weeks past suffering with dropsy and other complications. His funeral will take place tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Revs. Wadsworth and Simms will officiate. Burial will be in the East cemetery. He was 67 years of age. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. A. H. Skinner and Miss May Spencer. Mrs. Amos L. Spencer herself is lying dangerously ill, and there are but slight hopes of her recovery. She was taken with hemorrhages about the time that Mr. Spencer was removed to the hospital and has been under Dr. Bradley's care.

COFFIN WINS THE NOMINATION.

An unusual amount of local interest attached to the republican nomination for governor this year, from the fact that our distinguished fellow townsman, Col. Frank W. Cheney, was one of the leading candidates and his many friends here, irrespective of party preferences, were anxious to have him nominated for the office.

Fate seemed to decree otherwise and the die was cast in favor of Owen Vincent Coffin of Middletown. (Coffin is not an euphonious name as Cheney by any means.)

The Cheney contingent was made of stern stuff and stuck faithfully to its candidate throughout the balloting contest, as the following figures will show. The first was an informal vote and the other four formal ones.

Table with 5 columns: Name, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. Rows: Coffin 153, 128, 175, 267, 280; Cheney 124, 124, 120, 128, 103; Merwin 140, 140, 151, 136, 89; Porter 87, 63, 12, 4, -; Brandegee 2, 1, -; Robinson 1, -; Simons 1, 1, -.

Public Notice.

On all whom it may concern. Upon the application of the South Manchester Light, Power and Traction Company to the selectmen of the town of Manchester, Connecticut, for the approval and acceptance of the application and plans of said company for the location of its track upon certain portions of the public highways of said town, To wit: On, through and over certain parts of Main street in said Manchester particularly described in said application and the plans accompanying it.

ORDERED, That the foregoing application be heard at the town hall in said Manchester on Monday Sept. 24 at 10 o'clock in the afternoon.

Notice of said hearing shall be given to all persons interested therein to appear if they see cause at said time and place and be heard relative thereto by publishing this order in a newspaper having a circulation in said town of Manchester at least four days before the day of said hearing.

Dated at said Manchester September 20, 1894. CLARENCE G. WATKINS, Selectman of Town of JOHN S. RILEY, 1 Manchester.

FIRST GUN FOR TEMPERANCE.

The opening temperance rally in Cheney hall last Sunday evening was very successful and brought out a large attendance. Addresses were made by Revs. Gleason, Haggerty, Biddle, Grogan, Barber and Simms; Messrs. Frank Cheney Jr., C. E. House, C. L. Bissell, Robt. Campbell, M. S. Chapman, W. S. Hutchinson and J. D. Pickles.

Many good things were said and much interest manifested in the effort to keep the open saloon out of sight. A vigorous campaign is on in favor of no license and will be kept up until the close of the polls on election day.

A large choir furnished music under the leadership of W. S. Hutchinson. E. R. Couch presided at the organ.
