TOWN NEWS.

A copious rain set in on Wednesday lasting through the day and night and doing a world of good in wetting the parched earth. It will probably pass for our "line storm".

Company G., C. N. G. will send a strong tug-of-war team to Rockville tomorrow to contend with a team from Company C. of Rockville at the Pitton Fire Company's field day exercises.

Read what Wm. C. Brown & Co. have to say on the matter of school supplies in their new advertisement in another column.

P. A. Johnson of Chesterton, Indiana, was the guest of Rev. A. G. Olson this week. He had just returned from a visit to Sweden, coming over on the "Campania". He left for his home in the "Hoosier" state Wednesday.

Wm. Hamplins who boards with Thomas Prichard of Church street was taken to Hartford hospital Tuesday. He is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. He has a wife and seven children in Ireland.

Brother Beale of the Berlin News favored us with a copy of the premium list of the 9th annual fair of the Berlin Agricultural society, which will take place Sept. 29 and 30th.

We are indebted to S. T. Adde of the Windsor Locks Journal for a complimentary season ticket to the nineteenth annual fair of the Suffolk Agricultural Society, which took place on the 18, 19 and 20 of September.

Go to Apel's opera house next Tuesday evening and listen to the Irish ragpipper, hear the sweet singing and see Harold Johnson of John E. Brannan and see his clever dancing, all of which will please you immensely.

The prohibitionists will hold a caucus in the town hall Monday evening, Sept. 24 at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for town officers, judges of probate, justices of the peace, representatives and also to choose a new town committee.

Richard Flavell of Astoria, Long Island City, who has been recently employed by the East River Silk company, is now occupying the position of collector for the Prudential Life Insurance Company.

Clinton Nichols of Highland Park, who recently graduated from the Hartford Hannum Business College, has secured a good position with R. G. Dun & Co., Hartford. Mr. Nichols took his business and shorthand courses and graduated with high honors.

The fall term opens at Steele's day school for girls, 14 Spring street, Hartford, Wednesday, September 26. Mr. Steele is now ready to make engagements for instruction in pianoforte playing.

Mrs. John Daley of East Windsor, mother of Bill Daley the well known horseman, died last Monday aged 84 years. She was buried in the Blue Hills cemetery, Hartford on Wednesday. W. E. Gleason attended the funeral, deceased being his grandmother. A number of acquaintances from this town were present also.

Mrs. Gibbons and her daughter Mrs. Peck and the latter's husband, Mr. Peck, all of Tallahassee, Florida, were in Boston with Mrs. R. N. Stanley last week and returned Saturday. They left for their home in Florida last Wednesday, after a two months' stay in the north.

Piccolo Vincent, who is located at the store of Hale Day & Co. on Charter Oak street, hereby gives notice that he is prepared to do harness repairing in all its branches, and furnish any new parts desired. He solicits a share of the public patronage.

C. E. House, James Joyce, O. J. Atwood, George S. Reed and a number of others from his place, whose names we did not learn, attended the bicycle races in Springfield last week, and were well repaid for their pains, as the events were among the best on record.

Robert Richmond's horse broke loose from where he was hitched at Rockville during the races last week Thursday and was not heard of again until Monday of this week. The animal had wandered away up in Tolland and was finally secured and brought home.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democratic voters of Manchester are hereby requested to assemble at the Town Hall, Friday, Sept. 28, 1894, at 7 o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates for town offices and transact any other proper business.

PER ORDER TOWN COMMITTEE.

UNCLE TOM PARADE.

The parade given by Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company at noon yesterday was quite unique and attracted much attention. They had eight pretty Shetland ponies, three very handsome chariots, emblematic of "The Rock of Ages", "The Crowning of Little Eva" and "Abraham Lincoln Emancipating the Slaves", several genuine blood hounds, three bands one of white and the other of colored musicians, and all in attractive uniforms.

DID NOT BREAK IN THE DOOR.

Deputy Sheriff Treat and Constable Hall raided the James Smith place on Main street last Sunday and secured one bottle of lager beer, but did not break the door as has been stated. On the contrary Mr. Smith admitted the officers, after he had demolished a number of bottles and doubtless supposed all were broken.

GIVE THIS MATTER YOUR ATTENTION.

Women desiring to vote for school visitors at the town meeting October 1, will do well to call on the town clerk, Daniel Wadsworth, and have their names registered with him, as required by law. Those who registered last year are now entitled to vote on all questions pertaining to school matters. They may if they see fit, have their names cancelled also, and make their nominations for school visitors.

WILL SAIL TOMORROW.

Albert and Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. John Russell, Miss Anastasia Telford, and Miss Maggie Nicholson will sail from Liverpool tomorrow, September 22, for their homes in this place. They have been visiting in the old country for several weeks past. They expect to arrive here a week from tomorrow, if they have a safe voyage.

AMOS L. SPENCER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Amos L. Spencer died suddenly at the Hartford hospital yesterday morning, from heart disease. He had been there for three weeks past suffering with dropsy and other complications. His funeral will take place tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Revs. Wadsworth and Simms will officiate. Burial will be in the East cemetery. He was 67 years of age. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. A. H. Skinner and Miss May Spencer. Mrs. Amos L. Spencer herself is lying dangerously ill, and there are but slight hopes of her recovery. She was taken with hemorrhages about the time that Mr. Spencer was removed to the hospital and has been under Dr. Bradley's care.

COFFIN WINS THE NOMINATION.

An unusual amount of local interest attached to the republican nomination for governor this year, from the fact that our distinguished fellow townsman, Col. Frank W. Cheney, was one of the leading candidates and his many friends here, irrespective of party preferences, were anxious to have him nominated for the office.

Fate seemed to decree otherwise and the die was cast in favor of Owen Vincent Coffin of Middletown. (Coffin is not an euphonious name as Cheney by any means.)

The Cheney contingent was made of stern stuff and stuck faithfully to its candidate throughout the balloting contest, as the following figures will show. The first was an informal vote and the other four formal ones.

HOME MARKET.

Hubbard squash have made their appearance in the local market. The new cranberry crop is now being delivered.

The lucious and highly prized Delaware grape is now on sale.

A novelty in basket grapes is a mixture of Delaware and Niagara arranged in bunches. They look quite pretty and are as good as they appear.

Butter and eggs are still increasing in price.

Georgia Watermelons are out of sight.

The oyster will be in vogue with the advent of cooler weather.

Hubbard Squash, 10 to 12c each. Egg Plant, 10 to 12c each. Red Tomatoes, 10 to 12c each.

It was a blank for both teams in the first inning. The home team made two runs, giving the home team the lead for the first time in the game.

The seventh inning made short work for both sides without increasing the scores.

In the eighth and ninth innings the Bristol team made two runs each while the South Manchester scored nothing.

The game passed off very pleasantly and without much jangling, although some decisions that were eminently unrighteous with that official, they did not object to enter into any wordy war with him.

The audience treated the players quite respectfully, and while the game was on in its merits, still the Bristol score would not have been so high within several points had fair decisions been made.

WOMEN OF THE WEST.

In some things ahead of their Eastern sisters.

An Oklahoma Girl Who Rivals Her Countrywomen in Her Character—A Frontierswoman who has become a Conqueror of a City of the West.

While the women of the east are distinguishing themselves by entering the professions and trades alongside husbands and financial reward by their efforts, those of the prairie are not behind in the race for prominence.

They have done much in the earlier days, and in the present are attracting attention by their unobscured adoption of the situation and making themselves mistresses of current events wherever they may be placed.

Such is the case with Miss Minnie Duval, who is known in the Cherokee strip as "the Oklahoma girl" and whose name has been spread far and wide by the influx of new-comers.

The Duval family entered the territory, the daughter was but a year old. Now she is 20. In the good green of the Cherokee strip, near Muskogee, she was allowed to settle on Sawlog creek and made her home in the land of the redskins.

Her father, Mr. Duval, started in 1825 with 25 cattle. They have increased to over 300 and a large herd of horses. Minnie is the only child, and though so young is her father's chief assistant.

She has a large herd of horses. Minnie is the only child, and though so young is her father's chief assistant. She has a large herd of horses.

Her duties frequently take her a score or more miles from home, as the cattle must be kept in the mountains and in the middle of the creek where they graze and where they drink. There comes the hardest part of the work.

With true cowboy skill she can throw a lasso and catch a leaping horse, while the other end of the long but pliantly strong rawhide rope is fastened to the post of the corral.
